“Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives.” Luke 1:68-75;

A WARNING AGAINST ATTEMPTS TO “UNITE ALL PATRIOTS”

This letter was sent to Walter White by Pastor Emry after three invitations from Mr. White in 1983 to a score of Patriot leaders requesting them to meet, organize, and present a “united front”.

Dear Mr White:

You still persist in your invitations to Christian Israel Patriot leaders to “unite” to work as a group for “one goal”. This is my third letter to you refusing to participate. This letter will go into additional detail as to why Patriots should refuse to “unite Patriots”. This will then be sent to my mail list to instruct and warn them.

Walter, in communist countries, undercover government agents are used to trick dissident groups to “unite” under one head or to have them gather in one place or to publicly work for one goal. This is done so the bravest and most active anti-communists can be more easily identified, neutralized, and then destroyed by those in power.

I do not claim infallibility; neither do I impugn the motives of those who disagree with me on this. However, men who have had experience in this and in worse situations than ours, warn of being tricked into “uniting” as it could lead to disaster. Let me recount just one famous incident where the technique of “unite them to destroy them” was used with almost total success.

Prior to “the Bay of Pigs” operation, anti-Castro Cubans in Cuba and in the U.S. were disrupting “Castroism” and inflicting grave damage to the Communist Castro regime in Cuba. Because of that, Communist agents speaking fluent Cuban Spanish were sent into the Cuban community in Florida by our traitorous U.S. State Department to “organize Cubans into one great blow against Castro”. The “one great blow” was to be an actual invasion of Cuba accompanied by an internal uprising of the anti-Castro Cubans.

Disruptions of Castro by small groups were stopped for months while Cuban Patriots in the U.S. joined in this “one great effort to overthrow Communism in the western hemisphere”. Cubans and Americans who attempted to warn the Cubans they were being led into a trap by the U.S. government were ignored or actually forced out of Florida by U.S. agents so they could not warn the Cubans they might be betrayed.

Eighteen months later, the U.S. Navy put hundreds ashore in Cuba at the now infamous “Bay of Pigs”, then pulled out and left them without the promised Navy or air support. Immediately the invasion forces were hit by fire from high ground inland. As the Cuban Patriots fired back, they found their U.S. supplied ammo boxes marked .30 caliber had .50 caliber, those marked grenades had mortar rounds, others marked first aid supplies had food, and on and on. In the first fire fights machine gun crews died with open boxes of carbine ammo, men with carbines died trying to stuff 30.06 cartridges in a too small chamber, .50 caliber machine gun crews were slaughtered surrounded by broken boxes containing only C-rations, and mortar crews abandoned their mortars because their ammo boxes contained canned food, and on and on! Betrayed, wounded and dying men had to break open all boxes under fire on the beach to get the right ammo. The smashed and scattered boxes then prevented them from moving any large amount of supplies inland, ending any hope of sustained combat or victory.

Before this treachery was discovered, U.S. agents radioed the pre-planned signal for Cuban Patriots inland to rise up and begin acts of sabotage to help the invaders. The invaders, now realizing they were betrayed by the U.S., tried to warn the Cuban underground not to expose themselves, but found their radios sabotaged with dead batteries, missing parts, or unable to operate on the assigned frequencies. They could send no warning, and Castro, who had been in on the whole plan with the U.S. from the beginning, killed or arrested most of the underground members within hours.

The next event was told by survivors’ years later when some were released or escaped from Cuban prisons. In spite of the deliberately mislabelled supplies, the invaders got some ammunition sorted out and soon began to kill large numbers of Castro’s soldiers who were shooting from the high ground. Then, as they advanced inland past the bodies of Castro’s men they had killed or wounded, they discovered they weren’t men at all, but 11 and 12 and 13 year old boys dressed in small Cuban soldier’s uniforms with guns with short stocks so that at a distance the invaders thought they were shooting at grown men!

The sight of the dead little boys and the screams of the wounded ones crying for their mothers so sickened the invaders that they ceased firing and after some confusion, decided to attempt to go around the surviving little boys who were still shooting at them and try to make their way to the hills. They formed into small groups and tried it. Once they were broken up, Castro’s regular troops, full-grown men who had been waiting a few miles inland, hit them hard with artillery and tanks. Most of the invading Cubans were killed or captured that day or the next. A few made it inland only to find that Castro’s police and soldiers had already killed or rounded up almost all Cuban Patriots who had risen up at the treacherous call from Communist agents inside the U.S. government!

In one fell swoop, the whole Cuban anti-communist movement inside and outside Cuba was viciously betrayed and destroyed. How was it done so easily? Well, fools and Communist agents convinced the Cuban Patriots that all groups should “get together”, that all should “work for one goal”, that they should “pool their resources”, and on and on and on.

After years of each group “doing its own thing”, they had become discouraged and despondent, not realizing that they were accomplishing much. In truth, a few years of what they were doing in small groups, sabotage in Cuba, clandestine leaflets, slogans painted on walls, raids on Communist units, etc., would have had Castro broken and destroyed. They were effective, but in their eagerness to “get it done right now”, they thought they could do more “together”. When the siren song of “Let’s all get together and do it in one big blow!” was sung to them by enemy agents in America, they were easily deceived and betrayed.

Walter, “getting together” was their undoing and the betrayal and loss was so terrible and so effective that even anti-Castro Cubans who were not involved in the fiasco were made suspicious and afraid of all other Cubans. They would no longer trust each other, fearing betrayal, and no effective action against Castro was ever mounted again! The joint U.S.- Red Cuba (Kennedy-Castro) operation to smash and destroy the anti-Communist Cubans in the U.S. and in Cuba was a total success! The U.S. rulers are doing the same thing now in Central America, collecting the bravest anti-communists in each country to “fight the communists”. After “controlled resistance”, they too will be betrayed, abandoned and destroyed just as were the brave Cubans and more recently the anti-communist Vietnamese and Laotians. This same type of false “resistance to communism”, and betrayal has been used successfully by the Reds and their secret allies in the U.S. government for over 40 years! (By the way, this is explained in George Orwell’s “1984”).

Do the antichrists want to stop the Identity Patriots? Will secret Reds try a “Bay of Pigs” type operation on the Right-Wing? They may try, but IT WILL WORK ONLY IF PATRIOT LEADERS FALL FOR THE IDEA THAT “WE NEED TO ORGANIZE IN ONE GROUP OR FOR ONE GOAL”. If hundreds of groups stay apart, the enemy will have to destroy each group separately. That will take a long time, and even as some are destroyed, the necessary prolonged and public attack on Patriotic groups will slowly, and then more swiftly, alert, awaken and educate our sleeping people to the internal Red danger. Our Red enemies know that and fear it. Will they try “togetherness”? Will Patriot leaders fall for it? I pray they will not and that the Almighty God will give us wisdom and have mercy upon us, in Jesus Christ.

HISTORICAL CHRONOLOGY OF MARTIN LUTHER'S TIME

Historical events in Europe before and up through Luther's time

This chronology has been prepared by Pastor Sheldon Emry, Lord's Covenant Church, PO Box 30000, Phoenix, Arizona 85046 for use with the series of eight sermons, "The Selling of Indulgences and Martin Luther". Those sermons showed Luther's role in the eclipse of Catholicism in central and northern Europe, how Protestantism was established in America, and how by the 20th century, much of what professes to be "Protestant" has many of the false doctrines and rituals of Romanism, even to the return of the "selling of indulgences" by evangelists and ministers. The series of eight sermons on four cassettes can be obtained for a gift of $12 to the above Church. (See coupon)

TO SAVE SPACE, I AM SKIPPING DOZENS OF WARS BETWEEN EUROPEAN POWERS

- 1501 Papal bull orders burning of any books against the Church. (By now there are perhaps 1,000 print shops in Europe which have printed 35,000 books with a total of up to ten million copies)
- 1503 Da Vinci paints Mona Lisa
Copernicus made a doctor of canon or church
Nostradamus born
LUTHER IS 20 YEARS OLD
- 1504 Venice proposes joint Suez Canal with Turks – never built
- 1505 John Knox born; like Luther, he left Rome to become founder of a Protestant Church (Presbyterian)
LUTHER ENTERS MONASTERY to become a Priest
- 1506 Johann Tetzel begins selling of indulgences in Germany
Christopher Columbus dies
Jakob Fugger becomes importer of spices from East Indies
- 1507 Diet of Constance proclaims unity of Holy Roman Empire
MARTIN LUTHER ORDAINED A MONK
Pope Julius proclaims indulgences for rebuilding St. Peter's
- 1508 Pope Julius declares German King is automatically emperor of Holy Roman Empire (Remember, Luther came out of that Germany)
Jakob Fugger of Augsburg created a hereditary knight of the Holy Roman Empire! He is now perhaps richest man in German states
- 1509 Henry VIII marries his first wife, Catherine of Aragon
John Calvin born
LUTHER IS 26 YEARS OLD
Maximilian I, Emperor of Holy Roman Empire gives permission for a converted Jew, Johann Pfefferkorn, to confiscate and destroy all Jewish books, especially the Talmud!
First restricting of medicine to licensed doctors
Earthquake destroys Constantinople - seen as a sign of God's displeasure
Jakob Fugger lends Maximilian I 170,000 ducats to finance war against Venice ($7 million?)
Roman Catholic Bishop of Chiapas proposes each Spanish settler to bring his own Negro slaves to the New World
- 1510 LUTHER'S FIRST VISIT TO ROME (Some histories record that it was on this visit that Luther first saw and read parts of a Bible)
- 1512 Fifth Lateran Council pronounces "Immortality of the Soul" church dogma
LUTHER ORDAINED A DOCTOR OF DIVINITY
Michelangelo finishes work on Sistine Chapel
Copernicus announces earth and other planets circle the sun!
Trading monopolies established in Germany due to the Emperor's debts to Jakob Fugger. (At this point the Fugger family seems to be to the Holy Roman Empire what the Rothschild's were to Europe in 1800's and 1900's, the "money power ruling State and Church")
- 1513 Peasants revolt against taxes and levies in Wurttemberg and Black Forest
Vasco Nunez de Balboa crosses Isthmus of Panama and discovers Pacific
Juan Ponce de Leon discovers Florida
- 1514 Albert of Brandenburg becomes Archbishop of Mainz in return for payment of 30,000 ducats (rich men are now buying high church positions)
Peasant's revolt in Hungary
HOUSE OF FUGGER SECURES RIGHT TO SELL PAPAL INDULGENCES IN GERMANY
(Fugger become "broker" for indulgences for a percentage, made the selling of indulgences the largest business of the church)
LUTHER IS 31 YEARS OLD
- 1515 Lateran Council's decree forbids printing of books without permission of Roman Catholic authorities
- 1516 Erasmus publishes New Testament in Greek and in Latin

- 1586 Pope Sixtus V promises financial aid for Spanish Armada against England
- 1587 Pope Sixtus V proclaims "Catholic crusade" for invasion of England
- 1588 Spanish Armada defeated by English ships with "God's storms"
- 1595 English army abandon bow as weapon of war
- 1597 Second Spanish Armada leaves for England, scattered by storms (This is generally agreed to signal the end of Spanish supremacy)
- 1599 Oliver Cromwell born
- 1602 James VI of Scotland becomes James I of England and Ireland
- 1607 Jamestown founded, first permanent English settlement on North America
- 1611 King James "Authorized Version" of the Holy Bible published
- 1612 Last recorded burning of heretics in England, continues in Europe
- 1616 Galileo prohibited by Roman Church from further scientific work
- 1619 First Negro slaves arrive in Virginia
- 1620 Pilgrim Fathers draw up "Mayflower Compact" and begin settlement (The Mayflower Compact is one of six Protestant "documents" memorialized in stone at the "Protestant Wall" in Geneva, Switzerland. It firmly planted the Protestant Christian Faith as the foundation of English church and state in the New World).
- 1983 With Public Law 97-280, the U.S. Congress and President declare the Bible to be "the Word of God"; that America was founded on it, and our future depends on it! In Pastor Emry's sermons on Luther he wondered if that could be America's "Augsburg Confession" to bring our Saxon Race out of false religion as the original brought our Saxon forefathers out of the Roman Religion.
