“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1: 68-75;

Covenant Messenger

November AD 1987

A publication of the N.Q. Fellowship of God's Covenant People

The following came to us from YOUR MAINE TO OREGON INDEPENDENT INFORMER of HC83, Box 1085, Coquille, OREGON 97423, U.S.A. in their November issue, and was originally taken from “OFF MY CHEST” by Betty Lou Hanson, secretary to Nord Davis, Box 129, Topton, N.C. 28781. U.S.A.

“You only get one chance to lie to me. If I catch you at, just once, I am never going to believe you again, and I am under no obligation to inform you why our relationship is over. Does that make sense? It is pretty close to scriptural requirement with just a touch of our human nature tossed in for good measure? Not all of us enjoy those emotional confrontations with liars who dwell among us, and as for me, I do not have time budgeted in a futile attempt in their rehabilitation. I just walk away...”

There are days when I must answer as many as 50 letters from those readers of Nord Davis' pamphlets. Never does a day pass but that we receive several letters bemoaning the tragic state of our beloved America, and then the letter's conclusion states as dogmatic truth that 'only Jesus can save us now.' I glance at the date of the letter, and almost without exception the letter was written on a Monday, suggesting to me that a sermon may have sparked that false concept about our national salvation. Only God knows how many hundreds of letters we have had to answer this lie - the graceful suggestion that all we are required to do is be ready for heaven; be saved, baptized, and anointed by some obvious gift of the Holy Spirit, and then simply wait for Jesus to come and rescue you from this world of wickedness and degeneration.

It is perfectly alright, it would appear, to just sit there in the midst of Sodom and Babylon, ignore the pleas for help from those Christians who are doing battle with spiritual wickedness in high places, and simply await the inevitable. The problem, my dear friends, is NOT (emphasis mine, CIM) the bankers and their usury; the sodomites and their AIDS; the politicians and their conspiratorial cohorts, but you!

Jesus already gave His Life for the salvation of His People - His Nation Israel, and His Body of faithful believers. He is not obliged to do it again.

This time, you pay for your own sins, those wilful violations of His laws permitted to continue in your presence, and with your knowledge and by silence with your consent. The Christian, who remains silent, because of his much higher level of accountability, may suffer greater punishment than the actual sinner operating from his carnal level of understanding.

Why are you bringing America (and Australia, too, CIM) down by the sin of silence? Why are you still walking in the counsel of the un-Godly preachers who deceive you, and you love to have it so? Your sins of silence will fall upon the third and fourth generation, and your great grandchildren will rightfully spit on your grave for botching up their glorious heritage. It is not my prayer that God be merciful to you, until you, and at least a majority of our Christian brethren, finally get it through their deceived heads that America (and Australia, CIM) is part of God's Divine Plan, and in that Israel Pattern as set forth in Bible prophecy, we are not going to see any remedy of our national problems. Get that?

I am astounded that after a couple dozen issues of “Off-My-Chest”, a whole bunch of you seem to continuously miss the point. It appears that for a brief moment you have the Truth within your grasp, and then you march off to your church, and, “Pop”, like a bubble before your eyes; you have lost it again. Marvellous!

How do I know that? You ask about Romans 13 and the apparent suggestion that you submit to every disobedient whim of government. I think that most of you didn't get that idea on your own, but had some help from your minister. We do have hundreds of

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!
CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

Bible scholars among our readers, but it is not those who ask such questions, for they know that St. Paul, the author of Romans 13, was sitting in prison for disobeying government at the very time he was writing! So, unless St. Paul had become rehabilitated in prison for his “unscriptural challenge of authority”, there must be more to it than is commonly taught.

Can you imagine Paul Revere or Patrick Henry sitting still for the average Romans 13 sermon? Would they not have correctly presumed that such a minister was a secret Red Coat and a traitor to the glorious cause of Liberty? There was a time when such a preacher would get a hot ball of lead between the eyes from a smoking musket, and it would all be in the Name of Jesus.

Make no mistake about it: America (and Australia, CIM) is in for a Divine Spanking... The spanking is not coming because of a failure to appreciate God’s Grace. It is not coming because of insufficient love for our enemies, our brethren or our neighbors. It is because American (and Australian, CIM) Christians are basically liars to God’s face, pretending and professing to love Him, yet not keeping His Commandments. Jesus, who died because of God’s love of the world, was uncompromising in His instructions: “If you love me, keep my commandments!”

Can you imagine why I have righteous impatience with ministers teaching against God’s Laws, Statutes and Judgments and then deceiving us into thinking that such deportment is all in the love of Jesus? My goodness - two or three letters promoting this theme is enough to spoil my day. I know that I am a crusty grandmother, who has been toughened by how it is in the real world. I have lived where the Christian rubber meets the hard, cruel road.

Have you ever been in Central America? Have you ever met one of the Nicaraguan Contras? Commandante “Big Don” worked as my gardener, for goodness sake! He would not have been at all impressed by the average Romans 13 sermon, would he? I’d look twice at the fighting knife hanging at his side before I’d suggest that he pray for the Sandinistas. No, his understanding of God’s Law was such that you execute the murderers of women and children.

So, as I read some of your letters, dripping with naiveté, I am able to regain my equilibrium with flashbacks to the battle-weary faces of the “Big Dons” I have known - the more doers than hearers of The Word, rightly dividing a communist Sandinista with a machete! Amen, brother, preach on! I guess “Big Don” had this love thing pretty well worked out: He would lay down his life for his friends.

How many American (or Australian, CIM) Christians would do that? Good grief, some don’t even want to lay down a hundred dollar bill for their friends who are risking their lives for America. Of course, my day would not be complete without several readers pointing out to us Chronicles 7: 14. Don’t worry, they insist, if we will just humble ourselves, and pray God will heal our land. America’s (and Australia’s, CIM) problem, it would seem, is just a lack of humility and prayer. Perhaps so; but there is a little personal risk and no personal sweat in a state of humility and prayer.

Now, snap out of it and go to the next verse - seek God’s Face. How do you do that, after a good dose of humility and prayer? I guess you should study His instructions. I don’t know about you, but when I meditate on His Law day and night as King David did, sooner or later it is going to occur to me that there are a few wicked ways that I have yet to turn from. Got that?

Now, we take one more round with humility and prayer, with the commitment to turn from those wicked ways that I have had such a time letting go of - banking on my ultimate promise of Grace in the end. So now I have got to stop doing those things which are forbidden in The Law. Where else are wicked ways carefully defined? Can’t find them set forth by the Doctrines of Love or Grace, can we?

It seems to me that all the elements of this comforting verse must be in place at the same time before God is going to hear. My People; My Name; humble, prayerful, seeking and turning from disobedience of The Law, must be a complete lifestyle before you will even hear from heaven. Can you see that humility and prayer is unnoticed and unheard apart from seeking and turning? Am I saying that all those prayers are for nothing? NO, Scripture plainly states it!

Thousands of our Christian people cling to that verse, without seeing that its promise is highly conditional and with the insinuation from God himself that we probably will not have lawful claim to it anyway. Oh, the land will be healed all right. It will be either by humility, prayer, seeking and turning from our wicked ways, or it will be through the cleansing power of tribulation, famine, fire and death.

Can you think of any other scriptural pattern suggested? God is our Judge; he is not our defense attorney. It is not His job to clean up our mess and change our diapers. We will either do it ourselves in the manner set forth in 2 Chronicles 7: 14, or He will drive us off the land He gave to our fathers, and find someone else to do the job.

How many nations, thus warned by any of the prophets, ever turned from their wicked ways and were healed? Only one in the Bible, and none in secular history. The Biblical example of such people is Nineveh. I am willing to stand corrected: Who else? Others prayed. Some humbled willingly or were humbled by” force. A few sought His Face, but where are those who turned from their wicked ways to divert the inevitable judgment of tribulation, disease, war, and national captivity?

So, I ask you to reconsider whether or not you are really up to the high calling of being a Christian, (following the 759 Laws, Statutes, and Judgments). Before God can heal America (and Australia, CIM), He must, one more time, forgive. He cannot forgive until He hears. He cannot hear until we turn. We cannot turn until we seek His Face. We cannot properly seek His Face., apart from prayer and humility. So, we are back to the Divine Spanking. With disobedient children, it just about always brings about humility...”

PHINEHAS PRIESTHOOD

by Richard Hoskins

This is a sign of the priesthood of Phinehas.

(PHINEHAS - "zealous for his God, and (who) made an atonement for the children of Israel." Numbers 25: 6-13. This same Phinehas, "executed judgment and so the plague was stayed." Psalm 106: 30)

AMERICA'S LAW

Early America lived by Law. At Jamestown in 1607, Captain John Smith opened the Bible and dispensed justice.

On the frontier, from the foothills of the Blue Ridge, down into Tennessee, over into Kentucky, and up into the Ohio, Virginians lived by the Law. There were few courts and almost no jails. People studied the Law. The Law was judge. The obedient enforced the Law. Justice reigned.

Where outlaws appeared the "+" superimposed on "P", carved into a tree, or chalked on a wall, reminded the outlaw that the "Law" was not done away with and that violations would be punished. Every man was expected to be a Christian and every Christian man was expected to be a Phinehas priest.

Law violators paid the penalty laid down by the Bible in the "judgements". Criminals were rare. So rare, that their existence was carefully noted.

THE REVOLUTION

When the Revolution broke out, ministers of The Church of England as well as the royal judges scampered back to England. Land disputes in Piedmont Virginia were settled by a judge who was selected by his neighbors - Charles Lynch.

"Judge" Lynch held court under a tree that stands 20 miles south of Lynchburg. (Charles Lynch's brother, John, founded Lynchburg.)

That tree became known as the Lynch Tree. Those who had justice dispensed to them were said to have been "lynched". Judge Lynch never sentenced anyone to be hanged. Capital crimes were punished according to universal Christian Law before reaching Judge Lynch.

Back country settlers boasted that they had instituted "Lynch Law". It meant that they were self-sufficient and Lawful. Today's media proclaims Lynch Law to be merely lawful, not "legal". To them only "legal" counts. Today's "legal" is often unlawful. The "legal" establishment constantly warns those wishing to be lawful, "Don't take the Law into your own hands".

WAR BETWEEN THE STATES

After the South's defeat, the radicals put black strangers in power to govern whites. Murder, rape, robbery were rampant. Punishment was unknown. Some of the greatest criminals were "lawmen" themselves along with the soldiers assigned to enforce black rule. Criminals openly walked the streets. "Legal" law could be bought by anyone not a southern white. Blacks led by radicals put southern whites under tribute and took their land and homes.

Rape, torment, crime, and fear taught Southerners that those who had captured the United States government offered nothing but more misery.

They turned to God the Word.

"In the beginning was the WORD, and the WORD was with God, and the WORD was God... and the WORD was made flesh, and dwelt among us..." (John 1: 1-14)

God the WORD to the Christian is the Laws, Statutes and Judgements personified in Jesus. The Law requires the Priest take charge of administering the Law. These Priests were named:

"Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation." (1 Peter 2: 9)

"Ye shall be unto me a kingdom of priests..." (Exodus 19: 6)

Obedying Scripture, the sign of Phinehas again appeared in the land. Rapists and murderers were quietly taken from the streets, tried, convicted and executed.

The establishment was infuriated. Lawless themselves, they protested mightily as their lawless agents disappeared one by one.

The big city media made every executed rapist and murderer a saint and their punishment appear as murder. It did no good. With the criminals gone, law and order returned. The entire nation took part. .

PHINEHAS

Bible students know that within the Christian priesthood lies the Phinehas Priesthood.

Numbers 25: 6-13 tells the story:

"...one of the children of Israel came and brought ...a Midianitish woman ...and when Phinehas ...saw it, he rose up from among the congregation and took a javelin in his hand ...and thrust both of them through... And the Lord spake ...saying, Phinehas, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel ...that I consumed not the children of Israel... Behold I give unto him my covenant of peace... and his seed after him, even the covenant of an everlasting priesthood: because he was zealous for his God, and made an atonement for the children of Israel."

The one who was slain was a powerful and influential Israelite named Zimri. His comment before his execution is the typical comment of the lawless:

"Zimri ...said ...thou deprivest us of the sweetness of life, which consists in acting according to our own wills." Josephus' "Antiquities" 4: 7: 11 p.97

DISCIPLE

Two years ago a story appeared in the paper where a man in a western state had been charged with and sentenced for shooting at least a half dozen interracial couples.

As a matter of interest I phoned the commonwealth's attorney who prosecuted the case. His answer to my questions confirmed my suspicion when he laughingly commented that the prisoner had made a "religious defense". He was puzzled how the "crime" had anything to do with religion. The prisoner appeared to be a clean cut, polite chap who didn't belong to any organization.

The question of "who" is responsible for the law is answered by: "...in case anyone of their own blood ...should attempt to confound or dissolve their constitution (laws), they should take vengeance on them, both all in general, and each person in particular ...if they were not able to take such vengeance, they should still demonstrate that what was done was contrary to their wills." Josephus' "Antiquities" 4:8: 45.

The prosecutor couldn't understand it. He himself was married to a stranger and saw nothing wrong with it. He had never read the Bible about the Priesthood of Phinehas.

THE CAROLINA INCIDENT

A reader sent a news article about an event that occurred last year in North Carolina. Unknown gunmen entered a porno-shop and shot five people. No money was taken. The reporter could find no logical reason for the "killings". He theorized that it might be a struggle for territory between contending mobs. Almost as an after-thought he noted at the end of the article that the porno-parlor was a known rendezvous for homosexuals.

"If a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman ...they shall surely be put to death; their blood shall be upon them." (Leviticus 20: 13)

SUBWAY VIGILANTE

Much has been written about the "subway vigilante". Those who fear the lawless seek protection from those who enforce the law even when it is called "vigilante". Common sense tells us that everyone near a vigilante is safe. Only the establishment condemns him. They know who he is ...thus, the endless effort to punish him.

THE CALIFORNIA INCIDENT

In California a man was convicted of cutting off a young girl's arms and then raping her. The establishment released him after a short prison term. The public was outraged. Great mobs gathered wherever the released prisoner appeared. The law that deters criminals from committing deliberate mutilation on helpless victims states: "...thou shall give ...hand for hand." (Exodus 21: 22-24).

It was required that the offender be treated as he had treated his victim. But there was more. The second crime that was committed was rape: "...if a man find a ...damsel ...and the man force her (rape) ...then the man ...that lay with her shall die." (Deuteronomy 22: 25)

The man was freed. The ancient law was violated and was being flaunted. Citizens rose in protest everywhere the offender went. Hundreds met. The establishment became alarmed at this demonstration of the Phinehas spirit. The offender was hidden and placed under guard. The news intimated that anyone of a thousand may "have taken the law into his own hands" and dispatched the guilty on the spot if found. The media may have been right. Everywhere there are those willing to sacrifice themselves if need be to secure the reward promised the faithful.

FLORIDA

For many years "...traitors to the laws and their own nation" (2 Maccabees 5: 15) allowed criminals to prey on the people. The criminals were protected. Crime is now no longer controllable. It is beyond the ability of the state to protect the people.

To restore order, the legislature in desperation passed a law allowing law abiding citizens to obtain permits to carry concealed weapons. A quarter millions applicants were expected. Soon an army of law enforcers will be armed and on guard to enforce the Law with the tacit approval of the state.

Lawless liberals and their media wail protests over this threat to the rights of their agents. Nevertheless, in Florida, the tide is turning. The lawless will violate the Law at his peril. An entire state is awakened.

CONCLUSION

Christian America was founded as a lawful Christian land. God the Word was accepted as final. The faithful were expected to reverence God the Word and enforce His commandments. In time there came another god to America proclaiming another law. There are now two gods in the land - two gods with two separate, distinct law systems. Each considers itself supreme and the other unlawful.

There has never been and can never be agreement between the two. Those who obey God The Word receive protection, aid, help, and comfort from others who obey. The lawless opposition, with their lawlessness protected by their courts, promotes robbery, murder and loathsome diseases that threaten all. Events are forcing man to make a choice. Like it or not, agree or disagree, God the Word is once more being held up as the final and sole solution. The priests once more walk the land. Those who offend God the Word are beginning to meet them face to face.

Even now, vast areas of the nation have reinstated the death penalty. Entire states with millions of people are being encouraged to arm to enforce the laws of God the Word. The tide is flowing. There will emerge a new land when the - tide reaches its flood. It will cause the same economic and social repercussions as the resurgence of Islam has had in the lands of Esau. Soon, woe be to the lawless when confronted with one of the priesthood who believes:

"Cursed be he that doeth the work of the Lord deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood." (Jeremiah 48: 10)

THE MARK OF THE BEAST

by Robert B. Record

A fable to which many in Christendom have turned is that of ‘the mark of the beast.’ In 2 Timothy 4: 3-4 Paul sets forth a warning and prophecy that has a special meaning to the peoples of Christendom. He declares that the day was to come when God’s people would not endure sound doctrine, but would turn away their ears from the truth and be turned unto fables. While this has many applications in Christendom today, the rank and file of the people seem to be wholly unaware that they are among those who have embraced fable and tradition for the Word of God. They are saved and ready for heaven, and that, to them is all that matters.

And what is a fable? Religiously speaking it is false or mistaken interpretation which is taught and accepted as the Word of God. It is a doctrine fabricated by an ignorant and unspiritual mind; it is a theological interpretation, or an attempted explanation of Scripture which has no Biblical basis. Paul exhorts Timothy to “preach the Word” for the time would come when the saints would be so mistaught in the Word, that they would be turned unto the doctrines of men, or to fabricated doctrines that were supposedly Scriptural.

The writer of Hebrews speaks of such when he says that he had much to say to them, but they had become so full of apprehension that it was difficult to make it clear to them. He says, “Although considering the long time you have been believers, you ought now to be teachers of others, you really need someone to teach you over again the very rudiments of the truths of God, and have come to require milk instead of solid food.”

Now the sad fact is that many religious leaders in our day fall into this category. They have gone to school where they learned a lot of things that were not so - religious fable and tradition that were taught for the Word of God - and they have gone forth to parrot those fables. They have become blind leaders of the blind, and both are falling into the ditch.

Let us consider the fable of “the Mark of the Beast.” Now “the mark of the beast” is a Scriptural expression found in Revelation 13: 16-18, but only too often the attempted explanations of this mark, are nothing but fabricated stories that make the Word of God of none effect.

Most would-be prophecy preachers these days are running off at the mouth with dire tales and stories about some Anti-Christ who is shortly to appear and miraculously take control of the government of the world (which is today hopelessly divided by race, religion, and ideology), and one of the first things he is supposed to do is cause all men, regardless of their rank or station, to receive a mark in their right hand or forehead, and unless they had this mark, they could neither buy or sell. But this is fable that causes many to err.

Most preachers on prophecy come to their Bibles with preconceived notions as to what it teaches, and they then set about to teach those notions as being the Word of God. And they usually come to the Book of Revelation, a book written in highly symbolic language, and they take it literally where it fits their fables and fabricated stories. This is true with the mark of the beast.

One thing is certain; we cannot possibly know what the mark of the beast is, if we do not correctly identify the beast. Most prophecy preachers jump to the conclusion that the “beast” of Revelation 13, is “the Anti-Christ.” They say it is a person, a world ruler, who is to arise after the rapture of the church, and hold sway for seven years. But what are the facts?

The facts are that the word, Anti-Christ, does not appear once in the Book of Revelation. In fact it does not appear in your Bible until you come to the Epistles of John, and not once is it used of a person, but is set forth as that spirit which denies that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh.

But upon the mistaken assumption that the beast of Revelation 13 is a person, a personal Anti-Christ, the prophecy preachers proceed to develop their theory, their story, of the mark of the beast. They find it convenient to ignore Revelation 13: 17, where we are told that no man might buy or sell unless he had one of three things: the mark of the beast, the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Another mistake that prophecy preachers make in discussing the mark of the beast is the time element involved. If they are futurists, and most of them are, they hold that all of Revelation from the third chapter onward is future, and has to do with a seven year tribulation period at the close of this age, and perhaps the ages to come. But what does John say? In Revelation 1: 3 (Weymouth), we find him saying, "Blessed is he who reads, and blessed are they who listen to the words of this prophecy and lay to heart what is written in it; for the time for its fulfilment is now close at hand."

If the time for the fulfilment of John's prophecy, or the "revelation of Jesus Christ", was close at hand, indicating that it would have a progressive unfolding and fulfilment all during this Christian dispensation, then there is no Biblical reason for saying that it is to await a fulfilment at the close of this age.

With these thoughts in mind, let us now return to Revelation 13 and a consideration of the beast. There are actually two beasts set forth here, and they are closely related in history. In Revelation 13: 1-10 the first beast is identified in symbolic language as pagan Rome. We cannot take the time to go into this here, but in verse 2 this beast was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.

Now anyone at all familiar with the Book of Daniel should immediately recognize that the leopard, the bear and the lion, have to do with a prophecy in the seventh chapter of Daniel. In this chapter we have a prophecy of the Babylonian Succession of Empires set forth in symbolic language as beasts. The first beast was like a lion, the second like a bear, the third like a leopard. The fourth beast does not have a name, but it was different from all the beasts before it. It takes the place of the first three, and has the characteristics of each. These beasts are not persons, they are kingdoms. This fourth beast, or the Roman Empire, came up out of the sea like the others, (the sea representing the peoples of the earth), and it was at its zenith in the first century A.D.

Now when pagan Rome had run its course and fell into decay, it gave way to still another beast which had two horns like a lamb and spake as a dragon. And this is the beast which caused the people to receive a mark in their right hand or foreheads.

Thus the beast so popularly and commonly referred to by Futurists and Fundamentalists as the Anti-Christ, is none other than Papal Rome. With the rise of Papal Rome the civilized world entered what is known as the Dark Ages. All who refused to bow to their will were marked for extinction. It was this Papal system that persecuted unmercifully all who refused compliance with their doctrine and authority. This is what John was alluding to in Revelation 13: 16 when he says that the beast caused all to receive a mark in the right hand or forehead, ere they could buy or sell.

Please keep in mind that the language here is highly figurative and symbolic. The whole Roman system is set forth here in symbol, and the beast and his mark are all a matter of history. The mark is not a literal mark at all. The fact that it was to be received in the right hand or forehead is simply a manner of speaking. The right hand represents manual labor; the forehead represents the mental and intellectual powers of man. These were to be made subservient to the papal dictates. In Ezekiel 3: 8-9, for example, we find

God saying, "I have made thy face strong against their faces, and thy forehead strong against their foreheads. As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead; fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks." The mark of the beast was thus their power to control the thought life of the people and the labor of their hands. They claimed Divine authority and power. They claimed to be God's representatives in the earth and received the worship and praises of men. They sat in the temple as God, and preyed upon the ignorance and gullibility of the people. To have the mark of the beast was to have the mind of the beast. It meant to be brainwashed in the doctrines of Rome, and to accept them as infallible. All who refused were boycotted and persecuted.

The reign of the beast began to end with the Reformation and the spirit revivals that God poured out upon His people in Western Europe. The power of the beast was broken when the Bible was printed and made available for all to read. It was no longer the private property of the church to be administered as they saw fit.

Thus the beast and his mark have long been a matter of history. They have nothing to do with the future reign of some Anti-Christ who is to rule the world and force all men to be subservient to his will.

Praise Ye The Lord.

TAPE OF THE MONTH
#7201 THERE IS A
NATIONAL SALVATION
The Bible shows us how an entire nation can be saved.
Part 2: Neglected Salvation.
$4 posted from CIM.

This issue of the Mark of the Beast has, of course, come up again with the issue of the ID Card. A few years ago, I remember seeing pictures circulating with people pushing shopping trolleys down aisles and having barcodes printed on their foreheads.

I know that a lot has also been made of so-called laser tattoos, but I think it is deception to let our people think that system is not here yet. Hence the inclusion of the article above.

I would further like to point out the following. Open your Bible and read Exodus 13: 14-16, "And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come, saying, 'What is this?' that thou shalt say unto him, 'By strength of hand the Lord brought us out from Egypt from the house of bondage: and it came to pass, when Pharaoh would hardly let us go, that the Lord slew all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both the first-born of man, and the first-born of beast: therefore I sacrifice to the Lord all that openeth the matrix, being males; but all the first-born of my children I redeem. And it shall be for a token upon thine hand and for frontlets between thine eyes (forehead): for by strength of hand the Lord brought us forth out of Egypt.'"

The token referred to here as being in the hand and forehead, obviously has to do with remembering what God did for our forefathers when he delivered them from bondage in Egypt. What He did then He is certainly able to do again, to deliver us from the present bondage.

Further, reading from Deuteronomy 6: 1-8 "Now these are the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments which the Lord your (our) God commanded to teach you (us), that ye (we) might do them in the land whither ye (we) go to possess it: That thou (we) mightest fear the Lord thy (our) God, to keep all His statutes and His commandments which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of your life; and that thy days may be prolonged. Hear therefore, O Israel (That's us, folks! And if you haven't realized that yet, ask to see HEIRS OF THE PROMISE from us on VHS video, absolutely free!), and observe to do it; that it might be well with thee, and that ye may increase mightily, as the Lord God of thy (our) fathers hath promised thee (us), in the land that floweth with milk and honey. Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy might. And these words which I command thee this day shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thine house, and when thou walkest by the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign (mark?) upon thine hand, and they shall be as frontlets between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house and upon thy gates."

So, we now see that it is God's Law which is to be uppermost in thought (between the eyes) and deed (the hand). Another similar reference is to be found in Deuteronomy 10: 1-6, where it says: "And it shall come to pass, if ye (we) shall hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love the Lord your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, that I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil. And I will send grass in thy fields for thy cattle, that thou mayest eat and be full. Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside, and serve other gods, and worship them; (Xmas, Easter, Caesar, etc.) And then the Lord's wrath be kindled against you, and he shut up the heaven, that there be no rain. (2 Chronicles 7: 13) and that the land yield not her fruit; and lest ye perish quickly from off the good land (The Lucky Country?) which the Lord giveth you. Therefore shall ye lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign (mark?) upon your hand that they may be as frontlets between your eyes."

Again, the reference is clearly to thinking and acting (mind and hand) according to God's Law, His commandments. In the context given, it would appear to me that "the mark of the beast" could very well be contained in the attitude of those who keep telling our people that "God's Law has been done away" and at the same time tell us that "Romans 13 teaches to obey the civil government"; thereby obviously substituting man's law, mark, sign, for God's Law, mark, sign! While much more could be added, I hope and pray that this has shed some light for you on this subject of "marks" and you will seek to turn to, and study God's Laws, Statutes, and Judgments. CIM.

THE CHRISTIAN AND THE INCOME TAX - Part 5

Dr. Everett Sileven © July 1986

When the IRS writes a rule or regulation demanding that you fill out a form and sign it under penalty of perjury, thereby forcing you to waive all your God-given rights, the IRS is violating the law of God and no man is required by God to obey that kind of edict of man. When Congress, state legislatures, or city governments pass ordinances that confiscate a man's labor, rob his children of their inheritance, or redistribute the wealth to the lazy and wicked, and support abortion and sodomy, Godly men are compelled to refuse to comply with such ordinances.

No man can serve two masters. Either he will serve God or the state. You cannot serve both when the state is in rebellion against God.

Law is the embodiment of those powers created by God for the protection of life, liberty and property. When government ceases to fulfil the proper role of government, primarily the protection of life, liberty and property, or even worse yet, when it becomes the force under color of law to kill, imprison, and steal from its citizens, then men not only may but have a duty, to alter, remove or destroy the persons or the form of government which perpetrates such crimes against the citizenry.

Well, what is the role of the clergy and the church in all of this? God says in Jeremiah 2: 8, "They that handle the law, know me not."

Who were these men who were supposed to handle the law? They were the priests, prophets and pastors. God says through Ezekiel in chapter 21: 26: "The priests have violated my laws..." Paul's admonition to Timothy and Titus was to keep and teach the Word (Law) of God. Pastors, prophets, and heads of households are held responsible before God to teach their subjects obedience to God's Word - The Law! When these people prefer the law of men to the Law of God, judgment comes and the nation falls.

But most evangelical and fundamentalist pastors believe and teach that the laws of God have no binding force on born again men. They quote such scriptures as Romans 6: 14 "...for ye are not under the law but under grace."

Then what do you do with 1 John 2: 4, "He that saith, 'I know him' and keep not his commandments is a liar and the truth is not in him."

Or what do you do with 1 John 3: 4, "Sin is the transgression of the law."

Or Galatians 5: 21, "...they which do such things (break God's Law) shall not inherit the Kingdom of God."

In Matthew 5: 17 Jesus Christ said: "I come not to destroy the law, but to fulfil the law."

In the Scriptures, we see the use of the words law, commandment, statute, judgment and ordinance. While most people believe all these words refer to the same thing, they do not! The Law is the bedrock basic creation of God. Only God can create Law. Law is force and can be created by no other person on earth.

Commandments are simply God's warnings of the natural consequences of obeying or disobeying the laws of God. If you live a life that is contrary to the law of God, you will reap the natural curses. If you live a life in obedience to the laws of God you will reap the natural blessings. These are outlined in Deuteronomy chapter 28.

An example would be when my wife and I had been married only a few years, and we had our first daughter Tresa. In our home we heated the building with an old King heater. King heaters are very thin steel that contain wood and make fire. These stoves would get red hot, in fact so cherry red that you could read by them at night without any other light. The law that God created says that if you touch a red hot stove, you get burned.

My wife and I immediately passed a commandment. We said to Tresa: "Thou shalt not touch the stove." Now, we cannot change the Law, or the fact that she was our daughter. And even though she was under our grace did not change the fact that if she touched the stove, she would be burned.

We did not pass the commandment, "Thou shalt not touch the red hot stove," to somehow make life miserable for her. We passed the commandment because we loved her and did not want her to be hurt.

God gave us commandments to keep us from being hurt by the violation of His Law. When He said we should have no other gods, or we should not use His Name in vain (which seems to be common practice nowadays, especially on T.V. CIM), or we should not commit adultery, or we should not bear false witness, or should not steal, or that we should not covet, these are simply God's love warnings to us for the violation of His Law.

Statutes, on the other hand, are civil statutes relating to civil authority. Judgments are judgmental renderings of God's judicial system. The ordinances of the Old Testament relate only to Christ and the temple worship. And when Christ came, He did not destroy the Law, He did not remove the commandments, He has not done away with the statutes and judgments; but if we read in Colossians 2: 14, we find that when He went to the cross, He "...blotted out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to the cross..."

A VOICE IN THE WILDERNESS

In the language of the Ukraine, lurks a hushed and whispered fear,
for, CHERNOBYL translates: WORMWOOD; making prophecy quite clear.
Believing, comes quite easy, underneath that bitter haze, that we are truly living in, the prophesied "LAST DAYS".

Let he who hath an eye to see,
and him with ears to hear, celebrate our Constitution's
Bi-Centennial Year.
Watch events as they unfold,
in Washington, D.C., for 1987 dawns:
"THE YEAR OF JUBILEE"

The Politicians and Bureaucrats, once ruling this Rat-Race, are making News, their suicides, become more common place.
A Court of justice quite Divine,
has played a Mighty Hand,
Our Father's GOD has moved, to purge the Vermin from our Land.

To abortion mills of Molech, living sacrifice is fed,
May YAHWEH Hear the Souls, of children crying from the dead!
Those, lusting after strange gods,
to them, HIS Curse is on,
for they have made this "Promised Land",
a modern "Babylon. "

The letter "S" meant number "6", to Phoenicians of their day.
S-ocial S-ecurity S-ystem,
What do these initials say?
A West Coast show is seen performed, alive, by those back East.
We call this, TELEVISION,
this Image of the Beast.

Learn a lesson if you can,
when looking for the signs,
To solve a mystery, one must learn,
to read between the lines.
Keep your Faith alive in God,
and cast aside your doubt,
The Battle lines have all been drawn,
and time is running out!

This is the only part of the Old Testament Law structure that was abolished. We no longer take lambs or doves to the church to slaughter them for a blood sacrifice.

Jesus was our blood sacrifice. We no longer have to go through the rituals of the temple worship. Jesus Christ did not negate the Law; He did not negate the commandments, or the statutes, or the judgments of God. Therefore, for ministers to teach their people that we are no longer under the Law, that we will reap no penalties for breaking of the Law, and that we can simply go on our merry way living in a grace supposedly with no consequences is the height of rebellion against God.

In fact, Jesus said very plainly in Matthew 5: 17-19, "Think not that I am come to destroy the Law or the prophets. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven."

I think there is no question that Jesus Christ would condemn the average clergy today who stand and say that the laws of men must be obeyed, even at the expense of obeying the Laws of God.

DIRECTION, IMAGINATION, NOT BANK SLAVES.

An example of "imagination" would be the widening of our industrial scope say in the case of the farm industry's "Big Four" products (wheat, wool, beef, mutton) to the "Big Twenty" including fuel crops and organic food products (one for Australian use: the non-polluting fuel crop, and one for export: any number of organically grown foodstuffs for which Europe is crying out).

For many examples you may refer to the book by our (N.T.P.) chairman, Mr. Alan Jones, BEYOND ECONOMIC TREADMILL, $3 pp from N.T.P. Box 245 Concord West 2138. For a short work on banking refer to The Enemy Behind Your Enemies $2 pp same address. (These books are available from CHRISTIAN IDENTITY).

PLEASE PRAY FOR OUR CHRISTIAN BRETHREN who do not yet see and understand the Biblical identity of the Anglo, Saxon, Celtic, Germanic and kindred people, nor the true message of His Kingdom. Many patriot-type Christians are getting discouraged, feeling freedom's battle is soon to be lost to the anti-christ one-worlders.

If only they understood the Kingdom plan of our GREAT and SOVEREIGN Heavenly Father who even now laughs at the futile attempts of wicked men.

PSALM 2

The Reign of the LORD'S Anointed.

*Why are the nations in an uproar,
And the people devising a vain thing?
The kings of the earth take their stand,
And the rulers take counsel together
Against the Lord ... and against His Anointed
"Let us tear their fetters apart, and cast away their cords from us!"
He who sits in the heavens laughs,
The Lord scoffs at them.
Then He will speak to them in His anger
And terrify them in His fury:
"But as for Me, I have installed My King Upon Zion, My holy mountain."*

Relating to some of the articles herein, further information may be had from the tract RAIN IN DUE SEASON. Send a self-addressed stamped envelope and also from the booklet THE LEAST IN THE KINGDOM. $1.50 posted within Australia. A special thank you to all who have given support, and also for the many letters received. We are thankful to our Heavenly Father who has been with, and strengthened my father and allowed him to return home.

If you are not on the list for loan tapes and would be interested in hearing some why not write and ask, enclosing a $1 stamp for postage? Many have told us how helpful and informative the tapes have been. If you do not have one, ask for a catalog at the same time. If you would like to see some of the videos we have available, join the video club: $40 to join, and $6 per month lets you view two videos (up to 8 hours) for a whole month. Look at them several times; show them to your friends etc.!

Some have asked about the tape series WHAT IS MYSTERY BABYLON in print. I have had word from America's Promise that they are working on completing this booklet.

It has been suggested that people write to their federal members and senators requesting information about what is known as "The National Computer Centre" in Kent Street, Deakin A.C.T. I believe that it is officially known as a telephone exchange. Do you know of a telephone exchange with 4 foot thick concrete walls, and armed guards?

If you are interested in obtaining extra copies of this newsletter for passing to friends and relatives, please let us know in advance, as we only print sufficient to go around, with a couple of spares. Alternatively send a donation of $20 along with the name and address of the person you want it sent to and we will mail it direct to them for 12 months.

Several people have indicated a desire to spend next July holidays here, but some have not indicated if they have any sleeping accommodation in the form of caravan or tent, etc. Please supply this information if you would like to come.

Those waiting on Lindsey Williams books, I am sorry to say there has been a further delay, but, as soon as we get them, they will be sent on.

If you wish to remain on our mailing list, please keep in touch, as otherwise we will be forced to drop your name. May Jesus our King keep you in His care.
