Is DOCTRINE IMPORTANT?

PART 2

Sheldon Emry

Transcript of a sermon by Sheldon Emry. Pt 1 was in March 2001 Newsletter.

You have no doubt heard the arguments for the necessity of fellowship with other church groups. These arguments may range from, "They agree with almost everything we teach, so we should fellowship with them," to the ultimate of seeking union with the people of the so-called "Jewish" religion who actually deny Jesus Christ and the resurrection. At that point, the argument is usually, "We have to fellowship with them because they are God's chosen people. If we don't associate with them, God will curse us." However, let us see what the Bible says on this subject. Which is most important - Doctrine, or Fellowship?

HOLY SPIRIT IS GIVEN FOR OBEDIENCE

In part one we found that obedience helps us to identify true doctrine:

"If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or whether I speak of myself." John 7:17

Perhaps the holy spirit is given in the same way that true doctrine is given. It is given not to those who simply pray and ask for it, but it is given to those who obey the will of the Father:

"And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the holy spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him." Acts 5:32.

Obedience is first; then God blesses us with knowledge and holy spirit which leads us into truth. Pentecostals preach that "The Holy Ghost" comes to those who pray and ask for it. They have religious services where they lay hands on people and pray that they will, "get the Holy Ghost." But Peter said that God gives holy spirit to them that obey Him.

The same is true regarding doctrine. Obey God and He will open up His doctrine to you. He will give you the spirit to correctly interpret it. He will give you wisdom and understanding if you obey. This does not mean that He will give you wisdom and understanding if you obey every jot and tittle of the Law. However, with the understanding that you already have, if you turn and obey as best you can, God will lead you further into doctrine and obedience.

HOLY SPIRIT WILL LEAD US INTO TRUE DOCTRINE

Let us read more about holy spirit at this point so that we understand what it was to do. What follows are the words of Jesus. Using Webster's definition of "doctrine," (from part one of this study) we see that John 16 is DOGMA because it is Jesus' doctrine. He is preaching about holy spirit:

"I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now. Howbeit when he, the spirit of truth, is come he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you." Jn 16:12-14

Ministers, generally in Pentecostal groups, often claim that they have "the Holy Ghost." What do they preach about? They preach about "the Holy Ghost" - I have heard whole sermons on "getting the Holy Ghost." Pentecostals insist that "the Holy Ghost" is an actual person (the dictionary defines 'person' as "a human being"! CIM) According to Jesus' dogma (doctrine) in John 16, here are the traits of holy spirit:

1. Verse 13 states that holy spirit will guide you into all truth.

2. Verse 13 also states that holy spirit shall not witness of itself. It does not lead ministers to go on and on about holy spirit.

3. In addition, vs 13 states that holy spirit will show things to come. It will open up God's prophecies. And where will you read God's prophecies? You will read them in both the Old and New Testaments. But it is holy spirit that will show you these prophecies and how they are fulfilled.

4. Vs 14 states that holy spirit shall glorify Jesus. So many of the professing "Holy-Ghost-filled" preachers do not glorify Jesus because they preach false doctrines themselves for having "the Holy Ghost." You are supposed to think they are better than other people because they have "The Holy Ghost." Nonetheless, in John 16:12-14 Jesus said that holy spirit (spirit of truth), would not speak of itself. It would give you truth and it would glorify Jesus the Anointed. This is Jesus' dogma! So let us get this straight when we read about holy spirit and what the purpose of holy spirit is to God's Christian people.

AVOID THOSE WHO PREACH FALSE DOCTRINE

"Salute one another with an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them." Rom 16:16-17

It would seem as if the modern church has changed that to read: "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine AND ARRANGE SOME SORT OF FELLOWSHIP WITH THEM, AND AVOID SPEAKING ABOUT DOCTRINE."

That is, to a great extent, their so-called missionary work. They pander to the unbelievers in any way they can. About 10 or 15 years ago, Billy Graham had meetings down in Florida and set up a youth seminar which included a rock band separate from the main auditorium. Billy Graham justified it by saying, "Well, this way we can get the youngsters. They'll come in to hear the rock music and then we can preach the gospel to them." So he justified this by saying "if we can get to them some way, then we'll preach the gospel and they'll hear."

You will not find that kind of doctrine taught in the New Testament. In fact, in the next verse, there is a separation. There is actually a call to the Christians to separate themselves from those who will not believe. Christians are to stay away from unbelievers and fellowship with Christian people ONLY! (while you may have to associate to some extent with unbelievers at work - you don't have to socialize with them!)

"For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good works and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple." Rom 16:18

Considering those three verses in Romans 16, should Christians fellowship in ANY way with those who teach the Jews are Israel? The answer, obviously, is NO because their doctrine deceives the hearts of the simple.

THOSE WHO PREACH FALSE DOCTRINE DO NOT SERVE JESUS

Should Christians who know that the pre-tribulation rapture doctrine is false go to church with those who preach the pre-tribulation rapture? According to Paul, those people teach contrary to the doctrine and "serve not our Lord Jesus Christ."

How many of you have heard people justify ministers, groups or churches who teach false doctrine by saying, "Well, I know their doctrine is false, but they certainly preach Jesus! They continually mention Jesus Christ, saying how much they love Him. They teach that if you will come forward and accept Jesus, you will "go to heaven when you die." They seem to be outspoken Christians. But Paul says, "You mark them! You identify them! You expose those who preach contrary to the doctrine and you avoid them!" The reason you avoid them is because "they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple."

One of the tragedies I see among Christian families are those families who are isolated. They cannot attend a church where the minister preaches true doctrine, so in desperation they will go to any sort of a fundamental church. They will say, "Well, our children need to associate with Christian young people." And so the children do, and eventually end up marrying other young people from those churches (however, one of the problems with isolated Identity believers is, that with no one to meet, it seems some will never find a suitable spouse! Even the contact's list that we started doesn't seem to be helping. Are there any males or females 20-34 who are interested in CONTACT with like-minded believers?? CIM). These young people, and eventually THEIR children, learn errors and grow up believing the doctrines of the false churches instead of the true doctrines of the gospel of Jesus Christ.

What caused it? Well, Christians thought they needed fellowship more than they needed true doctrine. But that is a big mistake! If your family is the only one in the area that will accept true doctrine, I guess you will have to not fellowship with ANY of them. You stay with the doctrine of Jesus Christ and God will take care of the fellowship. Something will come up later if you are obedient to this call of marking them and avoiding them (but, be patient. It may take a long time!). Do not let them influence your children!

THE OLD TESTAMENT WAS WRITTEN FOR OUR DOCTRINE

What right do we have to compromise with ministers and churches who, by their doctrines, deceive our Israel brethren? I can find no reason to compromise at all! And about that time somebody will say, "Well, Pastor Emry, you have to admit that a lot of those preachers preach more about Jesus Christ than you do, because Pastor Emry, you're in the Old Testament and the Prophets all the time."

And I DO get this criticism from some people. They also say something like, "Oh, Pastor Emry, you have to preach more of Jesus like the Baptists do." Well, perhaps we can answer that charge by reading further in this same chapter of Paul's letter to the Roman Christians. Here is what Paul says as he closes his letter:

"Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, but now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith: To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen." Romans 16:25-27

What did Paul say in those last verses? He refers in vs 25 to the "gospel and the preaching of Jesus Christ" and to "the revelation of the mystery." And where does he say the revelation of the mystery is coming from? The answer is found in vs 25: "But now is made manifest (or made known) by the scriptures of the prophets."

OLD TESTAMENT DOCTRINE EQUALS BELIEF IN JESUS CHRIST

I have said this before and I will say it again for emphasis: YOU CANNOT UNDERSTAND THE NEW TESTAMENT UNTIL YOU UNDERSTAND THE OLD TESTAMENT! Paul quoted Old Testament passages 56 times in the letter to the Romans. You cannot understand the letter to the Romans unless you go back and read the passages and the surrounding verses in the O.T. to see what Paul was quoting. He was writing to Christians who knew the Old Scriptures which he was quoting (which proves they were Israelites!). So he would quote, perhaps, just a phrase or a sentence, but he was referring to a whole passage. You cannot understand the New Testament without the Old Testament.

In Romans 16:25-27 Paul said that this mystery of the revelation of the preaching of Jesus, the gospel, and so on, is now made known "by the scriptures of the prophets according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of the faith." We can more readily understand what Paul is saying here by turning to John 5. In vs 39 Jesus said to the Jews:

"Search the scriptures (the Old that is, there were no

New scriptures at that time. They would have had the Septuagint); for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me." John 5:39

What testified of Jesus Christ? The Old Scriptures according to the dogma (doctrine) of Jesus Christ, Himself. Jesus said to the Jews in the last two verses of that same chapter:

"For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?" John 5:46,47. Jesus gave two doctrines in these verses:

1. If you believe Moses, you will believe Jesus.
2. If you do not believe Moses, you will not believe Jesus' words.

Now those are New Testament doctrines are they not? They are dogma because they are from Jesus Himself! How foolish we are to say, as so many ministers do, that the Jews believe Moses and the prophets, but they do not believe Jesus Christ was the Messiah. JESUS SAID THAT WAS IMPOSSIBLE! If they do not believe Jesus, then they obviously did not, never did and do not now believe Moses and the prophets!!!!

If you want a double witness for the believers about this same doctrine, turn to Luke 16 which tells the story of the rich man and Lazarus. The rich man asked Abraham to send Lazarus to him with water and Abraham said there was a great gulf. Then the rich man goes on in vs 27:

"Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment." Luke 16:27,28.

In the following three verses Abraham is speaking; but remember, it is Jesus telling the parable. So I am reading the doctrine of Jesus Christ as He puts these words in Abraham's mouth:

"Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And he said unto them, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead." Luke 16:29-31. (for further explanation of this parable, I suggest you obtain a copy of Sheldon Emry's booklet THE RICH MAN AND LAZARUS, #109 @ $5.50; or Pete Peters booklet The Rich Man and Lazarus #008 @ $3.50)

Why did the Jews not believe Jesus Christ? Well, according to these two witnesses in the New Testament, they did not believe Jesus Christ because they did not believe Moses and the Prophets. Yet ministers teach that the Jews believe Moses, and the Jews believe in the same God we do, even though they have not accepted Jesus Christ. Those ministers are liars whether they know it or not! They are liars because their doctrine is not the doctrine of Jesus Christ in the New Testament. Those ministers who say that the Jews believe in the same God that we do would have us believe the only difference is just that their eyes have not been opened to accept Jesus Christ. However, we already read in Romans 16:18:

"For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.”

If we try to fellowship with those kind of people, we will be a party to those who are deceiving our Israel brethren with doctrines that do not come from the Holy Word of God. Romans 15:4 tells us:

“For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.”

What was “written aforetime”? Moses and the prophets, Psalms and the history of Israel - ie, the Old Testament - was “written aforetime.” And the word translated ‘learning’ in that verse is the same one translated “doctrine” in other places in the New Testament.

After reading these passages, could you possibly fellowship with a preacher who claimed to believe in Jesus Christ but taught that the Old Testament or the Old Law has been put away? ONLY IF YOU BELIEVE FELLOWSHIP IS MORE IMPORTANT THAN DOCTRINE COULD YOU COMPROMISE YOUR DOCTRINE.

GOD’S LAW IS AGAINST ANY UNSOUND DOCTRINE

The doctrine of the New Testament states specifically that the Old Testament is doctrine given for us. We have read about Moses and the prophets, and now here is a passage on God’s Law itself, in 1 Timothy 1:1-3

“Paul an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine.”

Paul was writing to a young minister of the Christian gospel and he said, “You tell them that they teach no other doctrine.”

“Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.” vs 4.

I should comment on verse 4 because it has often been used against those of us who teach that we, the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian and kindred peoples are the descendants of Israel. The detractors say, “Oh, don’t give heed to endless genealogies,” implying that we prove our Israelite ancestry by genealogies. But that is not accurate. Obviously, we do not prove our Israelite ancestry of the gospel of the Kingdom by genealogy. We prove it by fulfilled prophecy, by the covenants and by the history of our people fulfilling what God said in His Word. Paul continues in vs 5-7:

“Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: From which some having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.”

Then, Paul tells us the intention of the Law, vs 8-10:

“But we know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;”

The Law of God is against anything that is not SOUND DOCTRINE. So the purpose of the Law is not only to bring judgment on the law breaker, but it is also to teach doctrine. Where do we find the Law? We find it way back in Moses and the prophets. And then Paul says that all of this he has just written is, vs 11:

“According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.”

We also read the following in 1 Timothy 4:6-7:

“If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. But refuse profane and old wives’ fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness.”

PAUL IS ADMONISHING YOU TO REFUSE FALSE DOCTRINE! Now that may mean that you must refuse the person who preaches it, does it not? This means you may have to end some fellowship with some church or group of people where you refuse their doctrine. Praise God that some of our good people, who have not left churches where false doctrine was preached, did try and speak up concerning the true doctrine. And then, finally, they were simply kicked out (as happened to the Roelofs family at the Church of God 7th Day). So, whether they left or not, God took care of breaking the fellowship and they stopped fellowshiping with those who taught false doctrine. Paul continues in vs 13 & 16:

“Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.”

Notice the emphasis Paul is putting on doctrine in this letter. Remember he is writing to a man who is a preacher. So perhaps he stresses the doctrine more than he did in the other letters. He is telling Timothy, “When you preach, pay attention to the doctrine!” In other words, “Preach God’s truth!”

CAN PEOPLE BE CONVERTED BY FALSE DOCTRINE?

Further in Timothy we read, 1 Tim 5:7,

“Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine.”

Not double honour to those who labor for compromise and false fellowship. We have a great number of ministers and churches who spend a lot of their time try-

THE CHRISTIAN REVOLUTIONARY

by Mark Allen Ludwig

“To execute vengeance upon the heathen, and punishments upon the people, to bind their kings with chains; their nobles with fetters of iron, to execute upon them the judgment written: this honour have all his saints.”

For decades, Christian reformers have sought to implement polite reforms through the system. All of these attempts at reform have one thing in common: failure. Finally, here is a clear, thoroughly scriptural analysis of the present world situation that goes beyond superficialities to get at the root causes of what is driving our world in the direction it is going. Dr. Ludwig’s penetrating insights will leave you utterly stunned. Yet Dr Ludwig is no prophet of doom. Here is a book that will stir hope for the future, but not the future of the statists and globalists who think that future is theirs. Here is a vision of a future of peace and godliness. Yet that future can only be had by political revolution! This is the blue-print. Read if you dare. # 606 @ $27.50

ing to build up fellowship. They want more people in their churches. Because of this we find the ministers, in some cases, back off from preaching doctrine because they are afraid it will drive someone in the congregation away. So the minister is at fault. The minister who will not preach doctrine because he wants a great number of people in his church is a hypocrite. He wants fellowship first and foremost at the expense of doctrine! He may sincerely believe that the important thing is to get those people into the church and then he will let everything else take care of itself.

Some years ago, a friend and I went to see a minister who preached the doctrine of the Pre-tribulation Rapture. He preached it on television every day and in his church on Sunday. He had also written books on the subject. Within two minutes after introducing ourselves and beginning to talk about the Pre-tribulation Rapture, the minister admitted to us that the Pre-tribulation Rapture was not true AND HE KNEW IT! But he justified it by saying, "However, it does get them thinking about the end times and gets them into the church and gets them saved." So he justified his own teaching of false doctrine on the grounds that it attracted people into the church and got people saved.

I say THAT IS A FALSE DOCTRINE ITSELF, WHICH TEACHES THAT PEOPLE CAN BE SAVED BY FALSE DOCTRINE! This minister's reasoning was non-sensical and unscriptural. Needless to say, we did not ever fellowship with that church.

THE DOCTRINE OF LOVE

In 2 Timothy 3 we find this familiar verse (16):

"All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:"

"ALL scripture," spoken of in this verse, which is "profitable for doctrine," obviously means, expressly, the Old Testament (the Septuagint)! The New Testament wasn't published yet. Yet some teach that the doctrine of love takes precedence over anything else. "God is love. Jesus is love. We must love one another." And they will preach love literally to the exclusion of preaching doctrines of the Holy Word of God.

Their problem is that they are defining "love" incorrectly. Near the end of the New Testament in John's epistles we find the Biblical definition, 2 John :6:

"And this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it."

Now that is the BIBLICAL DEFINITION and the BIBLICAL DOCTRINE regarding love. Obedience to God's Commandments is love, according to the doctrine here. John continues in verse 7-11:

"For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. (there is a particular group of people that this applies to). Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds." (America would do well to heed that in relation to their aid to the Israeli-Jews who deny Jesus Christ! CIM)

Is doctrine important? God's Word says DO NOT FELLOWSHIP WITH THOSE WHO HAVE NOT THE DOCTRINE OF JESUS CHRIST. So you think of that next time you are tempted to compromise with ANYONE who is not in the doctrine of Christ and does not believe in Jesus Christ according to the doctrines taught in the Holy Scripture.

GLORIFYING GOD WITH ONE MOUTH AND ONE MIND

In Romans 15, we read this in vs 4-6:

"For whatsoever things were written aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ."

How are we going to glorify God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, with one mind and one mouth if we compromise on doctrine? We will have the same mish-mash that we have out there now, where the churches are trying to get along in this ecumenical movement by literally laying aside all doctrines because they cannot get together on them. They say, "We just want to love and fellowship because we're all Christians." It is not long before they carry it a bit further and bring in the Hindus, the Buddhists, the Jews, and every one else. (they are already doing that now! CIM) Why? Because they initially compromised on doctrine.

According to Romans 15:4-6, in order to glorify God with one mind and one mouth (in other words, with the same teaching) we are going to have to teach the same doctrine. What doctrine should we teach? It must come from the Holy Word of God! It cannot be something we make up because that could not possibly glorify God.

CONCLUSION

Let us close in Isaiah 29. After all of this study on doctrine, we should close with the great and marvelous hope that in spite of everything the anti-Christians do -- in spite of everything foolish Christians do regarding doctrine -- God has prophesied and promised that His people would learn true doctrine, Isaiah 29:22-23:

"Therefore thus saith the Lord, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale. But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall fear the God of (true Angli-Saxon) Israel."

That whole chapter is a prophecy about Israel coming to understand who they are, and that God has saved them (brought salvation to them through His Word). Then they will turn to Him, the Holy One of Jacob, and will sanctify His name. Then in vs 24 is a promise:

"They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine."

In other words, it is not going to be up to us. We do not have to be responsible, ourselves, to teach all of Israel doctrine. God has said THEY WILL LEARN DOCTRINE!

listed below the things we have learned about doctrine in this study:

1. Jesus' teachings are called doctrine.
2. Jesus' doctrine is from God.
3. Obedience helps one to know whether the doctrine is true.
4. Correct doctrine will glorify God, not the carrier of the doctrine.
5. In Proverbs we read that a wise man should desire doctrine.
6. Obedience brings knowledge of doctrine.
7. In Isaiah 29, Israel is corrected by learning doctrine as God saves and delivers them.
8. Early Christians fellowshipped IN doctrine, not OUT of it.

9. Early Christians refused the Jews' order to stop preaching Jesus and His doctrines. (see the NEW LOAN ONLY video #CI-321 HATE LAWS, Making Criminals of Christians @ $5 loan donation).

10. Paul wanted NO fellowship with those who were disobedient to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

11. The holy spirit is given for obedience.

12. The holy spirit will lead us into truth (doctrine).

13. Paul said we should avoid those who preach false doctrine.

14. Those who reject truth and preach false doctrine do not serve Jesus Christ.

I suppose that is the hardest truth for us to grasp. If they mention Jesus, claim they are Christians, repeat His name and then preach doctrines which have a rather emotional or good sound to them, we tend to think they are serving Jesus. But according to the Bible, those who preach false doctrine do not serve Jesus, but their own belly and they deceive the hearts of the simple.

15. The Old Testament was written for our doctrine.

16. The Old Testament doctrines must be believed in order to believe in Jesus Christ.

17. The Law of God is against anything that is not sound doctrine.

18. We are not even to receive them into our house who have not the doctrine of Jesus Christ nor bid them Godspeed.

19. We will glorify God with one mouth and one mind when we come to an understanding of true doctrine - the doctrine of the Holy Word.

These 19 Biblical points teach us that true fellowship must be IN doctrine. Let us lay hold of doctrine. Let us pursue true doctrine, and God will take care of the fellowship.

"I CREATE EVIL"

by Arnold Kennedy

In the aftermath of the World Trade Center demolition, there are many questions that people are asking. The most common question is, "Why did God allow it?" Very few are acknowledging any possibility that God did it, because if they did, they would be going against the popular flow (I recently saw an article which stated that 'Satan' was behind it through his 'agents.' CIM). We will make some examination into the verse below that literally says, "God did it."

Isaiah 45:7, "I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these."

In this short verse, there are several different verbs translated as, "form," "create," "make" and "do." These are all in what language experts call the "participle active mood." A definition of this mood is as follows, "The participle represents an action or condition in its unbroken continuity, and corresponds to the English verb, "to be" with the present participle. It may be used of present, past or future time." From the use of these verbs, together with the associated nouns, we can see that these facts never change. What God does in a given situation never changes.

In the Hebrew, we have:

"form" = yatsar Strong's #3335

"create" = bara' Strong's #1254

"make" and "do" = asah Strong's 6213

These verbs "cover the field" in regard to activities such as:

[a] What a potter does, in terms of human activity, including conception and divine activity,

[b] What a creator does, in terms of choice, choosing a people for Himself,

[c] What an organiser does, in terms of fashioning, transforming, and shaping, changing circumstances, and also cutting down.

[d] What an accomplisher does, in terms of attending, working, making, celebrating, ordaining, preparing, dealing with and offering.

Going a stage further, we can see these activities include opposites which are translated as:

[a] "light" and "darkness."

[b] "peace" and "evil."

"Light" is 'owr (Strong's #16), which is inclusive of all forms of light, life, prosperity, instruction and of Jehovah as being Israel's light.

"Darkness" is choshek (Strong's #2822) usually translated as "darkness."

"Peace" is shalom (Strong's #7965) that conveys the idea of completeness, soundness, health and prosperity, contentment, and good relationships.

"Evil" is 'ra (Strong's # 7451), which conveys everything opposite to what "shalom" means.

When we study verses like Isaiah 45:7, there is absolutely no suggestion, that when evil occurs, it is just a case of "God allowed it," as we hear so often said in religious circles. All the verb forms, together, with the opposites immediately above, declare to us that there is no field of activity in heaven and on earth that God is not the prime mover of. As the "Almighty" there is no other authority or originator of anything. Paul indicated that not everyone has this knowledge, saying in this 1 Cor. 8:4 passage: "there is none other God but one," and continues on to say, "But to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him." "One" in Greek is a numerical term, so there is no other being in competition with Him.

If we agree with this, then how could we say that God was not the originator of the WTC disaster? There is no shortage of passages in the Bible such as those below.

These show God's hand as being the creator of evil against Israel, when Israel was sinning against God.

Judges 2:14-15. "And the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about, so that they could not any longer stand before their enemies. Whithersoever they went out, the hand of the LORD was against them for evil, as the LORD had said, and as the LORD had sworn unto them: and they were greatly distressed."

Judges 3:7-8, "And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God, and served Baalim and the groves. Therefore the anger of the LORD was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushanrishathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel served Chushanrishathaim eight years."

2 Kings 19:3, "And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, all their days." Who did these things (as emphasized) to God's people? God did! And always there is a reason given, and the reasons are not commonly accepted. Churches say it is not the nature of God to do these things. Churches are wrong.

In the New Testament pages we are told that all these Old Testament happenings were examples to us to show that God's method of dealing with his sinning people has not changed. 1 Corinthians 10:6-10,

"Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world (age) are come."

These verses determine that God's method of operation and reasons have not changed through the New Testament, even up to our day. Churches should note it is still the nature of God to do this! Even a little of the fear of God would work wonders in the congregations.

Although we read about, "All those innocent people being killed" at the World Trade Center, we can hardly accept that the U.S.A. was a godly-living country, living in the fear of God when this happened. All these people referred to may have been innocent of committing deliberate offence to Islam, but were they all innocent of sin against God? Is not the rest of the population, including the US Government, likewise ungodly? Concerning "towers" falling, we read in Luke 13:2-5, "And Jesus said unto them ... Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower of Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish." So the USA has had a stark warning of what will come unless the "except you repent" is heeded! The selection below from a message presented at Times Square Church, shortly after the WTC event, confirms this view and "says it all:"

The Bible makes it crystal clear: God used enemy nations to chasten His people. The Lord wielded these enemies as an instrument of warning to Israel, calling the nation to repent. "O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation. I will send him against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets." (Isa.10:5-6)

God charged this coalition of Israel's enemies to chasten his chosen people. The Lord was trying to warn Israel, "You've lifted yourself up with pride. Now I'm about to bring you down. I'm going to allow you to be disciplined by your enemies."

The enemy coalition launched their massive attack. And, suddenly, the Israelites watched in horror as their buildings began to collapse. Fires raged throughout the cities, burning down stately structures. In a short time, Israel was in flames. And God's people began to wail, "The bricks are fallen down ... the sycamores are cut down" (Isa 9:10) After witnessing the recent disasters in New York and Washington, we can begin to imagine the emotions of the ancient Israelites. Yet, did Israel repent after this horrifying attack? Was there a nationwide acknowledgment that God was sending them a warning? Did the rulers hear God speaking through the awful calamity? No. Israel's reaction was just the opposite. The people's initial fear quickly gave way to a flood tide of national pride. "All the people ... say in the pride and stoutness of heart" (Isa 9:9).

The Hebrew word for stoutness in this verse signifies a sense of greatness. In other words, once the attack died down, the Israelites regained their confidence. They declared, "The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycamores are cut down, but we will change them into cedars" (Isa 9:10). They were saying, in other words, "These calamities aren't from our Lord. They're simple fate, unfortunate disasters that can't be explained. "We're a great and mighty nation. We're made up of a proud, unbending people. And we're going to let the world know we're coming back. We'll build everything back bigger and better. Where we used bricks before, we'll use stone. And where we once built with cheap construction, we'll use better materials. We're a God-blessed nation. And we're going to come through this disaster stronger than ever."

Doesn't this all sound very familiar? The Lord himself used an evil enemy to send a warning of chastisement to his people. He wanted to wake them up to their compromise, bring them back to himself, pour out his blessings on them, and surround them with his protection. Yet, throughout their days of grief and horror, God's people never once acknowledged his hand in it all. No one asked, "What is the Lord saying through all this? Is he trying to speak to us?" No one thought for a moment that such a proud, great nation could be humbled and chastised. On the contrary, the people used the occasion to defy any such thought. They refused to hear God's warning to them.

Yet, even so, we risk missing God's message to us. Think about it: when our public assemblies call for a moment of silence, we think it's true repentance. When we see politicians singing "God Bless America," we think our nation has turned back to God. When we see sporting events observe a silent minute after halftime, we think it's a spiritual experience.

But is this all that's going to come out of our recent disaster? Will people in sports stadiums stand in silence for a minute, then go back to painting their bodies in wild colour, chug beer after beer, and scream maniacally for their favourite team?

Like most Americans, I wept as I saw Senators and Congressional leaders standing on the steps of the Capitol, singing, "God Bless America ... stand beside us, and guide us ..."

Yet, as I was crying, the Lord reminded me, "Many of the leaders you see singing have worked to rule me out of American society. They are even determined to remove my name from American history books. And they've allowed the murder of millions of babies through abortion."

Suddenly, I was struck by the absolute hypocrisy of it all. We give lip service to God, but we continue our slide into the mire of immorality. If God wouldn't spare other nations that have outlawed him, why would he spare America? He'll judge us even as he judged Sodom, Rome, Greece and every other culture that has turned its back on him.

Then David Wilkerson goes on to say prophetically:

Devouring fires will rise to the heavens. Darkness will cover the land. The economy will be hit with a staggering blow. And there will be disunity in the nation, in communities, in neighbourhoods, in families. People will look out only for themselves, in a desperate fight to survive. And God help you if you come near them. I believe our window of opportunity to respond to God's call is brief. We all should pray that our nations repent and turn back to the Lord. But our most intense prayers should be for our own hearts: "Lord, let me tremble not at the disasters, but at your Word. I want to hear your voice in all of this. Cause me to turn wholly to you."

So, in all this, did God send a warning to the U.S.A.? Did God "do it," referring to WTC? Is God raising up Moslem extremists in order to chasten the U.S.A.? Let us go ahead a little further in chapter 47 of Isaiah where we started. In vs 9 we read, "Woe to him that striveth with his maker." This is about arguing against God's righteous judgements. What is President George W. Bush doing? Does he think he can strive against God where God has "created evil"? He says the USA is going to destroy evil, where "evil" to him is anything that operates against the welfare of the U.S.A. We hear nothing from him, or church leadership, about either the evil of the internal sins of his nation, or of the external sins his country commits against other countries. Some people consider the control of other nations by the USA, through the applying of economic sanctions and financial manipulation, to be a form of terrorism. So far there has been no trumpet sounded to call for national repentance to that morally corrupt nation. we can read in many places in Scripture where God hears the genuine call for mercy, and then God turns and judges those He used to chasten His people. In this God says, "I have created the waster to destroy"-(Isa 54:15), this time destroying those opposing God's children, when God's children are in a repentant state.

So where are the churches in all this? Mostly supporting President Bush, or otherwise silent! There is wicked multi-faith prayer for "remembrance," but none for repentance to the God of Israel. One reason for this is their concept that the whole thing is part of an ongoing war between God and what they think of as being a lesser god they term "Satan." They do not realize that the latter term is used for anything that is an "adversary" to God in thought or deed. Scripture records that Jehovah became a "satan" to Israel, when Israel was sinning. Jesus once called Peter, "satan." This shows we should not ascribe personality to a particular concept (as translators have done) to whom we can ascribe blame for our misfortunes. In what churches affirm, most are actually "satans" themselves in believing God is not sovereign. They do not understand the full meaning and implications of, "I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these..." Can it now be seen how many churches think, when they say, "God allowed it"? That could never be in the way they think? But the Internet pages and television responses show the prevalence of the ideas most of our churches hold.

Although they may not like to admit it, their thinking leads to wrong conclusions; their secret thinking goes like this:

[1] A good God would destroy evil.

[2] An all-powerful God could destroy evil.

[3] Evil is not destroyed.

[4] Therefore, there cannot possibly be such a good and powerful God.

Their conclusions effectively are, that if God was effectively and totally good, He would destroy evil. It is not God who creates "evil," in their view. This follows on to conclude, "If God is unable to prevent evil, therefore He is impotent." We may claim otherwise to other people and amongst ourselves, but most have a secret inner thought that places them where they will have their portion with the unbelievers. Listen carefully; you will hear this "God allowed it" theme in churches. It comes out too, in the much-debated theme, "Why does God permit evil?" If we were to ask instead, "Why does God create evil," we would take much care with our God-given freedom of choice. We would understand, the blessings of obedience are set out before God's people, as are the curses for disobedience. It is God who "forms," "creates," "makes" and "does" both! Yes, both!!

It would help if we put the following verses from Hebrews 10 behind our pulpits:

"For if we sin wilfully after that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, but a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries. He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses: Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God."

Numbers might well dwindle for a start, but so be it. There would then be a "righteous remnant." God then could (and would) destroy the evil against His people. President Bush (and Tony Blair and John Howard joining with him) is going the wrong way about it in trying to do it himself, in league with those ungodly others!!

You could also say, what goes round, comes round. After a half a century of American (and Western) support for the Israeli state and Israeli terrorism against Palestinians, it really should not have surprised anybody what happened in New York. If America (and its allies) are

"BE NOT AFRAID OF THE TERROR BY NIGHT, NOR FOR THE ARROW THAT FLIETH BY DAY."

Psalm 91:5

by Pastor Karl Schott

The above Scripture is a source of comfort and security for God's people, Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Israel, if they put their trust in the Lord Jesus Christ. Since September 11, AD2001, and the terrorist attack upon New York City, the Pentagon, and the intended attack on other places on the East Coast, a spirit of terror, formerly unknown has settled upon our beloved land of America, and perhaps over many other nations throughout the world.

Volumes could be written on this history-changing event that took place that day, and volumes have been written by the news media during the week following the attacks. But, little has been said as to how this all relates to Scripture and Bible prophecy. With this thought in mind, we shall consider the first eleven verses of the 91st Psalm, which directs our thoughts to the secret place of security, protection, and true peace which is available to all (of Israel) who will call upon our Heavenly Father, in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, during these perilous times which we are now entering.

"He who dwelleth in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is my refuge and my fortress, my God; in Him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare (trap) of the fowler, and from the noisome pestilence (fatal plague). He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust; his truth shall be thy shield and buckler.

Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flieth by day. Nor for the pestilence that walketh in darkness, nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday. A thousand shall fall at thy side, and ten thousand at thy right hand, but it shall not come near thee. Only with thine eyes shalt thou see the reward of the wicked.

Because thou hast made the LORD who is my refuge, even the Most High, thy habitation, there shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come near thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee in all thy ways." (Ps 91:1-11).

We notice in this Psalm that we are challenged to take the initiative to seek the Lord and make him our refuge and fortress. The writer, believed to be David, states, "In Him will I trust," and that is also how we are to respond in our relationship with the Lord, our God. (of course, those who trust Him, give Him their tithes - 10% of their increase - because they 'put their money where their mouth is.' Saying it is one thing, doing it is something else that many of God's people are indeed very slack on!! Remember that faith without works is dead; and that you show your faith by your works. Tithing becomes a positive way of showing your faith. "CIM).

WHY DID THIS HAPPEN?

There hasn't been a great deal said in the media as to why the terrorists attacked America. This reminds me of the newscast we watched the other evening wherein Peter Jennings, while surrounded with a group of children aged perhaps nine through fourteen, was asking them their thoughts and feelings about the attack. Among the many answers, one child said, "Maybe we should find out why they are mad at us." - 'Out of the mouths of babes ... '! That little comment spoke volumes!

On this same trend of thought concerning the reason that this happened, the Reverend Jerry Falwell and Pat Robertson also had some interesting thoughts that perplexed some of the news media. The following, which many of you may have heard on TV, was reported in our local newspaper.

"The Rev. Jerry Falwell and religious broadcaster Pat Robertson said the United States was vulnerable to this week's terrorist attacks because the nation has insulted God and lost divine protection.

'God almighty is lifting his protection from us,' Roberson said in a four-page statement issued Thursday by his Christian Broadcasting Network. 'We have imagined ourselves invulnerable and have been consumed by the pursuit of ... health, wealth, material pleasures and sexuality.'

Falwell, a Baptist minister and chancellor of Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA., said Thursday on Robertson's religious TV program "The 700 Club" that he blames the attacks on pagans, abortionists, feminists, homosexuals, the American Civil Liberties Union and the People for the American Way.

"All of them who have tried to secularize America, I point the finger in their face and say, 'You helped this happen,'" Falwell said.

These comments by Rev Falwell, and Pat Robertson bring to mind what the Lord said to Solomon in that familiar Scripture found in 2 Chron 7:14 and the preceding two verses, where we read, "And the Lord appeared to Solomon by night, and said unto him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place for myself as an house of sacrifice. If I shut up heaven that there is no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;

If my people (the house of Israel - Anglo-Saxondom today), who are called by my name (more correctly "upon whom my name is called," a reference to Numbers 6:23-27), shall humble themselves (not their enemies), and pray (to me, not in 'multi-faith' gatherings, which are an abomination), and seek my face (as the God of their forefathers), AND TURN FROM THEIR WICKED WAYS (i.e. from transgressing my Commandments, statutes and judgments), THEN will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

Friends, unless we TURN FROM THE WICKED

AND IMMORAL WAYS THAT NOW ABOUND IN THIS NATION, the Lord Jesus Christ will not forgive our sins, neither will he heal our land.

Solomon writes in Proverbs that the Lord does not hear the prayers of the wicked or the unbeliever. In Proverbs 15:29 we read: “The LORD is far from the wicked, but he heareth the prayers of the righteous.” And again, in Proverbs 28:9, “He that turneth away his ear from hearing the Law (i.e. the Laws of God as they relate to morality, crime, fornication, tithing, eating, etc), even his prayer shall be an abomination (disgusting).”

Earlier we shared with you Pat Robertson’s remark that “God Almighty is lifting his protection from us.” We would say “He sold us into their hand,” as many of the Old Testament writings show that He did back then. For an example, we turn to the 28th chapter of Deuteronomy where Moses informs the people of Israel, our forefathers, concerning the importance of obeying the Laws, Commandments, and Judgments that God Almighty had given to His people Israel. Beginning in verse one we read:

“And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God to observe and do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth; And all of these blessings shall come upon thee (upon your land) and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God.” (Deut 28:1-2).

Moses then proceeds to list the many blessings which would come upon the people when they obeyed God, a few of which we shall mention:

1. “Blessed was to be the fruit of their body” (their children), and the fruit of the ground, the fruit of their cattle, cows, goats and sheep.(crops and harvest)
2. The Lord would cause their enemies, who rose up against them, to be smitten before their face. They would come up against them one way, and flee before them seven ways.

Many more blessings are mentioned, but one which caught my attention was mentioned in vs 12, which states in part, “And thou shalt lend unto many nations ... “ This is something which America did for many years.

Another one of the blessings which is very interesting is found in verses 9 & 10, where we read, “And the LORD shall establish thee an holy people (set apart as His) unto himself, as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou shalt keep the commandments of the LORD thy God, and walk in his ways. And all the people of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of the LORD (upon whom the Lord’s name is called - Num 6:23-27), and shall be afraid of thee.”

Before we expound on these two verses, it’s important that we understand that these blessings, and the curses, which are also mentioned in this 28th chapter, are still just as much in force today as they were in the time of Moses and Solomon, and they are still applicable to God’s Israel people (the peoples of Anglo-Saxondom) today. As we noted in verse 10, the children of Israel were told that, if they obeyed the commandments of the Lord their God, all the people of the earth would see that they were the chosen of the Lord, who had His Name called on them, and would be afraid of them.

What people in the world have had God’s Name called on them (as per Numbers 6:23-27), for the past 1900 years or more. Has it not been the peoples which comprise the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scottish-Irish-French-Scandinavian and kindred people of Europe? And, for the past 400 or 500 years those who descended from them and migrated to America, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa? Has it not been these same people who have taken the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ to all nations and peoples throughout the world (in error - as they were to go to Israel ONLY, CIM).

We have another wonderful Scripture that mentions this same promise to the people of Israel. In Numbers 6:22-27 we read the following: “And the LORD spoke unto Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, In this way ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The LORD bless thee, and keep thee; The LORD make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; The LORD lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace. And they shall put My name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.”

Indeed, the LORD has blessed and prospered the nations which comprise Christendom (the 12 Tribes of Israel) above all the nations of the earth. We have been the recipients of the great national blessings that were promised to Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob 3800 years ago. The blessings that England, Germany, Canada, France, Holland, Australia, New Zealand and the other nations of Christendom have enjoyed are from the LORD our God. This is why, until approximately 40 years ago, when prayer and Bible reading were no longer allowed in our schools and institutions, and immorality, wickedness, and sin began to flourish, the LORD began to change the blessings for curses and brought punishment upon us. The answer to solving the many problems that afflict our people and nation are clearly spelled out in the Holy Scriptures. As we have been pointing out, we are to live righteously according to God’s Laws and commandments.

In closing, I would like to share with you a timely warning from the pen of the prophet Isaiah. 2600 years ago in Isaiah 42:23-25, he wrote, “Who among you will give ear to this? Who will hearken and hear for the time to come? (Who will see the ruin that lies ahead?) Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? Did not the LORD, HE AGAINST WHOM WE HAVE SINNED? For they would not walk in his way (according to His righteous commandments), neither were they obedient unto his law (i.e. the Laws of God in the Old Scriptures that are just as meaningful and applicable today as when they were received by Moses some 3400 years ago).

“Therefore, he (i.e. the LORD) hath poured upon him (the house of Israel, or the peoples which comprise Anglo-Saxondom, the nations of Christendom today) the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle, and it has set him on fire round about, yet he knew it not (he knew not the lesson of repentance) and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.”

This prophecy speaks volumes, and gives us the answer that would solve the many problems that now plague every Christian nation, including our beloved land of America. It’s interesting that Isaiah starts out with the question, ‘Who will hear, or listen to this type of warning and instruction from the Lord our God?’ He then goes on to ask who it is that is responsible for giving the House of Israel, or Christendom, into the hands of the robbers and spoilers.

The Lord goes on to answer his own question. He tells us that it is he who has sent the robbers and spoilers to corrupt our people through the use of TV and other means of the media, not to mention the economic problems that are now developing throughout America and Christendom. Friends, we are now the recipients of the curses that we find mentioned in the 28th chapter of Deuteronomy, where we read before of the blessings. This reminds me of Pat Robertson’s statement, which we mentioned earlier.

We need not wonder that the judgments of God Almighty are coming upon our nation. And the only way to change this is to turn from our wicked ways. May the Lord be gracious and help us in this time of Jacob's trouble. In Jeremiah 30:7 we read: "Alas! For that day is great, so that none is like it; it is even the time of Jacob's trouble, but he shall be saved out of it." Praise God for this wonderful promise and His grace.

HE ... HE HA ... HA ... HA ...

by Adam de Witt

It has been said that 'He who laughs last, laughs the longest.' Saxons are named after Isaac (Beth-Saac = Saca-Suni = Saac-son = Sach-sen = Saxons). Isaac means he who laughs. But for the past age (century), Saxons have been brought to many tears when Esau (Canaanite-Jews) cast off Jacob's (Saxons) yoke. They began this around the 1860's and by 1913 the cornerstone of the Canaanite world-order was laid.

During the time since then, we have lost countless homelands such as, Netherlands East Indies (Indonesia), India, French Indo-China (Vietnam), Rhodesia (north and south), Kenya and so forth... We have lost our culture and the right to keep what lands we still have for our kinsfolk, to the melting-pot-extremists. The winners and grinners, albeit forever whingers, are the Edomite-Canaanites. But this their day (age) will be very short. Indeed, it is coming to a close. They claimed to be 'God's Chosen' and hinted they could bring forth the fruit of God's Kingdom by using the word Zion, which means 'sign.' But without Jesus it is a bad zion.

For a few years, I have given many proofs that bad zion (rotten fig land) is on the way out, in a number of articles. Our downfall made us weep and them laugh. Likewise, their downfall makes them wail and us laugh ... Hee ... Hee ... Ha ... Ha ... Ha. Soon the laughter will spread across the whole earth when they become desolate (Ezek 35:14) (Ps 58:10, "The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked.") The tables are turning and I'll show it yet again with the following.

Remember "Suid Afrika," you know, that once White-Saxon land that in time became a black land. Whites were there 150 years before the blacks invaded from the north. In time for every white five blacks were born. Once the race ratio was 1 white for no blacks. Then 10 whites to one black. Then 3 whites to one black; then 3 blacks to 1 white, and now 10 blacks to 1 white. It was the Whites' fault. Cheap workers are a boon if you're a 'Spiritual -Canaanite.' I'm sure you can picture it because its now happening here. Well, for a while, despite being out-numbered in the latter part of the 20th Age, whites had clung to some hopeless shadow of former glory, believing the servant would never envy the masters' wealth. The double standard Apartheid system was known as 'White Minority Rule.' It was more 'apart' in name than in deed. During this shaky rule, Canaanites were hard at work to bring even that down. Canaanites were wined, dined and courted by wicked Queen Victoria, also known as the 'Butcher of Suid Afrika.' Even her offspring, Queen Elizabeth II, follows her wicked path by wining and dining the ANC's South African president Mbeki and his clique at Windsor Castle. For years, Monarchists have told me that she is poorly advised by naughty advisors. Well, is she colour blind too? I don't know about you, but a Boer is of pinky/white skin and looks the same as a native Brit. Mbeki is black. She may be backward, ignorant of God's Laws and sheltered, but this is up close and personal. That makes her a traitor! Not an overcomer - but an overcomee.

Lizzy II is head of the Shame-lican Church which was one of the chief backers of the Communist Terror group, the ANC. Big money was involved - that goes right to the heart of the British Establishment. The War Against The Boers began under Jezebel Victoria and her 'bed-mates' the Jewish 'gold-bugs' as they were called. When the Boers at last broke free from the multicultural, antichrist, British Commonwealth, the War Against the Boers restarted. The Commonwealth State called the Union of South Africa came to an end on May 31st, 1961. Independence came at last. In an echo of the once free Boer State De Zuid Afrikaansche Republiek (Z.A.R.), the newly reformed land was called Die Suid Afrikaanse Republiek, or the Republic of South Africa (R.S.A.).

The original Z.A.R., just like its parent Holland, was a monarchial Republic, but it declared its king to be H.R.H. King Jesus. The Gold-bugs and Jezebel Victoria invaded when the Z.A.R. was some 50 years young. It took nearly 60 years for the Boers to cast off the British-Canaanite yoke. But the British-Canaanites were never driven out. The seeds of greed and multi-racialism were never dug up. A new War Against the Boers began, again orchestrated from London. Elizabeth's church appointed a Zûwr (stranger) to head South Africa's Shame-lican church. One of many deeds that broke God's Law. He was the zûwr, Desmond Tutu. God's Law tells us to drive out the zûwr. Instead, Elizabeth's Shame-lican church says, 'drive out the Boer.' The Queen's church gave millions of pounds to the ANC and the South African Communist Party, all the while the Queen's government Secret Service created, ran and paid for the Anti-Apartheid Movement (AAM). Just how readily the blood money flowed was highlighted in "As It Happened," on SBS National Television, Saturday 6-10-01, in which the details of weapon-smugglers posing as a tour company were revealed.

When I lived in England, I lived with the English. I was not part of the 'Earl's Court' Aussie scene. The English are like Saxons anywhere, beguiled by the 'Black Nobility,' and loving it. The Black Nobility are plutocrats of Canaanite background. They are not Negroes. They are called Black due to their swarthy hue, or darkish tone. 'Swarth' is another word for Black. Zwart in Dutch; Schwartz in German. The term 'nobility' is given to mock their aim to rule. Only their wealth lured the aristocracy, not their bloodline. Soon the British Establishment was filled with Canaanites or mamzer (bastardized) offspring of those who wedded and bedded them. We see this trend now in the U.S.A.

This British mamzer ruling clique had monarchial and clerical blessing. As a triad, they hatched many undermining plots to bring down God's Chosen Folk in Suid Afrika, the Boers. One such evil scheme was the "Overland Safari." I remember seeing the adverts for the 'Overland Safaris,' when I lived in England. Their advertising was aimed at naive adventure seekers from Australia and N.Z., many who stayed in Little Australia, or Earl's Court (west of the main tourist hub of London). The subversive bogus tour operator ran a gun-running trade from 1967 to 1990. AK-47's, Limpet mines, hand-grenades, thousands of rounds of ammunition, and more. They made 40 runs with a ton of weapons and ammo each trip. Hidden weapon stashes were kept under the seats of unsuspecting white backpackers. Backpackers would board at Nairobi (Kenya) and head for Suid Afrika with a so-called 'service-stop' in Lusaka (Zambia) where the weapons were loaded. In London, Canaanites and white collaborators would be given envelopes holding £50,000 (± $100,000). Well cashed, they bought a new Bedford truck costing £80,000. set up a bogus company, advertising, the works! Most of the ANC collaborators involved in the scheme were White!

All the while, the Canaanite-run media kept showing footage of funerals. Again our TV screens would show throngs of angry and wailing blacks holding yet another African-(ANC)-flag-draped coffin, as if to say, Apartheid kills blacks - this evil system must go.

How the Canaanites must have laughed at their success against us. Indeed, those interviewees of the Overland Safari were smug. Still the coffins surrounded by angry blacks were flashed on our TV screens, almost nightly. The images were carefully prepared to show how evil White rule must be. White rule could not survive all the onslaughts. In time the dirty job paid off. R.S.A. fell. But I know the Boers, as God's Chosen Folk, will rise again. God promised this in Zephaniah 3:10.

But wait! Now the tables are turning. Esau's yoke will be thrown off soon. The signs are all there. Now the TV screens show exactly the same images of flag-draped coffins, held by angry throngs ... yet, they are not black, they are Palestinians! The anger is the same, if not more so, but the flags are different. This time the culprit is J.O.P (Jewish Occupied Palestine). The pit the Canaanites dug for the Boers is now open to them. Jewish minority rule can not survive the onslaughts.

But the Jews are NOT God's Chosen Folk - they are interlopers Rev 2:9, 3:9. For them God's Son had a special plan, Matt 24:32, Matt 21:19, when He said this of their nation: "Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward forever, and presently the fig tree withered away." "As thou (Canaanites-Edomites-Mt Seir-Jews) didst rejoice at the inheritance of the House of Israel (such as with R.S.A.) ... So will I do unto thee ... I will make thee desolate ... And I will fill (your) mountains with slain men ... I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee ... Thus saith the LORD God ... I am against thee." (extracts from Ezekiel 35). Oh yes, the day draws ever nearer.

Hee ... Hee ... Ha ... Ha ... Ha ...! At last the Isaac-sons can live up to their name of 'He who laughs,' for when you (Saxons) see these things coming, rejoice in the Lord, He rules, ... for ... "When the LORD turned around the captivity of (true) Zion we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter ... (Ps 126) Hee ... Ha .. Ha ... Amen!

THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT - Part 3

You Shall Not Murder. (Exodus 20:13 -NASV)

There are three classifications of homicide addressed in the Bible: voluntary, involuntary and justifiable. There are also a number of different types of voluntary homicide depending on who murders whom.

The English word "homicide" comes from the Latin word "homoceder," "homo" meaning 'man' and "cedere" meaning 'to kill.' Consequently, all words ending in 'cide' pertain to killing or murder. That which is killed is identified by the word or partial word that precedes 'cide.' Homicide is the killing of one man, whereas genocide is the killing of an ethnic group or race of men. Patricide is the killing of your father; matricide is the killing of your mother, fratricide your brother, sororicide your sister; mariticide your husband, uxoricide your wife; parricide a kinsmen, suicide one's self and infanticide is the killing of an infant (aborticide is the killing of the unborn).

Most of these killings are considered criminal if they are committed with malice and premeditation. Consequently, it is not necessary to belabor the serious nature of most of these acts. However, there are two exceptions. Not everyone today views suicide and infanticide as murder.

SUICIDE

Suicide must be categorized as either voluntary, involuntary or justifiable homicide. It cannot be described as involuntary because suicide is voluntary by nature. A person could accidentally kill himself and that could technically be identified as involuntary manslaughter. However, the debate is not about accidental suicide, but the intentional taking of one's own life. Therefore, suicide must be categorized as either voluntary or justifiable homicide. In order for it to be justifiable, it must be justified in the Bible, God's WORD, not simply in the minds of those who condone or promote it.

Because there are no Bible passages that allow for the intentional killing of one's self, suicide cannot be categorized as justifiable homicide. The proponents of suicide may ask for scripture that explicitly forbids it. However, opponents to suicide are not required to produce such a scripture anymore than they are required to provide scripture that expressly forbids patricide, matricide, fratricide or other specific types of homicide. All acts of homicide are covered by the Sixth Commandment - Thou Shalt Not Murder!

Suicide is generally addressed in Exodus 23:

"... the innocent and righteous slay thou not: for I will not justify the wicked." (Ex 23:7). A person who commits suicide takes an innocent life unless he kills himself as the consequence of guilt incurred from another capital offense. Furthermore, life is only for the taking by the one to whom it belongs. Our life is not ours, but His who gave us life and who gave His life for ours (Israel):

"Know ye that Yahweh he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture." (Ps 100:3).

Yahweh not only gave us life, He sustains and maintains our lives as well:

"O bless our God ... which holdeth our soul in life ... (Psalm 66:8-9).

Christians, who are the temple of God's spirit, have additional incentive for abhorring suicide:

"Do you not know that you are a temple of God, and that the spirit of God dwells in you? If any man destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him, for the temple of God is holy, and that is what you are. (1 Cor. 3:16-17 NASV)

Because our lives clearly belong to God, anyone who takes his own life is playing God and thus, in addition to breaking the Sixth Commandment, is also guilty of transgressing the First Commandment. We are commanded to choose life over death:

"I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live." Deut 30:19.

Suicide is the ultimate expression of faithlessness, whereas to face and endure adversity, especially against what appears to be insurmountable odds, is an act of faith. The former is the pessimistic, faithless outlook of Job's wife. The latter is the optimistic, faithful outlook of Job:

"Then said his (Job's) wife unto him, Dost thou still retain thine integrity? Curse God and die. But he said unto her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil (adversity NASV)? In all this did not Job sin with his lips." Job 2:9-10.

The person who would take his own life for reasons of sickness, disease or other hardships automatically eliminates any chance of miraculous deliverance. He also negates a legacy of undying faith even when faced with physical suffering or death.

PHYSICIAN ASSISTED SUICIDES

In November 1994, Oregon became the first state to legalize physician-assisted suicides. This is known as the so-called "death with dignity act." On October 24, 1997, delayed by legal injunction, assisted murder became a legal medical option for terminally ill Oregonians. However, legalization does not make physician-assisted suicides lawful. When man legalizes something, it is usually to make legal what God has already made unlawful. In Yahweh's sight suicide is murder, and an assistant to murder is an accomplice to murder:

"Cursed be he that taketh reward [payment] to slay an innocent person. And all the people shall say, Amen." Deu 27:25.

Doctors who assist others in killing themselves are thus also guilty of murder.

EUTHANASIA

Euthanasia is the next step on the slippery slope after doctor-assisted suicides. Herbert Hendlin, executive director of The American Suicide Foundation and Professor of Psychiatry at New York Medical College defined this slippery slope in his book "Seduced by Death, Doctors, Patients and the Dutch Cure":

[The slippery slope] "descends inexorably from assisted suicide to euthanasia, from those who are terminally ill to those who are chronically ill, from those who are physically ill to those who are mentally ill, and from those who request euthanasia to those whose lives are ended at the doctor's discretion."

This slippery slope for Americans actually began not in 1994 in Oregon, but rather on January 22, 1973 when the U.S. Supreme Court in "Roe v. Wade" ruled that murdering of an unborn baby was an act protected by the United States Constitution. The Right To Life Organization produced an article in 1974 entitled "The Mercy Killers," written by Paul Marx. I quote from this excellent article:

"If you have accepted the communications media's general interpretation of the Supreme Court decision of January 22, 1973 ("Black Monday"), it may disturb you to learn that abortions in this country are now completely legal for the first nine months of pregnancy. The court decreed that any restrictions imposed by an individual state, even with respect to the last 10 weeks, must be for the benefit of the mother only. The child now has no legal rights at all before birth, and no absolute legal rights thereafter.

It may further unsettle you to learn that the Court's decision (Roe v. Wade) was not based on any notion that the unborn child is not a human being in the "biological" sense. The Court, as admitted, was fully aware of the "well-known facts of fetal development." And, indeed, it should have been: it had in its possession a brief verifying the scientific facts, signed by 220 physicians from around the world - every leading embryologist, fetologist, geneticist, obstetrician and gynecologist who could be contacted - and no contradictory evidence had been offered in rebuttal.

The Supreme Court decision was based, rather, on a "quality of life" criterion: the unborn child is not a person in any "meaningful" or "whole" sense, said the justices. The Court did not conclude that "meaningful" or "whole" personhood [sic] begins at birth; it said only that it does not begin before that time. The distinction is profoundly important, because the Court's vague and open-ended definition supplies the constitutional precedent for dehumanizing other segments of humanity by defining their lives as meaningless or incomplete

The war on the unborn, then, is inching ever so subtly toward inclusion of the elderly, the severely handicapped, the mentally retarded and other non-productive persons - all of who can easily be dehumanized by being re-defined as "not persons in the whole sense."

... Abortion logically invites euthanasia. For that matter, abortion is fetal euthanasia, and abortionists may fairly be called mercy killers. That this parallel is not a far-fetched invention is evident from the fact that most ardent pro-abortionists are nearly always euthanasians as well. For example, pro-abortionist Dr. Alan Guttmacher (president of Planned Parenthood) and theologian Joseph Fletcher (the "Father of Situation Ethics") are members of the Board of Directors of the high-powered Euthanasia Educational Council....

The euthanasians themselves argue that if we may kill unborn babies we may kill other human beings. In the Atlantic Monthly (April, 1968) Joseph Fletcher argued that if the life of a mongoloid baby, for instance, can be "ended pre-natally [before birth], why should it not be ended neonatally [after birth]?"....

World-renowned anthropologist Ashley Montagu contends that a new born baby is not truly human until he or she is molded by social and cultural influences later. [end of quote].

Do not let this last statement go unnoticed. When is later and who decides on the social and cultural influences used as the criterion? In other words, politically incorrect Christians who do not fit the mold of today's Ashley Montagus might not yet be considered "truly human" and would thus be expendable.

5.1 You say you go to Washington every year to talk to our Congressmen and Representatives, but if the Bible says these things are going to happen, what can we actually do about it?

It is true that God has foreordained all things according to the counsel of His own will (Eph 1:11). However, we must be careful not to be fatalists, who will sit back and do nothing. God has revealed to us His plans, in order that we will have a part in the outworking of those plans.

God has revealed to us in His Word that our nation would fall into sin, both personally and nationally. But we are not working against the plan of God by witnessing to the Congressmen. We are called to be witnesses, so that they will be without excuse if they refuse to obey God, having seen the truth (John 9:41).

The Old Testament Prophets preached repentance, even though they knew about and had prophesied the destruction and captivity of Israel. Can you imagine them saying, "Well, these things are going to happen, so what can we do about it?" No, they preached repentance because God said to do so. However, we have a greater hope than did the Old Testament prophets. Whereas they knew that Israel was to be cast out of the old land, our message is that of deliverance. We tell people that we are already in captivity, but that a day is coming in which the God of Israel will deliver us. This deliverance will come immediately after we repent and turn to His Law in obedience and humility.

There is actually nothing that we can do to make people repent. But we are called to witness until God turns the hearts of His people. We attempt to witness to the people on radio, and through the printed word, and we attempt to witness to our Congressmen once a year.

5.2 How does one become an Identity minister? Does one have to go to the run of the mill schools and then adopt the Identity teaching?

Keep in mind that there is no such denomination as "Identity." There is only an Identity movement. Thus, there are no large Identity Bible Colleges or seminaries that we know of.

As Christians, we are all ordained of God to teach our people the Word of God and preach repentance and the Kingdom of God. However, each Christian has been given a different "measure of the gift" (Eph 4:7). God has given apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers to perfect (make mature) the saints for the work of the ministry (Eph 4:11,12). In other words, these special offices should be filled very carefully, however. We are to "lay hands suddenly on no man" (1 Tim 5:21). He should not be a novice (1 Tim 3:6), and he should have a good reputation. "And let these also first be proved (tested); then let them use (serve) the office of a deacon (minister, servant), being found blameless" (1 Tim 3:10).

Before we ordain anyone to such an office, we must see evidence of God's calling (ordination), and we must know the man or have someone we trust (preferably another Identity minister) vouch for his character.

Is what is "Good for the Goose, Good for the Gander" also? The following was placed in the Tasmanian Examiner Saturday June 30, 2001.

So, if exemption can be given for one, how about for another? This was a response printed in The Examiner, Friday July 6, 2001 under Letters To The Editor:

WANTED: CELTIC WHITE MALES

The Saturday Examiner (June 30) carried an ad on page C19 that hopefully will catch on.

As a heterosexual Celtic male I would also like to apply for an s.25 exemption as a member of a disadvantaged group with special needs. I would like to open a bagpipe shop and because of the unique type of work involved in this Celtic enterprise I only want to employ Celts. Only true white Celts need apply. No Negroes, Asians, Aborigines or Jews.

This is a culturally sensitive work environment and unless the employment criteria is met, the potential employee won't be able to relate to the ancestral needs of the clients.

I would hope the Anti-Discrimination Commission could refrain from discriminating against me because of the unique nature of the cultural requirements I have as a Celt. After all, if the Tasmanian University Union can apply for the exemption, then so can I, right?

Also from the same paper:

ABORTION

"Unlawful wounding," "grievous bodily harm" and "killing an unborn child" (The Examiner, July 1) are the charges that face a young man in Bundaberg, Queensland, after stabbing his de facto wife.

The first two I agree with, but the third is a hypocritical joke. Isn't this exactly what abortion doctors do?

Marco Rusterholz, Hillwood

"There is an old story about the farmer who believed that he could cut costs by training his horses to live without feed. The experiment was going quite well until, unfortunately, the horses died, and the experiment had to be discontinued. That farmer's mentality is like that of many supposed Christians. They seem to forget that it takes money to fuel a cause. I have seen them pat a missionary, or a Christian worker in some cause, telling him, we will pray for you, and, if it's the Lord's work, He will provide, while never making a move towards their wallet...."

The Kingdom of God is not a beggar's agency: it is the realm and majesty of the Most High God. We are required to render our tithes and gifts to the Lord. We receive in return His blessing, government, and care. If we do not pay our taxes and gifts, we receive His judgment and curse. God's work must be supported in God's way. ... Scripture is very clear at this point: God will impoverish a people who impoverish His Kingdom (Mal 3:8-12).

Christ is KING. Every king has the power of taxation; every king commands his realm. He does not plead for support: it comes in as His due. The option to give does not belong to the people: it is their duty to pay their taxes. It is the King's option to give, and our King, having given us His only begotten Son to die for us, expects us now to render Him His due tithes and offerings. St. Paul says of earthly rulers: "Render therefore to all their dues; tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour" (Rom 13:7). If this be true of earthly rulers, how much more so of the LORD! The fact of our adoption by grace does not nullify our duty to obey the Father, any more than Israel's sonship (Hosea 11:1) nullified Israel's obligation to tithe or to obey God's covenant Law. If we are members of Christ's Kingdom, we must pay its taxes. (excerpt from R.J. Rushdoony's work: Tithing and Dominion, (Ross House Books, 1979))
