"THE AGE OF ILLUSIONS - PART 2"

by Pastor Don Elmore

INTRODUCTION

Being sixty-four years old, I remember a time in America when there was no obsession with sex; no obsession with drugs; and no obsession with reveling. LSD, cocaine, marijuana, crack, speed, downers and meth were unknown substances in the 1950's in the area that I lived. A few people took some prescription drugs—but no one took the amount of drugs that are now taken for just about any kind of physical or emotional ailment.

But then in the late 1960's, a sudden, societal revolution took place that forever altered the course of the culture of this country. Millions of young people began to embrace:

- Sexual permissiveness and perversions
- Degenerate dressing style
- Long hair on boys
- Drug usage and abuse
- Abortion
- Eastern Religions
- Multi-culturalism
- Feminine movement
- Pornography

It happened quickly and successfully. It was a war—a war against Christianity. And Christianity was slaughtered. Even children who had been brought up in churches, who had been baptized, went to Sunday School and church, professed to be believers, suddenly were living by an altered value system. It was puzzling to many—especially their parents. What had caused their children to be swept into the drug and sex culture?

Many a parent's heart was broken as their children became hippies or Moonies; pregnant (unmarried) or diseased (STD), defiant and/or rebellious; indifferent or drug addicted; argumentative or run-a-ways.

Many lamented, "What happened? She was such a sweet, wonderful child. She never gave us any trouble. Then, out of the blue, she changed. Now, she has run away and lives with drug addicts and participants in sex orgies." It was like a powerful force had swept over the land overnight and lured the children away from their parents and church.

THE SURPRISING ANSWER

It invaded quickly. It was greatly underestimated. It was a well-planned attack by the Communists, the Church of Satan and the Masons. The forces of 'hell' (Genesis 6:5) launched their masterful plan under the radar of most Christian churches. And after forty years, it still lies virtually undetected as the catalyst of the revolution.

For today it is virtually everywhere. Everything today seems to march to its rhythm and its danger is not understood. In fact, to expose this danger is dangerous.

It is more dangerous than teaching the Israel message. It is more dangerous than teaching against the women's movement. It is more dangerous than teaching against abor-ticide. If a preacher would preach from the pulpit that ROCK AND ROLL music (and that includes what is known as "Christian" Rock) was and is used to shape the hearts and minds of the world's youth and to steal them from their parents and from the God of Christianity, (and I wonder about some so-called Country & Western music as well!), he would be violently opposed by many people in his congregation (or even in his own house). Probably even warned by the deacon board that if he preached on that subject again he would be fired! [Listen to Jack Mohr speak on Sirens of Destruction M-030 @ $5, or the video DVD CI-102 which includes Jesus the Rock that Won't Roll @ $15, CIM]

It doesn't matter that one of the early leaders of the Communist Party, Vladimir Lenin, stated:

"One quick way to destroy a society is through its MUSIC."

It doesn't matter that David Crosby of Crosby, Stills and Nash said:

"Through his music he could alter his audience's value systems and in fact, STEAL THEM AWAY FROM THEIR PARENTS."

It doesn't matter that Eddie Manson said:

"Music is used everywhere to condition the human mind. It can be just as powerful as a drug and MUCH MORE DANGEROUS, because nobody takes musical manipulation very seriously."

THE TIME WAS RIGHT

Without the invention of the portable transistor radio, the record player with its inexpensive 45 rpm records, television and the car radio—the assault to launch and maintain the sexual-drug-rebellion revolution would not have been so successful. These inventions made it very difficult, if not impossible, for parents to monitor what their children were listening to. Prior to this, with one stationary radio in the house, it was very easy for my grandparents to have censored any radio show—now with the ipod and unlimited access to hundred of thousands of songs....

The pentagram, is a symbol of black magic, used in the ceremonies and in the satanic invocations. When it is placed upside down it forms the head of a he-goat which has always symbolized Satan. The use of this sign is very frequent in the realm of rock music.

The raised second and fifth fingers used to symbolize the horns of Satan. Very commonly used in the rock culture.

The symbol of lightning belongs to the mystical symbols and represents the god Thor.

When the slavers brought in 1619 the first slaves to America, they didn't bring only human bodies for selling, as they thought, but also their customs, traditions and especially their music—a ceremonial music of the ancient African religion whose power had its origin in the HYPNOTIC rhythm which leads to a state of trance. In these religions that the slaves practiced, the wizards and the pagan priests of the idols and of the cult of voodoo, invoked, also using animal sacrifices, the evil spirits (demons), who instantly came to the satanic ceremonies.

To verify these origins, just listen to the words of three famous rock and roll musicians:

John Lennon of the Beatles: “Rock-n-Roll’s sound came from the jungle.”

Jimmy Hendrix: The drum player for Jimmy Hendrix was a native of Uganda-Africa whose pagan priestly father dealt with Voodoo and magic. This drummer was astonished by the rhythm and movements used by Hendrix which were similar to those used by his father.

Mike Fleetwood: His band’s soloist, as did other rock-n-roll stars, traveled in the depths of the African jungle in order to learn the rhythm of Voodoo and to enrich the sound of his music.

New Orleans was the center of Voodoo music in America. Therefore, it was not a coincidence that most of the original rock-n-roll musicians lived near New Orleans. With the beat of the Voodoo, the music swept over America via the radio, record 45’s and television, as its hypnotic messages reached into the subconscious of its listeners.

Its repetitive beat produced the same result in America as it had in the jungles of Africa. It:

- Summoned the demonic powers
- Created an atmosphere for sexual activity
- Created an atmosphere for drug (sorcery) activity

And to the amazement of all naive Americans—it did it in a hypnotic, altered state of consciousness—that its listeners did not even understand its influence. Lenin was right: The quickest way to change a society was through its music. And they used rock-n-roll to change America and Western society.

THE MUSIC OF TODAY

Today’s generation do not know of a time in their life when there was not rock-n-roll music. They are the second generation, for some even the third. It is now virtually everywhere. from sports arenas to commercials that peddle everything from tennis shoes to alcohol; from the sound tracks of movies and television; from ipods, radios, CD’s that serve the pulsating rhythm that reverberates endlessly.

No wonder it has crept into church services. The people are addicted to this powerful force. Studies show that the average American teenager listens to over 11,000 hours of rock-n-roll music between the 7th to the 12th grade! That is twice the number of hours than they are in school. How many hours does the average teenager read their Bible during this same period? How many sermons do they hear?

So, a parent takes their children to Sunday school and church. Takes them to youth groups and/or Catechism class. (interaction and fellowship with believers of like mind) Home schools them or sends them to a private Christian school (Catholic schools are NOT Christian!). But buys them a record player and a portable radio (in the old days); but buys them a cell phone (which now display pornography!) and TV or ipod (in the new days) and doesn’t monitor or guard against the music that they listen to (almost impossible to do)—and are mystified when their behaviour changes to ungodliness!

Then they are allowed to go to parties or school dances. The lights are dim. The music is loud with a majority of songs resonating with the Voodoo beat. Drugs are usually present—so is alcohol. This is a Christian atmosphere???

Or they are permitted to go to a rock-n-roll concert. Could one describe what happens at these concerts as being the “fruit of the Spirit”?

Some rock-n-roll celebrities have called their concerts: Satanic church services. Their evil, sensual lyrics, their inspiration (many like the Beatles and Rolling Stones claim their inspiration came from Anton Lavey’s Church of Satan of America and Alister Crowley), their symbols (two spread fingers, [with two middle fingers folded and held by thumb] pentagrams, goat’s head, lightning bolts, etc.), their promotion and adoration of drugs, sex, vulgarity, violence; the yelling, screaming, jumping up and down, and the bizarre activity of the mash pit are all manifestations of the fleshly, carnal nature of man.

CONCLUSION

The combination of illegal and prescription drugs, loud, aggressive, repetitive music, permissive parents, occult-based television and movie themes, a godless educational system, and lyrics of rock songs that call for “destruction” and hate, have produced some of the most horrific and difficult-to-understand crimes and the most drastic societal change in modern history. While many understand the role and danger of drugs to these problems, few suspect the music. But the music is the fuse that produces the explosion.

Without understanding how dangerous these forms of music are and without moves to control their distribution, the problem will not only still be there, but will get worse. As toxic processed food is detrimental to the well-being of Christians as well as non-believers, so is this toxic music.

Should not the pulpit warn its congregation about the dangers of addictive, dangerous soul-destroying music? Or should a church sell out and play this entertaining music of the world? Once they do, they are on the slippery path downward to becoming “Ichabod.”

“THE NECESSITY OF THE ABRAHAMIC COVENANT”

— by Pastor Lawrence Blanchard

How important is the covenant that God made with Abraham? So important that there would be no Old Covenant or New Covenant without it. The Abrahamic Covenant is really at the foundation of both these succeeding covenants. Understanding this biblical fact helps us to see not only the unity of God’s written revelation but the application of the New Covenant in Jesus Christ.

God made a series of unconditional promises to Abraham that He swore on oath to fulfill. Briefly, these promises are as follows:

- Abraham’s descendants would become a great and mighty nation—Gen. 12:2
- Abraham’s descendants would be a blessing to all Adamic families and nations of the earth—Gen. 12:3, 18:18
- Abraham’s descendants would become a vast multitude of people—Gen 13:16; 22:17.
- Abraham’s descendants would become a multitude of nations—Gen 17:4-6.
- Abraham’s descendants would produce kings—Gen 17:6
- Abraham’s descendants would possess the gate of their enemies—Gen 22:17.

• Abraham's descendants would possess Canaan—Gen 12:7.

God chose Abraham because he was a God-fearing man who obeyed God's "charge ... commandments ... statutes, and ... laws" (Gen 26:5). Additionally, Abraham was found faithful before God to:

"... command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of the LORD, to do justice and judgment; that the LORD may bring upon Abraham that which he hath spoken of him." —Gen 18:19.

In order to fulfill His covenant to Abraham, God made a covenant with his descendants. The first of these was called the Old or Mosaic Covenant.

THE OLD COVENANT

After God delivered Israel (Abraham's descendants through Isaac and Jacob) from Egypt, He made a covenant with them through Moses. This covenant was made on the basis of the covenant to Abraham. Even before the exodus from Egypt, the Bible states:

"And God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac, and with Jacob."—Ex. 2:24.

After the exodus, God made a covenant with Israel that He would fulfill all that He swore unto Abraham to them if they would obey His laws.

"That thou shouldst enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into His oath, which the LORD maketh with thee this day: that He may establish thee today for a people unto Himself, and that He may be unto thee a God, as He hath said unto thee, and as He hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob."—Deut.29:12-13.

The fulfillment of the Abrahamic Covenant in his descendants would be accomplished only if they obeyed God. Of course, Bible history is replete with examples of Israel's failure to obey God's Laws. As a result, fulfillment of the promises to Abraham were not completed due to Israel's sins—the transgression of the Law.

THE NEW COVENANT

Jesus Christ came, therefore, to redeem Israel from their sins under the Old Covenant, and thus, ratify the New Covenant by His own blood.

"And for this cause He is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance."—Heb. 9:15.

Now through Christ, Israel could once again have access to "the eternal inheritance" and receive the promises made to Abraham. All of Israel who receive Jesus by faith as the perfect and sufficient sacrifice for their sins can come into possession as "heirs according to the promise" (Gal 3:29) made to Abraham. (not other races, CIM)

"For the promise, that he should be heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none effect: because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all."—Rom 4:13-16.

There are many Scriptures that connect the coming of Jesus Christ and the gospel of salvation through the New Covenant with the covenant made to Abraham.

"He hath helped his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; as He spake to our fathers to Abraham, and to his seed forever."—Luke 1:54-55.

"To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant; the oath which He swore to our father Abraham."—Luke 1:72.

SINS OF THE CHURCHES

(adopted by the American Coalition of Unregistered Churches)

Prayer and fasting Convocation, Oct. 15-19, 1984

Having been led by the Holy Spirit to seek the Lord in a special week of prayer and fasting, October 15-19, 1984, in Covington, Georgia, and to seek His blessings upon our lives, our ministries, and our nation in this day of great spiritual and moral crisis, we, in the fear of the Lord, have examined the state of the churches in America.

WE BELIEVE that the following sins, while not exhaustive, accurately describe the Sins of the Churches of America (and, no doubt, Australia as well, CIM).

WE FURTHER BELIEVE that these sins have brought the churches to a state of spiritual powerlessness and our nation to the very brink of disaster and destruction.

1. The churches have sinned by denying the Lordship and Headship of Jesus Christ over His church by recognizing and commingling with other lords and heads. Incorporating, accepting licensure, receiving tax identification numbers, paying taxes, paying social security taxes, record keeping for and accepting government recognition and tax exemption are some of the manifestations of this sin.

2. The churches have sinned by failing to pray as commanded and taught and practiced throughout the Scriptures. Agonizing, travailing, interceding, prevailing, and unceasing prayer is no longer considered a vital and essential function of the churches. The sin of prayerlessness has brought the churches to a state of spiritual deadness, spiritual powerlessness, and spiritual bankruptcy.

3. The churches have sinned by dishonouring the Lord's day. Amusements, pleasure excursions, sports, entertainments, and other worldly excitements that have defiled the Lord's day have likewise invaded and defiled the churches.

4. The churches have sinned by failing to obey God's Law.

5. The churches have sinned by grieving the Holy Spirit. The convicting power and demonstration of the Holy Spirit have been replaced with human efforts and inventions, including contests, programs, movies, entertainment, and other appeals to the flesh.

7. The churches have sinned by pursuing popularity and social respectability and acceptability. This has resulted in compromise and the loss of the particular identity of the church.

8. The churches have sinned by substituting programs of Hollywood-style entertainment and an unscriptural emphasis on sports and social activities for sound Scriptural preaching and worship.

9. The churches have sinned by becoming so program-oriented that they have weakened and destroyed family life by robbing families of essential time for family fellowship and activity.

10. The churches have sinned by endorsing and promoting an easy membership; this action has filled their membership rolls with unsaved, uncommitted, and worldly members.

11. The churches have sinned by condoning and failing to deal with the sins of divorce and remarriage, fornication, adultery, sodomy, and other sins of immorality that destroy marriages, families, and homes.

12. The churches have sinned by ignoring the sins of worldliness, such as public nudity, unisex and transvestite clothing, public swimming, movies, rock music, and other popular sins that have weakened and virtually destroyed the churches' testimony of Godly and Scriptural separation and holiness.

13. The churches have sinned by failing to exercise the Scriptural ministry of church discipline. This failure has encouraged sin and disobedience within the church, brought a reproach upon Christ, and grieved the Holy Spirit. This failure has also weakened the spiritual life, testimony, power, influence, and authority of the church.

14. The churches have sinned by receiving into their membership or enrolling into their Christian schools those who are presently under church discipline by another church or who have left another church or Christian school because of unresolved sins and problems.

15. The churches have sinned by worshipping the false gods of materialism and violating God's laws on unscriptural debt in order to build unnecessarily elaborate and expensive buildings and facilities.

16. The churches have sinned by unscripturally using the Lord's tithes and offerings to advance their own man-designed programs.

17. The churches have sinned by allowing government to assume the responsibility of caring for widows and orphans and others for whom the churches are scripturally responsible to minister.

18. The churches have sinned by considering and conducting themselves as businesses rather than as ministries. As a result, those who were once considered ministers and servants of the Lord are now considered and treated as "employees." Also, Godly, Biblical business principles and practices have been replaced by worldly business philosophies and practices.

19. The churches have sinned by failing to maintain Scriptural honesty with the business community.

20. The churches have sinned by placing unscriptural demands on their pastors to become promoters, administrators, financiers, business managers, etc. These demands have resulted in spiritually weak preaching that has produced spiritually weak churches, Christians, and families.

21. The churches have sinned by making hirelings of pastors and treating them as employees to be hired or fired at the whim of church boards or congregations.

22. The churches have sinned by failing to submit themselves to the Scriptural authority and ministry of their pastor.

23. The churches have sinned by failing to guard their daily educational ministries from the influence of secular and religious humanism in the areas of curricula, instructional methods, enrollment standards, personal standards, certification, and accreditation.

24. The churches have sinned by failing to provide adequate life training, especially training for the ministry, for their people at the local church level.

25. The churches have sinned by creating an unscriptural separation between the sacred and the secular. This separation has led to the false assumption that spirituality is limited to "soul-winning" and "worship." It has also resulted in a failure of the churches to proclaim and make application of the Gospel in every area of the real world, including civil government. Every aspect of life is spiritual.

26. The (people of the) churches have sinned by their unwarranted divisiveness, lack of brotherly love, and failure to dwell together in unity.

27. The churches have sinned by maintaining a selfish dedication to a tunnel vision that focuses on their local ministries at the expense of a Biblical world view.

28. The churches have sinned by failing to have a genuine concern for the spiritual well-being of souls. This lack of concern has resulted in a grievous merchandising of souls by placing an inordinate emphasis on increased attendance, membership, and finances.

29. The churches have sinned by their undue and unscriptural exaltation of human personalities, including athletes, entertainers, politicians, and religious leaders.

30. The churches have sinned by failing to acknowledge, confess, and repent of their sins.

WE HAVE HUMBLY PETITIONED THE LORD to be pleased to grant the churches His mercy and grace and forgiveness.

WE LIKEWISE CALL ON THE CHURCHES AND PREACHERS to join with us by honestly examining the state of the churches in the light of God's Word and in the light of the foregoing lists of sins and unite with us in acknowledging, confessing and repenting of sin.

Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn from His fierce anger, that we perish not.

Jonah 3:9
—Amen—

Prior to 1954, there was no such thing as a 501(c)(3) church. All donations, contributions, gifts, etc. given to churches were automatically tax-deductible under the old English common law, known as the "Law of Charities." Then in 1954, Senator Lyndon Baines Johnson (D-Texas) sponsored legislation which brought churches under the new 501(c)(3) section of the Internal Revenue Code. As a part of this legislation, churches would "incorporate" and having that status could not be sued in any legal action. The churches never bothered to look to the Scriptures and previous law to discover that churches could not be sued.

The churches relied upon advice from lawyers and the "legal profession" who recommended acceptance of this new "benefit." And why not? Anything involving more "legality" does nothing more than advance the status, need, importance and employment of this questionable profession. It is a fact, that today most all of the "churches" who have been sued in a court action have been "incorporated churches." So much for the great "benefits." I guess that back in 1954, the rationale of the churches was that if everyone else was doing it, why should Christians not be involved? The whole concept of limited liability was the bait to get churches incorporated and like a fish, they were hooked! Corporations, under law, can sue and be sued!

By submitting an application (and a substantial fee) to the IRS for tax-exempt status, the "church" is requesting and accepting a government license to allow them to operate within the parameters and statutes of government regu- lation. In other words, the church of Jesus Christ has become subservient to the government. Today, it is estimated that fully 90% of the “churches” in this nation are government-sponsored churches while less than 10% are free-churches.

There are 29 major regulations pertaining to 501(c)(3) churches, the first of which requires that a church be incorporated. The remainder of these regulations severely restrict the operation and function of the church in compliance with government regulations....

In spite of what some misinformed or uninformed churches and preachers may claim, Jesus Christ CAN NOT be the head of a 501(c)(3) church, because at law, the “sovereign” to the corporations is the state! And “sovereign” means the supreme authority over legal as well as theological matters. The corporation has put the “church” into a non-entity status.

And those pastors who “claim” that they can go into their pulpits and say anything they wish, contrary to “public policy,” do so at their own peril. They have made a binding agreement and contract with government, and if they violate it they are lawbreakers and civil criminals, for which they and their church can be held liable and responsible. And then we wonder with more than 330,000 churches in this land, why we are seeing such a deterioration of ethics and the declining moral values. The churches are silent and ineffective....

The churches say, come to Christ, accept His grace and He will protect you, and then, these very same churches ignore their own words and turn to the state for a false protection. What must our heavenly Father think of these apostate churches and these false and materialistic preachers? The time is rapidly approaching when these preachers and their apostate churches will be judged. They should remember, “Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.”

SECULAR HUMANISM

- There is no God - no uncaused cause. The world always was without a beginning.
- Man evolved from lower species without laws. All races are related—“brotherhood of man.”
- Since there is no God creator or ruler of the world, then there can be no divine law-giver or elect people of God. Sin, including original sin, is impossible. Man creates his own right and wrong. Situation ethics.
- Selfism—man is a god. Self-fulfillment and gratification is the end and self-actualization the goal of life.
- Since man is mere matter, he is without a soul and spiritual dignity. He should be ruled by the most highly evolved elites.
- Self-aggrandizement on this earth is the only end of man. With physical death comes the end of human life. No sin—so no need for a redeemer. Man is his own saviour.--

VIOLENCE, MAN'S DUTY AND GOD'S PURPOSE by Dr. Everett Ramsey

VIOLENCE - Gen. 6:4-11 “... When the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them ... and it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, ... And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth... But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD... Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, ... The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.”

MAN'S DUTY Eccl 12:13 “Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man (Adamites).”

GOD'S PURPOSE: Rom. 8:28 “And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.” Eph. 1:11 “In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will...” 3:11 “According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:” 2 Tim 1:9 “Who hath saved us (Israelites), and called us with an holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us (Israelites) in Christ Jesus before the world began.”

The United States Justice Department announced last week (March 2007) that violent crime had risen another 10-13% in the United States, and this statistic is based on figures two years old.

“The Color of Crime, a New Century Foundation study based on Federal crime reports has found significant differences in violent crime rates for different racial and ethnic groups. Blacks, for example, are many times more likely to commit crimes of violence against whites than vice versa. Of the approximately 1,700,000 interracial violent crimes involving blacks and whites reported every year, blacks commit 90 percent and whites commit only 10 percent. Blacks are therefore more than 50 times more likely than whites to commit a violent crime.” The Color of Crime, New Century Foundation.

With violent crime continually rising, Christian families with elderly and children members are becoming very alarmed. Knowing what to do to protect ourselves and our property is becoming more complicated and difficult.

White people are continually reprimanded for showing signs of fear around black people. But with this kind of government-provided statistics as to the source of violent crime, can they really blame us? Is it smart to shed all fear of the thing that has been proven to do harm?

Naturally, most black people are civil acting folks, just like some whites, Hispanics and Orientals are criminals. But the overwhelming percent of violent crimes by blacks on their own race as well as others is staggering.

Some people do not fear rattle snakes and cobras. But the average person is going to tread with fear around them because of their lack of knowledge about them. And most of us lack desire to learn about them, just so they (the snakes) can become part of our social structure. Most people are not socially inclined to fellowship with rattle snakes.

While none of us feel that black people are rattle snakes, most of us have no real desire to make people of any other culture a close part of our family, and friends in social settings. This is not wrong. Don't try to make me feel guilty about it. The truth is that recent surveys confirm Blacks, Orientals and Hispanics feel the same way. They are not anxious to become socially entangled with the White folks. This does not mean that we all don't have some very good friends among all the races.

But the truth is, I can walk down the street in most white rural towns or Oriental neighbourhoods and fear no evil. I do not have that comfort in a Hispanic or black neighbourhood. Call me racist if you like, but I call it prudence.

To deny the racial tendencies to crime is to be very foolish; and that is what our country's officials are doing. The enemies of God and of God's people have been running things for a long time and they get by with it purely on illusion of economic prosperity. Most Christians will sell out their country, their mother and heritage if the price is right, meaning medical care, social security, credit cards, and sufficient income to buy the toys they want.

We will give practical suggestions for safety at the end of this article. But we need to look at why and how we got to this situation. The church, the people of God and their pastor-leaders seem to me to bear much of the blame. Of course, the Pastors can claim the Aaronic excuse, "The people loved it so." In other words, the people made me do it. That was the cry of the pastors in the day of the prophets also. The Bible and history are very clear about countries, cultures and people outside the kingdom of God countries:

Matt 8:12, "But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 22:13, "Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness, there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 24:51, "And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." 25:30, "And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth." Rev 18:15, "The merchants of these things which were made rich by her, shall stand afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing." 18:19 "And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one hour is she made desolate."

I don't believe these passages speak of hell, but rather the countries outside the kingdom of God, outside the nations of God's people. In this case they represent the countries outside North America, Europe, Australia and a few other countries with histories of serving God.

I don't think we have to look very hard at countries like Haiti, Ethiopia, Iraq and other third world countries to see that they are riddled with crime, graft, corruption, disease and other characteristics that multiply pain upon their residents. Most of them are non white countries, non Christian countries.

Christians have falsely believed that if they took the gospel of God's grace and salvation, that we love, to these people it would solve their problems. We have, and even now are pressed to raise millions and billions of dollars to send aid and missionaries to them.

I remember as a teenager in the 45's that our church was raising money for Africa. We sent money, people, teachers, doctors, and business people. Many natives professed faith in Christ. Many were baptized. Churches and seminaries were built.

Now, here we are 50 years later and millions of dollars later. Nothing has changed. These people still live by the sword. They still mutilate their own people. They still butcher women and children, steal from their mothers and sisters and operate on graft and corruption. They still burn churches and idols of their gods. The white Adamic race started with the Gospel in AD45 and the numbers and strength has grown and sustained itself. While there have been token amounts of money raised and a token number of missionaries sent to European countries, the real work was more for the building of denominational churches rather than bringing them to Christ.

Black Africa has continually returned to communism and socialism. So has the major portion of Asia. Only Japan and Korea have been able to successfully sustain and build on the Christian faith. Black Africa and the Arab world and India continually revert to their old gods and old ways.

Why has hundreds of years and millions of dollars spent to evangelize the non-white races failed so miserably? Why? Because there is no place in them for His Word. John 8:34. Getting these people to make a mental assent to salvation and baptizing them, does not make a change internally for them. As far as that goes, I can say that it doesn't make any change in anyone including the white race.

Christianity is not built on "get people to make a decision and a change will come."

Christianity is built on the decision of God to change HIS people so they will make a decision to serve Him. Sinful white Adamites are as unable to choose Christ as any other race. But God, in His grace and love, made the choice for whatever reason, to enter our spirits, write His Word on our hearts and give us the faith and will to choose to serve Him.

Then our people adopted a stupid policy, with the help of the enemies of God, I am sure, that since we could not change the heathen in their own country with the Gospel, we should bring them here to our country and let them learn our ways. So we opened the flood gate and have since the 1930s. Non-white, non-Christian people have been flooding this country by the millions. They have not learned our ways, our people have learned their ways, the ways of the heathen and brought the wrath of God on us. Jer. 10:2.

Why? Because God's people are sheep. Sheep are followers, not leaders. Sheep have been deceived and misled by their own under-shepherds, their own pastors. The sheep of God have been taught several untruths.

1. That goats and wolves can be converted into sheep. This is not true. No where in Scripture are we told that goats can be saved or born again or become sheep. The Lord came for the Lost sheep of the House of Israel. He did not die for goats and wolves.

Jer. 50:6, "My people hath been lost sheep; their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains; they gone from mountain to hill, they have forgotten their resting place." Matt 10:6, "But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." 15:24, "But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

2. That converted goats and wolves are acceptable for marriage to sheep and to run the churches government. In fact, some preachers will tell their young people that it is better to marry a converted wolf or goat than a lost sheep.

One of the sad facts about pastors and Christians today, is that they cannot stand to allow God to be God and make choices. If God chooses to reward some and punish others, that is unfair. But the truth is, God is not intending to save everyone. In fact, there are people whom God will not and cannot save.

Now if non-whites did not descend from Adam, then they are not under the curse of sin and have no need of redemption and they certainly will not spend eternity in hell. None of the animal world goes to heaven or hell. The False prophet, the Beast and all evil are to be cast into the Lake of Fire.

So, that leaves God's people, Adam. They sinned against God. Even though they are genetically connected to God (Luke 2:43), He had no obligation to redeem them. He could have chosen to let them stay dead like the rest of the creation. But in His grace, He chose to remove the death penalty through His own blood sacrifice. On Pentecost, He, the Spirit of God, re-entered His people. We now await the resurrection of the body and our rebirth will be complete in Body, soul and spirit. In the mean time, we are supposed to have the safety and guidance of the church.

There was a time when it was common knowledge among pastors that sheep are vulnerable and need protection from goats and wolves. There was a time when it was common knowledge and the common order of business was to know that God had a people and the purpose of the churches and pastors was to "synagogue them." Matt 24:31; baptize them, a continuation of Old Covenant ritual cleansing. Matt 28:19-20; teach them and call them to accountability to God's laws. Matt 29:19-20. That process of "Gospel Evangelization" has now been replaced with "Christianization." If people can't be the Christian people of God, anyone can be Christianized.

The historical phenomenon of Christianization, the conversion of individuals to Christianity or the conversion of entire peoples at once also includes the practice of converting pagan practices, pagan religious imagery, pagan sites and pagan rites to Christian uses rather than reclaiming the lost sheep, the people of God. Some would say that this is good. But Christianization of non-covenant people is not the rebirth of the "old covenant" people.

Constantine was Christianized. He was the King, so he Christianized the pagan priests, the pagan temples, the pagan rituals, the pagan idols, holidays and other pagan rites. Eventually, his sons forcefully removed unconverted pagan temples, idols and priests. Now, what is wrong with this?

What is wrong with this is the fact that pagans, who were not chosen of God were ritually wetted by water, called baptism, put in a Christianized pagan setting run by men who knew not God and fulfilled their duties to God, they believed by obeying the rules and rites of the pagan religion, now called Christianity. There was no ownership of the Lord God by these alleged converts and there was no ownership of these converts by the Lord God. In fact, these new Christianized religious people, many times, increased their persecution and killing of the people of God, God's Israel, who were mistakenly called Christian. This where the churches and pastors have gone wrong today.

Anytime baptisms and decisions become more important than new birth, the process becomes Christianizing. Most mainline churches and the Catholic Church today can Christianize whole blocks of people and nations. They just get a mental decision, a verbal assent and put them through the water and call them Christian. In some cases, the decision and assent were even lacking.

There is no change in the heart, in culture, in ethnicity, no change in the laws considered supreme or any other factors. They dress the same, they eat and drink the same, and they still live their lives in greedy achievement for self gratification, more power and dominance. In fact, the SBC has verbalized their desires in this fashion: "We must bring heathen people from other cultures, ethnicity and life styles to believe in Christ. We are not expected to change the life style, culture or ethnicity of their heritage."

This is the policy of all major church denominations and mission boards today. But this was not the aim of Paul and other missionaries in the early history of the church. Paul was accused of "... changing the customs, laws and traditions of the fathers ..." Acts 6:14; Heb 7:12.

The Scripture made it clear that only those whom the Father had given to Christ could come to Him and they had to change and give up their ways of the heathen learned in the Diaspora - John 6:44; Acts 26:20; 17:30.

In fact, it was this demand to change that eventually cost Paul his life. The Jews were not happy that the demand to forsake the old ways of the then accepted way of Judaism was demanded before baptism.

In fact, one of the signs of Christianization is the absolute tolerance of false and idolatrous religions in the land. Judaism, Buddhism, Hinduism, Mohammedism are just a few examples.

When Israel allowed other religions and gods to the land, that was when God would step in and remove the people from the land.

CHRISTIANIZATION NOT THE NEW BIRTH

When Jesus Christ came to this earth, He said that He came to His own (John 1:11) and that His Own had to be born again (John 3:3-8)

Jesus often used metaphors to illustrate His message. One of those metaphors was animals like sheep and goats. Sheep is used 178 times in the Bible, and 38 times in the New Testament. It is interesting that Jesus Christ never did say that goats could become sheep or any other animal could become a sheep. Only sheep can produce sheep. You can "sheepinize" goats and wolves. You can call them sheep, mix them with sheep, and feed them like sheep. But, they will always be wild and unruly. They will still climb rails and fences. They will not follow the Shepherd Jesus Christ or the pastor. They will persecute the sheep.

You can't take people who are not (sheep), not the people of God, and baptize them and make them church members and preach to them just like sheep. They can profess faith in Jesus Christ, but it will be a mental assent, not a spiritual birth. They will always be goats and wolves.

Someone will try to disprove my conclusion by quoting:

"He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God." John 1:11-13.

This passage has confounded the best. Let me state it in a more modern language and a better verbal form:

"Jesus came to His own mass of Adamic descendants who had been chosen in Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and lived in Judea. But the mass of these people in Judea rejected Him. But as many individuals as were new born, not by flesh and blood or by their choice, but by the Spirit of God, received Him and to them, Jesus Christ gave power to become the sons of God and they even believed on His Testimony and authority. [note: the book EXCLUSIVE-NESS OF ISRAEL, (#714 @ $21.95) has regarding this verse, "Once again, we need to determine the origin of the Sons of God. They are from among His own. Jesus came to His own possessions, (Judea), but those in control of these possessions did not receive Him as the owner. On the other hand, the common people there heard Him gladly and recognized His authority. Their belief e to become the Sons of gain. The rulers who questioned His authority are to be cast out. As many [that is as many of Israel] as are led by the Spirit, they are the Sons of God [Rom 8:14] This is the qualification. It is from this verse that the verses containing the word "adoption" follow on.- end quote]

These so called converts from outside the Covenant people of Adam and Israel have Christianized. Like the Catholic Church that has mass baptized thousands by sprinkling holy water on a crowd. They have Christianized them, but they are not the people of God. They attend church, pray, attend Mass and obey the church but know very little if anything about God. Now Christianization is happening every week in mega churches of every denomination everywhere.

WE DIDN'T START THAT WAY

America was settled by Christians who founded a nation of people who were Christian, who created a state (13 of them) that was Christian. The original laws of this country were taken right out of the Bible and the common law which agreed with Bible Law. Laws such as:

- Immigration was restricted primarily to white Anglo-Saxon peoples of the world, mainly from Europe. These people can prove lineage to Israel and Adam. These people had already been established in the faith of Jesus Christ for many generations.
- No one could hold office who did not profess faith in Jesus Christ
- No one convicted of a felony against God's Law could become a citizen or hold office; this is a far cry from today's restriction against those convicted of felonies against corrupt civil law of evil government.
- Marriage was purely a matter of the church, not the state. No one had to have a state license to marry. If the church would not marry you, you had to live together in adultery and fornication.
- No corporations were created in the new states.
- Education was the responsibility of the parents and the church, not the state. There were no "public or government" schools.
- Higher education was accomplished in England and eventually the ministers and the churches started schools like Harvard and Yale to train Ministers, teachers and lawyers. But everyone had to have a degree in theology before being graduated or approved for such powerful positions.
- Inter racial socialization was forbidden. Interracial marriage was forbidden.
- Divorce was in the jurisdiction of the church and rarely allowed.
- Only men could hold land and vote.
- Only land owners could vote on taxes.
- There were no land taxes.
- Money of the realm was coin, (gold and silver, copper, nickel, etc) not paper or credit or computer entries.

Black's Law Dictionary informs us that the first interracial marriages were created by the State of Virginia in the 1860s as the abolitionists wanted to give the black slaves all the rights held by Christian Whites. No church would conduct such a marriage. The State created a new category for marriage, the civil jurisdiction. This was an idea taken from pagan Rome. In Rome, most marriages were civil and easily dissolved and re-entered with someone else. There was controlled inheritance, state involvement of children and all assets of the marriage.

There was another type of marriage known as, Confaratio, or a more permanent marriage reserved for officials conducted before the priests.

The church was the crucible of marriage authority for the people of God. The parents and the church determined who could be married and the church could decide on annulments and divorce in rare occasions.

When the State of Virginia passed into law, allowing for a state created marriage, it signified several things:

- The state had now created a new realm of marriage outside the laws of God and the church.
 - The state had now opened the door to determine any category of marriage in the future it deemed acceptable including same sex marriages.
 - The State had also set up the criteria for ending these marriages in the civil courts. The process would become known as divorce at will, or no fault divorce.
 - Children of State created marriages would become the legal wards of the State and the State could do unto these children as they deemed in the best interest of whomever. This means education, drug testing, vaccinations, experimentation, and removal from the home and parents.

Early Americans did not define the term "man" or "men" as meaning all races. The creators of the Federal Constitution made it clear that blacks, Orientals and Indians were not "men" by their definition. Read the Constitution. When they stated that "all men are created equal" they were referring to White Christian men and their families.

Today, America is not Christian. America is Christianized. The churches have bought into the philosophy of Baal that all people can be made god-sons by christianization. Therefore we have joined the United Nations, the Baal/Isis cult of universalism to Christianize the world. This will be considered successful when all races have been intermingled and there are no distinct races left.

If there are no races left, and if God dwells in and through the Adamic white race, then to eliminate the white race, is to eliminate God, in the mind of the enemies of God. This has been the goal of the cursed side of Cain and Canaan from Cain's separation and curse from God. They tried it before the flood, which resulted in the flood. They tried it at Babel which resulted in a confusion of tongues. They tried it through the Babylonians, the Assyrians, the Persians, and the Greeks and Romans. Now they are getting closer to accomplishing it through the United nations and the World of Christianized churches.

WHAT CAN WE DO?

First of all, there was a day when becoming vocal, organizing resistance and trying to influence our elected government might have had some effect. But that day is young people, parents, avoid those who practice immorality and who try to get you to join them, or condone them. stay out of their circles, and keep them out of yours. Evil is contagious when seen often face to face, first it is hated, then pitied, then embraced. No girl or woman should permit an admirer to spend much time with her where no other person can see.

gone. Today, anyone who begins such activities will be considered dangerous, racist, a hater and wind up in court and/or jail. Many great men of this generation have served time and are still in jail for just such activity.

First, we must understand the time. I believe that we are living in the days of Ezekiel 37-38, not Revelations or Matthew 24.

Think in terms of safety. The non-white population is becoming much bolder in its open defiance of whites and it will continue to get worse. More hate crime by non-whites against whites will come, just as it did in South Africa when Mandela and his thugs took over.

Our safety is in the Lord! Stay close to the Lord and out of harm's way as best you can.

Don't agitate the enemies. Don't be aggressive and abusive toward them. Don't try to get justice from the courts. The courts are all on the side of the non-white population today.

Teach your children that eternal life is in Christ and His election, which happens to be by grace and race. To marry outside the race and produce children outside the race (mixed-breeds) WILL affect your relationship with God.

If race is not important in the redemption and salvation formula, we need to join in with the United Nations for a fast merger of all races as soon as possible.

If race is important, get together with other whites to form White Christian communities, and spend much time together - dwelling on these things!

THAT OLD SERPENT, CALLED DEVIL AND SATAN
by Sheldon Emry

There is a passage in this twelfth chapter of Revelation, which has for centuries been used as the foundation stone for what one might call, Devil Theology. I will begin by reading part of it, and then we will look at more of it later, and study the entire passage. The most often quoted verses are:

"And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him." Rev 12:7-9

Now most of you are familiar with the common doctrine on the origin and the place of 'satan' as taught by the churches. They sometimes call him the 'devil' and so on; but I'll condense the church teaching on 'satan' and the 'devil' rather briefly here.

The devil is a spirit creature with awesome power on the earth to do evil, or cause men to do evil. He was once the chief angel in God's heaven, but rebelled against God and actually warred against God; and had one-third of the angels on his side. So, in the war they eventually lost, or at least lost after a fashion. God, with the help of Michael and his angels cast the devil and his angels down to the earth where they now roam about, doing their nefarious works.

Now, common teaching is that the devil is so evil he is almost indescribable. However, the Catholic priests and the Christian ministers are continually resisting him and preaching against him, and fighting against him, and apparently if it were not for them, the devil would have taken over and perhaps destroyed the earth. Now some teach that this powerful spirit creature will eventually be destroyed, and they quote Revelation 20:10 for that. Some of those who teach that, also teach, as do the catholics, that this wicked spirit being and his angels whom they call devils or demons will live forever in a burning hell poking red-hot irons and pitchforks into those who did not do what the priests or the ministers said they should do.

Now the catholics generally say that all protestants are going to be down there with the devil. Baptists think that all non-Baptists are going to be there; and many individual churches or denominations teach that everyone but their own group is going to be down there, in that hell, with the devil at his pleasure for ages upon end.

There, in about one and a half minutes I have preached almost every sermon being preached in Baptist churches this week. Some of you have been in Baptist churches, and you know that about half of the sermons in Baptist churches are about "the devil will get you if you don't watch out, and do what the minister says."

Well, such sermons are not totally confined to what is called mainstream protestantism, nor to catholicism. I have here the magazine put out by Herbert W. Armstrong. Most of you know about the World Wide Church of God (and of its later offshoots (Universal Church of God, Philadelphia Church of God, Church of God International, etc). This is from the January 1980 PLAIN TRUTH, the article entitled "Personal from H.W.A." The article purports to answer this question: "What is the most universal erroneous and false belief and teaching that has caused this world's evils, troubles, sufferings and sorrows?"

Now, needless to say, Armstrong's final conclusion is that it is because all the churches except Armstrong's are preaching false doctrine. But I want to quote from the article what he says as he explains part of the reason for what he calls "the error of the churches," and he says it is caused by the devil. So I will quote just those parts where he talks about the devil. He says:

"Now perhaps many people do not believe in the existence of a devil anymore. Yet your Bible says the whole world, including its religions has been deceived by Satan the Devil." (And he quotes Revelation 12:9), "The inhabitants of the earth have been deceived by him through deceived religion. (Rev 17:2) But your Bible also says the time is coming when God Almighty "shall send an angel from heaven and lay hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan. And bind him a thousand years and cast him into the bottomless pit and shut him up and set a seal upon him that he should deceive the nations no more till the thousand year shall be fulfilled." That is from Revelation

20. Armstrong goes on:

"Just who is this Satan, where did he come from? Did God create a devil to deceive us? He is a former archangel who was perfect in all his ways, as God created him," Ezekiel 28:15. But he had a mind and free moral agency with the right of free choice forming his own decisions. Just as God has given you and me and all humans that same free moral agency. Otherwise, we could have no character. This great arch-angel was named Lucifer, and God set him on the throne of the whole world, to administer the government of God over angels which inhabited the earth prior to the creation of man. But this powerful Lucifer turned his angels into rebelling against God.”

Then there is a whole column here about this same devil, now deceiving the churches in the world, and then he asks how it could have all started. Then at the bottom of the page he says: “It all started with Adam in the garden of Eden.” A little further on, “Satan was just around the corner, so to speak, waiting for a chance to tempt Adam into rejecting God, even as he himself had rejected God; God’s Law; God’s way and God’s government when he was the arch-angel Lucifer.” A little further on: “Satan tempted Adam through his wife, Eve; Adam took of the forbidden tree.”

Now, I quoted all that to show you that although Armstrong does not teach there is a burning hell, where people are tortured in hell for years; he does teach the same doctrine of the origin of and work of Satan, that the churches do. I have read Armstrong’s articles on “hell,” and I agree with his teachings on “hell.” However, I did not know until about two years ago (1978) that Armstrong is a little schizophrenic on his people being in fire. Perhaps some of you did not know this.

He teaches publicly that people do not go to hell when they die to be tortured, but, once you join his church, then you are taught and re-taught over and over again, that if you reject Armstrong’s teachings and leave, or are kicked out of the Armstrong church; then you will be sent to the Lake of Fire for eternity. So he has a special “hell” for people who do not obey him. Just as the catholic church has a “hell” for the people who do not obey their priests. So you see, in spite of his public announcements, he frightens people into obeying him by his own private “hell.” I know, I have had ex-Armstrong members, especially women, tell me that they were in Armstrong’s church and literally lived in fear for years. Afraid they might do something to offend Armstrong or one of the ministers, and be kicked out of the church and then be cast into the lake of fire. They were afraid of it, and he built on that fear.

Allright. So much for the general teaching about ‘satan.’ as you can see they have some variances, but they all agree on one thing: the devil never deceives me, but he certainly has deceived a lot of you people out there! That doctrine they all agree on; and generally speaking, they are almost all in agreement that the devil was God’s chief angel; a powerful spirit-creature. he rebelled against God, and God cast him down to the earth.

Most of their doctrine is based on the three verses we looked at earlier. now in the last few months (1980) some sermons have been issued by some who generally teach what we call the Identity Message. These sermons, both in printed form and on tape, have rebuked me (pastor Emry) for my teaching about satan and Eve in the garden of Eden.

Now they teach that satan seduced Eve and produced Cain. Most of you know of that, we call it the “seed-line doctrine.” I oppose that teaching. I do not agree that satan or any creature seduced Eve in the garden of Eden and produced children (Eve: Did She or Didn’t She? Ted Weiland, #804 @ $17.60; Eve and The Serpent in the Garden of Eden, Sheldon Emry #A-7722, A-7723 @ $10). Some of you know that the Mormon Church also teaches that; and the Jewish Talmud also teaches that. Except for that, their description of ‘satan’ is identical to Armstrong’s, and to the churches. “He was a great fallen angel, he was cast down to the earth; he deceived Adam and Eve in the Garden of Eden, and so on.

Now, turn to Revelation 1, and bear with me if this seems a little tedious and a little long. But I’m going to quote one verse, and this one verse alone, if it is true, and if we believe the Word of God; and God is not a liar; is enough to prove the following: #1, the war in heaven of Rev 12 took place, not millenniums ago, but after John saw the vision. And #2, the casting out of whatever this creature was from heaven to earth, therefore took place after 96 AD, sometime after the vision was seen. So, if the devil or the satan of Revelation 12 is all that the Catholic Church, and the denominations and Armstrong, and some Identity preachers say he is, he would not have fallen to the earth prior to Adam and Eve being in the Garden of Eden. Now you listen to this one verse. Revelation 1:1,

“The revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he signified it by his angel unto his servant John.”

Did you see that phrase? “Things which must shortly come to pass.” Now it didn’t say, I’m going to show you things which have already happened. These are things yet future according to what the angel said to John. Now if you want another witness, how about verse 3:

“Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.”

Same general theory, it is future! The things you will read about are future. The signs or the visions which the angel showed John and which were then written down by John, were of things which were yet future in AD96. Do you understand that? Do you read these verses the same way I do? Because this is a very, very important point when you study the book of Revelation. Now, if you want a third witness, turn to Rev. 4, after he has given the message to the churches we read this in verse 1:

“After this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter.”

Now I know I’m repeating this, but everytime you hear a minister preaching out of the book of Revelation, and he tells you that these things happened way back in millenniums past, like some creature falling out of heaven to the earth, you can call him a liar and you can prove it by Rev 1, and 4. The visions in Revelation were to take place, or be fulfilled after they were shown to John according to these three witnesses. Now what does that do to the churches, and even Identity ministers who insist that the devil or satan of Rev 12 is a fallen angel, who was cast out of heaven millenniums before John saw the vision? It makes them either fools or liars. Now turn over to Rev 12, and read the vision in more detail:

“And there appeared a great wonder (and the margin in most Bibles will tell you the word ‘wonder’ could have been translated ‘sign’) in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars.” Rev. 12:1.

Now think about this as we read. Were these actual events taking place in God’s heaven or were they visions that John saw which were symbolic of things that would happen? I do not think that you would believe John to be teaching that this would be a literal woman clothed with the sun, standing on the moon and wearing 12 stars on her head. Think about that for a moment. It has to be symbolic of something else. He is not seeing the actual thing, he is seeing it in symbolism. Now John is on the Isle of Patmos, and in Rev 4:2 he said he was 'in the spirit,' when he saw these things. My thinking on this is that when John says 'I saw something in heaven' that he was looking up in the sky, and he sees these events taking place. So when he says there appeared a wonder in heaven, it doesn't necessarily mean that the woman was up in God's heavenly abode. John saw her up in the sky, and wrote as he saw it. It goes on :

".. and she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder (or sign) in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: And the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron; and her child was caught up unto God and to his throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days."

And then come the verses that say there was 'war' in 'heaven.' So this is all part of a continuing vision and he is writing it down as he sees it. Now let us try to identify the participants here as best we can. The symbolism in the first verse, the "sun, moon and stars" leads us back to Genesis 37 of course, where Joseph dreamed a dream, in verse 9:

"And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamed a dream more; and, behold the sun and the moon and the eleven stars made obeisance to me. And he told it to his father, and to his brethren: and his father rebuked him, and said unto him, What is his dream that thou dreamest? Shall I and thy mother and thy brethren indeed come to bow ourselves down to thee to the earth?"

So you see in that dream, as in John's vision, the 'sun, moon and stars' signify the whole house of Israel. So this woman is symbolic of the house of Israel, the identifying marks being the sun, moon and stars. Some of you have read the verses in Scripture where the sun and the moon will be darkened, and so on. You have heard me preach on them; and I have identified them as being symbolic of the destruction of Israel and the reducing of her power at the end of the age. It has nothing to do with the heavenly bodies of sun, moon and stars. These are symbolic, and as you know of course, 12 is always a symbol for Israel for the twelve tribes. So, if this vision is actually in heaven, then in order to fulfill that, Israel would have to be in God's heaven, would she not?

But, we know Israel is not. Israel is on the earth. She has been on the earth and will remain on the earth. So the heaven he is where John saw it, not where the woman was or will be. So the war in heaven also does not have to be in God's heaven. We'll see this a little later on as we go on. Verse 7:

"And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, (Now he was looking up at this vision in the skies) and prevailed not; neither was their place found anymore in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out..."

And then here is the identification that the churches take to say this was satan:

"... that old serpent called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him."

Now we passed over something already, which the Catholic priests always pass over and the protestant ministers always pass over, and at least those Identity ministers who opposed me in my arguments about satan also pass over; so let's go back and read it, verse 3:

"And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads..."

Now the mother Eve of Judaism and of the Mormon church and of the seedline people, who teach that this satan of Rev. 12 seduced Eve, must have had a mother Eve who was some sort of a pervert. Can you imagine her falling for some creature with seven heads and ten horns, you follow me? This does NOT stand for some creature, or man, or person. It obviously has some other meaning. This creature has seven heads, ten horns, and seven crowns. Now, since we've already seen that the woman is not a woman, but is a great mass of people called Israel; maybe the dragon isn't a dragon, nor a devil, nor even a satan, nor even a serpent; but something else! Well, the Bible of course, has to answer for us. And memory seems to tell me there are several other places in the Bible where there is a creature described very similarly to this creature here called the Devil and Satan. Let's turn to the next chapter 13, it is very close - they can hardly escape it, if they read their Bibles at all.

"And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed; and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast; and they worshipped the beast, saying, 'Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him?'"

Now in this passage of Rev 13, this beast is not identified. But it is identified in the book of Daniel, and we may look at that later. But we'll stay in Revelation for now.

The 'Satan' theorists or those who teach these Devil doctrines, never call the creature of Rev 13 a 'great fallen angel,' even though that creature has seven heads and ten horns, just like the Devil and Satan of Rev. 12. Of course, As I mentioned earlier, they never even read chapter 12:3, when they tell you the devil of this chapter is a fallen angel.

If you heard this devil had seven heads, you might question their interpretation. You certainly would question the devil or serpent of Rev 12 having sexual intercourse with Eve, and fathering Cain; if at the same time they taught that, they pointed out this serpent had seven heads and ten horns. The next place we have the same kind of beast is in Revelation 17, beginning in vs 1:

“And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither: I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters: (Now remember this is still John writing the descriptions of visions he saw shown to him by an angel. In some cases the angel explained them as he did this one: vs 2) with whom the kings of the earth have committed fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her fornication. So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of ames of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.” to be continued.....

THE CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT IS DANGEROUS - WATCH OUT FOR IT!

At the turn of the century, the Pentecostal Movement came into being, emphasizing “speaking in tongues” and “Divine healing.” Their failure to “rightly divide the Word of Truth” led to many false teachings regarding the ministry of the holy spirit and produced confusion in the minds of many believers. This Pentecostal Movement arose mainly from within various Protestant churches but they were soon forced out, either because of their unusual beliefs and practices or, in some cases, because they felt unhappy in churches which had become liberal theologically and worldly in position and practice. At least one thing can be said for most of these early Pentecostals—they utterly repudiated the liberalism of the ecumenical movement and would not condone mixing the world with the church.

In the past few years a new movement has taken shape, sharing the basic doctrines of Pentecostalism but advocating a “stay in” rather than a “come out” policy with regard to church affiliations. This movement is commonly known as the CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT. It involves not only various Protestant churches but Roman Catholic churches as well. In fact, if one is able to “speak in tongues” or if he has experienced a “healing,” he is accepted by the Charismatics with little or no regard to his church affiliation or doctrinal deviation. When you hear Roman Catholics talk about how their “baptism in the Holy Spirit” has given them a greater love for the Mass, you know that this cannot be attributed to the Holy Spirit but to a false spirit!

Others have dealt at length with the dangers and unscripturalness of the CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT. Our purpose in this leaflet is to point out briefly some of the real dangers of this movement so that God’s people will be informed and forewarned. We realize that there are many true believers involved in this movement. But that fact in no way decreases the dangers inherent in it. It is important to not to look at principles, doctrines and positions and not to look solely at the individuals who compose this movement. The Word of God must be the only basis for conclusions drawn - we must not judge by personal relationships or prejudice.

THE CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT IS DANGEROUS BECAUSE:

1. It is willing to accept tongues, interpretation of tongues, visions, dreams, prophecies, etc., as being messages from God to his children. This is a very grave danger. once you accept “extra biblical messages” (those which are in addition to the bible per se) it is not long before you will be accepting “anti-biblical messages” as being valid (those which directly contradict God’s Word). The Charismatic Movement has done and is doing exactly that! In reality, all “extra-biblical messages” are “anti-biblical messages” because God’s Word specifically warns against adding to the Scriptures (Deuteronomy 4:2; Rev. 22:18, 19). The Charismatic Movement defends these “extra-biblical, anti-biblical messages” on the basis that “new winds of the Holy Spirit are blowing.” They say “Who knows what the Holy Spirit may do?” Let no one forget, however, that the Word of God is a completed revelation and was given by the Holy Spirit (2 Pet. 1:19)[to Israel ONLY, CIM]. We can be sure of one thing—the Holy Spirit will never contradict Himself. It was the Holy Spirit who warned about adding to the Word of God. Therefore, those who add to God’s Word cannot claim to be authorized or empowered by the Holy Spirit.

2. It encourages its followers to stay in apostate Protestant churches as well as Roman Catholic churches and other churches which preach and teach a false gospel. God’s Word plainly tells believers that those who preach another gospel are “accursed” (Gal. 1:6,9) and that those who fellowship with false teachers are partakers of their evil deeds (2 John 10,11). The Charismatic Movement is promoting the Ecumenical Movement and the Roman Catholic Church. This is very dangerous!

3. It, like the New Evangelical Movement, uses, sells and promotes most of the new Bible versions and translations, many of which add to or take from the Word of God. This, also, is very dangerous.

4. It places undue and unscriptural emphasis on PHYSICAL HEALING. This stumbles many precious believers who are falsely taught that it is ALWAYS God’s will to heal. Both the Scriptures and experience teach that God may use physical afflictions for refining, correcting and chastening (2 Cor. 12:7-10; Heb. 12:3-11; Job 23:10). The Scriptures leave no doubt as to the ability of God to heal. But it is wrong and dangerous to teach that God must ALWAYS heal.

5. It, unlike its predecessor, Pentecostalism, fosters and encourages a spirit of worldliness in the church and in the individual believer. Instead of striving for true holiness and Godliness in speech, dress, hair, music, entertainment, etc., the Charismatic Movement seems to be trying to outdo the world in being worldly. This is very dangerous. Read 1 John 2:15-17.

6. It encourages women to forsake their God-given place in the home and in the Church. This results in disorderly homes and dis-orderly churches with women in places of leadership in direct violation of the Word of God. It is strange, inconsistent and sad to hear Charismatics using 1 Cor. 14 to justify speaking in tongues as a gift of the Spirit for our day when that very same chapter says plainly “let your women keep silent in the churches,,,” 1 Cor. 14:34. To countermand God’s command to women is dangerous—for women, for the home and for the Church.

7. It promotes and encourages what is called “coming under the power,” an extremely dangerous practice [as can be seen on the DVD videos THE TORONTO BLESSING UNMASKED - CI-251, CI-252, especially CI-300 @ $15 each from CIM] in which certain leaders “lay hands” on people causing them to “swoon, faint, slump down, experience the power” etc., thereafter remaining unconscious or semi-conscious for several seconds or longer. The Charismatics attempt to use John 18:6 to justify this practice. This is another example of how they twist the Scriptures to justify and defend their practices. There is no Scriptural precedent, example or command for this experience which borders on hypnotism and occult practices.

8. It glories in “miracles” and often uses a “miracle” as the basis for validating a person’s message or practices, even though the message or the practice is unscriptural. This is dangerous since the Scriptures plainly teach that the last days will be days of great deceitfulness (2 Tim. 3:13). God warns that the coming of antichrists will usher in a time of “all power and signs and LYING WONDERS” (2 Thess. 2:9-11). We read in Revelation 13:3 that the deadly wound of the Beast was healed and that the “Second Beast” deceived men by the use of miracles, even having the power to give life to an image (Rev. 13:11-18). The validation of a man’s message and methods today is not “miracles” —it is its conformity to the Word of God. It is dangerous to accept any other basis of judgment!

We firmly believe that “speaking in tongues” ceased with the completion of the Scriptures (1 Cor. 13:8). We firmly believe that it is wrong to teach believers to tarry for or seek the baptism of the Holy Spirit. The Bible clearly teaches that all believers have been baptized by the Holy Spirit into the body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13) and that those who do not have the Spirit of Christ are not His at all (Romans 8:9). We firmly believe that the erroneous teachings of the Charismatic Movement have obscured the true and blessed teaching regarding the ministry of the Holy Spirit who convicts the world of sin (John 16:8-11), baptizes the new believers into the Body of Christ (1 Cor. 12:13); comforts, teaches and guides believers into all truth (John 14:15-26; 16:7,13); and who has “sealed us unto the day of Redemption” (Eph 4:30). The Holy Spirit has a blessed and important ministry in the life of every believer and we dare not neglect, belittle or pervert this wonderful ministry. The Holy Spirit uses the written Word which He gave through the apostles and prophets to guide us into all truth. The Holy Spirit will never lead us to do or say things contrary to the Bible, God’s Holy, inerrant, eternal Word (2 Tim. 3:16).

In conclusion, someone may ask, “What if the Charismatic Movement is right and you are wrong about “speaking in tongues” being for our day? Is it possible that God does want His people to have this gift now?” The answer is clear—if “speaking in tongues” is for our day, then surely it ought to be practiced and used according to the Scriptures. That would mean that not all believers could expect to have this gift (1 Cor 12:4-11, 28-31); that “tongues speakers” should remain silent unless an interpreter was present (1 Cor 14:34). If the Charismatic Movement were of the Spirit of God, it would be exercising spiritual discernment and also calling for separation from false prophets, apostate churches and unscriptural practices. It would be fighting the Ecumenical Movement—not helping to build it! For all of these reasons and many others like them, we sound this word of warning—THE CHARISMATIC MOVEMENT IS DANGEROUS - WATCH OUT FOR IT!

13.3 I have heard that Adam was not the father of Cain, but that the devil, Satan, or some other creature impregnated mother Eve. Can you give a short answer?

(We will use an excerpt from an article by Robert T. Woodworth for our answer).

It’s a pretty well-established fact that Adam and Eve’s first two sons were Cain and Abel. Then Cain killed Abel and fled from the country of his parents to the land of Nod (Gen. 6). After this, Adam and Eve had another son, Seth, and many more children (Gen. 5:1-4). When I announced my subject, “Was Cain Adam’s Son?” for a Sunday night’s sermon, my grandson showed his mother Genesis 4:1 which says, “And Adam knew Eve his wife, and she conceived and bare Cain, and said, I have gotten a man from the Lord.” So my grandson added, “That settles it. What is grandpa going to preach about tonight?”

Well son, it isn’t that simple for some people. There are people who believe that Eve’s encounter with the serpent was a seduction, and that Cain was the son of Eve and the serpent, or the devil. From this, they establish a “serpent seed” line which they say has been responsible for most of the heinous sins and atrocities committed by so called men. There are some people in the kingdom identity movement who believe this, and point to the enemies of our Lord as being the offspring of this serpent line; half Eve and half Satan. (Also the “Moonies” of the Unification church founded by Sun Myung Moon of Korea, believe this. They claim that both Adam and Eve “were tempted by the archangel Lucifer into illicit and forbidden love.” Unification Theological Seminary Affirmations, Barrytown, Y.N. 12507)

It is difficult to trace the origin of this idea, but when our nation was founded in 1776, a godless group called the Illuminati was being formed in Europe as a secret society to undermine this new nation, and all Christian nations. One of the prominent leaders was Adam Weishaupt, and his anti-Christian cohorts were called “Seeds of the serpent” by the defenders of the faith in early American pulpits. However, the term “Seeds of the serpent” was not used by them to mean literal descendants of the devil.

In the first place, the Bible says plainly that Cain was the result of the union of Adam and Eve (Gen 4:1). Eve announced that she had received a male child “from the Lord” (Yahweh in Hebrew).

There is no evidence, Biblical or otherwise, to show that devils and humans may crossbreed, or that devils reproduce devils at all.

Cain was the son of Adam and Eve, as were Abel and Seth. There are no beings on earth who are part human and part devil or part angel (anything some preachers say to the contrary notwithstanding! CIM). These are all myths and legends apart from the Bible, and ought not to be allowed in the Christian faith or doctrines.
