COURT OF DIVINE JUSTICE

(Is it something that should be used in Australia?)

Pastor Ben Williams

On October 28, AD1986, a small band of Christian ministers (Pastors Everett Sileven, Greg Dixon, and Robert McCurry) along with about forty participants, held an open trial in front of the United States Supreme Court in Washington, D.C., not far from the Capitol Building. These ministers, like the prophets of old, publicly testified against the evil men that have taken root in the government, and they called for God's intervention on behalf of the saints of God to stop the men in government who are destroying our nation. These men, many of which aren't even aware that they are the Covenant People of the Bible, nonetheless had the vision to perform this godly duty for which we owe them a debt of gratitude.

I understand that the gathering was well attended by FBI agents, uniformed police, TV camera crews, and newspaper reporters. However, I doubt that many of you saw the story in your newspapers, and I know of no TV news program that reported it. Apparently the liberal media wasn't anxious for America to know what really happened there that day. The police and newsmen were there in the hopes that someone would do something stupid so they could smear them in the headlines. But, everything proceeded orderly and they did what they had come to do.

Before the trial, copies of the indictment had been sent to all the accused. This indictment was then read publicly before the group there in front of the Supreme Court Building. A long list of defendants were named, including most of the heads of state in the United States Government: the offices of the President the offices of the Congress and Senate, the offices of the Supreme Court Justices, offices of the Justice Department, the offices of the Governors of the fifty States, the offices of the Legislature of the fifty States, the offices of the Internal Service, the Federal Reserve (System), the American Bar Association, and some others. The charges included breach of the oath of office, supporting and promoting murder, sodomy, theft, selective prosecution of ministers and churches, holding political prisoners, usury, hatred of God, and promoting of Humanism.

The law with which the case was judged was the law of God in the Christian Holy Bible and the United States Constitution. The remedy included: public repentance, restitution to the violated citizenry, release of all debt to the government and the people, and release of all political prisoners.

They asked God to either make the guilty ones repent, or to remove them in whatever way He chooses.

es. While the average citizen is oblivious to what government is doing, and is supposed to do, I'm convinced that the men in the higher positions in government are fully aware of their own treachery. They obviously have no conscience nor do they feel guilty about their crimes perpetrated upon the public. They are ruthless beasts and care nothing about their fellow man and their nation. Money and force are the only things that impress them, but I'll wager that they'll be impressed when God starts removing them one by one.

"It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." (Hebrews 10:31)

Polls indicate a growing distrust of government in America. It seems people can't quite figure out what it is that government is doing wrong but they sense the insincerity of the Bureaucrats. People are recognizing the politicians for the liars that they are but have no remedies. WHAT CAN WE DO?

Government can be a great force for good, or for evil. When the people of a nation discover that their government has become like spoiled child: overgrown, unmanageable, and a trouble maker, what can the people do? By that time it is usually too late to ward off the problem: the government is already too big to control. Government usually grows into the greatest single force in the land, therefore when it goes bad it becomes the biggest PROBLEM in the land.

Thank God that in America we have a hope that rises above the corruption of men in government. That hope stems from the fact that we are a Covenant People, and our God is sovereign. Therefore, we have the option of appeal to a HIGHER AUTHORITY: Jesus Himself.

Since He has "all authority in heaven and earth" (Matthew 28: 18), and "rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever he wills" (Daniel 14: 25), He is the one who has the last word on whether a government stands or falls, and which of the people in that government will stand or fall.

A quick mental recap of Biblical history will remind us that Moses, Isaiah, Elijah, Daniel, and other men of God at different times were called to stand before kings and magistrates to testify and warn them of the impending judgment of God, and sometimes to call that judgment down upon them. God can, and has removed evil people from government. Don't be surprised when He does it again.

GOD JUDGES THE JUDGES

Appealing to God's HIGHER COURT is a familiar theme in Christian history. For instance, in old England, the law provided that a decision by the courts could be appealed to God. When a man received judgment he felt was unjust he could challenge the plaintiff to let the matter be decided on the field of battle. This challenge was called "throwing down the gauntlet". When this challenge was put forth, the plaintiff must either concede the case or accept the defendant's challenge which was usually some sort of duel. Either side had the option of choosing a "champion" to battle in their stead providing they could produce one. The outcome of the duel was seen as God's decision in the matter and could not be appealed further since there was no higher court. Besides, the duel was often to the death which makes it a little hard for the loser to appeal.

When the dispute was between large groups of people (nations) and war ensued, usually one or both sides would appeal to God. The outcome, then, depicted God's judgement upon one side or the other. This was called the "wager of war," and in principle was viewed the same whether applied to a personal duel or to a war between nations. The winner was proven right, and the loser was proven wrong.

THE POINT IS THIS: In Christendom men have always recognized a higher court than that of men. Methods of appealing to God for judgement may change slightly with time, but for Christians who are trodden under foot by evil government, that higher court is still there.

"There is one lawgiver (God) who is able to save and to destroy." (James 4: 12)

"For the LORD is our Judge, the LORD is our Lawgiver, the LORD is our King: He will save us." (Isaiah 33: 22)

"And shall not God avenge his own elect which cry day and night unto Him?" (Luke 18: 7)

"Shall the throne of iniquity (ungodly government) which frameth mischief by a law have fellowship with thee? ... And He shall bring upon them their own iniquity and shall cut them off in their own wickedness; yea, the Lord our God SHALL CUT THEM OFF." (Psalm 94: 20, 23)

THE CHILDREN OF ISRAEL in the Egyptian captivity cried unto God and He sent them Moses. Moses stood before Pharaoh and told Him to let Israel go free. That wicked ruler refused to listen and God's judgment fell upon Egypt and the Israelites received deliverance from Rameses, and again later at the Red Sea: (Exodus 2: 23-25; 14: 10-13, 21-22).

IN 1521, MARTIN LUTHER stood alone before the highest court in Europe for charges of heresy. The Emperor demanded that Luther recant and renounce the things he had learned from the Bible. Luther, knowing that his life was on the line, said:

"My conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not recant anything, for to go against conscience is neither right nor safe. Here I stand, GOD HELP ME."

He cried out to God for Divine Justice. The result was that his life was spared, and the Reformation was begun, largely due to one man who had the guts and the faith to stand up and cry out against wickedness in government, and cry unto God to judge his case.

THE TIME HAS COME for Christians to pray for God's judgment to fall again upon evil men in government. The problem with government today is not so much the laws, but the evil men that take office with ulterior motives. It is true that the love of money is the root of all evil, and without a doubt that is the ulterior motive behind almost every politician. It is also true that an ungodly usury banking system is plundering and destroying our people. However, the banks couldn't ravage the land without government protecting them and providing legal ways for them to continue their theft and murders. Government itself is ultimately to blame.

One righteous man crying out against evil men in government can bring the walls down. October 28th, 1986 may well be a day to remember for certain Politicians, Bankers, Tax collectors, Judges and Lawyers.

AWAKE, AWAKE O AMERICA!! You Are In The Bible!

(Pastor Pete Peters)

Joel 2: 1 "Blow a trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm on my Holy Mountain."

Isaiah 52: 1 "Awake, Awake... O Zion... O Jerusalem the Holy City."

As many Americans begin to see unprecedented problems overshadowing their country's horizon they yet again ask the question "Is America in the Bible and what is told of her future?" Most of the religious leaders continue to answer "No it is not!" or "Only as it relates to the tiny country of Israeli today and its city of Jerusalem." Some are actually saying if America is in the Bible it is Babylon in Scripture, soon to be destroyed by God.

One wise man, after picturing an ocean view from the western shores of Europe 500 years ago, a view which revealed an endless stretch of Atlantic Ocean with no sign of a great vast North American continent asked the following questions. "Did Jesus Christ know of the North American continent?" "Did Jesus Christ know that a great nation would be established there?" "Did Jesus Christ know this great nation {yet to be born} would be Christian from its beginning?"

For those who know and believe Jesus Christ to be the only begotten Son of God resurrected from the grave who knows all things (John 21: 17), the answers to the above are, "Yes, Yes, Yes!" So then comes one more question. "Is it possible that the great nation of America, known to Jesus Christ, was never mentioned, indicated, or foretold in the Bible?" The answer to this question is self-evident and thus this treatise is to assist you in finding America and her story in scripture.

Since most religious leaders have missed finding America in scripture it must be concealed. This is God's way, for Proverbs 25: 2 says, "It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, but the glory of Kings is to search out a matter." Considering the fact a King was a leader one sees how badly our leaders today need to search out the matter. Since we are living at the end of an age (not end of the world) known in scripture as the latter days or the end time, diligent searching is in order, for Daniel 12: 9 states "...for these words are concealed and sealed up until the end time." That end time is described in Daniel 12: 4 as a time when people would travel to and fro and knowledge would increase.

Certainly today's jet age travel and knowledge explosion befits that time. If the nation of America is concealed, then one will not and does not find such terms as "America", "United States" or "USA" in the Bible but one does find Jesus speaking of a nation in Matthew 21: 42-46, "Jesus said to them, 'Did you never read in the scriptures, the stone which the builders rejected, this became the chief corner stone; this came about from the Lord and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore I say to you, the Kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a NATION producing the fruit of it. And he who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces, but on whomever it falls, it will scatter him like dust.'"

From these scriptures we see the Kingdom was going to be taken from one group {more concerning that group later} and given to "a Nation." This no doubt is confusing for those who have been told that the Kingdom of God is within you or in your heart. This misunderstanding comes from Luke 17: 21 of the King James translation "...the Kingdom of God is within you." The word "within" in this case was improperly translated. In the Greek it is "entos" and really means "among" or "in the midst of" and has been translated correctly in the King James Version 115 times, such as in John 1: 26 where John the Baptist said "...there standeth one among {entos} you." There are many and varied doctrines concerning the Kingdom of God or the Kingdom of Heaven {both phrases are used interchangeably in scripture} but it becomes apparent from Jesus' words that the Kingdom would be given to a NATION. At this point let's remember that to have a Kingdom there must be a King, a Law, a People, and a geographical Territory.

What nation is Jesus speaking of and where else in scripture might we search to learn of this nation? Jesus taught that he would be the cornerstone and that the stone would crush and scatter whoever it falls on. With this thought in mind one finds that the prophets spoke of a stone kingdom that would exist in the last days that would crush and destroy. This is found in Daniel 2 and as we consider the scripture in this chapter remember another term for nation can be Kingdom.

Daniel describes King Nebuchadnezzar's dream of a great statue to the King in Daniel 2: 31-35,

"You, O king, were looking and behold, there was a single great statue; that statue which was large and of extraordinary splendor, was standing in front of you, and its appearance was awesome. The head of that statue was made of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of bronze, its legs of iron its feet partly of iron and partly of clay. You continued looking until a stone was cut out without hands, and it struck the statue on its feet of iron and clay, and crushed them. Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver and the gold were crushed all at the same time, and became like chaff from the summer threshing floors; and the wind carried them away so that not a trace of them was found. But the stone that struck the statue became a great mountain and filled the whole earth." (NAS)

In Daniel 2: 36-43 Daniel interprets the dream and tells that the gold, silver, bronze and iron of the statue represents kingdoms that would make up the statue that is headed by gold or Babylon. Then in verse 44 he describes the STONE Kingdom which was established by God,

"And in the days of those Kings the God of heaven will set up a Kingdom which will never be destroyed and that Kingdom will not be left for another people; it will crush and put an end to all these kingdoms, but it will itself endure forever."

Daniel 2: 28 indicates that this was to be a "latter day" event. From these scriptures in Daniel we can search out and gather valuable information. In Daniel 2: 35, 44 we see that the term mountain is a prophetic term for nation, kingdom or government. We also see the forming of the nation or kingdom was to be by God's divine providence and that it was not to be left to another people. The Hebrew word for people as defined in Strong's Concordance means "spec. a tribe (as those of Israel)."

We can go elsewhere in scripture to read more about a prophetic nation described as a towering mountain but let's further consider the people of the Kingdom. Not only does the Hebrew word bear out that it is the Israel people but so do the teachings of Jesus. Jesus, after teaching the apostles for three years concerning the kingdom and after forty days of intense teaching on the kingdom (Acts 1: 3), was asked the following question by the apostles (Acts 1: 6), "And so when they had come together, they were asking Him saying, 'Lord is it at this time you are restoring the kingdom to ISRAEL?'"

This identifies the people of the kingdom of Daniel 2: 44. But who are these people called Israel? First let's note who they are not. They are not the people who today call themselves Jews. While the Jewish people continue to argue as to whether a Jew is a Jew by race or religion or culture they do semi-openly admit in their writings that they are not the Israel people of the Bible. In the 1980 Jewish' Almanac in the first sentence of the first chapter entitled "Identity Crisis" we are told, "...strictly speaking it is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a 'Jew' or to call a contemporary Jew an 'Israelite' or a 'Hebrew'"

The Israel people who we will identify a bit further on were the Hebrews of scripture, the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. According to Genesis 17: 1-7 they were to form a multitude of nations and according to Genesis 12: 2 of their father Abraham, God said, "I will make of thee a great nation." Of these people and of this great Kingdom or nation that was to be theirs the prophets had much to say. The prophet Isaiah was one such prophet.

Isaiah 2: 1-4 describes the same mountain Daniel wrote of: "The word which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem. Now it will come about in the last days, the mountain of the house of the Lord will be established as the chief of the mountains, and will be raised above the hills; and all the nations will stream to it. And many peoples will come and say, 'Come, let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; that He may teach us concerning His ways, and that we may walk .in His paths. For the law will go forth from Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem. And He will judge between the nations, and will render decisions for many peoples; and they will hammer their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, and never again will they war." (NAS)

From this scripture we learn that there would be a nation ON EARTH which would be higher or greater than any other. We know that this scripture has never been totally fulfilled as there has never yet been world peace when men have beaten their swords into plowshares. Yet if this prophecy has now been partially fulfilled, and on its way to total fulfilment, we should look for a nation that became greater than any other nation in the world; a nation more Godly (at least at one time) than any other nation. Also this nation would be such that the rest of the world would want to go there.

#1018 THEY WENT EVERYWHERE PREACHING THE WORD. Persecution scattered the early church and the Word. Must we wait for trials before we will carry the Word to our brethren?

+ TO WHOM ARE WE TO PREACH? A great error of fundamentalism is that we are to "preach to the unsaved". The Bible teaches no such thing!

$3.00 posted from CIM.

Isn't it interesting that America became, in a very short time span on the historical clock, the greatest, richest nation in the world and the nation most of the people of the world long to live in? We see from verse 3 that God's Word would go forth from such a nation. Again it is interesting to note that no nation has sent out more missionaries and printed more Bibles than the United States of America.

Isaiah calls this mountain or nation "Zion" and "Jerusalem." These two terms are used interchangeably in Bible prophecy along with such terms as "Mount Zion", "City of the Living God", "Heavenly Jerusalem", and "Kingdom of God". More, then, can be learned of this nation of scripture by searching out Bible teaching on prophetic "Zion" and "Jerusalem."

Isaiah 62 is one such place.

"For Zion's sake I will not keep silent, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not keep quiet, until her righteousness goes forth like brightness, and her salvation like a torch that is burning. And the nations will see your righteousness, and all kings your glory: and you will be called by a new name, which the mouth of the Lord will designate. You will also be a crown of beauty in the hand of the Lord, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God. It will no longer be said to you, 'Forsaken' nor to your land will it any longer be said, 'Desolate'; but you will be called, 'My delight is in her' and your land, 'Married'; For the Lord delights in you, and to Him your land will be married. For as a young man marries a virgin, so your sons will marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so your God will rejoice over you." (NAS)

Of this nation called Zion we learn from verse 2 that she would be called by a new name; thus it stands to reason that today that nation would not bear the name Zion or Jerusalem. Notice from verses 1 and 6 that Zion and Jerusalem are words speaking of the same place. Notice also that Zion has LAND, evidence that it's on earth and not in heaven. It is a very special land; as God says, He will marry the land. Prior to this marriage however, Zion is going to be considered "Forsaken" and will be made "Desolate". We will search out more scripture concerning the forsaken and desolate aspect of this prophetic land or nation but let's consider further this marriage to the land of Zion.

Revelation 21 speaks of a marriage to a New Jerusalem (remember Jerusalem and Zion are used interchangeably in Bible prophecy) also called the Holy City. Revelation 21: 1 teaches this event will take place when a new heaven and a new earth replace the first heaven and first earth. Remembering this is prophetic language rather than literal, we understand that this signifies the end of an age and the beginning of a new age. Of that time verse 2 states,

"And I saw the Holy City, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne, saying, 'Behold, the tabernacle of God is among men, and He shall dwell among them and they shall be His people, and God himself shall be among them, and He shall wipe away every tear from their eyes; and there shall no longer be any death; there shall no longer be any mourning, or crying, or pain; the first things have passed away.'"

From these verses one also recognizes that prior to the marriage God's people had "mourning", "crying," and "pain." This would fit the forsaken and desolate description of Zion that Isaiah spoke of prior to the marriage.

Going on in Revelation 21 we read the description of this New Jerusalem, the bride, the wife of the Lamb, and verse 15 speaks of an angelic being sent to measure this place called Jerusalem. There is a very similar event recorded by the prophet Zechariah concerning a LAND called Jerusalem and Zion.

IRS AGENTS CROOKED AND CORRUPT.

Las Vegas Review Journal Wed Oct 1, 1986. Article on IRS agents dealing in dope beats up officers during arrest. Another major newspaper reports IRS agent failed to pay any income tax for 12 years in a row, receives a slap on the wrist.

The Atlanta Journal, Fri Nov 28, 1986, IRS admits that it presumes taxpayers guilty and they must prove their innocence.

POLITICAL PRISONERS IN MENTAL WARDS. More and more Psychiatry is getting laws changed to forcibly pick up people without any warrants, etc. for minimal periods of time for psychiatric care. Of course, the people are not mentally deranged or have any problems; they just simply happen to be dissenters or enemies of Government. The Atlanta Journal, Mon Nov 24, headlines a man who was forcibly taken to a mental ward and released after a few days and billed $2,000 for the treatment. He refuses to pay, but don't be surprised if they take his home or any other assets to pay for it.

FIGHTING ABORTION STILL A MAJOR CRIME AGAINST THE STATE. Pensacola, Florida Miss Joan Andrews has been sentenced to 5 years in federal prison for criminal trespass. She damaged no property or lives, just unplugged a suction machine that was not in operation. She is to be transferred to maximum security prison where the roughest inmates will probably rape and mutilate her.

PROTECTIONISM FOR BANKERS/ TRADERS

In Missouri, and elsewhere across the country, TV screens tell people how to scratch lottery tickets that promise wealth beyond the dreams of avarice. And so the jaded and the ignorant line up to buy tickets. Their government has promised that transfer of money from one set of hip pockets to another – with government taking a healthy slice - will repair economic shortfalls. There is a subtle implication in this flim-flam game. Transfer of chips in a gaming scheme is more important than making a shoe, creating profit in a cow-calf operation, or growing soybeans. The flim-flam goes further than that. Arithmetic is no longer arithmetic. A winner is promised a certain number of dollars, but he is not given that prize. Great minds have stretched the payments over years. The interest mill is supposed to make up the prize over enough years to see a great many dollars end up as estate earnings and thus the advertized prize is really only an annuity that in theory can build the promised figure.

No one takes too much notice. After all, it is just a flim-flam game, a canny scheme that at best is fun, much like watching flat chested women prance across the stage in Las Vegas. As with the lottery scam, free trade relies on the near total gullibility of the American people. Talking heads on TV glorify laissez faire, and newsletter writers jump up and down fawn-fashioned at the idea - in Gary North's words - that "economic freedom tends to lower the prices of commodities over time."

We have to admit that we're taken aback when we get letters saying, "I don't buy your parity idea," or "with parity the farmers would get rich." Sometimes, in the wake of some official duplicity or theft, simple folk say, "More power to him!" This translates into, "If I were smart enough, I'd also be a flim-flam man interested only in cheating others."

These things cause us to wonder what it takes to convince the rank and file they've been had. If word from the horse's mouth would do the trick, then we'd be home free. We now have that word. It is a staff study for the Joint Economic Committee of the Congress: The Impact of the Latin American Debt Crisis on the U.S. Economy.

Guess who gets to pay for the destruction of the American farmer? Why the farmer and his tax money. Guess who gets the profit from the free-trade scam? Nine big money-center banks! If the American people read this report, they would make Andrew Jackson look like Mother Theresa instead of Old Hickory driving the money-changers out of the American temple. But they won't read it, and the Congress won't act on it. For some perverse reason, the average citizen worries about the welfare of the absconders. Harry Golden, writing in Only in America, told about people too poor to buy a 10 cent ticket to an Empire

State Building tour, but there they were worrying that Rockefeller might be losing money on that depression year building.

Debt in Crisis lays it out in spades. It reveals how all the solutions used to paper over each crisis were designed to protect and enhance profits of nine banks, no more, no less. By 1982, these nine money-center banks had an exposure in Latin America equal to 176% of their capital. All would have failed if their debtors had determined that they could pay only 40% of their debts. Thus a four point strategy to keep debt service coming was designed.

1. The borrower nations had to increase exports, even if it meant meatless diets and hunger at home.
2. The borrowers were given up to 14 extra years to pay, provided the interest kept coming.
3. The lenders agreed to make new loans so that interest could be paid.
4. The IMF agreed to make more loans as clout to force "economic reforms."

So in 1981, the South Americans reduced their imports, and Argentina, Brazil and Mexico increased exports 47%, 56% and 62% respectively. Each debt crisis has worsened the plight of the American farmer. The down-under dime an hour nations had to produce and dump on international markets, usually the U.S. in order to pay the interest.

Since 1981, exports from the U.S. to South America dropped by 33%. When U.S. land was $3,000 and $4,000 an acre, international capital hurried to Argentina to buy $100 an acre land. Much of this land was unspoiled. Infused with hard chemicals and salt fertilizers, Argentina, now joined by Brazil, Mexico etc. helped increase global wheat production twelve times faster than U.S. crop yields. U.S. exports fell from 48% of the world market to 35%.

Imports literally drowned American agriculture. Red meat arrived by the boatloads, and feed grains piled up. In 1985, wheat prices dropped 10%, corn 19.2%, soybeans 19%. Small banks - unable to digest a resultant fall in land values - started going belly up. The Fed now says between 400 and 1,400 rural banks are in danger of failing.

Read On! More than a million American jobs have been annihilated to accommodate the profit wishes of the Big Nine. And how they have profited! After tax profits at Citicorp rose 12%; at Chase Manhattan, 39%; at Manufacturers Hanover, 16%; At Morgan Guaranty, 31 %; at Chemical, 15%; at Bankers Trust, at First Chicago, 96%; and impoverished Continental Illinois even managed to wash in a buck or two - up from a $1 billion dollar loss in 1984 to a $134 million profit in 1985. These are the top - but there are others.

And that is how IMF, the Fed and the government have joined forces to break commodity prices for wheat, corn, soybeans, milo, sugar, copper, - everything.

Here is the scenario, and it applies for the most of the world. Take Brazil. Either Brazil plays ball and cooperates in the breaking of the American farmer, or the nation is expelled from the "free trade" community. To handle this free trade, the Kansas farmer is taxed goofy so that the World Bank can save the hides of big bankers, force more production and imports into the U.S., and further debilitate American farm income.

That is the meaning of free trade. Everything is free to the Big Nine and the traders with their rank form of protectionism. None of this has anything to do with what most farmers think of as free trade - a Joseph Conrad-type character roving the world, selling hard-to-get commodities. In this day and age, everything is rigged to favour the flimflam men, and the real producers are skinned alive.

Free trade Reagan-style is nothing less than protectionism for the bankers and the traders. The economists all know this, and would say so except for the atmosphere of intimidation that presides over career advancement and post-retirement gratuities. In fact the free trade envisioned by the schoolmen, the politicians, and the simple minded has existed only in stories that begin with, "Once upon a time ..."

FLUSH TOILET CHALLENGE

Goodbye to the flush Toilet designates a Rodale title that has some startling facts to offer, most of them as proof that the flush toilet invented by Sir Arthur Crapper is obsolete. It is obsolete because the sewer system is incapable of dealing with materials inserted into it by an industrial society, including motor oil, pesticides, toxic wastes and heavy metals. The system does not produce a sewage that can be recycled to the land safely in many cases - thus the title mentioned above, and some of the facts contained therein.

It goes without too much elaboration to say that millions of tons of valuable fertilizer materials are destroyed in the sewer system. Each person produces about 180 pounds of solid wastes and 80 gallons of urine per year. If composted, this much waste can be reduced to 5% of its original volume, or a single foot of humus. Each person used 7,000 to 10,000 gallons of fresh water (sometimes polluted with fluoride) to flush away that same amount of material.

Very soon it will become obvious that the world cannot afford to waste resources, either water or fertilizer, and then laws that tie people to destructive technology will start being questioned, and finally phased down. There are plenty of people who would like to use a composting toilet, but health codes and enforcers - happy in their ignorance stand in the way. If they continue to stand in the way for a few more decades, they will get run over.

BIBLE LAW QUIZ

THAT OLD SERPENT, CALLED THE DEVIL AND SATAN - REVELATION 12. Part 6

Now we saw last time, the clergy of Christendom, Catholics, Protestants, and supposedly independents almost without exception, insist that Satan is an angelic being who was formerly the chief angel in God's heaven. Until he rebelled against God and then was cast down to the earth and now he is totally wicked, a spiritual creature who rages the earth and has great power over men and over the planet earth.

That doctrine is so universally taught, and has been taught over such a long period of time that few there are who question it; and I must admit for the greater part of my life, I never questioned it either. I accepted all of these stories and descriptions of this devil, since my parents and everyone else that I knew believed it, and I assumed it was true.

But back in those days, everyone that I knew thought that the Jews were Israel, so I believed that. Everyone I knew thought that non-Christians went to hell-fire and were tortured forever and ever by this same devil, so I believed that also. And almost everyone that I knew thought Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the savior of America, and the only reason I didn't believe that, is because many parents did not believe it, because my father said that Franklin Roosevelt was a crook. So that is still a good example, we tend to believe what our parents believe; whether or not it is true. But believing it doesn't make it true.

Revelation 12:3 says,

“And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.”

Now that is the verse the ‘devil’ preachers do not read since it describes a strange creature with seven heads. Whoever heard of a devil with seven heads? Well, that led us back of course to Revelation 17. The beast, upon which the scarlet woman, ‘Mystery Babylon’ rides has seven heads, and the seven heads are identified as seven mountains or nations, and the ten horns as ten kings, or kingdoms. So the description in Revelation 12 and the symbolism in Revelation 12 is identical to that of Revelation 17. And I say, that old serpent called, the Devil and Satan is not a spirit creature, but a combine of nations opposed to Christendom and Christians.

And I showed in my long series entitled Give the Devil His Due. (4 tapes #7810, 7811, 7812, 7813 - $12 from Christian Identity) that the Hebrew word translated ‘satan’ in the Old Testament means simply ‘adversary’ or ‘enemy’. (In fact it is translated ‘enemy’ in the O.T. more times than it is transliterated into the word ‘satan’. So the scarlet woman and the red beast of Revelation 17 are certainly the adversaries of Christianity because the woman is said to be “drunken with the blood of saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus” and we’ll find that this Revelation 12 ‘satan’ is also the enemy of Christendom.

Turn back to Revelation 12, because some may think that Pastor Emry has boxed himself into a corner, with my emphatic statement that the events of Revelation 12 were to come to pass after the time that John saw the vision in 96 AD., because of what I read in Revelation 1 and 4. This woman here gave birth to a man-child and most people teach that man-child is Jesus, and that happened some 90 odd years before John saw the vision. Well, let’s read this passage, Revelation 12:2,

“And she, being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman, which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up to God and to his throne.”

So at first reading that seems to be the baby born to Mary, in other words, the baby Jesus. However, as we have seen, the symbols in this vision are not what they actually represent. The woman is not a woman, the woman is Israel. The sun, moon and stars are not actually the sun, moon and stars. The red dragon is not a literal dragon. The heads are not heads, the horns are not horns; so perhaps the child is not a child, but stands for Israel. Now let’s consider everything we can here since this man-child is to rule all nations with a rod of iron. That turns us first of all to Rev 19, and this is after the destruction of Mystery Babylon. We read in verse 11,

“And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.”

Now this I believe is a reference to Jesus Christ. Again, of course, this is not the Christ taught by most of the clergy, since they teach us that, well, this. Christ is going to come and snatch the Christians and take them off to heaven. This Christ in Revelation 19 is going to judge and make war, and then in verse 15,

“And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS. AND LORD OF LORDS.”

Turn to Psalm 2, and we’ll read all of the references to someone ruling the earth with a rod of iron. Psalm 2, beginning in verse 7 “I will declare the decree: The Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; This day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron. Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.”

Now this seems to be that this is Jesus again, who will rule with a rod of iron. But is it possible that verse 8 is not God speaking, but is the Son. In other words, he is saying in verse 7; God said, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee, and then if take the next verse as Jesus speaking, then He is saying, Ask of me and I shall give thee. In other words, YOU, the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thine possession. Thou, you believers, you Christians, shall break them with a rod of iron; and shall dash them in pieces as a potter's vessel.

Turn back to Revelation again and we'll find that in the book of Revelation we are told it is the Christian believers who will rule the world with a rod of iron.

HANDS HOAX!

"Five months, one week and a day after 5 million-plus people held Hands Across (most of) America in a demonstration of compassion for America's homeless and hungry, the poor have yet to see any of the $32.2 million that the event raised. The USA for Africa Foundation, which staged the event, apparently decided to pay off $16 to $17 million in expenses first." (Oregonian, Nov 2, 1986).

The above quote from a newspaper article shows that the motive behind Hands Across America wasn't compassion for America's homeless and hungry." If that had been their motive, you'd think that during the last 5 months they would have used at least some small part of their $32 million in donations to show compassion for the homeless and feed the hungry. But they haven't.

Since their motive was not to help the needy, what then was it? Some clues are given further in the same article which reveals that $270,659 was budgeted for entertainment, $245,320 for travel and $2,018,734 for salaries all in the first three months of 1986, and that didn't even cover the actual event itself which happened on May 25. Fred Droz, project director had a cut of $70,000. Bob Garaldi, video promotion consultant, got $234,986. There were others who got their share, too. It seems that certain high rollers got their cut of the booty, but none of it has gone for the purpose for which the project was ostensibly created.

Where did these big spenders get all this money? Apparently, it mostly came from large, rich corporations who were looking for a way to reroute some funds and avoid corporate taxes. "Hands" was simply a tax shelter. Is there no end to the creativity of corporate asset management?

The event was touted as a great philanthropic extravaganza. Their promotions depicted all the great things they were going to do for the starving people of America, when in fact the ones who will benefit from it are those who received the big commissions on the project, and the big corporations who used it as a tax shelter. Also, by placing key individuals (relatives and associates) in the employ of the tax free "Hands" project they salvaged even more of their would be tax money. Coca-Cola gave $6 million-plus. Citibank and several other giant corporations joined in on the scam. The whole project was staged by the USA for Africa Foundation. That's right, the same group that brought you the "We Are The World" "Feed the hungry Africans" project 'of a few months earlier. I've seen no report showing that any of that money had gotten to the hungry Africans either.

About all that's been accomplished by these super expensive events is that large corporations have gained some tax protection, certain individuals made out like a bandit from their commissions in working for the project, some rock and roll stars received some good exposure and public relations, and America has been given a little more communistic propaganda about feeding the Africans (instead of stopping communism in Africa which has caused the famine), and about socialistic remedies for hunger in America.

THE ANSWERING SERVICE

From America's Promise

What is your definition of the Identity Message?

The "Identity Message" is the message teaching the true identity of the Biblical Israelites. It is a part of the Gospel of the Kingdom, which concerns the Kingdom of God on the earth.

There are various aspects of the Gospel of the Kingdom, since every kingdom (by definition) must have:

1. A King. This aspect can be called the Gospel of Jesus Christ, the King.
2. A Territory over which the King exercises his sovereignty. This begins with the land (here on the earth) where the Israelites reside but it will eventually spread until it fills the whole earth (Daniel 2:35).
3. A Law to define justice and morality in the land, by which that sovereignty is made effective. This is the Law of Moses as interpreted by the Prophets and Apostles (as they were moved by the Holy Spirit) and by Jesus Christ Himself, the Lawgiver.

4. Citizens and their relative duties and positions of authority as defined by Law. This is where the Identity message comes into focus, for we must be able to identify the true Israelites in order to know where the territories lie and the people God has promised to turn in repentance, Israelites are the prime inheritors of the Kingdom.

However, this also is where we must learn the place of other peoples of the earth in relation to Israel. The moment we speak of citizens of the Kingdom, we are speaking of "the Gospel of Salvation", which has both a national and a personal aspect.

MAINE TO OREGON INDEPENDENT INFORMER

Two wrongs don't make a right. We recently received a letter from a friend regarding our criticism of the Pope as spiritual leader, adored by Catholics, placing him on the level of God/ Christ who will have no other gods before him. (Exodus 20:3-5)

The letter equated the Pope with the reigning monarch of England as ruler and head of the Church of England therefore both the spiritual and temporal leader of the English people. But as we said, two wrongs don't make a right. Worship should be only at the feet of Jesus (God) and not misplaced at the feet of mortal beings. This, our nation, came away from England to establish a new nation under God, not under a human monarch, nor under a Pope.

This is a Christian nation, and as such can have only one King. Dual loyalty should/ can never be allowed. If we start compromising so that this or that ethnic group will join us in the fight for a return to God's rules - then we're lost from the start. It's the same as saying to the Blacks "You vote for Christian whites and the 14th Amendment will be acceptable." Blacks were never to have had the vote and bargaining away our Articles of Confederation (encompassing the original 13 colony/ states' constitutions outlawing any but whites as voters and office holders), and the presently accepted Constitution and Bill of Rights (which were to be additions to the Articles of Confederation), is pure compromise and against Yahweh God's Laws.

Sorry T.S. but our article on page 5 of Vol 2 #5 stands. And perhaps rubbing salt into the wound, we must continue on this: Kissing an Idol was part of Baal worship! Not only was the practice of kissing an idol adopted by the Vatican, so was the custom of religious processions in which idols were carried. When the Pagan god was carried in procession, the people fell down and worshipped. When the Pope is carried in procession, and he is, people bow before him. I.E.C. Newsletter, 805 South Randolph St., Arlington VA 22204. (see Exodus 20:5) [And haven't you all seen people kiss the Pope's ring?]

Greetings to all at the beginning of AD1987. We have had several requests of new people wanting to be placed on the mailing list. Thankfully the pagan feast of "Tammuz-mass" is behind us for another year, and perhaps things can return to a more normal routine.

I wrote to the Queensland Premier about the "open slather" on shopping hours (24 hrs a day 7 days a week) for a month's trial; being contrary to God's Law (4th Commandment). The reply was far from satisfactory.

Some who have written requesting material, many have received the material but no reply to their letters. We apologise for this, but we have just not had the time. We hope to catch up with the correspondence soon, please be patient. It was good to receive all those letters and we really appreciate them.

Comments from South Africa indicate that the "Identity Message" is really spreading fast. Some meetings have drawn up to 500 people. The NG (Dutch Reformed) Church has started a campaign against the Israel truth, because so many people withdrew because they have opened the (church) doors to blacks. We join with our brethren in South Africa in praising God that people's eyes are being opened and that they are coming out of the false churches, and now are seeing God's truth. We pray that more in Australia will see the same truth.

Another of our friends/ readers decided to visit us and spend some time here over the (school) holidays. It was really great seeing them and we enjoyed their company. May God be with them as they return home.

In view of comments in a number of publications recently about the "holy father" etc. I decided to include the article at left. It shows this person (the pope) for what he really is, and who he really represents. (Baal)

We have included a leaflet on the NEW HEALTH ENCYCLOPAEDIA. We have a copy of this book and recommend it to all who are interested in natural health etc. Write to the address on the leaflet for the book, or other health products available.

A new supplement has been received to the Bible Law Course. Any who are interested in receiving this new supplement please send $5. It is an explanation/ comparison of a hit record released in the 1970's AMERICAN PIE and compares it with the SONG OF MOSES. It is an interesting study, and it is amazing that this information was put on a hit record.

We pray that our heavenly Father will open the eyes of His people who are still in darkness, and that He may bless and protect all who are helping to get His truth out in these last days.

In Christ the King,
Hendrik (Hank) Roelofs
