“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1: 68-75;

AUTHORITY, RESISTANCE OR OBEDIENCE? DOOR TO THE KINGDOM! Part 2

By Pastor Pete Peters

The purpose of the other authority or power is the judgment upon the people. It is a naturally occurring, God-ordained judgment and can be seen throughout scripture when our Israel race prospers and forgets their God. It is repeatedly described in the book of Judges.

“Then the sons of Israel did evil in the sight of the Lord, and served the Baals and they forsook the Lord, the God of their fathers... And the anger of the Lord burned against Israel, and He gave them into the hands of plunderers who plundered them; and He sold them into the hands of their enemies.” (Judges 2: 11, 12, 14).

Their enemies always became their governing authorities or higher powers. Judges 3 records bondage to the king of Mesopotamia at one time and then to Moab at another. In Judges 5 Israel came into bondage to the king of Canaan and in Judges 6 it was the Midianites. (The Bible prophesied that in the last days Israel would be in bondage to a system called Babylon.)

When Israel becomes unfaithful, the people become less responsible, thus man-made ordinances are passed with the design to protect the people from themselves. Soon unalienable rights are replaced with government privileges and human rights. Remember the great truth - our rights such as Liberty come from God and thus it is God who justly removes them when we are not faithful to Him. Not only are our freedoms and liberties lost but also our prosperity.

“There is no happiness without liberty, no liberty without self-government, no self-government without constitutionalism, no constitutionalism without morality, and none of these great goods without stability and order.” The Federalist Papers.

The resultant authority or higher power is humanistic and not concerned with protecting unalienable rights but only human rights. This authority is embraced by and obeyed by humanists. Humanists believe that man acts as his own god in deciding what is right and wrong. Men taken collectively become the state, thus the state becomes God and humanists demand obedience to that state.

The state plays the role of God when it attempts to make laws. James 4: 12 says, “There is only one law giver and Judge, the one who is able to save and to destroy.”

This means that in reality no man, nor body of men, can make law legitimate for there is ONLY ONE LAW GIVER. This means it is impossible for Congress, county, state or city to make a law. The authority of Romans 13 doesn't make law, it merely enforces by statutes and judgements the law God has already made. The other authority attempts to be God and make their own laws.

For example, they may make or attempt to make homosexuality legal, acceptable and protected, but God has already made a law to the contrary. For another example, they may make a welfare ruling that says one can eat without having to work, but God has already made a law which says if you don't work you don't eat. They may attempt to make a law which says one cannot hold church services in his home, but God has made no such law.

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

The laws are in reality only decrees which either intentionally or unintentionally cause confusion, injustice and plunder. Bauvier's Law Dictionary describes a decree as belonging in courts of equity or admiralty, not in common law.

Isaiah 10: 1-2 describes it well: "Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees and that write grievousness which they have prescribed. To turn aside the needy from judgment and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey and that they may rob the fatherless." (KJV)

How often does one hear the cry today, "There is no justice anymore?" Praise God for that is the reason he sends such authority. The ultimate purpose for it is to cause the people to repent of their sins and cry out to their God. "So Israel was brought very low because of Midian and the sons of Israel cried to the Lord." (Judges 6: 6)

2 Chronicles 7: 14 says, "...and My people who are called by My name humble themselves and pray, and seek My face AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS, then I will hear from heaven, will forgive their sins, and will heal their land."

WITH REPENTANCE COMES RESISTANCE

Many people have the mistaken idea that repentance is just something you do and then God does the rest or that all you need to do is sit back and wait for "THE WORLD TOMORROW." Notice in the preceding verse that with repentance God's people must turn from their wicked ways, and when that happens the governing authorities begin to notice resistance.

Repentance without resistance is like faith without works. It is dead! The humanistic authority or higher power soon becomes an adversary to a repentant and active believer and 1 Peter 5: 9 teaches a Christian to RESIST the adversary. Take for example, Christian parents who repent of having turned their children over to humanist educators in public schools and thus they take them out of public school and put them in a Christian home school in a state which doesn't allow home schools. Such an action is active resistance to the governing authorities or higher powers. (Note: Resistance without repentance and submission to Christ is also in vain and will be as effective as fighting a war without bullets in the guns.)

Our Christian forefathers understood their duty to resist the authority King George was wielding over them as is evidenced in the address to its people by the Provincied Congress of Massachusetts in 1774, "Resistance to tyranny becomes the Christian and social duty of each individual... Continue steadfast and with a proper sense of your dependence on God, nobly defend those rights which heaven gave and no man ought to take from us." The motto throughout the colonies was, "Resistance to tyrants is obedience to God!"

In a society being oppressed by the judgmental, humanistic authority brought for the purpose of repentance, there is a time when the people have not yet had enough and thus have not yet repented or cried out to their God. Should the faithful Christian remnant within the society blindly submit and obey said authority or should they resist? The answer is resist! To resist is not to rebel for those are two distinct words as we shall show shortly. The word resist, according to Bauvier's Law Dictionary, means: "to oppose by direct, active and quasi-forcible means!" The Hebrew midwives resisted by directly and actively opposing the higher power named Pharaoh. Daniel resisted with his actions in opposition to the king's decree.

Christians are not required to subject themselves to the humanist's laws for their king is Jesus and it is His laws they follow. The non-repentant, i.e., the humanists, should not subject themselves (to Jesus) for Jesus is not their king. (Do you see why the one world Communist conspirators hate true Bible Christianity?) Romans 6: 16 says, "Do you not know when you present yourselves to someone as slaves for obedience, you are slaves of the one whom you obey..."

The pastor in Nebraska resisted the humanistic authority for his king had already given him authority to teach and preach without the permission of the state. He was a slave to Jesus and not to the state. He chose obedience to Christ rather than the state and thus there was resistance. The pastor in Colorado refused to stop having church in his home because he knew his king had given him authority to go into all the world to preach the gospel not just in all the properly zoned areas of the world. He did not obey the city ordinance but resisted.

Resistance can and does vary according to faith, understanding and talents of the repentant believer; "Thus each resistor should not bind his calling on every other believer. The resistance is not arid should not be directed by men but it is the Commander in Chief Himself, the sovereign God of Heaven, who orchestrates it. One may resist by fighting the state in the courts on keeping their children out of public school, another may refuse to get a Social Security number (Australia Card, CIM), another may exercise his right to travel without a driver's license, another may refuse to file an IRS 1040 form (Tax Return, CIM) recognizing he is not required to support a humanistic authority that takes part in baby murder, and the list goes on.

WOE TO THE PASTOR OR CHURCH

that would condemn such resistance as unchristian or not in keeping with Romans 13 or worse yet as REBELLION. Rebellion according to Webster's 1828 Dictionary is: "An open and avowed renunciation of the authority of the government to which one owes allegiance: or the taking of arms traitorously to resist the authority of lawful government."

The actions of resistance thus described, is not the renunciation of authority or government to which one owes allegiance and has nothing to do with arms. It is the humanist authority that has rebelled, that has renounced the authority of Jesus Christ. The Christian people who resist are those who hunger and thirst after righteousness; they want what is right, what is just. They do not in their actions renounce the authority they owe allegiance to, i.e., Jesus Christ; nor do they renounce the government to which they owe allegiance. In fact, most of them pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States government.

They do recognize the difference between De-facto government and De-jure government. According to Bauvier's Law Dictionary, De-facto means: "Actually; in fact; indeed. A term used to denote a thing actually done. An officer de facto is one who performs the duties of an office with apparent right, and under claim and color of an appointment but without being actually qualified in law so to act." This certainly describes the humanistic unconstitutional higher powers at work in America (and Australia CIM) today.

According to Bauvier's Law Dictionary, De-jure means: "Rightfully; of right; lawfully; by legal title. Contrasted with de facto. A government de jure, but not de facto, is one deemed lawful, which has been supplanted; a government de jure and also de facto is one deemed lawful, which is present or established; a government de facto is one deemed unlawful, but which is present or established."

The authority of Romans 13 goes with the de jure constitutional government that resisting Christians pledge allegiance to, but which presently is not both de jure and de facto. The humanistic power or authority belongs to the de facto unconstitutional government. To call allegiance to the de jure government and resistance to de facto government, REBELLION is wrong and incorrect. It's as insulting to a Christian soldier as were the actions of Jane Fonda to the Vietnam soldier. The following excerpt from a sermon preached in 1765 by Jonathan Mayhew of Boston illustrates the proper understanding of de jure and de facto government and of resistance versus rebellion.

"The king is as much bound by his oath not to infringe the legal rights of the people, as the people are bound to yield subjection to him. From when it follows that as soon as the prince sets himself up above the law, he loses the king in the tyrant. He does, to all intents and purposes, un-king himself by acting out of and beyond that sphere which the constitution allows him to move in, and in such cases he has no more right to be obeyed than any inferior officer 'who acts beyond his commission. The subject's obligation to allegiance then ceases, of course, and to resist him is no more rebellion than to resist any foreign invader... it is making use of the means, and the only means, which God has put into their power for mutual and self-defense."

From this quote one sees this Christian pastor understood the principle laid down in 2 Samuel 23: 3, (KJV) "He that ruleth over men must be just, ruling in the fear of God!" When he spoke of the king bound by oath not to infringe the people's legal right he spoke of de jure authority and when he spoke of a king who sets himself above the law and un-kings himself he spoke of de facto authority. He knew his obedience in light of scripture was to the de jure power and his responsibility to the de facto was resistance. He knew that said resistance was not rebellion {nor was it sedition}. Oh, that God would give pastors such understanding today.

WORDS TO THE WISE CONCERNING CHRISTIAN RESISTANCE.

When resisting, remember the admonition of Romans 12: 18, "If possible, so far as it depends on you, be at peace with all men." Hebrews 12: 14 says, "Pursue peace with all men..." This means one's resistance should not be one of open defiance and arrogant assertion of rights. Jesus had the right to travel in Judea but there were times He deemed it wiser not to travel there because of the power of the authorities there. “And after these things Jesus was walking in Galilee; for He was unwilling to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him.” John 7: 1.

Jesus, when approached by the authorities regarding paying a tax He did not lawfully owe, used the situation to teach the people regarding who was subject to pay and who was not. After He did so He decided the situation was such He should not pay anyway, yet He showed His resistance by not paying out of the regular treasury kept by His travelling party, rather He chose to find a coin elsewhere. Matthew 17: 24-27; “And when they had come to Capernaum, those who collected the two-drachma tax came to Peter, and said, ‘Does your teacher not pay the two-drachma tax?’ He said, ‘Yes’. And when he came into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, ‘What do you think, Simon? From whom do the kings of the earth collect customs or poll-tax, from their sons or from strangers?’ And upon his saying, ‘From strangers,’ Jesus said to him, ‘Consequently the sons are exempt. But lest we give them offense, go to the sea, and throw in a hook, and take the first fish that comes up; and when you open its mouth, you will find a stater. Take that and give it to them for you and Me.’”

Another time when approached about paying taxes He did not pay but taught the principle that if you were subject to Caesar you should pay and if not then it was not necessary. Jesus taught a needed point concerning resistance in Matthew 10: 16-18, “Behold, I send you out as sheep, in the midst of wolves; therefore be shrewd as serpents, and innocent as doves. But beware of men; for they will deliver you up to the courts, and scourge you in their synagogues; and you shall even be brought before governors and kings for My sake, as a testimony to them and to the Gentiles.” In Matthew 5: 25-26 He said, “Make friends quickly with your opponent of law while you are with him on the way, in order that your opponent may not deliver you to the judge, and the judge to the officer, and you be thrown in prison. Truly I say to you, you shall not come out of there until you have paid up the last cent.”

The pastor in Nebraska resisted properly but was imprisoned anyway. When imprisoned one suffers as does one's family, but that in itself is no justification to condemn resistance. 1 Peter 2: 20 teaches, “For what credit is there if, when you sin and are harshly treated, you endure it with patience? But if when you do what is right and suffer for it, you patiently endure it, this finds favor with God.” Philippians 1: 29, 30; “For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but to also suffer for His sake, experiencing the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.”

When Paul wrote that, he was in prison for “proclaiming customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans.” I am for resistance as much as Pastor Tucket was, who in his election sermon of 1771, after acknowledging the Christians' duty to resist, said he did not presume to draw the line in the present controversy where resistance should begin.

THE KEY TO FREEDOM IS SLAVERY

If rights such as liberty come from God then it can never be obtained without Him. Jesus said He was the way and the TRUTH (John 14: 6) and that truth shall set us free (John 8: 32). This simply means there is no freedom without knowing Jesus, without being a Christian! A man who is not a Christian fighting, as a patriot, for freedom will be as effective as a castrated herd bull. A man who thinks he alone can be sovereign is deceived for one will either be a slave to Jesus Christ or to men.

Romans 6: 22 teaches that when a Christian is freed from his sin he is also “enslaved to God.” As a slave to Christ, one experiences liberty and freedom from humanistic authority. When Peter and John were commanded by the authorities to stop preaching they dare not obey them. Their response was, “We MUST obey God rather than men.” They understood the meaning of 1 Corinthians 7: 23, “You were bought with a price; do not become slaves of men.”

As slaves to Christ they were FREE from humanistic man-made laws as they no longer had jurisdiction over them. They were not humanists but Christians and the law they followed gave them authority to go into all the world and preach the gospel. If one belongs to Caesar he is to obey Caesar, but if he belongs to Christ he is to obey Christ. “Do you not know that when you present yourself to someone as slaves for obedience you are slaves of the one you obey...?” Romans 6: 16.

As slaves to Christ, Peter and John properly understood their status in the world as Ambassadors. “Therefore we are AMBASSADORS for Christ.” Ambassadors are not subject to the law of the land in which they reside as is borne out in the definition found in Bauvier's Law Dictionary: “Ambassadors are regarded as the personal representatives of the head of state which sends them, and in consequence they are entitled to special honors and have special privileges... Only Empires, KINGDOMS, Grand Duchesses, and great Republics are entitled to send and receive Ambassadors... The person of an Ambassador is inviolable. He is exempt from both the criminal and civil jurisdiction of the country to which he is sent... They cannot be arrested for debt, nor for violation of the law, except in cases where it may be necessary to prevent them from committing acts of violence.”

THE ILLUSION OF FREEDOM

As a slave to Christ and as an ambassador for His kingdom, Christians are not lawfully under the jurisdiction of a humanistic state authority. That authority has been given by God for jurisdiction over the non-Christian, including the non-Christian patriots.

Patriots who fight merely for the Constitution fight in vain, for the Constitution and Bill of Rights was established to protect the unalienable rights granted by God to a Christian Nation. John Adams said, "Our Constitution was made only for a moral and religious people. It is wholly inadequate to the government of any other." Since those rights come from God, the constitution and all the standing armies of the world could not retain them when God decides to remove them. Once Americans (and Australians, CIM) removed Jesus as King they became a slave to another and are now paying the price just as their Israel forefathers did when they chose to have a man king rather than God (1Samuel 8). We must first again install Jesus as King and then fight for the Constitution which was designed to protect the resultant unalienable rights which are ours as Christians.

The one world Communist conspiracy which desires all to be slaves of the state understands the nature of true Bible Christianity and truly hates it. They have worked diligently to replace it with a phoney Baal religion called Judeo-Christianity calling for blind obedience to the state. America was once declared a Christian nation by three different and separate Supreme Court decisions: Church of the Holy Trinity v. United States, 143 U.S. 457 at 471 (1892); Zorach v. Clauson, 343 U.S. 307 at 313 (1952); McGowan v. Maryland, 366 U.S. 420 at 561 (1961).

The enemies of freedom knew the necessity of removing the citizens from their God before enslaving them, thus the efforts to remake America (and Australia, CIM) into a pluralistic society with a pluralistic religion called Judeo-Christianity.

That religion has deceived Christians regarding the GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM OF CHRIST UPON EARTH. Some feel the purpose of Christianity is to save souls from an eternal barbecue pit. Others feel they are to play church and sit within four walls and pray and repent. Others are waiting to get raptured. Some expect the kingdom while doing nothing, waiting for Jesus to come and do it all. Others passively wait and speak of the WORLD TOMORROW. All are cowering, obedient slaves to a humanistic state fearfully telling all to OBEY and condemning those who resist. Such people have no intentions or desires to suffer for Christ, fearing they have too much to lose.

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, a blueprint for one world conquest by the anti-Christ, state in Protocol #17, "We have long past taken care to discredit the priesthood of the goyim, and thereby to ruin their mission on earth which in these last days might still be a great hindrance to us."

CONCLUSION

This subject of authority, resistance and obedience is indeed the very door to the kingdom. In 1776 that door was open with the battle cry, NO KING BUT JESUS and was in keeping with Bible prophecy. Micah 4: 1, 6, 7, 8: "And it will come about in the last days that the mountain of the house of the Lord will be established as the chief of the mountains. It will be raised above the hills and people will stream to it..." This happened in America. "In that day declares the Lord I will assemble the lame, and gather the outcasts, even those whom I have afflicted..." Such were the Nordic immigrants that settled the nation. "I will make the lame a remnant and the outcasts, a strong nation and the Lord will reign over them in Mount Zion..." No King but Jesus.

The door has now been partially closed and our people confused and enslaved by a system called Babylon and ruled over by their enemies who hate Jesus Christ. May the King of Kings again save His people and open the door wide. May His people have the faith and courage to walk through. Micah 4: 9-10, "Now, why do you cry out loudly? Is there no king among you. Or has your counselor perished, that agony has gripped you like a woman in childbirth? Writhe and labor to give birth, Daughter of Zion. Like a woman in childbirth, For now you will go out of the city, Dwell in the field, and go to Babylon. There you will be rescued: There the Lord will redeem you from the hand of your enemies."

THE ID CARD

It appears that the ID Card has been temporarily stalled. I say 'temporarily' because it is obvious that it will not be completely put to rest. There has been talk of using the Tax File number as identification. Whatever number will be applied, you can be certain that this will be an ongoing battle for some time. Several petition forms were circulated locally and completely filled and sent in. Keep writing to members and senators, etc., letting them know your views. Someone once said, "All that is needed for evil to succeed is that good men do nothing." I would like to change that as "no man is good", and say instead, ALL THAT IS NEED EO FOR EVIL TO SUCCEED IS THAT CHRISTIANS SHIRK THEIR RESPONSIBILITY!!

LET'S GET TOGETHER

A number of people have indicated a desire to get together up here during the midyear school holidays. A week of fellowship and learning and sharing could indeed be beneficial. I would like to hear from anyone who would definitely come. Please let us know if you have tent or caravan, how many in your family etc. I know that next July is still some time away, but it gives time for communication, and sorting out any difficulties. If you wish to contact us by phone you may do so by ringing (070) 660146 preferably in the evenings. Think on it!

LIKE PRODUCES LIKE

THE BIBLE and

THE US NEWS & WORLD REPORT (USNWR)

The Bible says that like produces like. On April 13, 1987 the USNWR concurred. Now it can be believed. The USNWR article dealt with a study of identical twins.

The study shows that identical twins sired by law abiding parents tend to be law abiding even when placed with lawless adoptive parents. On the other hand, identical twins who are children of lawless parents tend to be lawless even when placed with law abiding adoptive parents.

The article carries statements such as: "Heredity has a greater influence on one's personality and behaviour than either one's upbringing or the most crushing social pressure." And "A host of findings in behavioral and animal research... conclude that genes... profoundly influence human behavior and personality."

Experts are quoted as saying: "The evidence is so compelling that it is hard to understand how people could not believe in the strong influence of genetics, on behavior... The human mind, rather than being a tabula rasa to be filled in from birth by family and society is 'hard-wired' before birth with a predisposed personality... Socio-biologists believe that such traits as aggression, criminal tendencies and intellectual ability may be biologically inevitable."

FIVE THOUSAND YEARS

The God of our early Christian fathers was called "God the Word." He was strict. He demanded that His Laws be followed to the letter. Violators were severely punished. Those guilty of violating His Law against premeditated murder were ordered to be put to death; execution to take place immediately.

For thousands of years, generation after generation, Christians have obediently put murderers to death. Families with a tendency toward premeditated murder have been weeded out. They are now rare. In fact, it is extremely difficult to find someone in the Christian community who will take pay to kill, or even use force to make someone bend to their will.

Practically speaking, when a middle class white can be hired to cold bloodedly stick a knife in someone it is an event worthy of a news article. In this present age of lawlessness our people, for the most part, remain lawful. Except for the occasional maverick, the genetic lines of those who would violate God's Laws have been cut off over the generations. Like produces like.

AMERICAN INDIANS

The modern day American Indian is a descendant of braves who survived thousands of years of perpetual warfare. Their never-ending wars allowed only skilled and efficient warriors to remain alive to produce children. Inefficient warriors died young without offspring. As a result many Indian villages maintained a ratio of five or six women to each brave. Horse stealing provided payment for wives. Efficient thieves bought many wives and had numerous offspring. Inefficient ones had none.

The pinnacle of Indian society for thousands of years was occupied by their very best thieves and murderers. The inefficient were just as efficiently cut off. An inspection of prisons in the western United States near Indian population centers bears witness to this selective breeding. The prison population in these areas is almost exclusively Indian. A white face is a rarity. It could not be otherwise. Thieves and murderers have been bred for hundreds of generations - and thieves and murderers are the result. Like produces like.

The Indian is no longer made chief and given wives as reward for murder and theft as were his ancestors. The law slaps him into prison. Today's Indian, a product of a hundred generations of selective breeding, is punished for doing what he was bred to do. To reverse these unsocial traits may require as many generations of selective breeding as it took to put these traits in him in the first place. Those committing capital crimes would have to be eliminated. Preventing offenders from reproducing their own kind over the next several thousand years will result in a more socially acceptable type.

This would be traumatic to the Indians, to say the least. Their prison population however is proof that their present conduct is traumatic to those on whom they prey.

BLACKS

Africa's black leaders are today living proof of the success of selective breeding. Seemingly, only the most vicious and bloodthirsty rise to become presidents of black nations in one time "free" elections.

The black in the United States has not fared so well. What is an obvious survival trait in Africa is considered a criminal trait under Western Law. The jails in New York, Philadelphia, and Boston furnish abundant proof. They are almost entirely black. Blacks do best the thing they have been bred to do. This gains them leadership of nations in Africa and lands them in prison in the West. Like breeds like.

THE PROBLEM OF KINGS

The problem of the king is to maintain control over his own citizens. Disaffected citizens revolt. History shows that the king's police and army are reluctant to use force against their own kind. They even join the rebels. French troops couldn't be trusted to suppress French citizens. Swiss troops were brought in. The pope brought in foreign troops.

The British used German troops in America when their own troops exhibited sympathy for the colonial cause. The Lincoln armies recruited many tens of thousands of Germans during the War Between the States for the same reason.

THE US TODAY

The Government of the United States does many things disapproved by most Americans. It finances, feeds, and arms world communism. It unmercifully taxes American citizens. It sponsors forced busing, unlimited immigration, and casts a benign eye on an unbelievable high crime rate while protecting the offenders. History says that at some point Americans may come to feel that peaceful efforts at reform are of no avail.

They may even feel it necessary to adopt the more aggressive stance of their forefathers if they are to return the nation to obedience to The Law. This has long been a topic of conversation.

THE KING'S COUNTER MOVE

The king who rules America has learned from the past. He has taken every precaution to protect himself against a revolt of his subjects. Knowing that the army is the ultimate enforcer of his will, he has carefully selected its personnel. While the majority of America is composed of the same people, 75% of the army is made up of minorities; the largest part of whom are blacks, Indians, and Hispanics - a mixture of the first two with white added. These groups hate the majority group in America with an intensity that is difficult to understand unless one also understands what has gone before.

Most of the personnel making up today's American army have been bred for five thousand years to violate the laws of the majority population they are supposedly dedicated to defend. If like produces like, this army as now constituted would not hesitate to violently suppress the majority population if it defied the will of its king.

ESCAPE CLAUSE

There is a time limit, however, on the use of this army. If this carefully selected, trained, and indoctrinated force is to be used as the ultimate whip to keep the nation obedient to unpopular edicts, it must be used sometime during the next two years.

The reason is, if reports are to be believed, the AIDS virus attacks minorities at a rate many times greater than it attacks the majority group. It is entirely possible that today's army may soon dissolve in terror as it flees decimation by plague. A non-existent army is of no use to the king if not available to enforce today's unpopular laws.

CONCLUSION

There is a more rational and tolerant attitude in the land toward the study of genetics and inherited behavior than there has been in the past. This is seen by the USNWR article on inherited characteristics. It may also be the time to examine more closely the suggestions of the Indians and Blacks that they be allowed self-determination.

If the minority populations are allowed to peacefully go their way and rule themselves under their own law it will end the irritation of forced association of lawful and lawless populations. It will also side-track the approaching "difficult times" so loudly predicted by black and Indian leaders. It will also side-track the solution offered by a cynical politician which was "let 'em fight it out."

Self-determination would have an enormous economic impact on the nation. Every sector would be affected, from law enforcement, tax, political, and every aspect of the economic scene to the entire social services systems. There will be many questions that will have to be answered. None are insurmountable.

Self-determination for blacks, Indians, and Hispanics at the same time self-determination and self-development for whites who are demanding lawful society may permit America's streets to once more become safe.

Since like produces like, it appears that separation of the lawless from the lawful is the only practical way this goal will be achieved. Self-determination is an idea whose time may have come.

Anti-Thought-Control-Dictionary

A Christian guide to deceptive, humanistic words, terms and phrases.

JURY OF YOUR PEERS:

Old meaning: A jury consisting of people of the same civil rank or standing as the person on trial. Intelligent, unbiased citizens aware of the laws of the land.

New meaning: People carefully hand-picked to favor the government and oppose the defendant. Usually housewives or men without jobs. Often non-professional, uneducated people whose contact with the world is through their TV.

POLICE DEPARTMENT:

Stated purpose: To protect the public from harm, stop crime and keep the peace. To uphold the law of the land without bias.

Covert purpose: The enforcement arm of the State to protect government from the public, keep the public submissive and under control, and collect revenue from the public for government use. Equivalent to King George's "standing armies" in the colonies before the War of Independence.

JUDEO-CHRISTIANITY:

Stated meaning: The religion of Jesus which branched out of Judaism at the time of the early church. Both Christianity and Judaism have the same origins and the same God.

Actual meaning: A religion created for the purpose of destroying Christianity by watering down Christian ideals and neutralizing Christians. Also, designed to promote and protect Jews and Judaism. (NOTE: "Judeo-Christianity" is an oxymoron: a word combining two opposite things or ideas which are mutually exclusive, thus defying logic.)

ANTI-SEMITISM:

Stated meaning: A disparaging or antagonistic attitude, or hostile act toward a Jewish person, Jewish organization or the religion of Judaism.

Covert intent: Used to disarm, intimidate and confuse Christians into submission to Jews at the expense and eventual destruction of Christianity.

Actual (true) meaning: Opposition toward people of Semitic (Shemitic) origin. (NOTE: Most people who call themselves Jews are not Semitic in origin [descendants of Shem]. In fact, "Semitism" (Shemitism) has nothing to do with Jews, Jewish organizations or Judaism.)

EONS OF TIME

by B.B. Howe

Throughout the eons of time
The sound of marching feet resound
Echoing through ages past
Bringing with them the glorious hope
Of men prepared to stand and fight
And break the yoke of Edom.

Throughout the eons of time
The sound of angelic voices ring
Echoing through ages past
Upholding their men with glorious sound
Of women prepared to side with their men
And break the yoke of Edom.

Throughout the eons of time
True Adamic sons and daughters
Have walked together, side by side
Cleaving to Him they know shall soon
Break the yoke of Edom.

Throughout the eons in the future
Adamic men and women arrayed in white
Shall ever raise their voices high
Singing praises to the LAMB
Who broke the yoke of Edom.

How glorious shall those eons be
When round his throne are gathered we
Redeemed by Him the King of kings
Who by His vow kept His Word
And broke the yoke of Edom

Oh! Eons past now forgotten
Oh! Eons present ever bright
As we His people walk in the light
No yoke to bear just eons to share
With our King of ISRAEL.

TAPE OF THE MONTH
#8202 GOD SOLD ISRAEL INTO CAPTIVITY. This explains that the situation we find ourselves in is caused by our disobedience to God's Law, and He is punishing us. We must remember in all tribulation that God is sovereign, AND IN TOTAL CONTROL.

FOR WOMEN ONLY

by Cheri Peters

As women of the 1980's we've lost many of the essential qualities God put within us to help us become the "Cherished Woman" we so much desire. A man's strongest inward need is to be admired by the woman he loves. But a woman's greatest need is to know that her husband "cherishes her" with his body, mind and spirit.

Why are so many marriages being destroyed and so many men and women completely unhappy in their roles as husband and wife? One of the reasons is we have let the anti-Christ forces which are at present ruling our land also influence the very core of our nation - OUR FAMILIES! And again taking it one step further - we have let them be victorious in ruling the husband/ wife relationship as God created it to be from the garden until now.

Today's woman's first thoughts and actions are centred on her needs and her wants. She is very concerned with how her husband is fulfilling his obligation to her and that she have every whim, even if it means she leaves her home and her children to find herself. And then down the road she wonders what happened when all communication has ceased between her and her husband and eventually is crushed when her husband has found a new woman to "cherish." Sad to say, this scenario has taken place in far too many homes.

Helen Andelin, author of Fascinating Womanhood, has written her book in such a way it touches each and every one of us. The perfect wife does not exist, but Mrs. Andelin has laid out many principles for the Christian wife to help guide her own married life. By applying these principles to ourselves we can not only have happier more fulfilled husbands but we can become the Christ-like helpmate God intended for us to be. And a very important side benefit is that our children will grow up in happier homes and hopefully carry on the heritage of a loving Dad and Mom.

Women of Israel, shake the shackles that are binding you in a role as a secondary woman! Stop allowing the peers of our anti-Christ society dictate to you what will make you happy. Jesus Christ said when we lose our lives THEN we will find LIFE. A wife MUST LOSE HERSELF in her husband and children and then she will find happiness in her own life.

THE CHRISTIAN AND THE INCOME TAX - Part 4

Dr. Everett Sileven © July 1986

So it appears to me that the application would be more appropriately made today that if government be your god, then obey it. If God be your God, then obey Him. The people of the United States never did give the federal government the power to direct taxation. A tax on wages, or the so-called graduated income tax, is a direct tax, and is therefore a violation of the United States Constitution. However, we must point out here that in a later chapter we will deal with the specifics of who a free man individual is that is not required by law to pay a graduated income tax.

There are many persons in the United States who are by law required to pay a graduated income tax, but the individual who is a free sovereign individual under the Constitution of the United States is not required to pay a graduated income tax on an exchange of his labor for other means of commodities, medium of exchange, etc.

In Russia, the government has been very successful in making Godly people appear to be law-breakers. They do this by charging them with a violation or some infraction of some bureaucratic mum ba-jumbo, and then putting it in the newspapers and magazines, calling them law breakers, unpatriotic, anarchists, rebellious, etc. Immediately the community of people in Russia stand up and fight against the individual who is making the infraction. This same tactic is used in the United States of America.

Any time that a Christian tries to stand up for God's Law, and obedience to God's Holy Spirit, and tries to be Godly in his conduct, the government, and especially the IRS, is quick to print his name in the paper with some outrageous amount of supposed tax liability; and then they simply sit back while the Christian community, clergy, and self-righteous of the community attack this dear Christian and dear Brother for trying to be a good, God-fearing, constitutionally obedient, patriotic American.

This is the old tactic of peer pressure, and not many Christians and not many Americans have the tenacity or the fortitude to withstand this pressure. If they do withstand it, and continue to stand or speak out against corruption in government, the intensity of the peer pressure increases. And I might add that the clergy is the source of most of that increased intensity. I believe that some of the hottest places in Hell (The author is a Baptist and obviously in error here, CIM) will be reserved for preachers who have spoken out against the righteousness of some Americans who have stood up against the tyranny of government.

Romans 13, 1 Peter 2, nor "Render unto Caesar" can be used correctly or effectively against a well-informed Christian to persuade him to disobey his God and obey ungodly, tyrannical government.

Another reason that the comment Render unto Caesar is used by many pastors and Christians to beat other people over the head is to make them bow to the wishes of bureaucrats and ungodly law. This is not acceptable, for from the point of view that they are trying to imply that Caesar has certain jurisdiction and God has certain jurisdiction.

This is a typical humanistic dichotomy response. God is sovereign over all, including Caesar. Therefore, to say that Caesar has a certain realm of obedience and God has another realm of obedience is totally false. Caesar must come in line with God. As our Patriot forefathers said, "Only one King: Jesus." Remember, it was the unsaved Jews who said "...no king but Caesar."

Chapter 3. WHAT IS THE LAW?

At this point, I must deal with the term law! The modern day American Christian is obsessed with the words: "We must obey the law."

I agree with their statement if we can come to a consensus of what the law is, and who has the authority to make law! Webster's 1828 Dictionary defines law as "that which is laid, set or fixed, like statute, constitution, from the Latin statuo." Webster goes on to define the law of nature as "a rule of conduct arising out of a natural relation of human beings established by the Creator, and existing prior to any positive precept. Thus it is a law of nature, that one man should not injure another, and murder and fraud would be crimes, independent of any prohibition from a supreme power on earth."

Black's Third Edition Law Dictionary defines law as "That which is laid down, ordained, or established." In the Bible, the word law comes from the Greek word nomos, meaning "a force or influence impelling to action." Law, true law, is a force, compelling to action. It carries in it, because of its nature, a judgment on violators. The Bible tells us in James 4: 12 that there is only "one law giver." This does not mean that God wrote down some words approving or disapproving certain actions of men. No! No! It means that God created certain forces in the universe that compel certain actions. He wrote down in words about these powers to warn us that if we offend or violate these forces (laws) we will reap their inherent judgments, pains and sufferings.

God's laws are not a set of rules of do's and don'ts, they are forces He created and set in motion in the universe to maintain the universe. For example, a car moving at 50 miles per hour will kill or injure any child that steps in front of it. You warn your child to stay out of the street, not to regulate the child, but to prevent the consequences of a 50 mph car hitting your child.

Likewise, God says "The blood of murdered individuals results in more bloodshed!" All the Supreme Court Decisions in the world can't stop that law! God's Law also says that "the borrower is slave to the lender." All the banking laws in the world cannot prevent the borrower from being a slave to the lender. That is the law.

No man or set of men can create law. Man has no power, no authority, no jurisdiction to make law. He can and he is supposed to enforce and obey God's Law. Civil authority has no delegated authority to legalize crime, make lawful acts illegal, or illegal acts lawful. Man must obey the Law! This means he must obey God! to obey men in violation of God's Law would be the highest form of treason against God.

This book available from Christian Identity for $14 posted.

First I would like to apologize for a slow response to letters, and also some delay in getting some material printed. Having the children home during the holidays always requires extra time to be spent with them. Also my father is in hospital undergoing some operations, which requires a weekly visit and 250 mile round trip. We pray that God will be merciful and allow him to come home in a few weeks.

A few videos are overdue, if you have these numbers, please return them: CI-03, CI-04, also a number of audio cassettes have been out for two or more months. Please, if you have had them longer than four weeks; return them so others may benefit from them. If you wish to keep cassettes, let us know as soon as you possibly can enclose $4 per cassette, Thank you.

If you are passing material to others to try to influence them, that's fine! However, if the recipients want to argue the matter, do not pursue it, as argument is a waste of time, and it shows that God has chosen to keep them in darkness (for the time being). Rather spend the time wisely helping those who are interested and want to learn more. We have had relatives and friends turn away from us, so will you. We have made lots of new friends, so will you too! More encouragement can be had from the late Pastor Emry's sermons SOW IN GOOD GROUND and further HOW NOT TO BE DISCOURAGED IN WITNESSING.

The latest newsletter from Pastor Pete Peters had a small item about the rebuilding of Babylon. I believe the next 12 months will prove to be very exciting times indeed. We are in the Jubilee year, which is 40 Jubilees after Christ was baptized. For the unrighteous, their destiny is the "Day of Wrath." For the truly righteous, God has declared: "I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him." (Malachi 3: 17)

Many thanks for the letters, newspaper clippings, cassettes and such which has been sent to me. They truly are appreciated. If you have never written, and would like to remain on our mailing list, please tell us so, otherwise we may be forced to drop your name from the list. May God keep you in His care.
