

Christian Identity Ministries
 in conjunction with N.Q. Fellowship of God's Covenant People
 PO Box 146, CARDWELL QLD 4849, Australia

A member of the Congregations of Israel

Ph: 07-4066 0146 Fax: 07-4066 0226 (International 61-7 instead of 07)

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian people are ISRAEL! They are God's EXCLUSIVE people.

#228

Covenant Messenger

March AD2005

QUAKE AND QUESTIONS

Peter J. Peters

The last written words we have of the Apostle Peter are: "But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ. To Him be the glory, both now and to the day of eternity, Amen." II Peter 3:18.

Just as a father desires his children to grow, so our heavenly Father desires His children of Israel to grow - to grow in knowledge. Watch a child grow in knowledge and you'll see he does so by asking questions concerning the world about him.

Near the end of the year AD 2004, the world was shaken with a great earthquake; great enough to generate a number of questions. If it hasn't generated questions for those striving to obey II Peter 3:18 then such have quit striving to obey II Peter 3:18. The earthquake questions range from the right to the wrong questions; and, from the foolish to the wise. This article addresses quake questions.

PROBABLY THE MOST ASKED QUESTION is "Is this in Bible prophecy?" probably the most thought of and looked at earthquake prophecy, at the time, is the one given in Matthew 24:7: "For nation will rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom, and in various places there will be famines and earthquakes." Although this may be the most thought about scripture on earthquakes, it is not the only one. In fact, a far greater but often overlooked one is the one found in Hebrews 12:26: "And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.'"

We need to look at the whole context of this scripture—and shall, later in this article when we come to a question we need to personally ask ourselves in light of the quake.

There is a lesser asked question. A question hardly anyone will ask. A question most would think foolish to ask, except for the Gideon elite, taught in our ongoing Scriptures for America (SFA) tape series. This series is entitled "Ask Gideon" (coming soon to the CIM list), and those in that group are "suspicious." These are Christian soldiers that at least know a war is being wages against Christianity and their king, Jesus; but, in addition to this, the Gideon force suspects the enemy in the camp.

There is an enemy in the camp of the saints; a great enemy that goes greatly unsuspected. It is the television set that propagates the propaganda - the war propaganda. And not just TV, but also the general media of TV, radio and print that is in the hands of the enemy. An enemy who is of their father, the devil (John 8:44) and like their father, when they speak, they speak a lie, or worse!

It has been reported that, according to the website of the United States geographic Survey (USGS), there were no less than 64 earthquakes recorded globally between September 19 and September 25, 2004. These were no light-weights, either. Take for examples a magnitude of 5.9 in Fiji, 5.8 in California, and 5.2 in Indonesia. Yet, the enemy's media never reported these that did happen, so did the one they did report on actually happen?

The reason for pointing this out is that one must be suspicious of the media, always. Not that there is never any truth (for they must give some to keep most coming back for the next broadcast), but we must always be suspicious. Since few are, except for the elect, few ask this question concerning the great earthquake: "Did it even happen?" That will, no doubt, be the last asked question, but it should be the very first question!

This preacher has asked it and believes the answer to be, "yes, it did happen." He believes it to be so big and so great that the anti-Christ hell-bound enemies could not cover it up or keep it from us.

It happened on what was, for us, the Eve of Christmas Day, December 25, 2004, when most school children were on Christmas break. This leads us to what was probably the most asked question by those children when they returned to school on Monday, January 3, 2005. The question most asked by children trying to grow in knowledge will also be the wrong question to ask. "What causes earthquakes?" In response, teachers will say something like: "To answer that question we have to understand the earth itself. We must

IN THIS ISSUE:

Quake and Questions, Peters,	1
The True meaning of 'Jihad'	8
The Covenants of the Bible,	9
Mysterious Tremors May Portend Calif. Quakes ..	9
Where Did We Ever Get Lent?	9
Imprecatory Prayer,	10
The Bogeyman Will Get You,	12
Is Discrimination Biblical?	13
Covenant Breakers,	14

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein (or in material offered herein or herewith) are those of the authors and speakers and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written and spoken by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

understand how it is made.” Then they will pull out the wrong books, such as a science book or geology book, and then give the wrong explanation about plate shifts and fault lines, blah, blah, blah.

The correct book to pull out for answers, of course, is the Bible. Yes, to understand an earthquake one must “understand how the earth is made.” This means we must “understand how it was made” for how it is made is exactly how it was made. The first sentence of the Bible tells us how it was made: “In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.” Genesis 1:1.

Once that truth is established, it establishes another truth that the kings (i.e. governments) are soon going to learn once and for all. If he created it, then it is His and all it contains. “The earth is the Lord’s and all it contains.” Psalm 24:1.

Once these two points are established (He created the earth and thus it is His) then one sees the most asked question of “what causes earthquakes?” is the wrong question. The right question is “WHO causes earthquakes?” and the right answer is “God.”

Our anti-Christ enemies and their daddy have presented this answer to be given in our schools and in their media—they have even forbidden the right question to be asked.

Once God’s people have been directed to ask the wrong question and try to find the answer to it, they are headed down the wrong road and remain lost. Once they ask the right question, then they have started down the right road to get the right answer; and, once they get the right answer they will be led to another question:

“Why does God cause earthquakes?” or “What causes God to cause earthquakes?” To answer that, one must again go to the right book, which is, once again, the Bible. The Bible answer is, “Wrath and Anger.” Here are two witnesses to that answer. “But the Lord is the true God. He is the living God and the everlasting King. At His wrath the earth quakes and the nations cannot endure His indignation.” Jeremiah 10:10

“Then the earth shook and quaked. The foundations of heaven were trembling and were shaken because He was angry.” II Samuel 22:8.

This answer should lead people to the next obvious question, but most often it does not. With some assistance from their demonic, mind-controlling enemies, they are directed to ask a stupid, prideful, arrogant, self-righteous question. The next question that should obviously and humbly be asked is, “What causes Him to become angry?” It should be asked so that we might know how we can keep Him from being angry, and thus keep Him from causing the earth to shake.

The really stupid question is “What kind of God would do such a thing?” [or “How could a ‘loving’ God allow such a thing?”] The prophets, who did not have the finesse, nor were as refined or gentle as this preacher, would say to this really stupid question, “An angry God, stupid!” The people are directed to ask this kind of stupid question by the enemy that is not only in the media, but behind church pulpits as well. For example, in one news broadcast, one of their preachers was televised with scenes of quake devastation behind him saying something like, “How does one tell the people here that God loves them?” The purpose of such a cunning soundbite is to cause people to doubt whether there is a God, for the people have been programmed by enemy agents called ministers to believe God is love. Thus, to them, a loving God would never do such a thing.

First of all, since when does love exclude wrath? A father who loves his children can also get angry at them and spank them or yell an angry warning at them. Secondly, who says God loves everyone on this earth? The Bible certainly does not (for does it not say He hates Esau?). Thirdly, why do people believe God is a God of love? A partial understanding of God keeps people from understanding Him fully. To only understand that God is a God of love is only to partially understand Him. A better and more complete understanding of God is that which was given to Moses to give to the people who would question who he was. Moses was instructed to tell them (the people of ISRAEL) that He was the “I AM” (Exod. 3:14). That is another way of saying, “God is.” The full answer of what is God, is that God is, “period.” He is a lot of things. To believe He only “is love” is to only have a partial understanding of God.

When we understand “God is,” we do not stupidly and self-righteously question Him. It is sort of like a child who might dare question the father and the father responds, “Because I said.” Job said, “... Who has defiled Him without harm? It is God who removes mountains, they know not how. [Note: no one knows how He does it]. Who shakes the earth out of its place . . .” Job 9:4-6. The writings in Romans 9:13-22 are fitting here (and self-explanatory):

“Just as it is written, ‘Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated.’ What shall we say then? There is no injustice with God, is there? May it never be! For He says to Moses, ‘I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion.’ So then it does not depend on the man who wills or the man who runs, but on God who has mercy. For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, ‘For this very purpose I raised you up, to demonstrate My power in you and that My name might be proclaimed throughout the whole earth. So then He has mercy on whom He desires, and He hardens whom He desires. You will say to me then, ‘Why does He still find fault? For who resists His will?’ On the contrary, who are you, O man, who answers back to God? The thing molded will not say to the molder, ‘Why did you make me like this,’ will it? Or does not the potter have a right over the clay, to make from the same lump one vessel for honourable use, and another for common use? What if God, although willing to demonstrate His wrath and to make His power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath prepared for destruction?’”

When we understand God is the creator of the earth, then we understand He is the Land-Lord and He can move, place, tear down, or do whatever He wants with His earth—just as a potter can do with his clay, or a child in a sand box with his sand pile. He can do so justly. Who are we to stupidly ask, “How could you do such a thing?” or “How could a God of love do such a thing?” or, in light of calamity hitting, “this isn’t right” - when our God does nothing wrong. NOTHING!!! “For I proclaim the name of the Lord; ascribe greatness to our God! The Rock! His work is perfect, for all His ways are just; a God of faithfulness and without injustice, righteous and upright is He.” Deut 32:3-4.

Must Listening Messages from the late Pastor
Sheldon Emry

TRUST THE GOD WHO CONTROLS THE FUTURE #A-8201 pts 1 and 2.

*Cursed is the man who places his trust in man.
Blessed is the man who places his trust in the Lord Jesus Christ. Fear not the hands of men.*

#A-8208 Should Christians Love the Wicked?

pts 1 & 2. A study into the teaching of “love your brother” and “love thy neighbour.” Identifies who your neighbour and your brother really are, and discusses the basis for forgiveness.

2 tapes - sug don $9

The very ones to ask such foolish questions in light of 150,000 deaths from an earthquake say nothing and never question their own government that has already killed many more in the last two invasions of Iraq - not to mention the Afghanistan invasion. [Australia kills about 100,000 of its own every year in abortion, CIM]

"For My people are foolish, they know Me not; They are stupid children, and they have no understanding. They are shrewd to do evil, but to do good they do not know. I looked on the earth, and behold, it was formless and void; and to the heavens, and they had no light. I looked on the mountains, and behold, they were quaking, and all the hills moved to and fro." Jeremiah 4:22-24.

An even better question, which should be asked next, can better be answered when we have a better and more complete understanding of God besides just that God is love. God is, and He is a lot of things. Even the following list is not complete, but is given in order to answer the even better question:

- "God is love . . ." 1 John 4:8
- God is the God of Israel (200 + Scriptures state this!)
- "God is a righteous judge" Psalms 7:11
- ". . . God is King of all the earth" Psalms 47:7
- ". . . God is the ruler over the realm of mankind." Daniel 5:21
- ". . . . God is not unjust." Hebrews 6:10.

The even better question is, "Why did God cause this earthquake at this time?"

At this time, there is a war going on involving the kings, the rulers - i.e. the governments in the world. To answer this question, we need to understand this and to understand that God is the King of kings and ruler over the realm of mankind. (Some of us may understand and accept this, but the kings of the earth do not yet seem to).

We need to understand the kings of old and the kings of today. In the old days, the kings at war with each other would sometimes strut their armies and might out on the battlefield to exhibit their strength and power. The purpose of this was to let the less powerful of the kings see it would be futile to war with the more powerful one and thus to surrender, come to terms of peace, and submit to the greater king. This way, fewer people get hurt and a lot of blood shed is spared. As I said, today there is a war going on and the kings of the earth have plotted and joined the satanic New World Order. This is prophesied in a prophetic Psalm:

"Why are the nations in an uproar, and the peoples devising a vain thing? The kings of the earth take their stand, and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord and against His Anointed [people]: Let us tear their fetters apart, and cast away their cords from us!" Psalm 2:1-2. [we see this today in Christians being persecuted and prosecuted for standing up for the unborn, and against homosexuality! They throw out prayer, and throw out the Ten Commandments, CIM]

Instead of our King of kings being terrified of all this might combined, let alone impressed, He simply laughs and says He will terrify them by showing His anger. Remember what we've already learned - He shows His anger in earthquakes.

"He who sits in the heaven laughs, the Lord scoffs at them. Then He will speak to them in His anger and terrify them in His fury." Psalm 2:4-5

Then the King of kings tells what He is going to do with His earth: "I will surely tell of the decree of the Lord:

He said to me, 'Thou art My Son, today I have begotten Thee. Ask of Me, and I will surely give the nations as Thine inheritance, and the very ends of the earth as Thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron, Thou shalt shatter them like earthenware.'" Psalm 2:7-9

Then the kings are given a warning: "Now therefore, O kings, show discernment; Take warning, O judges of the earth. Worship the Lord with reverence, And rejoice with trembling. Do homage to the Son, lest He become angry, and you perish in the way, for His wrath may soon be kindled. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!" Psalm 2:10-12.

In light of these truths, it appears He caused the earthquake at this time to show His awesome power as a King not to be messed with, so His enemies will come to terms of peace (which only comes through His Son) and do homage to Him. It's like our God says to those at war with Him who like to "shock and awe" their opponents, "You want to see shock and awe? I'll show you shock and awe!" and then He drops a little rubber ducky in the bathtub, making what is to Him a little splash.

The quake was a warning shot in this war, much like in the old naval battles, where a shot was fired across the opponents bow. The Bible tells us an earthquake is a warning: "See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking. For if those did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less shall we escape who turn away from Him who warns from heaven. And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, 'Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.' Now therefore, O kings, show discernment; take warning, O judges of the earth, worship the Lord with reverence, and rejoice with trembling. Do homage to the Son, lest He become angry, and you perish in the way, for His wrath may soon be kindled. How blessed are all who take refuge in Him!" Hebrews 12:25-26.

As the Psalm says, "He will speak to them in His anger and terrify them in His fury." Psalm 2:5. Job 31:23 says, "For calamity from God is a terror to me." The natural calamity God showed king Pharaoh of old - in the way of severe, so-called 'acts of nature' - caused enough shock, awe, and fear in God's opponent to cause him to temporarily and humbly submit and ask Moses to ask his God to call off His guns, so to speak. Moses did, but then told him he knew he still had not seen enough to properly fear the Lord:

"And Moses said to him, 'As soon as I go out of the city, I will spread out my hands to the LORD; the thunder will cease, and there will be hail no longer, that you may know that the earth is the Lord's. But as for you and your servants, I know that you do not yet fear the Lord God.'" Exodus 9:29-30.

The kings are defying God with their satanic 'tower of Babel,' the so-called New World Order. "Who has defied Him without harm? It is God who removes the mountains, they know not how. When He overturns them in His anger; who shakes the earth out of its place, and its pillars tremble." Job 9:4-6.

Still on the question of why did God cause this earthquake at this time, we need to consider that God is a consuming fire and consider what is prophesied to come upon this earth. Fire and His Law are prophesied to come and, as we shall see, the Bible shows us, along with such coming,

New Video:

HARRY POTTER: WITCHCRAFT REPACKAGED - Making evil look innocent. Rated M15+

Does Witchcraft actually have power? If so, what is its source? Does the Harry Potter series' presentation of witchcraft make it any more acceptable just because it is packaged as "children's fantasy literature"? "This video clears up many misunderstandings .. must viewing for those concerned about the growing interest of witchcraft."

#CI-385 LOAN ONLY sug don $6

comes earthquakes. The prophet prophesied of the Day of the Lord and with its coming would come fire:

“Behold the day of the Lord is coming, cruel, with fury and burning anger, to make the land a desolation; and he will exterminate its sinners from it. For the stars of heaven and their constellations will not flash forth their light; the sun will be dark when it rises, and the moon will not shed its light. Thus I will punish the world for its evil, and the wicked for their iniquity; I will also put an end to the arrogance of the proud, and abase the haughtiness of the ruthless. I will make mortal man scarcer than pure gold and mankind than the gold of Ophir. Therefore I shall make the heavens tremble and the earth will be shaken from its place at the fury of the Lord of hosts in the day of His burning anger.” Isaiah 13:9-13

Peter prophesied of it as well: “But the present heavens and earth by His word are being reserved for fire, kept for the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men. But do not let this one fact escape your notice, beloved, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow about His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward you, not wishing for any to perish but for all to come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar and the elements will be destroyed with intense heat, and the earth and its works will be burned up.” II Peter 3:7-10.

The event described in Luke 19:27 is also coming. This is an event where His Law will be obeyed or else. “But these mine enemies of mine who did not want me to reign over them bring them here and slay them in My presence.” Luke 19:27

In Exodus 19, we read of His Law being manifested again on earth and of His fire; and, with it, guess what else? The earth quaked!!! “Now Mount Sinai was all in smoke because the LORD descended upon it in fire; and its smoke ascended like the smoke of a furnace, and the whole mountain quaked violently.” Ex 19:18. [Sinai, or Jabel el Lawz, is still in Saudi Arabia with its blackened top. This can be seen from the black and white pictures included with Larry Williams’ book, The Sinai Myth of which a few copies are still available. # 650 @ $34.35, CIM]

So, in answer to the question “why the quake at this time?,” it is this preacher’s thought that it is because our God is warning us and showing what is yet to come. Just like certain events happened before the coming flood (such as the animals coming and the doors closing) so this quake happened at this time, before what is really coming. By the way, speaking of the destructive flood of Noah’s day, God moved the animals He wanted saved onto the Ark. It’s interesting to note that it has been reported that before the destructive earthquake-caused tidal wave that the animals moved inland and though there were dead bodies floating in the water, there were very few, if any, dead animals. God knows how to judge sinful man and protect others of His creation.

The quake, of course, happened at a time known as Christmas time; a time some consider to be the birth of Jesus Christ. Yet, those who have studied His birth know He was most likely born during the Feast of Tabernacles, right around September 29. When He was born, He was technically nine months old, or in other words, He had been in His mother’s womb nine months. When one goes back nine months, it puts the time of Mary’s conception right about December 25. This is when the world is the darkest [at least for those in the Northern hemisphere], and it is when the Light of the world came into His world, yet to be fully manifested in His fleshly tabernacle. Interesting that the quake came at the time it did. Remember, we’ve seen nothing yet in the way of shaking (Hebrews 12:26).

It is also interesting that it came, according to one news report, on a day Muslims and Hindus in that part of the world were going into the ocean to ceremonially cleanse themselves (a day set by their lunar calculations). That was the day the tidal wave hit them and washed them out to sea and cleansed them real good!

Another interesting point is that the quake hit about the same time as the big box office hit, “National Treasure,” hit the movie theaters. The enemy not only has control of the media but of Hollywood; but, just like the media, they do let some truth get out in their movies. The truth is the purpose of this movie was to give a face lift to the Masons and the FBI, but it’s theme involved a huge treasure that had been collected from all over the earth for many, many centuries. Although it is a lie that the Masons and the FBI are virtuous outfits, it is true there is such a treasure (for example, we used to have gold and silver coins, but no more. Where did they go? The gold and silver did not go out of existence. There used to be gold in Fort Knox, but there is none now. Where did it go? Where is it?)

By now you are no doubt asking what all this has to do with the earthquake. well, why do Kings go to war? Is it not for treasure? Remember, our God is the Creator of heaven and earth and thus, as Psalms 24:1 states, “The earth is the Lord’s and all it contains. . . .” And, guess what it contains? Treasure! We are told of an end-time event and of a king who gains control of that treasure in Daniel:

“And at the end time the king of the South will collide with him, and the king of the North will storm against him with chariots, with horsemen, and with many ships; and he will enter countries, overflow them, and pass through. He will also enter the Beautiful Land, and many countries will fall; but these will be rescued out of his hand: Edom, Moab and the foremost sons of Ammon. Then he will stretch out his hand against other countries and the land of Egypt will not escape. But he will gain control over the hidden treasures of gold and silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and Libyans and Ethiopians will follow at his heels. Daniel 11:40-43.

Let’s now go back to the earthquake prophecy in Hebrews 12:26, “And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, Yet once more I will shake not only the earth but also the heaven.” Notice He has “promised” but where is that promise to be found? It appears to be found in the prophetic book of Haggai, chapter 2, which also speaks of the treasure:

“As for the promise which I made you when you came out of Egypt, My spirit is abiding in your midst; do not fear! For thus says the Lord of hosts, ‘Once more in a little while, I am going to shake the heavens and the earth, the

New Video: UNHOLY ALLIANCE: Zionism and Christianity

by Ted & Alynn Pike

A century ago the Arab world was at peace with the West, fighting on the side of the Allies during WWI. Then Jewish Zionists, encouraged by Christian evangelicals, established themselves in Palestine. From that moment, mid-east tensions mounted. Ultimately, after nearly a century of Zionist abuses, the Arab world has been driven to frenzy. This is not only against Israel, but against its arch supporter, Christian America. Such outrage erupted in fury on Sept. 11, 2001.

#CI-386 LOAN $6 or sug don $20

sea also and the dry land. And I will shake all the nations; and they will come with the wealth of all nations; and I will fill this house with glory,' says the Lord of hosts. 'The silver is Mine, and the gold is Mine,' declares the Lord of hosts. 'The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former,' says the Lord of hosts, 'and in this place I shall give peace,' declares the Lord of hosts." Haggai 2:5-9.

(Remember, according to Isaiah 10:26, the prophetic end-time deliverance would not only be along the lines of the Gideon story but also along the lines of the story of the exodus from Egypt. When that happened the exploiters gave the silver and gold back to God's people).

Not only does Psalms 24:1 tell us the earth is His and all it contains, which includes the treasure, but it goes on to include the people: "The earth is the Lord's and all it contains, the world and those who dwell in it." The Bible clearly teaches there are a certain people in the world that are His "special treasure." It is this special treasure which is the ultimate treasure His enemies are conspiring to get in the war that is going on. Psalms 83 is another prophetic Psalm that ties into the prophetic Psalm of Psalms, chapter 2, where the kings of the earth take their stand and the rulers take counsel together together against God and against His anointed [people]. In Psalm 83, there is a coalition of God's enemies headed by Esau Edom (whom God hates) who are coming to take God's special treasure or treasured ones. His treasured ones are His people, Israel. The KJV says "hidden ones."

"A song, a Psalm of Asaph. O God, do not remain quiet; do not be silent and, O God, do not be still. For, behold, Thine enemies make an uproar; and those who hate Thee have exalted themselves. They make shrewd plans against Thy people, and conspire together against Thy treasured ones. Come, and let us wipe them out as a nation, that the name of Israel be remembered no more." Psalm 83:1-4.

In a kingdom parable, Jesus spoke of a hidden treasure: "The kingdom of heaven is like a treasure hidden in the field, which a man found and hid; and from joy over it he goes and sells all that he has, and buys that field." (Matthew 13:38). Notice the man found the treasure hidden in the field. The field, in this parable, is the world just as it was in the parable of the tares and wheat (Matthew 13:38). The man hid the treasure, and then, to get it back (that is, redeem it), he sells all that he has and buys the field in order to get the treasure (lawfully). The treasure is His people, Israel. "For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself and Israel for His peculiar treasure." - Psalm 35:4. "And, the Lord has today declared you to be His people, a treasured possession . . ." Deut 26:18. So, what Matthew 13:44 is talking about is what the Bible tells us about God; finding His people in Abraham while they were still in his loins and promising they would become innumerable: "And He took him outside and said, 'Now look toward the heavens, and count the stars, if you are able to count them.' And He said to him, 'So shall your descendants be.' Then he believed in the Lord; and He reckoned it to as righteousness." (Genesis 15:5-6). He said they would form a multitude of nations (Gen. 17:5). Then He cast them off and hid them in the world because of their sins (read Hosea, chapter 1). Then He came and found them and bought the field to get them back or redeem His people - i.e. His special treasure. We are told in Hebrews 8:8 that He made a New Covenant with them. This is all part of the Saxon-Israel message that most know little of and the churches refuse to hear it or teach it. They choose to believe the lie that the present day anti-Christ Jews are God's chosen people - i.e. 'His special treasure.' The Jews have never formed a multitude of nations as the true Israel people have. The white Christian Israelite people are targeted for extinction and they do not know it and/or do not know why; because they do not know who they are.

"God is" and among the many things that He is, "He is the God of Israel." So what does this have to do with the question, "Why did God cause this earthquake at this time?" He has promised that if His people will call out to Him, He would respond. It is a remnant of His people who have eyes to see and ears to hear this truth at this time; specifically, to hear the truth of who really are His people. It was such people as these who prayed and fasted for their nation and their people on November 28, 2004. (Remember, we sent out a mailing on this as a call to prayer and fast on that day [see Messenger #224, page 11]?).

Now let this preacher digress here, temporarily, and tell you a story he heard one time and one time only. He heard it about the time of the fortieth year anniversary of the bombing of Pearl Harbour. It was in a motel room, and he turned on the TV and there was a sort-of documentary on World War II. In it a man was discussing the infamous Bataan Death March. He was sitting in a chair in front of his motor home telling of his experience. As he told it, he said he did not believe the Japs intended to march them. He explained they were held in a large, open field and then tanks were brought in and sort of formed a half-moon circle around them. They then set up machine guns between the tanks. Then, he said, a Japanese officer gave the command to the men manning the machine guns to cock them. Now, ask yourself, what do you think those helpless, Caucasian, disarmed men were doing as they stared down the cold, gray barrels of those machine guns? The man did not say, but I say they were praying. Praying to the God of Israel, though they did not know they were Israelites themselves - i.e. His special treasure. What he did say really made me sit up and take notice. He said, "That is when it happened." Then he sort of got broken up and choked up, and wiping tears from his eyes and clearing his throat, he said, "an earthquake struck us that was so severe that it did not leave one GI standing; when it was over the tanks were completely turned around facing the other way and the machine gunners in between the tanks were crushed." He went on to say the Japanese officers were visibly shaken up and that it was then they were ordered to march.

God's people cried out in prayer and fasting and God answered with an earthquake. David wrote the following:

"And David spoke the words of this song to the Lord in the day that the Lord delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul. And he said, 'The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer; My God, my rock, in whom I take refuge; my shield and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold and my refuge; my savior, Thou dost save me from violence. I call upon the Lord, who is worthy to be praised; and I am saved from my enemies. For the waves of death encompassed me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me; the cords of sheol surrounded me; the snares of death confronted me. In my dis-

Tapes of the Month:

MALACHI - Prophet to End-time Priests

in 6 parts (3 tapes, A-8408, 8409, 8410)

*This study of Malachi teaches that we should take courage for God is against the machinations of Esau-Edom, despite the fact most ministers and theologians of today promote Edom's children as being Jacob's. This series also explains one of our greatest national sins, God-robbery (our lack of tithing).

A sobering message!

[I wonder how many will order this series?]

3 tapes sug don $12 this month only!

ress I called upon the Lord, Yes, I cried to my God; and from His temple He heard my voice and my cry for help came into His ears. Then the earth shook and quaked, the foundations of heaven were trembling and were shaken, because He was angry.” II Sam. 22:1-8

“But the multitude of your enemies shall become like fine dust, and the multitude of the ruthless ones like the chaff which blows away; and it shall happen instantly, suddenly. From the Lord of hosts you will be punished with thunder and earthquake and loud noise, with whirlwind and tempest and the flame of a consuming fire.” Isa. 29:5-6

Yes, there is a war going on and we’ve been losing; but, perhaps the earthquake and its tidal wave is a sign that the tide is changing as the time is changing from Grace to Judgment. Such changing was the case in the story of a few going courageously on the offense. Very few - in fact, just two, Jonathan and his armour bearer:

“Then Jonathan climbed up on his hands and feet, with his armor bearer behind him; and they fell before Jonathan and his armor bearer put some to death after him. And that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armor bearer made was about twenty men within about half a furrow in an acre of land. And there was a trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people. Even the garrison and the raiders trembled, and the earth quaked so that it became a great trembling.” I Sam. 14:13-15.

So, some may ask the question, “why there, where it took place?” Was it not a good place for it to happen? A place where very few of His people were and where Christianity is rare? And, aren’t you glad it was there and not here? That it was those people and not our people, not your people? You should be! When I heard that it happened, I prayed for the people that were Christians and have continued to do so; but, not for the heathens that serve other gods. My God is the God of gods. In days of old, He showed Pharaoh that He was, with His special plagues and catastrophes designed to take down every one of the Egyptian false gods worshipped in Egypt. If you don’t like a God like that you are in big trouble and you, yourself, will soon be taken down, for you are to love Him with all your heart, mind, and soul.

Praise God it happened where the false god of the Muslims is worshipped, where the filthy, hideous Hindus worship their false gods, and where the fat pig Buddha god is worshipped (Northern Thailand is mostly Buddhist; Southern Thailand is where they have been having Muslim trouble; the Muslims are in Sumatra and, of course, India is Hindu).

The island of Sri Lanka is known to be the pedophile capital of the world. The people are so poor there that they sell their children. It’s been reported that every other shop was a sex shop and white Israelite queers that have the money go there and shop. Pedophilia is just another step down in the sin cesspool that homosexuals swim in. Did you notice some of the white survivors who were interviewed talked about their “companions” getting swept out to sea, not their “wives”? If they said their wife, they were probably some place else like in Thailand or India. It could be that such child sex-slave trading is what the following prophecy in Amos is talking about:

“Hear this, you who trample the needy, to do away with the humble of the land, When will the new moon be over, so that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath, that we may open the wheat market, to make the bushel smaller and the shekel bigger, and to cheat with dishonest scales. So as to buy the helpless for money and the needy for a pair of sandals, And that we may sell the refuse of the wheat? The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob, ‘Indeed, I will never forget any of their deeds. Because of this will not the land quake and everyone who dwells in it mourn? Indeed, all of it will rise up like the Nile, and it will be tossed about, and subside like the Nile of Egypt. And it will come about in that day,’ declares the Lord God, ‘That I shall make the sun go down at noon and make the earth dark in broad daylight.’” Amos 8:4-9

“Praise Him for His mighty acts; praise Him according to His excellent greatness.” Psalms 150:2

“A Psalm of Praise, of David. I will extol Thee, my God, O King; and I will bless Thy name forever and ever. Every day I will bless Thee, and I will praise Thy name forever and ever. Great is the Lord, and highly to be praised; and His greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall praise Thy works to another, and shall declare Thy mighty acts. On the glorious splendor of Thy majesty, and on Thy wonderful works, I will meditate. And men shall speak of the power of Thine awesome acts; and I will tell of Thy greatness.” Psalm 145:1-6.

Some of the places during this vacation time were vacation areas of the rich and famous. Only God knows how many rich and famous movers and shakers of the New World Order were removed from the earth forever.

We are instructed to thank Him for all things (Ephesians 5:20), and we should be thankful that it happened there and not here; but, don’t think prophesied destruction will not happen here. Great destruction has happened more than we know, or are allowed to know due to the works of our enemies who take away knowledge. New Zealand archeologist Jonathan Gray has written about some of them. For example, the destruction of the continent Atlantis seems to be much more than a legend; and, according to certain scientists and researchers such as past Cornell professor James McCanney, Atlantis existed right in the area where the earthquake took place. In fact, it appears the United States Navy has been doing underwater archeological research on Atlantis. No doubt the quake stopped that and probably destroyed the remains of what they were researching.

A future destruction has been decreed: “For a complete destruction, one that is decreed, the Lord God of hosts will execute in the midst of the whole land.” Isaiah 10:23. Isaiah seems to describe that destruction in chapter 24. A future destruction has been decreed and it will be only a remnant of His people who are spared, for we are still saved by grace, not by race.

“For though your people, O Israel, may be like the sand of the sea, only a remnant within them will return; a destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness. For a complete destruction is determined, one that is decreed, the Lord God of hosts will execute in the midst of the whole land.” Isaiah 10:22-23.

“And it shall be that in the place where it was said to them, ‘You are not My people,’ there they shall be called sons of the living God. And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, ‘Though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that will be saved; for the Lord will execute His word upon the earth, thoroughly and quickly.’” Romans 9:26-28.

Let’s go back to the subject of the most asked question

pre-publication offer

THE CASE OF SAUL or PAUL

by Brandon P. Hawkins

We have been given permission to reprint this booklet dealing with the controversy concerning Paul. Conflicting reports are coming to us from scholarly sources expounding both pro and anti points of view.

Do Paul’s words conflict with those of our Master - Jesus? Coming soon D.V.

Excellent study of 47 pages.

#975 sug don $5.00

concerning this most recent great quake. Is it prophecy? Prophecy cannot be fully understood unless we understand our God more fully. If we only know Him as the “God of love” as the modern church world have made, or help to make people know Him, then we will only have very little understanding (we are to grow in understanding-- II Peter 3:18) and we’ll never be able to understand prophecy properly.

On the subject of “God is love,” is it even possible to understand God in light of this statement if we do not understand “love”? Of course not! The statement, “God is love” is only found two times in the Bible; and the statement “God of love” is only found one time. To understand prophecy we must understand that God is the “God of Israel.” This statement “God of Israel” is found over two hundred times (213 times if my count is correct). Now, can we understand God if we don’t understand the meaning of the word “Israel”? Of course not! And, we cannot understand prophecy if we do not understand who the people of prophecy are.

The modern church of today does not want to understand and does not want the people to understand who Israel is; such understanding is politically incorrect, socially unacceptable, and disadvantageous to church growth and prestige, and, even racist in nature, according to them. In the war that is presently being waged, the enemy is in the camp of the saints and many are behind the church pulpits. It’s called being a double agent, to keep the people from growing in understanding, to keep the people darkened in their understanding, to keep them blinded by the lies; as such, the people will be blind-sided with a blow they never see coming. That’s what war is about - destroy the enemy. (Jesus, our Saviour, came not only to save His people from their sins but from their enemies as well. See Luke 1:68,71). many will be destroyed, “And Isaiah cries out concerning Israel, ‘though the number of the sons of Israel be as the sand of the sea, it is the remnant that will be saved; for the Lord will execute His word upon the earth, thoroughly and quickly.’” Romans 9:27-28.

As Hosea stated, God’s people are destroyed for a lack of understanding and knowledge (Hosea 4:6). The enemies behind the church pulpits work to keep the people from understanding He is the God of Israel, and who Israel is; thus the modern day churches teach a spiritual Israel or call the church Israel or the anti-Christ Jews of today Israel. The Bible has warned of the spy and double agent (Jude 4, Ephesians 4:14).

Not that all behind the pulpits that teach a false Israel are enemy agents; but, more are than we know and more are than probably are not. The ones that are not either want to believe this lie (or else they will lose their church or their jobs) or are afraid to speak the truth. When confronted with the truth that can not honestly be denied from a Biblical, historical and archeological standpoint, they will then often say, “What difference does it make?” (The truth is the white Caucasian, Saxon-Germanic-Scandinavian-Celtic and kindred people are the physical Israelites, descended from Abraham).

One of the differences it makes is we cannot understand prophecy if we do not know who the people of prophecy are. we need to understand that it does make a difference to the “God of Israel” who is God the Father to the children of Israel. As much of a difference as with a father who comes to a daycare center at the end of the day to pick up his child, and the daycare worker brings out a child; a child that is not his and says, “Oh, what difference does it make? A child is a child and we are all God’s children and all precious in His sight.”

No, not all the false teachers on this subject that are behind the pulpits are agents. Some are just flat out negligent or afraid to do their job in preaching the truth and seeing that their flock grows in grace and knowledge.

We all need to know that a great destruction has been prophesied; one so great that the recent quake will look rather small. There are two great, major destructions spoken of in the Bible - the flood and the Day of the Lord. The one has already occurred and the other is about to. It is prophesied.

All this brings us to what is, perhaps, the most important quake question that some might ask. “In light of the quake, what should I do?” Even this question is incomplete. The better question is “What should I do and not do?” For the Bible tells us there is something that should not be done as well as things to do.

“See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking. For if those did not escape when they refused him who warned them on earth, much less shall we escape who turn away from Him who warns from heaven. And His voice shook the earth then, but now He has promised, saying, “Yet once more I will shake not only the earth, but also the heaven.”” Hebrews 12:25-26.

There will be many who refuse to see the quake as an act of God and will choose to excuse it as an act of “Mother Nature” (some are even claiming it was man-made). They will refuse to listen to God speaking, “See to it that you do not refuse Him who is speaking.” When God speaks, we had better listen, particularly when it is in an angry voice. That earthquake was caused by God and what causes God to cause a quake is anger and in that quake He is speaking A WARNING! How foolish for people to ignore, or refuse to listen. Many will, but it is the prayer of this preacher that those he is privileged to preach and minister to do not ignore or refuse this.

Do not dismiss this act of God and do not fail to be shocked and awed and, yes, even terrorized a bit by it. Even Godly Job said, “For calamity from God is a terror to me...” Job 31:23. Just as soldiers on the other side have a duty to their kings, so do we, as Christian soldiers, have a duty to ours who is the King of kings; and that duty is to fear Him. “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.” Eccl. 12:13.

Fear and reverence causes us to heed and obey. The great destruction of the flood did not come without prophecy and warning. Those who prepared for it did so out of faith and reverence. “By faith Noah, being warned of God about things not yet seen, in reverence prepared an ark for the salvation of his household, by which he condemned the

New Tapes:

- E-099 The Last Battle - Deut. basics pt7
Pastor Don Elmore
- D-136 Passing On The Covenant - Covenant Theology & The Family. Ps. L. Blanchard
- K-459 Family Values: Envy, Bitterness, Murder, pt 1 - Joseph Overcomer, pt 1
Pastor James Bruggeman
- K-460 Family Values: Envy, Bitterness, Murder, pt 2 - Joseph Overcomer, pt 2
Pastor James Bruggeman
- S-993 Special Enemy, Special Forces & Prophecy, Pastor Pete Peters
- S-994 Pastor Peters Confesses Sin
- S-995 Ask Gideon - pt 1, Pastor Pete Peters
- J-104 Where We Are & How We Got There, Part 3 of 14, Pastor John Weaver
- J-105 Where We Are & How We Got There, Part 4 of 14, Pastor John Weaver

world, and became an heir of the righteousness which is according to faith." Hebrews 11:7

Do not think the great prophesied shaking (Hebrews 12:26) is not coming and do not think the one that just came is the one prophesied. The one prophesied to come will shake not only the earth but the heavens also. There is another 'do not' that needs to be addressed. Some have asked, "Should we send aid to the devastated area?" The answer is found in the way of another question found in II Chronicles 19:2, "... Should you help the wicked and love those who hate the Lord and so bring wrath on yourself from the Lord?" (Something for John Howard to consider, and Australia as a whole, since so much of our tax-dollars have been promised in aid).

Let's consider an area where the biggest number of deaths is reported - Indonesia. It's been reported a part of the coast actually broke off there. Back in the 60's, Indonesia had a Christian president by the name of Sukarno (He is the one who fought for independence from Holland, CIM). He even held prayer meetings in his home and the country prospered. Then an insurgency of radical Muslims deposed him and placed a Muslim leader, Suharto, in his place; then started the persecution of Christians. The Muslims would herd Christians into churches and set the churches on fire; they would shoot any that tried to come out to escape the flames. So you answer that question. (Funny we don't hear about that Holocaust in the media? CIM)

Some may well ask, "What would Jesus say to that question?" He once said, "Let the dead bury their dead." Matt. 8:22. The Bible says those outside of Christ are dead in their sins (Eph 2:1,5). This preacher says let the Muslims help, bury, or do whatever; but, whatever you do, do NOT help those who hate our Lord Jesus Christ, and His followers. If you send help make sure it is sent to some Christian missionary or group over there. (i.e. not through the normal channels, CIM). Let Saudi Arabia and the rest of the Muslim world help their heathen buddies. (If you have sent help, repent before God of having done so, and never do it again! CIM).

When God rained down calamity and judgment in the way of plagues upon Egypt, God was judging their gods and the people who served them: "For I will go through the land of Egypt on that night, and will strike down all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments - I am the Lord." Ex. 12:12. In Exodus 9, He rained down hail, but it did not touch His children of Israel in Goshen (this happened during the time of the barley harvest). I ask, "Would it not have been an affront to God for His people to run out with care packages to the heathens?" Jesus said, "Let the dead bury the dead" and Paul said, "If anyone does not love the Lord, let him be accursed" and I say, "Amen." Let them cry out to their Allah god, to their Hindu god, to their Buddha god and let their fellow Hindus, Muslims, and Buddhists help their own.

As the Bible says in II Chronicles 19:2, when God's people help the ungodly and those who hate the Lord, they bring the wrath of God upon themselves. It needs to be said that when their government does so, it brings the wrath upon the people as well. For example, when King David did wrong (II Sam. 24:1), the people under that government suffered and died as a result of God's wrathful judgment (II Sam. 24:15).

We, through faith in the fact that Jesus Christ our Saviour is able to deliver us, can (and must) face the days ahead in peace and security.

"For the choir director. A Psalm of the sons of Korah. O clap your hands, all peoples; Shout to God with the voice of joy. For the Lord Most High is to be feared, a great King over all the earth. He subdues peoples under us, and nations under our feet. He chooses our inheritance for us, the glory of Jacob whom He loves. Selah. God has ascended with a shout, the Lord, with the sound of a trumpet. Sing praises to God, sing praises; sing praises to our King, sing praises. For God is the King of all the earth; sing praises with a skillful psalm. God reigns over the nations, God sits on His holy throne. The princes of the people have assembled themselves as the people of the God of Abraham; for the shields of the earth belong to God; He is highly exalted." Psalm 47. PJP.

Courtesy The Dragonslayer, Box 766, LaPorte CO 80535

The following came by way of email. While there are some obvious problems with it, it nevertheless does display the difference between the two faiths.

THE TRUE MEANING OF 'JIHAD' by Rick Mathes

The Muslim religion is the fastest growing religion per capita in the United States, especially in the minority races!!!

ALLAH OR JESUS?

Last month I attended my annual training session that's required for maintaining my state prison security clearance. During the training session there was a presentation by three speakers representing the Roman Catholic, Protestant and Muslim faiths, who explained each of their belief systems.

I was particularly interested in what the Islamic Imam had to say. The Imam gave a great presentation of the basics of Islam, complete with a video. After the presentations, time was provided for questions and answers. When it was my turn, I directed my question to the Imam and asked:

"Please correct me if I'm wrong, but I understand that most Imams and clerics of Islam have declared a holy jihad (holy war) against the infidels of the world. And, that by killing an infidel, which is a command to all Muslims, they are assured of a place in heaven. If that's the case, can you give me the definition of an infidel?"

There was no disagreement with my statements, and, without hesitation, he replied, "Non-believers!"

I responded, "So let me make sure I have this straight. All followers of Allah have been commanded to kill everyone who is not of your faith so they can go to Heaven. Is that correct?"

The expression on his face changed from one of authority and command to that of a little boy who had just gotten caught with his hand in the cookie jar. He sheepishly replied, "Yes."

I then stated, "Well, sir, I have a real problem trying to imagine Pope John Paul commanding all Catholics to kill those of your faith, or Dr. Stanley ordering Protestants to do the same in order to go to heaven!"

The Imam was speechless.

I continued, "I also have a problem with being your friend when you and your brother clerics are telling your followers to kill me. Let me ask you a question: Would you rather have your Allah who tells you to kill me in order to go to Heaven or my Jesus who tells me to love you because I am going to Heaven and He wants you to be with me?"

You could have heard a pin drop as the Imam hung his head in shame. Needless to say, the organisers and/or promoters of the 'Diversification' training seminar were not happy with Rick's way of dealing with the Islamic Imam and exposing the truth about the Muslim's beliefs.

I think everyone in the US should be required to read this, but with the liberal justice system, liberal media, and the ACLU, there is no way this will be widely publicized. Please pass this on to all your contacts.

This is a true story and the author Rick Mathes is a well known leader in prison ministry.

Veterans Party of North Carolina, 310 Meadow Lane West, Hubert NC 28539

----- THE COVENANTS OF THE BIBLE

In view of the fact that all of our Christian Teaching is based on the Promises that Almighty God made to Israel, we should look carefully at these Promises. The Bible is divided into two parts referred to as the Old Testament, or Old Covenant; and the New Testament, or New Covenant. Many therefore believe that there are only two Covenants or Testaments. But the fact is that there are eight covenants found in the Bible. In these Covenants will be found the Promises of God to Israel as well as a Revelation of God's Great Plan and Purpose for the World.

1. Edenic Covenant: Made with Adam in the Garden of Eden - Genesis 2:7,15.
2. Adamic Covenant: Made with Adam after the Fall - Genesis 3:15.
3. Noahic Covenant: Made with Noah after the Flood - Genesis 9:1.
4. Abrahamic Covenant: Made with Abraham, and later confirmed and enlarged with Isaac and Jacob-Israel - Genesis 15:18.
5. Mosaic Covenant: Made with Moses and the Israel people at Mt. Sinai - Exodus 24:8.
6. Palestinian Covenant: Made with Israel when they were about to enter the Promised land - Leviticus 26 and Deuteronomy 28, 29, 30.
7. Davidic Covenant: Made with David, and his seed forever - 2 Samuel 7:16.
8. New Covenant: Made with Twelve-Tribed Israel [ONLY] through the Blood of our Saviour Christ Jesus - Jeremiah 31:31, Hebrews 8:8.

Yahweh's promises, as contained in the Covenants are indeed sure and true. May all Israel praise Yahweh-God.

Courtesy Virginia Christian Israelite, Box 109 Round Hill VA 20142

According to our Saviour, Christ Jesus: "For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes in divers places." Matt. 24:

MYSTERIOUS TREMORS MAY PORTEND CALIFORNIA QUAKES

WASHINGTON (Reuters) - Low-pitched rumbles from deep under California's San Andreas fault may offer a way to predict future earthquakes, U.S. geologists said on Thursday.

They said they were recording continuous tremors that sounded almost like "chatter" from deep beneath the surface and much deeper than most quakes. Some began just before a relatively large quake last September, they report in this week's issue of the journal Science.

"This is new information from an area deep down under the fault we have not been able to look at before," said Robert Nadeau, a seismologist at the Berkeley Seismological Laboratory at the University of California. "If these tremors are precursory to earthquakes, there is potential here for earthquake forecasting and prediction."

The vibrations come from a depth of 20 to 40 Km (12-25 miles) beneath the surface, near the boundary between the Earth's crust and the hot mantle. Most quakes start at a depth of just 15 Km (9 miles). The new tremors start at a point about 15 miles southeast of Parkfield, near a town called Cholame. They resemble measurements made at subduction zones in Japan and the Pacific Northwest. A subduction zone is where one of the Earth's tectonic plates is slipping under another. These areas are known for intense earthquake activity.

On September 28, the Parkfield segment of the San Andreas Fault ruptured in a magnitude 6 quake with its epicenter close to the tremor region. There may be a relationship, Nadeau said.

The geologists also identified 110 tremors lasting four minutes or more during the three years that ended with the magnitude 6.5 San Simeon earthquake on December 22, 2003. Parkfield bills itself as the "Earthquake Capital of the World" because starting 20 years ago scientists began studying it to see if they could predict a large quake that they believe is due to hit there. And experts believe that Cholame was the epicenter of the last big quake to hit Southern California, the magnitude 7.8 Fort Tejon quake of 1857. Nadeau said big earthquakes hit this area on average every 140 years, so another is due.

We are well aware that natural catastrophes such as earthquakes will portend the end of the age and the return of our Saviour. We were warned about "signs of the times" and this warning may be just such a sign for 2005. Are you prepared to meet your Saviour?

Courtesy Virginia Christian Israelite

----- WHERE DID WE EVER GET LENT?

In the upcoming weeks, the establishment Christian churches will observe Ash Wednesday followed by the forty days of "Lent," prior to Easter. Lent is a time of abstinence and special giving or offerings, according to traditional church doctrines. The word "lent" appears some seven times in the KJV, but it is not concerned with or applicable to a period of time. In reality, its meaning denotes the "lending" of something to someone.

At the time of Jesus Christ and the apostles, no one had ever kept Lent - the 40 days of abstinence preceding Easter. The Catholic Encyclopedia explains, "Some of the Fathers as early as the fifth century supported the view that this 40-days' fast was of apostolic institution." But the best modern scholars are almost unanimous in rejecting this view, for in the existing remains of the first three centuries we find both considerable diversity of practice regarding the fast before Easter and also a gradual process of development on the matter of its duration. We may fairly conclude that "Irenaeus about the year 190 AD knew nothing of any Easter fast of 40 days."

Since we know this festival was not ordained by Christ, where did it come from? Much like Easter, it has pagan origins: It was "directly borrowed from the worshippers of the Babylonian goddess,” says Alexander Hislop. “Such a Lent of 40 days, in the spring of the year, is still observed by the Yezidis or pagan devil worshippers of Kurdistan, who have inherited it from their early masters, the Babylonians” (The Two Babylons, #907 @ $41.00). The 40-days period was also observed anciently in Egypt - hardly the Christian roots most would expect.

When many Christians insist on the observance of this period, feel secure in the knowledge that its beginnings were a mere part of traditions originated and or adopted by the unholy Roman Church.

Courtesy Virginia Christian Israelite, Box 109 Round Hill VA 20142

IMPRECATORY PRAYER

The Christian answer to persecution, injustice and tyranny.

The information in this article can be supported by several Bible examples, at the website.

What is a Christian to do when the government protects criminals and criminal activity such as the abortion clinic? What is a Pastor to do when the government, or the news media, or well-funded liberal hate groups persecute and bad mouth him because of his doctrine? What is a Christian to do when he can not go to the courts, police, and government for justice? What if the courts, police and government are the criminals. The answer is imprecatory prayer. Here is the definition found in most dictionaries.

Imprecation: A curse, denunciation that conveys a wish or threat of evil.

Imprecatory Prayer: To pray for evil or misfortune (malediction, anathema, execration).

Information on imprecatory prayer is extremely rare and that definition is so poor that it could almost be called a ‘government’ definition. Why is this definition poor? What is a better definition?

First, the definition above is poor because it conceals more than it reveals.

Second, this establishment definition makes it seem like imprecatory prayer is somehow ‘unchristian.’ Imagine yourself on TV. The TV talk show host would ask, “What kind of a Christian would ask God to curse, or bring evil and misfortune on anyone? (The implied answer is “None!”).

Of course the answer would be interrupted, and during the commercial break the TV audience would be left to believe that the guest is some kind of a hateful nut. Here is a better definition;

Imprecatory prayer is a last resort appeal to God for justice. The so called ‘curses’ are simply the just penalty called for in the scriptures for the alleged crime. Imprecatory prayer is an appeal to the court of divine justice (1) for protection and (2) the appropriate punishment for the criminals.

Imprecatory prayer is most often used when the criminals are the rich and powerful or corrupt men in government. The prayer asks God to solve the problem and bring the criminal to repentance, or to judgment.

Here are a few words from a sermon by Pastor Pete Peters as he was commenting on pages 216 and 217 of Paradise Restored by Rev. David Chilton.

“You be careful with imprecatory prayer. Because if your life is not right, it can have a boomerang effect. You see, as you judge, so shall you be judged. Think about that.

Does that make sense? I say that because the other day somebody pointed out to me that a woman has been praying for me to die in an airplane crash. She is a Christian woman. She wants me dead. Well, now, I was thinking about that, you know, If I was her son I would not want to get into an airplane. You see what I am saying? You have to be careful how you use that power. With imprecatory prayer, if we don’t mature as Christians, it is like putting a loaded .45, ‘hammer-back, cocked and safety off, into the hands of a five-year-old. Does that make sense?” (quoted from: Pete Peters, Rules for Radicals, [3 tape set], #S-578, S-579, S-580 @ $15 the set).

Praying for someone to die in an airplane crash does not fit the establishment definition of imprecatory prayer (A curse, denunciation that conveys a wish or threat of evil. To pray for evil or misfortune). But does that woman’s prayer conform to the second definition, “a last resort appeal to God for justice”? NO! And that prayer would be un-Christian.

Your personal adversary is not always God’s enemy: If a neighbour backs over your mail box time after time, you may be angry and extremely frustrated. But you are dealing with a neighbour, not an enemy of God the following scriptures apply to this situation. Matthew 18:22 and Luke 17:3-4. The request that God would have someone destroy some of his property to teach him a lesson; to care for the property of others, that might be appropriate. But you don’t ask God to kill someone just because you don’t like him. There has to be a crime and an appropriate appeal for justice.

A false witness: (16) If a false witness rise up against any man to testify against him that which is wrong; (17) Then both the men, between whom the controversy is, shall stand before the Lord, before the priests and the judges, which shall be in those days; (18) And the judges shall make diligent inquisition: and, behold, if the witness be a false witness, and hath testified falsely against his brother; (19) Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother: so shalt thou put the evil away from among you. (20) And those which remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil among you. (Deut 19:16-20, KJV).

In the situation where the woman is praying that God would cause Pastor Peters to die in a plane crash we have verse 19 to be concerned about. “Then shall ye do unto him, as he had thought to have done unto his brother,” the boomerang effect as Pastor Peters called it.

In Psalms 109 David was the victim of a slander campaign . David asked God to do unto the accuser as he had thought to do to him, “Let a wicked prosecutor bring him up on false charges and even let him be found guilty.” Psalm 109:5-6.

So, if you hate your neighbour and ask God to curse him, you might just end up having God bring that same curse upon yourself. This lady who wished Pastor Peters dead, if she had the money, she might just hire an assassin. Having little money, she asks God to be the assassin on the free will offering plan. In doing this she just might even bring upon herself the false witness penalty. She would not be coming before the court of divine justice with clean hands.

With Clean hand: That is, without guilt. When a Plaintiff comes before a court with a complaint he is expected to Important history book:

The Phoenician Origin of Britons, Scots & Anglo-Saxons, by L.A. Waddell LL.D., C.B., C.I.E.
A profusely authoritative and well illustrated work representing the Phoenician theory on British origins, supported by an imposing array of evidence. Discovered by Phoenician & Sumerian inscriptions in Britain, by pre-Roman Briton coins & a mass of new history. First published 1924. With over one hundred illustrations and maps. 476 pages - clothbound. #466 @ sug don $15.95 come with 'clean hands.' A thief is not to accuse another of theft. For an extreme example: Bob and Joe agree to rob a bank and split the money 50-50. But Bob takes most of it for himself. Joe can not go to court to sue for the balance of his share. Joe can not come before the court with 'clean hands.'

The Woman Caught in the Act of Adultery

John 8:3 "And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou? This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. [another case of a forked lawyer question, where heads they won and tails, Jesus lost.] But Jesus stooped down, and with [his] finger wrote on the ground, [as though he heard them not]. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard [it], being convicted by [their own] conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, [even] unto the last; and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more." Jn 8:3-11.

Let Him Who Is Without Sin Cast the First Stone

In this Bible story, a woman was caught committing a felony. And apparently the accusers were felons also. Adulterers are not in a position to accuse others of adultery. When Jesus said, "Let him who is without sin cast the first stone," no one stepped forward. [and they had nothing to accuse Jesus of].

This is not to be extended to say that no one can ever step forward and cast the first stone because 'All have sinned.' "For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." Romans 3:23.

A traffic violation on your part does not keep you out of court as a plaintiff when another person steals your property. Likewise, being a sinner does not mean that you can not go to God for justice via imprecatory prayer. The first goal is repentance. So the imprecatory prayer needs to repent of his sins first, then take his complaint and plea for justice to God.

The purpose of imprecatory prayer is to bring a criminal to repentance. And if there is no repentance, then to punishment. Not at man's hand, but at God's hand. "Vengeance is mine, I will repay."

The governmental courts are considered to be God's courts. If the court judges righteously and punishes the criminal then the Court's punishment is God's vengeance. When the Earthly courts are corrupt, we appeal to a higher court, the court of Divine Justice. We appeal to God asking Him to get personally involved.

"When ye come to appear before me, who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts?" Isa 1:12.

"Thus saith the Lord of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by." Zech. 3:7.

Angel: You look frustrated today my Lord.

God: What a bunch of bone-heads! It's those Christians! I told them to love their neighbours and hate My enemies. But all they do is fight with the brethren and pray that I 'bless them that curse thee.'

Angel: Shall I continue to do as they ask? To bless those that curse them? I hope they realize, before it is too late, Christians are to pray for blessings upon their neighbours and curses upon God's enemies.

A Time to Love, and a Time to Hate

A time to love, and a time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. Eccl. 3:8.

Hate: Hate God's enemies. Pray against them.

"I have hated the congregation of evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked. Psa 26:5

"I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the Lord. Psa 31:6

"Do not I hate them, O Lord, that hate thee? and am I not grieved with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect hatred: I count them mine enemies. Psa 139:21-22.

Love: Love the Brethren, pray for them.

"By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another. John 13:35.

"This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you. John 15:12

"For this is the message that ye heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. 1 John 3:11.

Law Enforcement is the Government's Job

Romans 13:1-11 Lawful authority comes from God:

"Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God; the powers that be are ordained of God. Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation."

The Duties of Government:

"For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law."

The Law that Government is to Enforce:

"For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law."

The Cure for Corrupt Government:

"And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed." Romans 13:1-11.

do you have a copy?

TOOTH TRUTH

by Frank J. Jerome, D.D.S.

If you want to be healthy - Don't metal with your teeth. The dental profession, through its leadership, has generally ignored or denied the truth about the risks of using mercury and other metals fillings. Therefore, this book has been written directly to the consumers, their patients. It is hoped that consumers will decide with their dollars what type of materials and procedures they really want once they are better informed. It is time to reexamine what dentists do and for better choices to be made.

#782 @ sug don $45.50

The cure for corrupt government has to do with “waking up.” The solution is nearer than when we believed. It is imprecatory prayer!

<http://moseshand.com/buildup/prayer.htm>

It has again been brought to my attention, that someone has been copying and/or anonymously sending and /or putting certain newsletter pages to people’s mailboxes, after highlighting and/or underlining certain passages for emphasis. I would point out that we do NOT approve of this type of behaviour! Talk to people by all means, and if they are interested give them something, whether copied or original. But to just stir people up anonymously is a negative thing to do, achieves nothing, and gets people very upset with negative repercussions. It does not further the cause of God’s Kingdom “Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you.” Instruction from Jesus in Mat. 7:6 Whoever has done/is doing this, please refrain. Anyone found doing so will be instantly removed from our mailing list!!! If you want to spread something around like that, put your OWN NAME and address on it!!! Thank you for your cooperation. CIM

THE BOGEYMAN WILL GET YOU!!

by Jude Wanniski

Memo To: Website Fans, Browsers, Clients

From: Jude Wanniski

Re: Fear Sells!!!

Something I read in one of the news magazines roughly 20 years ago has stuck with me ever since. One of the new breed of environmentalists was asked about claims his organization had been making that a certain pollutant would cause an increase in so many incidents of cancer among Americans. The fellow, who clearly knew the assertion was so much hype, confided that there were so many organizations out there raising money with scare stories about one thing or another that “unless you multiply your numbers by ten you won’t get heard.”

I was reminded of this rule of thumb most recently in reading a review of Michael Crichton’s new novel, State of Fear. Crichton is of course the well-known author of Andromeda Strain and Jurassic Park and several other techno-thrillers, fiction and non-fiction. What Crichton has discovered in his poking around for material is something that I’ve been writing about for at least a dozen years, the fact that “Global Warming” is a giant hoax. By that I don’t mean the earth is no warmer now than it was a century ago. It is, a bit. The hoax is that the warming has been caused by mankind oxidizing carbon, i.e. burning fossil fuels. How come so many serious people seem to believe it is gospel (One of its true believers, Al Gore, almost became President)? Crichton’s novel is upsetting a lot of eco-wackoes because it will almost certainly make a dent in the hoax when it is read by millions of people, when it gets paperback, and when it is seen by tens of millions when it becomes a movie.

Dr. Fred Singer, an atmospheric and space scientist who serves as president of the non-profit Science & Environmental Policy Project, has been one of a handful of academic scientists valiantly pointing out the giant holes in the GW hoax, but not getting very far because the News Media loves Global warming. Fear Sells!! The New York Times, which is the chief advocate of the Hoax in the U.S., did not especially like Dr. Crichton’s book, Crichton being an M.D. Dr. Singer, though, is overjoyed at having the Hoax exposed by Crichton, especially knowing that senators John McCain [R.AZ] and Joe Lieberman [D.CN] will have to answer to their novel-reading, movie-going constituents sometime soon about why they have been promoting the Hoax with taxpayer’s money. As far as I know, the only member of Congress who has even laid a glove on the Hoax is Senator Ted Stevens of Alaska, who is dismissed by the newsies because he wants to develop Alaska’s energy sources!! Can you imagine?

Here is some of what Singer had to say in his review of State of Fear, in which a 60-foot tsunami has a prominent role:

The message conveyed is two fold:

- The scientific evidence does not support Global Warming fears - or even the occurrence of a significant warming trend.

- The environmental movement and its well-paid leadership has jumped on the GW bandwagon because that’s where the money is ...

Crichton’s story starts out with a series of seemingly disconnected events in far-flung places: Paris, Malaysia, London, Tokyo, Vancouver, Iceland, etc., and mostly California - but gradually comes into focus as we discover that the national Environmental Resource Fund (NERF), a fictitious environmental organization, is planning a gigantic worldwide conspiracy: major catastrophes to simulate imagined impacts of a sudden climate change. In contrast to the notorious movie The Day After Tomorrow, these disasters are carefully engineered by eco-terrorists and not at all connected to any climate change.

But our heroes, led by John Kenner, manage to scotch the nefarious doings of NERF and its egomaniac chief, Nicholas Drake but just barely. Drake and his minions want to surreptitiously trigger a series of natural disasters, including a supersize hurricane and a giant tsunami (tidal wave) that would hit California with 60-foot waves; these disasters would be timed to coincide with NERF’s big media conference, thereby awakening the public to the dangers of climate change wrought by Global Warming.

By coincidence, the tsunami that has caused so much death and destruction in Asia has produced plenty of commentaries from the eco-wackoes trying to somehow tie the earthquake to the GW Hoax.

It also provoked the following comment from Gary North, the political economist whose writings I follow on Lew Rockwell’s website. Gary wonders why the News Media can go bananas over 150,000 tsunami deaths and ignore other environmental disasters that are orders of magnitude greater. he has also decided that fear sells.

Consider the number of estimated deaths directly attributable to Malaria, a mosquito-borne disease. Western governments have been major players in imposing this holocaust because they have banned the production of DDT, which is the most effective anti-mosquito chemical agent. Dr. Arthur Robinson, a chemist specializing in biochemistry, has summarized the situation: - quote “Somewhere on the Earth, on average every 12 seconds, a child dies of DDT-preventable malaria. The United States national Academy of Sciences estimated that DDT saved 500 million lives before it was banned. The discoverer of DDT was awarded the Nobel Prize.

“Then came Silent Spring - a book filled with deliberate falsehoods and blatantly marketed unreasoning and unjustified fear. The burgeoning campaign coincided with the rise of the United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA). The EPA was in search of a big win with which to promote itself. The EPA studied the subject and its own scientific review board reported that DDT is harmless to the environment and is a very beneficial substance that should not be banned.

"Politics prevailed, however, over reason. DDT was banned, and the U.S. government spread that ban throughout the world by tying it to all sorts of international programs. The result: Malaria, which was well on the way to control and eradication, now afflicts 250 million adults and kills about 3 million children per year." - unquote

North mentions other unnatural disasters that take the lives of millions of people, including 45 million global abortions per year, or sanctions on Iraq designed to cause so much suffering that the people will overthrow their leaders. These are politically correct, though, so they don't sell. He reminds us that in 1996, then Secretary of State Madeleine Albright was asked by Leslie Stahl on "Sixty Minutes" about the reported half million deaths of Iraqi children due to the sanctions on Iraq, and whether it was worth it. She replied: "I think this is a very hard choice, but the price - we think the price is worth it."

The quote has been played a million times in the Arabic press, North points out, and of course if you know of it, you saw it on the alternative press. But when a Dow Jones search of mainstream news sources since September 11 was made, the quote turns up only one reference to the quote - in an op-ed in the Orange Country Register (9/19/01). Says North: "This omission is striking, given the major role that Iraq sanctions play in the ideology of archenemy Osama bin Laden; his recruitment video features pictures of Iraqi babies wasting away from malnutrition and lack of medicine (New York Daily News, 9/28/01).

Jude Wanniski [send him mail] runs the financial/political advisory service Wanniski.com. [was sent by email].

IS DISCRIMINATION BIBLICAL?

Pastor Robert Bruce Record

The NO DISCRIMINATION phrase has taken hold with the American public to such an extent that even the preachers (preachers who should know better if they know their Bibles) are now heard repeating, parrot-like, this 'no discrimination' phrase, thus participating in the selling out of our God-given freedoms and privileges and playing right into the hands of alien Zionist schemers.

The phrase 'no discrimination because of race, creed or color' is not only communistic in all its implications and objectives, but it is also the key idea, the touchstone, of the United Nations program for setting up a world government. And since the Zionists also have world government as their objective, the one subtle scheme behind them both is apparent.

There is a world government coming, the Kingdom of God on earth. But it isn't patterned after the communistic United Nations lines. In the Kingdom of God on earth, as revealed in the Bible, the phrase, "no discrimination because of race, creed or colour," will not be the modus operandi. NO Indeed! The citizens of the Kingdom of God on earth will not consist of people of indiscriminate religious beliefs and creeds.

Kingdom citizenship will demand certain spiritual qualifications found only in those of the Christian faith, all other religious beliefs (creeds) being excluded. But the scheme for world government planned by the talmudic-communists and the United Nations does not discriminate as to spiritual values and religious beliefs. Instead it insists that Christianity is on the same level, and of no more importance or value than the pagan, idolatrous worship of the heathen nations.

A "creed" is a formal summary of fundamental points of a religious belief and an authoritative statement of doctrine on points held to be vital. That being the definition of a creed, how can any Christian minister, who knows and believes the plan and purpose of God for His Kingdom on this earth, lend his voice and influence to emphasizing, popularizing, and sanctioning the "no discrimination theme." No wonder Paul wrote to Timothy that the time would come when people would be turned unto fables (2 Timothy 4:4). A fable is fiction related as though it were true. And any preacher who prates about "no discrimination as to race, creed, or colour," as the solution for the world's problems and the ushering in of peace, is a preacher of fables. Any person who has confidence in such preaching is putting his faith in a lie that will ultimately destroy him if its objective is attained.

The Bible Does Discriminate!! The Bible is the most discriminatory Book, especially as to what one believes, and as to who shall be entitled to citizenship in the Kingdom of God on earth (read EXCLUSIVENESS OF ISRAEL, our most popular book! # 714 @ $21.95). He that believeth that Jesus is the Anointed is born of God (1 Jn 5:1). And it was Jesus Himself who declared with positive and discriminatory emphasis that "...Except a man be born again (for the explanation read Exclusiveness...)... except a man be born of water and of the spirit, he cannot enter into the Kingdom of God." (John 3:3-5).

That, my friends, is discrimination of the most exacting kind, and having to do with the most vital matter that could possibly confront mankind. Yet Zionists and the heathen proponents of the United Nations program would have Christian people that discrimination as to what a man believes is unchristian, and not according to the Bible and the teachings of the Jesus we worship.

Any man who lends himself to the support and spreading of this deceptive propaganda, is aiding and abetting an antichrist counterfeit of the Kingdom of God on earth. Do not be "taken in" and become a peddler of this propaganda for the subverting and destroying of this most God blessed nation on earth, your own United States of America. Whoever parrots the phrase "no discrimination" is singing the universalist tune, either wittingly or unwittingly.

God discriminated when He called Noah to build an ark in which he and his family were saved.

God discriminated when He called Abraham and made a covenant with him, and again when He confirmed that covenant with Abraham's son Isaac, and grandson Jacob (Genesis 12:1-3, 26:3, 28:3-4).

God discriminated when He selected the offspring of Jacob-Israel to become a kingdom of priests and an holy nation (Exodus 19:6).

God exercised discrimination when He declared that a bride for Isaac was to be taken from among Abraham's own people, and from NONE other.

God was discriminating when He ordained that the Israel people should become the "sons of the living God" or Christians (Hosea 1:10, Romans 8:29).

God used discrimination when He said that His people should make no covenants with the Canaanites (the peoples of the lands), and that they should NOT intermarry with them (Deuteronomy 7:2).

Our Lord Jesus discriminated when He said, "I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel (Matt. 15:24).

Jesus also discriminated when He selected the twelve apostles, and when He said to those who believe in Him, "You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you" (John 15:16).

In fact, God's Word, the Bible, is a very discriminatory Book from Genesis to Revelation. And that God is discriminatory is clearly seen in the fact that in certain nations and peoples He has planted and nourished the Christian faith.

God discriminates! God has shown discrimination in race, creed and colour! He selected the offspring of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob to be His human instrumentality, His witnesses, His chosen people, a chosen race (Deut 7:6, 1 Pet. 1:1-2, and 2:9). America is the result of that selection. And this is the people whom evil forces are attempting to convert to the unscriptural idea of "no discrimination because of race, creed or colour..."

The Creator of this world and all that is therein, made the white, the black, the red, and the yellow races. Had it been the intention of the Creator that there be but one race, it would have been!

No one can gainsay the fact that the white race has led the world in progress and achievement. And who would be illogical enough to declare that this was not the intention of the Creator? Since the advent of the United Nations Organization, there has been great emphasis on "no discrimination" and "no segregation," simultaneously declaring that "all races and peoples are equal."

"No discrimination as to race, creed or colour"! How often do you hear those words in these days. You hear politicians use them, men who are seeking office. Politicians have been led to believe that unless they "sing that tune" they cannot hope to be elected to office. In industry, employers have been told that they must not discriminate because of race, creed or colour in the hiring of employees. Labour unions seem to have been sold on the idea one hundred percent. And because organised labor wields such a powerful influence, it is a mighty force for putting over the "no discrimination" idea. A basic tenet of the United Nations is "non-discrimination." In practically all U.N. literature, non-discrimination is the main line of thought.

In our public schools non-discrimination is being fed into the thinking of the oncoming generation, indoctrinating them with the idea that our whole structure, industrially, politically, morally, socially, spiritually and every other wise will be strengthened, broadened and benefitted by the practice of non-discrimination.

Who is Responsible for the non-discrimination thesis? Who are the originators of this no-discrimination slogan to which American people are asked to rally? How come that the nation that has done more for all races, creeds and colours than any other nation on earth, now has to be told that we must not discriminate? What is behind all of this? The answer is just this - It is the brain child of Talmudic Zionism.

Carry this to its logical end, and what will result? It will result in the breaking down of the racial barriers and the mongrelizing of the white race. The proponents of "non-discrimination" would have you believe that even that would work for the betterment of humanity. In fact, these "proponents" know that if they succeed in pushing this "no discrimination" idea to its logical limits, they will have broken down the barriers which were erected of God Almighty between the various races, and their scheme for world conquest will be virtually assured.

No preacher who understands, believes and preaches the plan and purpose of God, will ever give voice to "no discrimination," unless he is reprobate. There are such, sad to say. (see Jeremiah 50:6).

* * *

COVENANT BREAKERS

Stephen Contrado, Th.M. 12 Park Ave, Hull MA 02045

On his deathbed Jacob blessed Joseph's sons Ephraim and Manasseh, saying, "The Angel which redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named on them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the earth" (Gen 48:16).

In this covenant the Holy Spirit revealed the fundamental truth through Jacob, the foundation of faith upon which the gospel would depend, that his sons, especially the sons of his son Joseph, would be true Israel, no one else. He stated this as a warning against imposters. Jacob invoked the Angel and the names of his father and his father's father to confirm the perpetual nature of the covenants that Yahweh had made with them. He foretold true Israel would be the multitude, not the minority (The Jews are only a two-percent minority of our nation today. So they cannot be the party addressed in Jacob's binding covenant. This leaves only the Caucasian people, who, therefore, must be the real descendants of Israel).

Many liberal preachers and theological scholars say everyone has an equal claim to the covenants. They overlook the role of the saving Angel who redeems Israel from all evil (who can only be Jesus the Christ) in the blessing to apply Israel's blessing to Jews and other Christ-denying groups (e.g. government-controlled denominations now ordaining homosexuals and permitting abortions). But Jacob's covenant calling upon Christ identifies Christians as rightful Israel and Jesus as sole mediator of the assembly and God. Both church and nation would depend upon Israel's witness of Christ for their victory and must adhere to biblical standards. Those who say and do otherwise are covenant-breakers. God will relentlessly punish them. God declared, "And I will bring a sword upon you, that shall avenge the quarrel of my covenant" (Lev. 26:25).

No people have their own covenant that renders faith in Jesus unnecessary. We must reject the modernist belief that the Jews have their own covenant through which they can deny Jesus Christ. Nor should Christians permit them to determine our social and economic policies. Such an endorsement is breaking Jacob's covenant.

We must retain a definite knowledge of our covenants. Covenant-breakers are chief among those who corrupt the nation. We must eradicate the notion that the state is exempt from enforcing and protecting Christian morality. It is the Angel (Jesus Christ) who redeems and blesses. The humanistic secular state to often enters our lives as an enforcer of exploitation and immorality. Christians became careless, not persevering good government, accepting relativism and syncretism, and every imposter, and now they are experiencing the sad consequences.

Our sins can only be blotted out through Jesus Christ. We must bear an uncompromising witness of our faith. We are sponsors of a covenant spoken by the prophets since the world began.

courtesy Virginia Christian Israelite, Box 109, Round Hill VA 20142

Greetings again in Jesus Name. Again there has been a decline in numbers, some have passed on, and others have dropped off the list. This is causing a little of a financial squeeze. We do appreciate those of you with dedication and commitment, the two most important words a Christian can apply, to continue to support CIM in what we are doing. Thank you so much for your faithfulness in this area. Those falling short in the area of support might consider tithing and/or praying about it. Thank you also for the orders, and for the news-clippings received. May the God of our forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, bless you and keep you, and make His face shine on you and give you His peace, and keep you safe,

