"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; for He has visited and redeemed His people, And raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of His servant David; as He spake by the mouth of His holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember His holy covenant; The oath which He sware to our father Abraham, That He would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve Him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before Him, all the days of our lives." God Almighty said to Gog: "Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land (of Israel), thou, and all thy bands, and many people with thee." Ezekiel 38:9

WARNING ON ALUMINIUM! A Dr John Ray of Wisconsin sells a liquid solution by Enzymes International, Manitowish Waters, Wisconsin, which purportedly provides all necessary minerals in natural form. It is being promoted among the natural health and patriot movement. However, the label shows 2,540 parts per million of ALUMINIUM, which is highly toxic to humans.

Aluminium short circuits the electrical system of the brain and is probably the major cause of senility and "Alzheimer's Disease". (Most Doctors won't tell you that). Many health-minded Americans avoid aluminium cooking utensils and foods canned or cooked in or packaged in aluminium because of that.

We have heard from several people who have taken Ray's liquid minerals for only a few months and began to have memory problems. At this time we do not know if the damage is irreversible, but felt you should be warned.

John Ray is a Jew, and a Jewess by the name of Jo-Ann Baumann is going to Patriotic groups promoting the minerals. BEWARE!

AMERICAN HERITAGE BIBLE CONFERENCE will be held Saturday and Sunday, May 4-5 1985 at Atlanta, Georgia. Write to The Voice of Liberty (Martha Andrews), 692 Sunnybrook Drive, Decatur, Georgia 30033 for the schedule, motels, etc.

WHAT'S NEXT ON GOLD? Gold was over $500 an ounce in early 1983. Gold has dropped steadily in two years to just above $300 an ounce, in spite of the self-appointed experts' predictions of $1,000-$2,000 an ounce by early 1985. (Gary North, a "conservative" gold-predictor, stated in his "Remnant Review" of June 15, 1984, that gold would "approach $500 an ounce by December 1984".)

Those of us who know that International Bankers control gold prices (which North, Ruff and others deny), wonder if the International Bankers may lower it still further to do one of the following:

1. Wipe out the gains of middle-class Americans who bought gold at $400-$700 an ounce in 1981-1982 (at the urging of gold-promoters) and,
2. Hurt the South African economy.

The second reason seems logical in the International Banker/ Communist war against the White Regime of South Africa. Liberal Senator Proxmire (Wis.) is introducing legislation in the Senate to ban the importation and sale of South African Krugersands in the U.S. Such a law would lower South African gold prices, depress their economy, and speed up the overthrow of the White rule; an important goal in the Red plan to destroy the Christian West.

One monetary expert, with whom I tend to agree with on many things, has suggested the Bakers are more likely to run the price down to $100 than up to $1,000 an ounce.

Official 'Lies' Mask Social Security Scheme

Washington
Voltaire said,
"The art of government consists in taking as much money
as possible from one class of citizens to give to another."

And although there's no evidence in 1984 to dispute his observation, he could have made a finer contribution to posterity had he pointed out the technique for such theft: official lies. And nowhere has the art of government taking and official lies been as well-developed as in our Social Security program.

For a long time, Americans were led to believe their Social Security "contributions" were held in a trust fund where they were invested and paid out later. That's a lie. The money paid into Social Security today is immediately doled out to recipients.

The second lie has to do with the word contributions as applied to Social Security. Contribution implies something given voluntarily. What you pay into Social Security is a compulsory tax; failure to pay carries a stiff fine or imprisonment.

The biggest lie, which demonstrates how Congress preys on economic illiteracy, is that the employer and employee each pay half. That is an accounting fiction; you pay the whole thing.

Here's how it works: Suppose your hourly wage is $6.75 and 50 cents is deducted to pay Social Security. Your employer adds another 50 cents an hour. That means the employer is putting out $7.25 an hour for your services. If the employer is to stay in business, you must produce $7.25 an hour worth of goods or services.

You pay the so-called employer's share. This official lie pacifies Americans who are already angry about paying $2,000 a year in Social Security taxes. We could have anti-Social Security riots if people knew they were really paying the whole $4,000.

These lies and others conceal the fact that Social Security is a Ponzi scheme on the verge of collapse. To be successful any good Ponzi scheme requires a ready supply of new participants. Congress' recent inclusion of some federal workers and non-profit organizations has just about exhausted that supply.

People say President Reagan wants to eliminate Social Security. He can't, but Congress can, as pointed out in a Cato Institute study by Peter Ferrara.

A 1960 Supreme Court case, Fleming vs. Nestor, ruled, "To engraft upon the Social Security system a concept of accrued property rights would deprive it of the flexibility and boldness in adjustment to ever-changing conditions which it demands."

That means, as Justice Hugo Black lamented, that Congress has the power to renege on Social Security despite your faithful payment of taxes.

There've been several sound proposals to end our Social Security crisis, but there's a particularly good one for an election year. It is unconstitutional for government to refuse to make good on its debts.

Write your representative in Congress and demand he or she introduce legislation making Social Security the equivalent of a U.S. debt instrument.

They won't do it, but it will be amusing to hear the excuses for not doing so.

GOLD AT $42.20? In 1983, a common carrier lost a shipment of gold for a private citizen. He demanded the then market price, which was over $400 an ounce, as compensation. The insurance company refused. He took them to court. The court ruled that since the "official price" set by the U.S. government is $42.20, then that is all the insurance company had to pay. They paid it.

If the government should "call in" the gold as Roosevelt did, would you also be paid $42.20 an ounce for yours? Probably, since the above U.S. Court has already ruled the "official price" is the "loss payable" price.

If it is called in, those Patriots who "got into" gold at $200 an ounce an up, and whose only savings are gold, could quickly go "into" poverty. Don't say it can't happen. It once did and they could do it again.

In any case, I have not in the past, nor do I now, suggest Christians buy gold, no matter how low it goes. If you want my reasons, mostly from the Bible, get my three tape series, "Should We Put Our Trust in Gold?" (#7418, 7418, 7420 for a $9 offering), and my tape "The Utter Impossibility of Gold-Backed Money" (#8022 for a $3 offering).

THE COSTA RICAN GOLD. In 1981-1982 Nord Davis, Dr R. J. Rudd and others solicited U.S. Patriots to invest in what they said was a gold claim in Costa Rica with enough gold to overthrow the Federal Reserve and the International Bankers and save the world from Communism. They promised them 2 1/2 times their investment back in six months and a part in saving America (I have copies of letters written by Davis from Costa Rica claiming such marvels).

When I first heard of the claims in late 1981, I warned some of the participants that the Bible said that not only would gold not save God's People, but that gold would become worthless as this age closes. (I also told them that if they found that much gold in Costa Rica, the Communist-controlled guerrillas would simply be sent in from neighboring countries to shut them down or take the gold away from them!).

God told end-time Israel, "They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed (margin: uncleanness): their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls (lives), neither fill their bowels (obtain food): because it is the stumbling-block of their iniquity." (Ezekiel 7:19).

ISRAEL'S PROBLEM IS SIN, NOT GOLD. The margin in my Bible says that last phrase in verse 19 above could have been translated, "because their iniquity is their stumbling-block".

That alternate rendering is probably correct, for it fits exactly all the rest of the prophets, i.e. that our captivity under those who hate us is not because we lack gold or silver in our pockets, buried in our yards, or backing our money, but that we are committing iniquity [sin]! God calls for Israel to repent (2Chron. 7:14 and others). He does not tell Israel that if they mine or buy enough gold they can save themselves from captivity!

A number of U.S. Patriots, including several Identity Christians, put up and lost over one million dollars to the Costa Rican promoters. I am afraid others, understanding neither swindlers, International Bankers, nor the Word of God, will continue to try to get gold to save themselves and America. It is an unscriptural hope and can be a very expensive one, as Davis/Rudd/Carrano proved!

YOU NEED WISDOM FROM GOD'S WORD. In 1982, when I warned Identity Christians in my Newsletters about the Costa Rican gold swindle (and other similar schemes I had heard of in which Identity Christians were losing money), I reminded readers of my tapes on gold.

I wish other ministers would do Bible studies on gold, but since they have not, you should at least listen to mine before you are approached again by Davis or someone else with another “sure-fire, save America and get rich at the same time” scheme. If you are still unsure about gold, write for those tapes today and listen to them very attentively.

NORD DAVIS’ LEITERS (copies) urging U.S. Patriots to invest in their Costa Rican gold mine and overthrow the International Bankers are in my file. Some, who know of Davis’ professed anti-communism and patriotism, may not believe Davis could or would have made such wild claims and promises to U.S. Patriots. He did.

Davis was quite upset at my 1982 Newsletters, writing me and his mail list that I didn’t know what I was talking about. My response then was that Davis, by his participation in a swindle that cost U.S. Patriots over one million dollars, had lost all credibility in the Patriot movement. Like Ruff and others, who have spouted Patriotism while costing Patriotic Americans millions with their bad advice, Davis should not be trusted with the money, the property, the secrets, nor the lives of Christian Patriots.

Today, after another two years have gone by, I still stand by that assessment. You may have a copy of his letters claiming massive amounts of gold in Costa Rica by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to me and asking for them. You should read them for yourself. I pray they will help prevent you from falling for future swindles.

FARM CRISIS TO CONTINUE (as planned). Politicians and news media still talk of farm “surpluses” while concealing the truth that U.S. per capita farm production is going down, Unsold U.S. products are not from increasing U.S. production, but from increasing imports.

One example is cotton. Red China’s production went from 15 million bales in 1973 to 25 million in 1984, at least in part because of help from the U.S. rulers in the form of technology, advice and low interest loans to the Reds.

This same thing is happening in scores of countries, not just in agriculture, but in factory production. The U.S. rulers aid and abet other nations to the detriment of U.S. farmers, workers, and small businessmen. It is not an accidental policy, it is deliberate.

PIK PROGRAMS DESIGNED TO HURT U.S. FARMERS. The stated purpose of PIK (Payment In Kind) was to help “reduce U.S. surpluses and raise farm product prices”.

Each one did depress U.S. production of that product (wheat, milk, cotton, etc.) for one or two years, not to help U.S. farmers, but to give alien nations that year or two to step in and take over part of the U.S. and foreign markets for that product. Then, when the U.S. PIK program end and the U.S. farmers go back to producing, the alien nations have already usurped part of that market and the U.S. farmer gets less.

Total U.S. farm income is down ten per cent in the last months. For farmers with high interest on a big debt, that drop could mean he can’t make debt payments. If he tries to “sell out,” he will find few buyers, land prices went down 10% to 50% in the last 5 years, and his machinery may bring only 20 cents on the dollar. The result? Foreclosure for tens of thousands and loss of everything’ including the family home. This is not “just happening.” It is planned that way. PIK is only one program that helped it along.

It is probable not one U.S. farmer in 1,000 suspects knows what is being done to him.

MESSAGES TO THE DEAD? Associated Press sent out several stories in late 1984 about the terminally ill man in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, who offered to take messages to the dead for $20 each. He died December 27th, and thirty people had paid to have messages delivered.

The story brings up some questions:

1. If the common teaching of the churches that people arrive in heaven or hell with memory and the ability to talk and hear is true, why is taking messages so strange?
2. If Ministers believe that, why don’t they all arrange with dying members of their congregation to carry messages to members who are already dead?

That would be a very logical extension of their doctrine, would it not? It would show love and concern for the dead and the living.

If your minister teaches that people go alive to heaven or hell, ask him why he doesn’t do that. Let me know his answer.

DO CLOTHES OR MATERIAL THINGS GO TO HELL? The messages given to the man were written on paper. Shouldn’t the clergy, at least the Baptists, be asked if those pieces of paper go with him to heaven or hell?

As to clothes, the Baptists made a movie on hell which has been shown in thousands of Baptist churches. In it the rich man and Lazarus are shown alive, then later shown in hell and heaven respectively. Lazarus is not in his beggar’s clothes, but is clothed in a white robe. However, the rich man in hell is wearing the same clothes he wore when alive earlier in the movie! The narrator offered no explanation, but as portrayed, his earthly clothes went to hell with him. (1 Corinthians 15:50, 53).

ANOTHER QUESTION: This question carries great import: Why was it that only thirty people were willing to pay $20 to have messages taken to the dead?

The Clergy have tried to convince us for years that most Christians believe people go alive to heaven or hell when they die. Yet only thirty people in Fort Lauderdale were willing to pay to demonstrate that belief!

Add to the above question: Is it possible that deep, deep down in the consciousness of most of our Race is the understanding that the dead are, in fact, dead?

Tens of thousands of Christians must have read that offer, yet only thirty people took the man up on it!

GOD ALMIGHTY SAYS: “The soul that sinneth, it shall die ...the wages of sin is death ...the living know that they shall die, but the dead know not anything ...in that very day his thoughts perish ...there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in sheol whither thou goest ...for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return ...all go unto one place, all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again ...thou takest away their breath, they die, and return to their dust ...Christ is risen from the dead ...the dead shall be raised;”

WILLIAM TYNDALE asked a clergyman who taught souls go to heaven upon death: “If the souls be in heaven, in as great glory as the angels, after your doctrine, shew me what cause should be of the resurrection?” He received no answer, and neither will you when you ask it of any Minister who teaches the dead are alive before the resurrection.

MARTIN LUTHER wrote, “Because in Christ it is indeed not death, but a fine, sweet and brief sleep, which brings us release from this vale of tears ...until the time when He shall call and awaken us together with all his dear children to His eternal glory and joy. For since we call it a sleep, we know that we shall not remain in it, but be again awakened and live, and that the time during which we sleep, shall seem no longer than if we had but just fallen asleep ...” (A Compend of Luther’s Theology, page 242.).

THOU SHALT SURELY DIE (#304) is the title of our ninety-page book which examines the nineteen major Bible passages used by the “dead are alive” preachers. Every Identity Christian should read it. I’ll send you a copy for an offering of $5 to this ministry.

HARE KRISHNA. A 34-year old great-grandson of Henry Ford, Alfred Ford, has been a Hare Krishna adherent for ten years. On December 26, 1984 he married a native of India, Sharmilla Bhattacharya. He said he became a follower of Hare Krishna because, “The Hare Krishna movement seemed the only one to offer a God and a good lifestyle. Everything is used to serve God.”

Don’t blame Alfred or other young Americans who turn to the false religions of Asia. Blame the U.S. clergy who, by their refusal to teach the truth about God and our Race, leave our young people without sail or anchor. Alfred said, “Western culture is like a blind man. India has a great culture but not wealth. This marriage between Indian culture and Western wealth will create the perfect existence.”

Quite obviously he never knew we were Israelites or he would have known America’s wealth came from the God of our Christian Bible because of God’s covenant with our fathers. With that knowledge he would also have known the reason India has no wealth is not because she has “culture”, but because she is not of Israel and because the degrading and destructive non-Christian Hindu religions, including Hare Krishna, destroy inventiveness and independent thought in any man, leaving him at the mercy of other men and the elements .

With that marriage, Alfred Ford will have no Israelite children. Henry Ford’s grandson is only one of tens of thousands of our Saxon-Israel people who are “destroyed for lack of knowledge”.

FALSE CHRISTIANITY, RECRUITING CHURCH FOR HINDUISM? That may seem impossible to some, even though they know many children of churchgoers are turning to eastern religions.

The reason, as stated above, is that false Christianity does not give our children the anchor of the covenants of Israel. They have no real understanding that God Almighty is doing anything in our nation and among our people or that He really is the God of this nation. Their eyes are always pointed to, “the Jews, God’s Chosen People”, leaving them without any certain promise of God’s favor on them.

The constant repetition of, “The Jews refused to accept Jesus, so He turned to us Gentiles”, leaves the young, non-Jew to grow up thinking Jesus is a God to us Gentiles only by accident, that Christianity among non-Jews was un-planned! It is kind of like parents telling a child, “Well, we didn’t want you, we wanted someone else, but since you were born here, I guess we’ll have to let you stay.” What kind of love or confidence toward the “accidental” parent would that create in the child? False Christianity, claiming to speak for God, tells non-Jewish children essentially the same thing. .

In addition, and as bad, is the emphasis of false Christianity on rewards only in a far-off heaven at some future time. That is what Hinduism teaches, but gives a more detailed way of attaining it.

However, even false Christianity’s nebulous heaven becomes dim with the continued bombardment of, “God is the God of the Jews, Jesus was a Jew, the Jews are the Chosen People of the God of the Bible, Christ will rule over the Jews in His Kingdom,” and on and on. The non-Jew sees what seems to be a more certain reward for himself by turning to rituals and works, which is exactly what Hinduism, in its thousand forms, offers. At least those who claim to speak for the Hindu gods do not tell them they are “accidental” and possibly unwanted children!

Hare Krishna, Hinduism, and thousands of Indian “gurus”, offer a way and a method, seemingly, for the devotee to earn a closeness to “god” by doing chants, physical motions, thinking certain thoughts, etc. To many that makes more sense than the, “Well God really wanted those other people, but they didn’t come, so he settled for you” mish-mash dished up by false Christianity.

Alfred Ford, above, apparently had the instinctive desire of most Saxons to learn of God. After growing up in what he thought was Christianity, which taught him that he was only a bystander to the Christian God, and could never hope for the exalted position of the Jews to God, he heard the Indian mythology which told him that he, or anyone else, could be at one with the god, Krishna. The doctrine answered his longing for God, and he fell for it.

May the God of Abraham help us teach Israelites with the Truth that He has chosen them before the foundation of the world, and redeemed them to Him by the Blood of Jesus Christ. Help us tell them they need no other God but the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, the Saviour of Israel, Jesus, the Christ.

REAGAN NEW YEAR’S EVE was again spent with his dear Jewish friends, the Walter Annenbergs, at their “compound” in Palm Springs. Walter’s immigrant father is reputed to have made his fortune in what is called “organized crime” in the 20’s and 30’s. His son Walter went “reputable” with all sorts of newspapers and other publications where his editors can tell the gentiles how to think.

Reagan has been spending New Year’s Eve with Walter and his wife for eighteen years. The UPI report said Ronnie would probably play a round of golf on Walter’s “private course”.

BORDER GUARDS. The U.S. Border Patrol numbers around two thousand. It could be doubled for less than the cost of one F-14 jet fighter a year. Which would benefit America the most, stopping one million illegals, or adding another F-14?

Alien immigrants, ninety-nine percent of whom are non-White, confront the U.S. with two major problems, only one of which is ever discussed by politicians or the media.

1. They take jobs from U.S. citizens. This has been admitted, but the politicians answer apparently is to make them citizens, ending the charge!
2. Most illegals are unmarried males, aged 17-25. It is only natural they soon seek wives. Since fewer unmarried females of their race are coming in, they attempt to date and marry White girls. (They can gain citizenship that way, too.) That problem is never discussed by the media or by the churches which harbor or sponsor them.

AFRICAN FAMINE. The December 24, 1984 U.S. News & World Report published a map of Africa, showing the nations suffering critical food shortages. They were nations where the White Man’s rule has been ended and Negro rule installed. Even Zimbabwe (Rhodesia) was included.

The three page article told of the attempts to feed the starving people, but, like all media, the writer did not point out all help was coming from White nations.

The famine is tragic, and it will almost certainly get worse. However, one would think our White Race should at least learn from this. Why is it that the blacks and the coloreds are “have-not” nations and the White nations are the “advanced” nations? Could it have to do with Race and Religion, the two subjects which are never allowed to enter into any study of the solutions to world problems?

World history has no record of any free White Christian nation suffering from famine. Our young people can't be told that without someone shouting, "Racism!"

ETHIOPIANS COMING IN. On a Christmas day (1984) local newscast, they showed a Christmas party in Scottsdale (our suburb east of Phoenix) to which "seventy refugees from Ethiopia" had been invited!

We were startled, to say the least, as this was the first we had heard of such "refugees" coming to America.

Several were interviewed at the party. They not only showed no sign of starvation, they were all young men and they spoke almost perfect English! Who were they? Could they be soldiers of the Marxist conquerors of Ethiopia, sent here as future guerrillas? Of course they could be. Who would tell us the truth?

Colonel Jack Mohr has stated there is evidence that whole military units of Viet Cong were brought to the U.S. with the Vietnam "refugees" and Cuban-trained revolutionists are coming in with the refugees from Central America and are moving into all major U.S. cities. Since the Red Bolsheviks make no secret they intend to conquer America, is it not logical the Reds would use other calamities to sneak in soldiers disguised as refugees for the future war against America? Of course it is logical, but if you say it publicly, the news media will call you a "right-wing extremist crackpot" and infer you are a "danger to America!" Whose side is the media on anyway, ours or the Reds?

You can understand why Pastor Emry says the "Star Wars" approach to defense is ridiculous while we allow millions of non-Christian, non-Whites entry. They won't have to blast us out; they'll just vote us out!

THE U.S DOOR IS NOW WIDE OPEN. In December, 1984, the Ninth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals ruled that a Salvadoran immigrant who claimed he was "neutral" as to siding with the government or the guerrillas in El Salvador was eligible for "political-asylum".

The Appeals Court ruled neither he nor others have to offer any proof they are in danger, they have only to state they have been "threatened".

Peter Schey, director for the National Center for Immigrant's Rights, Inc. (an American Jew who loves aliens?), said of the ruling, "It establishes for the first time that a political-asylum applicant need not be a partisan on either side of a civil war in order to obtain refugee status." In plain words, he just needs to ask!

Previously, applicants had to be in some danger of injury or arrest by one side or the other to ask for and be granted political asylum and allowed to remain indefinitely in the U.S.

MAYBE THE DOOR HAS BEEN TAKEN OFF?

What that ruling does is open the door for permanent residency in the U.S. to any person now living in a country where a bomb or bombs have gone off or where people have been shot by other people in the name of "resistance" to the government!

No dangerous fighting need take place, no arrest or imprisonment of citizens to constitute oppression, just the statement by an individual that he doesn't want to "take sides" in his country and wants "political asylum!"

Here are some who can now gain permanent residency in the U.S.: Afghans, Lebanese, Syrians, Iranians, Iraqis, Poles, (maybe all of Eastern Europe), the Irish (the whole country could come), Ethiopians, Zimbabweans, I guess really all 150 million Negroes threatened with famine in Negro-ruled African countries, all 600 million Asians, especially all Sikhs and Hindus of India where the top official, a Hindu, was recently assassinated by a Sikh, and a lot of people don't want to "take sides", all South Americans definitely, all Central Americans, no question. Any I missed? You can add them.

If you think the non-White immigration has been something in the last ten years, wait for the next ten!

WILL ENGLISH BE UN-AMERICAN? Over 25 million U.S. residents (1/8th) use a language other than English to communicate and the number is increasing. See above if you want to guess about 2000 A.D.

SHAME ON BILLY GRAHAM was the headline on the article below sent to us in the mail:

Billy Graham, the David Rockefeller of evangelical Christianity, ought to be ashamed of himself.

Speaking in Moscow the other day, the man who once gloried in being Richard Nixon's favorite preacher admonished his listeners "to obey the authorities", and studiously avoided any mention of the gross violations of human and religious rights that is the bitter communion wine of some 40 million Russian Christians.

When a young woman unfurled a banner in the capital's only Baptist Church, pointing out that "more than 150" of Graham's fellow Baptists have been imprisoned for propagating the faith, Graham ignored her. She was whisked away by the secret police.

The Washington Post quoted a Graham aide as saying the evangelist did not want to offend his Russian hosts because "he wanted to develop this relationship." Just so.

Billy Graham's "ministry" raked in nearly $30 million in 1980, a jump of $10.5 million over 1979. Although his religious business has a net worth of $25 million, the Reverend gravely announced in August 1981 that he was facing a "financial emergency" and wrote his donors, "We desperately need your daily prayer and the most generous gift you can send ..."

We might add the question: Would Billy Graham go to hell to speak of Jesus to the devil and his angels and tell the poor sufferers there to "obey the authorities over hell?"

He just did that!

BILLY GRAHAM'S BOOKS APPROVED BY THE REDS. The insert below is from Graham's January, 1985 DECISION magazine. He wrote that in his report from Russia to impress his supporters (which most will be), but if true, it is an admission and proof that Graham's books contain nothing objectionable to the Red anti-Christians who rule Russia!

It was the evangelist's first visit to Leningrad, but he was no stranger to many in the church, as elsewhere in the U.S.S.R., his books "Peace With God" and "The Holy Spirit" are used in nurture programs among new believers. Many of his books have been translated into Russian and are circulating among church members. Some of his books are available in several minority languages as well. Additionally, "The Hour of Decision" short-wave broadcast in Russian has been airing across the U.S.S.R. for two years.

I wonder how many of Graham's followers still retain the mental ability to wonder why the Reds will imprison or even kill those who distribute God's Words (the Bible), but actually publish and distribute Graham's words?

BILLY GRAHAM SELDOM MENTIONS RED ATROCITIES. Graham's reports on the U.S.S.R. and other Communist countries leaves young U.S. listeners with the impression that communist countries have a peaceful and orderly society.

He makes no mention of slave camps, of sixty million Christians killed by the Bolsheviks, of the Red network of subversion permeating all Christian nations, nor of their oft-stated hatred of Jesus Christ, nor of their goal of wiping Christianity from the face of the earth.

Certainly Graham is approved by the Reds. His books never expose their evil. Would Christians be anti-religious if they wondered how much in royalties the Reds pay Graham for his books they print and distribute to their captive people?

HEAR REV. LESLIE MILLIN. After reading the above, you should order our two tapes by Millin. Leslie was in China for twenty years before the Red takeover and he says it was the Christian missionaries who "prepared the Chinese to think there was nothing really wrong with Communism."

By their false teachings, they prevented the Chinese people from opposing the communist takeover.

The father of Billy Graham's wife was one of those missionaries in China during that time. Is that what Billy Graham is doing in America?

Send a $5 offering and ask for the cassettes of Rev. Millin. (#20 & #21) You'll never look at Billy Graham or many other American clergymen the same way again!

RUSSIAN WORLD WAR II DEATHS AND LENINGRAD. In my December, 1984 Newsletter, I rebuked Billy Graham for repeating, while in Moscow, the communist claim that "the West" was responsible for the deaths of twenty million Soviet citizens in World War II.

I said the Germans probably killed less than two million in war and that the Bolshevik (Communist) Party then killed the other eighteen million Russian citizens in their continuing war for control of the largely non-communist populace. (Remember, the Reds had already killed upwards of 30-40 million people in "peacetime" between 1918 and 1941 before the Germans attacked Russia, accounting for the reason millions of Russians met the Germans as "liberators" and volunteered into the German Army.)

Some questioned my conclusions, so here are some added verifying reasons why I think possibly ninety percent of the Soviet citizens who died in WWII were killed by the Reds.

In the Red's own account of the one-thousand-day siege of Leningrad (then called Stalingrad), although filled with pro-communist propaganda, they do claim only one half million deaths of Russian soldiers and civilians at Leningrad. (Billy Graham put a wreath on a Red memorial at Leningrad for those who died there in WWII!)

The two year and eight month battle at Leningrad was the largest and fiercest of the German-Soviet war, accounting for over one-half of all German casualties on the Russian front. Because it was such a large part of the German vs. Communist Russian war, it would certainly have accounted also for a very large percentage of all Russian casualties. If so, the 550,000 Russian dead at Leningrad helps the lie to the Red's claim (repeated by Graham) that the Germans were responsible for "the deaths of twenty million Russians in World War II.

An American source of information on the siege of Leningrad is the Reader's Digest, which sometime in the 1950's (someone send me a copy if you have it), carried a condensation of its editor's book on the siege of Leningrad.

In the book, the author told how Stalin gave the order that no one, soldier or civilian, man or woman, adult or child, was to leave Leningrad without permission of the Communist Party. Leningrad contained vital war industries, which Stalin knew he had to continue to operate else all Russia would be lost by the Reds. In addition, if you will look at a map of Europe, you will see Leningrad protected Russia's seaport on the gulf of Finland (Baltic Sea), her only seaport between the Black Sea and Murmansk (Murmansk is frozen over most of the year). If the Germans conquered Leningrad, they could use that to bring in German troops and munitions directly into northern Russia by sea.

If that happened, the new German land forces and fighter planes would threaten Murmansk in the north, where all the supplies from the pro-Reds in Washington, D.C. were coming in. Remember, by then the Germans had "blitzkrieged" across the north side of the Black Sea and had cut off all help to the Reds from southern ports.

It is easy to see the Red Bolsheviks dared not lose Leningrad or the Germans would close Murmansk and sweep the Reds from all Russia, so almost all the Red war effort was moved to and concentrated from Moscow to Leningrad. Stalin ordered the Red Army in the south to carry out a "scorched earth policy", burn all buildings, crops, gardens, and fruit trees, kill or transport north all cattle, retreat north and let the Germans have the Ukraine. The Germans inherited millions of destitute and starving Russians in eastern and southern Russia, whom they, unlike the Reds, tried to feed and keep alive, further hampering their war against the Reds, just as Stalin knew it would.

They could not save all of them; hundreds of thousands did die, adding to the "twenty million Russians that died in WWII" through no real fault of the Germans.

Stalin's order was to concentrate all Red efforts to hold Leningrad no matter how many Russian soldiers and civilians died in the process. The Germans knew what the Reds knew, Leningrad was vital, so they concentrated their forces in the north.

Within weeks, the Germans controlled three sides of Leningrad and part of its suburbs. To enforce Stalin's order, and so save Leningrad, the Communist Party set up special artillery and machine gun positions in the rear of the fourth side and simply shot any Russian civilians or soldiers attempting to flee Leningrad.

Then, many Mongolian troops were brought into the Leningrad defense as Stalin could not trust the Slavs and Caucasians not to surrender to the Germans. During the fierce Russian winter, when German tanks would not start, German fighters could not fly, and artillery pieces would hardly function, they were able to completely encircle the city with the Germans isolated from their main army and supplied only by air drops.

The Communist Party continued enforcing Stalin's order. Special communist units functioned in and among the regular Red Army, units whose only mission was the on-the-spot execution of any Soviet soldier or citizen who did not stay and fight in Leningrad.

Although the author of the book had no certain figures, it was obvious from the account that many of the half million Russian citizens who died at Leningrad were killed by those special Communist Party units. By such brutality against her own citizens, and the increasing supplies from the U.S. to Murmansk by ship, and by plane from Fargo, N.D. via Alaska and Vladivostok, the Reds saved Leningrad.

(For the story of the supplies flown from Fargo, even including the blueprints of all U.S. factories and government buildings given to the Reds, read "Major Jordan's Diary" by Major George (Racey) Jordon, who commanded the North Dakota air base.)

Other sources have verified that murder of Russians by the Reds was common practice on all the Russian fronts from 1942 and on. Any soldier or civilian recaptured from the Germans or found fleeing east from the battle front was shot or sent to slave camps by these special Communist Party units.

John Noble, the American who spent nine years as a Red prisoner, wrote in his book, "I Was a Slave in Russia", he saw many young Russian men and women in the slave camps who had surrendered to the Germans and were later recaptured by the Reds.

The overall command of those special Red units had a very descriptive name. It was called, quite correctly, "The Holding Army". It was equipped with all the best U.S. military vehicles and guns. The Russian deaths from their actions would probably have far exceeded those who died in actual combat with Germans.

The Red butchers, who never shed a tear as they murdered 30-40 million Russians in the previous thirteen years, would hardly have stayed their hand from murdering additional millions of Russians to force them to fight the Germans from 1941 through 1944.

I stand by my estimate, that if twenty million Russians did die from 1941 to mid-1945 that the Red Communist Party and its U.S. equipped, "The Holding Army", killed at least eighteen million of them.

Shame on Billy Graham for going to the Soviet Union, the headquarters of the greatest enemy Christendom has ever faced, and perhaps the most malevolent force that has ever existed upon the earth, and repeating to Christendom, the propaganda of that mortal enemy!

CAPTURED GERMAN SOLDIERS NEVER RELEASED BY THE REDS. After over two years, the main German Army was forced to retreat from the north of Russia, leaving around 400,000 German troops inside Leningrad and its suburbs to the Reds. They were disarmed and marched on foot east toward Siberia never to return. In 1944 and 1945, U.S. newspapers and magazines published Soviet pictures of those German soldiers stretched out for miles over the snow-covered tundra, marching east. This was done to show the dumb Americans how our "gallant allies, the communists", had captured the terrible and hated Nazis.

RED WAR CRIMES CONCEALED FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE. Later, when it became obvious the Reds were not going to release those German soldiers after World War II, all news of the 400,000 disappeared from American publications. To this day, neither the pro-communist U.S. news media, the U.S. politicians, nor the American clergy, have ever told the American public that those 400,000 Germans were shot, or worked out their lives in the slave camps of Siberia, mining coal or cutting timber for the noble Reds. Another of the multiplied tens of thousands of Red "war crimes" of World War II was concealed from the American sheep.

Many of the U.S. soldiers unaccounted for from Vietnam probably died in those same slave camps. They didn't tell us that either, but they have, however, told us, for years without end, of the evil and degenerate Germans!

OTHER RED CRIMES CONCEALED. Although that Reader's Digest book on the siege of Leningrad did reveal how the Communist Party summarily executed both Russian soldier and civilian alike at Leningrad, that was about the only U.S. publication that ever wrote of those "war crimes" of the Reds against their own people.

The concealment of that, and the concealment by all major U.S. news media (and politicians and clergy) of similar communist war crimes against soldiers and civilians in all of Eastern Europe as the Germans retreated through Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Yugoslavia, Austria and eastern Germany has, to this day, kept the American people from understanding the true nature of the Beast, Red Bolshevism.

RED RAPE ALSO CONCEALED. The rape of females in captured territories was a common practice of the Red Army, urged upon them by the Communist Party units that accompanied them. Ilya Ehrenberg, a Russian Jew, was the Red "Minister of Propaganda". As the Red Army moved west, he had printed and broadcast daily over loudspeakers the following, or similar commands, to the Red troops, many of them Mongols: "Kill every German soldier, rape every German woman; leave a Soviet baby in every German womb."

Ryan's "The Last Battle", page 27, quotes one day's order from Ehrenberg, "Kill! In Germany nothing is guiltless, neither the living, nor the yet unborn (my emphasis, Ed). Smash the Fascist beast in his lair. Use force to break the racial pride of these Germanic women. Kill, you gallant Red Soldiers!"

Ehrenberg was awarded Stalin's highest medal for his work with the Red Army and was buried in Red Square when he died a few years ago. No Western newspaper that I know of ever called this Jew "a war criminal".

100,000 RAPED IN ONE CITY. It was later estimated by European authorities that as many as 100,000 women were raped in Vienna alone, with the total in all of Eastern Europe probably reaching upward of two million women, including little girls from six to old women in their 80's! Most that resisted were killed and many committed suicide. Often the Reds rounded up all the young women and forced them to live in the houses and other buildings commandeered for the Red troops, preparing their food, cleaning the buildings, and being raped repeatedly until they were released or died.

Many young and middle-aged women took poison or disfigured their own faces in the hopes they would be repugnant to the Red soldiers. Nothing like this mass rape ever occurred before in the history of the world, yet this has been concealed from the American people by our pro-Red news media, politicians, or clergy, even to this day. It was certainly never mentioned at Nuremberg!

For a glimpse of some of this horror, write me for a free copy of "Ravishing the Women of Conquered Europe" #488.

GERMANS NEVER ACCUSED OF RAPE! A very significant adjunct to that Red rape was that at the Nuremberg "war crimes" trials where thousands of German officers and soldiers were accused and "convicted" of all sorts of "atrocities" not one German soldier was ever accused of rape! However, Americans, by the end of World War II, were already so brainwashed that they never wondered at the incongruity of the Germans purportedly committing unspeakable cruelties against civilians, but never committing rape!

European acquaintances, upon my asking, have told me that in both World War I and World War II, any German soldier who raped a woman was immediately executed. Rape by German soldiers was almost unknown. Apparently those who staged the Nuremberg trials feared to bring any charges of rape against a few Germans lest they open the door to tens of thousands of accusations of rape against Red soldiers. They protected the Reds.

In spite of these facts, for almost fifty years, beginning in the 1930's, Jewish-made movies, newspapers, magazines, and since 1950, TV shows, repeatedly and endlessly portray German WWII soldiers brutally mistreating and raping women in captured countries!

Do you understand why many of us now no longer believe half the Jewish and Red-generated stories of "German war crimes"? The reaction of the people of Eastern Europe to the Germans, and logic, tells us most of the "war crimes" of which the Germans were accused never took place.

A LATVIAN'S TESTIMONY. In the 1950's I became quite well acquainted with a Latvian couple who had lived under the Red occupation after 1939, then under the Germans from 1941 until 1944. They then fled west with the Germans before the Red Army in 1944. One time at their home a friend of mine asked them, "How would you compare the treatment of the civilians by the German soldiers with that of Russian soldiers?" John first reminded us he had also lived under the American occupation troops in West Germany, then answered, "The German soldiers were the most Christian of all soldiers in Europe in World War II."

For two hours he explained the difference between the Russian occupation of Latvia and the German occupation. To this day I regret his story was not recorded on tape. John described life under the Reds as oppression and terror. When the Germans drove the Reds east, prisoners were released, properties the Reds had confiscated from their owners was returned, the previous Latvian government was restored, and life was "almost normal". Naturally, when the Germans were forced to retreat, many Latvians, and other Eastern Europeans, fled west with them.

Later, after the U.S. government began to extradite people of European or German extraction back to their native countries (now under Red control), John refused to talk of his life under either the Reds or the Germans because of fear of retaliation by Reds in America or of deportation to Latvia by the pro-Red U.S. government; that fear is the reason very few of the several hundred thousand non-communist refugees from Eastern Europe who came to America after WWII will ever speak out against communism. They fear reprisals here or deportation.

WHY DON'T AMERICANS ASK: "Why did Eastern Europeans prefer the Germans over the Reds?" Because the number was so huge, Americans did hear that literally millions of eastern Europeans (like John and his wife above) tried to flee west with the retreating German Army, obviously preferring them to the Reds. Most didn't make it, but even after the War they continued to flee west in such numbers the Reds built the Berlin Wall and a barbed wired, mined and machine-gun-swept no-man's-land from the Baltic to the Adriatic. It is still there.

Yet even to this day, because they have been subject to lifelong, overwhelming, and continuous false propaganda about how terrible the Germans were in WWII, and have heard little or nothing of Red cruelty, few Americans have common sense enough to realize that, to the Eastern European peoples, the Army of brutality and terror was quite obviously the Red Army, and the Army of liberation was the German Army!

In all of World War II, the Germans never had to build a wall or kill Europeans to keep them from fleeing Europe. Yet today, if asked, ninety percent of the Americans would say, "Oh, the Germans were the most brutal conquerors of all of history!" Such is the power of propaganda,

Even the fact that the Reds still have to kill Eastern Europeans to keep them from trying to get away to Germany, still does not awaken the intelligence of the average American enough so he will ask the question: "If the Germans were as cruel as the Jewish movies portray them, how come Eastern Europeans still today prefer the Germans over the Reds?"

THE RED ARMY - A U.S. ARMY? During his story, John was quite bitter as he told how the Red Army, coming back to reconquer his native Latvia and drive the Germans out, was fighting with U.S. jeeps, trucks, tanks, airplanes, artillery, rockets, rifles, and ammunition. Even their walkie-talkies, field kitchens, food, and field hospitals were "made in America". It was totally equipped by the Roosevelt-Democrat controlled United States! The Red Army of Russia would not have existed by 1944 except our American fathers and our grandfathers supplied it and even paid its soldier's salaries!

All of America should have been asked in 1941 (and still today), "Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the Lord? Therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord." (2 Chronicles 19:2). Germany was fighting, almost single-handedly, for Christian civilization against the Red anti-Christ, and few Americans knew it then. Perhaps fewer still know it today.

THE STORIES YOU HAVE JUST READ ARE TRUE. Other eastern Europeans I have met since WWII, and Americans who were there, have verified to me the general information as I have given it here.

WE STILL EQUIP THE REDS. After WWII, the U.S. quit sending military equipment directly to the Reds, but instead sent them other aid and even built truck and engine factories in Russia so they could build their own, tanks, planes and trucks. And, of course, the U.S. turned over to them all of Eastern Europe (even East Germany) with its agriculture, mines and industrial wealth. In the east, after Japan surrendered, Truman gave Stalin all of Manchuria, which was the industrial center of China, and turned over all surrendered Japanese military arms and supplies in China to the Reds.

All Presidents since WWII, including the present one, send all Red anti-Christ rulers our latest technology, computers, grain, and God knows what else. Is this not proof our Presidents are ruled by "that great city which reigneth over the kings of the earth?" (Revelation 17:18)

CAN WE BLAME THE CLERGY? Yes. Now, did you take my advice in December to write Pastor Karl Schott for his November 1984 "Pathfinder" with his article, "Communist Ministers?"

If not, don't delay another minute; write him at PO Box 291, Spokane, Wash 99210 today. You can't understand America in the 20th century until you understand the massive Red infiltration of the Christian church.

May the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob bless you and yours, in Jesus Christ, BREAKFAST JUICE. A breakfast juice rich in all thirteen B vitamins plus Niacin is made with two cups tomato, or vegetable juice, and one or two teaspoons nutritional, or Brewer's yeast, Kelp powder, powdered vitamin C, or crushed dehydrated vegetable flakes are optional. Simply process the ingredients in a blender until smooth. Brewer's yeast also provides chromium, which prevents low blood sugar.

CANCER. Cancer has become the greatest cause of death among children. Some children are now being born with cancer. There will be more. Smoking is not the only cause. Chlorination of water is responsible for many of the 400,000 who die yearly from cancer in the U.S. The American housewife needs to know that she no longer has to be satisfied with the carcinogenic liquid that is piped to her house as pure water. It would cost too much to purify all the water that comes into your house. It would be uneconomical. But it is possible, economical and practical to purify the water you and your family drink. Foetuses used for perfumes, says MP

From a correspondent in Brussels

RUMOURS that human foetuses are being used by French researchers and beauticians for unguents and perfumes should be investigated immediately, says a Conservative British MP, Mr John Marshall.

He asked the European Commission to create an officially listed trade category for the sale of living or dead foetuses do the EEC bureaucracy could regulate what is suspected to be a growing trade in what some shipping documents refer to coyly as "birth wastage".

Mr Marshall, who is advisor to the Society for the Protection of the Unborn Child, said: "This should pin-point quite quickly whether this trade is going on or not. This trade is revolting and there is wide concern that it is going on particularly in France.

In an article last year, a magistrate at the French Ministry of Justice, Mr Claude Jacquinot, claimed the foetal tissue bank at the Royal Marsden Hospital in London provided material for French researchers and beauticians. Human foetuses were cheaper and easier to obtain than calf foetuses which were used for this in the past.

A Conservative Member of the British Parliament, Sir Bernard Braine, was told in answer to a written question in the Commons last year that this had been denied by the hospital. But Mr Jacquinot insists the rumour is true.

The French magistrate claims the trade is increasing, particularly between France and Britain, with many of the foetuses used in France also coming from Hungary, Czechoslovakia and East Germany via Switzerland.

There is also evidence of the growing use of foetuses in medical research, with work being done on grafts made from the liver cells of the pancreas taken from them. In the United States, work using foetuses of between 12 and 21 weeks has been done using their decapitated heads.

Questions to the commission in recent weeks inquiring about the trade have produced no more than a sterile answer: "The commission has not studied the information referred to by the honourable members and is not on a position to propose any specific initiative at the present time."

UK test-tube baby Bill

(The Times)

LONDON: The British Government is expected to introduce legislation in the next session of Parliament to implement the main recommendations of the Warnock Committee on controls over developments in test-tube baby research.

But in an important departure from precedent, ministers are likely to recommend that MP's be given a free vote at all stages of the Bill's progress in recognition of the issues in almost all the Warnock Report's proposals.

The report proposed that statutory authority should license test-tube research and treatment, the banning of surrogate motherhood agencies, and the limitation of research on human embryos up to the age of 14 days.

A separate Bill to outlaw surrogate agencies is also being drafted.

The Government's intention to legislate on the Warnock Report will be announced on February 15 when Mr Enoch Powell's Bill to ban experiments on all human embryos comes up for a second reading in the House of Commons.

The view inside the Department of Health is that such experiments are much needed in research.

The Warnock Report was seen as effectively backing existing test-tube baby research and treatment, including the freezing of embryos, and donation of eggs, semen and embryos to infertile couples.

What was it that God said: "But it shall come to pass, if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of the Lord thy God, to observe to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day that all these curses shall come upon thee and overtake thee: The Lord shall smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and with the emerods, and with the scab, and with the itch whereof thou canst not be healed." (Deuteronomy 28).

However, let us not forget these words: "Blessed be the Lord God of ISRAEL; for he hath visited and redeemed HIS people, and hath raised up an horn of salvation for US in the house of his servant David; As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began: That WE should be saved from OUR enemies, and from the hand of all that hate US; to perform the mercy promised to OUR fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which he aware to OUR father Abraham, That he would grant unto US that WE being delivered out of the hand of OUR enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life." (Luke 1 :68-75) (emphasis mine HR).

HEALTHY HEART. The human heart beats slightly more than once a second; three million times per year and forty million times in seventy years. The most beneficial herbs for a healthy heart are hawthorn and rosemary. (ACRES U.S.A.).

SEIZURE PROTESTED. (The Spotlight 300 Independence Ave, Washington D.C. 20003, October 29, 1984) The Library Association of Alberta has condemned the seizure of a book characterized by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police as "anti-Semitic". According to the association, scholars have a right to debate the material.

The book, "The Hoax of the Twentieth Century" by Prof. Arthur Butz, was seized when brought into the country by Col. Jack Mohr (The Spotlight, September 24, and others). "The book ...raises some very controversial questions, which scholars should tackle," said Association President Vincent Richards. "Thank goodness the legal process still exists to get the matter into court if necessary."

TREND. Micah 4:10 tells us "For now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the Lord shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies."

Now relate this to the following from The Spotlight: According to a recent demographic study of the 1980 census, "minority" group members now make up a majority in 25 of the largest cities in the United States.

Some examples: "Minorities" in Los Angeles make up 52 percent of the population, compared with 37 percent in 1970. In Chicago, 51 per cent of the population are from "minority" groups, up from 41 percent. Detroit is 67 percent "minority". It's up from 46 percent.

The percentage of "minority" population has increased in almost every American city since 1970.

TRAVELLER ALERT. Both the U.S. Embassy in Mexico and the American Automobile Association have issued warnings to American visitor's to avoid travel on four Mexican highways. The cause for concern is a growing number of incidents of American tourists being attacked, robbed and murdered by bandits along certain stretches of highways I-15, I-57 and I-40 in north western Mexico and I-185 in southern Mexico.

CITY OF TORRANCE BEING SUED IN REACTION TO JULY 4th ARSON. Reacting to the July 4th gutting of its former headquarters by arson, the Institute of Historical Review (IHR) has filed suit against the city of Torrance, California. The fire - set, according to police, by persons unknown - destroyed at least $400,000 worth of history books, office equipment, furniture, manuscripts and files. Three previous arson attempts failed. After one arson attempt on April 25, 1982, a group calling itself the Jewish Defenders took credit for the act.

After the fire of July 4, 1984, Irv Rubin, head of the Jewish Defense League, disclaimed responsibility but said that he and his group were pleased. The IHR has been criticized by many Jewish groups and others for publishing material denying that the Nazis deliberately gassed six million Jews to death. Twice the Institute has offered $50,000 rewards to anyone who could prove this happened.

OCCULT PRINCE. Deuteronomy 18:10-12 tells us: "There shall not be found among you anyone that maketh his son or daughter to pass through the fire, or that useth divination, or an observer of times, or an enchanter or a witch, or a charmer, or a consulter with familiar spirits, or a wizard, or a necromancer. For all that do these things are an abomination to the Lord."

In the Adelaide Advertiser of January 8, 1985 we find this article:

Spiritually Speaking Charlie is a "Worry" for Diana

LONDON, MONDAY: Prince Charles has become obsessed with the occult and is beginning to worry Princess Diana, according to a report here. The Prince, who tries to contact the dead using an Ouija board, is pushing for a parapsychology department to be established at the University of Wales where he is chancellor and is urging the British Medical Association to take more interest in the paranormal.

The Sun newspaper said today that the Prince's fascination with spiritualism became serious after the death of Lord Mountbatten, his beloved Great Uncle Dickie, in 1979. Since then, contacting Lord Mountbatten has become one of his chief aims, and Kensington Palace has become "almost like a shrine" to his uncle, according to friends. "Every room contains some sort of memorial to him," said one. "It's actually a bit weird."

Tom Johnson, editor of the Spiritualist Gazette, said Charles had told Diana that he strongly sensed Lord Mountbatten's presence. "Unfortunately, the subject of the paranormal terrifies the life out of Diana," Mr Johnson said, "She refuses to join in Charles's dabbling." A friend of the Princess said: "Diana certainly doesn't like it when Charles uses the Ouija board. There are some things she just can't cope with."

It is believed the Prince inherited his mysticism from his mother, and that his interest in spiritual healing was prompted by his second cousin, Princess Alexandra. When she told him how her husband was cured of back pains by a faith healer in Kenya, Prince Charles was so intrigued that he went on a trip to Ghana with his old friend and teacher, Sir Laurens van der Post. "It was a mystical experience for Charles," said Sir Laurens, who is Prince William's godfather. "Suddenly this great hunger of which he'd been unconscious all his life, flared up."

But while Diana worries, and the rest of his family is concerned that Charles might be regarded as odd, he remains unshakeable in his spiritual beliefs, the Sun said. Charles has said: "People often remain silent about what they really think, in case everyone should think they are mad. But when someone in my position says: 'I think there is something in that', many people who have remained silent admit to feeling the same way."

The book of Revelation tells us what will become of people who do such things: "But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death." Revelation 21:8.

Of course this whole line of thinking about contacting the dead has come about through the erroneous teaching of the clergy about a so-called "immortal" soul. They have stated for so long "it is only the body that dies, but the real you, your "immortal" soul goes right on living, in Heaven or hell".

However Ezekiel tells us in Ezekiel 18:4, 20 the exact opposite, in that "the soul that sinneth, it shall die". The dead rest in the grave until the resurrection. And if our people had been taught that, there would be no thought of trying to contact the dead.

We Have Won, Says Tutu

OSLO: Bishop Desmond Tutu, in Oslo to collect the 1984 Nobel Peace Prize proclaimed "There is no hope" for white South Africans unless they join in the destruction of apartheid.

"They have lost. We have won," said the black head of the South African Council of Churches. "We are on the winning side, and we are being nice to them in saying: 'Join the winning side, otherwise, you will be stamped-ed.'"

"We are saying: 'Please, we don't want to drive you into the sea. Be with us, in this new kind of society.' That is a plea, really." Bishop Tutu called for the Pretoria Government to realise that he "is not an ogre ...in fact, the South African Council of Churches is the one that is standing-between South Africa and disaster."

The Anglican Bishop flew to Oslo from London, where he preached at Canterbury Cathedral following a trip from the U.S. In the U.S. he met President Reagan to discuss the South African cleric's strong public criticism of Mr Reagan's South Africa policies.

Here again we see the clerics and churches at work to further the cause of Communism, and destroy the teachings of God's Word, which forbids interracial marriage, and commands separation of the races.

UNITING CATHOLIC CHURCHES. After 450 years of formal separation of the Church of England from the Roman Catholic Church, how long will it be now before they are reunited? It appears from an article in the Sydney Morning Herald (December 19 1984) that "The prayer books now used by the Anglican, Roman Catholic and Uniting Churches are virtually interchangeable.

"Travelling Together" contains samples from the first two of these that will surprise many readers, making the path to union that much smoother." How can Bible-believing Christians remain in a church that gave a "tumultuous welcome to Pope John Paul at Canterbury Cathedral"?"

Obviously, there is only one thing to do: "Come out of her my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues." Revelation 18:4.

DEBTOR NATIONS ARE BETWEEN A ROCK AND A HARD PLACE. By Richard Hoskins (The Spotlight October 29 1984). A lesson for a defaulter: In 1931 the worldwide depression worsened and Germany defaulted on her debts. No more payments. If one country can walk away from its debts, all countries can walk away from their debts. This set a bad precedent. From this time, the world's news services were full of condemnation for the defaulting nation.

In 1936 the United States increased duties against Germany by 22.56 percent. Germany retaliated by refusing to borrow from the international bankers for any reason and engaged in barter to facilitate international trade. Without debt, German trade with the rest of the world boomed.

The newspapers called it the "German Miracle". Third world nations clamored to be let in on the action. The banks stagnated, and then gathered to plan their next move. In 1939 Germany invaded Poland and took half of that country to get back land taken by the Versailles Treaty.

French Right mounts crusade over film about Virgin Mary

From PHILIP BROOKS in Paris

"It's a religious war!" thunders Maître Wallerand Saint-Juste, lawyer for the conservative Catholic groups who saw their attempt to ban Jean-Luc Godard's latest film, Je Vous Salue, Marie ("Hail, Mary") defeated last week in the Paris courts.

And to prove it, a group of more than 20 ultra-right-wing demonstrators staged a raid on Thursday on one of the cinemas where the film is showing, the Pagoda, former site of the Chinese Embassy, in Paris' plush Seventh Arrondissement.

Singing the Magnificat and other hymns, the demonstrators broke the theatre's glass doors, terrorised patrons and were finally expelled after an hour by the police.

The anger of Catholic groups and rightist politicians against Godard's film – a 1985 version of the Immaculate Conception, in which a frequently nude Mary is a service station attendant and Joseph a taxi driver – has mounted in the wake of a January 28 decision by the president of the Paris Civil Tribunal, Mr Pierre Drai, to end the ban on the film imposed by the municipal authorities of Versailles on January 23.

The Court also rejected demands by two Catholic groups – the National Confederation of Associations of Catholic Families, and the Alliance for the Respect of French-Christian Identity – to excise from the film scenes which depict Mary's private parts being touched by her husband and her doctor.

But the press has had a field-day since the banning of the film in Versailles, and the two weeks of unrelenting publicity that followed the protest, have made a success out of an obscure, one-hour art film, filled as much with Godard's arcane word play, as with the sight of the Blessed Virgin's naked breasts.

"It's unhelped for," said Godard's press secretary, Mr Claude Dazy. "We've had to add extra theatres."

Not only are the cinemas packed to overflowing by long queues of mostly under-40 filmgoers, but the judicial order lifting the banning, of the film shocked broke new legal ground in defining the rights of filmmakers and other artists to show their work here without censorship.

The seizing, or interdiction of such works, said Judge Drai, can only take place if they contain "an apology for crimes or misdemeanours punished by penal law or a provocation to commit them," or if there is an infringement of the right of privacy.

Reacting to the court's, decision the head of the Alliance for French Christian Identity; with the apt name of Bernard Romain – "like the Blessed Virgin" – he notes proudly – promised continued protests.

"The intelligentsia currently in power has as their goal to scoff at all that is Christian in our country. This film injures, blasphemes, and tramples on my religion," he says, even though he admits he has not seen the film.

A deputy of the European Parliament elected on the ticket of the ultra-right-wing (some say neo-fascist), National Front Party of Jean Marcelo-Pen, Mr Marie, (who adds that his daughters are all named after the mother of Christ: Marie Genevieve, Marie Cecile, Marie Claudile, and Marie Benedicte) snarls that "Godard is one of those filmmakers who think they're geniuses but who are only capable of reproducing their own morbid, and scatological thoughts. He's a hoodlum of the screen."

Of the two, it's not Godard who's the sick one," replies Toscan Du Plantier, chairman of the giant French distributor Gaumont, which is handling the film. "We are not going to give in to these extremist minority groups. We showed the film to representatives of the Catholic hierarchy in Paris before releasing it, and even though they didn't care for it they found it a rather too modern interpretation, they certainly didn't consider it anti-Catholic. This is clearly a question of freedom of expression, and that is what the courts have decided."

Mr Marie's lawyer, Maitre Saint-Juste, has at least seen the film he took to court, and says of it: "I was shocked but not astonished, knowing Godard. Malraux said the 20th century would be a religious century or it wouldn't be. The cultural policy in France today is do as much harm as possible to believers. Destroy the family and religion and it's the communists who will take power – I didn't say that, Lenin did."

Both he and Mr Marie use similar language in reacting to the decision in favour of Godard, saying: "The public is outraged and soon they will not be content with only judicial acts."

Does this forbode a repetition of the raid of the Pagoda? "We will put protection in the cinemas," says Gaumont's Du Plantier in the wake of Wednesday's violence. "We have the majority of opinion with us. We won't give in."

Godard's distributors may have to go further. In banning the film in Versailles, the deputy Mayor, Mr Rougevin Bavielle, declared that: "In the time of Petain, six bullets would have been enough for this Swiss." (The king of French new-wave cinema, Godard, was born in Switzerland).

Churches join hands for black land rights

WA

PETER TERRY

The Liberal Party in the West has suddenly found itself confronted by the combined might of the Anglican, Catholic and Uniting Churches over its stand against land rights for Aborigines.

At 2.30pm on Sunday in Perth's St Mary's Cathedral, the three will be launching a joint campaign of support for the Aboriginal cause and rejecting all the catch-phrases the Liberals have dreamed up in their opposition to such grants.

"We don't want to comment on it, really," said Ms Carol Watts, the new press secretary for the State's Liberal leader, Bill Hassell.

"But we are disappointed that the church is becoming involved in what is clearly a political issue."

The involvement is no token gesture. Sunday's ecumenical service will be led by the Anglican's Archbishop Carnley; the Catholic's Archbishop Foley; and Dr Owen, the Uniting Church Moderator.

Christians will be urged to take part in a vigil of prayer and fasting for 40 days in support of land rights. The campaign has delighted the Premier, Brian Burke, and infuriated the Liberals, who this week renewed their own anti-land rights attack with advertisements describing such grants as a "million square kilometre rip-off."

The church campaign has dovetailed neatly into the Burke Government's schedule for introducing its controversial Land Rights Bill – legislation will be introduced at the end of the month and debated when fasting and prayer is at its peak.

"We are asking people to say prayers daily and fast for 40 days and 40 nights," said one of the organisers, Ms Beth Mowry, of the Concerned Christians for Land Rights.

Those taking part are also expected to recite a vigil prayer which says in part:

Open our hearts to Your great love.

Remove our fears.

Teach us compassion.

Direct our struggle for land rights.

And let justice be done in our land.

"We believe it is very important that in this issue we seek God's help," said Ms Mowry.

"We have got to consider the Aborigines as a community; that they are a dispossessed people.

"Up to this time, there has been a lot of politicking going on. The Aborigines are not being heard. The moral issue is not being focussed on enough. And that is what we will be doing."

The Soviet Union invaded Poland at the same time and took the other half to take back land also taken from her during World War 1. Poland and the Soviet Union were debtor nations who were paid up to date and in good standing: Germany was not. The armies of England and France were sent against Germany alone - the "welsher".

There was no reason to declare war on the Soviet Union; she was up to date on her debts to the international bankers and so was allowed to keep the Polish land she had taken. There was no reason to help Soviet occupied Poland; that unfortunate land would pay its debts under the watchful eye of the tame Soviet conqueror.

If you would like a copy of the entire article, send a $1 with your request. The Bible tells us that "The borrower is servant to the lender, and the rich ruleth over the poor." People must be very naive to think they can solve our problems by a change of government, or by new politicians. These people can only do what they are told by the international bankers.

We as a nation can only do one thing: According to God's Law (Leviticus 25:10) we need to declare the year of Jubilee and consider ALL debts cancelled. Take note, any person having money in a bank or building society gathering INTEREST, you are stealing from your brethren according to Bible Law, and will NOT dwell in God's tabernacle, or in His holy hill. (See Psalm 15).

IS THIS A DEMOCRACY? (The Spotlight) If this is a democracy, then why are the people and the rulers of America on opposite sides of all the important issues, and why doesn't the majority view rule?

99% oppose high or higher taxes;

99% oppose high or higher interest rates.

98% oppose inflation.

96% opposed the Panama Canal giveaway.

96% oppose deficit spending.

90% oppose free trade and export of American Jobs.

90% oppose illegal immigration

90% oppose amnesty for illegals.

85% oppose forced racial bussing.

A majority also is found on the opposite side of the fence from the establishment in these issues: registration of firearms, ERA, de-recognition of Taiwan and recognition of Red China, abandoning Afghanistan, intervention in foreign wars, forced fluoridation of public water supplies, capital punishment, foreign aid, financial support of communist countries, Israeli control of Congress and the White House, underwriting of the Israeli economy, bailing out private banks with tax funds, lenient law enforcement, filthy TV, dope, pornography, etc.

COMMENT. It would appear from the article "Churches join hands for black land rights", that the Anglican, Catholic, and Uniting Churches are firmly committed to the cause of communism, by their support for "land rights".

All Bible scholars should know the Bible teaches that there is to be one law in the land for all people; not one law for whites and a different law for the aborigines.

A POSTSCRIPT

Many will no doubt have seen or heard of the strikes and power restrictions in Queensland. We also have been inconvenienced by the shortage of power. I feel the situation is a put up job though, and was contrived for the sake of obtaining information as to how well people can cope with emergency situations, what type of accidents can be expected to happen, who suffers the most, and who benefits the most.

I remember that a few years ago, similar difficulties were created in Adelaide by a "petrol strike", probably for similar reasons. It gives the "powers that be" the necessary information on what to expect, should they decide to bring these conditions on the entire nation. I suspect that those in the larger cities will be the hardest hit, as they are in the most difficult position to look after themselves, and are totally dependent on continuing supply of all services.

Many are suffering from severe water restrictions as well due to the power strike. We however, are fortunate in regard to water, as God sent the rain, just when we were almost out of water, and now have adequate supply until the next wet season. We also have adequate supplies of petrol for pumping the water to our gravity feed tank, which supplies the taps.

We are using the large tractor battery to supply the lighting of 12V 8W fluorescent tubes. It is just inconvenient with trying to work, as the power goes off just when you require it most. We have had to listen to Pastor Emry's tapes, by piecemeal, as the power has been coming on for half hours at a time, and then staying off for about one to two hours.

It is also interfering with the copying of our monthly newsletter. However, I hope to be able to get that done a bit at a time, and if it does come a bit late, I'm sure you will understand. These things may help to drive some of our people from the cities, into the country areas where they are better able to take care of their own needs, without being so dependent on unreliable sources of supply. (See Micah 4:10).

I believe that large quantities of milk and beef have been placed in jeopardy through lack of refrigeration. I wonder how many businesses will be forced to close down because of this power strike, at a time when unemployment is already high. (Look for an overall increase in taxation at the Tax Summit in July)

I sincerely hope that our Queensland readers have not suffered beyond their capacity to cope, and wish them God's blessing according to Numbers 6: 22-27.

*"And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,
Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying,
On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel,
saying unto them,
The Lord bless thee, and keep thee:
The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee:
The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, and give thee peace.
And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel, and I will bless them."*

In Christ,
