“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1: 68-75;

“And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet, for nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. And then shall many be offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another. And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold. But he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.” (Matthew)

IS WAR COMING? Last month I posed the question about war. Since then we have witnessed President Reagan trying to provoke Libya into starting another war. Now I know the media are telling us that Col. Gadhafi is a terrorist, and should be stopped at all costs, but is the situation not similar to Pearl Harbour which was set up as an open invitation to Japanese attack? At that time the then President Roosevelt needed an incident which would cause the American people to want to enter WW 2. Pearl Harbour achieved that.

The media tells us that the Americans only responded to being fired upon, and in so doing killed about 200 Libyans. Yet what was the American response to the Russians shooting down flight 007 in 1983, which was (coaxed) off course? They did NOTHING ABOUT IT! And what was done about the Israeli attack on the USS Liberty, which was under attack for more than two hours, killing 34 Americans and wounding 171 others, while inflicting 821 rocket and machine-gun holes in the ship, while in International waters?

Even after Israeli forces machine-gunned her life rafts, and then tried to finish the job by sending in troop carrying helicopters, was the whole incident hushed up. In fact the US government imposed a news blackout to keep the story under control. (June 1967). So for this incident with Libya to receive the publicity that it did, including comments from American citizens that President Reagan did the right thing only goes to show, that is what people were meant to think!

In this case the American government (not the nation) should be severely criticised for its hypocrisy. Is this action required in order to push the Arabs closer to communism? It seems strange that the media, who condemned the pro-western anti-communist President Marcos of the Philippines, is the same media who condemns Col. Gadhafi.

ACTS OF GOD! Years ago, while we still lived in South Australia, I remember hearing about Queensland calling for a state-wide Day of Prayer, because the state was suffering from a drought. Well no doubt since then there have been many more, as well as floods and cyclones etc., with the recent cyclone “Winifred” being a good example. Just over a month after the cyclone, we heard about a storm wreaking havoc down in the southeast of the state.

Lots of farmers, who were already in difficulty because of the corrupt money system, were hit even harder by crop destruction caused by these “natural disasters.” Years ago, even insurance companies would have called them “Acts of God” It seems that today that phrase is out of fashion, as are the state-wide Days of Prayer.

Perhaps we could take a lesson from America, in that, even with all the sin and corruption that is prevalent over there, they still hold a National Day of Thanksgiving (27 Nov. 1986). This feast is one of the Bible commanded feast days, which was called in the Old Testament "The Feast of Ingathering" (Exodus 23) and should therefore be remembered by Christians. Bible commanded feast days are of course not the ones commonly celebrated by Christians. They have substituted pagan feasts and given them Christian names. However, that will not make them fit the Bible commanded days. (More information may be had by hearing the tapes "Is Christmas Christian?" and also "Is Easter Christian?")

So, it could very well be this nation's unthankful attitude towards the God of Israel which is responsible for Him sending all these "natural disasters" upon us. There are thousands of preachers who tell our people "Jesus loves you" or "Something good is going to happen to you." But I cannot help feeling they belong to the category referred to in the verse from Matthew above.

The Bible says "THUS SAITH THE LORD OF HOSTS, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of the Lord. They say still unto them that despise me, The Lord hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto everyone that walketh after the imagination of his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. For who hath stood in the counsel of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard his word? Who hath marked his word and heard it?

"Behold, a whirlwind of the Lord is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. The anger of the Lord shall not return, until he has executed, and till he has performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it perfectly. I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings." Jeremiah 23

So it would appear that both the clergy and the civil rulers share the responsibility for the nation turning away from God. The clergy for not teaching God's Holy and Just Law. The civil rulers for passing unScriptural and antiChristian laws. The Bible says to execute homosexuals; the government says "do not discriminate against them." The Bible says "He that sheddeth man's blood, by man shall his blood be shed"; the government says, "We will give him a license to perform abortions." It's no wonder that child abuse is on the increase, as the ultimate child abuse is not only permitted but actually promoted. God says, "You shall not lend anything at interest", and while there are thousands of people losing farms and homes because of this corrupt money system, the government tries to raise the interest on home loans.

I am surprised by the number of people, who, while they may have good intentions, will not turn to God's Word for the solution to the problem. Now there are some who are advocating a "Debt-Moratorium", a postponement or a period of breathing space before TRYING to repay the debt in the future. We are told: "A Moratorium will NOT relieve a Debtor of his responsibility to repay the debt." That is why we need God's Law, which CANCELS debt every seventh year, instead of a moratorium.

We are told that loans at 4% would be very useful. I agree that 4% would be better than the existing rate, but God's Word says NO INTEREST! Perhaps some of our farmers who are trying to get some assistance from the Federal Government would stand a better chance if they lived in the Philippines, as foreign aid seems to be pretty substantial.

THE ANATOMY OF CHAIN LETTER ECONOMICS: Money loaned at only 3% compounded only annually, will double in 23 years and 162.81 days, or less than 23.5 years. One dollar at only 3% interest from the birth of Christ to the present would increase fantastically as shown below:

The system under which we live, wherein interest is paid on money created out of nothing, is the most ruthless bond master the world has ever known. Unless it is changed we will face complete loss of freedom under a world dictatorship. Strange to say, the United States has no system more rational than the chain letter economics illustrated above. - A. E. Hancock, Raymond, Alberta.

THE BIBLICAL CONNECTION REVISITED

"He sees the world from a different point of view," one of the good counsellors to Acres USA pointed out, mentioning a scientist who twice promised and twice backed away from an Acres USA conference appearance.

"You view the streets and the podium as perfectly safe places. He sees them as traps that could put him behind the Iron Curtain again. Don't be so hard on people who view the world so differently."

The above thoughts came to mind when the paper that follows appeared in the mail. We have scrutinised Bible economics before, but never in the terms of the absolutes stated here. And yet, it seems, we feel impelled to say ourselves, "One moment please". Does it hurt to put these observations on the table, even if some readers - foreign or domestic, and in different cultures - fail to identify with the insight, or lack thereof, expressed here? We think not.

A couple of months ago we ran a "Last Word" entry by a socialist with our comments attached, even though I believe socialism to be an irrational idea. Why? Because the report contained ideas and comments we would easily claim as our own. Much the same is true of this little article by Mike Brown. Read it and relate to easily available observations.

"On April 19, 1775 the Gordon Kahls and Arthur Kirks of their day met and defeated a contingent of the British Army at Lexington and Concord. A little over a year later the colonists, appealing to the "Supreme Judge of all the world," signed the Declaration of Independence. The stories of George Washington going down on his knees and asking the Supreme Judge for help throughout the war are known to everyone.

Four days after the Declaration was signed every church bell in the thirteen colonies pealed with the announcement, including a 2800 pound monster known as the Liberty Bell that had the following inscription upon it:

"Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof." (Leviticus 25:10) George Washington was sworn in as first President of the United States on April 30, 1789. Washington, like every President since, took his oath to support, uphold, and defend the Constitution of the United States with his hand resting on an open Bible.

This same oath, or a variation of it, is taken by every congressman and almost every locally-elected law-enforcement official or judge in the United States. As even a casual observer can recognize, no one in any position of authority, Congressmen, and almost every locally-elected law-enforcement official, etc., takes his oath seriously. Some Congressmen even laugh about it.

Big mistake!

The problem with appealing to the Supreme Judge for help is that, in legal terms, you are acknowledging His jurisdiction. Taking an oath, and then welsling on that oath while laughing about it, may have unforeseen consequence for the scoffers. The Supreme Judge may not be equally amused.

Another problem with placing one's hand on an open Bible to swear an oath is that the reciter, like it or not, is de facto acknowledging that the rules laid down in that book are valid.

Another big mistake.

In fact, ignoring those rules is going to cause a severe depression in 1988 and World War III, or the beginnings of it, sometime late the next year.

Here's how it works: Almost everyone is familiar with Leviticus 25: 1-7, the rule to let the land lie fallow (rest) every seventh year. What is less well known is that every seven times seven years the land is to lie fallow for two years (Leviticus 15: 11), which is minor compared to the real zinger: all farmers must have their farms returned to them free and clear at the beginning of the fiftieth year.

If the lending agency took the farm, too bad: the Supreme Judge says to give it back at the beginning of the fiftieth year, (Leviticus 25: 10). Or else! It's not a multiple choice option. This would also apparently include the freeing of all prisoners convicted of offenses not punishable under Biblical law by death (such as rape, murder, kidnapping, homosexuality, and the like), Leviticus 25: 10. But that the land return applies primarily to farmers is evident. (Leviticus 25: 29-30)

The obvious question next is, how do those of us, who still recognize the jurisdiction of the Supreme Judge, recognize the "Year of the Jubilee," or the forty-ninth year? The first indication is that the United States became a nation in 1789. If we use that date to pinpoint fifty year increments we get 1839, 1889, 1939, and 1989. 1939 was a Jubilee year and we all know what happened at the end of that one. If we then backtrack from the forty-ninth year to 1988, we should be able to pinpoint the years the land should have rested in increment of seven years, or 1981, 1974, 1967, 1960, 1953, and 1946. Some of you may remember we had recessions in each of those years.

Had the land been allowed to rest during those years the surplus agricultural production would have been used up and farmers would not have continued to push more crops into an already saturated market. The insect life cycle would have been broken, eliminating the need for pesticides.

Don't expect any of our "elected representatives" or any of their partners in crime (judges, bureaucrats, etc.) to give God's Laws any more than a passing thought.

Until it's too late!

Our present system treats homosexuals as an endangered species. The Supreme Judge orders their execution, (Leviticus 20: 13 0. Our present system protects the money changers in every way imaginable, from income tax deductions for interest paid to farm foreclosures to protect lending agency profits.

The Supreme Judge forbids usury in any way, shape or form, (Leviticus 25:36-37). Our present system scrupulously protects and nurtures murderers, such as abortionists and terrorists who blow hundreds of innocent Arab women and children into chunks. Our present system treats lawyers as a privileged class even though Jesus Christ Himself warned about them, (Luke 11: 46).

The list is almost endless. The Supreme Judge, when He holds court, dispenses famine, pestilence, and war when He pronounces sentence. What He does is described in Leviticus 26 and how He does it is described in all the books of the prophets, with the exception of the book of Jonah. The people of Nineveh shaped up and got probation.

So what will happen to us? We could avoid the coming evils by obeying all of God's Laws, (This is how to avoid the looming catastrophe! CIM) starting with giving the farmers back their land. In order to do this both major political parties would have to be destroyed, since all (Republicans and Democrats) serve their political parties" not the voters who put them in office, and certainly do not acknowledge the Supreme Judge.

No man can serve two masters.

Once the present crop of rascals were booted out the corruption in the courts could be dealt with in short order: Congress has the right to determine how many justices can sit on the Supreme Court (put a dozen God-fearing men alongside the present incredible and that problem is simply over with) and create or dissolve the Federal courts of inferior jurisdiction.

However, this isn't going to happen. What is actually going to happen is this: 1987 will be a year for bumper crops. This is the year that everyone should be buying food to store for three years, (Leviticus 25: 21-22) No-one will. 1988 will bring a tremendous depression as both farmers and manufacturers continue to dump their products into a satiated market. More than likely the Soviet Union will experience massive crop failures, leading to the events written by Ezekiel in chapters 38 and 39 and described by a Reverend Pitts on the floor of Congress on February 3, 1857, namely a Russian invasion of the United States.

Mike Brown. Box 88 Draper, Utah, 84020 USA.

(Reverend Pitts' two sermons to Congress are available in one booklet for $3.60 posted. More info on this subject is also contained in Pastor Emry's book, "The Bible say Russia will Invade America and be Defeated." $2.30 posted. Order from CIM)

Sometime in these years the AIDS epidemic will reach staggering proportions. Famine, pestilence, and war. In the tenth day of the seventh month (the Biblical year starts in March [Spring or Autumn Equinox, CIM]) of the fiftieth year the Jubilee begins, October 25, 1989. The word Jubilee in the Hebrew has a double meaning. It can be either an acclamation of joy or a battle-cry. Look for us to be in the middle of World War III by sometime late in 1989.

Within less than 48 months we will be able to observe first-hand how the Supreme Judge passes sentence on a disobedient nation. Famine, pestilence, and war!

PASTOR EMBRY'S TAPES PROVE MOST CHURCHES TEACH FALSE DOCTRINE. Anyone listening to the late Pastor Embry's tapes will see the truth of the following:

1. Other races existed before the Adam and Eve of Genesis 2.
2. Adam and Eve were the first of the White, or Adamic Race (our Race, "Man" not "Hu-man").
3. The Noahic flood was limited in area and did not destroy all the other Races.
4. The Bible is the book of Adam's Race.
5. God then chose for Himself a "special" people, Jacob's descendants (Israel).
6. God married Israel at Sinai.
7. Israel was later divorced, dispersed, lost the name "Israel", and migrated into Europe, centuries before the "Jews" were dispersed in 70 AD.
8. Modern "Jews" are descendants of Jacob's brother, Esau (Edom).
9. Most northern and western European peoples are descended from dispersed Israelites.
10. North America, therefore, not Palestine, is the land of Israel's "regathering and restoration".
11. The attempt by "Red communism" to destroy "White Christianity" is really Esau's war against his brother, Jacob-Israel.
12. Red Esau is therefore "Mystery Babylon" and is now making war on "the saints" (Israel).

If all of the above are true, and they are, then there is no "secret rapture" because most Christians are Israelites, and instead of being "raptured", Israel is already in "The Great Tribulation" prophesied for end-time Israel. We look forward to being saved from Red Esau and delivered into Christ's Kingdom NOT to being "raptured to heaven."

Read that list over again. 999 out of every 1,000 ministers in America deny every one of those truths! If you can't effectively expound the above truths, you need our tapes to help you "...study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing (expounding) the word of truth." You need to help bring your Israelite Race out of the delusions of Red Babylon. At the very least, you need to come out of Red Esau's false churches and re-join true Israel!

If you would like to "test" our cassette ministry, write for some sample loan tapes. The loan tape ministry is operated on a free will basis. However, we do need offerings from each participant to take care of expenses.

WHO WAS THE TEMPTER OF THE HUMAN RACE?

By John R. Fiske Jr.

Part 3.

1. Luke 20:36 says the risen saints are "equal" to "the angels." If angels are omnipresent, then they, being their "equals," are omnipresent. But since the risen saints must "come from" certain places to "sit down" with the fathers (Matthew 8: 11), it is certain they cannot be omnipresent. If not, then it is certain their "equals" - "the angels" - cannot be omnipresent.

Since "the angels" are "with" Christ when he "shall come" (Matthew 16:27), if His coming is a change of place, then so is theirs. Hebrews 10: 37 (Rotherham) says: "Yet a little while and he that shall come will be here." If "here" again, then necessarily there is a change of place. If so, then since "the angels" are "with" Him, theirs, too, is a change of place. Then they are not omnipresent.

In conclusion, since "all" angels are "sent forth" at times to the "heirs of salvation (Hebrews 1:14), it follows that "all" of them are localized in their presence. Then if the super-tempter be a fallen angel, he, too, is localized in his presence and cannot be the tempter of all humanity.

2. If there be a supernatural tempter, the tempter of all humanity, then in order to tempt successfully two billion persons in two billion places in the same moment of time, he must necessarily be omniscient. Since it is contended he is a fallen angel, if angels are omniscient, then so is he. If they are not, then he is not; and the theory combatted is rendered untenable. From the evidence submitted, it is plain that angels are limited in knowledge.

Let us examine Genesis 18: 21 again. Here the angel said: "I will go down now (to Sodom) and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry which is come unto me; and if not, I will know." Here, in order to "know," he must go "down"; hence it is evident he was limited in knowledge. Daniel 7: 10 (Moffatt) confirms the foregoing by showing in order for the "millions of angels" to know what was in "the books," they had to be "opened."

Mark 13: 32 declares that the angels do not know of "that day" or "that hour". 1 Peter 1: 13 and Daniel 8: 13; 12: 5-6 speak of certain "things" which "the angels desire to look into." But why, if they are omniscient? In view of these reasons, it becomes a certainty that angels are limited in knowledge. Then, if the super-tempter be a fallen angel, he too, is limited in knowledge, and he cannot be the tempter of all humanity.

3. If there be a super-tempter, then he has lived for thousands of years. Having tempted all humanity for ages, he knows thoroughly all their weak and strong points. This being true, what chance of successful resistance would a puny mortal of ten, twenty or eighty years have against such a foe? None whatever! He would be irresistible! Establishing this point and the unconditional salvation of all men becomes a necessity. Recently, a minister was convicted of rape against a sixteen year old girl, and said, "Hereafter my battle is with the Devil." Base subterfuge!! God for his crime will send the bill to him!!!

4. If there be a super-tempter, then who tempted him to sin? If his tempter was strictly his own passions, and they were sufficient to cause him to sin, then could not our passions be our tempter and sufficient to induce us to sin?

5. Here is a man who has an excellent stand of growing wheat. Knowing beforehand what the results will be, he deliberately sows into it a plant that will destroy two thirds of his wheat. Surely we would regard this as a very unwise procedure. Then what shall we think of God, who is able to read the future of any if He sees fit, who would deliberately "manufacture" a supernatural devil who would ruin eternally one third of His angelic creation and probably nine tenths of His human creation? Surely wisdom, love, justice, and mercy would forbid the creation of such a monster!

6. The law of self-preservation stands opposed to the idea of a super-tempter. It permeates the entire animal kingdom, and to a certain extent, the vegetable. Each specie has its own method of self-defence. Step on a worm and it will recoil. Strike a dog and it will bite. Hit a man and he will hit back. The same law prompts all to so act.

Here is an animal, a dog for instance, who has been so carefully trained that except under certain conditions it will refuse its own particular type of food. But the animal is starving. Its own particular type of food is placed before it, but the conditions permitting its eating the food are absent. A conflict at once arises between its training - the law of its master - and what shall we say, a super-tempter, or its natural desire for food. Are we not safe in saying the latter? If the animal yields to it, it transgresses the law of its master.

So it is with the specie known as "man." Ignorant of the Father's "law" he is considered only "as a beast with God" (Psalm 73: 22, margin Psalm 49: 20). But he comes under training; he learns the Father's "law," known as "the law of faith," "law of the Spirit," etc., and is taught that even food must be eaten under certain conditions ethically. But the man is starving. Food is placed before him, but not under conditions, permitted by the law of the Father. A conflict at once arises between the man's training - the law of his master - and what shall we say, a super-tempter, or the man's desire for food? Are we not safe in saying the latter? If so, the man, as did the dog, yields to it, transgresses the law of his Master, and sin is produced.

What is true of hunger is equally true of every desire man may have. In "every case," we see, as the Apostle declared, "...men are tempted by their own passions."

7. The law of heredity stands opposed to a super-tempter. This law permeates the entire animal and vegetable kingdoms. It is recognized by agriculturists everywhere. In the vegetable kingdom, through careful selection of seed, the quality of grains, fruits, and grasses have been greatly improved. We have the seedless orange, the thornless rose, etc., thus produced.

By choosing an opposite course - selecting for each crop the poorest seed produced - any grain, fruit, or grass can be made to deteriorate. These are well-demonstrated laws of nature. In the animal world, heredity is no less well marked. Every type of animal through careful selection can be improved as to size, quality, and desirability. The primitive horse was the size of the dog. Some now weigh more than a ton. The dog, through complying with heredity's laws, may be decreased in size and weight to that of a few ounces, as the Pekinese; or increased so as to weigh hundreds of pounds. So it is to a greater or lesser degree, with all species.

As to mentality or disposition, heredity plays a great part. Through it, some animals of a given specie may be gentle, obedient, and intelligent; others, vicious, wild, and even idiotic. The writer's brother had a mare that was balky. He raised a number of colts from her. All these were balky. From breachy cattle come breachy offspring. Heredity thus decides to a great extent their size, quality, mind, and behaviour. So it is with that specie of animal known as "man." Heredity plays a great part in determining his physical, mental, and moral characteristics.

As to the physical, giants produce giants, dwarfs, dwarfs, etc., etc. Color of eyes hair and skin, or any physical trait, may through heredity be reproduced an almost infinite number of times. A village in Spain is made up of inhabitants who each possess twelve fingers and twelve toes. They feel proud of this, and maintain it by intermarriage.

As to mental traits, the results of 'heredity are not less marked. Idiots, the hopelessly insane, are forbidden to marry in many states; for in too many instances the children of such marriages are of a low order mentally. On the other hand, the Ptolemy's through incestuous marriages maintained their intellectual brilliance for centuries. It has been well said that to produce an intellectual genius one must commence with the fifth generation that precedes him.

Moral traits likewise are inherited. Some are natural born liars, thieves, or murderers. The tendencies to do these unlawful acts are inherited. Some inherit vicious tempers, uncontrollable desires; others inherit natures so mild and genial that it is hard for them to do a wrong. In view of these many reasons, the law of heredity stands squarely opposed to the theory of a super-tempter inducing all men in all ages and conditions to sin.

We are forced to agree with the Apostle James that the tempter "in every case" is one's "own passions;" and the seven reasons given clearly show the doctrine of a super-tempter to be unScriptural, unreasonable, and opposed to human experience.

REPENTANCE, RESISTANCE, RECONSTRUCTION

By Dr. Everett Sileven

AMERICA - SAVE IT OR SUFFER

The retreat of the fundamental and evangelical preachers of America from the battle to save America out of the clutches of secular humanism is worse than the first "fright flight" from Gideon's thirty-two thousand. I have heard all the excuses:

"We don't deal with the issues; we just preach the gospel."

"We fight for America from the pulpit by preaching against adultery, drugs, abortion, sodomy, pornography, and other evils of society."

Like I said, I've heard the EXCUSES! If your idea of saving America is preaching only salvation, building churches, and then fighting sin in the personal life, then, there is no religious persecution in the world, because you can do all of those things in Russia, China, Poland, and other countries without going to jail. All you have to do is accept a license. People are not persecuted for preaching and telling their religious values as long as they do not try to practice those values in life.

Parents do not go to jail for believing in Christian education, nor even for preaching it. They go to jail and lose their children for practicing it. Christians do not go to jail for preaching against sodomy and abortion. People go to jail when they try to resist its practice when God has informed us to do so.

It is not possible to avoid religious discrimination and persecution. Either the disciples of the religion of secular humanism will persecute and restrict the spread of Christianity and theism, or Christians will discriminate and restrict the practice of secular humanism.

For example, the religion of secular humanism teaches that a mother should have the right to abort her babies. This infringes and discriminates against the Christian because the Christian believes he will be held accountable to God for allowing murder to exist in his country. Consequently, either the secular humanist mother is restricted by Christian law or Christians are restricted by secular humanist law.

Another example would be that the secular humanists believe that the state is responsible for child training. Therefore, by law they try to force feed a humanistic philosophy to the child in government or religious controlled schools. Christians believe that they are held accountable to God for the training of their children, and therefore, by law, try to restrict secular humanists from getting their children.

America was definitely founded on the Christian moral ethic. At one time in our country murderers, abortionists, rapists, sodomites and traitors were executed. Churches were unlicensed, unregistered, untaxed, and left alone. Today, however, the secular humanists have taken over the seminary, the press, the school, and yes, even government. Therefore, the secular humanist is legislating and enforcing his religious views in America. That means persecution and suffering for Christians in America.

How did this happen? In the mid 1800's the secular humanists set down an agenda, a plan, a program of how to get from where they were in the 1800's, basically a Christian nation, to where they wanted to be in the future, basically a secular humanistic, atheistic one-world state. They knew that in order to get there, it would require a capture of the educational process, the media, the press, the church, and the government. They have done well, but only because the Christians have retreated.

We must save America from these forces of atheistic secular humanism or continue to suffer at the altar of the law enforcement by these humanists.

GOD IS MERCIFUL! Some of you have already heard, but for those who haven't, on the 8th of March while working inside our shed, drilling some holes for pop rivets, I fell from about ten feet sideways onto the concrete floor, and some wooden boxes. My right arm was broken at the wrist, and my hand, wrist and forearm looked like the letter "Z".

The 1/8th drill bit was broken, and 3/4 of an inch of it was imbedded in my right temple, in the jaw muscle. I also suffered lacerations to the left leg, requiring ten stitches. I was taken by ambulance to the Tully hospital, where I was admitted, because they wanted to make sure that I did not get a bone infection, as one of the bones had come out through the skin. I was allowed to go home on Monday afternoon, and have been trying to do odd things using my left hand. We thank God that it was not more serious, and look to Him for healing mercy.

Since coming home from hospital, we also had a transformer burn out in the photocopier. So if some of you experience some delay in getting Bible Law Lessons, or other materials, you now know the reasons for these delays. By the time you read this, the copier should be working again, although it will still take a while to catch up.

THE CITY OF GOD

1. Glorious things of thee are spoken,
Zion city of our God;
He whose word cannot be broken
Formed thee for His own abode;
On the Rock of Ages founded.
What can shake thy sure repose?
With Salvation's walls surrounded
Thou may'st smile at all thy foes.
5. Saviour, if of Zion's city
I, through grace, a member am,
Let the world deride or pity,
I will glory in thy name.
Fading is the worldling's pleasure,
All his boasted pomp and show;
Solid joys and lasting treasure
None but Zion's children know!

WORLD MONETARY SYSTEM CONSIDERED. Will an international monetary commission dictate U.S. domestic policy? Will the United States surrender a significant amount of sovereignty to such a group in yet another giant step toward world government? (The Spotlight December 9, 1986)

CHANGE NEEDED? Lloyd Cutler, a high-power Washington lawyer and former counsel to President Jimmy Carter is leading the charge to scrap the Constitution. Cutler, a member of the Rockefeller-controlled Trilateral Commission, recently levelled his latest attack on the Constitution. "Some of us have concluded there isn't much wrong with the people - there is something wrong with the structure," he said. (The Spotlight)

WAR CRIMES: America passed the "Genocide Convention" after debating it for over 36 years. The ramifications are scary. It places America in a similar situation to West Germany, and Canada. Cases like James Keegstra and Ernst Zundel could now become commonplace in the United States.

A CONSTITUTIONAL COMMISSION has been formed to carry out a fundamental review of the Australian Constitution, involving extensive consultation with the public, and to report by June 30, 1988.

The Commission will be chaired by Sir Maurice Byers QC, the former Commonwealth Solicitor-General, and will include five other distinguished members Mr E.G. Whitlam QC, Sir Rupert Hamer, Mr Justice Toohey, of the Federal Court of Australia, Professor Leslie Zines of the Australian National University and Professor Enid Campbell of Monash University.

The Attorney-General, Mr Bowen, said that the Commission would be assisted by advisory committees which would examine:

- ❖ executive government;
- ❖ distribution of powers;
- ❖ trade and national economic management;
- ❖ individual and democratic rights under the constitution; and
- ❖ the Australian judicial system.

A further $7.5million in aid for a forestry project in Nepal would be provided over the next five years, said Mr Hayden.

BIBLE LAW QUIZ

Read Deuteronomy 10.

1. Who wrote the Ten Commandments on the tablets of stone?
  - a) Yes
  - b) No
2. The liberals tell us it is wrong to discriminate. In verse 8 God chose the tribe of Levi. Was God discriminating against the other tribes of Israel?
  - a) Yes
  - b) No
3. In verse 15 we are reminded that God chose our father Abraham and his seed after him. Was God discriminating against all other men on the face of the earth?
  - a) Yes
  - b) No
4. In verse 17 it states that God "regardeth not persons" What does this mean?
  - a) All men are equally subject to His Law
  - b) God doesn't discriminate
  - c) The Bible contradicts itself (Acts 10: 34)

REMEMBER! Read Deuteronomy 28 and Leviticus 26 and ask yourself, 'Is the BILL OF RIGHTS THE ACE IN BIG BROTHER'S HAND, or the ROD in God's hand? Why are hardworking Australians being ruined? Why are farmers being victimised? Why is our country going bankrupt?'

BECAUSE AS A NATION WE HAVE DISOBEYED THE LAWS OF GOD ALMIGHTY!

That is the one and only reason for ALL our national problems and calamities. We HAVE looked, will YOU LISTEN?

AMP: For those who are concerned about being obedient to God's Law, I would remind you that if you have any money invested with the AMP they have joined with and are part of CHASE-AMP Bank. (Banks lend money at USURY!!)

Peace be with you,

In Christ,
