Of all the doctrines of the organized churches, the doctrine of salvation is the most widely heard. It is taught from many different angles but always the central theme around which a church's doctrinal system is built. This subject relates to all church denominations-both gan and Christian-as "salvation" is the theme of all churches. Yes, the pagan churches have their version of "salvation" too. The great importance of this issue centers around the question that is probably forming in your mind as you read this-namely, "What is the difference between Christian salvation and a Pagan salvation?" Correspondingly, the tragedy is that the majority of professing Christians, today, have never even considered the possibility of another "salvation."

Since the Bible tells of only ONE Jesus the Christ, the Savior of Israel, then it follows that all other "saviors" and "salvations" are pagan counterfeits. We should not be surprised, then, to find out that pagan "saviors" are patterned to some extent, after Jesus.

Since salvation is a fundamental doctrine, proper understanding of it is essential to understanding other doctrines of Scripture. If you fail to lay this foundational stone correctly, then the entire structure will be faulty (Isa 28:9-13; Mt 7:26).

From the study of Scripture and history e already know that there are many different "christs" (=anointed ones, HR) in the world (2 Cor 4:5). Jesus the Christ is only one of the many "christs" which are being preached in the world. Many of these false "christs" are promoted with biblical terminology, thereby confusing Christians. All religions have a "christ" of one sort or another. However, they are NOT the Christ of Scripture. We know there are many differents gods and lords in the world (1 Cor 8:5). In Scripture they are called "no-gods" because they are only fictions created in people's imaginations.

Since there are different gods, lords and christs, it follows that there are also different "saviors" in the world. And since there are different saviors, then there are DIFFERENT SALVATIONS and DIFFERENT GOSPELS OF SALVATION.

Most of us know some of what the in he churches teach about "salvation." But what are o does the Bible say about salvation? You may Satan be surprised to find it is somewhat different Eden. than you've been taught.

Let's begin with a general statement showing the typical church's teaching on salvation:

- 1. Most churches teach that Adam and Eve were originally created physically immortal in the Garden of Eden.
- 2. Satan caused Adam and Eve to sin the "original sin." his, then, caused man to fall from the state of perfection and physical immortality to a state of degradation and mortality, giving dominion of the earth to Satan.
- 3. At that point (at the fall) perfection was lost. Death and mandatory punishment in "hell" (after death) became incumbent upon all men due to Adam's sin. All mankind was headed for Satan's torment in "hell."
- 4. Jesus' purpose through his birth, crucifixion, death and resurrection was to gain power back from Satan and to reinstate man's chance for physical immortality and help him escape the torments of "hell."
- 5. Now, we must "get saved" by "accepting Christ" so that after we die we can escape "hell fire" and regain that immortality which was lost by our first parents.
- 6. This earth is not our home. This life is not God's original plan; it is our punishment for Adam's sin. Now, we have only the next life, in heaven, for which to hope. In this life we are only living out the mortality curse, under Satan, caused by "the fall" in the Garden of Eden.

7. "Salvation," then, is commonly perceived as a special dispensation (allowance) for a few who can recite "the sinner's prayer," giving them the privelege of escaping from this earth, this life, and from torment in hell.

Now, this common "gospel" of the churches is expressed in different ways. With some people it may amount to nothing more than an unexplained belief in "going to heaven." But the idea is usually found somewhere in the seven points listed above.

In our society-with its churches, T.V., books, and magazines-our people are being brainwashed into believing that God's original creation went haywire. God couldn't sustain it, and it was overthrown by a "fallen angel." Therefore, they reason that God's plan for us today is nothing like the original plan of immortality and bliss, which failed. God is now offering plan B (or perhaps plan C, or D), trying to re-establish something to replace the original plan. So, the way we regain our imortality, according to the churches, is to go Almost all churches also hold that those who we "gotten saved" (so-called) will be "rap-Lured" off, away from this earth at some future date, to some place called heaven. Then this old evil earth will be destroyed. All the people who haven't "gotten saved" will be permanently annihilated, or they will go to hell and burn forever-depending upon one's doctrinal preference.

If you follow this simplistic form, you can see that in most churches the great emphasis is placed NOT on what happens to us HERE AND NOW but what happens AFTER we are dead and gone. Only the next life is considered important, and what happens to us now is not important except that throught it we can learn how to "get saved" and "escape" to heaven. If we don't learn how to "get saved" we are destined to go to hell and suffer everlasting fire and torment at the hands of Satan and his demons. So whether we go to heaven or hell, the common doctrines of salvation focus on a time LATER-after we die. It's all after this life!

In the churches, almost nothing is taught about the God whose kingdom is with us today, and who reigned over our forefathers in the past. Nothing is taught about kingdom life in the HERE AND NOW and the benefits of obeying His law NOW, in this life. They avoid the question of how government is to be handled in this life, or that the Bible even addresses these issues. In fact, some churches go so far as to say that it is ungodly for Christians to concern themselves with the mundane things of this life: government, economics, and the land.

Thus, we have a generation of Christians today who know practically nothing about what God really tells us in His Bible concerning matters of family and community self-government. All they can think about is how to escape into heaven and abandon this earth to the "god" they call Satan. That's about all they know. The upshot is that the people in the churches tend to conclude that the only useful purpose for this earth is for an abode for Satan and evil people.

Since the time of Israel's apostasy from the true faith delivered through Moses, our people have tended to follow pagan religions which carry them away into specious thinking patterns, making them vulnerable to subjugation by religion (i.e. the priests/officials, or rulers in pagan law systems). It has been an on-going pattern. When our thoughts are molded by pagan religion, we fall subject to priests (and evil rulers) who obscure freedom and our true salvation.

Today's pagan priests come in varied but typical forms. For instance, the International Bankers, with "temples" called banks, and their international public relations department called the United Nations (in New York), are still subjugating people and brainwashing them by sanctioning and promoting false religions in the name of "state," "church," and/or "govern-ment." They don't want Christians thinking about God's government, and about money, because it might interfere with their congame of "control and manipulate." Since they control the state, they tell the state to sanction some churches but not others. They even grant certain churches "tax-exempt status" if they bow to Caesar. Thus, churches, instead of recognizing Christ as their King, just treat Him as a name on a plaque, and the real head of the church turns out to be the State. They fall down and worship the high priests of government and banking. They get a tax number, a bank account and a registration/license. Then they don't get into trouble from their State, National, or International rulers. Churches must get a number if they want to buy and sell! Sound familiar? To be at peace with Caesar they must have a number.

Today's Judeo-Christian churches teach a pagan gospel of salvation which is sanctioned by the state. It teaches religious people not to make waves. The only thing that it addresses is the NEXT life; how to get to heaven; how to be "spiritual." That's all they want to talk about. They leave all the things of this life in the hands of - guess who? - Caesar! Caesar rules in most churches today!

The Christianity which was taught by Jesus and His Apostles was a gospel which is hated today, just as then. It was a radical doctrine; a radical gospel. It threatened, made waves, turned the world upside down, and it never did bow to Caesar.

The true gospel of the kingdom teaches that Christ is bigger than Caesar! This also points to another error of the churches. They teach about a Christ that is a babe in the manger, and that's where they leave Him. But the Christ of our Bible is no longer a baby in the manger. He is a Sovereign King ruling over the universe. Judeo-Christian churches want to keep Him in the manger. They don't want Him to rule the kingdoms of the earth right now because that would put the present system out of business. But Jesus IS bigger than Caesar ever was, or ever will be. Christ does not bow to Caesar. Rather, Caesar must bow to Christ. If Caesar doesn't bow to Christ, Caesar will be destroyed. That's the long and the short of it. It's a radical gospel; a radical Christianity. And that's the gospel Lesus taught; that's the gospel his Apostles ight, of whom it was said "these are they who are turning the world upside down" (Acts 17:6). That's the real gospelof God's written ord. That's why the pharisaical Caesars of His day killed Him. And the pharisaical Caesars of today would still like to kill anybody who preaches this same doctrine. That is why we see many of our people getting killed, being thrown in prison, slandered and persecuted. Most true Christians will probably suffer likewise. Jesus told us that the cup that he took, we would also take (Matt 20:23); that a servant is not greater than his master (John 13:1); that we would suffer persecution in this world, during our lifetimes (John 15:18-20).

To find out what the Bible really teaches about salvation, one needs to consider this overall picture. You can begin to understand why I have learned to question every doctrine oming out of the mainline churches-the Judeo-Christian churches in this Judeo-Christian society. Now, I am not saying that every doctrine is wrong, but I AM SAYING that I can't take anything for granted any more. I have to test everything that I hear being taught by the churches-and you should too. Don't trust them! It becomes a matter between God and me and between God and you. We are to "test all things" and "see if we be in the faith" which was "once delivered!" You must also do your homework and test it again and again.

The Hebrew word, in the Old Scriptures, translated "salvation" (and this may surprise you) is the word "yeshuw'ah"-Strong's #3444 (yeshoo'aw). The meaning of the word is "to be saved, or delivered or helped." It comes from the verb "yasha"-Strong's #3467 (yaw-shah) which means "to save, to help or to deliver." "Yasha," in its many different derivations (including yeshuw'ah), appears 353 times in the Old Scriptures, and the root-meaning in Arabic is "to make wide" as opposed to being "narrow" (constricted, restricted or distressed). "Salvation," or "saved" means "to be made sufficient or large." So you can see that "salvation" is closely related to "freedom" or "liberty." There is not a lot of difference between "salvation" and "freedom" in the sense in which it is used in the Hebrew language.

As we investigate what the Bible says about salvation, we will find that it was not the Hebrews who gave us the wrong connotation to the word salvation as we have come to see it used today and as it is taught in the mainline churches. Rather, it was the Greek world, the Persian world and these other pagan world philosophies that have changed it and made it into something new and different-something which would not be familiar at all to our Hebrew ancestors.

As we have seen, the Hebrew word "salvation" (yeshuw'ah) means "to be delivered or helped." A deliverer or savior is someone who takes a person from a condition of being distressed, to one of safety. In the Old Scriptures the kinds of distress that we read about were both national and individual, and they included such enemies as natural catastrophies, nations, plagues or famines, sicknesses, and other things. The one bringing deliverance was known as "the savior." The Hebrew word for "savior" was used in everyday life also. Moses, for example, "saved" the daughters of Reu'el, his future father-in-law, from being driven off by the shepherds. The story begins in Exodus 2:15. Here is "salvation:"

"15 Now when Pharaoh heard this thing, he sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from the face of Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian: and he sat down by a well.

16 Now the priest of Midian had seven daughters: and they came and drew water, and filled the troughs to water their father's flock.

17 And the shepherds came and drove them away: but Moses stood up and HELPED (yasha-"saved") them, and watered their flock.

18 And when they came to Reu'el their father, he said, How is it that ye are come so soon today?

19 And they said, An Egyptian DELIVERED us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew water enough for us, and watered the flock."

Moses was a "savior" that day, in the true sense of the word. At various times, Israel was oppressed by her neighbors and had to go to war to win or to maintain her freedom. In these battles, the Nation turned to God for help and believed that the outcome of the battles belonged to their God. 1 Samuel 17, starting in verse 40, speaks of David:

"40 And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook, and put them in a shepherd's bag which he had, even in a scrip; and his sling was in his hand: and he drew near to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came on and drew near unto David; and the man that bare the shield went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him: for he was but a youth, and ruddy, and of a fair countenance.

43 And the Philistine said unto David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves? And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

44 And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh unto the fowls of the air, and to the beasts of the field.

45 Then said David to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with a sword, and with a spear, and with a shield: but I come to thee in the name of the LORD of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, whom thou hast defied.

46 This day will the LORD deliver thee into mine hand; and I will smite thee, and take thine head from thee; and I will ve the carcases of the host of the Philistines this day unto the fowls of the air, and to the wild beasts of the earth; that all the earth may know that there is a God in Israel.

47 And all this assembly shall know that THE LORD SAVETH (yasha) nor with sword and spear: for the battle is the LORD's and he will give you into our hands."

THERE IS A GOD IN ISRAEL! That is the important message! But, that's what the nations don't realize today because we don't show forth the salvation of Israel's God. The nations don't know that there is a God in Israel. But David showed that there was a God in Israel in that day.

"The Lord SAVETH!" Here we have a day when the God of Israel was a "Savior" to David and to Israel. This is the same Hebrew word translated "salvation" or "savior." The focal point of God's saving deeds in Israel, in the Old Scripture, was the time when He delivered Israel from the Egyptian bondage. And we can read about that in Exodus 14. In each of these cases I am endeavoring to show where Hebrew Scripture uses the word that's translated "salvation," to help you understand just what "salvation" is. For instance, Exodus 14:13,

"And Moses said unto the people, Fear ye not, stand still, and see the SALVATION (yeshuw'ah) of the LORD, which he will show to you today: for the Egyptians whom ye have seen today, ye shall see them again no more for ever."

You know the scene. The Egyptians are pursuing the children of Israel who are backed up against the Red Sea. Moses holds up his staff and says, "Stand still and see the YE-SHUW'AH (the salvation) of the LORD..."

The sea parted, and they were delivered out of the hand of the Egyptians. Now verse 26:

"26 And the LORD said unto Moses, stretch out thine hand over the sea, that the waters may come again upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots, and upon their horsemen. 27 And moses stretched forth his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to his strength when the morning appeared; and the Egyptians fled against it; and the LORD overthrew the Egyptians in the midst of the sea.

28 And the waters returned and covered the chariots, and the horsemen, and all the host of Pharaoh that came into the sea after them; there remained not so much as one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked upon dry land in the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall unto them on their right hand, and on their left.

30 Thus the LORD SAVED (yasha) Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead upon the sea shore.

31 And Israel saw the great work which the LORD did upon the Egyptians: and the people feared the LORD, and believed the LORD, and his servant Moses."

Israel became known as the "saved" (YASHA) people-saved by their God. After an event like that, you can see why this might be published abroad. Israel became known by what their God did when He "saved" them. Now let's look at Deut. 33:

"26 There is none like unto the God of Jesh'u-run, who rideth upon the heaven in thy help, and in his excellency on the sky. 27 The eternal God is thy refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms; and he shall thrust out the enemy from before thee; and shall say, Destroy them.

28 Israel then shall dwell in safety alone

(remember the meaning of the word "salvation" is to be "safe"): the fountain of Jacob shall be upon a land of corn and wine; also his heavens shall drop down dew.

29 Happy art thou, O Israel: who is like unto thee, O people SAVED (yasha) by the LORD, the shield of thy help, and who is the sword of thy excellency! and thine enemies shall be found liars unto thee; and thou shalt tread upon their high places."

God saved Israel again and again. Look at 1 Samuel 4:

"5 And when the ark of the covenant of the LORD came into the camp, all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that the earth rang again.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, they said, What meaneth the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of the LORD was come into the camp.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, for they eaid, God is come into the camp. And they id, Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty Gods? these are the Gods that smote the Egyptians with all me plagues in the wilderness."

That was the impression Israel's "salvation" made on the other nations like the Philistines. Let's look at Psalms 106, beginning vs 4 "4 Remember me, O LORD, with the favor that thout bearest unto thy people: O visit me with thy SALVATION (yeshuw'ah);

5 That I may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of thy nation, that I may glory in thine inheritance. 6 We have sinned with our fathers, we have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.

7 Our fathers understood not thy wonders in Egypt; they remembered not the multitude of thy mercies; but provoked him at the sea, 'en at the Red Sea.

o Nevertheless he SAVED (yasha) them for his name's sake, that he might make his mighty power to be known."

Again the word is "YASHA"-The God of Israel saved them!

When the children of Israel were gathering and preparing to go into the promised land after they were delivered from Egypt, Moses said:

"...the LORD your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to SAVE (yasha) you." Deut 20:4

God fulfilled that promise through Joshua. His name, "Joshua," was "Yeshuw'ah" in Hebre. He was called to deliver Israel into Canaan, the promised land. He was called to be "a savior" to the people; he was called to conquer and possess the land of Canaan.

I hope you understand why we are looking at these passages. This is "SALVATION!" The problem we face is that this word has undergone a change in meaning. In the minds of Judeo-Christians, "salvation" no longer means what it meant in the Scriptures. It is the purpose of this article to disabuse you of the pagan definitions which have caused confusion. A word intended to mean a certain thing can mean something altogether different to the hearer who misunderstands its meaning. But, when we speak about "salvation," we should understand it in the sense of the Scriptures which we have just read. "Salvation" is deliverance from trouble; being "saved" out of distress.

Hopefully, you are beginning to see that "salvation" is not just a concept that is associated only with Jesus in the New Scriptures. Neither does the Bible associate it with the pagan teachings of mysticism and "hell fire." Israel has been SAVED with the SALVATION of God many times and in many ways. To be sure, the salvation that Israel received through Jesus the Christ was the apex or ultimate salvation! But it wasn't mystical, and it wasn't unlike the other salvations Israel has experienced. Jesus rescued the scatteres ("lost") and godless sheep of Israel! He resurrected, regathered, and re-educated ("saved") the "lost" sheep. The salvation which God has often accomplished in Israel reveals His reign over Israel. For more input on the biblical meaning of "salvation," notice Isaiah 33:22,

"For the LORD (Yahwey, the God of Israel) is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver the LORD is our King; he will SAVE (yasha) us." (He is our savior)

So the God of Israel is the Savior of Israel. His "salvation" often includes destroying the enemies of Israel. In other words, the "saving" of Israel sometimes causes others to be destroyed. Look at Psalm 74:12,

"For God is my King of old, WORKING SALVATION (yeshuw'ah) in the midst of the earth."

This was not a future salvation. Rather, it is in the present-active tense. God WAS working salvation in the midst of the earth-at that very time. He reminds them of instances:

"13 Thou didst divide the sea by thy strength: thou BREAKEST THE HEADS OF THE DRAGONS in the waters.

14 Thou breakest the HEADS OF LIVIATHAN in pieces, and gavest him to be meat to the people inhabiting the wilderness."

"Leviathan" is comparable to the dragon government system portrayed in Revelation 12, 13 & 17. God, in working salvation for his people, breaks the heads of the dragons and gives them to be meat to the people He is saving.

Israel's God is identified as the only God that saves. He is the ONLY real God; therefore any other saviors, or false hopes, are false gods. And these false gods are ridiculed in the Bible; they are challenged to bring deliverance or to "save" the people who believe them. You will recall the time when Elijah invited the priests of Baal up to Mt. Carmel (1 Kings 18). He taunted them and asked, "Can your gods save you?" But, the Baals never showed up. The Baal priests were executed that same day and there was a big black charred spot on the mountain where the God of Israel sent fire down and consumed the altar.

In Judges 6, we read about Gideon: "24 Then Gideon built an altar there unto the LORD and called it Jehovah-shalom: unto this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

25 And it came to pass the same night that the LORD said unto him, Take thy father's young bullock, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the grove that is by it:

26 And build an altar unto the LORD thy God on the top of this rock, in the ordered place, and take the second bullock, and offer a burnt-sacrifice with the wood of grove which thou shalt cut down.

27 Then Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as the LORD had said unto him: and so it was, because he feared his father's household, and the men of the city, that he could not do it by day, that he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was cast down, and the grove was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered upon the altar that was built.

29 And they said one to another. Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash hath done this thing.

Then the men of the city saidunto Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die: because he hath cast down the altar of Baal, and because he hath cut down the grove that was by it.

31 And Joash said unto all that stood against him, Will YOU plead for Baal? WILL YOU 'SAVE' (yasha) HIM?..."

See the sarcasm here? "Is your god incapable of "saving?" "Can't he even save himself? Do you have to do his work for him? Do you have to save him?"

"...he that will plead for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning: if he be a god, let him plead for himself, because one hath cast down his altar."

If Baal is a god then let him do something! Anything! The point, of course, is that the God of Israel is the ONLY "saving" God; the only real God. Isaiah 46:

the only real God. Isaiah 46:
"3 Harken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from the belly, which are

Phone +61 (0) 7 4066 0146

carried from the womb:

4 And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you.

5 To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like? 6 They lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, and hire a goldsmith; and he maketh it a god: they fall down, yea, they worship.

7 They bear him upon the shoulder, they carry him, and set him in his place, and he standeth; from his place shall he not remove: yea, one shall cry unto him, yet he cannot answer, nor SAVE him out of his trouble."

False gods can't even move, let alone save someone. Isaiah 45:

"22 Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and THERE IS NONE ELSE. (So much for Satan, the so-called "god of this world!")

23 I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.

24 Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and STRENGTH: even to him shall men come; and all that are increased against him SHALL BE ASHAMED.

25 In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory."

These are examples of Old Testament "salvation." Salvation, in the Bible, cannot be pidgeon-holed into the single perspective of "personal salvation." Neither have we seen any indication, thus far, that it infers a mystical "heaven" or "hell." We've seen nothing to indicate anything other than the removing of a person, or a nation, from a position of distress to a position of safety.

Likewise, the "salvation of Christ," as we will see, was not a mystical barter for human souls, but rather a very practical and understandable re-directing of the interests of Israel back to God's Law-back to a position of safety!

"That he (God) would grant unto us (Israel), that we being delivered (saved) out of thehand of our enemies might serve him (God) without fear." Luke 1:74

THOSE WHO PROMOTE ANYTHING BUT MONEY!

The plea for 'constitutional, honest and Lebt-free money' is a contemporary theme emanating from numerous pulpits and lecterns across America. Despite rather small audiences, listeners are attentive, and many are personally acquanted with the frightful consequences of our nauseating romance with credit. As usual, a crisis at one's own door awakens an interest in the seemingly 'dry' subjects of life. No wonder more people have 'ears to hear' the truth about money, credit and banking - especially as it relates to the Federal Reserve (the FED).

But alas! Amidst the clamor for 'honest money,' we find more advocates of credit, their brand of legal plunder concealed beneath a more innocuous and palatable name:

- a) gold/silver certificates
- b) interest-free, debt-free money
- c) U.S. notes
- d) tallies and tax credits

Mercy! An instant replay! And these, perhaps well-meaning spokesmen for 'new and improved' debt instruments outnumber the advocates of substantive money! In fact, so-called 'hard-money' proponents betray their own position by advancing gold or silver 'backed' money, evidently unable to distinguish between money and mere promises to pay it. Nevertheless, all concur that 'reformation' is needed, with abolition of the FED being a top priority. Admirable - except they mean NA-TIONALIZATION - not elimination.

While emphasizing the FED is a private corporation run by N.Y. 'jews' engaged in 'usury' - they overlook the inherent theft by principle (funny money) 'creation' itself! Hence they demand Congress take control of the credit machine, in strict compliance with the Communist Manifesto. Whose side are they on?!

"Centralization of credit in the hands of the state by means of a national bank with state capital and an exclusive monopoly." -5th plank, Communist Manifesto, Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels.

How much does transfer of an unlawful activity from the private sector to a public corporation correct the problem? Would nationalization of aborticide clinics stop the murder? If not, then why is public credit an improvement over private credit?

A privately-owned bank is not the problem - unles private ownership is a crime. Nor is usury (interest) levied by N.Y. 'jews' any guarantee that their proselytes will not do the same if given the opportunity. Have you noticed how many reformers advocate public loans of government 'credit'-at interest?

Incidently, how do you physically lend or borrow intangible credit? Please notice-these spokesmen seldom propose loans of tangible money (e.g. gold) on credit-nor do we. They advocate loans of intangible CREDIT on credit-precisely the same system we have in the world today.

For those whose preference is to 'suffer while evils are sufferable'-debt bondage will continue under nationalization. Changing the name of the taskmaster will not free themnor will 'interest-free' money. Usury/interest, synonymous in Old English law and Scripture, is not a prerequisite to debt bondage. Borrowers are servants to the lenders- usury or no.

"The rich ruleth over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender."Prov 22:7

COLD/SILVER CERTIFICATES

Perhaps the most innocuous sounding solution is one which promotes silver and gold certificates; a glamorous appelation for debt instruments. By their redemption in gold, these instruments infuse confidence in FED notes, destined to later replace them.

"Through guarantees that 'paper money' could be exchanged for something of intrinsic value, gold served to inspire a measure of confidence in the system. Without the confidence factor, many believe a 'paper money' system is liable to collapse eventually."

Gold, Federal Reserve Bank (FRB) of Phil.pl0

The gold certificate was, according to its rather illusive contract, a 'legal tender' instrument claiming a sum of gold had been deposited in the Treasury. It was obviously not a $10.00 weight of gold per se, but only an offer to pay it. Nor were they lawfully issued. The power to 'emit bills,' formerly granted to Congress by the Articles of Confederation (art 9), was later revoked at Constitutional Convention (1787).

"Fresh from their experiences with coninental paper currency, so disastrous to all, it ould appear reasonable to assume that the intention of the framers of the Constitution as to prohibit all issues of legal tender paper by Congress." Contest For Sound Money, A. Barton Hepburn., p. 60/61 (1903)

Mr. Hepburn (ex-Comptroller of the Currency, etc.) went on to quote a few Convention delegates, followed by a summation of the proceedings.

"Ellsworth said it was a favorable m0-ment to 'shut and bar the door against paper money.' Langdon preferred reflecting the whole plan rather than retain the three words 'and emit bills.' (Thus) "The words were stricken out by a vote of four to one." -ibid p.60/61.

The Constitution further required States to Pay debts in Coin (@ article 1, Sec 10, Para 1) and not defer payment without IOU's. erhaps the most practical reason for this was our inability to ascertain how much gold or silver was on deposit to redeem all circulating debt instruments. Even gold certificates were not exempt from this uncertainty.

"...at first gold certificates were permitted to be issued in excess of the gold deposited (law of 1863)..." -Contest...p.418.

Evidently the Biblical view of man's sinful nature is correct, as well as its warnings about us putting our trust in man, his institutions, or his 'promises' to pay gold or silver.

"The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who can know it?" Jeremiah 17:9

WOULD JUBILEE'VE...

Majority Rule (DEMOCRACY)

THAT,....in the next few decades we'll see a dramatic increase in the United States minority population, and this shift will be most evident in California, where "minorities" will eventually be in the majority. In the year 2000, California will be 52% white....By 2010, 55% of the state's population will be minorities." San Francisco Chronicle, August 23, 1988.

The Population Reference Bureau projects that by the year 2030 California school-age "Hispanics" will outnumber whites 44% to 33%, with 16% Asians and 6% Blacks. The U.S. Dept of Education reports that Whites are already a minority in the public schools of Hawaii, Mississippi, California and New Mexico. And Texas, where Whites last year had a 51.8% majority of school population, is expected to have a majority of "Minority" students within two years. To coincide nicely with the "minority-majority" flip, Lauro Cavazos, 61, was unanimously confirmed recently as the first Hispanic Education secretary in America's history.

In 1986 blacks and "others" amounted to 36.7% of the U.S. population.

A FEW QUESTIONS:

Will present laws favoring non-white "minorities" remain as whites become the minority?

If Christianity was the national faith in a mostly Caucasian country, what will be the dominant religion in a mostly Black-Asiatic-Hispanic country? (Ex.20:3, HR)

Will man-kind blend all of Yah's original creations into new breeds never intended by the Creator?

What will be the national language? Will it be mandatory to speak 2 or 3 languages?

Will America become s state in a single world-wide country with an international leader(s)?

(Australians would do well to ponder these questions with a rising influx of Asian aliens. Which religion will future 'laws' be based on?)

SEX FARCE

"In the Talmud it says that a lesson taught with humor is a lesson retained...And in human sexuality this is very important...I never would have dreamed, coming from an Orthodox Jewish background, that I would talk about it (sex) across the world."

A candid admission from one of the chief purveyors of pornographic thinking in America today. Notice Westheimer's reference to the Talmud, the "Holy Book" of Orthodox Jewry, which revels in sexual filth, including advocacy of sexual congress with three-year-olds, and with dead bodies. For a complete expose on the Talmud, we suggest ordering THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY by Elizabeth Dilling, which dissects Talmudic views on these and other gutter topics. ($22.00 posted).

WHITE MAN'S BURTON

A long-time patriot, Kitty Burton, who knows that the real answer to this country's problems lies in being obedient to God and His Word, has found a unique way to take this message to the public.

Kitty became the Libertarian Party nominee for the governor of the state of Utah. This gets her invited to all the press conferences and political rallies where all the nominees speak.

She likes to tell the audiences that "If they vote for the republican candidate, nothing will change. If they vote for the democratic candidate, nothing will change. And if they vote for her, nothing will change." She then tells them that "until they recognize the Word of God as the Supreme Law of the land, and obey it, nothing will get any better."

Apparently, she gets standing ovations, and one of her opponents has even asked her how she is able to excite the crowds. Guess the gets the glory.

Kitty is a breath of fresh air in an otherwise rancid political system.

WHO OWNS PALESTINE

by Francis Christen

It has been called the Crossroads of the World. A relatively small piece of land some 150 miles long by about 100 miles at its widest point on the Eastern shore of the Mediterranean. The land is called Palestine and the city Jerusalem; together they are called "The Holy Land."

Today the Jews call it Israeli...and the rest of us call it TROUBLE. The Arabs claim that the land has been theirs for generations, but the Jews say they "saw it first."

As early as 1500 B.C. a town by the name of Uruisaim is shown on the present site of Jerusalem according to the Tell-el-Amarna Tablets. This town was taken by Joshua about 1200 B.C. In 1000 B.C. it became the city of David. In 722-682 B.C. Assyria took most of Palestine. In 605 B.C. Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon conquered Palestine. In 586 B.C. Jerusalem was sacked and the temple and palace burned by the Chaldeans. The "Judahites" (residents) at that time were deported to Babylon. Some historians point out that this was the destruction of the house of Judah and the true "diaspora."

The city of Jerusalem remained a desolate place until 539 B.C. when the Persians, under Cyrus, took it and began reconstruction of the second temple which was completed in 515 B.C. Jerusalem again became a Shrine but the people were a mixed group having intermarried with other nations during the captivity. Modern Jewry (a religion) finds its roots in Babylon and follows, to this day, the Babylonian Talmud of the Pharisees.

Alexander the Great added Palestine to his kingdom in 333 B.C. Antiochus Epiphanes conquered Jerusalem and massacred the population in 168 B.C. In 165 B.C. the town was retaken by "Judahites." In 63 B.C. Jerusalem was conquered by Pompey. 37 B.C. Herod (the Edomite) took Jerusalem and built his temple. Modern-day "Jews" still "wail" at the remaining wall of Herod's temple.

In 70 AD the Roman general Titus took Palestine for their empire. That generation saw the "great tribulation" spoken of by Jesus when Rome put down rebellion and destroyed the temple in Jerusalem.

In 134 AD Jerusalem was destroyed by the Bar-Cochba Rebellion. In 136 AD Hadrian rebuilt the city and named it Aelica Capitolina. In 614 Jerusalem was overrun by the Persians. In 637 the area passed into the hands of the Mohammedans and the Turks.

In 1096 twenty-thousand Crusaders stormed Jerusalem, massacred the Mohammedans and "liberated" the city in the name of the Cross. Just a few weeks later the Turks were reinforced and they retook the city and killed all the Crusaders. In 1187 the Syrians under Saladin conquered Jerusalem. By 1244 the Holy Land was again in the hands of the Turks and Egyptians. In the 15th century Syria along with Palestine became a province of the Turkish Empire. From 1832 to 1840 Egypt ruled Palestine. In 1843 the country was recovered by the Turks with the aid of England and Austria.

And, in 1917 the British, under General Allenby, drove the Turks out of Palestine and gave the country that didn't belong to them in the first place to the Israelis ("foreign" Jews) to liquidate a debt. The British had promised the Zionists that if they (the Jews) would bring the United States into the war (WW1) and save them from defeat by the Germans, they would give Palestine as a Jewish homeland.

Of course, the Arabs were never consulted while the "wheeling and dealing" was going on between the British and the Zionists.

In reality, the British giving Palestine to the Jews makes about as much sense as Billy Graham giving the Mormon Tabernacle Choir to the Roman Catholic Church in return for absolution...It isn't his to give, and the Catholics would have no right to it.

Now, in 1988, the Palestinians recently declared an independent state in the West Bank and Gaza, with Jerusalem as their capital. But the Zionists refuse to cooperate and allow the Palestinians to have a homeland.

So while the title search may be a bit cloudy, the truth is still clear: Palestine should belong to the Palestinians, not to a mob of non-Semitic Kazarian "Jews."

And if Palestine should belong to others than the Palestinians, the American taxpayers would certainly own it-if a country can be bought. Americans are milked of billions of tax and usury dollars each year by the Zionist bureaucrats in Washington DC, and Zionist bankers, who pump endless funds into the Israeli system to pay for the Israeli war machine and defend them against their growing number of enemies.

GEORGE BERNARD SHAW ON THE PALESTINIAN PROBLEM:

"The whole trouble arose through Balfour giving Palestine to Dr. Weismann, when it wasn't his to give. He might as well have handed him Madagascar.

"The thing was that Dr. Weismann had just supplied the British with a cheap way of making cordite. Naturally, the government was very grateful, and Balfour said: 'How much do you want?' 'I don't want money,'said Weismann. 'Quite so,' said Balfour.'Then what shall it be? Baronetcy, earldom, or what?' 'I don't want a title,' said Weismann.'I don't want anything for myself.'

'You, a Jew, don't want anything for irself!' said Balfour. 'But you must want something. What is it?' Weismann answered: 'I want Jerusalem.'

"And, since Jerusalem didn't belong to Balfour, he was quite ready to balance the account by handing it over."

JUDAISM ACCORDING TO THE IEWS

NON-SECTARIAN

"The great ideal of Judaism is that the whole world shall be inbued with Jewish teachings, and that in a Universal Brotherhood of Nations-a greater Judaism in fact-all the separate races and religions shall disappear."

(The Jewish World, February 9, 1883).

"The nations must vanish and religions rust be suppressed. Only Israel must not disppear, for this small nation is the chosen people of God."

(Chicago Jewish Sentine1, October 2, 1942).

GOD

God is triume. "From the union of the Divine Father and the Divine Mother are produced the worlds and the generations of living things...the nature of the Supreme One is considered to be threefold, and from this threefold nature the powers and elements of creation were reflected into the Abyss..."

(pg cxii, "Fundamentals of Qabbalistic Cosmogony" The Secret Teachings of All Ages by Manly P. Hall)

"Man will be finally free, when he realizes there is no God of man, but man himself."

(Ludwig Feurbach, German Jew).

"Gnosticism was Jewish in character long before it became Christian...The whole dualistic system of good and evil powers, which goes back to Zoroastrianism and ultimately to old Chaldea, can be traced through Gnosticisms; having influenced the cosmology of ancient Cabala before it reached the medieval one...."

(The Jewish Encyclopedia pg 458)

"The only philosophy (is)...pantheism, the doctrine which is natural to the metaphysical Jew who speculates on the unity of God and transforms it into the unity of substance."

(Rev. Fahey, Antisemitism, p.339).

SCRIPTURE

"It is more wicked to question the words of the rabbis than those of the Torah."

(Mishna Sanhedryn 11:3 Talmud).

"The teachings of the Talmud stand above all other laws. They are more important than the laws of Moses."

(Rabbi Ismael, Rabbi Chambar, et al.).

"The decisions of the Talmud are words of the living God. Jehovah Himself asks the opinion of the early rabbis when there are difficult affairs in heaven."

(Rabbi Menachem, Commentary on Fifth Book of Talmud).

"Its (talmud) birthplace, Babylonia, was an autonomous Jewish centre for a longer period than any other land; namely, from soon after 586 before the Christian era to the year 1040 after the Christian era..."

(The Babylonian Talmud, Soncino Press 1935).

"...That Judaism is the religion of the Hebrew Bible...is of course a fallacious impression...Judaism is not the religion of the Bible."

(Rabbi Bokser)

"The Talmud, then, is the written form of that which, in the time of Jesus, was called the Traditions of the Elders, and to which he makes frequent allusions."

(Vol 10, History of the Talmud by Rod Kinson)

"The Talmud is to this day the circulating heart's blood of the Jewish religion. Whatever laws, customs, or ceremonies we observe-whether we are Orthodox, Conservative, Reform or merely spasmodic sentimentalists-we follow the Talmud. It is our common law."

(Jewish writer Herman Wouk)

JESUS

"Jesus 'committed bestiality', 'corrupted the people,' is 'turned into hell,' (Sanh. 105a)... Jesus 'limped on one foot' and 'was blind in one eye,' 'he practiced bestiality with his ass,' he was 'a fool who did not even know his beast's mind,' (Sanh.105a-105b)...Jesus attempts to seduce woman, is excommunicated by a rabbi and then worships a brick, was a 'seducer of Israel,' and 'practiced magic,' (Sanh 107b"

(The Plot Against Christianity by Elizabeth Dilling).

"Mar said: Jesus seduced, corrupted and destroyed Israel." (Sanhedrin 107b).

"Jesus was illegitimate and was conceived during menstruation."

(Kallah, 1b 18b).

"Jesus is referred to as the son of a Roman soldier and a Jewish prostitute."

(Shab., The Talmud)

"Christians sin by worshipping Jesus."

(Hilkoth Melakhim)

"Christians are idolaters."

(Hilkoth Maakhaloth)

"Jesus learned magic in Egypt and performed his miracles by means of it...he cut the magic formulas into his skin."

(Shab.104b-The Talmud).

"Because Jesus never married and preferred the company of men...he undoubtedly was a homosexual."

(Montefiore in Newsweek, August 7, 1967).

"Mary, the mother of Jesus, is called Charia (dung, excrement) (German Dreck)." esus is ignominiously called Jeschu-which means, May his name and memory be blotted out." (From The Talmud Unmasked by Rev. B. Pranaitis).

"...you will notice the great difference between the Jewish and Christian religions. We consider the two religions so different that one excludes the other." (Rabbi Moshe M. Maggal, President-National Jewish Information Service, 1961).

MORALITY

"A Jew is permitted to rape, cheat and perjure himself; but he must take care that he is not found out, so that Israel may not suffer." (Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat 238)

"All property of other nations belongs to the Jewish nation, which, consequently is entiled to seize upon it without any scruples. An Orthodox Jew is not bound to observe principles of morality towards people of other tribes. He may act contrary to morality, if profitable to himself or to Jews in general." (Schulchan Aruch, Choszen Hamiszpat 348).

"Evil, according to the Cabalistic philosophy, is nonexistent, anticipating Christian Science." (Universal Jewish Encyclopedia).

"Only Israelites (Jews) are MEN...Gentiles they classed not as men but as barbarians (or animals, i.e. beasts)." (Baba Mecia 108b The Jewish Encyclopedia).

"If a Gentile sue an Israelite (Jew), the verdict is for the defendant; if the Israelite (Jew) is the plaintiff, he obtains full damages."

(Baba K. IV, 3 The Mishna - Talmud).

(Chagigah 15b)- States that a Jew is Ausubel). considered to be good in the eyes of God, in spite of any sins he may commit.

(Babha Kama 113b) - States that the name of God is not profaned, if a Jew lies to a Christian."

"It is allowed to take usury from Apostates (Christians) who fall into idolatry."

(Abhodah Zarah 54a).

"When a grown man has had intercourse with a little girl it is nothing, for when the girl is less than this, less than 3 years old, it is as if one puts the finger into the eye. Tears come to the eye again and again, so does virginity come back to the little girl under three years."

(Kethuboth 11b).

"Pederasty (that is, sex relations between men and especially between men and boys, Ed) with a child below nine years of age is not deemed as pederasty with a child above that...if one committed sodomy with a child of lesser age, no guilt is incurred."

(Sanhedrin 54b, Talmud).

"It is necessary to teach concerning one who commits pederasty with a terefah (when used of a person, it means that he was suffering from some fatal organic disease, recovery from which is impossible, Ed.): for I might think that he is as one who abuses a dead person, and hence exempt."

(Christianity vs Judeo-Christianity by Malcolm Ross)

"The Torah outlawed the issue of a Gentile as that of a beast." (Rationale behind abortion laws today? Ed.)

(The Jewish Encyclopedia, Mik. VIII. 4.)

"Every vow which I may make in the future shall be null" (Nedarim 23a) 23b states). "And he who desires that none of his vows made during the year shall be valid, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare: 'Every vow which I may take in the future shall be null.'" (This may have provided a support for custom of reciting Kol Nidre... prior to the Evening Service of the Day of Atonement.") Christianity vs Judeo-Christianity by Malcolm Ross).

"The best among the Gentiles deserves to be killed." (Yer Kid. 66c, Massek, Soferim XV.10; Mek. Beshallah, 27a, Tan., Wayera Ed. Buber, 20).

HEAVEN / HELL

"Gan Eden...is supposedly reserved for great Torah scholars, and tradition has it that here...the Holy One, blessed be He, will reveal to them the mysteries of the Torah in the World-to-come...God himself will preside over the Torah discussions of the sages...How does one enter Gan Eden? Through sparkling ruby gates, well guarded by sixty myriads of angels" (The Jewish Book of Knowledge by Nathan Ausubel).

"GEHINNOM (Hebrew, meaning "Gehenna"; hence, Hell or Purgatory)...There, punishment was clearly written down in the Talmud: "The Holy One, blessed be He, judges the wicked in Gehinnom for twelve months. At first He afflicts them with Itching. After that [He roasts them] with fire. At this they cry out: 'Oh! Oh!' and then He torments them with snow. Threupon, they cry out: 'Woe is me! Woe is me!'" (The Book of Jewish Knowledge by Nathan Ausubel).

THE KINGDOM

"The throes of mother Zion which is in labour to bring forth the Messiah-without metaphor,[is] the Jewish people."

(Kethuboth 111a).

"Jews do not expect the Messiah to be the son of God. Most non-orthodox Jews hinge their hopes more on a messianic age than on an individual messiah."

(p.50 The Meaning of Judaism).

"There is a spark of Messiah in each of us; when we succeed in putting together all our individual sparks, the result will constitute coming of messiah!"

(p 51 The Meaning of Judaism).

"The Jews are destined to eat their fill in the days of Messiah...It will be difficult to remove the Gentiles from their position without inflicting much suffering." (Sanhedrin 58b).

-end of Jewish quotes-

The Bible

"Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth." -Titus 1:14 "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an anti-Christ...he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." -2 Jn:7-11 "...he that despiseth me (Jesus) despiseth "'am that sent me." -Lk 10:16 ./ho is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father:" -1 Jn 2:22-23

CHRISTMAS

Christmas is not Christian, where "SANTA" is concerned;
And so-called Christians, loving "him", could end up getting burned;
For "SANTA CLAUS" is pagan, a doctrine from our past;
A doctrine from the wicked, for their evil, greedy grasp.

Christ was not born at Christmas, The Bible proves that so; But God did not tell us the "day", He did not let us know; For He knew that we would worship Him, in like to "SANTA" form;
Where economic issues, and greed, become the norm.

Greed today rules Christmas, it's one big "PAGAN FEAST;"
We think of presents, Christmas trees, roast dinners, Jesus LEAST:
But you should think of Jesus, for He paid for our sin;
And faith in Jesus, must precede, God's Kingdom to begin.

As well as the new video listed elsewhere in this newsletter, we have also just received the entire set of videos from Pastor Pete Peters recent Rocky Mountain Bible Camp. They are presently being converted to Australian standard. I think there will be 18 videos in all, with 3 messages per tape.

New stocks have arrived of the large PROTOCOLS ($7 posted). Also some copies of a new book, FASCINATING WOMANHOOD by Helen B. Andelin. This book is highly recommended for all women, who want to be women, and have a happy and successful marriage. ($7.50 posted).

We also have some copies of LETTERS TO JESSICA by Robert Bissett. It purports to be "a child's guide to freedom of mind and spirit." Start teaching the young ones with this book. ($8.50 posted).

Some have asked about receiving extra newsletters per month. The rates are as follows: (Please note that this figure represents a suggested minimum donation per year)

1 copy per month $20 per year. 2 copies per month $25 per year. 3 copies per month $30 per year. 4 copies per month $40 per year. $50 per year. $55 per year. 5 copies per month 6 copies per month $60 per year. $65 per year. 7 copies per month 8 copies per month 9 copies per month $70 per year. 10 copies per month $75 per year. on the understanding that they are sent in one package to one address! If you require a greater quantity, please write. This is cheaper than photocopying, so you can afford to give them away!

For those interested instudying into the Saturday/Sunday sabbath issue, some tapes just to hand from Pastor Peters: SFA269, -270, -271, -272; $16 posted. We pray that this New Year will mean many more opened eyes among God's Israel people. May He bless and protect those willing to do His Will. In Christ,
