"THE AGE OF ILLUSIONS - PART 4"

by Pastor Don Elmore

INTRODUCTION

Why did Cassius Clay change his name to Mohammed Ali? It was because his older name was his "slave name" while his changed name was his "Moslem name." And this great boxing champion did not want to have anything to do with a name that went back to the slave days. So, he joined the Moslem movement and changed his name to a Moslem name.

But that doesn't make too much sense—for the non-European Moslems were one of the biggest African slave traders in all of history. The forced movement of Africans to various parts of the world began in the ninth century and continued legally (sanctioned under international law) until the late nineteenth century—for almost a thousand years. Two major waves of slave trading occurred during that time:

1. The trans-Sahara wave transported 10 million captive slaves over land from Africa to markets in the Mediterranean Sea and in the northern countries of Africa. This era lasted for 500 years, from the ninth until the fifteenth century. The slave traders were Moslem Arabs and Berbers.
2. The trans-Atlantic wave transported 10 million captive slaves over the ocean from Africa to markets in Europe, South America, Central America and the United States. This era lasted for 500 years, from the mid 1400's till the mid 1900s. It began around 1460 when Portugal began to trade in African slaves and ended in the Western Hemisphere when Brazil banned slavery in 1888.

African slavery has become a very distorted event of history. While the American South receives almost all of the blame—little or nothing is said about the major African slave traders—Arab, Spanish, English, Brazilians, and Northern Americans (Yankees).

A FEW SELDOM PREACHED ON VERSES

1. Deuteronomy 14:21

As history is commonly distorted to the view of the "victors," so are many verses of Scripture distorted or ignored so as not to destroy the view of the controlling seminaries and churches. Any verse that would refute their "political correct" view, is usually ignored. One such verse that exposes the equality doctrine of the Brotherhood of Man is Deuteronomy 14:21:

"Ye shall not eat of anything that dieth of itself; thou shalt give it unto the stranger who is in thy gates, that he may eat, or thou mayest sell it unto an alien; for thou art an holy people unto the LORD thy God."

In this one verse there are three different peoples who are definitely given different instructions by God regarding the eating of an animal that died without being butchered. Only one of the three could NOT eat the meat of any animal that died of itself; but they could give it to another people or sell it to a third kind—and they could eat it!

1. The Holy People of God: They were not allowed to eat of any animal that died of itself.

2. The stranger: They could eat the animal that died of itself that was given to them by the holy people of God.

3. The alien: The holy people of God could sell it to the alien who could then eat it.

2. Ezra 10:3

How many sermons have you heard about this time in Israel's history where a prophet of God exhorted the people of God to put away their wives and children!

"Now therefore, let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the Law."

A mass putting away of wives and children according to the Law of God. Why? Because they had married people whom God had forbidden them to marry.

"For they had taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mixed themselves with the people of those lands; yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been first in this trespass.”

Some Israelites who had returned from captivity in Babylon back to Jerusalem had mixed their “holy seed” with seed that was not holy—and this was forbidden by their God. Even the fact that the Bible refers to some people as being of a “holy seed” and others as being “cursed” and not of a holy seed runs counter to the brainwashed mind of the typical modern day Christian.

And more damaging to the equality of all men theory, is the simple fact that there was absolutely no attempt to convert or “save” any of the foreign wives and children. Even little babies were put away by their husbands. They didn’t keep their young children until they reached the “age of accountability” to see if they would be converted or not—and then put them away.

3. Ezra 4:3

This verse gives an answer to a group of non-Israelites who wanted to help the Israelites rebuild their Temple that had been destroyed several decades earlier by the Babylonians. They argued (Ezra 4:2):

1. “For we seek your God, as ye do”
2. “And we do sacrifice unto him” (your God).

But the answer given to this willing people by the rulers of the Israelites is totally opposite of what the leadership of the leading churches in this nation would say: “... Ye have nothing to do with us to build the Temple.” And after it was built only Israelites could enter it; no foreigners were allowed to enter the sanctuary of the Temple. In the famous writings of Josephus, the eye-witness historian gives a description of the Temple:

“... When you go through these [first] cloisters, unto the second [court of the] temple, there was a partition made of stone all round, whose height was three cubits: its construction was very elegant; upon it stood pillars, at equal distances from one another, declaring the law of purity, some in Greek and some in Roman letters, that ‘no foreigner should go within that sanctuary;’ for the second [court of the] Temple was called ‘the Sanctuary,’ and was ascended to by fourteen steps from the first court...” —Wars of the Jews, Book V, Chapter V,2. [interesting contradiction for the universal entry that Solomon sought in his dedication prayer 1 Ki 8:41; 2 Chron 6:32; which God did not answer]

4. Genesis 2:19

In the first chapter of Genesis, verse 24, it reveals that the Elohim created the “beasts (living creatures) of the earth.” In the second chapter, verse 19, it tells that Jehovah Elohim formed out of the ground the “beast (living creatures) of the field.”

What or who were these conscious entities? Most commentaries teach that the living creatures of the earth were the “wild animals” while the living creatures of the field were the “domestic animals.”

But is that exclusively what they were? Like the mistaken notion that Adam and Eve ate an “apple” in the garden of Eden and thereby sinned against God, maybe there should be more thought given to what these living creatures were.

A couple of things to consider:

1. In Genesis 3:1 it states that “the serpent was more subtle than any beast of the field.” Does that mean that this entity that deceived Eve was more subtle than any domestic animal; such as a donkey, or cow, or a sheep? Just how subtle is a cow?

2. In Exodus 23:10, 11 instructions are given to the farmers in the Kingdom of God that they were to farm the land for six consecutive years, but not on the seventh.

“But on the seventh year thou shalt let it rest and lie still; that the poor of thy people may eat: and what they leave the beasts of the field shall eat. In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thy olive yard.”

What farmer would let cows, oxen and other animals into their olive groves and grape vineyards? And for what purpose—since domestic animals don’t eat grapes or olives in any way.

3. In Exodus 23:29 God informs His people that He would not drive out the Canaanites in one year, but would drive them out “little by little”; and the reason for this—“lest the land become desolate and the beast of the field multiply against thee.”

4. In Daniel 4:25 Nebuchadnezzar, King of Babylon, tells of his seven year exile from men (“enosh”) to live with the “beasts of the field.” It is rather far fetched to believe that the mighty King of Babylon spent seven years with donkeys and other domestic animals, who supposedly took care of him during his illness! Can domestic animals take care of a sick person?

5. DEUTERONOMY 23:2-8

There are striking differences in the treatment between some races in the Bible.

“An Ammonite or Moabite shall not enter into the congregation of the LORD; even to their tenth generation shall they not enter into the congregation of the LORD forever. Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.” [they were born of incest between Lot and his daughters]

“Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite (some read Syrian); for he is thy brother: thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because thou wast a stranger in his land. The children that are begotten of them shall enter into the congregation of the LORD in their third generation.”

These contrasting verses show that God treats even mixed offspring from differing races differently—ten generation for the Ammonite and Moabite (meaning forever) vs. three generations for the Edomite and Egyptian. In addition, the prophet Zechariah prophesied (14:21) that the Canaanite is banned for all generations:

“In that day there shall no more be any Canaanite in the house of the Lord of Hosts.”

6. GENESIS 3:15

“And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise His heel.”

In this one verse, we find the “seed of the woman” and the “seed of the serpent,” so no one can claim that these two co-existing seeds are the same. Likewise, it is true with the two seeds in the parable of the tares and wheat—they represent the same two different, distinct seeds mentioned in Genesis 3:15 (Matthew 13:24-30; 36-43). The good seed are the “children of the kingdom;” but the bad seed are the “children of the wicked.” Jesus said:

“Every plant which My Heavenly Father hath not planted shall be rooted up” (Matthew 15:14).

So we have to admit that there are those which are planted by God, and those which are not planted by God. Those that God planted are the good seed; those not planted by God are the bad seed.

Seeds are either good or bad as seeds before they have grown or done anything. The popular evangelical teaching is that it is not the nature of God to treat one racial seed differently than another, and so they claim that God plants anyone of any race in the garden, making planting a matter solely of belief and not origin as well. The LORD God only planted the man Adam in the Garden.

CONCLUSION

Are all races treated the same in God's sight? The September 30th, 1996 "Time" magazine contained an anti-nationalism essay which suggested that nationalism is a beast that has caused war on earth ever since God said to Abraham, "And I will make a great nation of thee." They are blaming God for the international problems! But, the Bible says that God would make a nation out of a race formed from among the descendants of Abraham and that God's attitude to these would be different from his attitude to all other races. Differences between "seeds" begins early in the Bible, and it persists through the Bible until after the New Jerusalem is established on earth. Churchgoers have been indoctrinated into believing that this is no longer true. This indoctrination is evil!

"For thou art an holy (separated) People unto the LORD thy God: and the LORD thy God hath chosen thee to be a special People unto Himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth. The LORD did not set His love upon you, nor choose you, because ye were more in number than any people; for ye were the fewest of all people: But because the LORD loved you, and because He would keep the oath which He had sworn unto your fathers, hath the LORD brought you out with a mighty hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondmen, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt." (Deut 7:6-8)

"Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, in Isaac shall thy seed be called" (Romans 9:7)[Saxons!]

GOD'S USE OF THE HEATHEN AND THE ALIENS TO PUNISH ISRAEL AMERICA

[and Israel everywhere]

by pastor Chuck Kuhler, B.S. M.Th., [late] senior pastor The Virginia Christian Israelites.

"Those who do not learn from history are doomed to repeat the same process again."

It is most evident that our people have not learned and comprehend that the Most High has chastened and punished His people in past times, by bringing an invasion with heathen and alien strangers into their lands. We are witnessing this same punishment today, not only in America, but in all of the Israel nations. In this nation, we have alien peoples coming across both of our borders, and surely most prevalent across our southern border. We further have an increasing invasion from the third-world countries in the Orient and Africa, from those who come here on a temporary travel or student visa and then overstay.

Our inept, and what I would consider, ignorant leaders, don't seem to be able, or perhaps don't want to stem this tide of human refuse. The inability of many Christians to discern the differences of peoples has led to increasing concerns and even physical confrontation in many instances. Although this "invasion" is not of a military style, it will ultimately lead to the same conclusions.

Let's be honest about the fact that this nation (and all of the Israelite nations of the world) have sunk to low levels of moral conduct and depravity. All manner of violence, abortion, ethical behaviour, etc, are prevalent and to a large degree, accepted. We pay "lip service" to our God, but He is not found within our hearts. We claim to be Christians, but we ignore the Word of God, and His Laws. Can God accept this? During the times of David and Solomon, Israel was a powerful nation to be reckoned with. but even at that time, our Israelite forefathers strayed from our God. The patience of the Most High became exhausted as every generation continued to become more perverted and sinful.

Finally, in the years of circa 732-700 BC, the Almighty brought the armies of the Assyrian empire against the northern kingdom of Israel and the southern kingdom of Judah (with the exception of Jerusalem) and took our forefathers captive. Approximately 120 years later, king Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took Jerusalem captive and removed the inhabitants to Babylon. Please note that these invasions were deemed as punishments for the sins of the people and their leaders.

Do we not find ourselves in the same situation today? Our people, and our leaders, just appear to love sin, despite what they may spew from their mouths. The prophet Isaiah has said it well in 10:6, "I will send him (the Assyrian) against an hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets." And further, we read in Isaiah 1:7, "Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers."

In Deuteronomy 28:43-44, we are warned about allowing the "stranger" to get above us, and yet we see "strangers" above us today, and we have come down to a very low point of existence (a growing gap between the 'haves' and the 'have nots', and home ownership now eluding many Australians!

CIM). Read all of Deut 28 which is referred to as the "blessings and curses" chapter.

Consider well the ramifications of this "invasion" that will result in a destruction of many. We hear about the 12 million "illegals" that are currently in this country, but the truth is that nobody knows just how many of these aliens are in the country. Based upon some reliable sources, we have been able to ascertain that the true number may be closer to 20 to 30 million, and don't forget that every day sees hundreds and thousands more. We can envision the miscegenation that will take place in the years ahead in conflict with God's "kind after kind" statute.

There are those who claim that "we are a nation of immigrants," and that may be true, but we were a nation of "one people." It didn't make any difference whether the original immigrants were from England, Germany, Holland, Scandinavia, Ireland, or other such countries—they were of Israel stock. The same cannot be said of recent immigrants, especially those who arrive here illegally.

Don't you think that Almighty God could stop this invasion if He so desired. Of course, He could. So, then it becomes obvious that the Almighty doesn't want this invasion to cease. It is being used as a punishment against Israel America (and Australia, and other Israel lands) because we have forgotten just who our heavenly Father is, we delight in breaking His commandments and Laws.

I don't know just how it will happen, but we do know that the time will come when the Most High will rectify this matter. In Isaiah 13:13-16 we read, "Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. And it shall be as the chased roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up; they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land. Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword. Their children also shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be spoiled, and their wives ravished."

We must repent of our grievous and sinful ways, and cry out to our God for help. We are told in Isaiah 59:19, "So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sin. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." We are seeing the enemy coming in like a flood, and we ask our Father to terminate and end this invasion. The Lamentations of Jeremiah (4:15) also speaks of the fact that the heathen are to eventually leave.

We wonder just how long Israelite Americans, and Israelites worldwide will remain somewhat oblivious to the situation. There does appear to be an awakening to this situation, and we also wonder what will happen when our kinsmen realize the truth of the matter. Keep your fidelity to your beliefs and history. Read the Scriptures. And most importantly, pray for our Israelite people that the blinders may be removed from their eyes.

AND THESE PEOPLE
CLAIM TO BE THE ONE AND ONLY TRUE CHRIS-TIAN CHURCH?

by Ps Chuck Kuhler

The Roman Church has reiterated their contention that they are the one and only Christian Church and that being a communicant of the Roman Church is the only sure way of being saved. They have relented somewhat in this claim by stating that "possibly" others within the Protestant Churches "may be saved" but that this is not a sure and certain thing. While I have never even partially accepted their so-called spirit of ecumenism of the last few decades, this latest claim can surely be considered the ultimate in hypocrisy, and the Scriptures throughout both the Old and New Testaments condemn such conduct.

It is my understanding and belief, that if one wishes to be a servant of the Most High, that they must conduct themselves in a manner which reflects credit upon our God, and, if they are not willing to live their life in accordance with the dictates of His Will, then they should seek some other purpose for their lives. I personally, over many years, have discovered much erroneous doctrine and behavioural conduct in the Roman Church.

What brings this matter to the forefront at this time, are the claims mentioned in the first paragraph of this article, while at the same time the Los Angeles diocese of this false and satanic church is paying out a total of 660 Million dollars to victims of child and sexual abuse.* This compensation is truly a huge sum from a single diocese. This latest "payoff" brings the total amount of funds paid out to victims, by the unholy Roman Church in the United States to more than 2 Billion dollars. And if you add in the funds paid to abuse victims in African nations, in European countries, in Central and South American nations, the figures are nothing short of astronomical.

And, where do you suppose the funds to pay off these victims came from? These funds were contributed by the mal-informed for God's work! Just what do you suppose our God thinks of such callous and improper use of "His monies"? And, just what does our God think of the unholy Roman Church, and the perverted priests who claim to be serving Him?

These abuses have only been revealed as of late, but these conditions have existed for many centuries. It is only in recent years that Roman Catholics have found the ability to speak out publicly on these matters, where in years past, there was internal coverup by the church and the transfer of the most wicked and perverted clergy. With regard to the matter of "child abuse," these clerics must not have read the words of Jesus as found in Matthew 18:6, Mark 9:42, and Luke 17:2.

It is time that Roman Catholics start to investigate their church, its doctrines, and beliefs. If they continue to support the ungodly Roman church (and/or Roman Church schools) are they not condemning themselves in accordance with the words as found in Hosea 4:6, "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: Because thou hast rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee..." If you have the knowledge that you are pursuing a false and questionable religion, and you continue to follow the tenets of that religion, will you not be rejected by God?

There are so many errors of doctrine and faith that have become inculcated into the Roman church, that it no longer represents the "Christianity" brought and taught by Jesus [if it ever did]. It has become a materialistic religion where the traditions of men has become the supreme authority. During the middle ages, the church, through their infamous "inquisitions," (see the film Flame In The Wind, DVD-CI-286 Loan Only @ $5) martyred anyone who would not yield to Roman beliefs. The blood of those tens of thousands of individuals still cries out to be avenged, and the day is rapidly coming when the return of our Saviour will see the goats separated from His sheep.

As a servant of the Most High, it is vital that you have a good working knowledge and understanding of His Word as found in the Holy Scriptures, and you must lead your life in accordance with His Laws. Throughout the Gospel of Sheldon Emry. Martin Luther, the great Protestant reformer, struck at Rome's very rotten core by condemning the "selling of indulgences," that is, offering people "insurance" from ending up in Purgatory by taking monetary bribes from them. This was the Pope's primitive tax-collection business. Today, many so-called Protestant preachers and 'faith healers' practice this with promises of prosperity, showing that nothing really is new under the sun. Excellent and fact-filled series!

Matthew are many references spoken by our Saviour in condemnation of hypocrisy. In Job 8, we are informed in vs 13, that “the hypocrite’s hope shall perish.” What further proof do we need to know the end result of the Roman church and most of its clergy?

Paganism was introduced into that church many centuries ago, and while the early church thought that it would defeat pagan principles, it rather adopted many of the pagan and ungodly principles into its own inner beliefs. [The Netherlands fought for 80 years to throw off the Spanish Roman inquisition, and many people were killed and martyred]

THE RAPE OF EUROPE

by Paul Belien

The German author Henryk M. Broder recently told the Dutch newspaper “De Volkskrant” that young Europeans who love freedom, better emigrate. Europe as we know it will no longer exist 20 years from now. Whilst sitting on a terrace in Berlin, Broder pointed to the other customers and the passers-by and said - melancholically: “We are watching the world of yesterday.”

Europe is turning Muslim. As Broder is sixty years old he is not going to emigrate himself. “I am too old,” he said; however he urged young people to get out and “move to Australia or New Zealand. That is the only option they have if they want to avoid the plagues that will turn the old continent uninhabitable.”

Many Germans and Dutch, apparently, did not wait for Broder’s advice. The number of emigrants leaving the Netherlands and Germany has already surpassed the number of immigrants moving in. One does not have to be prophetic to predict, like Henryk Broder, that Europe is becoming Islamic. Just consider the demographics.

The number of Muslims in contemporary Europe is estimated to be 50 million. It is expected to double in twenty years. By 2025, one third of all European children will be born to Muslim families. Today Mohammed is already the most popular name for newborn boys in Brussels, Amsterdam, Rotterdam, and other major European cities.

Broder is convinced that the Europeans are not willing to oppose Islamization. “The dominant ethic,” he told De Volkskrant, “is perfectly voiced by the stupid blonde woman author with whom I recently debated. She said that it is sometimes better to let yourself be raped than to risk serious injury while resisting. She said it is sometimes better to avoid fighting than run the risk of death.” [the old “better Red than dead” philosophy!]

In a recent op-ed piece in the Brussels newspaper De Standaard the Dutch (gay and self-declared “humanist”) author Oscar Van den Boogaard refers to Broder’s interview. Van den Boogaard says that to him coping with the Islamization of Europe is like “a process of mourning.” He is overwhelmed by a “feeling of sadness.” “I am not a warrior,” he says, “but who is? I have never learned to fight for my freedom. I was only good at enjoying it.”

As Tom Bethell wrote in this month’s American Spectator! “Just at the most basic level of demography the secular-humanist option is not working.” But there is more to it than the fact that non-religious people tend not to have as many children as religious people, because many of them prefer to “enjoy” freedom rather than renounce it for the sake of children. Secularists, it seems to me, are also less keen on fighting. Since they do not believe in an afterlife, this life is the only thing they have to lose; hence they will rather accept submission than fight. Like the German feminist Broder referred to, they prefer to be raped than to resist.

“If faith collapses, civilization goes with it,” says Bethell. That is the real cause of the closing of civilization in Europe. Islamization is simply the consequence. The very word Islam means “submission” and the secularists have submitted already. Many Europeans have already become Muslims, though they do not realize it or do not want to admit it.

Some of the people I meet in the U.S. are particularly worried about the rise of anti-Semitism in Europe. They are correct when they fear that anti-Semitism is also on the rise among non-immigrant Europeans. The latter hate people with a fighting spirit. Contemporary anti-Semitism in Europe (at least when coming from native Europeans) is related to anti-Americanism. People who are not prepared to resist and are eager to submit hate others who do not want to submit and are prepared to fight. They hate them because they are afraid that the latter will endanger their lives as well. In their view everyone must submit.

This is why they have come to hate Israel(i) and America so much, and the small band of European “Islamophobes” who dare to talk about what they see happening around them. West Europeans have to choose between submission (Islam) or death. I fear, like Broder, that they have chosen submission—just like in former days when they preferred to be red rather than dead!

THAT OLD SERPENT, CALLED DEVIL & SATAN

What did we read in Rev. 12 in the last part of verse 4?
“..the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.”

So what do we have? We have a nation born out of reconstituted Israel and this confederation of nations in Rev 12 wants to destroy it. Now where has that ever happened in history? Well, most of you (Americans) are living in that nation, that ‘was born in a day’ on July 4th, 1776. The nation of reconstituted Israel which the dragon, the enemy, the anti-Christ has been trying to destroy for centuries. This is not a recent battle. This battle has been going on for years. So you see as we read this, we find that the man-child is really the nation of regathered Israel. It is not Jesus the Christ as we showed earlier. All of the visions in the book of Revelation have to take place after John saw the vision. That is made very plain in the first verse of Rev 1, and the 3rd verse, and in the 1st verse of Rev 4. These are not things that happened before. So this birth was not Jesus. This birth was of the great Zion nation of Bible prophecy, the United States of America. Continue Micah 4:11,

“Now also many nations are gathered against thee that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion.”

I would guess there are more spies and subversives per capita in America than in any nation on earth. This cannot fit the little old land of Palestine. I would suspect we have more enemy spies and agents in America than they have people in Palestine! Now listen to what God says, vs 12:

“But they know not the thoughts of the Lord, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as sheaves into the floor. Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people and I will consecrate their gain unto the Lord, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.”

This is that great end-time battle in which all the nations of the world will be gathered against the Zion of Bible prophecy. Anyone who lives in America, who can't see the nations of the world gathered against this great nation; with the military arms, and subversive parties in control of even a good share of South America, and Cuba, and Nicaragua and even now taken control to some extent (1980) in Mexico, with the Russian submarines and ships patrolling both of our seas with missiles by the thousands aimed at this nation; if you still think the Zion of Bible prophecy is over in Palestine, you simply don't know what is going on in the earth today. We are the target of the great anti-Christ conspiracy; We are the nation born in a day, of reconstituted Israel, the people who follow Jesus the Christ. Let's go back to Rev 12 now and read some more here and see if this vision does rather fit with this idea, that the man-child is not Jesus but was reconstituted Israel, born in a day. Vs 5:

“And she brought forth a man-child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his throne.”

Now again, to fulfil that it does not mean a literal removal from the earth to heaven. It simply is symbolic language for God's protection for that man-child. God led and guided that man-child. Now if you can name a nation upon the earth that has had more leading and guidance and protection from God Almighty than the U.S.A. you tell me about it, because I simply don't know one.

“And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and threescore days.”

Now I've not figured out the time on this, and since you know that I do not believe in computing times for Jesus' return at the end of the age; I'll let others work on that, but I do know Israel was regathered here in this North American continent, this Wilderness. Then comes verse 7:

“And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, and prevailed not neither was their place found anymore in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.”

Now this of course is not some spiritual being that walks about the earth tempting Christians. Again, this old dragon is this conglomeration of nations and they are literally going to be brought low and destroyed by God. The terminology here of course is 'Michael.'

“And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God,”

Here is that Kingdom again; that we read about in Isaiah and Micah,

“... and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.”

Now there is another thing that our enemies do, that at least is one thing that does make our Patriotic Americans angry. We are accused of causing all the trouble on the earth, do you realize that? In other nations in the third world and among the communist propagandists, America is the great and terrible power. Khomeiny calls us 'Devils' and everything else. America literally receives the blame for everything that is going on in the earth, and yet, in time of calamity and earthquakes and famines and trouble, what one nation, of all the earth sends its food, its help, and its doctors and its people to it? The United States of course! The great Zion Nation of Bible prophecy.

“And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto death.”

This great anti-Christ world power is not going to be overcome by force of arms persé, but by the Word of God and the power of Jesus the Christ.

“Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.”

Now it is also true that the rest of the earth is suffering under this anti-Christ power which is attempting to destroy America. If you've ever read the writings of Karl Marx and Lenin and Stalin and some of the other so-called theorists of communism, they make it very plain the nation they want to destroy is the U.S.A. However, they recognize they will have to take the rest of the world first, then destroy us. So, as it says here, the devil is come down unto the rest of the inhabitants of the earth and the sea. all the other nations are suffering from this warfare which is directed against us.

“And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man-child. And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the Wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and a half time, from the face of the serpent.”

We have a cassette tape series dealing with the Great Seal of the United States (A-7825,26,27,28,29), and many people - I discovered as I did that series on the radio - wrote that they had always assumed that the eagle was the symbol for the U.S. and they did not know, until I read it from the Bible, that the Eagle is the symbol of God.

God carried Israel, the olive nation in His talons and protected them with the arrows of His Words. That seal of course, has a lot more symbolism than most people know about. That is why it took 20 radio broadcasts to explain it, I guess. So, God Almighty carried Israel into the Wilderness, where she is nourished for a time, times and a half a time from the face of the serpent.

“And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.”

This great flood of hatred and propaganda and enmity to attempt to destroy the nation of Zion.

“And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.”

Again referring to the other nations, this is possibly fulfilled by the fact that much of the power and might of the anti-Christ is absorbed by the other nations. This great flood which they cast out against Christian Israel, is absorbed by the other nations. If it were not, if their attack had only been on our nation we would have been destroyed long ago (humanly speaking); but the other nations of the world serve to some extent to soak up that power and enmity and evil.

“And the dragon was wrath with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed,”

The war has to be against the physical, literal, racial descendants of this woman whom we've identified as Israel, and here they are:

“..which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.”

What can it be but Christianized Israel? The people of our race, reconstituted in this North American continent as the Israel of God in the great Zion of Bible prophecy. so the dragon of Rev. 12, which was seen in vision by John of course is the same beast creature of Rev. 17, which wars against God's people. Turn to Rev. 17 speaking of these horns and this beast power, vs 14:

“These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, and chosen and faithful.”

Who could they be? but the Christians of the earth, the Christians of America. This nonsense that the Jews, who are the most anti-Christ people in all of the world, over in Palestine, are the people against which world communism is fighting, is literally that, not only nonsense, but DANGEROUS NONSENSE! The people they are fighting are the Christians of America and Western Europe. We are the target, we are the ones they wish to destroy. So, if those fought against in Rev. 17 are identical to those fought against in Rev. 12, why is it so far fetched to say that the entity which fights against them is the same in both chapters? In other words, not a great fallen spirit being, but a combine of nations and people gathered together to fight and attempt to destroy the Zion of Bible prophecy.

Now my identification earlier on the ten horns of Rev. 17 as possibly our own government which as you know has been divided into ten regions, does not change my identification of this since our government is not run by our people. How many of you know it is certainly not run by Christian people. In fact, the present president claims to be a born-again Christian (Jimmy Carter), as far as we can tell from the entire list of hundreds and perhaps by now, thousands of people he has appointed to office in the Federal Government, not a one! He has never appointed one Christian to office in the Federal Government, which of course doesn't speak very well for his profession of Christianity, does it?

No, this government of ours is actually combined with the enemies of Christianity, making war on Christians. Thank God a lot of ministers are beginning to see that. When the government is trying to take away their tax-exempt status and close their schools, and has already stopped prayer in the public schools and prevented the Bible from being read there. There is at least a stirring among our people and a recognition that there is a great almost sacred hidden power which is warring against Christendom and against our people.

So, summing up, what we have in Rev 12, we have an accurate prophecy that people and nations constituted as earthly powers would make war on the regathered house of Israel in the Wilderness, and their attempt to destroy Zion. To destroy God's government over the nations. The interpretation of that vision as someone portraying a fallen angelic creature who is nebulous and invisible, prevents us from grasping the truth of the existence of this combine of people and nations. That war is being carried on against us by people and nations and not by some angelic creature. The ministers and the clergy have gotten the people to sit in churches and listen to the minister while he fights this unseen and unseeable enemy. So he has become their surrogate soldier and they never enter into the war, and never realize that they can. In fact, they just watch this vapour called the devil, and the war goes on, on the earth, and it's one-sided because the enemy is fighting us and we're not fighting back. We are told that everything is caused by this devil..

Some of you know that some ministers take this devil and this satan and make a great thing out of it to make themselves heroes and martyrs. Every time their ministry starts to grow and they have success, they say, Oh we overcame the devil. When the contributions start to fall off and the people leave the church, they say, Oh the devil is trying to destroy the ministry. The devil has become a scapegoat for their own failings. The individuals of course, by making this thing the devil, they do encourage our people to hate the devil. But you're never, never supposed to hate the individuals who are doing the work of destroying this nation, and our people. The ministers rail against pornography, who is at fault? Oh, the devil is. They rail against prostitution, abortion, drug promotion, blasphemy against Jesus Christ, treason in government, and world communism, who is at fault? Oh, its that devil out there doing that.

No, it is not! my friends. It is millions upon millions of anti-Christ flesh and blood people who are destroying your nation and your people. The devil, as I said becomes just a scapegoat. Since you can't hurt this spirit creature, you never attempt to stop any of the things that these people are doing. The minister may even make a great crusading hero out of himself by speaking against these nation destroying activities. Then when someone else comes along and says, what we must do is execute, exile, imprison or punish some other way, the criminals and traitors; they say, “We must hate the sin and love the sinner. We must not judge lest we be judged, after all, its the devil doing all of these things.” And if you point out that you have investigated these anti-Christ and anti-Christian activities and you have been convinced that they are primarily promoted by anti-Christ Jews who are followers of the religion of the Pharisees, which Jesus condemned; and that they are behind everything from communism to pornography, to drug promotion and distribution, for the purpose of destroying Christianity, then they say, “The Jews are God's chosen people. God will curse you if you do anything against the Jews. We must love the Jews.” Then they go back to the devil and the great anti-Christ and they are off fighting shadows and the wind again.

You see, they don't mind if you oppose pornography, just don't jail the pornographer. They don't mind if you oppose abortion, just don't execute the baby-killer! They don't even mind if you hate communism, just don't imprison or deport the Jewish communists. In actuality so many churchgoers are so conditioned to think of their enemy as a spirit creature called the devil, they can hardly think in terms of flesh and blood enemies. The 'devil doctrine' is powerful protection for the enemies of Zion and Israel. Turn to 1 Timothy 4:1

"Now the spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils."

Now I read that for years and I assumed that meant they would give heed to doctrines promulgated or invented by devils, but could Paul instead have been warning that those who would not preach the true faith would preach doctrines ABOUT devils?

It's interesting that the greatest so-called church in Christendom which has departed from the faith is the Roman Catholic Church; and a great part of its teaching is always about that devil. The devil will get you if you don't follow the teaching of the priests, and so on. Well, let's turn to Romans 1, and we'll finish in a couple of passages, and we'll see who has the power here. You know this chapter is about people who refuse to follow God. vs 21:

"Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened."

Then it describes people who are opposed to knowing anything about God. vs 24:

"Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves."

Did they get caught up in the web or deception of some nebulous spirit creature called 'the devil'? NO! God gave them up to those things, next verse:

"Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blest forever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature."

Who is the power? Not the devil! but God Almighty! Turn to 2 Thes. 2, this is that great chapter on the man of sin, which we've explained in some detail, (tapes A-7702, A-7703 @ $10 the 2) we'll not get into that here. But in vs 10:

"And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in that they perish: because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:"

For this cause, that is because they did not want the truth. When people believe lies and believe not the truth of this holy Word, who has led them into that false belief? God Almighty! Let's be careful about what credit we give the 'devil' for doing great things. God Almighty sends them strong delusions that they should believe a lie.

Well, thank God for the other side of that same coin. If you love the truth, God will open your eyes and God will give you the truth. He will not deceive you, and you will find out the things in His Word which are truth. When Israel repents, when our nation repents and turns to God and seeks the truth; God will open their eyes and give them the truth that will set them free.

The truth that will destroy all of the anti-Christ powers of these people and nations, which almost seem to have us in their grasp, and the power is here, the power is not some mythical 'satan' of the churches. The power is in God Almighty and His Word. We are the ones who must repent and then that old adversary, this devil and this satan, these people on the earth that oppose Christendom will be destroyed and God will bring upon this earth the cleansed land of Bible prophecy, the Kingdom of God upon earth. May God speed the day. Amen. (#123 @ $4.50)

A CHRISTIAN ISRAELITE VIEW - AN OPEN LETTER TO A BROTHER

by Bob Vermaat

"And the Lord said unto Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not. Am I my brother's keeper?" (Gen 4:9)

[TKC Editor's Note: In the Israel movement we have all experienced the disappointment of not getting others to open their eyes to the wonderful truth to which we have been blessed. And likely our good intentions have been met with derision on occasion. Sadly, all this means is that God has not yet seen fit to open all eyes to the message and we have to be content to simply sow the seeds and let them quietly lie until the day He chooses to remove the blinders from lost Israel. I like the way Mr. Vermaat said it in a postscript to his article, "All we can do is to keep those brothers and sisters in our prayers before God and let Him do all the hard work. Yet, we must never forget that we are our brother's keeper."]

Dear Brother, I am sure that you will be surprised to receive this letter from me, for it is not often that I write you. You are probably thinking, "to what do I deserve this honour?"

Well, Brother, a short while ago I submitted your name for the mailing list of a Christian Israel Ministry.

I am a regular subscriber of this ministry and I thought that you would be open and interested in the material. The particular organization is one that through diverse preachers and evangelists teaches the true identity of God's people Israel today. Now, I am truly sorry that you cancelled the subscription after receiving only one issue and instructed the Ministry not to bother you further.

All that we teach and preach is Bible-based and you can read all the details in Hosea, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, Amos, etc. These are, of course, all Old Testament Scriptures but you can also find confirmation in the New Testament in Peter, Paul and James, to name just a few. Jesus Himself talked about "the lost sheep of the House of Israel." Matt 10:6, 15:24. Now if He Himself came for the lost sheep of Israel, it stands to reason that those lost sheep must still be around somewhere. He also said to the Jews of His day that the kingdom would be taken from them and given to a nation bearing the fruits of it. Matt 21:43.

Please just think for a moment on this, "which nation or nations do bear the fruits of the Kingdom?" You will of course point to the present State of Israel, because this is what you have been taught, but if you approach this question in an open way, you may come to the realization that it is none other than the nations of Anglo-Saxondom, such as England, Holland, USA, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa, among others. Now, hey brother, I hope that you will keep reading for this is where it gets exciting. God told us He would scatter the people of Israel to the four corners of the world for their apostasy. He also stated that He would not lose track of a single one of them and that at the end times He would re-gather them (Jer. 23:8) under the Kingship of Jesus Christ our Lord and King. Read Jer. 3:31-36 also. I don't think anything could be clearer. The regathering has already taken place, in part, in such countries as the USA, Canada and in the Southern Hemisphere. That is why those countries were so blessed and prosperous until we again started to lose our way and forgot the Lord our God. This is the reason these countries are now in such a decline and in such turmoil.

So, Brother, do not forget that we are in the "time of Jacob's trouble" (Jer. 30:7) and also, as the Apostle Paul wrote in 2 Thes 2:3, "There will be a falling away in the last days." I am sure that you are familiar with these Scriptures. You may not like to hear this but the re-gathering is not in the land of Palestine, in the nation of Israel, at least at this time. Those that live there are by and large not even of the blood and lineage of Abraham, but of Turkish-Mongolian blood. This they themselves have so stated in numerous writings of their own. Please understand it is still the battle for the Birthright between Jacob and Esau. In 1 Cor 15:17 Paul writes in part "Behold, I show you a mystery." Well Brother, now I will try to show you a mystery. When Jesus returns to set up His Millennium Kingdom the resurrected believers and the believing remnant yet alive will meet Jesus in the air, not to go to Heaven as some believe (in some so-called 'rapture'), but to meet Him as He is returning to earth. This is just as we would meet someone at the airport who is coming to visit and then take them to our home. So, you see, there will be no Rapture of the Saints (sorry).

God's Kingdom will be on earth and not in Heaven as so many church denominations teach. In 2 Sam 7:16 we read that God made a Covenant with David and one important clause is that His throne would be established for ever and that he would never lack an heir on that throne. Gen 49:10, Jer 33:17. So, it stands to reason that that throne must still be somewhere in existence on the earth, otherwise God would have broken His own Covenant with David. Well, Surprise! Surprise! It is still around and it is to be found in England. So, if it is in England it must stand to reason that there are Covenant People still living there (in fact all European monarchs come from the same line of descent). Remember the Judeans never had another king after the Babylonians destroyed Zedekiah and his kingdom. Read 2 Kings 25.

In Ezekiel 17:22-23 we read about a tender twig being cropped off and planted in a high mountain. This prophecy is in regard to the throne. When King Zedekiah's sons were killed and Zedekiah himself was made blind, there remained two daughters alive (Jer 41:10 - 43:6) in the care of Jeremiah the prophet. The names of those daughters were Scota, the youngest and Tea-Tephi, the eldest. Jeremiah together with Baruch, his scribe, took the girls by way of Egypt (Jer 43:6) to Spain and later the oldest daughter to Ireland, where the throne was re-established. So, Brother, he who has eyes to see, let him see and he who has ears to hear, let him hear.

In Ezekiel 3:17-21 we are told to be watchmen. If we fail to warn our brother we will be held accountable, but when we do warn him and he rejects our warning, then he will be accountable for his own actions. We will have done our job. So, dear Brother, that is the reason that I had the Christian Israel Message material sent to you, because I am concerned for your spiritual welfare and salvation.

In our present day society and world situation it is time to read and study God's Word. Believe me, it is time to think outside the box and come to your own conclusions by studying God's Word with an open mind. Once you understand that you are an Israelite the Bible will take on a whole new meaning and you will realize that it was written to Israel and Israel only! (see The Exclusiveness of Israel, #714 @ $21.95) (Amos 3:2). It is a continual story and history about a chosen servant people that God has called out from among all the other people.

With this in mind I hope you will be open-minded enough to take this letter for what it means, namely our concern for you. If you choose to ignore all that I have said herein, so be it, but if your are willing and interested enough to look into some of the things that I have tried to point out to you, so much the better. God Bless, Your Loving Brother.

----- TO VOTE OR NOT TO VOTE by Ted Weiland

"In the days of Nehemiah, Hananiah was given charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many." (Neh. 7:2).

The United States hold a presidential election every four years and a mid-term election every two years. How wonderfully different America would be if the president and all of those elected to serve this nation were required to meet the same criteria of faithfulness and the fear of Yahweh.

To demonstrate how far removed the political climate in this nation is from what we find at the time of Nehemiah, consider the following poll results. Prior to the 1996 election, it was revealed that over 70% of those polled did not care about President Bill Clinton's morals or standards. Of greater importance to them was that President Clinton could empathize with the people. This is the antithesis to the reason why Hananiah was chosen to govern. Hananiah was appointed because he sympathized with God, whereas Bill Clinton was re-elected because he sympathized with the people.

APPOINTMENT VS ELECTION

The previous statement holds a second reason why this country has deteriorated politically: Hananiah was appointed not elected. Nowhere in either the Old or the New Testament can one find that elections were endorsed by God. Elections are not Yahweh's way; they are man's way.

When Kingdom law, that is Yahweh's Law, is restored, elections will cease. Furthermore there will be no juries. This may displease some patriots (like the dentist John Wilson in Sydney, CIM), but that is only because we are continually propogandized by anti-Christ Socialists and Christian Patriots alike that free elections and juries are the only rational, civilized and humanitarian way of doing it. PRECISELY! It is the humanitarian or humanistic way of conducting government, not the theistic way. Think about it: Elections and juries place government policy and judicial determinations into the hands of a public that is subject to the ever-changing morals and whims of the people. This structure may work well for the nation whose morality is in concert with Yahweh's morality; but what about the majority of times when the morality of the two is not in concert?

Someone may counter: "Who wants to leave the appointment of government officials and judicial determinations in the hands of corrupt politicians?" No one does, unless you are one of those politicians. That is why Yahweh provided us in His Word with explicit qualifications for a man holding civil and/or religious leadership. That man must possess all of the following credentials and attributes. Among other things, he must be:

1. A Christian.
2. A fellow Israelite.¹
3. One who fears Yahweh.
4. One who does not fear man.
5. One who is schooled in the laws of Yahweh.
6. One who has written out his own copy of Yahweh's Law.
7. One who daily reads Yahweh's Law.
8. One who scrupulously observes the laws of Yahweh in his own life.
9. A man of truth.
10. One who is just.
11. One who is impartial in judgment
12. One who is unable to be bribed.
13. One who is neither greedy nor covetous.
14. One who is a terror to the wicked and a champion of the righteous.

Even if a man meets all of these qualifications, he still may not be a viable appointee because it is possible for his wife or children to disqualify him. He must also manage his own household well. In other words, he must be the head of his own home with a dignified, non-gossiping, sober, faithful wife and faithful, non-rebellious children — Ex. 18:19-21; Deut 1:13-17; 17:15-19; 2 Chron 19:5-8; Romans 13:1-4; 1 Tim 3:1-13 and Titus 1:5-9.

These are the type of men (and yes, one had to be a man!) whom Yahweh has directed us to appoint as leaders. If a candidate does not meet these qualifications, he is not to be appointed. In fact, the same qualifications must be met by anyone responsible for an appointment, which was usually by the hands of a religious leader such as Samuel who appointed Saul and David. Think about it: With such men, why would we need elections? Elections are only for choosing the lesser of two evils, or the evil of two lessers.

The cut of men possessing these qualities are the class of men described by the Apostle Paul in Romans 13 -- "minister(s) of God to thee for good."² However, this is hardly a term that fits most politicians today.

It is time that we understand that anything short of Yahweh's standard as established in His laws is spiritually and politically left, liberal and ungodly. Therefore, as Christians ours is not to elect any candidate of any political party. Instead, it should be our aim to reestablish Yahweh's judicial system and appoint men who fear God and who will enforce His Laws.

ACCESSORIES TO THEIR CRIMES

We deserve what we get when we set the standards and elect those who rule over us. It reminds me of the mid-west pastor who, during his sermon, had been discussing the lion and the lamb living together in peace. A circus man in the congregation argued that the arrangement could not possibly work. "Well," said the preacher, "why don't we try it? You bring a lion and I will ask someone in my congregation to bring in a lamb." The circus man brought a lion in a cage, placed the cage on the church laws and left town before the farmer arrived with the lamb. When he returned three weeks later, sure enough, the lion and lamb were lying down together in peace. "Well," said the pastor, "it works fine, but we do have to replace the lamb once in a while." The moral of this story is do not complain and grumble if one of the lions/tyrants that you elect devours a few sheep along the way!

When the next election rolls around we should understand that we deserve whom we elect. Of even greater consequence, when we assist in electing immoral, illicit and ungodly men or women into office, we become accomplices to their crimes. The Apostle Paul warned Timothy: "Do not lay hands upon [or in our case, elect] anyone too hastily and thus share responsibility for the sins of others." (1 Timothy 5:22, NASV)

WHOSE DISCIPLES ARE THEY?

by Andrea Schwartz

"And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto Me in Heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all [Israel] nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of holy ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the eon." (Matt 28:18-20)

"But ye shall receive power; after that holy ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth." (Acts 1:8)

HOMESCHOOLING is much more than a method of educating children; it is a way of life. It sometimes takes a while for homeschooling families to fully appreciate what that means, but eventually they understand that education is something that is an ongoing part of life, not something reserved for the months of September through June, or to be compartmentalized into subjects such as mathematics, science, history, or literature and jammed into an 8:00-2:30 timeframe. The comprehensive nature of the endeavour involves a world and life view that elevates all activities to either "learning activities" or activities where what one has learned is being applied. More than anything else, homeschooling is an excellent method whereby parents can obey the Great Commission as it applies to their children. The main task of producing disciplined individuals who know and apply the law-word of Jesus the Christ in their daily lives is more than anything else an activity of discipleship.

I was able to see firsthand evidence of this recently in my younger daughter as she and I travelled back to New York to attend a family funeral. Many had never met her before, and those who had were surprised to see how much three years of growth had accomplished. Sure, there were the expected, "My how tall you are!" and "How pretty you've become!" But repeatedly I heard from friends and family alike how impressed and "blown away" they were with her maturity, poise, and demeanor at 13 years old. The interesting part is that she was just acting like herself. This wasn't her best behaviour—this was her customary behaviour. What were the elements that brought rave attention and kudos to me as her mother?

The practice of looking adults in the eyes when she spoke with them ... the habit of addressing people by name and being interested in their life and concerns ... the willingness to chip in and help even before asked to do so ... the practice of checking with me prior to accepting something offered to her to make sure she had my approval ... her willingness to talk about things she was doing in her life (repeatedly as she met new people) in an interested and agreeable fashion, regardless of whom she was talking to ... being put on the spot by relatives, and yet respectfully conducting herself in a way that honored them.

True, these are things that well describe my daughter, but I've also just described a multitude of home-schooled students I've known over the 25 years I've been involved in home education. In other words, my daughter is far from being the exception; she is more like the rule.

It is a sad commentary on our times when manners and respect for elders (behaviours that used to be taken for granted) are now viewed as extraordinary. However, one need not look too far to discover why this would be. Subjecting children to the teaching that there are no moral absolutes, that they evolved from apes, and that Jesus the Christ has no place in their world of learning and life are good places to assign the blame. yet it is sadder commentary that many well-meaning Christians continue to allow their children to be fed a steady diet of anti-Christian materials and instruction in public schools, you better spend more time instructing them as to the Biblical point of view rather than less. From that standpoint, homeschooling becomes the choice that takes less time and effort. It is far easier to impart the truth from the outset of learning a subject when no falsehoods have to be tackled and removed, rather than after many years into the indoctrination.

As parents, we need to obey the Great Commission (making disciples) first and foremost with our own children. Their responses to the world in which they live, the material that they are studying, and the issues that they face all need to be formulated from a Biblical mindset. That task is something that takes years and years of instruction, application, testing, and refinement, and is best done by Christian parents discipling their own children. You see, first your children should be your disciples, and as they grow and mature, they'll come to realize that they, along with you, their parents, are disciples of Jesus the Christ.

Whose disciples are your children?

HOW TO TOW YOUR BROTHER ACROSS THE SWAMP FROM CHRISTIAN ZIONISM WITHOUT

DROWNING YOU BOTH

by Charles Colson

Many of us have close friends, business associates, family, or may even be married to a Judeo-Christian

Your author was once, at least by acquiescence if not by firm commitment, and no one explained to me why it was important to confront this issue. It is frustrating not to know where to draw the line ... where to start to try to convince one's brother that he may be the one who is wrong. Judeo-Christianity (Christian Zionism to some) by whatever name, is only three generations old, it is one of the youngest and largest religions making up 24% of the US population, some 70 million persons according to impartial polls, and we have reason to think it is even larger, with power that extends far beyond its numbers.

Most of the growth of Judeo-Christianity occurred since 1967 when Oxford University Press rewrote the Scofield Reference Bible. The Jewish political state of Israel was then added in as a party to God's plan. Hundreds of pages of additional footnote sub-headings were added and interspersed to create the illusion that political Israel made Biblical sense. Tragically, this has led Judeo-Christians to be as much in scriptural error as were the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, or the Salem Witch Trials.

SEE NO EVIL

In order to justify the acts of political Israel Judeo-Christianity require a myopic see-no-evil blurred vision morality to hide from daily images of brutality and genocide especially in Palestine, but also in Iraq and Lebanon. Judeo-Christians are taught to ignore or excuse political Israel's every act based on some celebrity leader's view of his Bible, rarely from their own study. Judeo-Christianity has become the great enabler of serial wars.

Judeo-Christians need to be told their Biblical view is very wrong, but how does one get started when the response from a close friend may well be "Its been nice knowing you," and it may even be your own family who say it? There are no Bible verses in context that support the Judeo-Christian's views of political Israel ... none, so it sounds like unwinding the error of Judeo-Christianity would be an easy task; it's anything but easy. One needs to learn to deal with Jesus' statement about how we are to live our life in the simplest and most direct way, else he will be doomed to live a dual life, or have a "daily duel." It is a strange semi-silent life when family is involved, where taboo subjects are never broached and must remain unspoken to the deathbed and occasionally the divorce court. We suggest confrontation in the interest of the loved ones, and for the sake of the victims.

ISRAEL FIRST, JESUS A CLOSE SECOND

Every Christian Zionist (a Judeo-Christian with teeth) even if its someone in your own family, expects you to sublimate your understanding of Jesus' teachings to the interests of Israel. If you will not do so, you are doomed to either the endless frustration of tolerating circuitous arguments, or stony silence. Christian Zionism is a contagious mental disease seeded with deliberate political intent. How does your author know this? Because Project Strait Gate has now conducted over 55 official vigils outside the gates of some of the most opulent and successful churches in America, and we may have talked to more Judeo-Christians than anyone, except perhaps the pastors who make a profession of deceiving them. We have learned how to debate scripture with uncounted hundreds over the last four years. We have witnessed a wide variety of attitudes, some Christ-like and some very pagan, at churches that called themselves “dispensational” or “Judeo-Christian.” It has become increasingly clear that very few of those who follow it understand the apostasy called Judeo-Christianity, or Christian Zionism; Amazingly we have found that practically none of those inside the cult (yes it is a cult in every way) understand it well enough to explain it on paper.

TACTICS FOR RESCUE

Judeo-Christians, when challenged, usually clam up or insult those who ask them questions because very few, even the leaders, can debate the issues they think they believe. When confronted with a simple question such as “Who would Jesus bomb?” the answer is usually secular, something about the World Trade Center or Saddam Hussein, but NEVER does it address what Jesus said about killing and not killing. This is because Christian Zionism is a lock-tight circular logic cult with a different world view than the New Testament of Jesus Christ teaches. It makes no concessions to Jesus’ words. To deal with it you must ask a few (but not too many) pointed questions. Here are some:

Before beginning, properly identify what your friend thinks himself to be and why. Many people are in their Judeo-Christian setting for comfort, family contacts, moral acting friendships, and entertainment, three or four times a week or more. These can be reached, though they may not want to give up the comfort of the “Church.” Most think they are the norm in Christianity and everyone else is an offshoot. This is what they are told. They do not suspect that they are the cult and they do not want to hear it, so do not tell them, stick to Christ’s words and let them figure it out.

STEALING THE PHILISTINE’S HUMANITY

Judeo-Christianity’s great apostasy is that its most outspoken leaders, including the late Jerry Falwell and John Hagee, can and do ignore the example of Jesus set for us, as well as his plainly spoken teachings, whenever these examples and teachings come in conflict with the needs and desire of the political state of Israel. In so doing, they have robbed the Palestinians of their humanity.

I prefer to call those whom most call Palestinians, “the Philistines,” because this ancient word loosely ties them to a history and tribe that occupied at least a part of the land. The Philistines’ descendants today have no land, and are prisoners in the land of Judea and Samaria, that political Israel calls Palestine. Judeo-Christians, including the two giants of Christian Zionism I mentioned above, say the Philistines have no right to exist as humans because they are the wrong people in the wrong place at the wrong time and that Political Israel is “chosen” to possess the land it took by force. As one of our vigil team members who had lived there put it, “Israel wants the land but not the people.”

TAKE THE LAND AND TRASH THE PEOPLE

The problem for Judeo-Christianity is that the New Testament does not allow Israel’s tactics. The words of Jesus Himself suggest you can’t take the land and dump the people. When He said, “Blessed are the peacemakers” he was talking directly to His followers. When he told his Disciples “it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of heaven” he did not say he excluded Falwell and John Hagee. He did not say, “Blessed are the Warmakers if you need war to carry out your purpose.” Jesus simply did not provide a way out of the dilemma of being a good neighbour. When he said “love your brother as yourself” he made it clear you may not pick and choose, you must even “love (offer kindness to) your enemy.” Christian Zionism is racism; it picks and chooses who it will love and who may be hated.

In confronting Judeo-Christians we have found it best to bring out a copy of a New Testament and ask the person we are trying to convince, to show us the words in the book that justify war upon anyone. Vigil volunteers are constantly confronted with Judeo-Christians who refuse to even try to do so, but who want to talk secular opinion or about Old Testament accounts of God’s wrath on some ancient tribe or another. Our answer is usually something like this:

“Yes I also know that story, and God also told Noah to build an ark so He, God, could drown the rest of the wicked world. But God did it, and I do not recall where God ever told Noah it was Ok for him to drown his neighbours whenever he felt like it, nor did he give that authority to Noah’s sons and future generations,” or “Maybe God did order killing 3000 years ago, as the account says, but where did he convey that authority to you? You are making yourself part of political Israel’s evil acts when you justify it. You place the blood of the innocent on your hands,” or “Can you show me a single account where Jesus allowed killing of anyone. . . I know you can’t because there is not one! So how do you feel about doing it?” I have yet to have a pastor or layman accept the challenge of taking my little New Testament and show me where Jesus ever gave anyone leave to kill anyone. Some seem actually frightened by a New Testament challenge.

Our sword in dealing with any Judeo-Christian is the New Testament and it is best to have one in pocket or purse. A self-professed Christian Zionist was passed on to me in Arvada, Colorado; by a frustrated volunteer who was much too polite with this man. When I confronted him with a New Testament challenge he accused me of not believing in the “whole Bible,” and like most, he refused the challenge to examine his acts in the light of Jesus’ words.

This man like many who come out to challenge us, is a Bible scholar and he knows he can only find a tale of tribal genocide to justify being a Christian Zionist in the ancient books, not in the writings of Jesus or his followers. But he did, to his credit, read our own paper on John Hagee before he went away, and after doing so he told me, “You have made me even more a Zionist than I was.” I do not think so, but to some in Judeo-Christian churches, Zionism is a commitment that is not a Christian one.

If you will have the confidence to use the New Testament challenge you will win the debate providing the other party is not a committed Zionist and still believes Jesus is Lord. If you are patient, kind, and Christ-like (I sometimes am not, I must confess) you will win back your family member or friend. You can tow him back across the swamp (or at least get him started) from Judeo-Christianity, without drowning either of you.

This is not to say we should be patient with the leaders of Judeo-Christianity. They know what they are doing—or they should know. They must be treated as deceivers, as John the Baptist and Jesus spoke to the Pharisees as “brood of vipers.” The man who refused to talk about Jesus’ words and told me he was committed to Zionism after reading our paper knew himself well. You and I will not change him, but God may. One note of mental preparation; in many cases experienced Judeo-Christians, especially the advanced scholars and leaders, will dredge up Abraham’s promise from God and attempt to challenge you with Genesis 12:3 about “blessings and curses” and the supposed promise of the land of Israel. This often comes up first, and if so you must deal with it in full detail. Start by listening to Christian Zionist’s Roots before going any further.

ZIONISM, THE CHRISTIAN’S FINAL APOSTASY

“Apostasy” means mistakes in Christian belief and practice of such magnitude as to make it impossible to follow the precepts of Jesus the Christ. Judeo-Christian apostasy is an absolute barrier to even reading and studying the precepts that Jesus were essential for one entering into his Kingdom. How can one say he is a blessed “peacemaker” when he is supporting war in Iraq, Iran, Palestine, and Lebanon? How can one say he belongs to Jesus while relying on biblical interpretations of men who openly call for suppression and expulsion of 2.5 million Arab Palestinians from their homes? Judeo-Christians believe they are in communion with Jesus. But often they cannot face what his word says. Apostasy means the offender will be one of the “goats” in Jesus’ little pastoral scene in Matthew 25. No church member wants to be apostate, or “fallen away” as it is translated in Greek. This is why you need to tow your friend back across the swamp. If you love them, you don’t want them to remain apostate either.

The Apostle called Paul, speaking to those in the first century who were attempting to convert followers of Jesus into Judeo-Christians, had this to say: “Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith.” (Galatians 5:19-22)

I was recently a guest of a radio program. A caller told us he had been freed from the “disease” of Judeo-Christianity after many years of squirming uneasiness about being in it. But he said, his wife is still a Judeo-Christian and now she thinks him to be a “kook.” To him I say we must not give up on our families and friends who are in apostasy. It is in their best interest that we try to drag them, kicking and screaming, back to sanity. The Judeo-Christian idea of knowing Jesus is much talked about, but rarely practiced because one cannot follow Jesus if locked out of his most important commandment. On an other occasion we will discuss the significance of unusual and seemingly unChrist-like acts by church management at vigils.

The apostasy of the Christian Zionist churches can be described in one line; it believes that political Israel is the fulfillment of Biblical prophesy. Followers of Jesus believe that God fulfilled his promises to Abraham’s seed, or his descendants through Isaac. Jews believe that Jesus did not exist, or if he did exist, was a clever pretender who came to a bad end. Christian Zionism melds the two views into one ugly hodge-podge. It is wrong; it is a disease, it is a cult, Come out of her!

[in fact, the Jewish Talmud teaches that Jesus was born of a prostitute and fathered by a Roman soldier!]

INOCULATIONS: THE TRUE WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION

by Rebecca Carley, M.D.

(Carley is a Court Qualified Expert in VIDs - Vaccine Induced Diseases).

“One basic truth can be used as a foundation for a mountain of lies, and if we dig down deep enough in the mountain of lies, and bring out that truth, to set it on top of the mountain of lies; the entire mountain of lies will crumble under the weight of that one truth. And there is nothing more devastating to a structure of lies than the revelation of the truth upon which the structure of lies was built, because the shock waves of the revelation of the truth reverberate, and continue to reverberate throughout the Earth for generations to follow, awakening even those people who had no desire to be awakened to the truth.” —Delamer Duverus, as written in the preface of Behold the Pale Horse by William Cooper.

The basic truth that served, as the foundation for the mountain of lies known as vaccinations was the observation that mammals which recover from infection with microorganisms acquire natural immunity from further infections. Whenever T cells (the little Pac man cells which devour and neutralize viruses, bacteria, and cancer cells, thus conferring cellular immunity) and B cells (antibody producing cells which confer humoral immunity) are activated by various substances foreign to the body called antigens, some of the T and B cells become memory cells. Thus, the next time the individual meets up with that same antigen, the immune system can be quickly triggered to demolish it. This is the process known as natural immunity.

This truth gave birth to a belief that if a foreign antigen were injected into an individual, that individual would then become immune to a future infection. This belief, (you see the lie in the middle), was given the name “vaccinations.” What the promoters of vaccinations failed to realize is that the respiratory tract of ALL mammals (since animals are just as devastated by these inoculations with disease as are humans) contains secretory IgA (an antibody which initiates the natural God-given immune response) within the respiratory tract mucosa. Bypassing this mucosal aspect of the immune system by directly injecting organisms into the bloodstream leads to a corruption in the immune system itself. As a result, the pathogenic viruses or bacteria cannot be eliminated by the immune system and remain in the body, where they will further grow and/or mutate as the individual is exposed to ever more antigens and toxins in the environment which continue to assault the immune system. This is especially true with viruses grouped under the term “stealth adapted,” which are viruses that lack some critical antigens normally recognized by the cellular immune system.

The mechanism by which the immune system is corrupted can best be realized when you understand that the two poles of the immune system (the cellular and humoral mechanisms) have a reciprocal relationship. Thus, when one is stimulated, the other is inhibited. Since vaccines activate the B cells to secrete antibody, the T cells are subsequently suppressed. This suppression of the cell-mediated response is a key factor in the development of cancer and life threatening infections. In fact, the "prevention" of a disease via vaccination is, in reality, an inability to expel organisms due to the suppression of the cell-mediated response. Thus, rather than preventing disease, the disease is actually prevented from ever being resolved. The organisms continue circulating through the body, adapting to the hostile environment by transforming into other organisms depending on acidity, toxicity and other changes to the internal terrain of the body as demonstrated by the works of Professor Antoine Bechamp. He established this prior to the development of the "germ theory" of disease by Louis Pasteur. Pasteur's "germ theory" was a plagiarist's attempt to reshape the truth from Bechamp into his own "original" premise—the belief that germs are out to "attack" us, thereby causing dis-ease. Thus, treatment of infection with antibiotics as well as "prevention" of disease with vaccines are both just corrupted attempts at cutting off the branches of dis-ease, when the root of the cause is a toxic internal environment combined with nutritional deficiency. However, since Pasteur's germ theory was conducive to the profits of the burgeoning pharmaceutical cartels that only manage dis-ease, no mention of the work of Professor Bechamp is made in medical school curricula.

To make matters worse than the suppression of cellular immunity, which occurs when vaccines are injected, adjuvants (which are substances added to vaccines to enhance antibody response) can actually lead to serious side effects themselves. Adjuvants include oil emulsions, mineral compounds (which may contain heavy metal aluminum), bacterial products, liposomes (which allow delayed releases of substances), and squalene. The side effects of adjuvants themselves include hyperactivity of B cells leading to pathologic levels of antibody production, as well as allergic reaction to the adjuvants themselves (as demonstrated in Gulf War I soldiers injected with vaccines containing the adjuvant squalene, to which antibodies were found in many soldiers). Note that the pathologically elevated hyperactivity of antibody production caused by adjuvants also results in a distraction from the other antigens that the immune system encounters "naturally," which must be addressed to maintain health.

This hyperactivity of the humoral (antibody producing) pole of the immune system is, in this author's opinion, the sole cause of all autoimmune diseases. The only thing, which determines which autoimmune disease you develop are which tissues in your body, are attacked by auto-antibodies. If the inside lining of the gastrointestinal tract (the mucosa) is attacked by auto-antibodies, you develop leaky gut syndrome (which leads to food allergies when partially digested food particles are released into the bloodstream, are recognized as antigens foreign to the body, and elicit an antibody response against those food particles that becomes heightened every time that same food is eaten and released into the bloodstream partially digested again). Crohn's disease and colitis are also caused by auto-antibody attack on the mucosa of the GI tract itself. If the islet (insulin producing) cells of the pancreas are attacked by auto-antibodies, you develop insulin dependent (juvenile) diabetes. If the respiratory mucosa is attacked by auto-antibodies, you develop "leaky lung" syndrome where, just as with leaky gut, antigens recognized as foreign to the body which are inhaled are able to traverse the lining of the respiratory tract, causing the creation of antibodies against those antigens (usually dust, mold, pet or pollen antigens). When these substances are inhaled again, the allergic response producing constriction of the bronchioles is called asthma. If the components of the articular surface of the joints are attacked by auto-antibodies, you develop rheumatoid (or juvenile arthritis). If the skin is attacked, you develop "leaky skin" syndrome, where contact antigens which could not otherwise traverse the skin are allowed in, leading to skin allergies to contract antigens. Additionally, depending on which level of the skin is attacked by auto-antibodies, (i.e. the epidermis or dermis), you develop eczema, psoriasis or scleroderma. If the kidney tissue is attacked by auto-antibodies, you develop one of the many types of nephritis, depending on which components of renal tissue is attacked (for example, with glomerulonephritis, the basement membrane of the glomerular apparatus within the kidney (which filters blood to form urine) is attacked by auto-antibodies, thus allowing protein to escape from the serum into the urine). If you develop auto-antibodies against thyroid gland tissue, you develop Grave's disease. If you develop auto-antibodies against the tissues of the thymus gland (which is crucial in T cell production and function), you develop myasthenia gravis. If you develop auto-antibodies against the very DNA in the nucleus of all cells, you develop systemic Lupus (thus, the potential autoimmune potential of DNA vaccines being developed now is self evident; worse yet, DNA components from these vaccines can be incorporated into your DNA, leading to actual genetic changes which could cause extinction of all (vaccinated life on earth).

Hi again - by the time you read this, we should be in Brisbane, God willing, for the ACA Queensland Student Convention at Dakabin, which is on from 3 to 7 September. We will be visiting a few people on the way home. Please be aware that with us being away for a week, there will be some delays in dealing with the mail received in that time. Some new books have just arrived or are on the way. We have had some problems with equipment breakdowns, and we are waiting on some parts. Hopefully we will be on top of repairs soon. Note that we still have some VHS videos available on the 6 for $10 donation deal ($8 of which is postage!), although we are starting to get through them. Some of the DVD's which have been copied from these old videos display some of the same flickering and rolling problems, but this can't be avoided. At least, now in digital format, they should not deteriorate further.

Thank you to those who continue to write, and order and support our work; although the mail seems to have been declining for a while. If you haven't written or ordered lately, we'd like to hear from you! May our God, the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob bless you and keep you in His gracious care, and guide you in His ways,
