THE BLIGHT OF BAD CHOICE

And to the woman He says, 'Multiplying, yea, multiplying am I your grief and the groaning of your pregnancy. In grief shall you bear sons. Yet by your husband is your restoration, and he shall rule over you.' (Genesis 3:16, Concordant)

Off to war go our sons and daughters. If it weren't such an institution, war would be called child sacrifice which, of course, it is. Never mind that today's wars (unlike the Crusades) are fought for the peculiar interests of international bankers and career military strategists. The end result is the same: Surviving men come home, impregnate a new generation of young women with the next generation's cannon fodder. This sad cycle of affairs eventually leads to a declining Caucasian birthrate as new wars break out. As the money supply is manipulated by usurers and taxes increase, people become reluctant to reproduce. This was true in ancient Greece and Rome, and is becoming very apparent in the nations of Anglo-Saxondom today.¹

Instead of surveying the effects of childlessness on our kindred as a whole, we have become obsessed with "self-knowledge" and control over every aspect of our lives (not to mention the lives of others). We are a society which has enshrined BAD CHOICE. Of course, we believe we are making a wise and reasonable choice by denying our nation (race) progeny. Eve used "reason" when pondering the evil suggestion: "Ye shall not surely die: For God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof then your eyes shall be opened and YE SHALL BE AS GODS, knowing good and evil." (Gen 3:4)

Adam followed suit by "hearkening" (shama - hearing with intelligence and reason) unto the voice of his wife, who was created and made to be his help-mate and co-equal. Contrast and compare with the attitude of many today

"... equality for women must mean the same ability, to express human sexuality without the burden of pregnancy and childbirth that has always been, BY ACCIDENT OF BIOLOGY, available to men. With technology that is no longer even new, this equality is within reach..." (emphasis mine - Ed.)²

Notice that The LORD's creation has become to many a mere biological accident! No room for our creator, unless WE ARE HIM! Notice, too, the reliance on technology the god of our own handiwork. Shades of Bart Simpson "saying payers" over dinner: "Dear God: Bless this food in the table, but after all, we paid for it, so thanks for nothing..."

BAD CHOICE IS NO CHOICE AT ALL

What was accomplished in Eden? For their combined disobedience to His implicit instructions, Adam and Eve were assigned unique sentences. To the man, He said:

"Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat of the herb of the field; In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground: for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return." (Gen 3:17-19).

The Creator's Kingdom would exist one way or another, only this time, the road would be rocky for the laborers who could have been king and queen. Eve's sentence of sorrow was no less grave (pardon the pun): birthpangs, but with the promise of redemption of

she stood beside her husband....

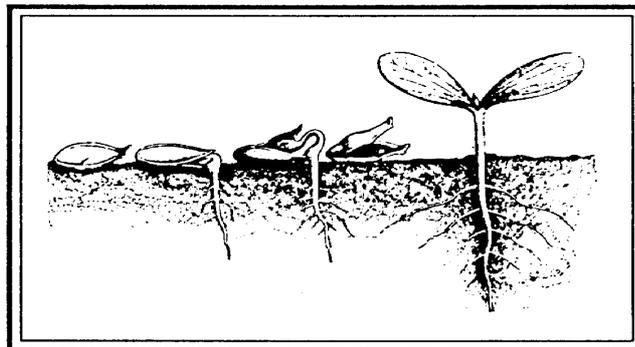

BE FRUITFUL AND MULTIPLY...

Of course, Genesis 1:28 makes it plain that a multitudinous seed was Adam's mandate even before the Fall.

"If the foundations be destroyed..."

Even kings and queens have offspring, and these are to “have dominion” over the earth. Some have insinuated that the Adam of Genesis 2 is a separate creation from the Sixth Day creation of mankind (a view with which I do not agree-OI), but for the sake of discussion, we will assume Adam’s story begins in the Sixth Day of Creation. After all, the dominion command was reiterated to the righteous of his seed in Genesis 9:1-3.

As you may have ascertained, the battle over abortion (more properly, aborticide) today parallels the Original Sin in Eden. Aborticide is the result of a horrendous choice made in disobedience to our Creator’s Law in Gen. 3:16. Yet, how many of you have considered the choice of “birth control” in the same league as aborticide? Don’t call me “Roman Catholic” because I fail to condone birth control. I have no allegiance to the Pope, and have no church with world wide membership I’ll do anything to maintain, including sanctions on reproductive choice. My purpose is to reveal from the Christian Bible, why the BEST, nay, the ONLY choice in this matter is the Heavenly Provider’s choice, not our own. Consider the feminist perspective once again:

“A second familiar but still under-utilized approach to reducing the number of SITUATIONS in which women are pregnant and DON’T WANT TO BE is, of course, to prevent pregnancy through the only proven means for doing so: sex education and the wide availability of birth control. Some will no doubt think that the only moral means of pregnancy prevention is abstention from sex: But it doesn’t work as policy because people don’t abstain. This is the lesson of human history.” (emphasis mine - OI)³

This isn’t saying much for mankind ... Is he no different than his dog, Spot, a creature at least dormant until his hormones flourish? Man wants sexual pleasure on demand year-round. Today, the only “responsibility” taught youngsters in public schools is to have “safe sex” by use of condoms or “the Pill,” that dastardly mental depilatory which transforms liberty into license. In an address to five hundred school children, Dr. Mary Calderone, Director of the Sex Information and Educational Council of the United States (SIECUS), intoned:

“The question goes far beyond, ‘Will I go to bed?’ and it’s one you must answer FOR YOURSELVES. You boys may know a girl is physically ready, but you have to ask yourselves: ‘Am I ready to take the responsibility to say, yes, she is ready emotionally and psychologically?’” (emphasis OI)⁴

Marriage never enters the equation. As negro pop music idol, Tina Turner, howls in her ‘song’ ‘What’s love got to do with it?’ Sexual expression is viewed as a constant, and the world rotates around the act. Jewish media filth and advertising constantly glorify “sexiness,” but they have no fear of a Caucasian population explosion, for they have carefully trained Caucasian teachers to lead their fertile female students, engorged on Doritos and Diet Pepsi, to the school health clinic (if merely sexually active), or the nearest Planned Parenthood center (if they “pushed their luck” too far). The local antichrist abortionist is usually just around the corner to make his profit.

This is all planned to the last detail, a conscious choice to destroy life called “an accident.” At least half of all aborticides are performed within the first eight weeks of pregnancy (at least they were in 1990).⁵

ROE VS WADE: A “CHOICE” DECEPTION

The monumental U.S. Supreme Court decision of 1973, “Jane Roe” vs Henry Wade, responsible for implied government approval of at least 1.5 million murders per year since then, is an intriguing case. It was one of those where the plaintiff sued anonymously to supposedly protect herself from reprisals. Roe (real name: Norma McCorvey) was a 25-year-old single Texas girl who claimed she had become pregnant as the result of a gang rape. Wade was the Dallas County prosecutor sworn to uphold the Texas statutes which - at that time - made aborticide illegal. Ironically, and fifteen years after the fact, McCorvey confessed that “...she had not been raped at all; she had made up the story to hide the fact that she had gotten ‘in trouble’ in the more usual way.”⁶ Meanwhile, 22.5 million lives have been taken (talk about a HOLOCAUST) in the U.S. alone, up to 1990, as the result of vanity and “choice.” Also in 1973, a similar case involving a Mary McGee set precedent in Ireland, proving America was not alone in its self-serving folly. The McGee case cancelled a 1935 anti-contraception law.⁷ (Ironically, Norma McCorvey has now taken to promoting the pro-life view, and opposes abortion and speaks against it!)

THE OTHER “CONTRA”-GATE

Contraceptives (birth control - birth-prevention) have existed as long as sin itself, but other than for periods of sexual abstinence driven by war, it was never widespread among the Christian Caucasians of northern and western Europe. They viewed contraception in the same light as they did prostitution, as we see in this 1869 example from Lancet, journal of the British Medical Association:

A woman on whom her husband practices what is euphemistically called ‘preventive contraception’ is ... necessarily brought into the condition of mind of a prostitute ... She has only one chance, depending on an entire absence of orgasm, of escaping uterine disease.⁸

Notice the author did NOT call women who used contraception “prostitutes,” but merely commented on the mentality of those who would overturn her God-given function as childbearer. On this side of the Atlantic, Anthony Comstock, a Union army veteran in the War Between the States, lobbied Congress in 1873 for an Act “For Suppression of Trade in, and Circulation of, Obscene Literature, and Articles of Immoral Use (i.e. contraceptives).” When asked why he classified contraception with pornography, he answered “If you open the door to anything, the filth will pour in.” Our forbears clearly understood Genesis 3. We deny it. Our forbears (including most women) understood the delicate nature of the female, and fundamental physical and emotional differences between the sexes. As Sarah Ellis, in her Wives of England, Women of England and Daughters of England noted, "an important part of woman's nature is gratitude, which is unfulfilled if it is not expressed to the men who guide and cherish her through life."¹⁰ In another book, Ellis added, "With grace to bear even wrath and peevishness, she must learn to adopt his taste, study his disposition and submit in short to all his desires with all that graceful compliance which in a wife is the surest sign of A SOUND UNDERSTANDING." (emphasis, OI)¹¹

By no means does this imply women of our race should be - to use a phrase the Babylonian world is proud to throw in our face - "barefoot and pregnant." It implies wisdom in understanding and applying the principles of God's Word, and the patience to run His course, rather than our own. I have yet to meet a woman who, having entertained doubts during a pregnancy, would "send her child back" once nestled next to her breasts. A woman's spiritual and emotional fullness are found in childbearing and all her natural motivations - whether admitted or not - are in that direction. Contraception is a shrewd denial of this Scriptural mandate, and an attractive apple on the Tree of Death.

PARADISE LOST, A PAIR OF DICE RE-GAMED

For Caucasian women to fall en-masse for the fraud of contraception and "family planning," there had to be a mass-market technique employed whereby the lost (female) sheep of the House of Israel could be convinced they were being ewe-sed (pardon the pun) by men. Such an opportunity arose when, in 1877, Charles Bradough and Annie Bessant (of England) published a booklet on birth control which sold 277,000 copies by 1851.¹²

In 1904, a Moravian Jew named Sigmund Freud originated psycho-analysis, a forerunner of modern psychiatry (almost entirely a Jewish profession). Freud believed that the mind of man came in two parts: conscious and subconscious, and that problems in the former were often lodged in the latter. With regard to sex, Freud taught that girls suffered lifelong trauma upon discovering they have no penis! As author Kitzinger put it:

"The symbolic castration creates a pattern which is repeated throughout her life so that she masochistically delights in suffering. She wants to be a man and seeks to avenge herself on men for having something she lacks. Consequently, men live in fear of women. A woman copes with her penis envy in one of three ways: she wants a baby as a replacement for the lost penis, she becomes neurotic or she develops a 'masculinity complex' and denies that she lacks anything."¹³

While we may refute Freud's premise, some of his conclusions are striking in light of today's feminist attitudes. In a state where power and control is deified, even the gentler sex is hardened, and she "loses her men" to fear, disgust, or simply disinterest. As Tacitus commented in his Annals, "Cupido dominandi cunctis affectibus flagrantior est" (Lust of power is the most flagrant of passions). Perhaps this is why Solomon warned, "it is better to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and angry woman," (Prov 21:13), which he describes elsewhere as "a continual dropping in a very rainy day" (Prov 27:15).

THE CHRISTIAN WOMAN'S RESPONSE

New Video LOAN ONLY - PAMELA'S PRAYER

Single-parenthood, Purity, Virginity, Perseverance. If these terms mean anything to you, you need to see this film, or show it to those who do, mainly adolescents faced with the "dating" vs courtship dilemma - or single parents compelled to deal with the issue. The professionally-produced film concerns 22 years in the life of Pamela Bucklin, and a vow her father, widowed by the loss of his wife during Pamela's birth, made to her - to pray with her daily for God's guidance in her life. Pamela was not to kiss a young man until her wedding day, seemingly anachronistic in today's world of fornication. Pamela is tested, of course, but in the end, both her father's Christian faith, and her own are rewarded. Powerful! Emotional!

How then should Christian Caucasian women respond to the worldwide popularity of contraception and media depictions of men as shiftless but power-hungry abusers of women? What we have here is a "Mexican stand-off between the sexes, carefully orchestrated by unnamed power-hungry abusers of Christian Caucasians! A cart-before-the-horse dilemma with women in the unnatural "offensive" position. Birth control is the device, and our collective heritage (God's Heritage: Joel 3:1,2) is at stake.

No doubt there will be "hell to pay" for the Babylonians of our day, who rejoice in the destruction of our children before they can take their first breath (read Jer. 50:11-16). Our children are not only part of our heritage (the LAND being the other part), but are sometimes described as "arrows" (Psalms 127:4,5; Jer. 50:14), and for there to be a nation with full quivers of them, there must be unity and communication between the sexes, to a large degree contingent on women's "conversation," or manner of life and attitude.

Our enemy understands the sexual dialectic, how men are raised to respectability and greatness by the admiration and patience of godly women. The enemy seeks to short circuit this process in Christendom, undoing the family. Men need to be appreciated, even if they falter now and then. As author Gary Smalley put it, "A man's need for approval is as strong as (woman's) need for security in financial matters and family relationships."¹⁴ In his first epistle to Timothy, the apostle Paul offered the following pattern for godly women:

"In like manner let the apparel of women be simple and their adornment be modest and refined (see THE SIN OF BATHSHEBA, #136, Apr. 1997); nor with braided hair or gold or pearls or costly array; but let them be engaged in good works, as is becoming women who profess reverence for God. Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection. I do not think it seemly for a woman to debate publicly or otherwise usurp authority of men, but she should be silent. For Adam was formed first, then Eve: and Adam was not deceived, but the woman was deceived and she transgressed the Law. Nevertheless, if her posterity continue in faith and have holiness and CHASTITY, she will live THROUGH THEM. (1 Tim. 2:3-15, Lamsa Translation, emphasis OI).

I emphasized chastity, for I am convinced the teaching of "safe sex" in and out of public schools not only condones premarital sexual intercourse ("for pleasure"), but denies the rights and responsibilities of childbearing. Note that Paul elegantly restates Genesis 3:16, and its promise of deliverance of womankind through the pains of partition. A woman's glory as a Christian is manifest in her offspring where there is a husband and wife, and a commitment for life.

THE CONDOM CONUNDRUM

An amazing aspect of the Babylonian system is how one tactic is used to bolster another tactic. Take the 'war on drugs' for example. Those with eyes to see and ears to hear know the national campaign against drugs is covertly used to strengthen central government and its police powers. How many of you have considered its implications for the unborn, and the unCONCEIVED?

Since drug use and illicit sexual relations (including sodomy and its variants), and sexually-transmitted diseases (STD's) are often bedfellows (again, pardon the pun!), especially in urban areas, preaching condom use is the logical idea (Remember here that not only minorities are targeted for condom use, but more affluent Caucasians involved in drug use, wife swapping, etc., as well). College students (a very fertile age group) are especially targeted. For example, the Fayetteville, Arkansas Traveller (a college paper), in a "special edition" devoted to Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS), included a Condom with each paper.¹⁵ The message? Don't get AIDS: Practice "safe sex" .. but do, DO practice!

The tactic for married spouses differs by emphasizing the "conventional wisdom" of carefully planning family size, based upon the ability to (financially) support more children. This is very effective in a recessionary society where fear of job loss (not to mention war) makes one pause. By these tactics the plotters of world government appeal to the vanity of Caucasians. A conflict is stirred up ... A man wants to have children (and grandchildren) bearing his family name, yet he wants that boat or that motorcycle, or his wife wants that trip to Fiji, or that new BMW, and a deadly compromise is reached. As R.H. Goetjen, in an essay titled, "Is the Practice of Birth Control Sinful?," intones: "They recognize that (their) child will have the right of inheritance, the right to be cared for, fed, clothed, educated etc. The prospective parents covet that money which will be needed to thus care for this potential child and to which the child will have a right, and so they 'kill' the child before it is conceived so that they may have that money for themselves and for their own enjoyment (a house, new car, TV, etc). They fit into the same category as highway robbers (thugs) who kill their victims in order to obtain their possessions (inheritance). In a sense those who practice birth control are worse than highway robbers, because the ones they would eliminate are their own flesh and blood."¹⁶

Our excuses define for the world to see, who we are as a country. We have been set adrift on the sea of high finance, only to end up in smaller houses, smaller cars, smaller (and fragmented) families. Although the forces at work against us are strong, we must still take the high road to glory. Goetjen added:

*Those who use the excuse that they practice birth control because they cannot afford another child, reveal that they do not trust God to take care of and for them. Clearly a sin against the First Commandment. The same is true of those who feel that the days are too evil to bring children into this world. If all Christians would take that attitude, Christianity would be wiped out in one generation to the delight of the enemies of Jesus.*¹⁷

Traditionally, our race has not taken this position. The Lutheran scholar, Dr. J.H.C. Fritz, in his Pastoral Theology, which was once a common textbook in many Lutheran seminaries, stated: "The one-, two-, or thee-children family system is contrary to the Scriptures; for man has no right arbitrarily or definitely to limit the number of his offspring, especially not if done with artificial or unnatural means." Fritz cites Gen 1:28; Psalm 127:3-6; 128:3-4; Gen 38:9-10 as supportive scriptures. The great German composer, Johann Sebastian Bach, was by no means a rich man, yet by the grace of God he fathered and supported 20 children, including another great composer, C.P.E. Bach, and other musicians, a wealth which bears no price tag.

No one really knows the heritage which any of their children - born, conceived, or glint in the old man's eye - may produce or leave behind. Often, the so-called "runt of the litter" turns out to be the genius, the inventor, or statesman. Planned Parenthood would rather you remain interested in your own physical and emotional health, rather than risk that pregnancy. Advocates of Planned Parenthood and Zero Population Growth (ZPG) might have you believe the economy (not to mention that "sacred cow" of the Earth First crowd, the environment) would be better off without your children. A thorough and responsible look at demographics would show otherwise. In his well-documented study, Prospects for Growth (A Biblical View of Population, Resources and the Future), author E. Calvin Beisner commented:

*While population growth does have some negative effects on economic growth, its net effects (other things being equal) are positive because it has more and weightier positive effects than negative.*¹⁹

In other words, the benefits are intangible, manifold, and long-term, rather than short-term, as would be the case for (intentionally) childless couples who save more for personal consumption, yet contribute far less to overall societal growth.²⁰

Nor are housewives neglected in their vital role, one seldom (if ever) factored into statistical abstracts on economic growth and family savings. Childbearing is indeed a sacrifice for both parents, but when one considers the sacrifices made by parents of most animal species, one might blush with embarrassment that we are so self-serving.

CONTRACEPTION AND RACE

There is no such thing as a worthless newborn child, regardless of race. This may shock those of you who believe in social engineering and eugenics, as did Margaret Sanger, founder of Planned Parenthood, in 1922. When God creates... it is good. Even so, what (and who) God created, He created with specific purposes in mind, and no amount of mental engineering can twist the saying of Jesus Christ to mean that He advocated miscegenation (racial intermarriage). The Bible expressly teaches that His servant race, Israel (whose physical offspring we are), were to be a separate people (Deut 7:1-6; Num. 33:55, et al). Yet, our God realized there would be racial strangers and aliens living within our boundaries at times, and they also would have to abide by the Law of our Ever-living Lawgiver (Num 15:16, et al). What we have today regarding contraception and race is communist dialectics at work. On one hand we have Planned Parenthood, the product of someone's desire to "manage human resources" (i.e. control people's lives). On the other hand, we have "Judeo-Christianity," which - in all its misinformed piety - lock horns with the pro-aborticide and Planned Parenthood crowd by defending the right of non-Caucasians to breed offspring at will, the end result of which is the displacement of the Christian, Caucasian stock, which is what the antichrist Communists want. Once non-Caucasians were successfully absorbed in every aspect of Caucasian life (including the Caucasian woman's bed), the Communists introduced a new dialectic, the "Civil Rights" movement. I am not opposed to non-Caucasians' right to produce offspring at will, but I am opposed to any attempt at tampering with the genetic pools of ANY race. To the illiterate and those who have no sense of racial heritage, we might as well be coffee-coloured. Eleanor Roosevelt, wife of the late "bum deal" president, is reported to have said she couldn't wait for the day when we all had coffee-coloured skin. She entertained many Communists in the White House during her husband's administration. Do you get the picture? Their great "opponent" was one Austrian named Adolf Hitler, rumoured to have been sired by a Jew, and whose maternal grandmother was a Jew. Isn't it ironic that the first modern country to "legalize" aborticide (1920)²¹ and outlaw "antisemitism" (1921) was the SOVIET UNION??? isn't it equally interesting, that the "great German devil," the Third reich, imposed the death penalty for abortionists who "continually impaired the vitality of the German people"?²² This, of course, doesn't rule out the possibility they were advocates of abortion of others. As a result, in fighting the forces of aborticide in Christendom today, Judeo-Christians of the Caucasian race have unwittingly forwarded the Communist cause of miscegenation in the name of a one-world "brotherhood of man."

It hardly matters now that selective eugenics (such as use of the new NORPLANT time-release birth-control device) appears to be targeted at negro women, or that the "morning after pill" (the French abortifacient, RU486) will eventually be marketed in America. While our backs are turned, and our focus set on war in Iraq, we are facing the final stage in the Jewish-Communist plan to totally manipulate America (and the world) ...

THE SABINE SOLUTION

Romulus, following the murder of his brother Remus, is said to have founded the ancient city of Rome around 753 B.C.²³ The lusty Romans had no wives, and attempts to intermarry with outlying tribes were spurned, so Romulus laid a trap by proclaiming a great festival for all the people, including the Latins and Sabines, with their attractive wives and daughters. While the men were distracted with games and spectacles, the Romans carried off their women en masse, raped them, and claimed them as their possessions.²⁴

The Sabines eventually retaliated, prevailing briefly, and the Sabine women were instrumental in a "negotiated peace" between the two peoples, but the Sabines had been absorbed into the Roman kingdom. Why do I bring this up here? There is a valuable lesson to be learned here. While contraception continues to stunt Caucasian civilization, the effects of war - including mass rape of our women - will inevitably arrive while our men's energies are focused elsewhere. While most of our military strength is in the Mideast, our 'backside' (borders) are exposed to alien takeover. Our Border Patrol is already a pathetic shadow of what was intended, and mixed-bloods are scrambling over each other to get work here. When martial law is openly declared, the aliens will act like children in a candy shop. No Caucasian woman (or girl) will be safe. While coloured races will be impregnating our women here, our "brave boys" abroad will be dancing copulatory "victory" dances with Moslem women, which will not set well with Moslem men, to say the least

If you think you will be "raptured" out before things get too bad, think again my friend. Are you prepared to die for your Faith, for your family, for your race? Sleep not (Matt 24:37-47).

Are you practising "birth control"? If so, you are denying The EVERLIVING His heritage for you. You are telling God that His blessings are NOT WANTED! Not so, you say? Why, then, did you get married? Think about it.....

"No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the Kingdom of God." (Luke 3:62).

AN APPEAL TO BIBLICAL REASON

It must be continually emphasized that if the product presupposes the act of production, and if it is wrong to destroy the product (fruit of the womb), then it goes without saying it is equally wrong to render futile the act whereby the fruit is produced.

I will not stretch satire to the point of absurd propaganda, as in a sketch from the Monty Python film, The meaning of Life, wherein the multitudinous children of a "Good catholic" blue collar worker sing (in a Busbee Berklee-type production), *"Every sperm is sacred, Every seed is great. If a sperm is wasted, God gets quite irate...."*²⁵

Women have relatively few fertile years, especially nowadays, when the age of first marriages is pushed later into the childbearing period (When God sends an appropriate spouse, don't delay marriage unnecessarily! CIM). These should be the most joyous and meaningful years of a young woman's life, when she has opportunity to shape the generation to come in the precepts of our Creator and King, who knows us personally even before we are conceived:

"For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well. My substance was not hid from thee when I was made in secret, and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, when as yet there were none of them." (Psalm 139:13-16).

As the saying goes, He cares little for our ability ... but our AVAILABILITY. If we have been aborted, or spilled into a rubber sheath, we are noticeably NOT available. Remember the story of Onan (Gen 38:7-10). We have a racial responsibility we dare not ignore. However, the responsibility is not MERELY to have Caucasian children, but to raise up righteous children. Psalm 58:3 tells us the children of the wicked "...are estranged from the womb: they go astray as they are born, speaking lies." Our mandate as parents? "The rod and reproof give wisdom: but a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame" (Prov 23:15). Perhaps this is the "sorrow" the women of Adam's race have experienced since the fall from Eden ... rebel-

In closing, there is a bright side. Let's ponder the words of The EVERLIVING God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob:

"Wherefore it shall come to pass IF ye hearken to these judgments, and keep, and do them, that the Lord thy God shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers: and He will love thee, and MULTIPLY THEE, and BLESS THEE: He will also BLESS THE FRUIT OF THY WOMB, and the FRUIT of thy land, thy corn, and thy wine and thy oil, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep, in the land which He swore unto thy fathers to give thee. Thou shalt be blessed above all people: there shall NOT BE MALE OR FEMALE BARREN among you, or among your cattle. And The Lord will take away from thee ALL SICKNESS, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will lay them upon all them that hate thee. From Our European Desk Overseas correspondent, Adam de Witt. Canaanite Takes Over.

It is always nice to see just how true the Identity groups are. We often read in Identity writings that the Jews have taken over this and that. Well it still goes on. The Rotterdam daily newspaper, Het Algemeen Dagblad 11-8-03, makes known that American Israeli (Canaanite, A De Witt) Billionaire (what else, we can have socialism and other Talmudic brewed up social nightmares, they can have the wealth, A de Witt) by the name of Haim Saban signed the contract on Friday to take over ProSiebenSat 1. ProSiebenSat 1 was the main link station of the network, Kirchmedia. So ends the article.

Kirchmedia translated means, Church Media. So once again proof of Canaanite take over of Saxon media to ensure control over Saxon thinking, even more noteworthy is the take over of a so called Christian network. The masters need to ensure that no real Christian content is broadcast... Talmud Forbid!

Czech Benes-Act Ills Will be Forgotten.

The end of the 'Twoth War on the Germans', commonly called WW 2 saw to a shocking ethnic cleansing of Germans from the 'real' East Germany. What was politically called East Germany is in truth, Middle Germany. The real east covered parts of what is now deemed Poland and swathes of the Czech republic. These swathes included Silisia and Sudetenland. These swathes were as German as Victoria is Australian or Texas is American. Yet the German befolkung (population) were driven out or gruesomely slaughtered.

Dutch newspaper, De Volkskrant carried, a nearly, full page article on Saxon survivors of THIS 'holocaust' in which it gives a few of the shocking details done to these native Germans. The article is chiefly about survivors seeking claims on stolen homes, lands even palaces. One claimant came from the Sudeten town of Aussig now called Usti. The article states that the stead (city) was largely wiped out during the Twoth (second) War on the Germans... "Only the bridge, from which on the 31st of July 1945, two thousand Sudetenlanders were slung, to drown in the Elbe River stands to remind of that time." (Worth ordering, Gruesome Harvest). The Benes Act which states that all property of Germans and Hungarians is to be taken and given to the Czechs has been out-dared (challenged) several times without much impact. But with the linking up of Poland and the Czech Republic to the EU, true 'survivors' have seen an opening to gain back that which was stolen. Survivors who fled to (what was left of) Germany, Austria and Hungary turned to the European Commission to lock the Czech Republic out, as punishment for her misdeeds. Sadly, the European Commission saw no hindrances in the way to allow the republic into the 'fold' over the loathsome Benes Act, much to the relief of the republic.

End of the matter? Styn Croes of the University of Amsterdam, who researches issues leading from the racist Benes Act, claims it is not over. "Maybe for those in border swathes dwelling in other folks' homes can breath easier, but I think the Czech Republic will need to come to grips that the current state of being is not do-able for long. The current stand off is over geld (money)".

There are many claims, one of the largest is from Prince Kinsky, now 66 years old living in Argentina. Even the aethelings (nobles) of the House of Schwarzenberg who owned several palaces such as the top ranking bit of palatial real estate in the heart of Prague, has thrown their weight into the struggle which will make things tougher on the crooks who keep the Benes Act in place. Karl Schwarzenberg's clan was made to leave and they went to Austria.

But here is the rub for the Czechs. Karl fought for the Czechs against the Commies and befriended the Czech underground chief man Vaclav Havel. After the Velvet Revolution, Havel named Prince Karl, his right hand man! The claims against the republic are no light matter, Frans Ulrich Kinsky for instance, is seeking 1.3 billion Euros to make up for the loss of, a palace in Prague and 156 fastness' (castles) and landholdings stolen in 1945. The Czech establishment is bracing itself for a landslide of claims.

Bush Fires in Europe!

Contacts back in 'The Australias' (much better than the imperial melting pot term, Austral-asia, brewed up to make us part of Asia, whereas The Australias means simply, Australia, Tasmania and NZ) tell me that the European bush fires have made it into the news back there, so I guess you folks know a fair bit about it. And what shocking bush fires they are, unheard of in Europe. There are many things which come to play when it comes to working out the causes, at least to the understanding of the "natural man" as the Holy Writ puts it. Firstly, we are having tropical weather here, so far 13 weeks of next to no rain, and a heat grade (temperature) going up to 45 degree Celsius in most of Europe, 37 here in Holland, likewise for Switzerland, Germany and even into parts of Scandinavia. And there is no end in sight. (Doesn't that put our few days at 35 degrees and most of last week's 27-31 here in far north Queensland's "tropics" into perspective? CIM) The bush fires are worsened by the planting of oil rich trees, where once fire-withstanding trees, such as oaks once stood. Most fires have been started by fools and developers who failed to get the rights to carve up woodland for Babylonian style developments. The latter more so in the Mediterranean swathes where the swarthy types (usually mamzers, the result of hundreds of years of interracial breeding during the days of the Roman rick/empire), who are less caring than the Israelite types

The last great heat wave was in 1947. In Paris about 50 folks a day die due to the heat, usually the elderly and the weak. Each day the weather charts show clouds coming from the Atlantic as they normally do year after year, laden with rain and cool relief. Yet each day the clouds seem to change course and skirt along the coasts of Europe leaving the land mass cloud-free to bake. Looking at the charts it looks as if a hand is shoving the clouds away. It all seems so prophetic.

Europe is the "Wilderness readied" of Rev. 6, whereas the "Wilderness" (untamed) of Rev. 12, are her colonies. So here as in the overseas lands, Europe has been growing over the last 2000 years under the Church, Pentecost or Wheat Age. In the Wheat Age the Canaanite Tares have given us the Leaven of the Pharisees. And as the feast of Wheat Harvest/Pentecost teaches, the age ends by baking out the leaven by putting two loaves of bread in the oven, one loaf for the House of Israel and the other for the true House of Judah, namely, all Saxon folks, both of the English speaking world and of the European side. Baking out leaven was done in the fire, yea, THE REFINER'S FIRE. Look up you folk of TRUE Israel, this is GOOD news. The fire is to kill the leaven, NOT the wheat. Trees are tokens or symbols for races and neo-Babylon is multi ethnic, to end up with only wheat the dross needs burning out. God is showing that that day is coming.

In 2 Peter we read, "Knowing this...that there shall come in the last days (of the wheat age, not end of life on earth) scoffers, walking in their own lusts (scoffing, where is God, -Father God does not do this- but Mother-goddess-Nature, Greenhouse, Ozone -hole and so on) And saying, Where is the promise of his coming (well where is Jesus' coming?)... For this they are willingly ignorant of, that by the word of God, the heaven of old and the earth standing out of and in the water, whereby the world (the system, not the planet) that then was, being overflowed with water, died. (Namely, Noah's flood). But the heavens and the earth which are now by the same word (God's behest) are kept in store, set aside UNTO FIRE against the day of doom (judging) and the fordoing (destroying) of ungodly men..." Ungodly ones, those who are of course the makers and shakers of neo-Babylon, the Tares... great news, it means that we will be spared!

"But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night (this means with great ado, not with stillness, indeed, we see a great ado now, calamity after calamity) in which the heavens (high places, where the rulers scheme from) shall slip away with great noise (see? with much ado) and the elements shall melt (the scum) with fervent heat, the earth (the system) also and the works (jobs for the Canaan boys) shall be burned up (yippee! Away with the leaven of the Pharisees, yip, yip, yippee!)..." The burning of the woods is not nice as such, I love nice woodland but the symbolism is not to be overlooked. -----

CHILDREN AND THE DOMINION MANDATE

(Part 2,) by Rev. William Einwechter

The Promise of Fruitfulness to Covenant-Keeping Man

One of the promises that God holds out to whose who love Him and keep His covenant is fruitfulness in regard to offspring. In the list of blessings and cursings in Deut 28, the blessing of fruitfulness is declared for covenant-keepers (v.110, while the curse of barrenness is avowed to covenant-breakers (v.19). Psalm 127 says that children are an inheritance from the Lord and are his reward (v.3), and then declares the man blessed who has his quiver full of them (v.5). Psalm 128 begins by stating that the man who fears the Lord is blessed, and then goes on to list one of those blessings as being, "thy wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thy house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table" (v.3). It is significant to note that both Deuteronomy 28:11 and Psalm 128:3 use the terminology of fruitfulness in reference to bearing many children. When you compare the original creation blessing of fruitfulness to the promised blessing of fruitfulness to covenant-keeping men and women, it is logical to conclude that the covenantal blessing of fruitfulness is a granting of the original creation blessing of fruitfulness to those who keep God's covenant. And since the original promise of fruitfulness was for the purpose of fulfilling the dominion mandate. In granting his people fruitfulness God is enabling them to fulfill the original dominion mandate.

To better understand this connection, let us consider the wider Biblical teaching concerning the dominion mandate. First, the dominion mandate is not given to covenant-breakers, but only to covenant-keepers.¹ The original mandate was given to Adam and Eve before the Fall when they stood in fellowship with God. The dominion mandate was also given to believing Noah and his sons after the flood (Gen 9:1-3), and as such it was given to covenant-keeping men. The dominion mandate is referred to by David (Ps 8) as he reflects on the progress of covenant-keeping men to take dominion in the earth, an earth that is filled with men who are in rebellion against God and who, instead of taking dominion for God and developing righteous cultures, are taking dominion for the unrighteous and antichrists, and are developing ungodly cultures. David looks into this world and sees that wickedness abounds and all things are not under the feet of covenant-keeping men. Second, from the New Testament (Heb 2:6-8) we learn that David's words are prophetic and point to the only One who can bring all things under the dominion and rule of righteous men, Jesus Christ. The dominion mandate is fulfilled in Jesus Christ and all who are in covenant with him by faith. Jesus conquers sin and death, restores righteousness to His people and gives them the Word of God and the Holy Spirit so that they can fulfill the original dominion mandate of ruling the earth in righteousness as God's representatives and develop the full potential of the earth for the glory of God the Father. As the Righteous Man, Jesus is given dominion over all the earth by the father, and he in turn gives the authority for dominion to His people (Rev 2:26-27).

Therefore, since the original dominion mandate still exists; since the dominion mandate can only be fulfilled by covenant-keepers; since the blessing of fruitfulness in regard to fulfilling the dominion mandate is promised to covenant-keepers; then it follows that fruitfulness in procreation is still a vital aspect of the dominion mandate, and the command to God's people still stands: "be fruitful and multiply."

Dominion through Fruitfulness

The importance of fruitfulness to the dominion of the covenant people is illustrated in the nation of Israel while in Egypt. Israel went into Egypt as an extended family of 70 souls. Israel came out of Egypt some 210 years later as a mighty nation numbering in the millions. The Bible records that God granted great fruitfulness to the Hebrew wives and that the nation grew dramatically (Ex 2:7). (those women obviously were not after careers, or new BMW's, or Fijian holidays). The growth was so spectacular that Pharaoh grew fearful of their numbers and sought to limit their numbers by affliction and by killing the male babies at birth (Ex 2:9-11). But all of his wicked schemes failed (Ex 2:12-20). The growth of the Hebrew nation was essential for God's plan, and that growth could not be frustrated by Pharaoh, because Pharaoh was only the tool in God's hand in all his doings (Rom 9:21). According to His covenant promise, the land of Canaan had been given to Israel, but the land was inhabited by many wicked nations. If Israel was to conquer the land and take possession of it, then Israel must also be a great nation, a numerous people. Israel could take dominion of the land only if the families of Israel were very fruitful and multiplied so that men were available to conquer the land and families were available to fill the land. The dominion mandate for Israel in Canaan necessitated fruitfulness in the families of Israel.

The dominion mandate for the church also calls for fruitfulness in the families of the church. Children are set forth in Scripture as being essential to the continuity of the covenant and the propagation of God's kingdom, and fruitfulness among the covenant people is still a vital aspect of the dominion mandate. As Christians have large families and train their children in the fear of the Lord, the kingdom of God advances irresistibly. As Christian couples are blessed with fruitfulness, teach their children the Law of God, and charge them to subdue all spheres of life to the authority of Jesus and His Word, the dominion mandate is in the process of being fulfilled. Children are as arrows in the hands of a warrior (Ps 127:4) shot into the midst of the cultural war between those who want to exercise godly dominion and those who promote wickedness; the more arrows discharged into this war, the greater the advance of righteousness.

The significance for dominion through fruitfulness is amplified when one considers that the ungodly despise fruitfulness, and, in following their love of death (Pr. 8:36), are preventing conception through contraception and sterilization, and are killing their unborn children through aborticide. To get a feel for the impact of fruitfulness among covenant-keepers on the one hand, and the planned barrenness of covenant-breakers on the other, consider the following: If a godly husband and wife have 7 children, and their 7 children each have 7 children, and so on for 5 generations, they will have 19,607 offspring. If an unbelieving couple follows the typical small family size of 2, and their children also have 2 children, and so on for 5 generations, they will only have 60 offspring! Score: covenant-keepers 19,607; covenant-breakers 60 in only 5 generations and only between two families!

This is not to deny the importance of evangelism to the growth of the church and the fulfillment of the dominion mandate;² it is only to emphasize the great power of fruitfulness for the advance of the kingdom of God.³

One sign (among others) that God is laying the foundation for a resurgence of the Faith in the world is the growing trend of Christians to have large families; this is particularly true of Christian home-schoolers. John Perry observes:

Also of note, is the fact that Christian home schoolers tend to have large families. They have the conviction that, "Children are an heritage of the Lord" (Ps 127:3), and this leads them to seek the blessing of God in many children rather than following the cultural norm of one or two offspring. The rediscovery of this biblical truth of the blessing of large families (Ps 127:3-5; 128:1-6) has tremendous implications in an age when abortion and birth control are the norm for the unregenerate. Large Christian families could in time change the face of the political and social landscape in America.⁴

CONCLUSION

The dominion mandate consists of three specific commands: be fruitful and multiply, fill the earth, and subdue the earth. If the dominion mandate is still in force today, and we reconstructionists certainly believe that it is, then all three commands are still in force today. God is still calling his people to be fruitful in regard to offspring because this is vital to the fulfillment of the dominion mandate. If we preach "have dominion" to the church, then we must also preach "be fruitful and multiply" to Christian husbands and wives.⁵ The two cannot legitimately be separated, for dominion cannot take place without fruitfulness.

Fruitfulness is the result of divine blessing.⁶ It is a gift from God to us for his glory and our good. Children are God's reward, and they are intended as a gift of his love. Furthermore, the children of covenant men and women are central to his purpose of granting dominion over all the earth through the authority and power of Christ our Lord. If we have imbibed the philosophy of the world concerning family size and have deliberately sought to limit our fruitfulness, may we now repent in humility before God and seek his forgiveness and his gift of fruitfulness. If we went astray and limited our family according to the wisdom of the world and our time is past for now bearing children, may we also seek God's forgiveness and then do all we can to help our children and grandchildren succeed where we failed and encourage them to seek the blessing of God in having many children!!

Notes: -----

1. The dominion mandate is not primarily agricultural or technological, but ethical, i.e., it calls men to exercise dominion in the earth according to God's law-word for the honor and glory of God. Man is to rule the earth as God's representative and develop the resources of the earth in accord with the Creator's will, i.e. he is to develop the resources of the earth solely in reference to God's law as summarized in the two great commandments of the law: love of God and love of one's neighbor. Unregenerate man does not carry out any of his activities out of a love for God, and most often not out of a true love for his neighbor either. It is true that unregenerate man still retains to a degree the image of God, and, by nature, an impulse for dominion. But his reference is purely technological out of a motive for his own power and glory. Therefore, in the limited technological sense, unsaved man has contributed to the dominion mandate; God uses even the wrath of man to praise him. However, the dominion mandate as originally given can be addressed only to righteous men, and that is why it is never given to unregenerate men in the Bible and is ultimately transferred to Jesus Christ.

2. Evangelism is absolutely necessary to the dominion mandate in the post-Fall world. In fact, the Great Commission and the dominion mandate are closely related.

3. Perhaps the role of the church (as an institution) and the Christian family in the dominion mandate could be stated this way: the church is called to fruitfulness in regard to regeneration and spiritual children, while the family is called to fruitfulness in reference to generation and physical offspring (of course, children born to Christian parents also need regeneration).

4. John F. Perry, "Home Schooling: A Paradigm for Effective Educational Reform in America," in Explicitly Christian Politics, ed. William O. Einwechter (Pittsburgh, 1997), 209-210.

5. For the record, so that it cannot be said that Einwechter does not practice what he preaches, my wife Linda and I have nine children (your CIM editor has 14)

6. The lack of fruitfulness is not necessarily a curse for a Christian couple, however it might be if they have followed ungodly practices in the past that may affect the ability to have children (e.g. contraception, sterilization, abortion, drug abuse, etc.). God's promise of fruitfulness to his people is a general promise that applies in most instances. Nevertheless, for his own purposes that often remain hidden from us, God sometimes withholds fruitfulness from faithful covenant-keeping men and women.

From Our European Desk.

MAYBE WHITES ARE WAKING UP...

By Adam de Witt, writing from Europe.

In Europe be it Holland, Germany, Belgium or France, whites are grumbling about the "'@#&*ing huelings", (coloureds or non-whites). Denmark is seen by the 'lefties' as a Nazi state simply because the whites have insisted on tougher immigration bars. Even my parents, who always got stuck into me if I said one thing out of place about huelings say things about the non-whites and add, "oh here we go again talking about those rotten huelings, now my whole day is wrecked!"

In the beginning of August a Moroccan in Amsterdam went for a 'copper' with a knife, the 'copper' pulled out his gun and fired, the hueling died. Do you know what whites said? Too bad he only got the one! Two weeks later the Moroccan throngs held a demonstration against 'racist' police in Amsterdam. The sad truth is that the police are far from racist enough, indeed their job includes picking up racists.

A white-man, yea, even a white 'copper', is always deemed a racist when he safeguards himself. It is an age-old woe, recall how our forebears were sneered upon when they started to rebuild the walls of Jerusalem?

Of course the coppers were mindful of the slightest lure during the 'demo' yet trouble did brew when a bunch of huelings began to riot and set fire to cars and smash up shops. While all this was going on, white 'Dutchies' did not for once say, oh those poor Moroccans; at last some have smartened up. One group had hired a light aircraft to drag a large banner and flew rings in the air over the 'demo.' The banner read, "The police were right". Maybe Whites are waking up!

But Not Awake Enough...

Government cutbacks are the order of the day in Holland, but not for overseas help for the beastly huelings. The loopy government will give 50 million Euros, ($100 million) to the even more loopy Liberians. One of the cutbacks was meant to hit 'the Pill'. Only girls up to 18 were to get subsidized kinslaughter-pills (barren-brick or anti pregnancy pills). Seeing that three quarters of the women befolking (population) are on the barren-brick pill, and the other quarter has no need because they are too old, it means that all fertile women are on this murderous drug at some time.

I had to stand in for someone and deliver material to many households, nearly all had two dogs but no children. The land is literally going to the dogs. Well ladies stay on the pill and keep buying 'Chum', but hey, whitey, can't grumble when outnumbered by those huelings who hate us. It is not that owning dogs is bad, it becomes sick when child bearing age whites stay on the pill and have dogs instead of children and that is what is happening here in Holland.

What is God's Purpose for other Peoples?

While I respect BP Hawkins main body of findings greatly, I even learnt things from his article in the CIM newsletter. However, his “Note, What is God’s Purpose for other Peoples” is sadly, mislaid-sentimentality for huelings (coloureds). Too many whites have a hard time trying to picture a kingdom free from huelings. Why is this? Do they not know that for hundreds of years there have been many white lands where never a hueling dwelt? Whites in so called ‘colonies’ such as in the USA, Suid Afrika or Rhodesia/Zimbabwe seem to find it hard to picture a world without huelings. I don’t!

When I was a child, I did not even know that there were such creatures as non-whites. I thought all folks were white everywhere in the world, I didn’t see my first hueling until I was 12. So well had the whites of South East Queensland heeded God’s law to drive out the huelings. Man, it was a wonderful childhood!

My life was none the poorer for it, nay, it was the better and the safer for it. My USA kin seem to find it hard to picture a USA free of all huelings, I don’t. And be darn sure that the huelings of the USA can and do easily, picture a USA free of whites! Why do whites care so much about huelings; do they care about whites? Did the huelings care and say, “but what is God’s plan for the whites in the Netherlands East Indies (Indonesia)?” Did they ask that as they ethnically cleansed my/your kin from that land where my kin have been living in and built up for 400 years? Did they? Did they have pangs of sorrow as they stole the homes of whites and drove the dwellers out at gunpoint and ran of with their belongings, laughing and dancing? Did they ask the above and have such pangs as they did so to whites in French Indo China (Vietnam)? Or British East Africa (Kenya) or Portuguese East and West Africa (Angola and Mozambique) or the Belgian Congo or Northern Rhodesia or as now in Southern Rhodesia (Zimbabwe) and Suid Afrika? Did the Blacks wonder about God’s plan for the whites when they slit open the bellies of white women with-child, alive as so many screamed in death crying agony, as the blacks then wrenched out the unborn white baby in bloody orgies of slaughter in French San Domingo, now Haiti? No whites live there now! Did the blacks there wonder about God’s plan when every comely white child, rosy cheeks and fair haired was brutally taken and impaled alive like a pig on a spit? Did they?

Did they wonder about God’s plan for whites when they raped and hacked to death so many whites in the Belgian Congo until every living white fled? Did they?

I have a picture of a little white girl, she must have been a pretty little thing, blond shoulder length hair about five years old. I want you who care so much for huelings to picture this little girl...picture her! There she stood bewildered and forlorn on a tarmac in Africa, holding a wrecked teddy, all that was left of her childhood. She wore only the top half of her night-wear, it was covered in blood with her genitals still bleeding. She was one of the lucky ones, she was saved by USA ‘drop-screen troopers’ (paratroopers), the others of her family did not make it... She was repeatedly brutalized by the huelings, a specie so many whites care for, care what yonder-time (future) they have in the kingdom. Had the drop-screen troopers not saved her, she would have been killed like the rest, then slit open and their kidneys eaten. I didn’t want to tell you these details, but a reality check is what whites need.

Did the blacks there in the Congo wonder about God’s plan for whites? Instead the black ‘officials’ of the African states called the American rescue a gross “violation of the internal affairs of a sovereign nation.”

Next time you see a hueling and he/she smiles at you, remember, it was his kin that did this to that little Saxon girl. Never forget, Never Forget, NEVER FORGET! Remember, Never smile at a crocodile... don’t be taken in by his friendly grin...” Know your racial timespell (history)! Then there is always someone who says, but a black fellow saved my life. No he did not, God did and God handles what ever it takes to do so, he handled an earthquake to free Paul from the clink, he used a whale to nab Jonah from the sea, he uses dogs, yea, even dolphins to save us.

What does the Bible say about caring for huelings? Those who love the huelings are No-hopers! A ‘no-hoper’ is an Aussie saying for a useless fellow. How Biblical, for the Bible states, “there is NO HOPE for I have loved strangers and after strangers I will go...”

Furthermore, we are to drive them out, not worry about how and what tasks they will carry out in the kingdom. If one will not drive them out, they will drive us out. It’s that simple. God says not to pity the eyes of even their little ones, Did they pity the eyes of our little ones? Don’t forget, their little ones will become big ones who will breed more of them who will seek to kill us. I don’t recall where I read it but it was a sure truth, “It is easier to crush the egg than it is to kill the serpent.” God is not mean when he says that ye are to dash their babies. He also tells us, “Ye shall drive OUT ALL the dwellers of the land from before you...” Num. 33:52. That means babies and all!

Mr. Hawkins rightfully has a go at the B.I. teaching on salvation, that being, for all creatures on two legs but stops short on the ‘kingdom cleansed’ truth. He seems to want a repeat of the USA, Suid Afrikan and Rhodesian madness of having hueling slaves or cheap workers working for us. Yuk! I can’t think of anything more loathsome than to see my acreage full of huelings... hey, I don’t want them anywhere near or in the kingdom. “Oh, but we’ll be kind to the huelings and treat them lawfully, the plantation owners were nice to ‘their’ blacks,” or as some dumb whites in Southern Africa who hired cheap blacks, say (at a loss when blacks turn on them), “But we love ‘our’ blacks”. What on earth and in the name of goodness gives them the hair brained idea that blacks are ‘Their’ blacks? There is only one way to treat them lawfully, God says drive them out! They are not yours! And guess what, the blacks don’t like being ‘your blacks’. Would you like to be ‘their whites’? Think!

And what makes the backers of the idea that, ‘huelings can be our working underlings’, think that black underlings will do a good job? Since when have huelings in Saxon lands made us better off and enriched our culture? Australia was built without huelings, only once in one small part of the land were huelings used and these were sent back (in North Queensland’s sugar cane fields). Australia’s finest colonial buildings were built when all workers were white. Indeed, the world’s finest towns and cities such as Vienna, Bern, Basel, Dresden, Passau, Linz, Danzig, Prague, Quidlenburg, Salamanca, Delft, Gouda, Zierikzee, Brugge, Ieper, Gent, Lueven, Mechellen, Monschau, Venice, Florence, Pizza, Chester, Bath oh there are too many to state here... These were all built by whites in white lands where once never a hueling had set foot. I know that these towns are comely, my eyes have born witness to their greatness... And these were towns built out of civic pride, not by serfs. A hueling will never have the civic pride of a Saxon, let alone the love that is warranted to build on behalf of Saxon civic pride. Greatness comes out of love, not out of strained toil.

The only time God allows huelings in the land is as a curse, to test us, 2 Kings 17:31-34, or to get us to understand that loving them is loathsome by bringing in the worst of them, Ezek. 7:24. What is more, to help them, such as hiring them cheaply brings God's wrath upon us 2 Chron. 19:2.

Hawkins states that strangers of bad breeding can stay as workers, really? Would one not say that a mixing is the outcome of bad breeding? For such, we are told that a mixing is not to come into the kingdom, (gathering/congregation of the Lord), not EVEN until the tenth generation. This does not mean it's OK after generation ten, it says, NOT EVEN. That means, NEVER AND A DAY! And anyone of that stock or other racial alien is to be put to death if it comes near the temple of the Lord. Well what is the temple of the Lord? A church building? As Jesus made clear, the Pharisees didn't get it, but do you? Yes, the living stones make up the temple, the Saxon nations! This is the entity which no hueling is to come nigh.

Mr. Hawkins has done a great job on delving into the so-called Hebrew words for strangers such as 'nokri' and 'zwur'. I too became dogmatic with these words as to try and work out which stranger is a good or bad type until my brother Paul showed me a problem. He pointed out that sometimes zwur was used for Israelites. Suddenly the four different words theory fell apart, we were barking up the wrong tree. It is not that the idea of different types of strangers is wrong, but to rest our case on these words was weak and shaky. Paul did a great in-depth - pry into this and I can't give all the proofs here and now but maybe readers could ask through CIM for Paul to dig up his research finds as these answer a great deal. For the sake of time I will sum up as best as I can, the outcomes of his finds.

Richard Hoskins once said it well with his dry wit to me, "There are two types of strangers, ones you can hug and ones you must kick a mile," well words to that outcome. What he meant was, one is kin, the other is racial alien. He said that the 'zwur rule' is not always strictly apt. To get to the root of the matter, one needs to look at the thrust and over-all context and setting of the account given in the Holy Writ.

I would break down the two groups more closer to the thrust of the Bible's aim. The racial alien is simply one group. The kin group is the one we need to look more closely at to understand which strangers can be our workers and I'm sorry for Mr. Hawkins, but the strangers who can work for us, are not racial aliens, the are racial kin.

Mr. Hawkins tells us that in Acts 13:47, "For thus the Master has commanded us, -I have placed thee for a light for the nations..." He points out that the word nations here means, 'Nations of Israel.' Taken in the setting I quite agree. He says that the word for 'nations' in the Greek is 'ethnos'. But the very word is also found in Matth. 25:31-33 where we are told that Jesus will split asunder the nations, 'ethnos'. Does this mean He will drive asunder the nations of Israel? Mr. Hawkins would rightfully say, look at the setting, and when all said and done, it stands to reason that ethnos can mean, other races. This verse in Matthew however then quashes any stance held that huelings can live in the kingdom, as this verse is about setting them OUTSIDE the bounds of the kingdom. The book of Joel gives an end time foretelling in which we are told of strangers being a curse. When this curse is undone, the heathen, in the setting being huelings, are either slain or driven out. The setting is paralleled with Jesus' verse of separating the ethnos' and Rev 16:16. The outcome is no other races in Saxon lands ever again... "So that ye know that I am the Lord your God dwelling in Zion (Renewed Jerusalem, namely, the temple of the lord, the folk and their dominions) ...and there shall no more strangers (huelings) pass through her (Keltto Saxon Lands) ANY MORE" Joel 3:17.

So it should become clear that many words have meanings based on setting and thrust. I tell you a truth, IT IS GOOD TO EAT ROAD KILL RAW...IF YOU ARE A CROW! So what is good and what is bad? It all hinges upon who and what you are, and so it is with zwur.

Is zwur a racial alien at all times? Basically the true meaning lies closer to one who is 'strange' AND one who is 'estranged'. Zwur can mean and often does, racial alien. But just as God can deem a man to be clean (justified) he can also deem him as an outcast, an unclean one, as being alien to the law, as a zwur. In the same way God treated the whole nation of Israel as a zwur, as stranger aliens when he said, You are NOT my folk. And just in case one thinks that God only hates Esau, God also hated Israel, check out Gilgal, for it was here that God HATED her, Hosea 9:15. Here she wanted to do as the other races and choose a man-king as they did, 1 Sam. 8:7. God sent Israel into alien Babylon because Israel had been DEEMED alien, a stranger to God. Our folk loved the aliens so much that they became as aliens by behaving as them. (saw a white woman married to a black man on the ABC's Songs of Praise; she spoke just like a black, with slang and chopped short words, CIM). They are again so today with their love of Black and Yiddish hybrid music passing for Pop and even most so-called Country and Country and Western as they bop, leap and jungle joust on the dance floors every weekend. In some parts of the USA, such whites are called, 'Wiggers'. Work it out. ('W' short for White plus *igger)

Wiggers are mental (spiritual) aliens. These are the Israelite zwur, the ones who have another Jesus, who have other gods, other law systems in their hearts, other standards of right and wrong (e.g. Liz Taylor, Marilyn Monroe, etc). To them stealing and murder have another meaning to the Biblical standard. These are the ones whose heart idols ensure that they trust in lying words as outlined in Jeremiah 7:4+. "Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the Lord are these"... (these folk are anointed, that is, they are Christian)... "Will you steal",... (give geld to churches and overseas (aid) help to huelings, because they forget that tithes, taxes and offerings are for God's kingdom! To give it to dogs and swine is robbing God)... "murder"... (race mixing is murder, it is kinslaughter, genocide, it kills the holy seed of Adam in the womb of a beast of the field, and it kills the holy womb when the unclean seed of the beast of the field has been there implanted, by telegony)... "swear falsely"... (saying that you do all this in the name of Love and thus in the name of the Lord) ... "and burn incense unto Baal"... (burning incense means to yield up a gas/ghost/spirit, thus in this case, yield ones mind / spirit / ghost to a false belief or law system)... "and walk after other gods"... (gods here means 'mighty men', namely, man-kings). Jeremiah is not talking to a bunch of bikers, hoons or drunkards... he is talking to church goers, Christ-osed (anointed) Israelites, believers. What does God say we are to do for such folk, indeed what will he do with them? "I will cast you out of my sight (outcasts, thus strangers, zwur)... therefore bid/pray NOT thou for this folk, neither lift a cry...for them...I WILL NOT HEAR thee..." Jer. 7:15-16.

Does Jesus say amen to his Father's behest? "Have we not cast out demons in thy name," ask the devil-believing church-goers? Yea they are so busy worrying about super-spook and saving huelings, thinking they did so well. Jesus answers, "Go away from me you workers of lawlessness... I never knew you". Matth. 7:21-23.

What then are the wages of theft? Answer, restitution. Israelites were sold into captivity to the Babylonians and now again to the neo-Babylonians, to work off the debt of their national debt. Sin is reckoned as debt. But sin is forgiven we are told, that is true but what then, can we carry on sinning? Ask Paul. He said, God forbid. We are not in neo-Babylon for nothing.

When we go into the next kingdom level, that of the Booths or Ingathering Age, the Overcomers will hold sway. With the tares then gone, the wheat and grape types of Israelite will carry on sinning, but then under righteous law. When they steal, they will not be slung into the 'clink', instead, they will work off their debt as by the laws of restitution. They are kin, but when they fall for their heart wants (lusts and desire), they follow another 'gas' 'spirit' 'ghost'. They burn incense to baal, they have at that point become, 'those who don't have a prayer', they are deemed aliens, they are 'deemed as zwur' who are sold to the highest bidder to work off their debt. They have estranged themselves from the kingdom by their lawlessness. They have then built up debts under the restitution laws and will need to work off their debts. These are the 'strangers', or, the 'estranged' ones who will work for us. These are the 'strangers', 'estranged-ones' we are not to oppress. We are to deal with them with love, that is, by the righteous standard of the Law of God.

In Closing;

Nowhere does the Holy Writ allow for huelings to be part of the Kingdom, namely, the Kelto-Saxon nations. There are two types of strangers. Those who are forbidden in the kingdom because they are of another creation, another kind, racial alien... and those who are allowed in the kingdom because they are our racial kin. But through lawlessness, they have become as the aliens, they are mentally lined up with alien anti-culture, they are Wiggers, no hoppers, robbers of God's gifts and thus debtors. Yet under the loving laws of restitution, they will be the thanes/ servants/ bondmen who upon closure of debt will be freemen, 'franks', Israelites in body and mind. (Not like the Babylonian 'Convict' system which was simply a lame scam to have white slaves after Babylon had made a pauper class by taking away the lands and homes of Saxon freemen thanks to is hireling William the Plunderer and the later enclosure laws brought in by queen Elisabeth I.)

Anyone who still worries about the lot of huelings ought to remember, they are not yours. Also, if God can look after sparrows, why do you still insist on belittling God by thinking He can not look after huelings without your input by robbing God, through casting Kelto-Saxon pearls to the swine raised out of tithes and offerings? Also, huelings never worried about us. Jesus came to save those who were under the law, because clearly, they hadn't a clue on how to do it themselves. It is not the hueling's standing in the kingdom one needs to worry about, but rather, what standing you and your Kelto-Saxon kin will have.

Time to Ban Trumpets...

Folkmotes / Governments in white lands have been trying to ban guns for years. But guns in the hands of, as they put it, "right wing extremists" are really no threat to the Jewish state. Yet it would seem that trumpets are.

DID GOD COMMAND APARTHEID?
Are God's people to be totally racially separated from all other people on the face of the earth? Are all races "saved"? Are those who profess Christianity really following God's Commands as given in His Word?

THE EXCLUSIVENESS OF ISRAEL

now with softcover glue binding. The next most important book after the Bible!

When I began blowing the trumpet at the appointed times as set out in God's year-teller, (True Hebrew calendar, see the book, Sabbaths...It's About Time #161 @ $8.80), I saw that things did take place against the Jewish state. When I began the first time on the 7th trump, the Palestinian uprising began from whence there has been no turning back. Just as it seemed to be calming down and the Road Map to frith looked like it was about to work... it was time for the 6th trump this year. Then the UN was the target in Baghdad and on the same day the Road Map to frith was blown out of the water when a bus in Israel(ie) was blasted killing some 20 Jews ending a lull in the fighting. Seems to me that trumpets are more deadly to Neo-Babylon than guns. Then, - we should have known that, because that is what was used against the walls of Jericho.

Of course God did the fordoing, but trust without works is useless and as a folk of Kings and Priest we are to carry out the duties of office for which God has called us. But don't rush out to buy plastic tubing to bury your trumpets, they won't ban them. For had they believed in Moses (John 5:37-38) they would have known the might of trust in God...and believed in Jesus, but they believe not, 1 John 2:23. One of the trumpets at an appointed time will sound in the end of their state and system of Neo-Babylon, read all of Ezek. Chapters 35 & 36.

THE HOLY WRIT

A Handbook for one Folk, those of the Holy Seed

For too long the churches and religious folk have hijacked the Holy Writ and made it say what they wanted it to say. They have wanted it to be a book of all races, calling all races 'Man' when only one race is such. Furthermore those of that race of man wish to make their own law, teaching that God has allowed this and smiles on it as long as man does good in the eyes of man's law. Man fails to teach that God is a Master of order and right-putting, and that the calamities that befall man are not flukes but are instead God's 'right-putting.' Man always asks, "If there is a God, then why does he allow this or that?" - usually something unpleasant. The ask ought to be, "Because there is a God, why does He DO this or that?"

For two thousand years Man's churches have been trying to ram their slant on the Holy Writ down the throats of the Heulings (Man-likes, but not Man) and for that whole length of time Man has never understood that heulings fail to become Christianized on a national level. Instead the Huelings, more often than not, go back to their own gods and waylay (attack) the lands of Man. They seem unable to instill it in their children the way Man is able to do. In the 20th year-hundred (century) we have seen a replay of timespell (history) wherein Man has been ethnically cleansed from countless lands by those of the lands they tried to Christianize (often for up to 400 years) and still they failed. Man has been ethnically cleansed from nearly every land in Africa. Every land in South East Asia, just as he was from his erstwhile (original) homeland 600 years earlier in the Middle East, 800 years ago from all of Northern Africa, 900 years ago from India and 1000 years ago from Middle Asia. Always stumbling, never coming to the truth. That truth being that the Holy Writ was never meant for the Huelings. Nor does man grasp that the other gods are bad for Man, but are given by God to the other races. Islam is a wonderful law system ... for Arabs. Talmudism is a wonderful law system ... for Ashkenazim/Sephars. Dreamtime, is a wonderful law system for Austral-blacks. But the Holy Writ is the only way for Man and Man alone. And Man is NOT to enquire after these other systems!!

Man's froward love for Huelings has cursed both Man and Huelings. Clouded by this froward love, Man has sought to twist the Biblical meanings of the word 'stranger,' and built whole teachings around loving Huelings whilst at the same time, Man has besnared (betrayed) millions of his own kind because they did not go to the same churches or speak the same tongue or were in other lands having slightly other ways. Yet the latter were the strangers of their own race who they did not understand and for them love was never forthcoming, but for them was built up hatred and war. Double-mindedness became the hallmark of Man.

The Holy Writ is thus the handbook for Man. It is the working guidebook on how to get the best outcomes from Man, for Man. When one buys a car, it comes with a handbook on how to get the best out of that model, and how to make it last the longest time. For any other model, one needs to read the handbook for that other model. So it is with the species of Man-likes, and Man. The Koran (Quran) is for Arabs; the Talmud is for Ashkenaz/Sephar, the Holy Writ is for (those who were under the Law) Israelites - who became the Saxons and Kelts, the 'Ruddy-man,' the Adamites (Strong's Conc. #119, 120),... Man. When 'Man' wakes up to this, then every other race will return to their (own) gods, and 'we' (Man), will turn to the LORD our God, as outlined in Micah 4:5.

The Thrust of the Holy Writ

As outlined, the Holy Writ is for those folk of 'Man,' but there is also a thrust, a lesson and a theme which plays itself out over and again, both on small scales as well as on larger scales. These lessons are all but fully overlooked and missed by nearly everyone, yet it is written into the Holy Writ like weft and weave hold cloth together. Of course there is the Law, there is the folk of the Holy seed, there is the Son of God and the return to life in the form of the 'upstanding,' 'quickenings' or 'resurrection.' Yet the underlying thrust weaves its way throughout all of this as the thread to bind it together. This is the issue of the Israelite feast days. These are not known because the churches have slung these out, right from the start, to replace them with their fake feasts, which are grounded in heathenism. These feasts underpin God's plan for His Thane-folk (servant-nation).

The Feasts

Each true Hebrew year began on the Even-nights (equinox) with the first day as a rest day, a sabbath. From then 6 working days were told to be followed by another rest, and then another 6 working days, and so on. The feasts as well as the working days and the rest day loop stood for many things. On the simplest level these were literal and needy for overall well-being. Yet on another level these stood for God's plan for His unfolding timespell (history). Each feast-deed (ceremony) was a role-play, a means to teach the folk through a set of feast-deeds as to how God was, and will work out the timespell of the world through His folk. Each feast therefore stood for a growing and unfolding timespell and thus a growth from one level of ripeness to another. This works for both on the selfling (individual) level as on the throng level of our race. It is about a three-step growth. All folks of our race go through these levels in their own lives as well as the folk as a whole, together over a longer span of time, thus as selflings and as the body-of-folk.

First level is the 'Deemed-Righteous Level' (justified), twoth (2nd) level is the 'Hallowed Level' (sanctified) and third is the 'Enbrightened Level' (glorified). The Enbrightened level follows the quickening of the dead (resurrection) which is a harvest of the folk. Thus this can also be shown in a tilling likeness, level one is when the seed is deemed good so it is sown into the earth. Two, it grows in the earth until it ripens (fills with goodness of holy ghost, namely, righteous thinking, or agreeing with God); and then three, the fruit is then harvested (quickenings of the dead) and made ready for God's meal table for it then is truly good, or enbrightened.

All feasts are set around the three main feasts and are linked thereto. These being set in rank as to the thrust, as outlined above The Passover, then the wheat Harvest (also called Weeks and Pentecost) and later in the Fall, the Feast of Ingathering also called Booths (or tabernacles). Each stand for levels of selfling growth and the ages in which the folk as one had to live through. On the first level or Passover Age, we are as schoolchildren. In the next age or Wheat Age or Pentecost Age or Church Age, we are as 'know-it-all' teenagers and then in the Ingathering or Booth Age we are as a ripened folk, grown up and agreeing with our Father.

Three Quickenings and the Rest Work.

All those who have ripened as selflings (individuals) during the three ages are called the first fruits. That is why in OT times God was so choosy on how one set about doing the 'feast-deeds' (ceremonies), such as matters dealing with first fruit offerings. These were school lessons on how to understand the growth of the folk so that those who could understand, would ripen to be His first fruits. It was not the literal fruit God wanted as such, as the earth and the fulness thereof is His. There is nothing we can give Him that He does not already own (which we acknowledge by giving Him ten percent of our increase!). The crux of the matter is, do we pass or fail the school test of understanding God's plan for us in the world? The six days of toil for geld (money) or for earning a living can be seen as six 'day-ages' in which we thaned (served) the fleshly needs or the bondage to those who are fleshly in understanding. The rest-(sabbath)-day stands for the rest-day-age in which we will rest from thaning (serving) the fleshly ones and thane the hallowed ones, thus a rest but not a doing of nothing. Rather it is a work of healing, to put right that which has gone amiss. HRH King Jesus showed us the way on this when he healed the sick on the rest day. The church leaders of His day believed that Man was made for the rest day. They failed to see that the rest day was made for Man. Had they understood that, then they would have grasped the theme of a rest or healing work. The rest-age is thus not one of a thousand years of doing nothing, far from it! It will be full on work. Work to heal the lands and the folks of Israel (Kelto-Saxons).

To start off the rest-age, the first fruits of the ages will be quickened from the dead, the first quickening. They will be doing the rest work. In that age there will be many literal harvests, working weeks and rest days. But thenceforth, done in a healed, or lawful way. That is to say, in Kelto-Saxon lands wherein the Church/Wheat/Pentecost Age Groundlaws (Constitution) are done away with, as these are kneaded with the leaven of the Pharisees. Thenceforth will the Law of God become the Groundlaws, unadulterated by Man's thoughts of right and wrong. These will be held under the sway of the 'Body-of-Jesus' folk.

The 'Body-of-Jesus' folk is not to be taken as the 'Bride-of-Jesus' folk. The latter being the Church-going and ex-church-going, secular Kelto-Saxon-Israelites. This throng have had their day (ages) to hold sway, holding it with the leaven of the Pharisees. These are the 'Overcomees,' they needed to be overcome in order to learn that their thoughts on right and wrong are simply not lining up with God (see next month's Hoskins' Report #348, regarding Hindu-Christianity, and it's beliefs! CIM). Sometimes they need to be thrashed (threshed as wheat) or crushed (as grapes) in order to see the ills of their ways. Sometimes they do not even 'see' until death. Out of these comes those who have seen the folly and begin to agree with God's Law - they gain 'Insight' or 'holy ghost.' They then have the oil in their lamps (thinking in themselves) lit to give light. In German, the 'spirit' or alcohol in wine is called wien-giest or 'wine-ghost'. That is the fuel, which makes grape-sap turn into wine. The token we can see in this is that we need the gas, fuel, ghost, insight which comes from having ears to hear and eyes to see. Thus one is filled with holy-ghost. It is NOT a spook, but rather it is a way of thinking which lines up with God's leading and calling out.

Folk thus called are the overcomers. They have overcome their stubborn streak to believe in their ways and Man's ways. These are the first fruits. These are the 'body-of-Jesus' folk, these are the ones who had no say in the ages forby (gone), when the churches held sway. These are the ones who will carry out the sway over the other un-ripened Kelto-Saxons, as the Rest Work, or a healing of the folk work, healing in the Sabbath age. It will be business as unusual but under a Rest Work Folkmote (government).

These overcomers are of the first quickening (resurrection). The others will be born and die during that are but under God's Laws.

A Sabbath year was called for only after the fall feasts and thus the Sabbath Age will follow the same pattern. In the same way the Passover age followed the Passover feast in Egypt and the Wheat Age (church/Pentecost age) followed the feast of Wheat Harvest/Pentecost in the Year of our Lord 33. The Quickening falls on a feast of Trumpets or the Seventh Trump, to call in the Seventh Month. This is followed by the Day of Atonement in which the rest of the folk understand whom they are to follow. Thus "making up" with those they once shunned - the 'Body-of-Jesus' folk, and indeed, their 'head.' The head being HRH King Jesus, the First Love whom they dumped during the first church age by making "another Jesus," one more to their fleshly liking. This is then followed by the eight day feast, the Feast of Ingathering or Feast of Booths. This is what Jesus spoke of when He said of the wheat, that they are to be brought into His barn, and the tares are not they instead are burnt for stubble.

The eight-day theme is markworthy. It took eight days for a son to be shown to the priest to be cut (token of sonship, thus new beginning of son's life); eight days to hallow a priest. On the eighth day of cleaning a leper, he is deemed clean. We as lepers, not feeling the pain of the unclean things we do. The cleansing is after the healing. Jesus told the healed leper to show himself to the priest. It is not that the priest heals him, rather the priest is the official of the state to show on record that he is healed. The Law of God deems that one is to be deemed healed, or wed, and so on by Law, as a witness to the rest of the folk. We see this in the way a gas leak is dealt with, even though the woe is bettered, no-one goes into the mine until it has been officially given the all-clear (This is a warning also to those who think they can wed before God, and not have the wedding officiated by the 'priest' (official). Jesus told the leper to go to the priest even though the priest was an establishment boy. This is because, the establishment boy was part of a body of folk to whom God had given an age to hold sway over.

We need to understand ages through the feast day lessons to grasp the thrust of God's outworking as set in the Bible; as much as we need to know to whom the Bible was written, and to whom it was not given. Without these keys, the Bible will always be a book of riddles, unknowns and quaint tales, rather than a handbook for the sons of Adam!

Strong Husbands: A study of senior citizens presented at the Gerontological Society of America has a rather retro conclusion: husbands and wives live longer when the wife has a strong man to lean on emotionally and he is not as dependent on her. Among couples who leaned equally, wives had nine times the death rate and husbands four times the death rate of more traditional couples. (Time, Dec 11, 2000)

After The Honeymoon: Researchers at the University of Washington have found that the behaviour of newly-weds in the first few years of marriage can be predictive. Frequent use of unifying words such as "us" and "we," significant interaction in the spouses' daily life, and public demonstrations of fondness for the partner are signs of future marital stability. By contrast, couples who describe their lives as chaotic tend to divorce early. (Time, Dec 11, 2000)

Video-Game Verité: Video games are pushing the boundaries of realism - and budgetary constraints. By the time Sega's Sheeny for Dreamcast hit the U.S., it cost the company nearly $80 million. Part of the challenge was to create an interactive version of a city - in this case, Yokosuka, Japan, ca. 1986 - in which you can knock on virtually every door on every street. What's next? Maybe your front door. (Time, Dec 11, 2000)

Enclosed is the registration form for those coming to the camp. Please fill in the details and return the form as soon as possible. Prior bookings only - no walk-ins.

Also enclosed a new contacts-singles list form. The old one is very out-of-date and needs overhauling. If you, or your children would like to be included, please fill in the details and return the form. The list, when compiled, will only be sent to the people on it!

Another month has flown by and the year is almost at an end again. Seems like yesterday people were all concerned about the Y2K bug. Thank you all for writing, and for the clippings that were included. There were a number of letters I meant to respond to - but as yet, I have not had the time. I'm very sorry about that, but it can't be helped. I do hope I will see you at the camp.

May the God of our forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, bless you and keep you and make His face shine on you and be gracious to you and give you His peace,
