"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up and horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Since the beginning of this year, limited media attention has been given to the plight of Roman ruins that will be lost in South Eastern Turkey. The Turks, kin of the Huns who really don't belong in Turkey but rather in Mongolia, don't care about the Roman ruins. The Turks are half Aziatic, half Arab mamzers. The Romans were Whites, racially kin of the original 'Nordic' Chaldeans from whence was born Abraham. Roman history is not Turkish history - we recommend that you read "Fall and Rise of Abraham's Kin." (#149 @ $6.50)

If only we could chisel out these ruins and bring them to Australia! But that vain dream is too late as flood waters are rising, rising due to dams built to harness the waters of the Tigris and Euphrates rivers just below the source of these two historic rivers.

Blood is thicker than water (religion), for although the Turks are Islamic and the Jews are Talmudists, both have Turkic blood. Jews sided with Albanians of Turk blood during the Balkans' strife; and now the Turks in Turkey are rushing to the help of the Turko-Canaanites (Jews) in J.O.P (Jewish Occupied Palestine). Jewish-Canaanites in JOP are using more water than what the land can yield, so the dams in Turkey will supply water to the Canaanites who would not (and can not) have H.R.H. King Jesus as their King.

Downstream, this cozy deal between Turk types, however, is causing havoc where the two mighty rivers, the Tigris and Euphrates are drying up. This is felt most noticeably in Iraq, the once homeland of Babylon. Of course Iraq is not Neo-Babylon. To me, though, one can take these happenings as a sign in allegorical form that the rivers watering Neo-Babylon, i.e., that which gives it life, is about to dry up.

One can't help wonder what sort of thoughts go through some folks heads. After all, today's society is of today's folks' making. They may chide and say we don't like this or that, but the fact is, they (the masses) can't blame Kosherdale (Hollywood) or Babel-iamment (parliament) as such; for both are the gods of their heart; are false gods which the throng loves. Let's face it, God's Laws have never been popular.

If the average mindset of those in the security profession is anything to go by as a guide to public thinking, ... then it is not hard to fathom H.R.H. King Jesus' readiness to crush the grape company and thrash the wheat company of Israelites. An insider who mingled at a two-day training camp, with social and V.I.P guardians, learned much about their morals. Ranging from airport security agents to V.I.P protection guards, these men are bodily tough, ... but mentally they are weak when it comes to righteousness.

Besides loving money and status, they suffer from acute xenomania (the love of all things foreign). During break time at the recent security training course, their chat was focused on a lust for the zûwr (racial alien) and mamzers (mixed-blood bastards) and how they'd spend their earnings on sex-holidays in Asia. One security man outlined why his wedlock ended in divorce because his wife did not enjoy sodomy. Others boasted that an out-of-wedlock romp is not to be taken as a sin, but a 'trophy' befitting their life(death)-style. These are the so-called elite of the Saxon males. Little wonder we are in Babylon.

On Thursday, 21 Sept, on ACA (channel 9) was a segment on both male and female (marrieds) advertising for 'a fling on the side' because that was better than going through a divorce. This way they could have their marriage partner, and have their sex with an outsider. One woman stated that she had 60 such encounters. There was also the promotion of a book 'The Joys of Adultery.' And we wonder why this nation is in trouble? (ads also regularly appear in the papers for this)

Aboriginal Spending: Abo spending is said to be lifted to 2.3 billion dollars per year. An Aussi 'billion' - One Thousand Million! It's a lot of geld (Saxon for money). If Australia has some 200,000 aboriginals (there are many 'part'-aboriginals, but number of full-bloods is debateable), then each aboriginal gets $11,000 a year - each year for being an abo, ... courtesy of the Saxon-Israelites. (I wonder how the abos ever managed without money before the white man came?). Multinational and other wealthy Canaanites don't foot the bill as they avoid taxes. The latter only provide lawyers to fleece the Saxons. Of course, the money is not spent on each individual directly (how would your family of 4 fare with a government gift of $44,000 per year?), nevertheless, we give it to them. All we get in return is cursing and fleecing, but then, we Saxons are sheep.

That figure of $2.3 billion, by the way, does not include the welfare payments many abos get from us as dole, pensions, parenting allowance, child support, family payments, child care and the likes. Abos in government jobs get their pay through taxation from fleeced Saxons, plus the indirect or otherwise 11,000 racial perk. Other abos work in the commercial sector, again the perks come. Remember, abos in jobs mean Saxon out of jobs. The whole idea of employment is a Saxon concept and is not part of abo culture. When an abo takes part in Saxon society, he is eating the bread of the children of Israel.

The abos never had it so good, but don't expect them to be thankful. God made them to love their ways and hate ours. It's about time Whitey wakes up to this (see the enclosed Gospel News Alert!). Abos are to live under the Abo god in abo homelands under abo law. Saxons are to live under the Saxon King H.R.H. King Jesus I, under God's Laws (the God of Abraham), and in Saxon biological zones, wherever they may be. We are not to turn abos into Spiritual Saxons, God made Abos and God made Saxons. Our job is to keep it that way. (as integration destroys both races, you'd think the abos would be opposed to it, as eventually there will be no more abos). "If thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger (zûwr), thou (whitey) art snared." [Prov 6:1-2]

In case you haven't worked out why CFCs (chloro-fluorocarbons) are so bad, the following testimony from a refrigeration professional will be enlightening. Apart from a few types of cooling agents (other than CFCs) up until recently, nearly all refrigeration units from refrigerators to air-conditioners used CFCs. CFCs were developed by Saxon boffins for the Canaanite owned alchemy-giant Dupont. Dupont Canaanites ensured a world-wide patent for themselves, meaning they only could make the stuff or others could only do so under license. Dupont's profits were big ... big ... big. Any colling unit, be it in Sydney, Alice Springs, Amsterdam or New York or Bombay, would be cooled by a Dupont or a Dupont licensed gas. Dupont Canaanites had the dibs on the CFC coolants. But Patents come unstuck when their time runs out. So Dupont Canaanites got their hired boffins to develop another gas and gain a new patent that will set them up right for decades to come. Patents only secure the ideas of the super rich. For the poor, patents are an info leak to the super rich. The 'dangerous' side effects of CFCs was none other than the patent running out so that anyone could make the stuff, thereby foredoing Dupont Canaanite windfalls, through a world-wide monopoly. Bad CFCs

And for those who missed it, I talked with a white ant expert, who tells me that exactly the same thing happened with Dieldrin, which was used as a white ant treatment. The patents ran out - Dieldrin was banned - and a new chemical was patented, which is now in use, and at a much higher price than dieldrin. - it's not about 'protecting the environment' as they make out. It's about control and making money for the super rich, while you and I get poorer and poorer!

For years some folks have talked of the chance that someone would want to build a new tower of Babel. Yes, with US funds, much of the old city of Babylon has been re-created, but I doubt on the size of the original, as the whole city was simply too big. Yet for years, the new tower of Babel has been standing and our folk all loved it. It stands in New York. We call it the Empire State Building.

The symbolism interwoven with its design, timing and method of building has been overlooked by starry-eyed saxons. The geld (money) and idea to build it came from the Canaanite-Jew, John J. Raskob. (Being a Canaanite-Jew means that Raskob's lineage is from Babylon). Raskob managed the presidential campaign of the Saxon proselyte NY governor Al Smith (of the late 1920s). Raskob and Smith 'spoke the same language,' they both wanted the world's tallest building. Just like the first builders, they spoke the same language as well. Beauty was not important to them. According to the architect's wife, the design was based on a pencil! Saxon building designs when not blended with Jewish ideals were based on God's creations; such as blooms and leaves. Even carved animals and people decorated saxon buildings affecting gable shapes. To the Canaanite-Jews, these details were impractical and useless.

The Empire State Building did not 'land' on an empty block, there once stood a spectacular example of Saxon architecture on the site; full of scrolled and carved stone gables, towers, turrets, dormer windows and multiple bay windows. It was crafted and shaped by Saxon artisans to look much like a European castle, such as the palace of "Schwerin" of Meckelnburg-Vorpommern in Germany. It was the original Waldorf-Astoria, NY's most beautiful hotel. It typified Israelite ideals in design and was an allegorical tale in stone of Israelites' kingdom. It was opened in 1893 just at the point when Saxons showed their displeasure with their God, for in that very decade the Saxons lit a 'strange' fire. (Read the account of the strange fire lit by the priests of Israel in the Old Testament - for the seriousness of such a thing.)

In the last years of the 19th Age the Olympic Flame was lit for the first time (1896) in HRH King Jesus' Kingdom of the Church Age level. In 1886 the Saxon Israelites set this flame in 'stone' by putting up the torch-bearing, Masonic-built, Statue of Liberty. The question should be, freedom from what? From Jesus' Kingdom, free to do it man's way by a god of man's making (Frank Sinatra helped pump the message in with his song: I did it my way!). Saxons made it clear to God that His Son was not wanted as their King, preferring a 'strange fire.' The holy ghost (gas, fuel, zeal) was swapped for a strange ghost (gas or zeal). This was the sign that Saxons were ready to pay restitution to modern Esau, the Jews, for stealing Esau's birthright so long ago. Once enough wealth and might was pooled the tribe of Esau took the birthright to rule the world when they brought in the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, thereby laying hold upon all governmental geld and gold.

But the transfer of private Saxon wealth was not whole until Esau's banking sons brought in the 'Great Depression,' brought on by the Wall Street crash (crash of Saxon wealth into Edomite-Canaanite-Jewish coffers) in October 1929. Raskob, like his fellow Canaanites, was clearly richer. Before the transfer of wealth, the cost to build the Empire State Building was set at $60 million US; after the crash (transfer of wealth) the cost dropped to US $25 million, as wages dropped for Saxon workers who became two a penny.

Although 'Empire State' was a 'by-name' for New York one must wonder, Empire of what? Empire or Reich of Canaanite rule? There can be no doubt NY is blatantly a Jewish run or usurped world capital. NY still has many remnant structures of the once Saxon city, founded by the Dutch Pieter Stuyvesant in 1646, but these are over-shadowed by Babylonian, Bauhaus towers. Bauhaus was the Jewish design school that affected all modern designing from a kettle to an office block. The movement began in Germany between the two world wars. To remove the Astoria and dig out the ground for the Empire State Building, 16,000 truckloads of rubble were taken and dumped into the sea. I find that symbolic; no doubt the wreckers did too, Into the sea, symbolizes Israelites dumped into a sea of humanity when it comes to us. When it comes to the Jews it represents the end of their world (think of the millstone cast into the sea). One day the Empire State Building will meet the fate of the old Astoria, symbolic of the Canaanites cast into the sea, being the loss of their dominion over us; for although they had the right to rule over us for a while, they have gone beyond that right bringing themselves into transgression. Therefore we will legally, from God's Law, be able to do unto them double as they have done unto us. In their greed they have refused to set our folk free to serve our God.

The Empire State Building is Esau's monument to his triumph over Jacob, like a victory war memorial. And, like the old tower of Babel, the planners tried to reach the heavens. They did this by fitting a mast on top of the building to beam the world's strongest TV signal in 1950. TV is the image of the beast that was given the might to speak. TV signals beam in all directions, also into outer space. Fifteen years later they fitted the world's strongest VHF (FM) sender. The art work in the foyer of the 1930s shows the building radiating as if it is a star. Interestingly, in 1930, the owners tried (like the pagan priests of old) to draw fire down from heaven. G.E.C. fitted an 18m lightning rod attracting countless lightning bolts.

Canaanite Jews have torn down our holy places (anything made by us using Christian principles is a sacred site), likewise we will one day, when their rule is over, tear down all that symbolized their overrunning of our holy lands. Canaanite protection orders such as the one to save the Empire State Building in 1986, are not worth a crummet in the Booth age of Jesus' rule!

In April 1994 AD, a part of the world unheard of to most Celto-Saxon Israelites, suddenly became big news. The region of Uyghur, China's western most province yielded startling secrets, namely that the indigenous folk of middle Asia were White! Mummies were found with brown and blond hair wearing clothes that looked like tartans (read Fall and Rise of Abraham's Kin #149 @ $6.50 for more details). For over 2000 years this was the native homeland of our OUR kinsfolk. But they were ethnically cleansed from Asia about the time England was being overrun by the Normans. The Mummies became known as the Urumchi Mummies after the town where they are currently kept, the regional capital, Urumchi. According to FFI newsletters we are living in a transition phase from the Weeks or Pentecost age into the Booths or Tabernacles age. This is a transfer of authority from the bride of Christ (the church age crowd) to the Body or Groom of Christ (the overcomer crowd, those who know their identity and say AMEN to ALL of God's Laws).

The transfer means that what the heathen did to Israelites now begins to back fire. Where once our folk died like flies and no amount of overseas help will change this. We have been witnessing this steadily. God heralds this in with signs, like birth pangs. One day all our lost lands will be regained, including Middle Asia.

I therefore find it noteworthy that again, the seemingly insignificant town of Urumchi hits world news, this time about a blast that killed over 100 of those that supplanted our kin. We will regain all homelands, not by our strength, but by God's mighty hand. HE will however use tools for the job. These tools can be any thing or anyone, but he does let a select group of Israelites share in His plan. Think of Gideon who understood he was a tool of honour in God's hands.

Ever since my article on Indonesia a few years back the islands have been going down hill, for the descendants (and their kin) of those that ethnically cleansed OUR kin from the then Netherlands Indies. It is not that the mongoloid-negro-cromagnon hybrids we call Indonesians were so mighty, indeed, the Dutch Saxons were winning the war. A few thousand Saxons were overcoming millions of Indo-hybrids. But the UN threatened sanctions upon Holland (the outcome of such sanctions are made clear in Iraq). So the Dutch military had to leave, leaving civilian Whites at the 'mercy' of the Indo-hybrids. If I am right, the Netherlands Indies was the first land in the UN ethnically cleansed of Israelites. God used the UN to deal with rebellious Israelites (see Fall & Rise of Abraham's Kin!). But, there comes a time when the 'sons of men' and their institutions are no longer needed by God and then the tables turn upon them.

Maybe Indonesia is pivotal because of its UN dirty work in the early 1950s with the isle of Java being the hub, as Java means Barley. It may be one of the first places restored to the Barley Company? Anyhow, with all this in mind, I find it interesting that recently (mid-September 2000) the Indo-hybrid loving UN was dealt a hefty blow by these hybrids when their offices in West Timor were ransacked and some staff ruthlessly slain. Tables are turning on the UN, also called the Jewnited Nations.

Lastly, American feminist Sommers wrote a book called, The War Against Boys, admitting that there is a campaign against boys. Her conscience began to bug her when her children turned out to be boys. She had to admit that boys are not girls and that society has been oppressing boys with the outcome of them becoming left behind. The tables are turning, the 'bride' will have to let the groom of Jesus rule soon!

----- JEWISH INFLUENCE??

While looking through the Septuagint translation, the thought came to me that since about 100 BC, when the Septuagint was completed, they have been the main Scriptures for our first century (and later) forefathers.

There are some today who make a big issue out of going back to using Hebrew names for God and Jesus, but the first century Christians certainly did not seem to do so. The Septuagint uses theos and/or kurios theos for God and kurios theos for Lord God. But, interestingly enough, in a recent Koorong catalog was advertised a "Complete Jewish Bible" by one David Stern. The caption stated in part, "... with this unique resource you'll be able to read and say names and key terms the way Yeshua (Jesus) did."

So I started to wonder is the push by some to constantly use Hebrew words a form of Judaizing? The apostle Paul warned us in II Corinthians 6 about "... what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ (the Anointed) with Belial? and what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? For ye (Israelites) are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people." (the latter part being a quote from Ex 29:45, Lev 26:12, Jer 31:33, Jer 32:38) These quotes are conclusive proof that Paul was talking to and about Israelites!

I pondered some of these same questions that Paul raised, when I opened a recent issue of THE STRATEGY and saw an article by one Norm Segal. This person who professes to be a Zionist Jew, is writing for what is supposed to be a Christian paper. Not only do I find that strange, but the article is bound to cause much confusion among those who read it. Particularly any just coming into the knowledge of their identity as True Saxon-Israelites.

The Apostle John is quite clear about the people we know as Jews today, telling us back in about 70AD: "Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Anointed? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, THE SAME HATH NOT THE FATHER: (1 Jn 2:22-23)

He also warns us about deceivers: "For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an antichrist." Therefore, articles like the one in THE STRATEGY ought to go straight in the bin! Propagating Jewish ideas will further the deception, and continue to cause more confusion among our Israel people. (Take note, Ray!)

We know that the Anglo-Saxon and kindred people are the true descendants of Scriptural Israel, and that the Jews are not of Israel at all, but are instead imposters descended from Esau and Canaanites, and from the Khazars. That being the case (see The Thirteenth Tribe by Arthur Koestler, #396 @ $12.30), why are we constantly bombarded with so much that has Jewish origins? Is that part of a strategy to confuse and divide?

Not only do we hear much use of Yeshua or Yahsua and Yahveh or Yahweh and Yehoshua and many others, but also the use of Saturday as the supposed 'correct' day of rest and worship. If we Anglo-Saxon and Kindred people are the true Israelites of Scripture, then what does the Scripture tell us about our rest day? (always remember that Sabbath is one of those unfortunate untranslated words, it is NOT the name of a particular day).

"Speak thou also unto the children of Israel, saying, Verily my sabbaths ye shall keep: for it is a sign between me and you throughout your generations; that ye may know that I the Lord doth sanctify you (Israelites). Ye (Israelites, and NOT the Jews) shall keep the sabbath therefore: for it is holy unto you. Everyone that defileth it shall surely be put to death: for whosoever doeth work therein, that soul shall be cut off from among his people. Six days may work be done (notice it does not specify which 'days of the week'), but in the seventh (that is after six days of work) is the sabbath of rest, holy to the Lord: whosoever doeth any work in the sabbath-day he shall surely be put to death. Wherefore the children of Israel (not the Jews) shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations, for a perpetual covenant. It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested and was refreshed." Ex 31

It is a sign between God and the Jews - is that what it says? NO! It is a sign between God and Israel - not between God and antichrist. Do you honestly believe that the antichrist is going to be keeping God's rest, while millions upon millions of God's people Israel are going to be keeping a wrong day, when God said it is a sign between Him and Israel? I don't think so! To hold that the Jews are keeping the right day, when God's true Israel are then supposedly keeping the wrong day, is to say that God didn't know what he was saying when He inspired Moses to write Exodus 31. God is no fool! The Christian nations of the West have never legislated Saturday laws, to shut shops and stop people working. But you know, they did have laws like that in relation to Sunday. Nearly all, if not all did! Some of the remnants of those laws still exist, even though the Jews have been working at dismantling them for a long time. And, the Israel nations that had those laws and kept them were blessed for doing so. Now, as we turn away in more rebellion, and the bondage of our captivity increases, we find ever more people treating everyday the same, without setting God's day apart for rest and worship, as is required by the statement "keep it holy." (from the Greek hagios meaning separate, set apart). To oppose the idea of Sunday Laws, as do Seventh Day Adventists (especially the book 'National Sunday Law'), is to oppose God's Law which says, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me," and "one law shall be to him that is homeborn, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among you." (Ex 12:49; Num 15:15,16). You can't allow the "freedom of religion" that the Constitution (section 116) gives, it is contrary to God's Law!

You must also remember that practically all churches which teach a Saturday 'rest' day, (sabbath is another of those transliterated words which was NOT translated! It means to rest or cease from one's work) also teach that "The Jews are God's chosen people." One error leads to another! If they do not teach that exactly, then they will usually teach that the Jews are Judah and Benjamin - another error. So if you are one who thinks he should 'keep' Saturday, you are in effect saying thereby that you believe the Jews are God's People, because the 'rest' is a sign between God and His people, as Exodus 31 said. However, if you know that that is false, and that the Anglo-Saxons are in fact the true people of God and His sign is upon them, then you really must in all honesty realize that you should 'keep' Sunday "holy" or "set apart." Never mind those who say "The Pope changed the day - the Roman Catholic Church says so." I say, the Roman Catholic church may claim that they changed the day, but just because they claim that, doesn't make it so. Remember, The Catholic church claims to be the only true church, the Jews claim to be the chosen people! The Pope claims to be God's representative on earth. He also claims to be infallible. Claiming something doesn't make it so.

I do not think that 'keeping' the same day as Antichrist will bring blessings from the God of our forefathers. We know who He is without using Hebrew names, because the Scriptures specifically tell us that He is the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob! our forefathers, and therefore OUR God also. Think on these things - and I hope this helps you. See also Charles Weisman's book Sabbath and The Lord's Day, #787 @ $9.85, and also Why I no Longer Observe Saturday as a Day of Rest and Worship, Earl Linville, #921 @ $2.50.

RACIAL NIHILISM
The Doctrine of Racial Idiocy

Life is a continuum of generations. The different branches of life - species and races - are themselves separate and distinct continuums, composed not only of genetically similar individuals in the currently existing generation, but also of a potentially unlimited number of generations, each genetically linked with its ancestors and descendants.

Human continuums are cultural as well as genetic. Each generation transmits both its culture and its genes to its successors. The generations in the racial continuum come and go, and gradually evolve or change over time, but the life they embody and share in common continues through the continuum of its generations.

Racial Nothingism

The choice of racial nonexistence over existence, of racial death over racial life, of racial discontinuation over continuation, and willingness to reject and repudiate the racial continuum to which one belongs, is Racial Nihilism. The term "nihilism" is derived from the Latin, "nihilum," which means "nothing." Nihilism is literally Nothingism. There are various forms of Nihilism, each denying the existence - through a reduction to nothing - of a continuum that has existed through many generations. Literary and artistic Nihilism rejects and repudiates distinctions or standards in literary or artistic merit or value.

Moral Nihilism is the rejection and repudiation of moral distinctions, standards and values. Racial Nihilism is the rejection and repudiation of all racial distinctions and values. It either denies racial existence or seeks its annihilation - literally, its reduction to nothingness or non-existence.

The ideological motivation for Nihilism is often a radical or extreme Egalitarianism which seeks to abolish all inequalities by abolishing all distinctions, differences and diversities, as well as all values and standards. But whatever its motivation or form - whether moral, cultural or racial - Nihilism is an ideology of denial and destruction. It denies the very existence of the continuum it seeks to destroy. As Moral Nihilism commonly asserts that morality does not exist, so Racial Nihilism denies the existence of races, claiming that nothing exists to preserve or conserve. This is racial Deconstructionism, the ideological annihilation of race or ideological reduction of race to nothingness. defining race out of existence by "deconstructing" its terms or classifications.

This denial is often implied or indirect, as in the following statement by Miami Herald columnist Joel Achenbach, who writes that "...'races' are the arbitrary inventions of the Colonialist era." (Robobaby, Tropic, April 5, 1992, p19).

Sometimes the denial by deconstruction is explicit and direct, as in the following assertions by Joan Steinau Lester, executive director of Equity Institute, a "diversity consulting firm," who writes, "The idea of 'white' is a fiction, created at a time when Europeans were labeling and classifying everything ... 'Race' is a system of thought created for the purpose of maintaining separation and power. As we attempt as a nation to dismantle “racial divisions and inequities, it is time to disassemble the ideas and words made to fortify the old ways ... Folks, race is a bigger scam than Santa Claus. Not only does this dog not hunt, it doesn’t exist.” (Is He White? Is He Black? And, Can You Always Really Tell? The Miami Herald, Feb 20, 1994)

Multiculturalism is a Modern Phenomenon

Actually, it was during the era of Western discovery and exploration - of which the colonialist era was the final expansionist phase - that the different races of humanity became aware of each other, that actual knowledge of human racial diversity began to replace centuries of myth and speculation, and that the study of human racial diversity became a serious scientific discipline.

Nihilism -vs- Preservationism

Racial Nihilism is the opposite or antithesis of racial preservation (continued racial life), and to the conditions required for preservation (separation and reproductive isolation). In ideological terms, Racial Nihilism can be defined as any system of ideas, beliefs, and values that opposes racial preservation and conservation, that supports or promotes the causes of racial destruction, or that denies racial rights, especially the racial right to life and the conditions of separation required for continued racial life (racial preservation).

Those who reject the continuation or preservation of their own race are Racial Nihilists regardless of whether or not they also oppose the continuation of other races. Thus some Racial Nihilists only reject the continuation or preservation of their own race, while approving the continuation of other races. Other racial Nihilists reject the continuation of all races, all racial differences and all racial diversity, seeking an egalitarian levelling of all humanity into one uniform race consistent with the goal or dream of the “One World” ideology.

Racial Values

Racial Nihilism, in its rejection of racial values, caring and love, holds that it is wrong to value, care for and love one’s own race, and even more wrong to value, care for and love it more than others, or to accord to it any preference or special concern. Racial Nihilism demands the egalitarian elimination of all racial particularities and distinctions, preferences and concerns, and asserts that it is wrong to value, care for and love one’s race in any degree, even the same as others, if that valuing, loving and caring includes a desire for the preservation and continuation of one’s own race in distinction from others.

Racial Nihilism can be passive as well as active, characterized by acts of omission as well as commission. The preservation or continuation of a continuum often requires positive, sustaining and affirming actions. The lack of racial caring or interest, the lack of affirmation of racial rights and values, and the acquiescence to the causes of racial destruction, are all examples of Racial Nihilism by default, the nihilism of indifference.

This type of Racial Nihilism - a simple lack of interest, care and concern, often not consciously intended - is by far the most common form, and the most insidious. No statement expresses the essence of Nihilism more than the rhetorical question, “Who cares?” It is an expression of denial and rejection of caring, and even of contempt for caring. When Nihilism rejects or denies the value or importance of something, or even denies its existence, it condones its sacrifice or destruction, and resents and condemns as immoral those who do care for, and seek to uphold and preserve, that which is threatened.

Racial Diversity -vs- Racial Destruction

If racial diversity is to be preserved in the modern world, where the preserving barriers of geographic distance have been overcome by advances in transportation and communication, Racial Nihilism - even in its passive, acquiescent, indifferent and unconscious form - is an error humanity can no longer afford.

The causes of racial destruction are intermixture and replacement. Intermixture causes racial destruction by genetic dilution or submergence. Replacement involves one race being dispossessed - or “squeezed-out” - by others who take its place.

Multiracialism is the ideology, or system of beliefs and values, that supports multiracial conditions and the resulting racially destructive processes of intermixture and replacement. Racial Nihilism is the underlying ideology, psychological attitude or view of existence that provides the foundation for Multiracialism by denying and rejecting racial rights and values, particularly the right of a race to life, independence, and the condition of separation required for both.

Racial destruction by intermixture and replacement is an unavoidable consequence of a multiracial society, but is effectively prevented in a monoracial society [why we must form Ecclesias! CIM]. The reasons why certain members of different races are many and varied, but only occur under multiracial conditions (where there is contact between different races). They do not occur under monoracial conditions of geographic racial separation and reproductive isolation - i.e. the conditions in which the different races were created and preserved until modern times.

A “wasteland” is a land, place, society or situation where life is deprived of the conditions it needs to exist. A multiracial society is a racial wasteland, where racial life cannot continue, where the forces that cause racial death, destruction and extinction are dominant over those that promote racial life, preservation and continuation.

The wasteland of the Modern Age is the secular faith or dogma of Multiracialism - the Interracialist and internationalist ideology of Universalism or “Oneness” - that denies and prevents racial freedom (independence), uniqueness, growth and development, and continued racial life, and promotes the submergence of races in a multiracial “melting pot,” replacing racial preservation and independence with the racially destructive process of Racial Nihilism.

In the modern intellectual and ideological wasteland of dogmatic Racial Nihilism the study of knowledge relating to race and racial differences is suppressed and inhibited, or banned as “politically incorrect.” The tendency of dominant ideology is to encourage ideas and beliefs that agree with it, and to discourage, repress, censor or ban those that disagree. In the Middle Ages ideas or beliefs that disagreed with the orthodox ideology of the churches of Rome and England were labelled heresy. The current dominant ideological orthodoxy of nihilistic Egalitarianism labels racial, sexual, historical, cultural and moral ideas or beliefs on the basis of whether or not they agree with and support its position. "Political correctness" - or conformance to the orthodox ideological position - is given precedence over factual correctness and the classical ideals of freedom of inquiry, belief and conscience.

One World: One Race

The Oneness ideal of "One World" and "One Race" seeks to eliminate human diversity by a process of blending or convergence of all into one, replacing the great variety of types with one uniform type. It began with the concept of "One Religion," a universal religion for all humanity which would replace all other religions. This set the pattern for numerous secular Universalist creeds which also sought to impose themselves on all humanity. The process of ideological missionary work, proselytizing and converting, both religious and secular, continues on a vast scale to this day, promoted by the Universalist ideal of Oneness, which is consistent with Multiracialist and Racial Nihilist ideology.

All "mainstream" cultural, political and social institutions conform to Racial Nihilism. Any deviance from its doctrines, particularly any manifestation of racial Preservationism, is marginalised to a fringe position outside the "mainstream," where it is denied serious consideration as an alternative.

Racial Nihilism, in its denial and rejection of the value and importance of race, racial diversity and racial existence, has made race a 'bad' word, taboo for all but its priesthood, who are entrusted with its use or incantation solely for the purpose of promoting the Racial Nihilist agenda of racial destruction. Given the dominant status of Racial Nihilism in the mass communications media and educational institutions, a situation exists where racial knowledge and appreciation are discouraged, and any objective study or discussion of racial matters - of racial differences and diversity, or the conditions required for continual racial existence - is regarded as a forbidden subject, and effectively repressed, banned or censored.

Mental Genocide

Racial Nihilism has created an air of unreality with regard to racial matters, where the subjects of racial variation, diversity, differences, uniqueness and continued existence are confronted with evasion, dissimulation or denial, where it is regarded as morally proper to pretend that races and racial differences do not exist, and where those who openly acknowledge, recognize and affirm these differences - and especially those who celebrate them and assert their value and importance - are regarded as immoral. In this ideological climate, human racial diversity and differences are denied, trivialized or belittled as unimportant and not worth preserving, or are actually regarded as immoral and as something which should be destroyed. It logically follows that racial rights are also denied or belittled, and their assertion regarded as immoral.

Racial Intolerance

To the Racial Nihilist racial differences are something evil, and racial diversity, variation and uniqueness is something to be denied, belittled and destroyed rather than affirmed, loved and preserved. The Racial Nihilist seeks the Egalitarianism of sameness and oneness. He wants all humanity to be the same, and the rich diversity of human racial types to be reduced to one uniform type. Racial Nihilism is racial Egalitarianism in its most extreme form, eliminating all racial inequalities by the elimination of all racial diversity and differences.

Extreme Racial Nihilists consider it immoral to even admit that different races exist, and it would seem that some "true believers" actually believe their own propaganda. Others dissimulate, seeking the end of racial diversity and knowing that the denial of racial existence promotes the actual destruction of that existence. Racial rights cannot be logically acknowledged or defended if the existence of races is not recognized. Without the factual belief in a true diversity between the races there is no basis for the ethical belief in racial rights.

The factual belief that races are not different, or that differences are trivial and unimportant, or that race (as a concept) does not really exist, is often asserted to support the ethical belief that races have no right to life, liberty and independence, and to justify the denial and violation of those rights. If a race does not exist it has no rights and cannot be violated. By denying racial existence, Racial Nihilism can rationalize its opposition to racial rights and assume a moral pose while promoting racial genocide. But to be logically consistent, the denial of the existence of different human races not only requires the denial of the existence of genetically distinct human populations, but also the denial of the existence of all different life forms. If one is an illusion all are an illusion, at which point Racial Nihilism becomes racial Gnosticism.

Racial Gnosticism

Gnosticism is the belief that physical life and existence are not real, that everything in the material world is an illusion, without meaning or value. It is a form of metaphysical Nihilism. Gnostics belittle or deny the importance - in fact the reality or existence - of all that is physical or material, claiming that the only true reality is nonmaterial or "spiritual." They seek to escape from life and physical existence, or to end it.

The word "Gnosticism" is derived from the Greek word for knowledge, and the original gnostics - "those with knowledge" - were the initiates in the Greek Mystery religions. During the Hellenistic period (the three centuries preceding the Christian era) Gnosticism became associated with a disbelief in the reality of physical existence. This to the influence of Indian Buddhist missionaries who brought their ideas to the Mediterranean world during the Hellenistic era. (Joseph Campbell, The Masks of God: Occidental Mythology, Penguin Books, 1964, p362).

In the Christian era various Gnostic sects developed within Christianity which believed in an incorporeal (i.e. non-material) or illusory Christ who never existed as a real or physical man.

Existentialism: "I Think, Therefore I Am"

As Gnosticism does not believe in physical reality, but regards it as an illusion (an extension of the mind, created by thought), so it also does not believe in the reality of any differences or distinctions in the material world. It believes that all people and peoples, all individuals and races, are the same, interchangeable and impersonal, that none are unique, different or special in any significant way. It follows that Gnosticism is completely egalitarian and regards all as equal and the same, with no important differences or distinctions.

The modern Western world has witnessed a resurgence of Gnostic thinking, again - as in ancient times - largely influenced by Hindu and Buddhist thought. Much of the philosophy of the so-called "New Age" movement, a continuum of the "counterculture" which began in the mid-sixties, is directly attributable to Hindu and Buddhist influence, with many of its members proclaiming themselves to be followers of various Asian "gurus." The strong current of Gnosticism that runs through this movement should therefore come as no surprise.

Such pagan Gnostic sayings as "Leap clear of all that is corporeal," "Nothing is impossible," and "Think that you are everywhere are at once," are very reminiscent of "Jonathan Livingston Seagull," written by Richard Bach, one of the better known "New Age" authors, whose outer philosophical works, especially Illusions: The Adventures of a Reluctant Messiah, also express Gnostic ideas. The "love" which was the "leitmotif" of the counterculture was the egalitarian and promiscuous love that is characteristic of Gnosticism; universal, impersonal, and non-discriminating, unfocused, without any special intensity of emotion or feeling for any particular person, people or thing. In sexual relations this promiscuous love was euphemistically referred to as "free love." In political and social matters it expressed itself as Universalism and the cosmopolitan "One World, One Race, One People" ideal of Oneness.

Gnosticism's influence on racial beliefs and values in particular, are only part of the explanation for the current dominance of Racial Nihilism in the Western world. The dominant trend of the "popular" or mass culture in recent times, from "pop" philosophy to "pop" psychology, has been to emphasize the individual while ignoring, denying, rejecting, violating, and sacrificing the interests of the larger entity - the continuum or race - of which the individual is a part and from which the individual came.

This cultural trend is not limited to the secular sphere, but dominates in the religious sphere as well, where the "salvation" that is promised is the salvation of the individual, not the salvation or continued life of the racial continuum (family) to which the individual belongs.

The Racial Idiots

Some Racial Nihilists are extreme individualists, who only recognize the rights of individuals (or perhaps only the existence of individuals) in a very atomistic sense, not recognizing the rights (and perhaps the existence) of the biological group of which they are a part, whose existence transcends the sum of its parts and is potentially immoral.

This excessive preoccupation with the atomized individual, divorced or separated from the context of the larger genetic continuum of which it is a part, is a classic example of not being able to see the forest for the trees. The individual entities, whether tree or human being, come and go in their generations, but the larger entity of which they are a part, whether forest or race, lives on. It is the enduring reality, the continuing reality, the continuum. But one cannot exist without the other. The single individual and the forest or race, the part and the whole, both depend on the health and well-being of the other.

The ancient Greek word for separate was "idios." Persons who were excessively preoccupied with their own private or individual affairs, to the point of neglecting or rejecting their responsibilities or involvement in the larger entity of which they were a part, and thereby separating themselves from it and from care or concern for its interests, were called "idiotes." It is therefore etymologically correct to refer to the condition in which an individual is so preoccupied with his own private interests as to be separated from involvement in, and care and concern for, the interests of his race, as racial idiocy. Much of this is demonstrated in the building blocks of race, the family - where preoccupied individuals turn their backs on their family to be separated from them, for their own private interests, without concern or care for the interests of the family. This common condition of racial or familial idiocy is a contributing cause of Racial Nihilism, in both its active and passive forms. (it also destroys the Christian ecclesia, when members leave for their own private interests, without care or concern for the ecclesia! CIM) In a healthy culture racial idiocy would be regarded as dysfunctional. But in the present culture the dominant position of Racial Nihilism enables the racial idiot to enjoy the conceit of moral superiority over those individuals who do not separate themselves from their race (or ecclesia) but who care for it and promote its interests and preservation.

The relationship between the individual and racial rights (i.e. the rights of the larger entity of which the individual is a part) can be illustrated by the story of a group of people in a boat. One person claimed a right to drill a hole in the bottom of the boat under his own seat. The others objected, explaining that if he were in a boat by himself he would have a right to do as he pleased, as only he would suffer the consequences, but as there were others in the same boat with him, and the consequences of his actions would not be limited to his own seat and himself alone, but would sink the entire boat and adversely affect them all, he did not have a right to endanger the boat they shared in common. This story can be seen as a metaphor, with the would-be hole driller representing his race, the water representing a threat to the existence of his race, and the boat representing the condition that protects the existence of his race from the threat. This metaphor

This story can be seen as a metaphor, with the would-be hole driller representing his race, the water representing a threat to the existence of his race, and the boat representing the condition that protects the existence of his race from the threat. This metaphor can be applied to the situation that occurs when some individuals claim a right to introduce the genes of other races (represented in the metaphor by the surrounding body of water) into their race - either through intermixture, adoption, immigration or some other means - thereby making a hole or breach in the protective condition of racial separation (the boat), through which the genes of other races (the water) can enter and spread throughout their race, threatening all - including the generations to come - with destruction by genetic flooding and sinking.

Political Correctness

The "One World, One Race" dream provides an effective vehicle to promote Racial Nihilism, as it allows no race a right to its own territory, independence or existence, but would consign them all to the multiracial "melting-pot," where the traits that once distinguished the different races would exist only in solution, blended with all the others, effectively diluted out of existence. The dream of racial "Oneness" is really a simplistic and reductionist dream. It seeks to reduce the complex to the simple, to replace the many existing forms and types with one uniform type, by diluting racial differences to the point of non-existence or nothingness. It is an irony of semantics that the racial intermixture that is often referred to as racial "integration" actually caused racial "disintegration," the disolution and destruction of races and racial diversity - racial annihilation.

The influence of Racial Nihilism permeates contemporary culture. Its values are promoted in the schools and the Judeo-Christian churches, in print and on television, by teachers and preachers, journalists and talk-show hosts. Even so, the support for Racial Nihilism among the general population is more passive than active, more unconscious than conscious, more the result of ignorance and misplaced trust than knowledge and understanding.

The public is well-indoctrinated with Racial Nihilist values, but not well-informed regarding the effects of Racial Nihilist policies, or the existence of possible alternatives from consideration by the mainstream media, maintains the culture on a Racial Nihilist course and permits the pace of racial destruction to be gradually increased, even if the fanaticism of the "true believer" is limited to a relative few. The few who are driven by a passionate intensity have more influence than the many who lack conviction, who do not care, and who consign their race to oblivion with the death stroke of indifference.

In the multicultural society, ideologically justified and supported by Racial Nihilism, the different races are denied their sense of racehood or racial identity. They are denied their organic connection to the continuum of life of which they and their own life is a part, from which it came and to which it belongs, the natural object of their loyalties and affections, their love and responsibilities. People are taught from childhood to neither value their race, nor have any love or care for it, or loyalty toward it (seems to be mainly applicable to 'Whites.'). The message may not be worded in these terms. More commonly it is asserted that morality requires a person to love and value all races equally, in accordance with the egalitarian interpretation of love, and that it is morally wrong to value or love one's own race and kind, one's own continuum of life and evolution, one's own genetic traits and those who share them, more than any other. This, for the purposes of Racial Nihilism, has the same effect as not valuing or loving one's race at all. Such are the values instilled by Racial Nihilism, beginning with children, depriving the race of the love and loyalty of its members, so that its existence is not regarded as a value but is denied and violated. These are the genocidal values of racial destruction through alienation and disaffection of natural love and loyalty.

Bottom Line

Racial annihilation or extinction is the change sought by Racial Nihilism, a change that will occur if present trends continue, a change that will be irrevocable. After all, extinction is forever.

"But if any is not providing for his own (people, race), and especially those of his own house, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever."

THE PROBLEM OF SLAVERY

(speech given by Rod Taylor on national TV)

Slavery didn't end in the 1860s. It is a social malady that is with us today, and it is increasing its scope and virulence. The desire to enslave our fellow man is, unfortunately, intrinsic to the human character. It has been with us since the beginning of time, on every continent, and in virtually every culture from ancient Egypt to Babylon, Greece and Rome, Africa, Asia, Europe and the United States. Germany and Japan openly practiced widespread slavery only 50 years ago, and the Soviet Union until less than a decade ago. China even practices it today.

It is a disease of our human nature, but people are under the impression that it no longer exists. I say to you that, in subtle form, it exists in this nation today, and is becoming less subtle and more manifest.

Madison Avenue has just cleaned it up a little; dressed it up in new words. The slave master is now "big brother" - someone to protect you; someone to confide in. But it is all the same. He owns your life. This may sound far-fetched, but I think I can prove it

When the IRS (ATO) allows you a "tax deduction" they and their congressional collaborators and the media call it a "tax subsidy;" in other words, they designate it as a gift to you (a subsidy!). The only way they could conceive of this terminology is by pre-supposing that they - i.e. the government - own all the money. Their view is that they are entitled to it all. That which they allow you to keep is their compassionate and generous gift to you.

How can this be? You create the money by your efforts, your sacrifice, your creativity and your risk- taking. So how can it belong to them? It is very simple. They own you! They own everything you produce: your money, your house, your thoughts and ideas, your children.

If you go to a foreign country to work, you still have to pay the US Income Tax. You can dig a hole in the middle of Siberia - they'd still be entitled to a cut of your wages because, in their minds and under their law, they own you. They create archaic and esoteric laws to criminalize you. You may try, but you can't obey them all. You can't even understand them.

You have to run around slavishly collecting little pieces of paper receipts - seven years of detailed financial records - because you might be called on to give an account of yourself to the big boss man. And, if you've ever mase a mistake, he can take everything you have. He loves it that way. That is total power over you. Slavery!

I don't remember when we the people signed over ownership of ourselves. It just gradually happened by them taking more and more of our freedom. But, here is the worst part! It is really only just begun. In this modern age - the information age - getting your money is not enough (even though money, don't let them deceive you, is the material source of your freedom). Now, however, they want your mind. If you deviate in your thinking - if you commit one of ten-thousand taboos - they will perceive your actions as a threat; they will come out and kill you!

It was the Thought Police who killed the children at Waco and Ruby Ridge. Neither David Koresh nor Randy Weaver - whatever things might be said about them - had ever mugged anyone, robbed a 7-11, or committed forcible rape or murder. But they did have unorthodox views, and therefore it was necessary to round them up and deal with them. Whatever their crimes, they could have been arrested and tried openly in a court of law.

But that was not the aim of certain factions of the government. These statistics wanted a massive demonstration of force to show who was boss. The penalty for resisting is death; after all, we're not free. We belong to the government, and deviant thoughts will not be tolerated.

In the aftermath of the horrible Oklahoma City bombing, government propagandists tried to intimidate the people into silence by recklessly linking criticism of the government to acts of murder. Some people ask, "How can you fear your government and claim to love your country?" My response is, "How can you love your country without fearing your government?" Who else holds a counterfeit license to kill, incarcerate, and confiscate for non-crimes?

Remember, America is about liberty, first and last; not obedience to bureaucrats. The Washington power clip wants you to shut up, get in line, do what you're told to do ... and most outrageously, think what you're told to think. We have hundreds of politicians and thousands of lobbyists crawling all over Washington, thinking of ways to control you; extend their will over you; to subvert your freedom and replace it with their will; and to capture - that is to steal - your life force.

And so, because we should all be very angry ... because anger is the engine that drives our will to resist. Without resistance, and without awareness, they will take it all. It is just politically perverse - it is a sin against mankind, because freedom is actually sacred. Drop an ant into a jar, and seal the lid. It will spend the rest of its life trying to get out. It has nowhere to go, but it wants to be free. That is its nature. It is the way every living thing is made.

Once, a long time ago, I saw something at a zoo - a wolf lying in its cage. I thought about how this magnificent animal was the end product of perfect design: a nose that could detect the faintest scent, ultrasonic hearing, eyes that could see in the dark, teeth and jaws capable of crushing thick bone, and a heart and lungs that could enable him to run for hours in a sub-zero blizzard. Yet, there he was, lying forlorn and full of despair. He was well-fed. He had a clean habitat, water and medical care. So what was the problem?

He was sick with the knowledge that his wonderful powers would never be exercised again. And so he lay there, his head on his paws, staring blankly ahead at perhaps some sort of imaginary forest he could never reach because there were bars around him. They had not killed his body, but they were destroying his soul [exactly what happens to people in jail!]

God gave Adam and Eve freedom - even though He knew they would invite death into the world. That is how important freedom is in the divine scheme of things. And that is why I urge you to defend it - always! -----

Primate Example

Start with a cage containing five monkeys. In the cage, hang a banana on a string and put a set of stairs under it. Before long, a monkey will climb the stairs towards the banana. As soon as he touches the stairs, spray all of the monkeys with cold water. After a while, another monkey makes an attempt with the same result - all the monkeys are sprayed with cold water.

Pretty soon, when any monkey tries to climb the stairs, the other monkeys will try to prevent it. Now, turn off the cold water. Remove one monkey from the cage and replace it with a new one. The new monkey sees the banana and wants to climb the stairs. To his horror, all of the other monkeys attack him. After another attempt and attack, he knows that if he tries to climb the stairs, he will be assaulted. Next, remove another of the five original monkeys and replace it with a new one. The newcomer goes to the stairs and is attacked. The previous newcomer takes part in the punishment with enthusiasm.

Again, replace a third original monkey with a new one. The new one makes it to the stairs and is attacked. Two of the four monkeys that beat him have no idea why they are not permitted to climb the stairs, or why they are participating in the beating of the newest monkey. After replacing the fourth and fifth monkeys, all the monkeys which were sprayed with cold water have been replaced. Nevertheless, no monkey ever again approaches the stairs. Why not?

Because that's the way it's always been around here. And that's how democracy begins

Give Me patience, LORD, But Hurry!

by Geoff Muirden

Cheri Fuller's article, "When God Says Wait" (Newsletter, August, 2000, p13) is a well-written explanation of the way in which God may choose to answer prayer, not with 'yes' or 'no,' but with 'wait,' and the waiting will produce better results. It says that: "when God is the most silent He's cooking up the best surprises." Or, as someone else put it, "a delay is not a denial."

But we don't like waiting. It goes against human nature. Someone once put it: "Give me patience, LORD, but hurry." That's the way we'd like it, but God doesn't hurry. It takes time and patience for an acorn to develop into an oak. Big changes cannot be made superficially: it takes time for them to mature. If God produced instant change, the results would be superficial and He doesn't work like that.

If we pray for patience, God will answer that prayer in the most effective way: by putting us in situations that require patience. (like having to face the HREOC) It must be the best method, since He does it. But it's human nature to dislike that, to get impatient at what can seem like the ponderous elephantine steps of time. God can work in ways we dislike. To give another example: "Whom the LORD loveth He chasteneth" (Hebrews 12:6). When we are undergoing the chastening, it is extremely painful. We are apt to groan that, if this is the way the LORD shows His love, we would like Him to be less affectionate! And this is humanly understandable, even though we are reassured that this discipline is God treating us as sons (Heb 12:7).

So, too, patience can itself be irksome, and a discipline. It's often no fun. But it is part of a maturing process. As children, we want what we want right now without delay. We can't understand or don't want to understand that it can't always be done like that. Waiting until tomorrow can seem like an eternity. A sense of time dragging can be oppressive; "tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow drags out this petty pace from day to day." Yet it is not "time dragging" that is the proper attitude: it is a sense of patience in allowing things to develop that matters.

Romans 5:3 tells us that "tribulation worketh patience" and patience develops experience, which leads to hope (Rom 5:4). Why do we need patience and how does it grow into hope? There are several reasons. If we continue being patient, we begin to experience an awareness that we can wait on God for answers, and be patient with Him if answers don't come immediately, and that expectation that answers will come in time leads to hope. As it says in Hebrews 10:36: "Ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye might receive the promise." We are admonished, in the midst of persecution, "in your patience possess ye your souls" (Luke 21:19). In 1 Tim 6:11 we are exhorted to follow after: "righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness."

James 1:3 warns us that "the trying of your faith worketh patience." James 1:4, "But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing." So patience is a vital part of the Christian "walk."

Part of the benefit of patience is that it encourages us to show patience towards those who have also suffered. We can empathize most readily with those who have suffered as we have. The most impatient are those who have not suffered and cannot understand what that suffering means. Paul urges us in 1 Thes 5:14, "Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient towards all men." It is evident that a spirit of snarling impatience is an ungodly trait. Proverbs 14:29 says that: "a patient man (or 'slow to wrath') has great understanding, but a quick-tempered man displays folly." In fact, "better a patient man than a warrior: a man who controls his temper than one who takes a city" (Prov 16:32).

Perhaps the last point that could be made about "waiting on the Lord" and developing patience, is that God Himself possesses patience. If He had not, He would have destroyed all of us long ago! 2 Peter 3:9, "the LORD is not slow in keeping His promise, as someone understands slowness. He is patient with you, not wanting anyone to perish, but everyone to come to repentance." If it were not for that Divine Patience, we would now be "history!" The mills of God grind slow, but they grind exceedingly small, and it is human nature to be impatient at the delay. It would be ideal to keep perfect patience at all times, but in this world we may never achieve it perfectly. But that patience is a godly trait is well attested in Scripture! **

Hey, Senator Liebermann - How About the "Kol Nidre"? Chuch Kuhler, Virginia Christian Israelites

Since the selection, and nomination, of Joseph Liebermann, a US Senator from Connecticut, as the Democratic party candidate for Vice President in the forthcoming election, much has been made relative to the fact that he is a practising "Orthodox Jew." The slant of the media has been to promote the supposed "high-integrity" of the Senator as a result of his religious beliefs, in contrast to the conduct of the current White House occupant (would they do the same with an 'Orthodox Christian'?) Much is being made of the fact that Liebermann is the first Jewish candidate for such a high office in this nation. I am not going to get into any further discussion on this at this time, but I do believe that we have had high office holders in the past who were of Jewish descent, although they may have adopted and "openly" practiced and professed a "Christian" faith.

My concern is with the Senator and the "Kol Nidre Oath," and how it affects his ability to do any manner of public service. In Vol VIII of the Jewish Encyclopedia, on page 539, which is to be found in the Library of Congress, and in many other large public libraries, can be found the official translation into English of the Jewish prayer known as the "Kol Nidre" (All Vows) prayer, which is as follows:

The Kol Nidre Prayer
"All vows, obligations, oaths, anathemas whether called 'konam,' 'konas,' or by any other name, which we may vow, or swear, or pledge, or whereby we may be bound, from this Day of Atonement unto the next, we do repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled, and void and made of no effect; they shall not bind us nor have power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall not be obligatory; nor the oaths to be oaths."

A further explanation of this prayer can be found in the Talmud in the Book of Nedarim, 23a-23b which reads as follows:
"And he who desires that none of his vows made during the year shall be valid, let him stand at the beginning of the year and declare, 'every vow which I make in the future shall be null.' His vows are then invalid, providing that he remembers this at the time of the vow."

Who is it that propagates 'Hate'?

There is no reference to this prayer found anywhere in the Torah, and it is strictly limited to the (Babylonian) Talmud. The greatest study of the "Kol Nidre" prayer was made by the eminent psycho-analyst, Professor Theodor Reik (a celebrated pupil of Dr Sigmund Freud), in his study, "The Ritual Psycho-Analytical Studies," in the chapter on the Talmud:

"The text was to the effect that all oaths which believers take between one Day of Atonement and the next Day of Atonement are declared invalid."

The Vice President of the United States is required to take an "oath of office" at his swearing in, at which he makes several commitments to this nation. Just how valid would this oath be to Joe Liebermann? As an orthodox Jew, he surely prays the "Kol Nidre" prayer every year just prior to the Day of Atonement services. This releases him, according to Judaism, from being bound by all oaths, pledges, etc. that he has and will make in the year.

The Universal Jewish Encyclopedia confirms that the "Kol Nidre" prayer has no "spiritual value," as some might believe as it is recited in a synagogue. It has nothing whatever to do with anything relative to "atonement." It is merely the "first prayer" recited on their holiest of days.

The "Kol Nidre" prayer, does not date back to the Old Testament, or even the beginnings of the New Testament. This prayer is just another of the "traditions of the elders" so widespread and accepted in Judaism. It was first established in the eleventh century due to a political reversal in eastern Europe, home of the so-called or self-styled "Jews" (Khazars).

Does a man place his religion ahead of his country? What if the religion in question denies both Yahweh the Father, and the very existence of His Son, Jesus the Christ? The Scriptures are very clear about "Israel" not putting a stranger (Strong's #5237 - 'nokriy') over them. Our Saviour has said in John 14:6, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by Me." In spite of what some fundamentalists may claim, "that the Jews are God's chosen people, and don't need to accept Christ." I believe what our Saviour has said, as quoted above. And further, in John 15:23 Christ tells us, "He that hateth me hateth my father also." Can we support a man who hates both the Son and Yahweh our Father? Can this "former" Christian nation expect to survive such an affront to God? Whether the politicians and the religious leaders want to admit it or not, we have completed the first fourteen verses of Deuteronomy 28, which were the blessings promised by Yahweh, for Israel's obedience. We are now, and have been, receiving the curses as outlined in verse 15 and onward. This has happened as a result of our continuing and increasing disobedience to God.

The media has been touting the supposed "conservative" aspects of Sen. Liebermann's record, but have you noticed, after his selection by Al Gore, how he has flip-flopped on some major issues to conform to the philosophy of Mr Gore? What does that tell you about his ideology and convictions? He may not be in the same mold as our current president, but he has major categorical faults of his own in other areas.

I have not touched on Joe Liebermann's loyalty to this nation. I have found that his record indicates a very strong loyalty to the mid-east nation of the Israeli. As all Jews are automatically citizens of the Israeli, I wonder where his true loyalties lie. Would he support this nation in any disagreement with his fellow Jews in the Israeli, or would he use the "Kol Nidre" prayer to absolve himself of responsibilities with regard to his oath as Vice President?

The words of our Saviour, as written in the Revelation of St John 2:9 reads: "I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are of the synagogue of Satan." And in Revelation 3:9 we have an additional reference to "false Jews" by our Saviour (they do lie). We know that these "false Jews" who are of the synagogue of Satan are with us in the world today. True Judahites (Descendants of Judah) accept and acknowledge the Messiah. This being the case, how do we ascertain who the "false Jews" of Revelation are - but those who deny the very existence of the Son of God.

I don't particularly like any of the choices for the office of president. But, perhaps, we will be faced with choosing "the best of the worst." And it may be the will of God to give us the worst of the worst for our national and individual disobedience.

2.4 What is the difference between the Catholic church and the Protestant churches?

There are very few Protestant churches left in the world. They have largely been replaced by what are known as Fundamentalists, Pentecostals, Liberals, and many other various sects. They may still refer to themselves as "Protestant," but they hold very few (if any) of the major doctrines of the original Protestants of the Reformation.

Catholic theology teaches that Christ's work for us has made the gift of holy spirit available to believers. (So far so good). But then it teaches that in order for a sinner to be justified, he must receive an INFUSION of righteousness (grace) by holy spirit. God then pronounces the believer righteous, because of the work that holy spirit has done in him.

In other words, Catholics teach that a man is justified before God only when holy spirit has given that man a righteous nature. The so-called "Holiness movement" that adopted this doctrine calls it "sinless perfection."

Most of the Protestant reformers were once devout Catholics, and they tried with all their might to apprehend enough holiness in their lives in order that they could know that holy spirit (by grace!!) had indeed given them an infusion of righteousness. However, being honest men, they recognized that the "old man" was still present. They only found sin in their hearts in the form of pride, selfishness, unbelief, unresponsiveness to God's love, and lack of faith; and they finally despaired of ever being justified before God.

God then revealed to them from Romans 1:17, chapters 3, 4, and 5, and other Scripture that righteousness was IMPUTED to them, rather than INFUSED into their nature. It was the imputation of Jesus' righteousness, not any "new" righteousness of their own, that made them acceptable to God. With this new light came also the realization that one need not be inherently immortal (that is, have an immortal soul, or nature) to be acceptable either. Most of the Reformers (except for Calvin and his followers) viewed the immortal-soul doctrine as just another error of the Catholic doctrine of self-worth, as opposed to justification by the worth of Christ.

The third major distinction between Catholic and Protestant theology was the doctrine of the priesthood of the believer. The Protestants taught there was one God and one Mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus (1 Tim 2:5), and that any "priest" (Pope) insinuating himself between men and God was an “antichrist” (their words). These three major distinctions have been almost entirely lost, especially in the last century. the doctrine of the entire “holiness movement” (Pentecostal, Nazarene, Methodist, C & M A, etc.) as well as many other churches, all teach the old Catholic doctrine of an infusion of righteousness in one form or another.

The Catholic doctrine of immortality is taught by nearly all churches, including such as the Mormon “church,” which also adds that a man pre-existed in heaven before Adam was created. (listen to the 4 messages on ‘Mormonism’ - A-8006 and A-8007, Stephen Jones)

Many also teach that the believer must join their church or denomination, be baptized by an organization minister, and follow and support the head (or heads) of the organization. Thus, although they may name no “Pope,” they have made their organization the Pope (or “antichrist”). Doctrinally speaking, there is little difference between the Catholic and most so-called “Protestant” churches today. Most must be considered false churches.

(also in view of the Jewish Influence?? article, I thought this one from The Answering Service was appropriate:

2.8 I understand that so-called “converted Jews” use the name “Yahshua” instead of Jesus Christ. Is that not proof that the name “Yahshua” is the correct name, rather than Jesus Christ?

It is more likely proof of the opposite. We believe that almost all “Christian” Jews are deceivers. This is immediately suspected when one examines their preaching and “testimonies.” They spend most of their time and effort praising the Jewish people and telling their “gentile” listeners in a thousand different ways that Jesus was a Jew and the Jews are God’s Chosen People. Also, Jews are taught from childhood never to utter the name of Jesus Christ, who they are taught was the bastard son of a Roman soldier and Mary. They are taught that “Jesus Christ” is the false god of the Christians and that the Christians are the enemies of the Jews. If they do say the name “Jesus Christ,” they are always to spit, so that in doing so they wash their mouth out with spittle and are cleansed from uttering such a “blasphemous name.”

On one of Merv Griffin’s shows he asked a guest to read the next announcement. The guest, a Jew, looked up and said, “Oh, you would ask me to say that,” and remained silent. Griffin then had to read it himself, and it turned out to be an introduction of another guest, including his last starring role, which was in “Jesus Christ Superstar.” The Jew apparently refused to read it, because it contained the Name “Jesus Christ.”

It hardly makes sense to accuse Jews of avoiding a “false” Name of our Saviour whom they hate. They would more likely hate the true Name, just as they hate His own Person. Our conclusion is that the use of “Yahshua” by these deceiving “Christian Jews” is so they can avoid saying the true Name as much as possible, while still deceiving Christians.

FOURTEEN WHY’S

1. Why are we called “haters” when our cause is the preservation of the beauty of our children?
2. Why does the media call 92% of the earth’s population, that is non-White, “minorities”?
3. Why is it evil to speak with pride of our own White race, when all other races are encouraged to do so?
4. Why does the media repudiate the historically proven fact that racial integration is cultural and biological genocide?
5. Why does America disavow the vast differences in civilization between Africa, China and Europe?

6. Why do all Christian leaders, from Billy Graham to the Pope (and we can think of many others), promote genocide of the White race by encouraging interracial marriage?

7. Why is an act of self-defense by a White man prosecuted as a “hate crime” when the reverse is not true?

8. Why is the very name of our race, Aryan, condemned as “White Supremacist”?

9. Why is all history being rewritten to obscure and denigrate the genius and accomplishments of the White race?

10. Why are White people, unlike all other races, denied a White homeland?

11. Why do the Christian churches promote adoption of colored children from all over the world by White families, when they know the result is the genocide of the White race?

12. Why does all entertainment, from movies and magazines to sports, promote miscegenation by making token heroes of colored males to our women and children?

13. Why does the US Government advance White genocide through the forced bussing of our school children?

14. Why are we not told that less than 2% of the earth’s population is young White females? As the future of our race is in the wombs of our women, the White race in on the brink of extinction.

From the 14 Word Press, HC01, Box 268K, St Maries ID 83861 USA

Why? Because God’s people, the true Israel, has to be wiped out, in order to steal their inheritance (Matthew 21:38), that’s why whitey has to be put down at every opportunity! Encourage sodomy, because sodomites don’t breed Israelite children, and neither do interracial couples. May the God of our forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, hear the groan of His remnant and have mercy on them! Someone sent an article regarding the almost extinction of the White race, to be copied and sent o others including politicians. I said, “Why, are they going to have more white children?” It is our believing White Christian families that have to have children. Accept the children God wants to give, and don’t spit in His face by using contraceptives. It seems many Whites would be happy to die out completely. God said that “being left few in number” (Lev 26:22) was a curse, and it is being ‘self-inflicted!’ Then there are those Israelites, who while knowing the error of doing such things - just “shack up.” Also without having children, of course. Are you happy to see your family name come to an end??? Wake Up!

I said a prayer for YOU today
I felt God must have heard,
I felt the answer in my heart
Although He spoke no word.

I didn’t ask for wealth or fame
I knew you wouldn’t mind,
I asked Him to send treasures
Of a far more lasting kind.

I asked that He be near you
At the start of each new day,
To grant you health and blessings
And friends to share your way.

I asked for happiness for you
In all things great and small
But it was for His loving care
I prayed the most of all.

A Guide to Deceptive Words and Terms Used to Neutralize Christians

FRIEND

Controlled Meaning: Anyone of your acquaintance who is on good terms with you and is not hostile.

True Meaning: From the German "freund": to love in the sense of a kinsman. Allied to "free," hence applied to those of the household who are kinsmen and not slaves. A "friend" is more than an "acquaintance." A "friend" is one with whom there is mutual love, respect, and kinship (genetically and/or spiritually), a status which must be earned and proven. A mere acquaintance should not be called a "friend."

Heartache and confusion result from treating acquaintances as if they are automatically friends. It is improper to bestow the respect and trust reserved for a friend upon a mere acquaintance for to do so cheapens that trust and diminishes the meaning of friendship. One may have many acquaintances but only a few "friends." Finding a true friend is like finding a treasure. The ability to recognize a friend requires spiritual insight. To one who is incapable of discriminating between friends and acquaintances, non-friends may be treated like friends, while true friends are ignored and unappreciated. Friendship, as well as the ability to recognize it, is a gift from God. This gift is one of the blessings realized from "eonian life" coming from Christ.

LOAN

Controlled Meaning: A grant of temporary use of something, especially money at interest. Loaning money at interest serves both lender and borrower in that the lender makes a profit on the loan, and the borrower is furnished with working capital.

True Meaning: A grant of temporary use of something incurring no fee or interest. A loan is free. If interest is charged for use of something then it is a rental, not a loan. Therefore, a so-called "loan" of money at interest is not really a "loan." It is a rental. Rental on money is usury because money is not devalued by age or use. It is not consumed or worn out with use like a tool, a house or a car.

In the Bible, loans among brethren were considered acts of mercy, not investments or opportunities to profit.

"If your brother be waxen poor, and fallen in decay with you, then you shall relieve him; ... Take you no usury of him, or increase: but fear your God, that your brother may live with you. You shall not give him your money upon usury, nor lend him your victuals for increase." (Lev 25:35-37).

Usury is theft, and putting money out at usury is an act of war lawful only against enemies worthy of death

"You shall not charge usury to your brother; ... Unto a stranger (an enemy) you may charge usury, ..." (Deut 23:19-20).

In Deut 24:10-15 and Luke 6:34-35 we are taught that when we make a loan to a brother our motive must be to aid him, and that we must be prepared to forgive the debt if he cannot pay it back.

ALLODIUM

Assumed Meaning: Land held absolutely in one's own right, and not of any lord or superior; land not subject to feudal duties or burdens. An estate held by absolute ownership, without recognising any superior to whom any duty is due on account thereof (Black's Law Dict.)

Land and/or property that is secured by allodial title is removed from, and no longer subject to, state jurisdiction or taxation.

True Meaning: The term "allode" comes from the Latin (allodis), meaning entirely and freely owned. "All" means "all." "Od" means "property; wealth." "Allodium" means complete and uncompromised ownership of land/property.

The above definition from Black's Law Dictionary is essentially correct ... but commonly misinterpreted. Many people today assume that by careful and astute manipulation they can rescue their land/property from state jurisdiction and achieve allodial ownership, and thus remove the threat of government intrusion upon their property. This assumption, however, stems from an imperfect understanding of law, and it disregards one vital factor: namely, that private allodial ownership is impossible when an established and empowered government has interest in that property. (all land falls under that heading, as it has all been mortgaged for national, state and local debt!)

"Allodial" means free from any hold or interest of any lord or superior: ownership without obligation of any kind. Allodial ownership implies uncontested conquest, war being the usual means to acquiring land in allodium. Allodium cannot be achieved or acquired by permission, grant, or title. Allodium can only be acquired by force. Allodial ownership is not possible for individuals within the claims of a ruling government, for the government lays claim to all the land it governs. The US Constitution empowers the government with "eminent domain" over all its lands. This alone, precludes the possibility of private allodial ownership of US land. Further, the US Government is constitutionally empowered to tax its land and property. The power to tax presumes ownership/interest of the land. Thus, all US land is owned allodially, through conquest, by the government itself. So-called "private ownership" of land is actually only rental, and is guaranteed (and thus granted) under government jurisdiction.

Allodial ownership of land/property in the USA is by government itself unless and until a superior power greater than the US Government takes the land/property by force. Then, the land/property will be allodially owned by the new superior power. Ultimately, under God's Law, God Himself claims allodial ownership of the land (Lev 25:23). Man is given possession of land for use, but neither men nor governments are given full ownership to sell, liquidate, lose, speculate, and gamble with land.

"Allodial" is not to be confused with "fee simple." "Fee simple" is a legal term signifying property/land granted to a holder free from taxes or fees of any kind. A "fee simple" title can be issued only by a superior power (i.e. the allodial owner) to an inferior beneficiary. Kings, for instance, could grant a title of "fee simple" ownership to favoured subjects. Allodial ownership is always retained and held by the king (i.e. the government.)
