“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1: 68-75;

MISUSED PULPITS

Television Evangelism has received a well-deserved black eye! The hottest news item for the past month has been the PTL Club. It appears that religious Babylon has developed a new crack in her foundation. How large it is and how much damage has been caused to their superstructure is still to be seen. Their Judeo-Humanist foundations are rotten and so we are not surprised that they are in trouble.

Jim Bakker, ordained minister in the Assembly of God Church and head of multi-million dollar PTL (Pass the Loot) Corporation, was caught with his pants down, so to speak. As it turns out, his pants were down too often and in the wrong bedrooms. Because of his bedside indiscretions, he is now facing such charges as adultery, sodomy, lying, embezzlement and God knows what else. Now, accountants say they cannot account for ninety-two million dollars of money and assets. Bakker has admitted to some of the charges and apparently is not anxious to air the other charges by trial.

The accountants say that PTL is fifty million dollars in debt. That amounts to a lot of tithe money going to the usury bankers. Jerry Nims, the new chairman of PTL's executive committee as well as chief executive officer of Jerry Falwell's Lynchburg-based ministries, says; "Fifty million dollars is not excessive debt," and that Falwell's own ministries back in Virginia have similar debts.

Now, we wonder if the hordes of so-called "spirit-filled" Judeo-Christians who supported Bakker to the tune of several millions of dollars per month will have the presence of mind to see through Bakker,

THE DECLINE OF RELIGION (SUBLIME) (RIDICULOUS)

Falwell, and all the rest of the "TV evangelists," who use the donations as collateral upon which to build huge usury debts. Now, Falwell is asking PTL's followers to send in twenty-five million dollars within ninety days or else they can't survive.

PREACHERS & LAWYERS, SCRIBES & PHARISEES

TV preachers are competing with lawyers to see who can be the greatest liars. We learned some time ago, that it is easy to tell when a lawyer is lying: all you have to do is watch his lips. If his lips move, he is lying. I think the same can be said of these TV preachers.

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!
CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

One of the missing items is a 1939 Rolls-Royce valued at $62,000 which was to be an ornament atop the Heritage Grand Hotel. Then, of course, there was the $265,000 bribe paid to silence Bakker's former secretary, Jessica Hahn. Isn't it strange that these "Charismatic" followers who claimed to have the gifts of the holy spirit" chose to follow and support a perverted playboy instead of a man of God? "Discernment" is one of "the gifts" listed in 1 Corinthians 12: 4-11, which they claim to possess. Where was "discernment" during this time?

WHY THE PULPIT?

What is it that attracts men like Bakker to the pulpit? How can we be sure of their "calling" and source? What are their ambitions? Clearly, their motives are not honorable.

It is natural for us to want to trust clergy. However, as strange as it may seem, they are some of the least trustworthy people of society. Be very cautious when sending one of your family to clergy for counseling; you could end up with more than you bargained for. Their "urge" to be pastors is often accompanied by other "urges" that are less noble. By class, the clergy has a high percentage of family failures. Sexual infidelities and perversions are common contributory factors in those failures.

Strange, also, are the pastor's family and friends who often refuse to see blatant debauchery and lying when it involves "their pastor." I've personally witnessed this more than once. The family pretends they don't see what is happening, and the national church hierarchy covers it up and moves the pastor to a different parish in another part of the country where he continues his debauchery.

Fortunately, in Jim Bakker's case, the cover-up is blown and he can no longer gain respectability.

IN THE NAME OF JESUS?

The Bible clearly teaches that anyone who presumes to speak in the name of Jesus takes on a grave responsibility. Preachers in Christian pulpits become especially accountable for their actions. To teach error is bad enough, but to do it in Jesus' name is asking for judgment: God's wrath.

TEST THE SPIRIT (1 John 4: 1)

Now, I've been a Christian all my life. After forty years of affiliation with churches and pastors, including ten years' experience as a pastor myself, I would estimate that at least 90% of American preachers are either miscast or frauds.

There are many reasons for becoming a preacher; most of them wrong. For instance, many men become preachers because they fancy themselves as entertainers; some because they graduated from Bible college. Some men become preachers because they love attention and like to hear themselves talk especially when others will listen. It gives them a feeling of power and importance. Some become preachers to pursue filthy lucre (false profits); and some because their father or grandfather were preachers. Perhaps the most dangerous kind of preacher is the Elmer Gantry type who takes to the pulpit to practice his talent of persuasion and salesmanship. These are some of the false "callings".

"I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran; I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied:" (Jeremiah 23: 21).

"Religion" continues to be the business of charlatans and demagogues. False prophets abound and true prophets are scarce. But people continue to prefer lies instead of truth. If my estimate is close, at least 90% of Christian donations in America are going to support illegitimate preachers, 90% of church theology is inaccurate if not anti-Christian, and 90% of American Christians are either blinded to the fraud, or they refuse to recognize it. Thus, they willingly submit themselves to fleecing and brainwashing.

"A mysterious and horrible thing is committed in the land; the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so; and what will ye do in the end thereof?" (Jeremiah 5: 30-31).

IDOLATRY

Frauds and charlatans are plentiful in the "clergy" profession. It has been so since the Garden of Eden where a charlatan sold a lie to Eve, who sold it to Adam, who sold out the world. Today, millions of American Christians subscribe to the showbiz style production and brainwashing of modern day "serpents" preaching on TV. Hundreds of millions of "tax deductible" dollars are sent in each year by mesmerized admirers. The public's willingness to support and promote these false prophets is tantamount to idolatry. Thus their judgment is manifest in confusion and more blindness.

"...they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie." (1 Thessalonians 2: 10-11).

So, a second question has now been answered: namely, what motivates these millions of Christians to want to support and follow false prophets? What do they hope to gain? As I said, one of the great problems is that these Christians are guilty of idolatry: worshipping men or churches instead of the Creator. It is impossible to think objectively about an idolized preacher. This type of idolatry is often called loyalty, but loyalty without inquiry is idolatry.

MUTUAL AFFIRMATION

From the standpoint of morality, there's not much difference between many of America's modern churches and the heathen temples of Babylon:

"...the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and the cage of every unclean and hateful bird:" (Revelation 18: 2)

Today's modern churches could hardly be called "the salt of the earth." The world has seasoned them, instead of the other way around. But, what can we expect? This is the natural result of Judeo-Christianity's friendship with the world, disregard for law, inaccuracy, injustice, and not seeking God's blessings. On the other hand, a Godly pastor knows he was not called to be popular.

"Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you; for so did their fathers to the false prophets." (Luke 6: 26)

"If ye were of the world, the world would love his own; but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you." (John 15: 19)

Worldly clergy need worldly, uncritical followers to support them. By the same token worldly people need worldly, uncritical pastors to assure them that sin is no longer sin. The circle is vicious. The more worldly people get the more worldly their pastors become. Sexual debauchery is only one possible ramification.

BANKERS IN PULPITS

For instance, usury is clearly and unmistakably condemned by the Bible. Yet, almost all ministers and churches sanction it and often even collect it. I found out that two churches with which I was formerly affiliated collected usury.

Take the TV evangelists for example. The Old Time Gospel Hour (Jerry Falwell) is advertising in the newspapers to issue bonds at 9.15% interest, through A.B. Culbertson and Company (Investment Bankers). How many millions of tithe dollars go through Falwell's hands into the hands of the usury bankers to pay the interest on his loans every year? Were those donations sent in for the purpose of lining the pockets of usury bankers? Now, Jerry is trying to get his followers into the banking game also by offering them bonds at usury. Will this salve his conscience? Does he have one?

Speaking of consciences (or the lack of them), Oral Roberts had the gall to demand his followers send him eight million dollars within a few weeks to keep God from killing him. What is even more asinine is that his followers sent it in to him. However, there were some who didn't appreciate Oral's morals. Bumper stickers were seen which discouraged sending him money, saying "Send Oral to Heaven in '87."

The charismatics who swoon at Oral's wide-eyed "you can trust me" demeanour and his so-called "healings" probably don't even realize that religion is only one of his sidelines. The following quote is from a UPI news article:

"Roberts now controls a $500 million international conglomerate. He lives in posh houses in Tulsa and in Beverly Hills and in Palm Springs in California. He travels in a corporate jet and drives a Mercedes.

The poor boy from Ada, Oklahoma, whose hands picked cotton and pulled corn before he laid them on the halt and the lame, rose to become a director of the Bank of Oklahoma until he resigned last year, and still is on the board of Oklahoma Natural Gas."

These ministers have not only helped create an air of respectability for usury bankers, they themselves have taken up usury banking. If their seared consciences can accept usury it is little wonder that they also can accept other forms of Babylonian debauchery like whoredom, lying, stealing, slavery, etc.

CON MEN

The next time you see that smiling "you can trust me" type face of one of the big time TV evangelists; just remember that they are not what they seem. They appear to be humble men of God, but off stage they are hard-nosed merchants: presidents of multi-million dollar corporations. Most of them are money grubbing ego maniacs who will squash anyone who gets in their way.

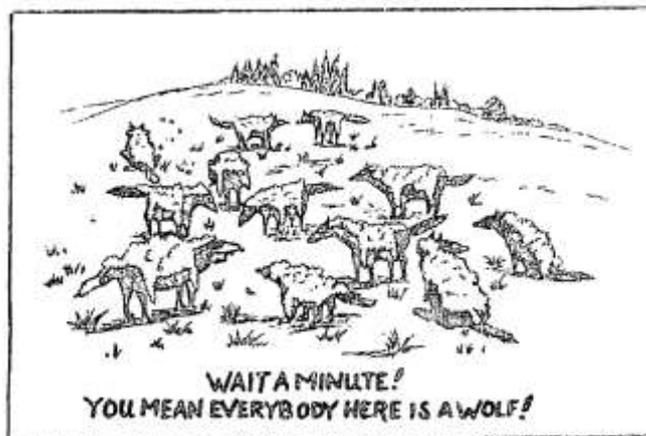

They're actors and con men. The characters they portray are not real. Just think of them as you would a movie star – portraying another character. Better yet, just turn off the TV.

If you are looking for a good pastor, remember that the first and most important requirement to be a man of God is HONESTY! An honest man doesn't knowingly deceive you. An honest man of God will not ignore God's laws, nor will he teach others that the law is done away.

Some people are worried that Jim Bakker's fiasco will hurt Christianity in America. I disagree. We've been trying to expose the Judeo-Christian preachers for the wolves they really are. Now, through Bakker, God exposed a large section of Judeo-Christianity in a much better way than we ever could have done it ourselves.

Pulpits have become garbage receptacles for every trashy doctrine and Eastern philosophy that comes along. America's pulpits must be purged! Then we can begin to learn how to fight our external enemies.

OCCUPY!

by Thelen Paulk

Learn of your Identity, O sons of Israel,
Follow not the churches, who will lead you straight to hell!
Seek the Truth and Wisdom, of the One True God on High,
Who chose a special people, and sent His Son to Die.
Follow His instructions; trust not the words of men,
Occupy this Land He gave, until Christ Comes again!
Fear not the Powers about you,
but trust in YaHWeH's Name,
As Christ was persecuted, so shall you be the same.
For you are the Called Out Ones, His Chosen, The Elect, Trust the Power of YaHWeH, that His Sheep, He will Protect!
Until our Mighty Shepherd, Returns to us again,
Trust not in devil's doctrines, and traditions taught by men.
Fear not the seed of serpents,
who claim they're Jews, but Lie,
Obey the Will of YaHWeH, 'till Christ Comes,

THINKING THE UNTHINKABLE – SPEAKING THE UNSPEAKABLE

by Mike Brown.

Throughout Bible history - when God's people have asked for deliverance from their oppressors, God has raised up a champion to deliver them. Gideon, Samson, David, Charlemagne, George Washington. The list is extensive. Notice I said, when God's people have asked, not when they wrote to their congressmen (or local member, Ed.) Our Congressmen were described by the prophet Isaiah:

"His watchmen are blind: they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark, sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, everyone for his gain, from his quarter." (Isaiah 56: 10-11).

A Congressman, or, for that matter, an employee of the present federal government, is seen by many not as a deliverer, but as an oppressor. Our people have almost come to the point of getting on their knees to ask God for a deliverer. Almost, but not quite.

Even once we have asked for help, a couple of pre-conditions have to be met. The first is a return to His rules, regardless of the nonsense prattled by many of the pastors leading the sheep astray. That means all the rules in both the Old and New Testaments.

A lot of preachers say that "the Law was done away with at the Crucifixion," meaning, Christ died so we could all enjoy a ham sandwich. That simply isn't what Christ said:

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you. Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled." (Matthew 5: 17-18) Verse 19 goes on to say that anyone who teaches otherwise is a jerk.

One of the rules in the Bible has to do with graven images, the Second Commandment, which brings us to an interesting point. Have you ever noticed that no preacher ever claims the Ten Commandments were done away with at the Crucifixion? Or the tithe? Ever hear of a preacher refusing to take tithes because that Law was "done away with at the Crucifixion?"

It is the Second Commandment that will allow us to recognize our deliverer; the one the Almighty will raise up for us. To see how it will happen, turn to the story of Gideon in the book of Judges. If we read the Bible correctly, the United States will be invaded. The parallel to the prophesied invasion of the US is interesting. Let's take it by the numbers:

Judges 6: 5: The aliens entered into the land to destroy it. Ezekiel 38 and 39 describe pretty much the same thing courtesy of Gog and Magog.

Judges 6: 7: The children of Israel cried to the Lord. Watch us do the same thing when we see the hordes of Asia pouring into the land on the 6 o'clock news.

Judges 6: 8-10: A prophet reminded the children of Israel where they went wrong. As we shall observe directly, nobody paid this fellow any serious attention.

Judges 6: 11-24: Since apparently nobody paid any attention to the prophet, God decided to send a personal representative to one man with instructions for getting the job done. Gideon was that man. As we shall also observe, Gideon had to make his first move at night in order to keep all the "concerned citizens" out of his road.

Judges 6: 25-27: The pre-condition to God Himself getting personally involved was the destruction of the graven images standing by Gideon's father's house. This is where it gets tricky and socially unacceptable. There were two items Gideon was ordered to destroy. The first was the altar of Baal. The second was the grove (some translate it "sacred pole") that stood beside it.

Gideon had to have help, ten men of his servants, eleven met to pull down a couple of graven images indicates this was no minor project. Any normal male can pull over a six or eight foot tall graven image by himself in a matter of minutes. So these passages indicate a couple of monstrosities; symbols that may have their counterpart in New York City today.

The statue of Baal was put in position at the altar of Baal in 1967. The grove or sacred pole was erected in 1886. The altar of Baal is the United Nations Building. Observe the statue in the lobby. The inscription reads, "Poseidon, Gift of the Greek government 1967."

An artist's impression of the Colossus of Rhodes, the source for Bartholdi's Statue of Liberty.

Poseidon, god of the sea, is always represented in Greek paintings and statues by a seated figure with a long beard and an upraised trident. The figure in the U.N. lobby is standing upright, feet apart, with one arm outstretched for balance whereas the other is cocked to launch an object of some sort. That object though the cocked hand of the statue is empty. It's normally a lightning bolt.

A god throwing a lightning bolt is always the Jupiter Olympus of the Romans. Or the Zeus of the Greeks. Or the Baal of the Hebrews. Same god, different languages. The "grove" or "sacred pole" is a little trickier. A number of footnotes in a number of different Bible translations offer the explanation that the "grove" or "sacred pole" stands for the deity the heathen worshipped as Baal's wife, known as the goddess Asherah, Ashtaroth, "Venus", to the Greeks, etc.

To observe an illustration of the largest statue of Baal ever erected on the face of the earth, turn to any encyclopedia with pictures of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World and look for the Colossus of Rhodes. The accompanying description will read 121 feet from sole of foot to crown of head, iron framework covered with copper, headdress representing the sun's rays. It stood at the entrance to the most important harbor of the ancient world.

This statue was proposed for the entrance to the Suez Canal. It was modelled after the Colossus.

Once you have seen an illustration of this statue it is easy to recognize its mate, the graven image of the goddess Ashtaroth, 121 feet from sole of foot to crown of head (add 30 feet for the upraised arm and the torch); iron framework covered with copper, headdress representing the sun's rays at the entrance to the most important harbor of the modern world. This statue is known to most Americans as the "Statue of Liberty."

Symbols have been and remain of maximum importance when people are to be won away from a religion, a series of beliefs, or a heritage. It is not important that everyone understand at first, or at all. The subliminal touch will have its way in the fulness of time. And the usurpers and absconders, perhaps subliminally will revel in their coup. Workmen and sponsors and doers of the deed are often led like lambs into their confrontation with the Law. Witness the steady acceptance of the mark of the Beast by citizens one and all.

Let's label the gods of the Amorites "Poseidon" and "Liberty" instead of "Baal, (altar of)" and "Ashtaroth." These are the gods of human sacrifice (primarily children), and usurers. Once we recognize 'these insults to God Almighty in our midst, it then becomes fairly easy to recognize the man God sends to deliver us. He will be the man who, with ten others, brings those pagan idols to the ground (Judges 6: 28-30).

This individual is not going to win any popularity contests doing it, just as Gideon found out the next morning when the population called for his execution. Notice how in Gideon's day, everyone was whining and snivelling for God's help but wanted to kill anyone doing His Will: I suspect this time it won't be any different.

Since the original two images that had to be toppled in Gideon's day were at Gideon's father's house, we might also infer that Gideon's father was a fairly heavy political figure in Israel at the time. This could lead us to infer further that the son of one of the corrupt government officials we now have may be the one to redeem his family's honour and do the deed. This man will not win initial popular acclaim. But he will be the man those of us who know will fight for.

[Acres U.S.A Comment: Some people will call the above discourse fundamentalism. Well, wisdom is rare, and stupidity infinite. There are not many people who take the Bible seriously these days. At the same time there are multitudes that take chain letter economics seriously; this steady transfer of the wealth of the nation into the hands of the manipulators of the money supply (via inflation and the fiction of hypothecation).

Not being necessarily wise or necessarily stupid, we have to allow many things on the table for sorting out. Good people, those who oppose evil wherever they see it, never seem to increase beyond a gallant minority. The manipulated millions are aroused or soothed by almost any lie. The guiding light of journalism is often no stronger than the glow-worm when readers are not permitted to think the unthinkable.]

Richard Kelly Hoskins advice:

The Bible says that the Babylonian system will fall. Many think that time is soon. How can we protect ourselves from such a collapse?

R.K.H.: Try to obey the Law. Don't owe. Try not to be owed. In the late 1920's those with government paper did well. Many of those who had money in the banks lost.

CHRISTIAN IDENTITY

An excerpt from a speech by U.S. Senator Jack Metcalf

Feb. 12, 1984.

"It is possible to eliminate $130 billion from the national debt, reduce interest payments on the national debt by over $10 billion a year, and slow the growth of the national debt and deficit.

This may sound like a fairy tale in this era of ever increasing budgets and deficits and a $1.5 trillion national debt, but Congress could do all of the above quickly and easily by simply calling in all the Federal Reserve Notes now in circulation and issue instead, United States Treasury currency on which no interest would be charged. In other words, our currency would be issued the same way our coins are issued.

The next very essential step would be to use the called in Federal Reserve Notes to buy back the bonds that created them, thus extinguishing both bonds and the Federal Reserve Notes (FRN). By this action, we would reduce the national debt by $130 billion and reduce interest payments by over $10 billion a year.

This simple plan could become the basic start toward having a debt-free money system in our nation. There are other steps necessary to achieve the Honest Money system envisioned by our forefathers, but these 3 steps are simple and could be accomplished quickly.

(Perhaps a similar plan could be followed in Australia and would do more to put Australia on the road to recovery than the policies of the political parties of Hewey, Dewey and Louiy? Ed.)

AIDS INFORMATION A LIE!

The medical profession for the most part is not telling us the truth about AIDS, according to Dr William Hazeltine of Harvard Medical School, who has been working extensively on the AIDS problem.

He said that the possibility of developing a vaccine for AIDS is remote, since the AIDS virus has the ability to mutate into at least 18 different mutations, which would mean the development of at least eighteen different vaccines.

The Pasteur Institute in France has discovered that the AIDS virus can survive at room temperature for at least 10 days, and that it can be transmitted by mosquitoes, cockroaches, and biting flies. Dr Hazeltine estimates that there are ten million Blacks in Central Africa afflicted with AIDS, while French doctors estimate the number at between 30 and 35 million. They have found that persons working with AIDS patients in a hospital have a 300% greater chance of catching the disease than anyone working in a business or factory, who is constantly near a person infected with the disease.

It has also been established, contrary to much public information to the contrary, that AIDS can be transmitted by saliva, tears, body fluids and mosquito bites. The Federal Center for Disease Control in Atlanta has admitted that about 1.5 million people in the U.S. have the AIDS virus in their blood and that AIDS cases among heterosexuals is DOUBLING EVERY SIX MONTHS.

The incubation period for this disease is from eight weeks to eight years. According to the FCDC about 20-30% of those 1.5 million with AIDS virus in their blood, will contract the disease, which can add up to 450,000 in the next two years.

A leading British medical journal, THE LANCET, Dec. 22, '84, stated that AIDS can definitely be transmitted through kissing. (Condoms are not safe unless they intend to put them over their head too! CIM). This all boils down to one thing. In order for our nation to survive this terrible disease, which I believe may very well be a curse of God on this nation for disobedience of His Law (see Deuteronomy 28:59-62) we MUST isolate ALL AIDS CARRIERS AND TREATMENT PERSONNEL AND fence them in with armed guards if necessary. We have no other choice for survival.

Schools are allowing children with AIDS to continue to attend school. Small children tend to hug each other and be close. They also chew on pencils. Suppose a healthy child gets a pencil that has been chewed on by an AIDS child and also chews on it? Or suppose an AIDS victim sneezes on a healthy child? What can be the result? The message that there is nothing to fear is a VICIOUS LIE! WE HAVE NOT BEEN TOLD THE TRUTH!!!

When U.S. Surgeon General, C. Everett Koop was interviewed over WCRF radio on March 17, 1987, he stated that he was "terrified" about the awful potential of AIDS and pointed out that the Black Plague was caused by rats and by killing rats the plague could be stopped.

But with AID, there is no cure in sight, in spite of all the cozy statements to the contrary. He stated that Blacks account for 75% of all AIDS cases and that Black women have thirteen times the AIDS rate of White women. He also stated that 20% of the cases were to be found in the Hispanic community. He said: "I am not prejudiced, as that means making a judgment without having the facts. Well, in the case of AIDS, I have the facts."

PASTOR IN JAIL: Pastor and Mrs Taylor are facing another term in jail for home schooling their children. They have already served one month each and new charges are being brought against them. They are going to appeal these charges. Pray for them during this time.

PASTOR LUTTRELL: In spite of the fact that the judge had a heart attack after a Court of Divine Justice, he still found this man guilty and threw him in jail.

CONGRESSMAN HANSEN: A Court of Divine Justice was held in Washington, D.C. on behalf of Congressman Hansen. The shameful treatment of this patriot is beyond comprehension.

PORNO AND CRIME: Police studies show crime decreases as porn outlets close. At least three different police studies show that areas which contain porno businesses have higher crime rates than similar areas which do not have such businesses. In Pasco Florida, the number of forceful rape cases has decreased 35% since police have cracked down on the sale and rental of X-rated videos in 1985.

BANK FAILURE RECORD: 138 U.S. banks have closed; 1484 in trouble. Seventeen more banks collapsed in January 1987. Federal Deposit Insurance Corp has more than $12 billion worth of property repossessed from Americans. Rothschild said foreclosure is necessary in order to allow non-interest bearing money to stay in the economy to pay interest on remaining debt.

BABIES ISSUED SOCIAL SECURITY NUMBERS: I have received in my office a copy of a verification of birth issued in Detroit, Michigan Hospital Corporation, showing that a social security number was issued to the baby at the time of birth. This is simply a warning that more of you should consider home births with midwives, privacy, no birth certificate, no social security numbers if, you want to stay out of the beast system. (Note that the U.S. social security number is their equivalent to the Australian Identity Card!! CIM.)

POLITICAL PRISONERS: We keep hearing about political prisoners in Nicaragua, Poland, Russia and various other countries. When are we going to do something about the political prisoners in the United States? Literally thousands of Christian patriots in America are being imprisoned over non-crime paper frauds committed by the government. May we pray God's blessing on them and their families as the truth is known; Freedom will be preserved by these political prisoners.

CONDOM ADS: How many of you have written newspapers, television, etc. and opposed the condom ads? Do we really care? (What about in Australia? How many have written here? CIM.)

RIGHT TO BEAR ARMS: Outstanding editorial in Dallas Morning News by Charley Reese on America's right to bear arms. "The people must be armed. It would have been foolish to assert that people have the right to alter or abolish a government if the intention was that the government could deny them the means to do it." He sounds like my kind of guy.

THEY SACRIFICE UNBORN BABIES

Mother's womb was designed to keep baby safe and nourished during the first critical months of his/her life. Nowadays, the womb has become the most dangerous of all places for babies. Wombs are used as incubators for helpless victims used for sacrifice to the gods of man's lust and selfishness.

The following, from Reuters News Service, reads like lines from the prophetic novel, 1984.

"LONDON--Swedish doctors are preparing to carry out the world's first transplant of human brain tissue sometime this year, says the Sunday Times of London.

The operation will involve the injection of brain cells from a 10-week-old human embryo deep into the brain of a patient with Parkinson's disease, the newspaper said in today's editions.

British scientists, pioneering with similar experiments in brain-damaged monkeys and rats, found that injected fetal brain cells--the only type that can be used because of their flexibility of development--took root and helped repair deficiencies.

Parkinson's disease kills the brain cells that affect movement, and scientists believe the successful grafting of healthy brain cells could help restore motor skills in such patients, as well as in those suffering from nervous-system afflictions like Alzheimer's disease, Huntington's Chorea and Multiple Sclerosis.

However, the scientists also stress it would be years before such operations become routine.

The Times said the success of the experiments on animals in Britain had convinced Swedish doctors that the possible benefits of such transplants outweighed the ethical questions of using aborted or still-born fetuses."

THE CHRISTIAN AND THE INCOME TAX - Part 2

Dr. Everett Sileven © July 1986

Another reason for this travesty is the fact that American Christians do not relate obedience to man-made rules, statutes, court orders, regulations and citations as a religious act of worship to the promulgators of such rules and regulations.

In short, members of the religious community today mentally assent to Christ as Lord, call Him Lord, speak of Him as Lord, yet in actuality worship the State, the Court, the Legislature, the IRS, or some other body of men as Lord by yielding their body members such as hands, feet, and body to obey these man-made statutes, rules, and orders, even in disobedience to Christ, Whom they say is Lord.

It is sort of like telling your wife you love her, she is the only woman, and there is no other, but you spend your time, your money, and your allegiance with another woman. Jesus Christ is getting only lip service from most Christians today.

This matter of Lordship is the key to this question of the Christian and his relationship to the Income Tax. Who rules you? Who owns you? That is the question.

We will present legal, lawful, moral and Biblical facts relating to the income tax. We will answer such questions as: Is it Biblical? Is it Constitutional? Is it moral? Yet, none of this will be of any value to you until you decide "Who owns you?" Just saying Jesus is Lord, will not suffice. "Why call ye me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things that I say?" (Luke 6: 46)

You must decide up front where your loyalties lie. Either Jesus Christ (God) is Lord of your life as well as your thoughts and lips, or someone else is your Lord.

The second question we must answer in this matter of who is Lord is what our Lord's requests are, and does He have priority of the requests? If you are willing to commit that Jesus Christ is your absolute Lord and Sovereign, we are ready to proceed. If you cannot commit on this one position, the rest of the book is of no consequence for you, (and you may as well request to be dropped from our mail list. CIM).

Assuming that you have now committed your total life, body and soul, to our Lord Jesus Christ, there are many commands; but one has absolutely first priority.

In Matthew 22: 36-38, a young lawyer asks Jesus, "Which is the great commandment in the law?" What was first priority to one who claims allegiance to God (Christ)?

Jesus answered him without hesitation: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment." Christ himself defined for us how to love Him in John 14: 21. "He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me,” and in verse 23, “If a man love me, he will keep my words,” and in verse 24, “He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings.”

The apostle John, by the Holy Spirit, sums it up in 1 John 2: 4, “He that saith I know Him and keep not His commandments is a liar and the truth is not in him.”

So the only way you can Love God, is to obey His sovereign Lordship. We must bow to His every command, even if governments resist us, punish us, persecute us, confiscate our property, or even kill us. Anyone who knows, by the Holy Spirit, what to do, and does it not, is sinning against God.

Anyone who refuses to obey the Lord Jesus Christ and His Word continually, in order to prevent loss of property, persecution or ridicule by the press, the community, the brethren, or the government cannot rightfully call himself a Christian.

We certainly advocate peaceful dialogue to solve problems, if possible. But, invariably, negotiations result in compromise and surrender of our absolute obedience to God. There are areas where dialogue clarifies demands and rebuttals. But if God is my Sovereign and is Lord of my possessions, I have nothing to negotiate, nothing to compromise. I can only state my position and let the chips fall where they may. The problem is that most Christians and pastors have a bottom line different from that of their Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore they enter a negotiation representing themselves and their possessions and not the position, Lordship, Sovereignty, and possessions of God. The bottom line to God is Sovereignty.

Who is Lord? In Rome, Caesar said he was Lord. Thousands of Christians died saying Jesus was Lord. Today the State says it is Lord. Most Christians and pastors say okay, just be as lenient as possible with your servant. I don't want to lose my buildings, my property, my funds, or go to jail.

Obedience (upholding the Sovereignty of God) is the only true act of worship! Let me say that again. “Obedience, the upholding of God's Sovereignty, is the only true act of worship.” Singing is not worship unless you're upholding God's Sovereignty in all areas of your life. Prayers, church attendance, Bible reading, good works, are acts of worship only if you are obedient to God in all areas of your life.

I am not trying to teach sinless perfection. I am saying that while it is possible to sin out of ignorance, or slip into sin on occasion, it is impossible for a Christian to accept a violation of God's Word and Law in any area as a way of life. To do so, makes one's pretence to worship of our Sovereign Lord a mockery and lie. God has told His people many times that this sort of form of worship was simply unacceptable.

Isaiah 1: 13 tells, “Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting.”

Isaiah 29: 13 says, “Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is taught by the precept of men.”

2 Timothy 3: 5 states, “Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof...”

Yet in America, it has become the mode of the day to talk about Jesus, pray to Jesus, sing about Jesus, swoon about Jesus, but live a life of worship and obedience to the State and its agencies, which insists on us violating the Law and Sovereignty of our God in many ways.

All of this is then justified by Romans 13 and 1 Peter 2. Modern day Christians and pastors simply refuse to hear any responsibility of choosing between two or more Lords.

Anti-Thought-Control-Dictionary

A Christian guide to deceptive, humanistic words, terms and phrases.

People can be controlled if their thoughts can be controlled. Since words are thoughts in physical form, they can become manipulative tools for controlling thoughts and thereby change the way people think about certain things. To accomplish this, the controllers only need to change the MEANINGS of important words to fit their particular political view, and invent NEW EMOTIONALLY-CHARGED TERMS to keep us confused and ignorant.

Eventually, all important words said by anyone will automatically convey the controllers' biased political/ religious view. At this point it will become increasingly difficult for the opposition to construct an effective opposing argument because the words being used have been changed, defused, and/ or made unpopular. If we carelessly acquiesce to meaning changes in this war of words, then we will become thought controlled people.

However, if we constantly define words, terms and phrases in the light of the Christian Bible, and insist others give you their definitions, you will be harder to control and less confused in a society of confusion. Here are some examples:

GAY:

Controlled meaning: Homosexual; an alternate viable lifestyle. Some people are born homosexual and this is perfectly natural.

True meaning: Sodomite or Queer. The Bible terms this type of moral deviant an abomination:

Leviticus 18: 22, Romans 1: 27, 1 Corinthians 6: 9. The term "gay" was coined to try and escape the moral stigma associated with the terms "sodomite" or "queer". Remember, God created Adam and Eve, not Adam and Steve!

A CHRISTIAN NATION:

Controlled meaning: Dictatorial, religious tyranny.

True meaning: A nation founded on the principles of self-government and liberty with national laws based on God's laws found in the Christian Bible. The United States of America was originally founded upon these principles (as was Australia, CIM).

ONE NATION UNDER GOD:

Controlled meaning: Many world-religions joined together in America, all worshipping their god each in his own way. All religions work together.

True meaning: One nation, under ONE GOD as defined by the Christian Bible. There are many world-religions coexisting along with Christianity, but they are each worshipping some other god. For Christians to live in "one nation under God", that "God" must be the one and only true God of the Christian Bible. Other gods in the land are forbidden. God calls them "a snare" (Exodus 23: 32-33).

USURY:

Controlled meaning: Excessive interest on money: i.e. a higher rate of interest than allowed by local statute. If no limits are set by statute, usury cannot exist because interest is legal no matter how high it goes.

True meaning: Exorbitant profit on anything (Deuteronomy 23: 19). Usury is strictly forbidden by God's law. Price gouging is usury. Over charging for anything is usury. Any interest (rent) charged for use of money is exorbitant, and therefore usurious, because money is non-productive of itself and cannot be rented like a house or equipment.

As money changes hands, it changes owners. Like wine or bread, money is used up (extinguished) in its use. Unlike a house or equipment, it cannot be returned in the same manner given, any more than the wine or bread can be used and then returned. The former owner cannot charge for use of the money (nor the wine and bread) he no longer owns.

"He who takes usury for a loan of money acts unjustly for he sells what does not exist..." (Aristotle).

(Do you have money collecting interest somewhere??? Read Psalm 15 to see if those who do such things will enter into the Kingdom of God! Ed.)

SEPERATION OF CHURCH AND STATE:

Controlled meaning: Part of the Constitution which prohibits a religion from mixing with government. The Founding Fathers put this clause in the Constitution to protect America from oppressive religions. It prevents ALL religions from influencing government.

True Meaning: It is the USSR's Constitution but not the Constitution of the U.S.A (or of Australia's, CIM). This un-Constitutional phrase was adopted by anti-Christians many years after the founding of our country.

It was intended to prohibit ONLY ONE religion: Christianity. Humanism, and most other religions, are functioning in government under the guise of "Human Rights, Welfare, anti-Discrimination and Social Security" but they are careful not to call them "religion."

The First Amendment to the Constitution (Australian Constitution section 116. CIM) states plainly that "no laws shall be passed" concerning religion. That means that neither Congress, nor local governments can prohibit the free exercise of the Christian faith whether it be in the home or in national government.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS:

Controlled meaning: Dissemination of truthful information to the public.

True meaning: Monopoly of power for a handful of powerful families: a license to lie, slander and control Christians and all dissension. A method to blackout, censor and control information.
