APRIL 2001 INTELLIGENCE REPORT

Crusade for Christ

Col. Gordon “Jack” Mohr, AUS Ret.

800 Napa Valley Rd., #197, Little Rock, AR 72211

Here we are safely through the first quarter of the first year of the New Millennium and the New Administration. Things on the surface appear calm, while a gigantic hurricane, such as the world has never seen is brewing under the apparent complacent surface. I am of the opinion that nothing can stop this gigantic catastrophe, other than the direct intervention of God Himself, and then only by His Formula for Survival, which has been available to His Israel people for ages, if it is applied with more than the mere lip service it now receives from the church world. Many so called Christians seemingly believe that because they have made a trip to the altar and said Yes to Jesus Christ, that is all that is necessary, and that He will protect them, no matter how they live, or what they do.

This promise is of course God’s Covenant with King Solomon, David’s son, before the split took place between Israel and Judah. It clearly is a conditional promise and although it is often quoted in many churches, has few who obey. It clearly states: “If my people (Anglo-Saxon Israel), which are called by my name (Christian - Numbers 6:24-27), will humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked (self-willed disobedience) ways; then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.”

This promise has been repeated so often in our churches, that in the eyes of most Christians it has lost its meaning. Recently, an Identity brother chided me for quoting it so often. He said, “That promise was meant for Israel, not the heathen who now inhabit our land. They will not hear! But look at it closely. It does NOT say: “If the heathen humble themselves and pray to me, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear and save.” It definitely puts the onus on White Christian Israelites who know, or should know God’s requirements in their life. They are clearly shown in His Word, whether an apostate preacher teaches them or not.

A good example can be found in the Jews Chosen People controversy. Ask almost any Christian who believes this if they love the Lord, and honor His Word, and they will react with indignation, yet they still continue to believe what their pastor teaches, even though their Saviour clearly said in John 10:26, “But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.” (emphasis JM) Evidence proves that in spite of what they say, their confidence is in a man, not their Lord!

Yet how can the vast majority of Christendom understand this truth, when they are under the smoke screen the Apostle

Paul calls “blindness in part”? (Romans 11:25) - “But I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits (meaning: “individual opinions; a favorable accepted opinion of others; excessive appreciation of your own thoughts”); that blindness in part is happened to Israel (we are not speaking about a pseudo people called Jews [Revelation 2:9, 3:9] but of the White Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Scandinavian-Germanic and related people, who are the ones who bear the Scriptural fingerprints of true Israel in the closing days of this Age, and will continue), until the fullness of the Gentiles (Gen. 48:19) be come in.” How can we know who we are, when our religious leaders tell us we are heathen Gentiles, and elevate the anti-Christs of Judaism to ‘Chosen People’ status? The vast number of people, in the Judeo-Christian church in particular, do not even know who they are, and they most certainly do not understand their Israel heritage. Paul understood who the Gentiles of his day were, and that his ministry was specifically to them. He had seen how his plans to carry the Gospel message to Asia, had been sidelined by the Holy Spirit (Acts 16:6), when he was sent to Macedonia instead. Why Macedonia? Because his mission was to the “lost sheep of the house of Israel,” and many Israelites who had escaped from Assyria were living in Asia-Minor.

So, because of false teaching in their churches, the vast majority of Judeo-Christendom who are true Israel, have like Esau, spurned their Israel birthright and are willing to be known as Gentiles while giving their heritage over to those who hate their Savior.

How can our Israel people know the truth, when their pastors tell them that those who hate their Savior, who spit when His precious Name is even mentioned, and whose holy book has consigned Him to an eternity in hell, along with you, His people, standing up to your neck in boiling excrement? These same anti-Christ for centuries have labored at their aim of destroying White Christian civilization, as we are their major opponents, the only force holding them back from the World Conquest they have sought for centuries. One of their own, the Jewish author Bernard Lazare, in his book "ANTI-SEMITISM", page 350, says: "The Jew is not satisfied with de-Christianizing, he Judaizes and destroys the Christian faith; he provokes indifference, while imposing his ideals on the world of morals and life, upon those whose faith he ruins; he works tirelessly at his age old task of annihilating the religion of Christ."

Today because we have allowed these anti-Christ and others free rein to enter our country, in spite of repeated warnings in God's Word, that they would become "thorns in our sides, and pricks in our eyes," if we allowed them to come in. They are fulfilling the prophecy of Deuteronomy 28:43,44, and have "gotten up above us very high, while we have come down very low they have become the head, while we are now the tail," in our own country. If you can't see this, it's because you have deliberately closed your eyes to the truth of what is happening in our country.

Today, 90% of the Jewish people, according to their own statistics, are Turco-Mongolian by background (Ashkenazi) [see God's Covenant People, Yesterday, Today, and Forever, #803 @ $25.80, for documentation, as well as The Thirteenth Tribe by Jewish author Arthur Koestler #396 @ $15.40). Their ancestors never set foot in Palestine on the land they now claim as their own. every Israeli Prime Minister from communist Golda Meir, has come from this heathen background and most of them have been terrorist murderers of innocent Arab women and children, often bragging about it.

Now because of White Israel disobedience in particular, a storm of global proportions is brewing worldwide. Anyone who is not in a self-induced stupor, should be able to sense this, and be nervous about it. (not frightened, but Concerned!)

My friends, the moral manure which is found today in government, the education system, and often in the church, has not yet fully "hit the fan," when it does we are going to see confusion and unparalleled terror such as few of us can visualize. Most of it is brought about by Christian indifference and outright disobedience.

A few years ago, a book was written that was made into a movie. It was titled "The Perfect Storm." It was a true story about a sword-fishing boat out of Gloucester, Massachusetts, that through a combination of greed, stupidity, macho illusions, fate and bad timing, found itself in the center of one of the worst storms to ever hit the North Atlantic, it went down with all six fishermen aboard, and nothing was ever found except some debris.

The following thoughts about the storm that is about to hit America, are not mine, but come from a man named Doug McIntosh, who is a student of economy, and were sent to me by my good friend, Col. John Niemela, USAF Ret. They make sense to me. As one goes about the routine of every day living, there are common signs which indicate that a first rate economic hurricane is headed our way.

Just a few months ago, a Mr. Daley, Al Gore's campaign manager, opened his mouth about the possibility of lawsuits brought about by the fluctuating Stock Market, and Dow Jones dropped 200 points in ten minutes. Today, we have an economic hurricane of high debt, poor quality borrowers, massive leverage in all sectors of the global economy and especially in America. In plain English "we are up to our neck in debt." We are like a man in a quicksand pit, who is treading water to stay afloat. Credit and debt alone does not cause the economic crisis which is coming. It is caused by greed, and stupidity, when it is given free rein, without Godly control.(for more on the money system, we recommend Billions for The Bankers-Debts for The People by Sheldon Emry, #104 @ $3.00)

There are several severe storms headed this way, which could unite into a super storm such as this old world has never seen. The Bible says, in luke 21:26 that "men's hearts will fail for fear, as they see the things coming on earth." (Already suicide is one of the major killers in America, and the psychologists and psychiatrists who are supposed to tell us what's gone wrong, are killing themselves of four times faster than the rest of the nuts.)

The second storm is the political and economic situation which has developed over eight years of Clinton mismanagement. When Al Gore refused to concede the election, this country was led into a period of uncertainty, from which we have not recovered. Will our foreign enemies, Russia, China, and North Korea look on this as an opportunity to attack a divided and militarily weakened U.S. or will our bitterly divided nation self destruct?

Today there are a known 1.5 million of China's elite troops in Panama, along the Mexican border, and in Canada. For all intents and purposes we are surrounded.

With over 500,000 heavily armed U.N. troops already on American soil via our invitation. If we were to become involved in a war in the Middle East, on the side of Israeli, would this be an open invitation for our communist enemies to act against us? If we believe Bible prophecy (Ezekiel 38,39), this attack will come when we least expect it, and great American leaders such as George Washington envisioned it over 200 years ago.

The Ezekiel 38,39 Gog-Magog attack will not have Palestine as its primary target, as we are told by the Judeo-Christian pastors, but will be against true Israel, as she rests in apparent safety in her Appointed Place of 2 Samuel 7:10. I doubt that any human has the answers for these terrifying problems, but Scriptural evidence shows that everything is now in place for a catastrophe of major proportions to hit the world.

Unless we can find the means to stop the racial tensions which are deliberately being built up by men like Rev. Jesse Jackson, under Zionist pressure, we can look forward to a racial war in America, and its subsequent military dictatorship. One thing is sure, it will result in the destruction of the America we have known and loved, and absolute slavery under the Zionist One World Order. Already the groundwork for this scenario has been laid, and been carried out in many Third World nations worldwide.

The Third Major Storm headed our way is now developing in the Middle East. It is very unlikely any cease fire will take effect, until the “man of sin, the antiChrists” take over by trickery (see Sheldon Emry’s The Saved vs The Man of Sin - 4pts.) Outside of general economic conditions worldwide, the cycle is now locked in automatic pilot mode.

The political insanity America is going through at the present time, contains the nucleus of a horrible storm of war in the Middle East, with us in the middle, as usual, attempting to pull Jewish chestnuts out of the fire they started. Iran and Syria are warming up to each other, and the one thing they have in common is hatred for the Israelis who have misappropriated their ancestral lands. Iraq already has 60,000 troops on the eastern border of Jordan, close enough to liberate Jordan, if the P.L.O. decides to overthrow King Abdullah. Saudi Arabia is terrified, as the situation is getting out of hand and poses a threat to them and their oil fields.

The situation worsens as we realize that the Israeli now have three German subs with nuclear-tipped missiles and have showed their willingness to attack Arab targets by any means at hand. (Do not rule out nuclear ones, if the fighting goes against them).

Look for Turkey to abandon its mutual defense treaty with the Israeli. This will free Syrian troops who are now on the Turkish/Syrian border. Then look for Egypt to deploy combat troops on the Gaza Strip/Sinai border, and cancel the Camp David treaty.

Already the war drums in America are beating out the hate symphony that was so successful in 1918 and 1941. Then the enemy was Germany and Japan, now it is the ‘dirty war-mongering Arabs.’ Look for the Judeo-Christian pulpits of America to begin telling their people they must back the Jews in Palestine, or earn God’s curse. It’s been done before!

The Stock Market should be interesting to watch in the next few months as the election in Israel takes place, and the Israeli fluctuate between peace and war. At this writing it appears that extremist Sharon is far ahead. The majority of the Israelis do not want to give the Arabs anything that appears to be a fair deal. They want their cake and eat it too.

When people ask me, “Do you detest all Jews? Some of them like Alfred Lilienthal, are good Americans.” My answer is, “No, as long as they prove by their actions that their first loyalty is to America.” Very few will do this. Very few will say with Lilienthal, “I am a Jewish American, but my loyalty is to America, not to Israel.” As long as we grant Jews dual citizenship, they will put the Israeli first. We cannot expect them to back our Christian way of life, and remain Jews, for their religious teachings are contrary to everything Jesus Christ stood for. If we continue to favor them with special privileges because they are Jews, they will remain like a rattlesnake in our bosom, and sooner or later we will get bit by their poisonous fangs.

The actions of the Judeo-Christians reminds me of the cowboy who was riding across the western plains in the dead of winter, when he came across a rattlesnake frozen in its coil. Feeling sorry for the snake, he picked it up and put it inside his coat. When it thawed out, it bit him of course, and as he was dying in agony he asked the snake: “Mr Snake, why did you bite me when I tried to help you?” and was surprised when it answered: “You dumb cowboy, you knew I was a rattlesnake all along!” If you play house with antiChrists, we are bound to get bit! And their fangs are always poisonous and result in death or slavery. The new economy mumbo jumbo will make the Y2K scare look like a Sunday school picnic in comparison.

Will the World Elite be able to control the American rabble when the chips are finally down? Will Christian Patriots in America, and other decent Americans be willing to live under the slave plantation of the Zionist New World Order, or will they rise up in wrath to say: “We have put up with your tyranny long enough. We have no King but Jesus.” Will Salvation come to this nation, or will we like the Andrea Doria, go down with all hands on board, and some future civilization, if the world lasts that long, will look at our record and say, “This is what happens when a nation turns its back on God!” Only God knows, and only He has the answer, if we are intelligent enough to go to Him for the solution.

Think Again! Would You Want a Foreigner in the White House? The eight years of Clinton policy trashed the once sacred concept of American citizenship. The election results indicate that the America we once knew and loved is hanging by a thread, as floods of legal and illegal immigrants moved into this country, changing our way of life as they groomed by the Clinton/Zionist/Communist agenda vote for One World Government.

If you look at a map showing how Americans voted in the November election, you will note that Gore and the Democrats controlled the major coastal areas, including the West Coast, New York, and Miami in Florida, and populous areas such as Chicago and Detroit.

We know that Mr Gore and Democrat strategy is against the major White Christian areas of the interior and that using illegal aliens by the hundreds of thousands, with little regard for morals or ethics, came close to putting an un-American-American into the Presidency. With his Jewish playmate as Vice-President, only God knows what would have happened. I did not vote for Mr Bush, as I knew too much about his family background, but I feel that he stands head and shoulders above Mr Gore, who deliberately made friends with most every antiChrist element in the country. At least Bush had courage to stand up and publicly state he was a born-again Christian (like Jimmy Carter, years ago, CIM) What this really means remains to be seen. We may, God willing, have a breathing spell under his Administration, before the One Worlders decide to clamp down.

Many of the people who voted in the last election have no moral or legal right to be called Americans. This brings us to the interesting question as to what Mr Bush’s policy will be on the Mexican border? Unless this border is secured, closed completely, the process of making the Southwest U.S. and California in particular into a foreign nation will soon be complete. Unless our borders are protected, White Christian America has little chance of survival. It can be noted throughout history, that when a great nation loses its ability to protect their borders, they soon slip into Third World Status. Imperial Rome was a good example, as Roman citizens refused to defend their country, and had to rely on foreign mercenaries. She was destroyed from within, long before the barbarians swarmed over her walls or battered down her gates.

Today we have military troops in over 500 locations world wide, yet our Congress and the President refuse to defend our most vulnerable border with Mexico.

A strong national thrust, led by concerned Christians must force Congress to close our southern border unless we want to see a nation run by anti-Christian non-Whites. God told His Israel people (who were never Jews), on many occasions that they must put only their own people (Israelite Whites) over them. President Bush, being a Judeo-Christian who has only a superficial understanding of God's Word, or deliberately ignored it for political reasons, was wrong when he appointed Colin Powell, to serve in his Cabinet, no matter how efficient he may be as a military leader. It is not a matter of prejudice, but of "what saith the Lord!" As a military man, I like Powell, but he will not work out as a blessing for America in this position, for regardless of what our critics say, this is still a Christian Israelite nation, under God's control (see Discovering Australia's Christian Heritage, by Col Stringer, #699 @ $20.00). We can either obey and be blessed, or disobey and feel His hand of discipline fall on us, as it did our forefathers (see the book of Judges!).

All the facts available show that we came very close to having a President and Vice-President, chosen by non-Whites for what they would do for them, not for what would be good for the country. Many who voted had no legal right to do so, as they were not American citizens. It looks like the idea of getting voters from the tombstones did not die with L.B.J.

Jessie Jackson and the World Jewish Congress. Few Christians know, because they have been kept in the dark by their church leaders, that the so-called Rev. Jesse Jackson, is a willing tool of the Zionist/Communist One World Conspiracy. It is his task to bring Black people of America into a hate relationship with Whites, especially Christians and set the stage for racial conflict in this country. He is well equipped to do this, as he has a long standing record of hating Whites. He readily admits, that when he worked as a waiter during his college days, he used to spit in the soup he was delivering to a White customer to show his contempt. He has not changed (this may cause some of you to rethink where you eat 'out', CIM).

A man of low morals, like his mentor, Martin Luther King, Jr., and shown in his recent admission of infidelities, he is not interested in the welfare of his people, but in what he can do for Jessie Jackson. (Like ex-President Clinton, he craves power and the limelight).

Jackson is just fulfilling the prophecy an English Communist named Israel Cohen made in 1921, in his book "A Racial Program For The Twentieth Century." (the following quotation taken from the Congressional Record, 1957, page 8559):

"We must realize that our Party's (Communist) most powerful weapon is racial tension. By pounding into the consciousness of the dark races that for centuries they have been oppressed by the Whites, we can mold them to the program of the Communist Party. The terms colonialism and imperialism must be featured in our propaganda. In America, we will aim for a subtle victory. While inflaming the Negro minority against the Whites, we will endeavour to instill in Whites a guilt complex for their exploitation of the Negroes. We will aid the Negroes to rise in prominence in every walk of life, in the professions and in the world of sports and entertainment. With this prestige, Negroes will be able to intermarry with Whites, and begin the process which will deliver America into our hands." (unq.)

Any intelligent American can see how successful they have been, as more and more Black faces appear in sports and the field of entertainment, earning unheard of salaries, and often marrying greedy White women, who have become prostitutes to fame and fortune."

If a Superior Court vacancy occurs during the Bush Administration, there are some who believe he might appoint Jackson to fill it (look for a strong drive on the part of liberals to fill this slot with a non-Christian, probably a non-White, to further weaken Christian America).

By Their Fruits Shall Ye Know Them! No doubt some who read this report and claim to be Christian will be disturbed and angered by the truth I present. Like the Apostle Paul, Galatians 4:16, I will say, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

The true moral and spiritual condition of America can be seen, not in filled churches and in TV auditoriums crammed with adoring, brainwashed professing Christian sheeple, but in what America thinks and does. Recently I watched, as did millions of others a rather poorly played Super Bowl football game in Miami, between the Baltimore Ravens and the New York Giants. I was not impressed by the game, but was overwhelmed by the half time entertainment. I never thought I would see such an open heathen display in this so-called Christian nation. It was vomit provoking.

No doubt the choreographers of CBS, were especially trained in the art of mental filth by their Talmudic masters. The show had no redeeming features I could see, it was immoral and sexually filthy from beginning to end and became so bad that I had to turn it off before I became sick.

The music and the actions of the White actors and actresses in particular sickened me, for there was nothing American or decent in their actions. It showed all the Satanic savagery of Black Africa, which I had seen close-up when I lived there for a number of years. The music was from darkest Africa, as were the costumes and the overall savagery of the entertainment could be seen in the pierced body parts of some of the White actors which is not an American characteristic. The sad part was not so much the savagery displayed as in the fact that intelligent, educated, decent and often Christian Americans sat through it applauding the enemy actions. I have watched in vain, for letters to the editor, from Christian pastors and laymen deploring this heathen intrusion into America, and there have been none.

Will we ever come out of the slime of indecency which is now threatening to overwhelm us? Not as long as professing Christians applaud the actions of Christ's enemies and refuse to obey His Word. Not as long as false shepherds in the church refuse to teach the whole truth of the Gospel, and pick out only those parts that make people feel good (see 2 Tim 4:3,4). Not as long as man believes he knows more than God about politics and religion.

VIVA LA RAZA (Long Live Our Race!) This is the battle cry of the Hispanic Revolutionaries, who plan to overrun the Southwest States of California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Utah, and Nevada, and take back the land Mexico ceded to the United States during the Mexican War in 1848. They plan to do this by voting power, (either legal or illegal), or if this will not work by force of arms. They are counting on regaining this area through immigration from Mexico which is being pushed by the Zionist One Worlders, in Washington, as part of their final World Empire, minus all Christian influence. (they plan to mongrelize all the races, except their own, so they will be a 'pure' ruling elite over a world of slaves. Listen to Geoff Muirden's tape The Decline and Fall of the White Race, #X-204 @ $4, but read also: The Fall and Rise of Abraham's Kin, by Adam de Witt, #149 @ $6.50)

It has been clear, by the blocking of Proposition 187 in California, that Governor Davis is part of this treasonous effort. He has been quoted as saying: "People will look on California/Mexico as a magnificent region!" Noni Obleto, a Latin activist said: "California is going to be a Hispanic State. Anyone who does not like this should leave."

How does this make you Americans living in California feel? You were the ones who built it to its present greatness, and if it is taken over by the Latino activists, it will be only a matter of time until it becomes another Third World Nation, dependent on the largess of the United States to survive.

Is anyone stupid enough to believe that the inhabitants of Aztlan will be better off than those in old Mexico? Have the Hispanic in the Southwest become so brainwashed by Communist propaganda, that they can't see that their present prosperity is being funded by the gringos, so many of them have been taught to hate? La Raza Unida Pasrety, a radical Hispanic organization has said: "We will overwhelm California and take the southwest without firing a shot ... we do it as part of the largest immigration flow in world history."

The battle cry of these Hispanic activists, many of them backed by the liberals in the Democratic and Republican Parties, would be considered racist and immoral, if used by White Patriots. Can you imagine the media reaction if Christian Whites were to publicly say: LONG LIVE OUR RACE! The church leaders of America would go into orbit and be the first to scream racist and un-Christian!

Proposition 187, passed overwhelmingly by California voters last year, would have stopped all public assistance except in cases of extreme emergency. It was vetoed by the governor. Today, the taxpayers of California are paying billions of dollars in aid to illegals for education and other humanitarian purposes.

It should be noted here that many legal Hispanics in border states, some whose families have lived in the U.S. long before the Whites arrived, do not approve of the illegal immigration which they know is hurting all Hispanics. They realize rightly, that a southwest under Hispanic control will be another poor, Central American dictatorship. In all actuality, the United States is engaged with Mexico today, in a Cold War, wages over the territories Mexico lost in the Mexican/American war of 1848.

What you have read concerning the hordes of illegals crossing our southern border, in the media, is often one sided and misleading in the extreme, just as are facts presented on the Arab/Israeli war in Palestine. It is not just a matter of impoverished Mexicans seeking jobs in America. It is a matter of planned warfare. Under President Clinton the Border Patrol was almost completely emasculated and orders were given to the patrol not to shoot back, even if they came under hostile fire. (as mentioned before, when a great nation refuses to defend its borders, it ceases to be great and doesn't have long to live).

It is particularly alarming that White Christians in these states have not risen up to stop this fatal development, and it is also interesting to note that when President Bush was governor of Texas, he did little to stop this illegal practice. It does not bode well for this Administration to do anything to stop illegal immigration. Will White Texans sit idly by while their land is taken over by foreigners? I sincerely doubt it. But they seem to be in a mesmerized state at the present time.

In October 1999, President Clinton presented the nation's highest peace time award, the Presidential Medal of Freedom, to Maine Obleto, in the White House (Obleto as one of the founders of La Raza). Today in one time White Christian America, it is okay to be Black, Hispanic, or of some other race and proud of it. (The President even set aside special days for these foreigners to honor their heritage). But White Christians are often handled with heavy-handed Federal arrogance, and held up to public ridicule, as racist and haters, if they express their pride in their White heritage and demand their Constitutional rights as Americans. It is amazing what the enemy brainwashing has accomplished in the minds of decent Americans, especially those who call themselves Christian.

Make no mistake, whether you live in the southwest or elsewhere in America, you should have a vital interest in illegal immigration from any source, as it is slowly strangling White Christian America, as it was meant to do.

The argument of those in favor of unlimited immigration, is we were all immigrants at one time or other, unless we are Indians. But they fail to state that during the greatest immigration in world history in the 18th and 19th century, over 40 million immigrants came to these shores. Well over 95% were of White European background. While they did not speak the same language, their heart's language was the same, since most of them were Israelites, and many of them knew it. They worshipped and honoured the God of Israel; they had an ingrained Israelite love of freedom; they believed in the "work ethic of, he that will not work, neither let him eat;" they honoured their women folks and their families, and were for the most part law abiding citizens, even those who were in abject poverty.

With the beginning of the 20th Century, as the Democratic Party learned that free immigration could put them into power, the floodgates of immigration were opened to people who were mostly anti-American, often Communist in concept, and decidedly unchristian in religion. While many good citizens have come from these countries, we have been flooded with the criminal riff-raff that were not wanted in their own home countries, but who could get a free ride on the backs of the White Christian majority, who make up the backbone of America. Today because of our apathy, often on the part of those who call themselves Christian, we are in grave danger of losing the America we once loved, and which many of us put our life on the line to defend.

For further information on the serious state of immigration and Hispanic control in California, I suggest you contact the California Coalition for Immigration Reform, PO Box 2744, 117 Huntington Beach, CA 92649, or visit their web site at www.ccir.net.

It is not too late to stop this invasion of vital American territory, but we must act now! Contact your Congressman and let them know how you feel about illegal immigration and the problems it brings. Contact your local newspapers and TV and radio stations and let them know how you feel. Do it in a Christian manner. Write the President & Congress and let them know that you are concerned. Then pray as though everything depended on God, and work as though it depended on you. (this method could be applied to many areas of legislation! CIM)

As White Christians in the opening days of this 21st Millennium, we should know that many false teachers are getting rich by frightening our people. (The Y2K scare last year was a good example in which millions of dollars were made by unscrupulous people who played on our people's fears). Yet Christians are clearly told in 2 Timothy 1:7 that: "God hath not given you a spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind." If we couple this with the promise of Romans 8:28 that, "We know that all things work together for good to them that love God; to them that are called according to His purpose." Why should we be afraid? If those two Scriptures aren't enough assurance, we have Christ's prophecy in Luke 21:28 that when we see chaos and uncertainty in nature, and the world being turned upside down, then is when we should lift up our heads and look up for our redemption is close at hand. MARANATHA!

So if you really love Him, and believe His Word, stop being afraid, and get to work on your assigned duty of bringing His kingdom to pass, "in earth as it is in heaven!" (Matt 6:10)

Fear is one of the most potent weapons of the enemy and it most certainly is aimed specifically at Christians. They know that if we can be made to fear, we will become easier to control and that fear is contagious (that's what they're working on with the Racial & Religious Tolerance Bill - and the Anti-Discrimination Amendment Bill 2001, CIM)

Some Christians may criticize me and say: "There is nothing we can do to stop these troubles, for God has prophesied them, and He never changes His mind. I guess these folks have never read the story of Jonah, how he was sent to the wicked city of Nineveh with God's message: "I'm going to destroy you in forty days." There were no ifs, ands, or buts about this warning. But in Jonah 3:10 we read how when Jonah's message was received by the Ninevites, from the king on down, they repented and turned from their wicked ways, vs 10 says: "And God saw their works (not what they said, but what they did), that they turned from their wicked ways, and God repented of the evil He said He would do unto them; and He did it not." Remember these were heathen people; yet His promise in 2 Chronicles 7:14 is to His Israel (Anglo-Saxon) people, called by His name (Christian). This in itself excludes the antichrists we call Jews.

Do you believe God's Word? Then humble yourself before Him; pray for forgiveness for your self-seeking; seek His face earnestly, and repent of your disobedience (and become obedient). If our White Israel people will do this, then His sure promise is that He will heal our land. The Jews and aliens; the enemies of our Christian faith, will have no power over us and according to Isaiah 59:19 - "When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord, shall raise up a standard against him." So "if God be for us; who can be against us?" We are on the winning side, if we are doing God's Will, no matter how heavy the odds may be against us. The outcome depends on faith, which brings about obedience. It cannot stand alone. (Faith without works is dead. James 2:20. This can also be applied to those who, while professing faith, fail to put their money where their mouth is, and fail to further Kingdom work with their tithes and offerings!)

The good news is that God is still on the Throne, and although the "heathen may rage against Him, and the people of the world imagine a vain thing, and the leaders of the world take counsel together against Him and His people, He will laugh and hold them in derision and vex them in His sore displeasure." (Ps 2:1-5).

He hears the prayers of His called out ones, and will save us, if we are willing to obey! Wishing you God's best for the stormy days ahead,

Jack Mohr.

Amen to that, Brother Jack!----- Creeps who creep in unawares

by Adam de Witt

A certain identity pastor (USA) is big on lashing out at some identity teachers, accusing them of "creeping in unawares." I'm sure that if he can dish it out then "he can take it too." I greatly respect the work he does, but I also respect the work of (some of) those he has fallen out with. Nor do I see those 'others' as having crept in unawares, as if they are snakes. My stance is simply this, not one of us has a monopoly on truth. This means each of us do miss the mark and in this missing, we make others cringe.

This is where we are called to turn the other cheek. It is an order. (CIM has again been criticized for reprinting some of what we see as the error in FFI, relating to Universal Reconciliation. However, we do believe that FFI has much of a positive nature to offer, and that its advantages outweigh its disadvantages. If this were not the case, it would NOT be reprinted, as has happened with some issues in the past. If anyone is wanting to find out what 'our' view is regarding UR, I suggest that you study The Exclusiveness of Israel, by Eliel, #714 @ 18.75, and the soon to come, DV, Is Israel a Servant Race to "Save The World?") This order applies to Christian Israelites, those who are kin. I believe that if we in our 'righteous zeal' rent down a kingdom worker, harsh rewards can follow. We surely would not rip down someone we agree with, only those we don't agree with. Of course the Bible warns us to be aware of those who creep in unawares. We do need to know who is not fully in truth or who is a snake.

How do we discern? The Bible teaches that God reads our reins (kidneys) and heart. The brain does the reasoning, the heart the emotions, the kidneys do the discerning between clean or poison. So we need to discern with emotions in check by righteous reasoning. Basically there are two rules to go by. One is, if the teacher is not an Israelite then we must not heed his words. The anointing is for Israelites only (see Exclusiveness of Israel). HRH King Jesus died to redeem (buy back) those who were lost. Only Israel was lost, only Israel was sold into captivity for disobedience, therefore only Israel could be bought back out of the bondage from whom Israel was sold to.

Only Israelites are olive trees, only olive trees have the anointing olive oil (fuel, gas, ghost, zeal, mind, holy ghost). Only Israelites hold 'this treasure' (Jesus' anointing-fuel, oil, gas, holy ghost) in earthen vessels. Thus ONLY Israelites can hear HRH Jesus and be anointed by Him. Hence only Israelites can be called Christians.

Jesus is called a 'kinsman redeemer.' (as per the law of Leviticus 25:47-55). Anyone else who is not a Saxon is a pretender, or an interloper. For the law states that only kin can buy the debt note of a punished lawbreaker thereby redeeming the sinner (Num 5:7-8, Ruth 4:1-4).

Rule two only applies when linked with rule one. Rule two is: that whatsoever the kinsman teaches must be tested by the WORD. But in this case we need to give the kinsman teacher some slack, as we may be amiss. And if we can prove him wrong, we need to give him the chance to grow in holy knowledge (holy ghost). We need to acknowledge the areas he is weak in and reject these teachings whilst taking in knowledge in the areas he is strong in. This is a priestly task, do we have the reins, or kidneys to discern, so to speak? The Word of God is likened to meat. Although eating (say) chicken can be tasty, we do need to 'spit out the bones.'

So it is with a kinsman teacher, his words are a blend of holy ghost (knowledge) and his own ghost (knowledge). His personal knowledge is the bit we need to spit out. Some folk don't even pass rule one, they are the Wolves, non-Israelites, usually of the Canaanite/Edomite variety posing as Sheep ... who like herding. Many are found preaching in Judeo-Christian churches and cults, and teaching in Bible colleges and seminaries. In recent years they have been trying to get into Christian rings (circles). Note how I state 'Christian' because non-identity groups are not Christian - they are Jew-Deo-Christian (i.e. Christians following a Jewish god) - but let's get a few details straight.

Revelation is no great mystery. Revelation means 'the uncovering.' The problem is that it is written in symbolism (Rev 1:1). Revelation is an account of HRH King Jesus' kingdom rule, a rule which began in 33 AD (Acts-chapters 1&2). Although HRH Jesus is the founder of the churches (of the church age) they forsook him shortly after they no longer saw him, a little after 33 AD. The Israelites of the church age are called the daughters of Zion, destined to be the bride of the son of God. But like the mother Zion who sought other lovers (law makers) instead of the Father, God, ... the daughter also went a-whoring.

The church age is split into seven ages, as a week is into 7 days. Like a week ends, so do the seven church ages. We are at the end of the last church age. There will be no more church ages. There will be no Judeo-Christian revivals from the churches ever again. They've had their day, 7 in fact. The churches are called out ones but they went a-whoring. Only those who were called out of the 'called-out-ones' overcome and with their King (not with Elizabeth II, or a President, or a Tsar, or a Beatrix), but with King Jesus, bring about a revival that will be truly Christian.

This will not be baked with the leaven of the Pharisees, as was the case with the Judeo-Christians. The first church age ran from 33-64 AD. To those Christians back then, HRH King Jesus was part of living memory but already they disagreed with him, "Never the less I have (am) ... against thee, because thou hast left thy first love ..." Your Bible will have the word 'somewhat' after 'have' but this word has been added in. The point I wish to make is this, the churches dumped their 'love,' HRH King Jesus, back then!

Come the second church age and guess who has crept into the churches? Edomite/Canaanites. Those who claim to be Judahites by calling themselves 'Jews' but they are not Israelites. Instead they are of the synagogue of 'their own works.' 'Satan' in Rev 2:9 (3:9) is here a reference to the 'Traditions of the Elders,' the book of 1st John outlines this 'satan.' It is NOT a spook, rather it is outlined as being one's own works. "In this the children of God are made known, and the children of the 'devil' ... as Cain ... was of that wicked one (which one? Which devil? Read on!) and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because HIS OWN WORKS were evil...." (1 John 3:10-12).

So in the context, the devil (a contraction of 'the evil' i.e. 'de-evil', 'd'evil, 'devil') or satan is one's own works. So Jesus states that the works of the Canaanites who called themselves Jews were evil. That stands to reason. They were not Israelites, they were not redeemed, or redeemable. Jesus did not die for them, for they were not sold for their sins, nor were they kinsmen. so, also they were not anointed and thus incapable of holding 'this treasure' (holy ghost, knowledge) in their earthen vessels (their bodies). Clearly the churches back then felt Christianity should be for all races, even Wolves, as they dumped the will of their first love.

HRH King Jesus said, go to the lost sheep of Israel ONLY! The churches did not agree with this exclusivity way back then (study THE EXCLUSIVENESS OF ISRAEL). Their solution is to dump HRH King Jesus, and create another more tolerant Jesus, one that suits their multi-ethnic utopian dreams. This makes it easy for Jews, who were Edomites, to come in as they surely did from about 64 AD onwards. So, against HRH King Jesus' warning, to be aware of the leaven of the Pharisees, the second church age from 64-313 AD let the Pharisees in. Judeo-Christianity is clearly as old as 64 AD, for although the term is modern, the symptoms are old.

Canaanites have been coming in amongst the sheep for a long time. Basically the churches claim to have created a new caste, "spiritual Israelites," in reality they became spiritual Jews. Gerald Flurry, for instance, editor of the 'Philadelphia (s)Trumpet' (following in the footsteps of Herbert W. Armstrong with his 'Plain Tripe' magazine) openly strives for this goal. In a recent AD2000

ABIDE WITH ME - CD

Instrumental Hymns Organ and Panflute

This CD of instrumental hymns will quickly become a family favourite. The music is of a very high quality and the selections played are bound to have a wide appeal (e.g. Genevan, traditional and more modern hymns - as well as some classical such as Handel, Purcell and Mozart). In an age of much trash music, a CD such as this needs to be heard in our families. May it be used to build appreciation for good music!

publication, the (s)Trumpet advises Christians to become 'spiritual Jews!' At least Flurry doesn't beat around the burning bush, he doused it. After all, we wouldn't want Wolves to feel unwanted.

Well silly me, if Lions will eat straw then Wolves will too right? Or was that bit in the Bible about Lions eating straw symbolic? (listen to Pete Peters' tape series on Understanding The Bible Zoo & The Kingdom, in 6 parts - #S-400, etc. @ $24). Of course it is, but the churches will make it literal, but then once you're in the business of twisting ... why stop there? The churches accuse true Christians of being Judaizers, because we seek God's Law. Hey, we are the ones that turn down the leaven of the Jews, leaven the churches soak up and have done for close to 2000 years ... so, guess who are the Judaizers! Because of this the churches take their cue from Canaanites. It should be clear that because Judeo-Christianity is quite old, every document, every constitution (Australian or American), every bill of rights, and so forth that has been drawn up in the so-called Christian west since 64 AD is a Judeo-Christian document. Every one of these documents is baked with Jewish leaven. "Oh," some will cry, "the Australian Constitution is based on the Bible." Yes, well, so too is the Talmud! The Talmud at least does not claim that God's Laws are nailed to the cross and done away with, it simply destroys them with its legal traditions.

The churches which were meant to be Jesus' lover, dumped him by dumping His Law, which is God's O.T. Law, because HRH Jesus could only do as his Father did. The centralist clique who drew up Australia's CON-stitution claim to rely on God ... sure, to bless their document. That does not mean the document is Godly, it only means they hope God will sanction their Judeo-Christian writ. Seeing that the writ is a total contradiction of God's Laws, God can hardly bless it. I have, in a talk, gone through the whole document and shown that not one point agrees with the Bible (see last year's camp videos).

"Oh, but look how the constitution protected us!" Really? Fourteen years after it was drawn up, our Saxon sons were killing other Saxon sons and the Jews took over Christendom in fullness, which included Australia. Also the coloureds that were already in Australia were race-mixing with whites (such as the Afghans that worked on the Gan), usury banking was not outlawed, taxes were levied, and central government (the cornerstone of Communism) was planted. Today, we are in a genocidal mess due to the CON-stitution.

It's no point blaming the Jews because the Whites who drew up the constitution made a clause that allows aliens to rule. If it all seems outrageous, then guess what? It gets more loopy! Australia became a sovereign state in 1919, Hansard 10th September 1919 p12169 ... "Separate and direct representation was at length conceded to Australia ... By this recognition Australia became a nation and entered into a family of nations on a footing of equality ... " Mr Lloyd George speaking at the 1921 imperial conference said ... "...they (the British dominions including Australia) have achieved full national status..." King George V in recognition of this welcomed the first Australian High Commissioner on 11 November 1921 with these words that he was "... the representative of our ex-colony, the newly independent nation of Australia." (More Murphy Myth? Aren't we still a colony swearing allegiance to Lizzy?? Won't she save us?? Why are all those who are sworn in, swearing allegiance to a foreign power? The reason that Heather Hill was unable to fill her senate seat? Wake up! You're being had!!)

So the constitution is not only a Pharisaical leavened writ, it became null and void as of 1919. Yet the establishment (and a lot of 'devoted' monarchists) continue to pretend it is valid. What's more, an establishment agent has stood up to defend the Judeo-Christian constitution. Furthermore, he wants our folk to fight under him for this fake rag of a document. Whereas we ought to remember that only ONE document, namely the Bible, is our real constitution. Leaping onto the 'patriotic stage' is a Canaanite shepherd. It is amazing to find how many true Christians have given this interloper Wolf a platform simply because he calls himself a constitutional patriot.

But, a Wolf is a Wolf. Remember the tale of the Frog and the Scorpion? Both are trapped in the middle of a sandbank in a rising river. The Scorpion knowing that he'll drown asks the Frog to save him by giving him a piggy-back ride. The Frog says, "No way, you'll sting me." The Scorpion says, "Are you mad, then we'll both drown." The Frog believes the logic of the argument and says, "hop on." Half way across the water, the Scorpion stings the Frog. "What did you do that for, now we'll both die?" cries the Frog. "I know," said the Scorpion, "but I just can't help myself."

So it is with Canaanites. Wolves that creep in unawares, Canaanites, one in particular, asks Saxons to join the Loyal Constitutional Army. He then tries to scare our kin to join him to fight a possible Muslim invasion. Saxons, you are not to be led by the 'stranger', least of all a Canaanite. It's the law of God (as opposed to the constitution). Never mind his friendly grin (never smile at a crocodile, I always say). "Thou mayest not set a stranger (non-Saxon) over thee ..." Deut 17:15. "Their nobles shall be of themselves (Saxon only!) and their governor shall come forth from the midst of them."

The constitution on the other hand states that any one of any faith can rule over Saxons. That some Scorpions can be nice, does not wash. Don't think you can understand a non-Saxon and relate, for God warns otherwise in Proverbs 5:6, speaking of the strange (zûwr) woman in this case, "... her ways are movable, thou canst not know them." As for the Muslim invasion, what about the Edomite Canaanites who run the media and so on; who to this day, "deny the Son and hath not the Father for who is a liar?" Right? Read 1 John 2:22-24. And "whose mouths must be stopped." The Bible does not as such say, "mouths of Muslims" (Read Titus) but it has much to say about the mouths of Jews.

So just what comes out of the mouth (and pen) of this Zûwr, Canaanite Jewish Saviour? He puts out leaflets and books, some are called "The Good News of The Kingdoms." 'Kingdoms' he used in the sense of other planets, but the Bible tells of one kingdom, that of HRH King Jesus, after all a realm is a realm and is singular if it has one King. He claims he spent 17,500 hours (that's almost 6 years at 8 hours a day - seven days a week) [give or take 500] to put together his writings. This begs the question, what is he trying to prove with the hour tally, is it to impress God or gullible Saxons? In typical Canaanite style he does not translate the titles of God as if the words in Babylonian-Hebrew have some magic in themselves, a Cabalistic concept.

Seeing that the Cabala is based on stupid-stitious twaddle written by a bunch of unanointed clowns having no truth in them, we ought not follow Cabalistic traditions. He makes out that God was naïve when He created Adam and that Adam was given free will. Yet God foreknew all Adam's moves and those of his offspring. God has a will and a plan. As for Adam's free will, he had only one choice, do it God's way. God's way had two options; the easy way or the hard way, either way, is God's way.

"...It would appear that prior to the fabrication of Adam, it just did not enter the collective heads of God the Father and His Chief Executive Michael ... that any Adam would actually choose death ..." The style of English that Segal uses is a preference to non-Saxon words such as 'fabrication.' His word choice is little more than a ploy used as if to prove intellect. For all his word choice he clearly has little understanding of the most basic thrust behind the meanings. God, to a Canaanite, is only enlightened when God reads the Talmud, as the Talmud claims. In chapter 61 of Segal's 'Good News...' he writes that God created a superspook that God called the serpent or dragon. This he does based on misrepresenting Revelation 12:9. (read Sheldon Emry's booklet That Old Serpent Called Devil And Satan, #123 @ $3.50)

The red dragon in Rev 12 is paraphrased in Rev 6:4 as the red horse which in turn is paraphrased with those that call themselves Jews but are interlopers of Rev 2:9 (3:0) and with the tares of the wheat kingdom in Matt 13:24. Red is the color of Edom/Esau. Edomites who sat in Moses' seat, namely moved into the priest craft (government), most notably as the Pharisees and claimed to be Israelites by virtue of living in Judea. These 'red' interlopers formed a system in opposition to Jesus' kingdom. Jesus warned our kin to beware of them and that they, as tares, would try to rule in His Kingdom and wrestle for control (Matt 13:24).

This is the red beast, the dragon or red horse. It is not Superspook as the red beast messenger Segal espouses. Revelation is about HRH Jesus' rule as of AD33 and onwards to our present day and beyond. 'Michael' for that matter is a symbolic name meaning, 'like unto God' and is thus a reference to Christians, who are to be like unto God. Rev 12, is another aspect of the kingdom after 33 AD during the church age. It deals with the birth of the man-child and shows that the 7 churches (ages of churches) mingled with the system of man run by Pharisaical teachings.

Jesus' rule is 'heaven-like' i.e. begotten from above, man's is earth like, fleshly. Hence stars, (Jesus lights) as churches were drawn 'down to earth,' i.e. become fleshly by sucking up to the Pharisees' doctrines. 'Michael' represents Christians in vs 7 and the dragon represents Esau's governments. Then in vs 9, the devil, servant, satan, (in this case the symbolism) is related to the red beast system of Esau/the Canaanites which then is cast out of the Christian nations. Yet Segal makes out all this, which is presently ongoing, all took place before and during the time of the garden of Eden. This is the same type of tripe that pours out of the unclean Judeo-Christian churches, which is hardly surprising because they have been taking their cue from Edomites since about 64 AD. The doctrine of placing Superspook in the garden of Eden is Talmudic and placing Rev 12 before Eden is to destroy the Word of God with Talmudic traditions. Segal twists Eve's punishment (for doing it her way) to be limited to having one husband and so because of this

God made no provision for divorce. Yet, the Bible allows 5 grounds for divorce.

Each ground had to do with variations of "Ad-alter-y." This is to say, the 'making impure' of God's laws by way of one's misdeeds, adding and altering the laws thereby, in the case of wedlock, to choose unlawful; partners. In such cases divorce is not only allowable but a must, (the 'marriages' are not considered lawful and can be dissolved) as in cases of race-mixing, homosexual bonds, incest and so on. Segal forwardly states that wedlock to one man is a punishment because women want to have as many men as they can! One could spend volumes on Segal's 'insights' into our 'true constitution,' the Bible, but the above is a taste that is tasteless enough to not want to dabble further.

Sheep (Israelites who follow Jesus) all too often have some false understanding of Scripture. It is an inherent weakness that comes with our flesh. Yet despite our flesh, the christ or anointing within (this vessel of earth-flesh) does shine through. It is this light we need to fix our gaze upon. After all, even Peter did not want Jesus to die, so that Jesus could save Israelites. Yet Peter should have known better. We need to develop the skills of discernment so that we can spot a creep and muzzle such an interloper whilst strengthening a kinsman before we accuse him to be one who creeps in unawares.

Another such fifth columnist is a Richard Sievers from Texas (Fifth Column = term coined by Gen. Mola while marching on Madrid during the Spanish civil war 1936-1939 who said he had four columns marching toward the city and a fifth on the inside. Those on the inside of a land or group who are working for an enemy!) Sievers has been sending out costly packages of information to as many identity Christians as he can find. This begs the ask (question) ... where does the money come from as true believers tend to be poor? The mail out begins with some standard identity ideas with a few twists.

As we read on in his material, we see an obsession with the so-called Hebrew names for God and Jesus. With such usage I at once tend to smell a rat. Most folks don't know what a tongue is. Words are names and names are words. When Israelites named their children with names such as Benjamin, they did not pick things that sounded nice to the ears, sounds they did not understand. They picked instead a number of words in daily speech. So in the case of Benjamin, his father said, "I name you, son of the right hand." In the ears of all around, they heard, "Son of the right hand." In the same way American Indians do, such as "Running Bear" or "Sitting Bull."

In the Hebrew text the names, titles or words for God were just that, words and titles. These were given so that the reader could understand the nature of God. To not translate the words, at once creates a sense of mystery which of course only the initiated can understand, creating in turn an elite class. (Remember that the Septuagint was the Bible of First Century Christians, and it only uses 'Lord' and 'God'. Thus Sievers rattles of his "Yahu-vehs" and he even coins "B.Y." instead of using B.C. Strange, the Jews do the same, that is getting rid of the term 'Christ' in their hating term 'B.C.E.' (Before the Common Era - the Jehovah's Witnesses amazingly do likewise; also substituting CE instead of AD for the so-called Common Era. Christians should continue to use AD [in the year of our Lord] in the dating of all their documents!). His writings become more warped as one reads on to the point it becomes laughable.

His book list shows he has studied many identity books by the likes of P. Peters, R. Capt and so on. ... but also that of Canaanites such as Fritz Springmeier, being a Jew uses the Canaanite 'seedline doctrine,' a doctrine brought into some identity circles designed to beguile. The 'magic word' tripe, is Talmudic and Cabalistic, so too is 'seedline.' The idea of magic names (words) is nothing more than a loopy thought for loopheads who belittle God to nothing more than a Kosher genie. It is sick. So too is the rest of Sievers drivel. I usually turn off when someone goes on about satan doing this or that. Fifth Columnists know that true Christians no longer fall for the lie that satan is a creature and so interlopers bring in 'seedline' to try and breathe new life into this Talmudic spook. Sievers employs the Jewish motto well, namely, if you tell a lie, tell it good. And so in his writings Mr. S.A. Tan not only got Eve drunk and had sex with her, he was also 'King of the Dinosaurs'! Eve was thus not only a slut but also lacked any taste as Mr. S.A. Tan looked like a reptilian dinosaur. How come Eve never said (like Cain) when she was sent out of Eden, "Anyone who finds me will kill me for my sins"? (Genesis 4:14).

After all, she, like Cain, needed the death penalty for her sins - that being (if the seedliners are right) adultery, fornication, bestiality, rebellion and thus witchcraft. Now the seedliners state that Cain was evil because he is half of superspook and half of Eve. Well, Eve was pretty crook too, if she mated with superspook, so what's her excuse? Sievers writ makes for great sci-fi, 'B' rated comedy; Satan the dinosaur king came from outer space from the star system Alpha Draconis and looked like an upright (pun intended, I guess) 8 to 19 foot alligator. Our Jewish government, he says, deals with dozens of different species of outer space beings. Wow-Wee!!

Martians came to earth and mated with whites to spawn Asians. Yep, but it gets even richer. Blond-haired folks are not really Israelites but come a long time ago out of UFOs, only true Israelites are red-haired. Why? Because 'Adam' means 'red haired,' well... so he says. As it happens, 'Adam' means 'he who can show blood in the face' i.e. blush. Just a few more tasty bits from Sievers; the Chinese (half space beings/half Saxon) launched strikes upon Sumerian reptiles from aircraft ... Mars is full of pyramids ... the top 13 Illuminati bloodlines come from satan, King of the Dinosaurs, names to look out for are Kennedy (sorry Arnold!), and Smyth (sorry Ray!), and the Queen Mother of Darkness is Queen Elizabeth 2nd (well, maybe there is some truth to this ... no, no, I'm only kidding), and a launch site for the Rapture is Idaho!

(Looks like the Weavers should have known, right spot, wrong time I guess. Well, enough on that). Sievers, Segal and the likes use the most loved tactic of the Fifth Columnist, deception. They know where in time we live in Revelation. In Rev. 17 we read that the Red (Edomite) beast is fed up with the whore (church Israelites) and we have seen the churches beaten down and church Christians slain (USSR, WWI & WWII) and churches being mocked almost daily on "the image of the Beast that was given the power to speak" (TV, video and picture theatres) in films and sitcoms. But in Rev 18 a new mindset (spirit, ghost, gas, fuel, angel) came to some Israelites from HRH King Jesus having great power.

Its glory will fill the earth. This is the same teaching that went out before Gideon, "Remember the Lord thy God who took you out of Egypt," thus "remember your true King, Jesus, and your roots, namely, YOU came out of Egypt, YOU are true Israel." The identity of saxons as jesus' true Israel undoes Esau's red beast system. Those that have that 'Ghost, gas, zeal, fuel, mindset' are the called out Israelite saxons, the very elect, those called OUT OF the churches; not simply the elect but, very elect.

The job of the Fifth Columnists was to deceive the elect, the church-going Israelites, and they've done so for close to 2,000 years. But the very elect now need to be tricked, "for their shall arise false anointed ones, and false teachers, and shall show great signs and wonders; in so much that, IF it were possible they shall deceive the very elect." Matt 24:24. Note the word 'IF'. Jesus is our teacher not them, they cannot beguile us, "For there are many ... deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not " Titus 1:10-11. The writing of Fifth Columnists can be early spotted for they do not have the light in them, they hold no treasure in their earthen vessels.

They hold no olive oil, therefore their lamp can never shine. This does not mean that Sheep have the full dibs on truth, however, it is our duty to be able to discern between a Wolf and a Sheep and not accuse Sheep as creeps!!

The Importance of having an e-mail Address Correct

It seems there was this couple from Minneapolis, Minnesota who decided to go to Florida for a few days to thaw out during one particularly cold winter. Since both spouses worked they had difficulty coordinating their schedules. So the decision was made to have the husband leave for Florida on a certain day with the wife following him one day later. The man made it down to Florida and arrived at his hotel. Upon getting to his room, he decided to open his laptop and send his wife back in Minneapolis an e-mail. However, he left off one letter in typing his wife's address and sent the e-mail off without realizing his error.

In another part of the country, a widow had just returned from the funeral of her husband, a Methodist pastor of many years who had been called to glory just a few days earlier. She decided to check her e-mail because she was expecting to hear from her husband's relatives and friends. Upon opening the first e-mail, she let out a loud scream, fainted and fell to the floor. The woman's son rushed into the room and found his mother on the floor. He glanced up at the computer screen and saw the following e-mail message:

To my loving wife: I've just been checked in. Everything has been prepared for your arrival here tomorrow. Looking forward to seeing you then. Your Devoted Husband.

PS: Sure is hot down here.

HONOUR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER

Paul de Witt (Adam's little brother)

Many folks reason that 'honour' in the Ten Commandments as in "Honour thy Father and thy Mother," means to worship them. In response to this we often hear many say things like, "but my parents are heathens; idolaters or race mixers, how can we honour them?" Others will chide that 'honour' means to obey, and that the 'honour commandment' is a blanket clause - no 'ifs and buts.'

Yet are we then to break God's laws and follow the laws of unbelieving parents? "Oh well, in such cases we simply have to honour God first and foremost," is the usual answer in such a case. If that be so, then the 10 Commandments are negotiable. The fact is, the Commandments are NOT negotiable, because the Ten Commandments are not the law, they are simply law summaries. After all if we were to strictly apply, "Thou shalt not kill" (sorry Paul - that should read 'murder' instead of 'kill,' CIM) then self-defense is murder and so too is eating, because when you rip out say a carrot to eat it, you kill it. The Ten Commandments are like volume headings. To understand the meaning of each commandment we need to look into the law-breakdowns which are outlined in depth throughout the holy writ.

In Proverbs we have clues which outline the mindset of the 'honour law.' "Honour the Lord with thy substance and with the firstfruits if all thine increase ..." Prov 3:9 (this is another reference also to the command to TITHE!) "... before honour is humility" Prov 15:33. "It is an honour for a man to cease from strife ..." Prov 20:3. "He that followeth after righteousness and mercy, findeth life, righteousness and honour." Prov 21:21. In each case, the meaning of honour is neither worship or obedience as such but rather it is a state of high standing, of a noble rank, to be of good scruples.

The reverse of this may stress the point better, "... but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame" Prov 29:15. "A wise son maketh a glad father, but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother." Prov 10:1. "... a foolish son is a grief to his father and bitterness to her that bare him" Prov 17:25. Do you think that the foolish son honours his parents? Let me re-ask that, ... do you think the foolish son is an honour to his parents? It seems not.

If a son be a drunk or a slob or a druggie then he is often seen as a reflection of his parents, or at least that's how folks see things. Tale bearers would say things like, "Well, did you see Johnny, what a drunk, where did he get such behaviour from? Oh well, I guess the apple doesn't fall far from the tree ..." So even if Johnny's parents are good, he dishonours them, he is a poor ambassador for them.

On the other hand, folks could say, "Isn't that Johnny that helped so and so and does such good things, yep, he's a fine young man, ... have you met his parents? I haven't but to have such a fine lad, they must be good folk too." The point I am making is this, one's parents may be utter idolaters, but one can honour them by doing things in one's life, God's Way! Most parents are usually honoured to have a fine, upstanding, successful and respected son. So if you are righteous, most folks will take it that your parents are righteous too, thereby making them seem honourable even though they may not be. In effect you honour them though your deeds. [However, obedience can not be overlooked here, as without obedience there can be no honour. In the New Testament we have two witnesses where disobedience to parents is listed amongst heinous adult sins. Therefore the 'disobedience' is not a simple matter of dealing with "little children" but must be referenced as adult disobedience. See Romans 1:30 and 2Tim 3:2, that latter even stating that "men shall be .." so that it is most decidedly not talking about children! It is impossible to be living in disobedience and at the same time honour one's parents. For more on this, I recommend Jonathan Lindvall's tapes BOLD PARENT-

ING SEMINAR P-091 through P-096, 6 tapes @ $30., HELPING CHILDREN LEARN OBEDIENCE, P-119 @ $5, CIM]

Thus, to honour your parents means more rightly, to be honourable yourself, thereby honouring them by imparting honour. This then, should make Christians stop and evaluate themselves ... do you honour THE FATHER? No, I don't mean, do you pray to God and not eat ham sandwiches. I mean, if others were to look at you, hear the way you talk, see the way you look and the way you dress, the way you live and what you watch and listen to, is your home neat and clean, are you clean or hard-working, or creative, ... are you in your life, a likeness to God? (as in, made in God's likeness, image, to be Godly).

Do you make folks say, "I don't think I want to join his group or follow his God, because if that's what you become ..."? No, I'm not saying Christians are to show off, I'm saying, in order to honour the Father, many need to tidy up their act and pull their socks up. See if you can make the Father glad and not be a grief unto Him. Are you a role model that would inspire others to God? In that way do you honour your Father and Mother and indeed THE FATHER.

If you do not honour and obey earthly parents whom you have seen, you cannot honour and obey God whom you have not seen. Want your children to honour and obey you? Then honour and obey your parents, so they may learn from your example. Because learn from your example they will - whether for good or for evil!-----

UK EMBRACES TRANSSEXUALS

Last November, Vicar Peter Stone, tall and slim, wearing his chestnut hair in a neat bob, sporting a navy pencil skirt, floral scarf and black court shoes, stepped into the limelight. Having sat down on one of the bishop's dining chairs, he told reporters in Britain that he had returned to work the day before as a woman named "Carol Ann" after having a sex change operation, fully condoned by the Church of England. "Miss" Stone added that she was still developing "her look."

Respected British newspaper the Telegraph reported, "It was the first time Stone, 46, had appeared in public since he was given leave by Bishop Rogerson to take three months off to undergo 'gender redesignation.' On Sunday he will deliver his first sermon as Carol Stone at St Philip's, Upper Stratton, Swindon, where he has been vicar since 1996. All but four of the 80-strong congregation agreed to welcome their priest back as a woman." (Nov 28, 2000)

As Bishop Rogerson talked to the congregation about giving his blessing to allow Stone to carry on preaching after his sex change, there was spontaneous applause. Later, the bishop admitted, "It's not a decision I have had sleepless nights about" - a sentiment which, after the operation to supposedly change his gender, Vicar Stone, father of an 18-year-old girl by his third marriage, said was firmly echoed by his family. "My daughter has been tremendously supportive. She is doing her A-levels at the moment and so she has a lot on her mind. Her mother wants my happiness."

These days, transsexuals like Peter Stone are becoming increasingly accepted by mainstream society. For example, in most of Europe, men and women who have had sex-change operations are now allowed to legally marry, and in some cases even adopt children.

What's more, sex-changed soldiers can now remain in active service in the UK army, following a recent European Court of Justice ruling that it was unlawful to discriminate against transsexuals. This recent decision "follows a controversy over a planned sex change by Sgt. Maj. Joe Rushton, 38, who now calls himself Joanne. Rushton, of the Royal Electrical and Mechanical Engineers, is a former army boxer who has served in Ulster and Bosnia" (Electronic Telegraph, Aug 2, 1999). Not only that: In Britain, people can now even get "free" sex change operations - paid for with taxpayers' money, on the National Health Service!

Why the relatively sudden change in policies and views? Unquestionably, the constant publicity given to liberal pressure groups canvassing homosexual and lesbian-related issues - especially since the raving 1960s - has wreaked tremendous, lasting damage on the perception of core, family values in Western society in a way which would have been unimaginable before WWII. Surely the fact that Britons have come to so readily embrace transsexuals and transvestites as "normal" individuals is a clear barometer of how far into the cesspool morals have plunged.

Frankly, within the British Isles, from whose shores homosexuals, effeminate men and other sexual perverts used to flee "with their shame" to escape the long arm of the law at the beginning of the 20th century, the subject of homosexuality no longer stirs more than a ripple. - Stephen Hill.

A Message To Lying Hypocrites With Seared Consciences

Pastor Peter J. Peters

"But the Spirit explicitly says that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron." (1 Tim 4:1)

Recently, I had the opportunity to address a class of students at Colorado Christian University on the subject of the Anglo-Israel Truth. That is, the truth that the people who today call themselves Jews are not the Israelites of the Bible, i.e. not the covenant people or the chosen people of the Scriptures but that the Anglo-Saxon, Germanic, Scandinavian, Celtic and kindred people are the true Chosen People. It is not the purpose of this article to address that thesis, but rather to address the reaction of many people when first exposed to it. (If you are interested in the cassette tape of my address to those students, please send a $5 offering and request tape #S-875)

I remember nearly twenty years ago, when I made this discovery, how I, as a minister, taught it to my church and as a result, lost most of my church. At a church meeting, the people literally told me, "we believe it but we don't want to hear it." Paul told us of such times and such people - "always learning and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth." (2 Tim 3:7) "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but wanting to have their ears tickled, they will accumulate for themselves teachers in accordance to their own desires; and will turn away their ears from the truth and will turn aside to myths." (2 Tim 4:3,4)

Over the years, we have made great inroads in getting this truth out, but this preacher and his family have been persecuted in the process. For not only did I lose most of my church, I was slandered and smeared nationally by the Jewish, antichrist media which the Heavenly Father has worked for good. It made my name nationally known. For example, the reason I was asked to speak at Colorado Christian University was because of the notoriety given me by the enemies of truth.

I was very pleased with the reaction of the students I addressed. About a third of the class requested copies of the lecture and more information. we sent them tape #S-117 ($5) and copies of our little booklet THE GREATEST DISCOVERY OF OUR AGE (#031 @ $8.25). In my lecture to them, I told them the greatest education they will get in life comes not in what they will learn, but what they will unlearn. That is, discarding the lies that have been taught them. All of us have to do this if we are to grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 3:18). The students reactions even got better in that they have now e-mailed me some questions the foremost of which is the question, "what difference does this truth make?" This is a very good question in that it shows they are awakening and considering.

The Anglo-Saxon-Israel truth identifies who the lost sheep of the House of Israel are (Matthew 15:24), who the twelve tribes dispersed abroad are (James 1:1) or, in other words, who His people are. To counter the hypocrisy which today exists with His people, Jesus told Peter that if he really loved Him, Peter would care for or tend to His sheep, i.e. His people. "He said to him the third time, 'Simon, son of Jonas, do you love Me?' Peter was grieved because He said to him the third time, 'Do you love Me?' and he said to Him, 'Lord, You know all things: You know that I love You.'" Jesus said to him, "Tend My sheep." (John 21:17) [the Judeo-Christian clergy take that instruction to mean: 'convert all the wolves, dingoes, coyotes, and foxes into sheep.' - or as Bill Strittmatter put it: 'When did they become sheep? At birth or at conversion?' CIM]

In other words, it would be hypocritical of Peter, or you or I to say we loved Christ and not care for or about His sheep, i.e. His race and how can we do that if we care not who in the world they are? In 1 Timothy 4:1,2, we read: "But the Spirit explicitly states that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to deceitful spirits and doctrines of demons, by means of the hypocrisy of liars seared in their own conscience as with a branding iron."

Let's consider the phrases "hypocrisy of liars" and "seared in their own conscience" because the average so-called Christian who reacts against the Anglo-Israel truth, even to the point he or she participates in the persecution of men such as myself who would dare proclaim it does not think of themselves as lying hypocrites with a seared conscience. The persecution levelled at those who would care for His sheep and proclaim this truth to them comes in ways of slander and demonization. In the case of this preacher, I have been accused by the Jewish controlled media (directed by such antichrist organizations as the ADL, and the Southern Poverty Law Centre) of being a racist, bigot, hater, neo-nazi, white-supremacist, etc., and have been portrayed on national television and in such magazines as Newsweek as being one of the most dangerous cult leaders in the world. Additionally, Christian conference centers and Christian campgrounds have refused to rent their facilities to me. This is done out of hypocrisy and a seared conscience.

The Greek word for "hypocrisy" in Strong's Concordance is #G5272. It means according to Holman's Exhaustive Concordance - "a reply, answer play acting, hypocrisy." So the way people reply to, react to or answer this truth with smear words and false accusations is nothing more than playacting. That is, they are responding to the script given them by their directors, their programmers, those antichrist, public-opinion molders who direct (like movie directors) their responses to this truth.

The Greek word rendered hypocrisy comes from another Greek word #G5271 in Strong's Concordance which means "to answer on a stage, to pretend." So it is the hypocrites who say they love Jesus but they really don't care about His sheep. It was to counter such hypocrisy that Jesus said "if you truly love Me Peter, tend My sheep" (paraphrase of John 3:17). You see, it is to be our Lord who directs our hearts and minds but the play actor Christian let's the antichrist humanist sit in the director's seat (and they do not care about His sheep).

So, to put it bluntly, you are nothing but a lying hypocrite to say you love the Great Shepherd but could care less for His flock and would turn your back on a truth that would bless them and keep them from destruction, simply because you take your script from the world and its world opinion molders who give you the script and direct you how to respond.

I will illustrate this further, but before I do, we next need to consider the phrase "seared in their own conscience." The Greek word simply means conscience and conscience according to Webster's 1828 Dictionary simply means "internal or self-knowledge, or judgment of right and wrong." For God's people, it is His Law written upon their hearts (Hebrews 8:10). Thus we know it is right not wrong to love and care for one's own race particularly when that race is His sheep. Another word related to conscience is consciousness.

Let's now relate all this to the subject on hand. When a black man with leadership ability and a love and concern for his people, sees his people suffering unjustly, being discriminated against or oppressed, or whatever, and responds with a national proclamation, "I have a burden or concern for my people" he is reacting out of racial consciousness. He cannot, in good conscience, not speak out - not try to help his people. If he were to see his people suffering or being destroyed and could care less, he would have a seared conscience in this area. Do white Christians accuse such a man of being a black supremacist, a hater, a bigot, a racist, etc? Further more, do they accuse him of hating white people or yellow people? The answer is no of course, the same illustration could be made for other people such as a Sioux Indian chief concerned for his people.

Yet, when a white Christian minister dares to proclaim the Anglo-Saxon-Israel truth, that is, give his people knowledge, knowing they are literally being destroyed for a lack thereof, he is HYPOCRITICALLY attacked, maligned and persecuted by his own people. People who even profess Christ. Lying hypocrites who have themselves had their racial consciences seared.

RACIAL CONSCIOUSNESS! Is it right or wrong? What black leader could help his people if he first did not have it? The lying hypocrites would say it's a virtue for such a black leader to have but it's evil and wrong for a white leader. Lying hypocrites. So-called pious, white Christians, taking their scripts from the antichrist humanists, even decree as unchristian the white minister concerned for his people. You see, right and wrong to a humanist comes from their own mind as they are their own small "g" gods unto themselves and they have made up their and the so-called Christians' minds to believe such a white minister is evil, wrong and sinful.

The true Christian allows the true God to make up his mind and decide what is good and evil. So, is racial consciousness evil according to the Word of God? Was not Moses conscious of who he was and who his people were? Did he not see their slavery and suffering and want to help them? "Now it came about in those days, when Moses had grown up, that he went out to his brethren and looked on their hard labours ..." (Exodus 2:11) Was not Moses called by God? Moses was very successful, wealthy and accepted by the world of his day. Thus, he could have seared his racial consciousness like so many lying, hypocritical, (Fair Dinkum) Christians of our day do and simply enjoyed the good life. He could have kept his Egyptian retirement, his high social standing and retained his favorable image but to do so would have been sin. "By faith Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; choosing rather to endure ill-treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the passing pleasures of sin." (Hebrews 11:24,25) It is time for Christians to grow up in this area.

If you have any Bible knowledge at all, ask yourself what prophet of God was not chiefly and foremostly concerned for his people? Read Isaiah, Jeremiah and Hosea. Read the eleventh chapter of Hebrews wherein God lists the faith heroes, those who found favor in His sight and see if you can find one, just one, who was not chiefly and foremostly concerned for his or her people. Every single one of them had a race consciousness - Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Moses, Gideon, Barak, Sampson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, the prophets. Yet, today, white Christians have had that part of their conscience seared.

The Holy Spirit-filled Zacharias was race conscious when he prophesied of Christ's coming in Luke 1:68, "Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, for He has visited us and accomplished redemption for His people." (emphasis added). Ask yourself who were Jesus' people that He came for? Jesus tells us in Matthew 15:24 "... I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." He was an Israelite, His people were Israelites - who were His sheep. When Jesus told Peter to tend His sheep He was exhibiting the racial consciousness that His so-called followers today hypocritically abhor as unChristian.

Paul exhibited a great love and concern for His people i.e., he exhibited racial consciousness in Romans 9:1-5. "I am telling the truth in Christ, I am not lying, my conscience bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit, that I have great sorrow and unceasing grief in my heart. For I could wish that I myself were accursed, separated from Christ for the sake of my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh, who are Israelites, to whom belongs the adoption as sons and the glory and the covenants and the giving of the Law and the temple service and the promises, whose are the fathers, and from whose is the Christ according to the flesh, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen."

As a people i.e. as a white Christian civilization, we send out missionaries to help ignorant third world countries who are being destroyed for a lack of knowledge. Perhaps it's knowledge in the area of sanitation and hygiene which results in suffering and death (i.e. destruction). When a country like Mexico is hit with a devastating earthquake, we (not black or yellow nations) immediately come to their aid as good Samaritans should. We applaud Black college funds, Mexican Awareness month, Asian cultural awareness, etc., but when it comes to coming to the aid, awareness, advancement, etc., of our own race, lying hypocrites with seared consciences step up to the stage, take the play script given to them and pretend to be (i.e. act) indignant with all the emotions their directors' direct them to display. William Shakespeare once said, "All the world's a stage and the men and women in it merely players."

To be touched or moved by the plight of other people, but not your own is to have your racial conscience seared. The Greek word for seared in 1 Timothy 4:2 is kausteri-azo and means to burn as with a branding iron. According to Vine's Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words, some manuscripts use kauteriazō from which we get our English word cauterize. Isn't it interesting that cauterize is a term for a medical procedure of burning to stop bleeding and that is what happens to the lying hypocrites who have bleeding hearts for every people but their own. Their racial conscience has been seared, has been cauterized. This sinful state was addressed by Isaiah

58:6,7, "Is this not the fast which I chose. To loose the bands of wickedness. To undo the bands of the yoke, And to let the oppressed go free, and break every yoke? Is it not to divide your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into the house; when you see the naked, to cover him; and not to hide yourself from your own flesh?"

Hosea said, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge ..." (Hosea 4:6). The Anglo-Saxon-Israel truth is vital and needed knowledge often rejected by lying hypocrites who claim to love Jesus but could care less if His people are being destroyed, for their racial consciences have been seared.

Oh, my people, repent or perish, i.e., be destroyed!

FOOT AND MOUTH OR JUST 'PORK PIES'?

by Adam de Witt

(for our American readers, 'Pork Pies' is Aussie rhyming slang for 'lies'.)

The other night I spoke with a farmer in Holland and asked him what he thought of the 'Foot and Mouth' outbreak. His answer was that it's all a gangster style scam with a hidden aim. After all he added, he has seen the illness many times before and it just seems to come and go. The sick beasts do recover. All that happens is that production goes down during the illness. Well, I'm no farmer and no doubt someone will have more to say on this. Whatever the seriousness, it cannot be denied that the reactions of Governments in France and most notably in Britain, have made a harsh impact (mostly upon Britain) with the culling of hundreds of thousands of infected and uninfected beasts alike. If what my friend says is true then the British farmers must be very, very subservient to the establishment. Well, I guess that is hardly surprising because Saxons everywhere have taken on board a range of social ills and what's more, readily take part therein ... with glee. Think how readily our folk love Rock 'n Roll, Hollywood, Multiculturalism (racemixing), Sodomy and so forth. I guess from an Afrikaner or Boer outlook we could take the slaying of British livestock as divine retribution. After all, just one hundred years earlier the Brits slaughtered all Boer livestock, which were left in the fields, in an effort to starve to death women and children, or accept the benefits of having Queen Victoria as head of state ... some blessing. But all hypotheticals aside, there are some Biblical lessons for which God could say, 'I told you ...'

There is a double lesson. It seems the illness came to Britain from Asia. Infected meat-stuffs from Asia were brought into Britain for use in Asian eateries (only 3 lands in Asia don't have the illness: Indonesia, Singapore and Japan. The rest are rife with it).

Leftovers from the Chinese eateries were gathered up with other food scraps from schools and so on and used for pig swill. From the swine it then spread to sheep, goats, cows and oxen. Bleeding heart whites who are so in love with 'indigenous' tribes always blame the whites for spreading illness to the coloureds. In fact it was more often than not, quite the other way around (as we now see in Europe). Indeed every case of the black death was the outcome of trade with non-Whites. The black death in medieval Britain in which one third of the population died, was not a 'one off.' Way back in Roman times it struck. One of the worst was from 535 AD in which the plague swept through the Roman Empire into Celtic Britain, where one third of the Celts died. In Constantinople

10,000 folk died each day! City officials stopped counting after the quarter million mark had passed, according to Evagrius. The plague came to the white world from middle Africa where the Romans traded for Ivory. The list could go on.

Today's 'Foot and Mouth' illness (whether its handling be over the top or not) is a classic case of rebellion to God's Laws. Firstly, the want to eat swine. Keeping swine to clean up farms would not have caused the problem. Keeping swine in piggeries does put all at risk as they need unnatural feeding methods, such as relying upon food gatherings to make large scale swill. The second law-breaking is; that our folk (Saxon-Israelites)

The failure of "Christians" to tithe, their dereliction from the faith and from God's Law, leaves us today with cities in which not only the slum-dwellers but the rich are a menace with their lawlessness. In the country-side, the absence of faith is again responsible for moral decline and waywardness. Nothing effectual about any of these problems can be done apart from God's Law. The principle of restitution must be restored to criminal law. The family must again assume the basic responsibilities of government. Schools must be Christian, or else they will be ANTI-Christian. And God's tithe must be paid, or God's work, in God's way, will not be done. We are reaping the harvest of man's work, of our own work, of humanism in our lives. God's harvest comes only in God's appointed way. Rousas J. Rushdoony
"But be ye doers of the Word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves." James 1:22 - "Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. ... For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also." James 2 trade with the heathen. "If thou hast stricken thy hand with a stranger (stranger in this case means those who are not part of the covenant folk), thou art snared" Prov 6:1-2 "What part hath he that believeth with an infidel?" 2 Cor 6:15. "Make no league with the dwellers of this land ..." Judges 2:2. "Thou shalt make no covenant with them." Deut 7:2. "There is no hope; no; for I have loved strangers ..." Jer 2:25 (Again strangers here means, 'folk not of the covenant,' racial alien). Governments and their approved lackey clergy have told us 'pork pies.' This is it, a non stop illness far worse than 'Foot and Mouth,' but as the beasts that die (like in some bizarre sacrifice to a pagan god) we as a folk are dying. For everything from 'Foot and Mouth' to Central Government itself, is an illness we have gained from the heathen. All because our folk changed the truth of our God for corruptible 'pork pies.' Seeing that the slaughter of so many beasts may not even be needed. It has been put to me that the Canaanites are behind this as a mass burnt offering to appease God, as they must surely know the age has ended .. and they want to live. But it won't work, their time is up. God cannot be appeased by these antichrists! -----
