“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1: 68-75;

EXPECT THE REDS! THEY WILL BE COMING!

Taken from Col. Jack Mohr's CHRISTIAN PATRIOT CRUSADER. Added comments are by Jack Mohr.

The following article was written by my good friend Delmas Buel McClendon, 5435 S. Marion Ave., Tulsa, OK 74135. He was an honorary staff member on the now defunct AMERICAN SUNBEAM and wrote an article in November 1979 with the above title. The guerrilla warfare, after the invasion by the Reds, forecast in his article was later the theme of the movie RED DAWN and was used in the publication of my pamphlet by that title.

Here is that article:

“Those who read my article may remember the points I made by simple deduction, not prophetic power. First, George Washington, in his heavenly vision at Valley Forge during the winter of 1777, saw hordes of invading troops from Asia, Africa and Europe, lay waste our to our land, as millions were locked in mortal combat while a great red light - the color of communism - illuminated the battlefields.

“My second point was the action of James Warburg, a member of David Rockefeller's Council on Foreign Relations and the son of German Jewish immigrant Paul Warburg, who led in the creation of the communist central banking system known as the Federal Reserve. Speaking as a mouthpiece of the One World conspiracy, on February 17, 1950, before the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, he arrogantly bragged: “We shall have World Government, whether you like it or not – by conquest or consent!”

“My third point was that the gift of our U.S. Canal on the Isthmus of Panama, the ensuing encirclement of the U.S. and the planned weakness of our military by home-grown traitors, would result in our government's surrender. Under a direct confrontation with Red troops bent on occupation, there would be enough loyalty in our military to resist savagely, backed by the greatest guerrilla action the world has ever seen, and, with God's intervention, our FINAL VICTORY.

“Now, without an element of hysteria, comes word that it is highly probable that our government has now surrendered to the Soviet Union, the agent of the super-elite who are working for world government and universal slavery. The word was brought by Dr Rousas Rushdoony, an orthodox Presbyterian minister and former missionary to the Shoshone and Paiute Indians. He is well known for his many great books about threats to our Christian civilization. It was at the annual meeting of the American Coalition of Unregistered Churches held in mid-April, 1986, at Dr Everett Sileven's Faith Baptist Church, the former padlocked church in Louisville, Nebraska.

“Proving there are still men high in our military to whom “DUTY, HONOR, COUNTRY”, are not mere words, two generals, in February 1986, speaking from positions of high military intelligence, revealed to him this startling information. They said that early in the sixties, when we had the capacity for mounting a SDI Program; it was turned over to the enemy who has had it in place since 1981. (Later, they said that on April 4, 1986, the Soviets deployed six SS-20's, their intercontinental ballistic missiles at the U.S. Then to prove their SDI capability, they shot them down over the ARCTIC.)

In February, these generals said that, when surrender terms were cut, we would be given a face saving device by the Reds, such as giving us Kaddafi, their ally. To render the appearance of fearful military strength, the Reds backed away and let us attack their ally. The generals said in February they expected an economic crisis within eighteen months at which time the Reds taking advantage of the chaos, believed they would have no resistance to their military occupation of the U.S. Meanwhile, the U.S. was to become a vassal state providing foodstuffs and all the free "technology" the Reds needed. This process the generals called "Finlandization."

(Now before some of you get up in the air about Rushdoony's statement. And I have had several irate letters from people calling me a liar because I published this in an August Intelligence tract. These people said they had contacted Rushdoony and he had denied saying the above. Well, I contacted Dr Sileven, and he said Rushdoony had made that statement, but said it was so sensitive, that if anyone asked him about it he would deny it. Anyone knowing anything about intelligence knows you can't give intelligence sources without losing them. - JM)

"Stirred up by this information, William Bowen author of GLOBALISM - AMERICA'S DEMISE! - he was also at Louisville - and heard Dr Rushdoony's statement - decided to confirm it for himself. When he returned home to Baltimore, MD, he at once went to the Pentagon to confer with generals he knew. Outside the Pentagon, these generals predicted that the Philippines, now in the hands of the Reds, will be used as a springboard into Japan, SE Asia and Australia. (Emphasis mine, HR). Furthermore, South Africa, they feared, will soon fall into the hands of the Reds of the African National Congress. While knowing that the Soviets already have a Star War Program in place, they were concerned by the immense build-up of Soviet, North Korean and North Vietnamese military forces (including full equipment), along the Mexican Border for a thrust through California, Arizona New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma and all points north. (Anyone wanting Bill Bowen's tapes write for cassettes #3 and #4, GLOBALISM SEMINAR, 26 April 1986. Cost USD$6.00 from BELIEVER'S FAMILY WORSHIP, P.O. Box 690327, Tulsa, OK 74169).

"Meanwhile the general public will be constantly brainwashed through the controlled big time news media, by talk on arms control and by Summit meetings which will serve to masquerade our government's surrender. Among the ploys are the current halfway measures to support the Contras in Nicaragua, which is merely window dressing to conceal our position as a vassal state of the Soviet Union. To prove this point, it is planned for the Red-infested U.S. State Department to be in charge of the distribution of these funds. (I wonder if the present furor over selling of arms to Iran, via the Israeli has anything to do with this. JM)

"I believe with Dr. Rushdoony and many others that the surrender terms have been out. To bring a quiet occupation by their Red allies, the super elite who control our government, can easily maneuver us into economic collapse and chaos. Thousands of small businesses are going bankrupt. Hundreds of banks are closing their doors. At the height of the crisis, the President, by a series of unconstitutional executive orders, already in place and being constantly updated, will impose martial law, and begin, with U.S. Army personnel, including the National Guard, an attempt to confiscate all firearms, ammunition and stored food. It is planned that dissidents who resist will be hustled off to the concentration camps which have already been set up for this purpose. (For further information on these camps, write or call Dr Everett Sileven, P.O. Box 249, Louisville, NE 68037; phone (402) 234-3435 and ask for his tape on these camps. Price $USD5.00)

(As this is being written, a federal grand jury is convening at Ft. Smith, Arkansas with the purpose of investigating Christian Patriotic efforts in the mid-West and Far West. On the morning of December 16, several men were picked up in "sting type" raids in Arizona, including our good friend, Lt. Col. Jack Oliphant, who operates the Hepsibah Camp in Arizona. We have had considerable information concerning his activity. His wife Margo, said that he was picked up on a "conspiracy to overthrow the government" charge. This is the "catch-all" which is now being used by government prosecutors. We need to pray for these people, that YAHWEH GOD will give them the necessary strength and courage to withstand the enemy assault against them - JM.)

"There is little doubt that an effort will soon be made to confiscate our firearms. I predict that a startled people, at last awakened from their deep slumber; will furiously resist the confiscation of their firearms. (I pray to God the author of this article is right - JM.)

"Why sit like a hypnotized frog waiting to be swallowed by a snake? Why wait for that knock on the door where you will be isolated by yourself? If it should come to that, Solzhenitsyn, who survived the hellholes of Soviet Concentration camps, advises resistance where you stand. But we don't have to wait in fear for such an hour. The Second Amendment of the Bill of Rights provides for our right to bear arms, especially naming a militia. Provision for State militias can also be found in U.S. Code, Sec. 311, Part II of 1983. Right now, the State of Arizona is considering the organization of their state militia through the State legislature. Citizens in this State are already forming their own local militias. (This is what the CITIZEN'S EMERGENCY DEFENSE SYSTEM, of the CHRISTIAN PATRIOTS DEFENSE LEAGUE is. For information, write to me at my Mississippi address - JM)

"Why should we stand here idle? Let's go for it! Let us work to form our own local militias, free from Federal control. THIS MEANS DO NOT TAKE FEDERAL FUNDS! Trust no government agency that fears guns in the hands of decent citizens. Remember: ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF FREEDOM! A WASHINGTON BUREAUCRACY

IN SURRENDER IS A FAR CRY FROM AN AMERICA SUPINELY OCCUPIED BY OUR RED FOES!

“My advice to you is to be prepared spiritually, mentally, and physically. TRUST IN GOD WHILE YOU KEEP YOUR POWDER DRY! I’ve got news for Lenin, if he can hear from his abode in hell. The real American - the people who care - will never surrender. We will not fall into communist hands like ‘Overripe fruit’, as Lenin predicted. We will rally behind those forces of our military that are still loyal, and after terrible suffering, will see God’s intervention, as disclosed in Washington’s dream.

(This will happen, when our American people, wake up, realize they are to blame for what’s happening and will follow the FORMULA FOR SURVIVAL, found in 2 Chronicles 7: 14,

“If my people (God speaking here), which are called by My Name, will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I (God) hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and WILL HEAL THEIR LAND.” There’s your answer America, (and Australia, HR) will you heed it?)

THE REAL CHURCH AND STATE ISSUE

We’ve detailed the drift of government away from the basic premises of the Constitution, and have explained how the citizen has been trapped in a contract form of government. And we’ve suggested that “the cleverness of lawyers” has set the stage for divesting the nation of its independent farmers. The significance of all this can be understood if one pauses to reflect on the fact that when broad-spectrum distribution of land is gone, then broad-spectrum distribution of income is also gone. It becomes almost impossible to have personal freedoms when economic freedoms are erased.

These several points were brought home to the Acres U.S.A. editor recently when an office visitor commented on the plight of churches. In general, the clout of organized religion is sinking. “It may be,” our visitor said, “that churches will have to go back to being churches.”

The comment was not lost on the Acres U.S.A. editor. Churches have always taken the position that there is a higher law, but in practice they have been willing to kneel at the feet of the state. The Declaration of Independence, signed on July 4, 1776, acknowledged the Creator as the source of rights. We the people were entitled to exercise those rights without permission from government as long as we govern ourselves from injuring another’s person or property in the exercise of those rights. Our visitor was reading from a document, and finally it was handed over. It was written by Connie Cunningham, who apparently represented the American Coalition of Unregistered Churches.

Almost all churches nowadays go hat in hand to the state for a non-profit franchise. In legalese, they thus become creations of the state. People who go to church are required to have marriage licenses from the state, and the churches have accepted this as a condition for performing a ceremony, thereby declaring themselves subservient to the state. God deals in rights. The state deals in privilege. The meaning of this becomes quite clear when reading the text of Substituting the State for God. It is presented here because it will surely help many understand something about the real revolution in the countryside, one that is happening between the ears, and not in the imagined field exercises of a mythical Posse Comitatus.

CHURCH AND STATE

Any time that you and I, as natural, free individuals go to government and ask government to give us privilege or permission, to do something that God has already freely given us, then we reject God and set up to ourselves an idol or a false god. If we pay government for a privilege that has already been given to us by God as a free gift, then we have made the corporate state a substitute for God.

The Oregon Supreme Court made that quite clear in 1930 in the case of Redfield vs Fosher, 292 P819 wherein the Court held that:

“The individual, unlike the corporation, cannot be taxed for the mere privilege of existing. The corporation is an artificial entity which owes its existence to the state but the individual’s right to live and own property are natural rights for the enjoyment of which an excise cannot be imposed.”

You will note that the Court has made a few things very clear.

1. The state created entity owes its life to its creator, the state.
2. The God created, or natural, man, exercises his rights as natural rights, and these rights cannot have an excise tax imposed upon their use.

Now there is no law that says we cannot reject our God-given rights granted permission. However, the natural law of God says when we do this, we are no longer under the protection of God, but are under the heel of man. If I go to government and ask them for a license to travel and work, then I have rejected the liberty granted to me by God and have put myself under the dictates of man. I have contracted to do as the state wishes me to do, rather than as God the Father commanded.

The Idaho Supreme Court has declared that a license fee is an excise tax for the privilege of doing business. That business must be in a state created capacity, since the individual has the God-given right to carry on his own private business in his own way without interference so long as he governs himself from not trespassing upon the rights of others. So, it now seems that most Americans have rejected God's gifts and have acknowledged the corporate state as their law giver and creator.

Most Americans pay an excise tax on their labor and the result of their labor, which is property. Most Americans pay an excise tax for the privilege to travel from place to place in their own property. All of these things were freely given to us by God our creator, but we would rather ask the state for the privilege and pay the tax and bear the burdens of such state-granted privileges. The American Revolutionary War was fought to free the American people from man's laws and oppression. The American Revolution was an open acceptance of rights given to us by our creator. Because of this, America was raised above all other nations of the world in both spiritual and financial rewards. It was only after we began to reject God's gift of liberty and look to the state as our creator that we began to fall both spiritually and financially as a nation.

In the second chapter of Genesis, God sanctioned the institution of marriage. Today, once-free men and women go to the state and ask for a state-granted privilege in order to sanction an institution given to us by God.

We pay government, both state and federal, a privilege tax for our right to work and earn a living for ourselves and our families. We acknowledge government as the source of our existence when we do this, and reject God as the law-giver and life-giver.

We pay government an excise tax for the privilege of using our property to travel on our highways, and in so doing, we reject God's gift of liberty and property and pursuit of happiness - and substitute the corporate state for Him and His power.

It is state created creatures that have no liberty granted them by God. If the state creates them, then the state has dominion over them. But we, the American individuals are creations of God, and we have the duty and the responsibility to control our creation, the state. When we relinquish our God-given rights to our own creation, then we have made ourselves graven images, and have exalted our own creation above God the Father.

Even America's churches have gone to the state and asked the state for a corporate life for existence. The churches have rejected God's authority and have exalted a creation of man above God the Father. The corporate churches have become creations of the state, owing their existence to the state rather than to God.

Man and government can create artificial persons on a piece of paper, and grant that creation certain privileges which those creations are bound to exercise in a specific manner. If they do not perform as the creator would have them perform, then they can and will be penalized and punished for not performing as the creator demands.

However, man cannot create a natural person or endow him with certain inalienable rights. Only God the Father is capable of creating natural man and endowing him with natural rights. It is not God's fault if we choose to reject His gifts and trade them for state granted privileges. It is not His fault that we have traded our birthrights for a mess of state pottage. But the control and sanctions and penalties which attach to state created creatures then become our burdens when we acknowledge the state as our creator rather than God. We must bear the price of our rejection of God, by submitting to man's burdens and injustice. CHOOSE YOU THIS DAY WHOM YOU WILL SERVE.

CANCER IN A POT

Do chickens cause cancer in humans? Virginia Livingstone-Wheeler, M.D., renowned immunologist and cancer researcher, thinks so. Evidently California's Department of Food and Agriculture agrees. They have granted her a license to inoculate the California chicken population with a vaccine. This vaccine, called NEOSTOP, has been proven under government trials to be effective in preventing cancer in chickens. Dr. Livingstone-Wheeler believes that almost 100% of chickens in America have leucosis (chicken leukaemia). When Acres U.S.A. was founded some 16 years ago, only 90% of the chickens had cancer.

In chickens it is known as Marek's disease. The Marek's disease vaccine, which the federal government has been injecting into chickens, has been found to mask the symptoms of leukaemia rather than prevent it. When broilers are slaughtered at six weeks of age, there are no visible signs of tumors. These tumors usually appear after eight weeks and older. Therefore, chickens can be completely riddled with cancer and still sold to consumers! Any time you eat one of the government inoculated chickens, there is the danger you are ingesting a live cancer virus. Fowl are inspected at the rate of 300 per minute. How many leukemic chickens an inspector can track in that fraction of time is open to question.

As far back as 1910, Dr. Peyton Rous, Nobel Laureate, discovered that most chickens sold in New York had leucosis. And since then the leucosis epizootic among fowl has proliferated. Fifty years ago, one out of 13 people contracted cancer. Today it is one out of three. One-half million die from cancer every year. Many scientists feel this cancer epidemic is being spread through the food chain. It seems ironic that with the great emphasis on chicken as a healthful alternative to red meat, we may actually be courting disaster.

TAPE OF THE MONTH

X3-43 LIBERTY OR TYRANNY, Dean Lilly. Dean is author of the book by the same name. He relates his experiences at the hands of the taxman.

CONFUSION OF LAW, Frank Pina. An excellent tape.

$4 posted from CHRISTIAN IDENTITY

The real issue is tyranny. We aren't protesting government's constitutional authority to tax. We protest unlawful taxation, the same as they did in 1775. Failure to protest when government gets out of line amounts to abdication of our American heritage.

But, today, protestors are threatened with charges of "civil disobedience". Tax protestors are jailed for reasons which have nothing to do with law. They are jailed, not for breaking the law, but for going against "public policy." If we don't get American Patriots in government who are concerned with law, and get out the Communist Bureaucrats who are only concerned with "public policy", public pressure will continue to build until the lid blows off again as it did in Lexington in 1775.

WHAT PRICE PEACE?

In the old west, the Colt 45 was called "The Peacemaker." Looking back, I now wonder whether it earned the title because of its ability to stop crime, or its ability to lay someone to rest. It depends on one's definition of "peace". History is replete with peace-seekers, most of whom have been rulers. Tyrants love "peace". The Soviets spend 24 hours a day trying to maintain peace in their countries. , Soviets offer two options for peace: 1. total submission, or 2. the grave.

The grave offers the ultimate in peace: no mess, no fuss. No more embarrassing questions. No more freedom fighters. Yes sir, bankers, tyrants and central governments are proficient at "keeping the peace" and squashing dissention.

Pontius Pilate had quite a challenge on his hands when the screaming, spitting Jews demanded the death of a local troublemaker named Jesus. A few months earlier another trouble-maker by the name of John had been turned into a peaceful man by separating his head from his body. Now, this Roman province was again in need of peace. So, Pilate turned Jesus over to the Jews to be crucified - thus keeping the peace.

European bankers financed the 1917 Bolshevik Revolution in Russia. After taking over the central Government, they squashed all public resistance. "Peace" was finally accomplished in the new Russia, under the iron fist of Red Communist Bolshevism.

Then, 15 years later, Stalin provided even more peace by starving to death several million Ukrainians because they weren't adapting to Communism quickly enough. A great "peace" settled over the Ukraine. Stalin will go down in history as one of the greatest "peacemakers."

London bankers, assisted by the British Crown, attempted to maintain peace in 1776. Their American Colonies were getting out of hand. Troublemakers were disturbing the peace: fomenting dissention and talking about freedom. Strangely, this turned out to be one of the rare occasions where the "peacemakers" were unsuccessful, at least for the moment. However, after years of persistence and dedication, the banks and the bureaucrats (the molders of democracies) have finally, once again, successfully suppressed the troublemakers in America and re-established "peace."

Who are the troublemakers? Well, they are those who subscribe to the doctrines of radical men like William Bradford of the Plymouth Colony who brought Pilgrims clear across the Atlantic to get away from the British "peacekeepers." Also, men like Patrick Henry, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Paine and Samuel Adams who were so cantankerous that they refused to pay an unlawful 3% tax on tea to the London Bankers. These men were real troublemakers compared to sheepish Americans today who pay unlawful taxes of up to 50% of their earnings without complaining or asking questions.

THE AMERICAN DREAM

Contented slaves don't want freedom. Today, the large majority of American's don't want freedom. They want Social Security, Welfare, Retirement Benefits, Insurance, etc. Americans today are Socialists whether or not they admit it. Freedom would scare them to death.

Like the Children of Israel at the time of the Exodus from Egypt, modern Americans cannot fathom true freedom. When the Israelites got out of sight of the city and began to realize they were on their own it scared them to death. They wanted to go back to the security of the Egyptian slave system.

Americans have grown to love slavery too. Most of us have grown up with the childish idea that "freedom" is the ability to get a job, a wife, a car and a television. Beyond that, the average American's intellect runs out of data concerning "freedom." Politicians and preachers tell us that "living in peace" equals "freedom." But does it?

What was "the American Dream" that motivated our Founding Fathers? Can Americans of our day still share that dream? If so, there are two questions which must again be addressed by Americans:

1. How much are you willing to pay for peace?
2. Is "peace" the ultimate good?

These questions were once dealt with by men of integrity in America's history. Now, with the spiritual decline of our society, we must ask them again. If we are honest, we should arrive at the answers they did.

Here are some examples:

"Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery? Forbid it, Almighty God! I know not what course others may take; but as, for me, give me liberty, or give me death." PATRICK HENRY.

"If ye love wealth better than liberty, the tranquillity of servitude better than the animating contest of freedom, go home from us in peace. We ask not your counsels or your arms. Crouch down and lick the hands of those who feed you. May your chains set lightly upon you, and may your posterity forget that you were our countrymen." SAMUEL ADAMS.

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive to these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute a new Government. "...all experience hath shown, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security."

DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE 1776.

"Those who profess to favor freedom, and yet deprecate agitation, are men who want crops without plowing up the ground. They want rain without thunder and lightning. They want the ocean without the awful roar of its waters. This struggle may be a moral one; or it may be a physical one; or it may be both moral and physical; but it must be a struggle. Power concedes nothing without a demand. It never did, and it never will. Find out just what people will submit to, and you have found out the exact amount of injustice and wrong which will be imposed upon them; and these will continue until they are resisted with either words or blows, or with both. The limits of tyrants are prescribed by the endurance of those whom they oppress."

FREDRICK DOUGLASS AUGUST 4 1857.

"In the beginning of a change, the patriot is a scarce man and brave, and hated, and scorned. When his cause succeeds, however, the timid join him, for then it costs nothing to be a patriot."

MARK TWAIN.

We may argue whether or not the times require a fight, but neither the Bible nor the Constitution can be used to argue for unconditional peace at the expense of freedom. Forced peace is neither American, nor Christian.

THE CHRISTIAN AND THE INCOME TAX

Dr. Everett Sileven © July 1986

DEDICATION

To the Pastors of the American Revolution, 1774-1787, who were America's first real Christian Tax Protesters, who inspired me to study the Scriptures and the Constitution to determine the truth about taxation.

Secondly, I dedicate this book to all Christian Patriotic Pastors in America today who dare to do the same.

PREFACE

Pastor Sileven's newest book The Christian and the Income Tax, in my opinion is way overdue. We have been browbeaten too long by fundamentalists and evangelical leaders with a Christianity totally foreign to the Bible and history. For the first time subjects that are normally taboo are addressed with boldness.

What does Romans 13 really mean when it speaks of being "subject to the higher powers"? What did the Lord Jesus Christ mean when He said "render unto Caesar"? Did the Lord Jesus Christ pay taxes? What does 1 Peter 2: 13 really mean when it says that we are to "obey every ordinance of man"? Does a citizen have any responsibility for what the government does with his taxes? What is the income tax? Is it Constitutional? Is it Biblical?

Not only does Pastor Sileven answer these questions, but he gives practical solutions about how to live in today's world. It is my opinion that this will truly be a God blessed book. Everett Sileven has certainly been tried in the fire and "has come forth as pure as gold."

INTRODUCTION

Jesus Christ is Lord! Jesus Christ is God! He is not one of two gods, or one of three gods, or one of many gods. He is God! He is omnipotent. He is omniscient. He is omnipresent. He is omnirighteous. He is the great I AM, the self-existent One.

The Lord abides no rivals. He demands uncompromising allegiance and obedience from everyone. "Thou shalt have no other gods before me. Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above and that is in the earth beneath." (Psalm 119: 89; 119: 105).

"All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: that the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." (2 Timothy 3: 16-17).

The most severe judgment that God can pronounce on an individual, a church, or a nation is His silence! To simply say nothing to those who live in sin, wickedness, rebellion, and disobedience to His Word and Lordship.

The kindest thing that God can do for any people is to speak to them through the - preaching of His Word by those men who He ordains and sends forth to "sound the certain sound of the Gospel trumpet" and call all men - as they are and where they are, including those in civil government - to repentance and obedience to the Lord Jesus Christ. The first task of such a preacher is the "law-work of the Gospel." Sin, the transgression of God's law must be identified, exposed, and put away. This task never makes the preacher popular with the masses, including the religionists.

Unfortunately, such preachers, as the prophets of old, are usually misunderstood and their exposing and warning of sin and judgment to come are ignored or rejected.

It is certainly evident that Pastor Everett Sileven is not attempting to win a popularity contest. He is truly a fearless "voice in the wilderness." He dares to speak out on a controversial subject and real life issues from a Scriptural perspective that the majority of preachers shun. This book is an example of that.

Please do not misunderstand the message of this book. He appeals to no one to be lawless. His appeal is just the opposite. He appeals for all men to know and apply and obey God's law and to live in obedience to the Lordship of Jesus Christ in every sphere of life every day in the real world.

PUBLISHERS

The call that ministers of the Gospel have from God to get the truth to their people -- concerning what is happening to their country is vividly portrayed by Pastor Everett Sileven in this book.

It reflects the courage, integrity and dedication of a true man of God, who is not afraid to tell it like it is even when the truth reveals that too many ministers are "so heavenly minded that they are no earthly good."

It is absolutely essential that the great truths expressed in this book be spread far and wide until their impact permeates our entire society.

[That is why we are serializing this copyrighted book so that our entire mail list will have the opportunity of reading it! HR]

The spirit of our valiant forefathers is being reborn in America today, and no one reflects that spirit more than this courageous preacher from the cornfields of Nebraska, Pastor Everett Sileven.

DISCLAIMER

I want to make it extremely clear that I am not a bar attorney. Nor do I in any way advocate, advise or in any other manner support tax evasion. I am in no way trying to defraud the government out of any lawful tax it has coming. I encourage all persons to pay all taxes that are lawfully owed. The purpose of this book is to look at the Income Tax in the light of Scripture and the Constitution.

TAX AVOIDANCE

Tax avoidance is not the same thing as tax evasion. Tax evasion is trying to hide income to prevent paying a tax that is lawfully owed and refusing to pay such a tax.

Tax avoidance is arranging your affairs so that you do not incur a lawful tax obligation. Our government officials and judges have become experts at tax avoidance. They almost all have networks of trusts, foreign companies and foreign bank accounts. These same advantages are available to any American citizen so desiring them. Tax avoidance is your lawful and legal right.

"The legal right of the taxpayer to decrease the amount of what otherwise would be his taxes, or altogether avoid them, by means which the law permits cannot be doubted." Justice George Sutherland in Gregory v Helving 239 US 465 at 469 (1934).

"As the astuteness of taxpayers in ordering their affairs so as to minimize taxes, we have said that the very meaning of a line in the law is that you intentionally may go as close to it as you can if you do not pass it." Superior Oil Company v Mississippi 280 US 390 at 395-96.

This is so because "nobody owes any public duty to pay more than the law demands. Taxes are enforced extortions, not voluntary contributions." Justice Felix Frankfurter, in Atlantic Coast Line v Phillips 332 US 168 at 172-73 (1947).

"Anyone may so arrange his affairs that his taxes shall be as low as possible; he is not bound to choose that pattern which may best pay the treasury; there is not even a patriotic duty to increase one's taxes." Judge Learned Hand, in Helving v Gregory, 69 F2d 810 (1934).

If you have any interest in lawful means to avoid taxes, please write International Societe' of Independent Business Administrators. P.O. Box 610085, Dallas/ Fort Worth Airport, Texas, 75261. Send $1.00 (US) for your first years membership in the Societe' and information will be sent.

1. Who Is Lord?

"Why call ye me Lord, Lord; and do not the things which I say?" Luke 6: 46

Today there are thousands of political prisoners in America, serving long jail and prison sentences for non-crimes. Russia has had political prisoners for decades. The Christian community has continually risen to the defense of those political prisoners in the Soviet Union, but for the main part, refused to even acknowledge that such prisoners exist in America.

I believe that this condition of ignoring the political prisoners in America is due to the lack of understanding of the definition of a political prisoner, and secondly, because of the serious deficiency in American evangelical theology over the definitions of law and crime. According to Webster's Dictionary, a political prisoner is "one held prisoner for the violation of government policy rather than for a crime against the people in violation of law."

Of course, government always writes some regulation or rule and calls it law, thereby creating situations in which the honest citizen is forced to violate government policy. In Russia, they do not put people in jail for being Christians. They pass laws against unemployment, fire the Christians, and then prosecute and jail them for being unemployed.

Oppressive government is able to pass laws against any conduct or even use nonrelated laws to jail government dissidents. To our great horror, pastor and Christians simply are too trusting of their government's servants. Anel instead of defending the rights of the prosecuted, they defend the prosecutor and rile upon the brother for his violation of Romans 13.

(We have received special permission from Dr Everett Sileven of Faith Baptist Church, Louisville, Nebraska, to serialize a recent book of his, The Christian and the Income Tax. This is an excellent, in-depth study of Romans 13, which is unfortunately often misused. We do have more copies of this excellent book on order. We hope and pray this serial will arouse more interest in this subject. HR.)

BIBLE LAW QUIZ

NO FOREIGNER SHALL RULE OVER YOU

Article 2, Section 1 of the United States Constitution contains these words. "No person except a natural born citizen... shall be eligible to the office of President..."

The Christians who established this great nation put the principle of Deuteronomy 17: 15 right into our Constitution. In addition, even if the person is natural born, Moses said, he must be "of our brethren." Based upon Deuteronomy 17: 15, who may you vote for on Election Day?

Choose all correct answers

By Race:

- White candidates.
- Aboriginal candidates
- Jewish candidates.
- Asiatic-Australian candidates.

By Religion:

- Christian candidates.
- Agnostic candidates.
- Jewish candidates.
- Atheist candidates.

If you refuse to vote for candidates that are not of your race or religion, what does that say about you?

- You are a hate-filled racist bigot.
- You, because of your race and/ or religion are superior to people of other races and religions.
- You are doing the will of your Father which is in heaven by obeying His instruction as recorded in Deuteronomy 17: 15.

According to Deuteronomy 17: 16-20, what is the Prime Minister of Australia to read and study all the days of his life? _____

The above extract from Pastor Sileven's book should certainly be of interest to those facing harassment/ prosecution for keeping children out of the State School System. Just because a government passes rules and regulations does not make them lawful.
