

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian people are ISRAEL!

"THE AGE OF ILLUSIONS - PART 3"

by Pastor Don Elmore

INTRODUCTION

A lot of the ways of Christian culture that was prevalent in the 1700's and 1800's in America, now seems very strange to the present generation. look at the bathing suits that women wore compared to the popular bikini. Contrast the percentage of individuals that bought on credit prior to the nineteenth century with the enormous debt-load of today's families.

No compulsory public education; no property taxes; no income taxes; no "federal reserve notes;" a great suspicion of processed foods; no legal abortion or birth control; paddling permitted in public schools; prayer permitted in public events; no rock 'n' roll music; no drug culture; a low percentage of degenerate diseases; a low percentage of divorces; a low percentage of day cares, no fast food restaurants; and on and on.

But there is one area that has changed drastically even though few realize its significance. Our country used to be a patriarchal society. men and women had different, distinct roles. Men were soldiers, women were nurses. Men were the "breadwinners," women were homemakers. men were the principals, presidents, pastors, congressmen, athletes, coal-miners, factory-workers, etc. Wives could sew, cook, care for children and the ill, garden, shop, clean—but they seldom usurped authority from the man. They were not even allowed to speak to a group of men, retain their wages, or vote in local or national elections!

AMERICA'S INDIVIDUALISM

America's desire for freedom helped to win her independence. But over the years, since it has been left unchecked, it has separated America from her covenant God.

In America, and other Israelite nations, it is extremely difficult for Christians to escape the sly attack on their minds that American Individualism wages. American Individualism is essentially the belief in the primary importance of the individual and in the virtues of self-reliance and personal independence. Its doctrine holds that the interests of the individual should take precedence over the interests of the state, social group or local church.

Unfortunately, this philosophy has impacted many in the local churches and has produced some selfish and greedy Christians. Therefore, a life skill for young Christians is how to love others selflessly.

It sounds simple, but the truth is that most people are selfish. The love found in 1 Corinthians 13 is selfless—and actually a matter of the will. Sons and daughters of Christians need to learn the skill of loving people by action and by will for their own good, not because they enjoy it all the time, but because God commands it.

Eventually, they will be faced with the reality that feeling and "chemistry" may periodically disappear in relationships—including marriage. Therefore, valuing permanent commitment and understanding how to make a "mental decision" to love someone is critical.

Alexis de Tocqueville, the Frenchman who wrote Democracy in America stated that marriage and the family were defenses AGAINST individualism. What would probably perplex and disturb de Tocqueville the most today is the fact that the family is no longer an integral part of a larger moral ecology tying the individual to community, church, and nation. On the contrary, the family has become the core of the private sphere, whose aim is not to link individuals to the public world but to avoid it as far as possible.

THE FRUIT OF THE WOMEN'S FREEDOM MOVEMENT

Two pseudo-Christian churches—the Unitarian and Quaker—and the radical Abolition Movement, provided the women and the platform for the anti-Christian Women's Movement in America. Interestingly, the desire of some women to be leaders and public speakers in the radical abolition movement eventually led to the splitting of that movement into two main organizations—one that allowed women to lead and speak and one that continued to forbid it.

Additionally, the Women's Movement tackled other

IN THIS ISSUE:

The Age of Illusions, pt 3, ..... 1
How a Courtship Begins, ..... 3
What Are NSAIDS? ..... 4
That Old Serpent, Called Devil & Satan, pt 2, ..... 4
Acceptable Racism, ..... 7
Who Has Destroyed America? ..... 9
Quiverfull Movement Spawns Large, Traditional, . 10
Zimbabwe, A Nation in Turmoil, ..... 10
The Weather, ..... 11
Swine, Pig & Pork Facts, ..... 12
Autism & Vaccine, .....
13 The Answering Service, .....

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

issues besides the main one of radical abolition—the purpose of which was to prevent the orderly and systematic elimination of slavery. The three main ones were:

- That women should be able to have the freedom to retain any wages they earned.
- That women should be able to have the freedom to vote in elections.
- That women should have the freedom to live their lives without anyone in any community being allowed to drink alcohol; thereby escaping alcohol's damaging effect on society.

The tireless and successful efforts in the nineteenth century led by Susan B. Anthony and others were picked up by the next generation of anti-Christian women; including Margaret Sanger and Emma Goldman who continued the cry for more freedom for women. This time the issue was birth control; followed shortly thereafter by Sanger's efforts that led to Planned Parenthood and abortion on demand. Their primary contention—that women and their responsibilities should no longer be defined by men.

The success of the Margaret Sangers and those who followed began to be measured in part by a weakening of the male's role.

In an effort to accommodate the desires of their counterparts, the male population seemed to soften its zeal for pursuing traditional male roles. Clearly, the Christian men of the day who yielded to such societal pressure were in error—in SIN.

As a result of their weak wills and preoccupation in other matters, the pendulum began to swing far the other way. To make room for women in the country's male-directed society, it became politically-correct for men to recognize, and to ABDICATE TO, THE LEADERSHIP SKILLS OF WOMEN.

As a result, the period from 1850 to 1950 marks the recoiling of true American Fatherhood, and our country has never been the same since. Not all fathers were weak, and certainly not all mothers were rebellious—but, like today, political correctness has a way of spilling over into the church.

THE CHILDREN'S FREEDOM MOVEMENT

In the last 150 years in America, feminists have won for their fellow women many culture changing freedoms; some of which are:

- Freedom from the headship of their husband.
- Freedom from inconvenient conception.
- Freedom from inconvenient birth.
- Freedom from inconvenient children.
- Freedom from their God-ordained role as a homemaker.
- Freedom from being a full-time mother and wife.
- Freedom from nursing their babies.

The by-products of these "freedoms" have also greatly impacted what was once a Christian culture with its Biblical morals. The success of the Women's Movement to achieve complete role obliteration has had a profound effect on tolerating what God abhors. For example: As

Francis Shaeffer points out in his book, The Great Evangelical Disaster, p.136:

"For if there are no significant distinctions between men and women, then certainly we cannot condemn homosexual relationships."

The destruction of families of God's elect people is now in full force and power.

- Millions of conceptions were prevented by various means, including sterilization.
- Approximately 50 million children never made it out of their mothers' wombs alive.
- Millions of babies that made it out of the womb, were either murdered, harmed (altruism), or greatly weakened by vaccinations.
- Millions of children were harmed by the weak genetics of their parents.
- Millions of children were harmed during pregnancy by alcohol, tobacco or drugs taken by their mother.
- Millions of children were made ill by high calorie/low nutrition diets—artificial, adulterated, GMO, chemical, pesticide, restaurant fast foods.
- Millions of children were never taught God's laws.

• Millions of children were never a part of a covenant-structured family. (or if they were turned their back on it).

But the above list is far from complete. Omitted is one of the most important reasons the family (including Christian families) are experiencing an epidemic of divorces—about 60%—is that in the last few generations in America the FATHERS SURRENDERED THEIR VITAL RESPONSIBILITY FOR THEIR CHILDREN'S NUP-TIAL WELL BEING.

HOW DATING DIFFERS FROM COURTSHIP

Three generations have passed since the days of courtship—and very few remember. Even to suggest that the practice of dating is detrimental, harmful, evil and unbiblical will generally be met with very hostile reactions—even from evangelical Christians.

This supposed God-given right of Children to date is a sure sign of how far we have drifted from God's ways and covenant structure. Modern "dating" stands in stark contrast to the former "courtship" practiced by Christians in the days prior to the achievements made by the demonic Women's Movement in America.

1. The distinction between dating and courting lies in the INTENT OF THE RELATIONSHIP.

Courtship is an endeavour with the specific purpose of matrimony in mind. Only couples who are ready and want to get married are qualified to begin the courtship process. Courting is a long-term commitment with the purpose of matrimony.

In contrast, in dating there is no commitment on the part of the male or female to continue the relationship beyond the date itself—which makes it recreational. And even worse, most dates consists of couples that are many years away from even considering being married! Even twelve

THE ROARING 20's

The disarming of American Fatherhood reached its peak in the 1920's. For all intents and purposes, this decade may go down as one of the most devastating in our country's history: Consider that in this short span of time television was invented and went on to become one of the primary vehicles for communicating alternative family values. In addition, birth control clinics were made legal, eventually to give rise to abortion clinics. The modern film industry was also born during this time, and has been a tremendous tool for romanticizing the abandonment of traditional values. Perhaps even more significant was the disappearance of the practices known as betrothal and courtship.

In the place of betrothal and courtship came something new and devastating—something that is now assumed to have always been—but was unknown in the days prior to our grandparents—DATING! - (and with it a massive rise in the number of divorces—and shacking-up together, premarital sex, and abortion) and thirteen-year-olds are now dating in America. Many being just 'one-night-stands.'

Dating is short-term involvements which leads to multiple "break-ups." While the first break-up is difficult for most dating couples, it generally gets easier and easier. Dating is really the practice of breaking up. This practiced habit gets easier, even after marriage. Dating is practicing for divorce.

2. The distinction between dating and courting lies in the ROLE OF THE FATHER.

The courtship process cannot begin until the man initiates it by going to the father (or in his absence a qualified surrogate) of the woman and asking his permission to court his daughter. This is properly done without the knowledge of the daughter, and after he has consulted his own parents. All parties involved: the daughter, her parents, the man and his parents must all be in agreement to begin the courtship.

In contrast, the father's permission is not sought until the end of the dating process when marriage is desired. Dates are initiated by either the male or female—with or without their parents' knowledge or approval. The introduction of the man to the woman by a member of the family is not considered necessary or needed.

3. The distinction between dating and courting lies in the ACCOUNTABILITY OF THE RELATIONSHIP.

In courtship, the family, under the headship of the girl's father, takes the responsibility to plan and chaperone any courtship activities. all physical intimacies such as hand-holding and kissing are NOT permitted. The couple is NEVER left alone together. All contact is limited—including telephone, email, text messaging and letters.

In contrast, dating is just the opposite. Almost all dates are planned by adolescents themselves, and not by their parents. Few, if any, dates are chaperoned—let alone by her father! And physical intimacies are EXPECTED! A general result of dating: The younger a person dates—the sooner they have (unbiblical) premarital sex.

CONCLUSION

The illusion of dating as a valid, godly way to find a wife or husband has brought many a heartache and buckets of tears to many of its participants. Sexual immorality is the usual fruit of this practice.

In addition, dating is a virtual denial of parental oversight and counsel. It is founded upon the autonomy of the child and American Individualism. It therefore, violates the very foundation of the family's authority structure.

When one thinks about it—how strange is it that one of the most important decisions in a child's life is basically left up to them in a flawed system that leaves the dating couple to flounder along blindly without any commitment, guidance, protection, or accountability.

The father is a covering for his children. A covering is a "chapeau," that is a chaperone. If the father is going to be the head of his children he will chaperone his children. He will protect them. He will not "follow the multitude to do evil" but walk the narrow and difficult path that leads to life.

HOW A COURTSHIP BEGINS

1. The courtship process is always initiated by the young man; but only when he is ready for marriage. Not the parents (this is courtship, not arranged marriage), although the parents may give advice and offer guidance and suggestions as to a possible match. The young lady does not take the initiative in any case, rather waiting prayerfully and keeping her heart with her parents.

2. Where possible, the young man should conceal his interest in the young lady until he has approached her parents. This is to prevent her from making an advance decision that may conflict with the counsel of her parents. It also serves to prevent undue emotional stress on her part if she suspects someone is seriously interested in her. Naturally, the young man should get to know her decently well within a public setting before committing himself to courtship.

NOTE: One advantage of courtship is the opportunity to see people as they really are. Typically in a dating relationship people will "act" and take special efforts to impress and behave nicely and conceal their normal selves when around their date. How many times have you heard, "She's not the woman I thought I was marrying!" (or vice versa)? Watch how the young lady treats her father and family (is she living at home, are the parents married or divorced). Watch how the young man treats his mother and family (is he still at home). That can tell you a lot about what they will be like after the wedding.

3. When the young man has a young lady in mind, he should seek the counsel of both his parents and God through prayer. The parents have the right to veto the proposed courtship at their discretion if they feel their son is not ready, or, after discreet investigation of the young lady, they believe their son has made a poor choice. This prevents young men from having their hearts "stolen" by someone whom his parents (more level-headed and with more life experience) can see is an obviously bad choice. It also prevents the young lady from having to turn down a young man who is a poor choice for her, and protects the couple from suffering through a bad relationship that had little to recommend itself in the first place.

NOTE: In most cases a young man should look first to his father for counsel. In cases where the young man comes from a troubled family, the mother, older brother, a pastor, uncle or other trusted older man should serve as a surrogate. Courtship is not meant to be an inflexible process, so long as the underlying principles are understood and followed.

4. After the father of the young man gives his approval, either the father or the young man approaches the father of the young lady to propose the courtship. This is done discreetly, without the knowledge of the young lady. As noted above, in the case of a broken family, the suitor should be directed to a surrogate who has the trust of the young lady and her best interests at heart (in most cases, this will not be a brother).

5. The father of the young lady considers the request. He should investigate the young man and get to know him well enough to be comfortable with him. This may entail activities together or subsequent meetings to establish familiarity and trust. If the father believes the young man has potential but is not satisfactory as yet, he may choose to work with him or set goals for the suitor to attain to gain his approval. These goals should be carefully considered, the reason for them should be clearly communicated, and they

Historical Video

CI-029

1. Your Money - Your Life

2. Son of Man

by Richard Hoskins

3. Who Can Find a Virtuous Woman?

by Carol Johnson

4. The War Between the States

by Richard Hoskins

5. Dejour Government vs Defacto

Government, by Howard Freeman

DVD-CI-029 @ sug don $15

-----

REMEMBER we still have the ongoing deal of 6 used VHS video tapes @ $10 posted!

should be unambiguous. They may relate to spiritual, material, financial, or other matters. Where possible, this should all be done without the specific knowledge of the daughter to prevent emotional stress on her part.

6. Once the father of the young lady had decided to approve the courtship, he should then approach his daughter. She has the power to veto the proposal, in which case the father will communicate this to the young man or his father. This eliminates the more stressful nature of a direct rejection. If she gives her approval, the courtship may begin. In some instances there is a formal announcement of the courtship, such as at their church or via other means.

NOTE: One difference between courtship and dating are the additional "hurdles" to be crossed, even before it begins. Both the parents of the man and the woman, as well as the young man and woman, all have "veto" power over the courtship. This effectively raises the "quality" of the romance and the behaviour of the participants dramatically. [Unfortunately - these "ideal" conditions don't prevail very often. Many people either don't have a church group, or if they do, not of sufficient size to find someone. When young people are working, they may meet someone at work - and unless they are strong and steadfast in their own body and mind, problems will arise. Also distance can have a major bearing on whether the above can actually be followed. But, young people themselves should be sufficiently committed Christians enough to follow the guidelines as much as is possible! CIM]

---

WHAT ARE NSAIDS?

by Rik Huffman

Nonsteroidal anti-inflammatory drugs or NSAIDs are the most prescribed medications for treating conditions such as arthritis. Most people are familiar with over-the-counter, non-prescription NSAIDs such as aspirin and ibuprofen.

NSAIDs are more than just pain relievers. They also help reduce inflammation and lower fevers. They prevent blood from clotting, which is good in some cases but not so beneficial in others. For example, because they reduce clotting action, some NSAIDs, especially aspirin, may have a protective effect against heart disease. However, you may bruise more easily. NSAIDs can increase the risk of developing nausea, an upset stomach or an ulcer. They also may interfere with kidney function.

HOW THEY WORK

NSAIDs work by preventing an enzyme (a protein that triggers changes in the body) from doing its job. The enzyme is called cyclooxygenase, or COX, and it has two forms. COX-1 protects the stomach lining from harsh acids and digestive chemicals; it also helps maintain kidney function. COX-2 is produced when joints are injured or inflamed. Traditional NSAIDs block the actions of both COX-1 and COX-2, which is why they can cause stomach upset and bleeding as well as ease pain and inflammation.

NSAIDs come in different strengths and formulas. Some may work better for you than others. Your physician can help you find the dose and medication that works best for you. Generally, you should take NSAIDs with food or a glass of milk and should avoid drinking alcohol while you are taking NSAIDs.

RISK FACTORS

If one is pregnant, has high blood pressure, asthma, has a history of kidney or liver disease, had ulcers in the past, or is over the age of sixty-five, then one needs to be cautious about taking NSAIDs. Also, NSAIDs may intensify or counteract the effects of some medication. Both the risk and the severity of side effects increases the longer one takes NSAIDs.

COX-2 inhibitors are a special category of NSAIDs. These medications target only the COX-2 enzyme that stimulates the inflammatory response. Because they do not block the actions of the COX-1 enzyme, these medications generally don't cause the kind of stomach upset or bleeding that traditional NSAIDs do. COX-2 inhibitors also don't offer the same kind of protection against heart disease. If a person is taking a COX-2 inhibitor (Celebrex, Vioxx, Bextra), then that person should not use a traditional NSAID (prescription or over-the-counter).

Too many people are still unaware that chronic use of certain pain-relieving drugs can lead to severe gastro-intestinal (GI) complications, such as ulcers, stomach aches, indigestion, or congestive heart failure. Fifty to eighty percent of the people that are hospitalized for GI bleeding take non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs or NSAIDs, which include: aspirin, ibuprofen (as found in Advil), naproxen (Aleve), and ketoprofen (Orudis). Every time they come into the hospital bleeding, they have a 10% chance of dying.

the above Courtesy The New Covenant Messenger, Box 321, Union KY 41091

---

THAT OLD SERPENT CALLED DEVIL & SATAN

by Sheldon Emry - continued.....

we left off after quoting from Revelation 17.....

Here is that same thing again. The same identical description called in Rev. 12 'that old serpent, the devil and satan.' Now, let's read on with this description here, because if we were again to take this literally, as being what it is visually then we would have to expect sometime in the future a scarlet woman here on the earth, riding some sort of scarlet coloured beast with seven heads and ten horns. Obviously it stands for something else, it's not a literal beast. Just as the creature back in Rev. 12 does not have to be a literal satan or a literal devil. He writes a little more about the woman and then says in vs 7:

"And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. The beast that thou sawest was, and is not: and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is."

And remember those verses in Rev 1. This is still visions John was shown by angels of things 'which must shortly come to pass.' They were to happen sometime after John saw the vision.

"And here is the mind that hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth."

Now all students of Bible prophecy of course should know symbolism well enough to know that the word 'mountains' in prophecy means nations or conglomerates of people. It is not a physical mountain. He says, the seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sitteth. In verse 18 the angel identifies:

"... the woman which thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth."

This woman is riding a beast with seven heads. The woman rules over the kings of the earth. Therefore what is the symbolism? The symbolism is some sort of a mystery power, here called MYSTERY BABYLON which rides, or gains its power through a conglomeration of nations. It is not satan, it is not the devil, it is not some spiritual angel thrown down from God's abode in some past millenniums. It is a conglomeration of nations. Read on, Rev. 17:10,

"And there are seven kings: (in other words, each one of these nations has a king) five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come;"

So John is seeing this at a time when something has already happened, one is ruling, another is coming, and

"... when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition (and that word means 'destruction'). And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet."

Now these ten kings did not rule at the time John saw the vision. They had received no kingdom yet.

"But receive power as kings one hour with the beast."

So whatever this is it will take place over a relatively short time. One hour in Bible prophecy would be quite short because there are prophecies of 100 years and 1260 years and so on. So, one hour.

"These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength unto the beast. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful."

So it shows here that there is going to be a war involving these ten kings. Now I did not want to do a study of Rev. 17; I've gone into that in great detail before, but I have to use it of course, because this is the most simple revelation of what the beast with seven heads and ten horns is. The ten horns are ten kings. Now notice what it says here, that these kings, vs 13, give their power and strength unto the beast. They make war with the Lamb, then vs 16:

"And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, (hate this ruling entity that rules over the whole world) and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire."

The same ten kings, or ten nations, that give the beast her power, shall destroy her,

"For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled."

I went into this in some detail some time ago, and I will just refresh your memory, that the U.S.A. has given more of its wealth and its power to build up the red beast of communism than any other nation. Most of you know that. Russia as a military power today would not even exist, except for technical things given and sent to the Soviet Union over the last 50 years from the U.S.A. (Documented in NATIONAL SUICIDE by Anthony Sutton). In other words, all of their weaponry, all of their science, all of their computers, all of their factories literally were built by American technicians and productivity. so, if America is the nation that has given the power to the beast, the red beast of communism, where do you get this ten nation? Well, I'm not being dogmatic about this, but - how many of you know that America was divided into ten nations in about 1970. We now have ten governments ruling over ten separate nations. All government control and aid and money comes out of Washington DC, it does not come to Phoenix, Arizona; but it comes to San Francisco, and the the orders come to here, because we are in that region (BEWARE FEDERAL REGIONAL GOVERNMENT by Phoebe Courtney, The Independent American, PO Box 636, Littleton CO 80160) [This was probably the start of regionalisation, which is now happening in England, and in Australia—under council amalgamations, CIM] America is no longer 50 states, it is ten regions. Now, as I said, I am not being dogmatic about this, but since it is the United States which through our enemies who have gained control of our government have used our wealth, stolen our taxes from us, taken our grain and productivity and built up the red beast; America could be these ten kings, which receive power as kings one hour with the beast. A very short space of time. And remember, then those kings - vs 16:

"... shall hate the whore, and maker her desolate, and naked and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire."

If I am correct in my belief that those ten horns are ten nations and are collectively the USA, then it will be the USA which will destroy the power of the red beast of world communism, that now rules the world. Turn with me back to the prophet Obadiah. This concerns the destruction of Edom.

"The vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord God concerning Edom. (As you know, Edom means RED. Edom is world communism). We have heard a rumour from the Lord, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle."

And then this prophecy describes the destruction of Esau/Edom which we can identify as this world controlling power that now reigns over all the earth. And look who destroys Edom, vs 17:

"But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance..."

And we've identified the USA as Zion in other sermons.

"...and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble..."

And of course, Esau is Edom; it says that 4 times in Genesis 36. Then the last verse:

"And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau;"

In other words, saviours shall come upon the nation of Zion to judge the nation of Esau, or Edom, the reds!

"And the kingdom shall be the Lord's."

This is the description of the last battle to be fought upon the earth, when Jacob/Israel, after having been deceived into giving their power to this great red beast and this scarlet woman. Then we'll turn on the woman and destroy her. And to me this makes the only sense out of this entire prophecy. That this beast with seven heads and ten horns is something which gives power to the scarlet woman

Featured Book

PRE-ADAMITES

or a demonstration of The Existence of Men Before Adam; Together With a Study of their Condition, Antiquity, Racial Affinities, And Progressive Dispersion Over the Earth, with Charts and Other Illustrations by

Alexander Winchell, LL.D.,

Professor of Geology and Paleontology in the University of Michigan
1880 (reprinted - comb bound)

#791 @ sug don $49.95

and then it in turn will turn back against them and destroy them.

I'll repeat the point I wanted to make again; If you take Rev. 12 as the Catholic church does, as the protestants and some others do, and say: Oh, this is that great arch-angel and he fought on heaven and was brought down to the earth, and so on. You then destroy all of this actual prophecy which is being given here. No wonder our people are blind to what is happening in the earth today, because prophecy, the Bible, has been misrepresented to them.

That doctrine of course, is so universally taught, and has been taught over such a long period of time that few there are who question it. I must admit, for the greater part of my life, I never questioned it neither. I accepted all of these stories and descriptions of this 'devil,' since my parents and everyone else I knew believed it. I assumed it was true. But back in those days, everyone that I knew thought that the Jews were Israel, so I believed that. Everyone I knew thought that non-Christians went to hell-fire and were tortured for ever and ever by this same devil, so I believed that also. Almost everyone that I knew thought Franklin Delano Roosevelt was the saviour of America, and the only reason I didn't believe that was because my parents did not believe it. My father said that Franklin Roosevelt was a crook. So that is still a good example - we tend to believe what our parents believe, whether or not it is true. But believing it doesn't make it true!

We read Rev 12:3 which is the verse the 'devil preachers' do not read since it describes a strange 'creature' with seven heads, Whoever heard of a devil with seven heads. Well, that took us to Rev 17. The beast upon which the scarlet woman MYSTERY BABYLON rides has seven heads. These seven heads are identified as seven mountains or nations. And the ten horns as ten kings, or kingdoms. So the description in Rev. 12 and the symbolism in Rev 12 is identical to that of Rev 17.

Now I say, that old serpent called the devil and satan is NOT a spirit creature, but a combine of nations opposed to Christendom and Christians, and I showed in my long series entitled Give The Devil His Due (4 cassettes, A7810-A7813 @ $20) that the Hebrew word translated as 'satan' in the Old Testament means simply "adversary" or "enemy." In fact it is translated 'enemy' in the OT more times than it is transliterated into the word 'satan.' So the scarlet woman and the red beast of Rev 17 are certainly the 'adversaries' (satans) of Christianity because the woman is said to be "drunken with the blood of saints and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus." We'll find that this Rev. 12 'satan' is also the enemy of Christendom. Turn again to Rev 12, because some may think that I have boxed myself into a corner with my emphatic statement that the events of Rev. 12 were to come to pass after John saw the vision in AD96; because of what I read in Rev. 1 and 4. This woman here gave birth to a man-child and most people teach that the man-child is Jesus, and that happened some 90 odd years before John saw the vision. Let's look at Rev. 12:2,

"And she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder in heaven: and behold a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born. And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up to God and to his throne."

So at first reading that seems to be the baby born to Mary. In other words, the baby Jesus. However, as we have seen the symbol's in this vision are not what they actually represent. The woman is not a woman, the woman is Israel. The sun, moon and stars are not the actual sun, moon and stars. The red dragon is not a literal dragon. The heads are not heads, the horns are not horns; so perhaps the child is not a child, but stands for something else. Now let's consider everything we can here since this man-child is to rule all nations with a rod of iron. That turns us first of all to Rev. 19, and this is after the destruction of MYSTERY BABYLON, and we read in vs 11 of another vision,

"And I saw heaven opened, and behold a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war."

Now, this I believe, is a reference to Jesus Christ. Again of course this is not the Christ taught by most of the clergy, since they teach us that, well, this Christ is going to come and snatch the Christians and take them off to heaven. This Christ in Rev. 19 is going to judge and make war, and then verses 15 and 16:

"And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vestures and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."

Turn to Psalm 2, we'll read of the references to someone ruling the earth with 'a rod of iron.' Beginning vs 7:

"I will declare the decree: The Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; This day have I begotten thee. Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

Now this seems to be that this is Jesus again, who will rule with a rod of iron. But is it possible that verse 8 is not God speaking, but it is the Son. In other words he is saying in vs 7, God said, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee. Then if we take the next verse as Jesus speaking, then he is saying, Ask of me and I shall give thee, you, the heathen for your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thine possession. Thou - you believers, you Christians, shall break them with a rod of iron; and shall dash them in pieces as a potter's vessel.

Again, let's look at Revelation. We are told it is the Christian believers who will rule the world with a rod of iron. Rev. 2:26-27, and this is Jesus speaking to the churches:

"And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works to the end, to him will I give power over the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father."

So you see, we have a two-fold revelation here that it is Jesus who will rule the nations with a rod of iron, but it is also true that Jesus' followers, the overcomers, will rule the nations of the world with a rod of iron. Now there are other things in Rev. 12 which also reveal that the man-child here is not Jesus Christ. Now we've already seen that the Bible does say the overcomers will rule the nations with a rod of iron. Rev. 12:2 says;

"...and she being with child cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered."

New Video on DVD

Free Press Conference 2006 presented by American Free Press and The Barnes Review.
Items covered: Bias in Academia, USS Liberty Cover-up, Threat of Globalism, Immigration explosion, Mind Control Techniques. Very good!

[2 of 4]

CI-515 @ sug don $15

Earlier I identified the woman as Israel. The sun, moon and stars are symbols of the nation according to Joseph's dream. But the question is, Did Israel travail when Jesus was born? The answer is No! Most of Israel didn't even know what was happening and in fact the word 'travail' is never used in Scripture in relation to Jesus birth.

However, there is a birth in Scripture which is supposed to produce a man-child, and is supposed to produce it with pain and travail. So let's have the Bible itself identify what this man-child is. In the last chapter of the prophet Isaiah, the last half of the book of Isaiah is almost completely about the Zion of Bible prophecy, so are some of the other prophecies in the OT, and yet we seldom hear an explanation of what the Zion of Bible prophecy is. Generally speaking, it is related to Jerusalem and to a redeemed Israel ruling over the earth in the kingdom of Jesus Christ upon the earth. Let's read verse 5 of Isaiah 66:

"Hear the word of the Lord, ye that tremble at his word; (so this is addressed to believers, people who tremble at God's Word) Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the Lord be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed."

So he is referring to someone who is cast out by their brethren, but God will appear to the cast out ones.

"A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the Lord that rendereth recompense to his enemies. Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came she was delivered of a man-child. Who hath heard such things? who hath seen such a thing? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once?"

What was born? What is the man-child? The man-child is a nation, a nation born at once.

"For as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Shall I bring to birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the Lord: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God."

So God is going to bring something out of this thing called Zion. And the thing born, called a 'man-child' in prophecy, is a nation. Let's look at Micah 4, and this is obviously a prophecy of the Kingdom of Jesus Christ upon the earth. The first part of it is literally word for word with Isaiah 2:

(vs 1) "But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of the Lord shall be established in the top of the mountains and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it."

As we saw earlier, the word 'mountain' stands for 'nation' in Bible prophecy. So, the nation of the Lord is going to be established as the chief among the nations, on top of the nations:

"And people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come, and say, come, and let us go up to the mountain (or nation) of the Lord, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth from Zion, and the word of the Lord from Jerusalem."

Now we have a cassette just on that subject explaining the difference between the law going from Zion and the word from Jerusalem (#A-7105 @ $5).

"And he shall judge among many people, and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks: and nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore."

This has to refer to that great prophesied time of peace, the Kingdom upon the earth!

"But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the Lord of Hosts hath spoken it. For all people will walk everyone in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the Lord our God forever and ever. In that day, saith the Lord, will I assemble her that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted."

All kingdom people know that the one driven out, the one that halted, and the one that was afflicted is the nation of Israel, driven out of old Palestine 700 years before Christ.

"And I will make her that halted a remnant...."

The Hebrew word translated 'remnant' means literally 'the turned ones.' It's too bad that the word 'remnant' means a small number nowadays. It did not mean that; it meant 'the turned ones,' so this would mean, the ones turned to God.

".... and her that was cast far off a strong nation:"

Here is a prophecy that God who has cast off Israel, would regather Israel and make her a strong nation.

"And the Lord shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even forever."

What is that nation made up of reconstituted Israel? Well, in Bible prophecy it is called Zion. And it is out of Zion that the man-child is born according to Isaiah 66:

"And thou, O tower of the flock, the stronghold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem."

Not the old mother, not that filthy little old city back in Palestine, but the New Jerusalem, the new nation called Zion and Jerusalem, that was born in a day and which the dragon in Rev 12 was attempting to destroy. Micah 4:8

"The kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. Now why dost thou cry aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail."

Here is that birth again. Something is coming to birth in this nation of reconstituted Israel.

"Be in pain and labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered: there the Lord shall redeem thee from thy enemies."

And we've shown this in other sermons on prophecy, that this nation, this great reconstituted nation of Israel was to be born in a day, was to become the chief among nations of all the world, and then was to go into captivity under an entity called Babylon. Remember Revelation 17, it is MYSTERY BABYLON (#118 @ $9.55) that rules over all the nations of the world, and fights against Christendom. This is the same Babylon that we read here. Then God says, at that time: There shalt thou be delivered. There the Lord shall redeem thee from thine enemies."

"Now also many nations are gathered against thee, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion."

.....to be continued.

ACCEPTABLE RACISM
by Lawrence Blanchard

Even in today's multicultural, salad-bowl culture, there is a general understanding that not all racism is absolutely prohibited. For example, take the recent local event (Business to Business Exchange) sponsored by the Greater Cincinnati & Northern Kentucky African American Chamber of Commerce. This was a "trade show" that gave "small to medium-sized businesses" owned by Blacks a chance "to increase revenue and grow by forming partnerships ... with large companies" like Proctor & Gamble and Westin Hotel to name a few (source: The Kentucky Enquirer, Oct 14, 2006).

Of course, this event was for the sole benefit of Negroes. we don't suppose White business owners were invited. But that's acceptable racism.

RACISM DEFINED

Although the term "racism" or "racist" are relatively modern English terms (since the early 1930s), there is not one settled definition. It has become a term of impression in order to impress White people with a consciousness of guilt. Rarely do non-White people get charged with racism. If Caucasian people even have any thoughts that there may be certain natural inequalities and if they, in any way, consciously or unconsciously discriminate according to race and in favor of their own, they are deemed as racists.

That racism only applies to White or Caucasian people is illustrated in this "African American" business event. What if there was a European or Caucasian American Chamber of Commerce that sponsored its own Business to Business Exchange? Well, you would know what the answer would be. The controlled media would have racism written all over it. It would be racist for White people, but it obviously is not for Blacks or any other non-White group. For them it's acceptable racism.

HERE'S THE REASON

Why is it acceptable for Negroes to have their own organizations and events and not for Whites? Do a search on Google sometime on Black Organizations. There are hundreds of them. Blacks and Hispanics and every other non-White racial mix can form any racially exclusive group without fear of retribution. But not White people!

Why is that? One answer from the government/media cartel is that since Whites are still the majority population, the "minority races" need an extra advantage. They need special privileges because of the existing, evil "White privilege." Minorities must have special privileges, opportunities and recognition in order to insure equality. That's the justification.

But in insuring equality or equal opportunity for non-Whites, White people must be excluded or otherwise denied the same kind of opportunities. For example, they are not allowed to compete on a level playing field. Superior qualified Whites, for example, are denied admission to graduate schools in favor of less qualified Negroes or Hispanics. Whites are not allowed to form their own organizations, school clubs or events because it's considered racist. What White people are not allowed to do, "minorities" are encouraged (and sometimes funded) to do. Negro culture is exalted. Saxon heritage is denounced as evil.

But there's even a deeper reason that very few understand for this two-sided racism standard. Few understand it because only a few know who the real players of the Bible are and who they are today. Here it is in a nutshell: the cursed Edomites hate Jacob/Israel and their main tactic is the label of "racism." Don't understand what we are talking about? Find out for yourself by reading the books on this website (www.covenanttruth.org/). You'll only understand this when you discover it for your self.

THE END OF ACCEPTABLE RACISM

Is this emphasis on tolerance and diversity going to create a utopian, egalitarian society of peace and love? Look at South Africa today. Do you know what is going on there? It's a big mess: poverty, rampant crime, fear (at least with many, many people).

That's what's going to happen in America and all the Saxon nations. Acceptable racism - chaos, destruction and death for our people - the White, Anglo-Celto-Saxon people.

Even now we are facing arrest and imprisonment for not cooperating with the New World Order's acceptable racism philosophy. Recently, a teen-aged White girl was arrested and jailed for refusing to study with a group of Asians because only one of them could speak English. She asked to be put in another group because she could not understand what they were saying. So she was turned into the police who photographed and fingerprinted her and then put her in a bare cell for three and a half hours before being released without charges. (Source: Daily Mail, Oct 13, 2006).

A comment regarding this incident was made in this article by Robert Whelan, deputy director of the Civitas think-tank, said:

"A lot of these arrests don't result in prosecutions - their aim is to frighten us into self-censorship until we watch everything we say."

Following on the heels of this Negro "trade show" is another racist "Conference and Career Expo" in Cincinnati for Hispanics "which will give the more than 250 companies and 90 academic institutions expected to attend the event a chance to recruit from the largest annual gathering of Hispanic MBAs and students in America." (source: The Enquirer, Oct. 26, 2006, A12)

The purpose of acceptable racism is to keep White people in fear and manipulated back in a corner. But, biblically speaking, this is what the God of our fathers said would happen if we disobeyed Him by violating His commandments:

"The alien who is among you shall rise higher and higher, but you will go down lower and lower." - Deut 28:43

What's the solution? The covenant people of God, the chosen and elect of God, must seek knowledge and understanding of who they are, the Bible, and the times we live in. We must repent of disobedience to our God. We must begin to gather into local churches that teach the truth (and not be fragmented).

Acceptable racism? We curse you in the name of Jesus!

Libby jailed for lying about Iraq war

WASHINGTON:- Lewis Libby, a former top aide to US Vice-President Dick Cheney, was jailed for 2½ years yesterday, fined $250,000 US and put on two years probation for lying and obstructing a probe into the administra-

New Tapes

#E-199 Why Do Christians Get Sick?

Health War, 3, pastor Don Elmore

#E-200 How The Church Lives

pastor Tim Vertrees

#E-201 How The Church Lives, 2

pastor Tim Vertrees

#E-202 The Health War, 3 Renewal of knowledge & mind, pastor Don Elmore

#J-170 Sinning Against God,

pastor John Weaver

#J-171 Biblical Money & Inflation

pastor John Weaver

#K-513 The Miracles of Rose Oil, 1

pastor James Bruggeman

#K-514 The Miracles of Rose Oil, 2

pastor James Bruggeman

CD#G-695 A Man after YHWH's Own Purpose, 8, pastor Ted Weiland tion's handling of the Iraq war. Investigators were also looking for who leaked the identity of CIA analyst Valerie Plame in 2003. - Reuters.

The Province, Vancouver BC, Canada - 6/6/2007

WHO HAS "DESTROYED" AMERICA?
by Chuck Kuhler, B.S., M.Th., senior pastor VCI
(the same applies to Australia - CIM)

Whether you realize it or not, this American nation has been declining for several decades. As a person who was born in the 1930s and who has observed all manner of conditions and times since, I feel qualified to make that statement.

When I was but a young child, my family would leave our house to go shopping in a town several miles away and never lock the door. My mother could walk down the road with no fear of being bothered. I and my siblings could walk several miles to school and never become concerned about any sort of harassment from some deviant individual (I used to walk about 4Km to primary school, and ride a bike about 5Km to high school in WA in the late 50s/early 60s without any concern, HR). Crime was almost non-existent and it was big news for the local weekly newspaper when someone committed some infraction. (the local policeman in WA rode around on a bicycle, unarmed and on his own, HR)

The churches, despite the error of their beliefs, were filled on the sabbath (with people well-dressed in suits, etc, HR). In going to the local movie theater, the movies were relatively clean from foul language with the strongest exclamations being "damn" or "hell," and the morbid violence being rather tame in nature. Welfare in all forms, was almost an unknown except for the fact that the churches provided for the needs of the less fortunate.

World War II had ended with a terrible loss of America's youth. Korea was next with another huge sacrifice, and then Vietnam, Desert Storm, and now Iraq and Afghanistan. American blood has been spilled all over the world, and we should seriously ask the question, WHY? American Israelites - for the most part sons, fathers, children sacrificed for heathen peoples!

It used to be that American manufacturers produced a superior product in all fields, and this was known throughout the world. Today, most of the products, including shoes and clothing is produced by cheap labor in third-world countries and in the nations of the Far East.

Today, in many areas of the country, women are not safe in walking down the streets and roads. It is further not safe for children to be about, and even their front yards can be dangerous locations because of sexual deviates, pedophiles, abusers, etc. (now we have to reduce speed limits around schools, because children are darting across the road to mum or dad's car who have to deliver them and pick them up, where years ago they could walk safely on their own, HR).

The churches have slanted their beliefs to include "ALL PEOPLE." And yet, that is not what the Scriptures call for. Our churches have become seriously involved in materialistic gain, and don't preach and teach the Word of God. Adultery (and adulteration) and child abuse are running rampant in many of the Protestant denominations and the Roman Church. What does our heavenly Father think of these perverts? How will He judge them at the day of reckoning?

Movies and general telecast entertainment have sunk into the gutter with violence, foul language, promotion of homosexuality, and sexual exploits. Doesn't this have an affect on those watching such garbage? How often to we hear of some child acting out a fantasy viewed on the TV or in the movies? There are all manner of "kid's games," of the electronic nature which cost big dollars and which teach young children how to be violent.

Our public schools, once the envy of the world, have seriously declined to the point where we are turning out a "dumbed-down" product at a huge per pupil expenditure. Violence in our educational institutions is often considered an accepted consequence.

Crime continues to increase from the most violent and heinous to petty theft and shoplifting. Our prisons are full. We have more prisoners than all of the other civilized nations combined! God has provided us with His Laws which should be followed by our justice system. There were no prisons in ancient Israel, but a system which allowed for death in some instances and victim compensation in others.

Then we have those "bleeding hearts," who claim that God doesn't want us to kill the murderers and rapists. From a cost perspective, it cost the American taxpayers in the neighbourhood of $30,000 per year to provide clothing, food, medical and dental care, and security to house a prisoner. The Book of Leviticus details the penalties for crimes such as rape and murder as prescribed by our heavenly Father. And furthermore anyone convicted of these crimes should receive a speedy trial and sentencing - endless appeals should not drag on for up to 20 or more years.

Welfare was unknown some sixty years ago. You either worked or had a breadwinner for the family or you received help from your church. We have millions today who receive all manner of "entitlements" from various government agencies from local welfare to state WIC programs. We have aged immigrants coming from other countries who file for and receive SSS benefits (social security supplemental) amounting to hundreds of dollars per month. This from refugees who have never paid a dime into such a program.

Our benevolent federal government doles out millions and billions of dollars to ungrateful heathen countries who take the money and spit in our face. Why do we send thirty billions of dollars to South Africa to help them with their problems with AIDS. That is not our problem and concern. And there are many such wasteful and unnecessary programs. And while this Israelite nation here in America is not yet completely destroyed, it is so far down the slippery slope of the mountain, that ONLY Divine intervention can prevent its collapse. The ongoing immigration catastrophe which congress and the president don't seem to be able to resolve only accelerates the mess. We are allowing the mixed heathens to invade. It is amazing that we as Israelites cannot see the results of history. Every time that the Israelites forgot their God, He brought invasions against them. Is it any different today? Is doesn't appear that anything has changed.

Attendance at most "establishment churches" has declined as the shepherds are not feeding the sheep. As this

Still Some Copies Available: THE INTERLINEAR BIBLE

edited by J.P. Green

Hebrew/Greek study Bible with interspersed (interlinear) English and Strong's numbering. Hardbound, gold-embossed, large format 9 X 11 inches by 2 inches thick. There is also a literal translation in a narrow column on the side, giving the proper word order. A quality production from Hendrickson Publishers.

#528 @ sug don $65.00

decline continues, the churches will have less and less impact on social conditions.

The Book of Isaiah the prophet, chapter 1, states the conditions which we are under: "Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for the Lord hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people do not consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evildoers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the Lord, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. ... Except the Lord of hosts had left unto us a very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah."

I would further recommend reading Deuteronomy 28 which covers the blessing that our God has promised to us, and beginning in verse 15, the curses that He will bring upon us for not hearkening to His Word.

There is more than adequate blame to be assigned to our leaders, both governmental and religious, and to ourselves as well. But the major blame can be placed on the Talmudic Kenites who have worked tirelessly behind the scene to undermine our Christian principles, mislead and demoralize our people with lies and untruths, waste our Israelite brethren in support of their ungodly wars and conflicts. Most of our people refuse to study the situations in detail and prefer to accept the claims of the ungodly heathen.

The day is coming when "blood will flow in the streets."

The tares are to be taken before the wheat is harvested [see Matthew 13:24-30]. We are in the period when the wheat and tares are both growing together. In verse 29-30, Jesus says: "... Nay, lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them. Let them both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of the harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn."

The tares are soon to be gathered, and we will observe this gathering. There is nothing that we can do aside from obeying Jesus. Civil disorder, uncalled for by our Father will yield no benefit to us. We must place our faith in His Word and depend upon Him to protect and watch over us, and He has promised to do so.

Courtesy VCI, Box 109 Round Hill VA 20142

---

'QUIVERFULL MOVEMENT SPAWNS LARGE, TRADITIONAL WHITE FAMILIES'

(While non-Whites are breeding rapidly, the popularity of contraception among Whites has drastically lowered our race's birthrate. Some Whites are rejecting such destructive practices, however, as the following article demonstrates.)

In the Carpenter family's nicely decorated living room outside Nashville, Tenn., the "Nightline" team stared at a couch that couldn't possibly fit another human being. The eight kids squished together began shouting out their names, "PEYTON! COLE! OWEN!" Ken and Devon Carpenter are the parents of eight kids, aged 1 to 15. It might sound like a sitcom or a remake of "Eight is Enough." But this isn't a sitcom. This is a movement.

The Carpenter family is part of the "Quiverful Movement." The name comes from the Bible—Psalm 127/128:

"Children are a heritage from the Lord; children a reward from him; like arrows in the hands of a warrior are children born in one's youth. Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them."

What does that mean? Quiverful followers believe that all forms of contraception, all forms of birth control and any form of family planning goes against God's plan.

"As I understand, and to the extent that we are involved in it, it is just a matter of, it's a mind-set that says we will take as many children—happily—as God blesses us with," Ken Carpenter said.

It isn't simply about having as many kids as possible, though. "It's not a contest," he said. "For us, it's about having as many as the Lord gives us, and being happy with that. If the Lord gives us more, great. If we are done at eight, that's fine. Whatever He gives us."

Quiverfull is largely an American phenomenon, beginning with the release of the book "A Full Quiver" in 1989. There is no official organization, but in 1995, the Website quiverfull.com went online with just 12 subscribers — now there are more than 2,600. There are probably several thousand Quiverfull enthusiasts all over the United States right now—and the movement is believed to be growing.

There are certainly a lot of questions about the practice. Is it dangerous for a woman's body to keep having children, one after the other? "I don't struggle in that area, I have pretty easy pregnancies and deliveries and recovery," Devon Carpenter said. "God designed us to have children, and thankfully, we do have good doctors out there for things that come up."

The carpenter children are home-schooled. Ken Carpenter hopes his sons find professions and that his daughters learn to be mothers. He believes that it is a woman's primary function to become a mother. And a father's primary function?

"I think a dad ought to be the primary instiller of wisdom and ought to be teaching his sons leadership."

(received by email)

I heard years ago, that if you check it out, that all those sexual practices which prevent or avoid pregnancy were what was forbidden. Also, I do not hear comments against large families levelled at those countries, where the media keeps asking money for, and telling us to "sponsor" a child. It is always the White family that needs to limit it's numbers. I think we have enemies!!!!!!!!!!!! CIM

---

ZIMBABWE, A NATION IN TURMOIL

I am an ex-Zimbabwean now living in Australia. I returned to 7 in Zimbabwe at Christmas and was horrified to see old age pensioners have been reduced to eating garden weeds and dog food because their monthly company/public sector pensions will not buy as much as one loaf of bread - a month.

These proud and dignified elderly (White!) people who worked all their lives in flourishing businesses, on the railways and in the police and education systems, made provision for their old age, but have seen their pensions vanish in the wake of Mugabe's systematic dismantling of the country's economy.

With inflation at well over 1500%, it is impossible to keep up with the price-increases for even the most basic foods. In addition to this, there is no safety net of even a small State pension.

Supporting Old Age Pensioners is a charity that collects donations from caring Bulawao residents and businesses and makes up small food parcels, which are delivered monthly.

They only amount to a few tins, a small packet of mince meat and a tiny piece of cheese and butter per person, but these parcels are their lifeline. The Bulawao SOAP committee in Perth is planning to hold a fundraising function in April for these desperate people and would like to invite the people of Perth to support their cause.

If anyone would like information on SOAP and the Out Of Africa theme dinner, contact: smythe@bigpond.net.au

Gayle Smythe, SOAP, Perth, WA

From "The West Australian" letters to editor
(and stop giving aid to blacks and Asians)

THE WEATHER

The Palmist asserts, "Fire, and hail; snow, and vapours; stormy wind fulfilling his word" (Psalm 148:8). A careful check of all the references in the Scriptures where the weather has been used by God in dealing with humanity yields interesting information. God does use and is using meteorological forces in carrying out His purposes. The withholding of rain, causing drought, and the sending of torrential cloudbursts, resulting in destruction by floods, are a part of the use God has made of meteorological disturbances to compel men to recognize their impotency in the face of the forces at His command.

When Israel was instructed by Moses in the necessity to obey the commandments, statutes and judgments of the Lord, they were also warned that, if they refused to abide by those laws, among the calamities that would overtake them would be the following:

"And thy heaven that is over thy head shall be brass, and the earth that is under thee shall be iron. The LORD shall make the rain of thy land powder and dust: from heaven shall it come down upon thee, until thou be destroyed." (Deut 28:23-24) [we have certainly had all that in Australia - drought, torrential rains and flooding, and dust storms blowing topsoil all over the cities! CIM]

We are reminded here of the drought and dust storms which have afflicted our country in the past. While the misuse of the land by men contributed to increasing the dust menace, God blew with His winds and scattered that dust far and wide.

When Saul was King in Israel, he undertook to exterminate the Gibeonites, the people with whom Joshua and the elders of Israel had made a league. A famine afflicted the land in the time of David, who made inquiry of the Lord as to the cause. The record states:

"It is for Saul, and for his bloody house, because he slew the Gibeonites." (2 Sam. 21:1)

Israel had taken an oath before the Lord when they made a covenant with the Gibeonites and Saul violated that oath, with the result that all Israel suffered from a three-year famine in the land. It was not until David made amends for the evil Saul had done that relief came. [have you made a vow or oath before God to do something, and then welched on that promise?!! at baptisms or confessions of faith]

During the reign of Ahab, King of Israel, who did evil in the sight of the Lord, and under whose rule Baalism flourished, Elijah came and announced to him that there would be neither dew nor rain in the land for a number of years. At the end of three years Elijah again appeared to Ahab who, when he saw the prophet, exclaimed as the result of the suffering due to the drought, "Art thou he that troubleth Israel?" But Elijah replied:

"I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the Lord, and thou hast followed Baalim." (1 Kings 18:18).

Because of evil in the land, the Lord had withheld rain and now Elijah proposed that a contest be held between the prophets of Baal and himself to demonstrate who was the true God. As a result of the trial the people explained, "The Lord, he is the God!" This was because fire had come down from heaven and consumed the offering Elijah had laid upon the altar he had constructed. Not only was the offering burnt up, but the stones, the water and the dirt around the altar were also completely consumed. This was called "the fire of God"—the nearest approach to which is the burning heat that follows as the result of splitting the atom. Following this demonstration of God's power and the descent of the "fire of God," torrential rains broke the drought. Was there a connection between the atomic burst of fire and the rain?

Not only has the Lord used drought and rain to fulfill His Word, but tempest and storm have played an important part in the past and will in the future in bringing His purposes to pass. We have the classic instance of Jonah fleeing to go to Tarshish so that he might not fulfill the Divinely assigned task to go to Nineveh and preach against that city. The Lord stirred up a great tempest and not until Jonah was thrown overboard did the sea become calm for the sailors.

The disciples of our Lord were crossing the Sea of Galilee when a severe tempest arose. Jesus was asleep in the ship and, because of the danger and for fear that the ship would sink, they awoke Him:

"And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm." (Mark 4:39).

In the events that will climax with the age coming to its close, we are informed that, through tempest and storm, God is going to bring about the destruction of His enemies and the enemies of His Kingdom. David prayed a most remarkable prayer asking the Lord to do this when he petitioned Him:

"So persecute them with thy tempest, and make them afraid with thy storm ... that men may know that thou, whose name alone is Jehovah, art the most high over all the earth." (Ps 83:15-18).

Five hundred years later, through Ezekiel the Prophet, the Lord gave the answer to David's prayer, telling what He will do when Gog moves against His people:

"I will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the Lord." (Eze. 38:22-23).

At one time along with sections of Belgium and Holland, England suffered as the result of tempest and storm in the flood that inundated vast areas of East and Southeast England, breaking down coastal defenses, causing millions of pounds of damage and also loss of life. Furthermore, the timing of this disaster coincided with the Divine timetable—a fact well-known to students of chronology.

What of the disastrous storms which have been afflicting the United States? Many feel disposed to ask if the release of atomic energy is a contributing factor in causing this violence, following the pattern established in the days of Elijah when the descent of the “fire of God” was followed by torrential rains. Tons of radio-active dust had been released into the upper stratosphere and as yet men are not well-enough acquainted with the aftereffects of such disturbances to state positively that this is harmless to humankind. We know the thousands of miles removed from Los Alamos, New Mexico, and on Yucca Flat, Nevada, where these explosions took place, radioactive dust has affected sensitized films and made them worthless. It was also reported that bodies of water became slightly radioactive at long distances from the proving grounds. A report from Dana, California was received at that time as follows:

“A bluish-green phosphorescent snow that nettled and stung the skin fell in a section of the rugged logging country near here last night and meteorologists said it may have been caused by Nevada atomic explosions.

“The eerie snowfall was first noticed by Milton C. Mayer, a Mt. Shasta salesman, who refused to believe his own senses until he checked with other citizens.

“U.S. Weather Bureau spokesmen were puzzled over the report but said they believed it ‘possibly a reaction from the Las Vegas atomic explosions.’

“Atomic energy commission spokesmen, however, were inclined to shrug off the report.”

The misuse of natural forces always brings about retribution and the question to ask is whether men are now playing with the “fire of God” that will bring disaster to the human race? It is only natural that scientists will deny all this. We must await the verdict of time and perhaps we shall not wait long before that verdict is rendered.

Courtesy Destiny Letter, Box 177, Merrimac MA 01860

---

Informational News for Your Health SWINE: PIG & PORK FACTS

The pig or swine is a very popular food item with most Christians. Yet Christians are unaware that the God they profess to believe in had condemned the eating of swine’s flesh. The condemnation was based on some very sound biological principles. Here are some facts on pork that prove it to be a very unhealthy food to eat.

- A pig is a real garbage gut. It will eat anything including urine, excrement, dirt, decaying animal flesh, maggots, or decaying vegetables. They will even eat the cancerous growths of other pigs or animals.

- The meat and fat (on those ‘nice’ strips of bacon) of a pig absorbs toxins like a sponge. Their meat can be 30 times more toxic than beef or venison.

- When eating beef or venison, it takes 8-9 hours to digest the meat, so what little toxins are in the meat are slowly put into our system and can be filtered by the liver. But when pork is eaten, it takes only 4 hours to digest the meat. We thus get a much higher level of toxins within a shorter time.

- Unlike other mammals, a pig does not sweat or perspire. Perspiration is a means by which toxins are removed from the body. Since a pig does not sweat, the toxins remain within its body and in the meat.

- Pigs and swine are so poisonous that you can hardly kill them with strychnine or other poisons.

- Farmers will often pen up pigs within a rattlesnake nest because the pigs will eat the snakes, and if bitten they will not be harmed by the venom.

- When a pig is butchered, worms and insects take to its flesh sooner and faster than to other animal’s flesh. In a few days the swine flesh is full of worms.

- Swine and pigs have over a dozen parasites within them such as tapeworms, flukes, worms, and trichinae. There is no safe temperature at which pork can be cooked to ensure that all these parasites, their cysts, and eggs will be killed.

- Pig meat has twice as much fat as beef. A 3 onz T-bone steak contains 8.5 grams of fat; a 3onz pork chop contains 18 grams of fat. A 3 onz beef rib has 11.1 grams of fat; a 3 onz pork spare rib has 23.2 grams of fat.

- Cows have a complex digestive system, having four stomachs. It thus takes over 24 hours to digest their vegetarian diet causing its food to be purified of toxins. In contrast, the swine’s one stomach takes only about 4 hours to digest its foul diet, turning its toxic food into flesh.

- The swine carries about 30 diseases which can be easily passed top humans. This is why God commanded that we are not even to touch their carcass (Leviticus 11:8).

- The trichina worm of the swine is microscopically small, and once ingested can lodge itself in our intestines, muscles, spinal cord or the brain. This results in the disease trichinosis. The symptoms are sometimes lacking, but when present they are mistaken for other diseases, such as typhoid, arthritis, rheumatism, gastritis, MS, meningitis, gall bladder trouble, or acute alcoholism.

- The pig is so poisonous and filthy, that nature had to prepare him a sewer line or canal running down each leg with an outlet in the bottom of the foot. Out of this hole oozes pus and filth his body cannot pass into its system fast enough. Some of this puss gets into the meat of the pig (anyone for pig’s trotters??)

There are other reasons grounded in biological facts that could be listed to show why pigs and swine should not be eaten. But a true Christian should only need one reason why not to eat this type of food and that is because God prohibited it.

“And the swine, because it divides the hoof, yet does not chew the cud, it is unclean unto you: you shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcass.” Lev 11:7-8; Deut 14:8.

Those who say Christ abolished the law condemning pork are motivated by their stomach, not Scripture. The problems with pork are biological, and Christ never changed the laws of biology.

A note of caution: If in doubt of whether or not a food contains pork (or pork products), check the label carefully. With all of the increasing health problems plaguing this nation and our Israel people, perhaps it is time to consider eliminating some of the possible causes. The connotation “swine” has an adverse affect on most people. Consider that those chops are not “pork chops” but “swine chops,” and that “pork roast” advertised in the supermarket is also considered as “roast of swine.” There are today many non-pork substitutes for bacon and ham and sausage, but made of beef and turkey.(e.g. silverside under your eggs instead of bacon).

---

AUTISM AND VACCINE

Tim O'Shea, DC

Perhaps one of the most shocking pieces ever to appear on television this past April: a six-hour taping of a Congressional investigation into the relationship between vaccines and autism among American children. This footage appeared on C-SPAN and was then archived on their website for an entire month.

On April 6, Rep. Dan Burton convened the Congressional hearing in which parents repeatedly told similar stories - how their normally developing babies, after MMR or DPT vaccinations, began displaying autistic behaviours, conditions that are often permanent. Happy, bright children were suddenly losing their abilities to learn, communicate or even recognize their parents.

Amazing testimony was given by experts in the field of autism: Mary Megson, MD, explained how autism has gone from being rare (about one incident per 10,000 children in 1978), to epidemic proportions in 2000AD: one case in every 300-500 children in many areas! (It's all about reducing the White population, folks! CIM)

Megson's research has shown total deficiency of vitamin A in almost all autistic children. What depletes the body of vitamin A at 15 months? The MMR vaccine. In addition, Megson found that pertussis toxin from the DPT shot disrupted a certain protein that is necessary for retinal formation. This would account for the prevalence of night-blindness and loss of 3-D vision so common among autistics.

John O'Leary, PhD, a world-class researcher and molecular biologist from Ireland, using state-of-the-art sequencing technology, showed how he had found the measles virus in the gut of 96% of autistic children, compared to 6.6% in normal children. This virus did not come from the natural disease, but from the measles vaccine. Dr. O'Leary found measles virus present in 75% of children with Crohn's Disease. Crohn's has traditionally been an intestinal disease of adults, following years of dietary abuse. Its appearance in children is a new event, and Dr. O'Leary's work points to the measles virus from vaccines as the likely cause.

V. Singh, MDM, a specialist from Utah State who has studied over 400 cases of autism, found that these children had experienced an autoimmune episode, in which their own bodies had been made to attack the linings of their nervous systems. Dr. Singh characterized the epidemic as a "hyperimmune response to the measles virus." He stated that 55% of the families said that autism appeared soon after an MMR shot, and that 33% of families said it appeared soon after a DPT shot. Such neurological damage is a well-established side-effect of the mercury, aluminium and formaldehyde used in these vaccines.

Andrew Wakefield, MD, a brilliant researcher from the UK, noted an almost 100% incidence of "lymphoid nodular hyperplasia" or swollen lumps throughout the intestinal tissue of autistics. Such a condition is rare in normal children. Intestinal pathology is characteristic of the Autistic child, and the condition generally follows soon after the MMR shot. Dr. Wakefield explained that as the fragile, newborn intestine cannot function because of its swollen condition, undigested toxins from the vaccines and drugs are allowed to get into the liver, which is also in a formative stage. Liver pathology is very common among autistics. Wakefield's hypothesis is that these same "undegraded toxins," having not been halted by the intestine or the liver, as normally happens, that these toxins are then free to attack the nervous system, and that autism may well be the result.

Kathy Pratt, PhD, director of the Indiana Center for Autism, stated that 1 in 400 children in Indiana were autistic! With 500,000 cases reported in the U.S., Dr. Pratt stated that autism is now more common than Down's syndrome. Dr. Pratt points out that autism presently may disqualify a person for medical coverage for other unrelated conditions.

Michael Goldberg, MD, a California pediatrician and researcher, explained how it was impossible to have an epidemic based solely on genetics. That's the standard excuse based solely on genetics. That's the standard excuse the CDC and the NIH have been using to explain how autism has grown from 1 in 10,000 to 1 in 300 in just 22 years.

Seeing the American democratic system in action in a live Congressional hearing, it soon becomes apparent how the control of information operates, even in the face of overwhelming scientific evidence that we may well be poisoning our own children!

The requisite defenders of the status quo robotically read their predictable prepared statements, denying the possibility of any connection between autism and vaccines. These included MDs Paul Offit, Edwin Cook, Brent Taylor and others. After they uniformly denied the vaccine/autism connection, it was most illuminating when Burton asked each of them point-blank about the money each received from the vaccine manufacturers. And these are members of the advisory committee who make the decisions about which vaccines are to be included in the mandated vaccination schedule.

Colleen Boyle was there to represent the Centers for Disease Control. After stumbling through her prepared statement in which she denied any connection between autism and vaccines, Boyle stated the present incidence to be "12 in 10,000." Burton then stopped her cold by asking her one simple question: Did she think it was a conflict of interest for the same people who were funded by the vaccine manufacturers to be on the advisory board making decisions about which vaccines should be given to American children? Boyle was dumbfounded and speechless. Burton repeated the question. Still no answer. Boyle's mute portrayal of the career bureaucrat spoke volumes.

Equally inept and ill-prepared was Deborah Hirtz, MD, representing the National Institutes of Health. Losing her place in her written statement, Hirtz forgot what she was saying, and it seemed obvious she had not written it. Finally, she just barely managed to put across what she was sent there to say - that there could be no connection between vaccines and autism, but that the NIH was "looking into it." The NIH has already spent some $40 million per year of taxpayer money "looking into it." (Hirtz).

Their answer: It needs further study. The performance of these representatives from the two government agencies who have almost sovereign power in the area of vaccines was frightening - their indifference; lack of information; condescension; and low level of intelligence. They gave no sign of having understood one word of the critically important breakthrough research that had just been so brilliantly expounded by Drs. Megson, O'Leary, and Wakefield. This is what power looks like - people who have been in their position so long that they know they don't have to justify themselves to anyone lower down on the food chain.

Government agencies have the same answer to every problem: more committees; more money; more study; and

Pamphlet:

STATUES AND STATUTES

by Bill Strittmatter

*publisher of the Bible Law Course
This pamphlet is reprinted from the (now out of print) book Paul & The Law. This booklet deals with 'graven images' and bowing down to them.
Perhaps this doesn't mean what we have always been taught. What does the Second Commandment actually forbid?*

#294 @ $1.25

more meetings. Meanwhile, 22 years have gone by, and all these people say is “we don’t know.” After 22 years and $100 million, we don’t know the incidence, the cause or the cure for autism. But we’ll definitely “look into it.” And, oh yes, it’s definitely “not vaccines.”

The shocking scientific findings of Wakefield and O’Leary obviously demand more research. So then, why are the vaccines not suspended until that research is done? The underlying assumption is that the vaccines will continue as normal until enough “research” proves it is dangerous, as with rotavirus and Quadrigen. Only then will MMR be suspended. This is the thinking that passes for logic. The key point here that no one seems to be pointing out is that research should be done before mandating a vaccine into the bloodstream of American children! You don’t just start mass-injecting something into a population and then stand back and defy independent scientists to prove it isn’t safe! That’s exactly what we’ve done here.

As a nation, as a government, and as parents, Americans should be very certain, beyond a reasonable doubt, that any substance being injected into an unformed little nervous system is absolutely safe and does no harm.

Drs. Wakefield, O’Leary and Megson have shown startling results from some of the only scientific research on autism and vaccines in the entire world that has not been funded by the vaccine manufacturers. This research also shows a high likelihood that MMR and DPT vaccines may cause permanent intestinal destruction, liver damage, and autism. It presents a very plausible hypothesis for the horrific increase of autism since 1978. so, until we know for certain if they’re right, why are the vaccines not suspended?

Researcher Gary Null’s pert answer comes swimming to the surface; “It’s the money, stupid.” By the end of the hearing, Burton’s room was polarized into three groups:

- those who were convinced of a connection between autism and vaccines
- those who admitted the possibility
- those who angrily denied the possibility, affronted that anyone would question their “scientific” opinions.

It was amusing to see which people in the room were trying to discover the truth, and which were trying their best to cover it up. It’s an uphill struggle. The big money’s on the side of vaccines. Big money controls the research, the press, “scientific” journals, and politicians.

Without undue pessimism, the prospects for unbiased, objective scientific logic to prevail in deciding the future of MMR and DPT vaccines do not look bright. The mentality of the CDC and the NIH was well characterized. The control of research and information by drug manufacturers was pervasive.

Despite these formidable obstacles, doubts are creeping into the overall public “consciousness” from many different directions about the safety of vaccines. At one in 500, the fact of autism as an epidemic can no longer be covered up. The work of Wakefield, O’Leary, and Megson is going to be very difficult to explain away. The massive advertising campaign about the safety of vaccines in the popular media, which is certain to be stepped up in the next few months, is going to look very hollow in the light of clean, unbiased research that is not funded by parties who stand to make billions from certain predetermined results.

Courtesy VCI, Box 109 Round Hill VA 20142

written in the Bible? I have heard you say that AMERICA means “Heaven’s Kingdom.”

First, those words are not Latin, but are from the ancient Gothic.

Like other words, they are spelled differently over the centuries and in other languages.

Anyone who speaks German will tell you that “himmel” means heaven and “reich” means kingdom. Anglicized German is often missing the first ‘h,’ and the ‘l’ and ‘r’ are often interchanged. (The Japanese do that, too, which leads to speculation on the origin of the Japanese people). Anyway, “himmel” became “immel,” “amel,” or “amero.” “Rica” is more Latin, but still means the same as “reich.” Those familiar with European languages can verify this.

It has to be in God’s purpose that although this continent was given many other names by the early European explorers and map makers, all other names have fallen into disuse, and all the world knows our land by a name meaning “Heaven’s Kingdom.”

Courtesy America’s Promise Ministries, PO Box 157, Sandpoint ID 83864

Well, here we are again, trying to catch up with things after our 8 days away from the desk. We did have some relaxed days on the Gold Coast, which was good. Apparently the temperatures there dropped even further after we returned home. We thought it was cold enough. The days were nice and it was interesting to see some of the developments and huge shopping centres.

We attended the wedding at the Palm Meadows Radisson, and caught up again with some family and friends, and dropped in on some people on the way home. We also visited the Christian Heritage Bookshop at shop 5, 7 Lavell Street Nearing (ph 5500 4208), which stocks most of our books, and then some. If you’re in the area, pay them a visit.

It is a long and tiring drive of over 1600 Km. The car took it well, even though it has 425,000 Km on the clock! And, it will have to do it again, soon, God willing, as we are scheduled to go to the ACE Queensland Student Convention from the 3rd to the 7th of September, at Watson’s Park in Dakabin. Already much is being done in preparation - practising and memorizing & - excitement.

It is also possible that we may be in (Launceston) Tasmania, God Willing, early in the new year. I will let you know when more details are available.

Again, many thanks to all who have written and sent clippings and orders and have given their support. We thank God for your faithfulness. Again the numbers have gone down again as a few people have passed away. We hope and pray that their children will carry on where they left off. Unfortunately with many, that does not seem to be the case. Many, especially younger generation people seem to be easily distracted and diverted from following Biblical ways, and seek to do their own thing, rather than seeking FIRST the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and having “all these things” added unto them.

Unfortunately, as the numbers go down, the bills still keep going up. Please remember that this ministry needs financial gifts as well as your prayers. We do thank very much those whose ongoing financial help makes it possible to continue. We have had some problems with our high-speed copiers, which may cause some delays. We hope to overcome these problems soon. May the God of our forefathers bless you and keep you in His gracious care, and grant you His peace and protection,

