"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." "EVOLUTION IS WRONG"

by Pastor Don Elmore

The following is from information supplied to me by Pastor Jerry Wickey regarding the work done by his son - Jerry Wickey, Jr.

THE MACHINERY OF THE BODY

The machinery of the body is a fantastic study. Scientists are just now finding out about the body. Once the study of genetics began, scientists have begun to discover the secrets of the body regarding how the body works.

The cells of the body communicate. They talk to one another; or at least, that is what they are supposed to do. Several trillion cells—all with different jobs to do—communicating with each other.

Many of the "unseen by the natural eye" walk throughout the body. They have antennae with which they are able to communicate with other cells. Some of them are like scrubbers—they have communicated with incoming cells and know which ones they are to destroy. They travel throughout their part of the body depositing chemicals on certain cells. Some of them are like cleaners; like policemen; like maintenance men; like suppliers; like it is like a manufacturing plant.

Genetic scientists have discovered the machinery of the body. It is so complex that to even imagine that it was created without any divine help—is totally beyond the question. How could anyone believe the myth of evolution? How could any one believe that this was created from random, uncreated chance?

A SHAMEFUL DECISION OF 1950

In the year 1950, a remarkable decision was made in the land of Joseph. It was decreed that all bakeries and other manufacturers of food could only use one of the elements of yeast in their products. This seemed rather harmless—but it is now discovered that this had a hand in making the body diseased.

Inside Adam and Eve's bodies was placed a time capsule cell. This cell had the ability to shut down the body at a predetermined time. When that time came—the body began to die. In all of their descendants there can be found such a cell. All Adamic people have such a time capsule.

Genetic scientists have discovered that the body can reproduce cells that can service about 60% of the body's needs. This leaves 40% left for the body to use materials that can be made from the air, sun, water and food.

THE FOOD FOR LIFE

What food is called—"The food for life?" Benjamin Franklin wrote that he lived for two years eating just it and drinking water. Two years! He couldn't do that now. Why? Scientists have discovered it is because of the law that was made in 1950.

The food for life is BREAD. Benjamin Franklin lived for two years eating bread and drinking water. Prisoners were fed "bread and water." Now if that was done—death would soon follow. For most of our bread is dead—without the elements that once made it the food for life. (Leviticus 26:26).

Why is it that the law was made that forbids bakeries and other food manufacturers from using the full power of the yeast? They have amazingly discovered that the full component of the yeast had the ability to diagnose and complete the other 40% of the materials that was needed for a healthy body!

When one ate a food that contained this yeast, the yeast would basically analyze and then carry out the function that was necessary to keep the body in health. When one realizes the blessings and curses of God's Laws, then the mystery evaporates. For example:

"If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians; for I am that LORD that healeth thee." - Exodus 15:26

"And ye shall serve the LORD your God, and he shall bless thy bread, and thy water; and I will take sickness away from the midst of thee." - Exodus 23:25.

"Wherefore it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these ordinances, and keep, and do them, that the LORD thy God

MOVE OVER NANO-TECH SOMETHING OLD THAT IS NEW AGAIN

The smallest working electric motor that man has been able to produce is about 500 nanometers in diameter. That is one 300th the width of a human hair.

Nano-Motor built in a lab at University of California, Berkeley

Molecular sized motor built by other molecular machines found in our own bodies.

Motor built by molecular machine called ribosome. There are millions of these machines in our bodies.

Nano-Technology might become obsolete before the technology has a chance to mature. The motor on the middle (above) is only 25 nanometers in diameter but is many times more powerful. That is one 6,000th the width of a human hair.

This molecular sized motor was not built by any human technology at all. Amazingly, it was constructed one molecule at a time by another molecular machine called a ribosome. This motor has a bearing, shaft, rotor and stator. The tolerances between the bearing and the shaft are so small that a single molecule of oil could not fit. It turns when given a chemical signal and uses ATP molecules for energy. The stator undulates ions against opposing ions in the rotor to make it turn in a similar manner as DC permanent magnet motors work.

Amazingly, this motor was not constructed in a university lab. The instructions to build this machine are found in the DNA of certain strains of bacteria. Biology itself designed and has routinely constructed these motors for billions of years.

This molecular machine is one of many functional units of a ribosome. It doesn't look nearly as functional as the motor above, but it does so much more than any motor ever could. This machine works with several other machines which look very much like this one.

These molecular machines work together to read instructions that are written in DNA. The process of reading long strings of DNA instructions is complex, involving copying the DNA to mRNA and the mechanical conformation and reconformations of complex molecules working much like robot arms. All this work is done by complex molecules whose construction instructions are also stored in DNA.

By following these DNA instructions, this molecular machine, the ribosome, builds complex molecules of all kinds, including the motor you see above (right), the transparent lens of our eyes, the muscle proteins that move our arms and legs and the other molecular machines which carry on the construction process.

The precision of this "manufacturing" process is so exacting that each and every molecular machine of the same type, called protein, is constructed identically down to the placement of the last atom.

— Jerry Wickey, Jr.

shall keep unto thee the covenant and the mercy which he swore unto thy fathers.

"And the LORD will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee, but will lay them upon all those who hate thee." - Deuteronomy 7:12, 15.

Just these few verses show the reader that the LORD provided for His people (Israel) a way in which they could not be diseased. All they had to do was to keep the commandments and statutes that God had given exclusively to them.

What happened? In the United States, the people of Israel forsook the Laws of God. Most of their churches said: "The law is done away. Jesus died so that we could be free from the law."

As a result, Americans became infected by the curses of disobeying the Covenant Law. On them was placed the cancers, heart diseases, arthritis, and all the other multitude of diseases. America became the land of the living dead. (and so did the other nations of Israel).

Disease has become a way of life. Most people live through the year and expect to get sick at least a couple of times a year. They fear the diseases of Egypt. Eventually, they expect to get a disease that will greatly restrict their ability to move, or to have comfort, or even live. And the vast majority of them do receive a disease that greatly cripples them or kills them. (transplants are rampant)

When they do get sick, they don't go to the LORD first. Most don't go to the LORD at all—they go to the physician. The physician who uses the devices of the enemies of Israel.

Our food is processed. Many foods are growing in their production of being genetically modified. The farm land is not rested every seven years. Many animals are shot with hormones. Chemical additives are added to many foods to make them either attractive, better tasting, or addictive. Many foods are basically dead foods—picked too soon, with none or very little nutrition—but are very tasty.

Our LORD said that if we kept His commandments he would heal us of all diseases. Did our LORD lie to us? Did He mean what He said? Is it still true today?

Are we keeping His commandments, statutes and His judgments? Let's look at abortion. Over the last few decades where this law took effect, after Roe vs Wade, it is estimated that fifty million babies have been murdered—FIFTY MILLION. Most of these babies have been Adamic (showing blood in the face-white)[yet all we ever hear about is an alleged 6 million Jews murdered—NEVER about this 50 million! CIM]

Is GOD pleased with our actions? I think He is greatly displeased. Fifty million babies are slaughtered before they are even born. What did our LORD say to our fathers as to what He would do if we disobeyed His commands. He said that He would place the diseases of Egypt on us.

How does God do this? As abortions increased, so did the diseases of the American Nordic, Saxon, Scandinavian men, women and children. [many say that abortion or taking the contraceptive pill can ultimately lead to breast cancer]. Vaccinations, fast food restaurants, processed foods are all part of the difficulties of this problem. Food which is not nutritious; lacking in essential vitamins and minerals has become a common part of the diet.

And maybe the law of 1950 plays a great part in the giving of diseases to the Israelite people. Genetic scientists are finding more and more information that points to this as the truth of the matter.

Most Americans are not sure of what is wrong—but many are aware that something is very wrong. And, like in the Old Testament days, the pulpits are one of the major promoters of this error. In the last one hundred years, churches have changed their theology. In fact, American society has changed.

Once, no negroes were allowed to play in the major leagues. With the coming of Jackie Robinson, the color line was broken. The same situation occurred in almost every area of life. Apartheid to socialism.

Adultery became sexual relations with another woman who was not a man's wife. Now, it had nothing to do with having a sexual relationship with a woman of another race who was a stranger or foreigner, meaning a mixed-racial marriage. The churches were segregated. Society was basically segregated. Sports were segregated. The military was segregated. But slowly the story changed.

Now, America is quickly becoming a land of individuals that has no knowledge of what the difference is of the races. They believe that all people are descended from Adam and Eve. Millions of years of evolution—from a glob of mass in the jungles of Africa to black, white, brown or yellow races. They believe all are related, and all are cousins.

CONCLUSION

What nonsense! Evolution is wrong and its application is deadly. Evolution does not need the LORD. It teaches that all living beings randomly came into being over millions of years. All higher beings are related to lower forms of life. Therefore, all races are equal.

But this is wrong. God wrote that His people were elect and the receptacles of holy spirit. He gave His Law to His people ONLY. He treats His people differently than He treats other races. He claims that He is the LORD of only one race of the Bible.

The law of 1950 was perpetuated by the notion that there were millions of different very small creatures in the yeast—so there was a cry to eliminate this. They did. But what they are now discovering, is that these little "bugs" are necessary for our health.

THE OATH THAT NULLIFIES "The Truth and Nothing But the Truth" by Lamplighter

In our court system we rely on the assumption, that all parties under oath are telling the truth. Without the truth, justice would be impossible to obtain. Imagine that someone taking an oath to, "tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help me God," had previously taken another oath nullifying all of his oaths. Bizarre concept?

Read on! Should you ever be involved in a court action, to "insure" justice, there may be some additional questions you might want to add to your discovery, or disposition for the judge, attorney, parties to the action, or the members of your potential jury. This article is not intended to be prejudicial to either the Masons or the Jewish people It is merely comment on those of any race or religion who could be duped into taking such a ridiculous, un-American and dangerous oath. The following is based upon information from: Robert Walker, PO Box 301, East Berlin, Pennsylvania; an authority on the subject, who has used this information to obtain the resignation of seven judges and public officials, who did NOT want this made a matter of "Public Record."

According to the American Heritage Dictionary of the American Language, "The Kol Nidre, is the opening prayer recited on the eve of Yom Kippur, containing a declaration of annulment for all personal vows and oaths." It is based on the following declaration from the Talmud (The most wicked document on the face of the entire earth).

"He who wishes that his vows and oaths shall have no value, shall stand up at the beginning of the year and say: 'All vows which I shall make during the year shall be of no value.'"

The prayer of "Kol Nidre" is found in Vol. 8; pg 539 of the Jewish Encyclopedia. It states:

"All vows, obligations, oaths, anathemas, whether called konan, knoas, or by any other name, by which we may be bound, from this day of atonement, unto the next ... do we repent. May they be deemed absolved, forgiven, annulled, and void, thus made of no effect. They shall not bind us nor have any power over us. The vows shall not be reckoned vows; the obligations shall be not be obligatory, nor the oaths be oaths."

The same prayer may also be found almost word for word in the volume of, "Revised Festival Prayers," published in 1919 by the Hebrew Publishing Company, New York.

The Freemasons have a similar absurd dishonor for oaths. Page 183 of the Masonic "Hand-book" states:

"Whenever you see any of our signs made by a brother Mason, and especially the 'Grand Hailing Sign' of distress, you must always be sure to obey them, even at the risk of your life. If you're on a jury, and the defendant is a 'Mason' and makes the 'Grand Hailing Sign,' you must disagree with your brother jurors, if necessary, you must be sure NOT to bring the Mason 'guilty,' for that would bring disgrace upon your order. You must 'conceal' all 'crimes' of your brother Masons; except murder and treason, and these at your own 'option,' and should you be summoned as a witness against a brother Mason, be always sure to shield him. prevaricate, don't tell the truth in this case, keep his secrets, forget the important points. It may be 'perjury' to do this, but you are keeping your 'pure-obligations.' (The maxim for following such a deceitful practice must be: "Custom is NOT drawn into consequence."—Black's Law Dictionary; 2nd; page 25, 1910)

In October of 1983, Roger Rush of Portland, Maine was sued by Zane's Department Store through its assignee, the G.E. Credit Corporation. Rush, who had been researching the oaths that Masons take, knew the judge and attorney were Masons and utilized the information in his defense. In the depositions for the Equity Discovery Proceeding, Rush presented a copy of the previously cited page of the Mason's Handbook and presented the following questions to be answered under oath:

1. Are you, Robert A. Cohen, a Mason?
2. Is the judge hearing this matter a Mason?
3. Is/are the owners of G.E. Credit Corporation Mason?
4. Has anyone involved in this matter taken an oath of "Kol Nidre"?

Within a few days, Rush received a terse, two-sentence letter from attorney Cohen stating:

"We have decided not to enter the complaint brought against you in regard to Zane's Department Store. There will be no court record."

In the very words of Albert Pike, a leading Mason:

"We intend to destroy all of Christianity."

"Mithras was the Sun-God of the Persians; and was fabled to have been born in a grotto or cave, at the Winter Solstice. His feast was celebrated at the period, at the moment, when the sun commenced to return Northward, and to increase the length of the days. This was the great Feast of the magian religion. The Roman Calendar, published in the time of Constantine, at which period his worship began to gain ground in the Occident, fixed his feast-day on the 25th of December."—page 587m; Morals and Dogma.

"As the Sun bent Southward toward that void, they shuddered with dread: and when, at the Winter Solstice, he again commenced his Northward march, they rejoiced and feasted; as they did at the Summer solstice, when most he appeared to smile upon them in his pride of place. These days have been celebrated by all civilized nations ever since. The Christian has made them feast-days of the church, and appropriated them to the two Saints John; and Masonry has done the same."—page 595m; Morals and Dogma.

"The Sun was figuratively said to die and be born again at the Winter Solstice; the games of the Circus, in honor of the invincible God-Sun, were then celebrated, and the Roman year, established or reformed by Numa, commenced."—page 464l; Morals and Dogma.

"The Spiritual light was withdrawn from man by Sophia, and the world surrendered to the influence of evil; until the spirit, urged by the entreaties of Wisdom, induced the Supreme Being to send Christos to redeem it. Compelled, despite himself, by his Mother, Ialdabaoth caused the man Jesus to be born of a Virgin, and the Celestial Saviour, uniting with his Sister, Wisdom, descended through the regions of the seven angels, appeared in each under the form of its chief, concealed his own, and entered with his sister into the man Jesus at the baptism in Jordan. Ialdabaoth, finding that Jesus was destroying his empire and abolishing his worship, caused the Jews to hate and crucify Him; before which happened, Christos and Wisdom had ascended the celestial regions. They restored Jesus to life and gave Him an ethereal body, in which He remained eighteen months on earth, and receiving from Wisdom the perfect knowledge, communicated it to a small number of His apostles, and then arose to the intermediate region inhabited by Ialdabaoth, where, unknown to him, He sits at His right hand, taking from him the Soul of Light purified by Christos."—page 563l and page 564u; Morals and Dogma.

"In the mysteries of Mithras, the Sun-God, in Asia Minor, Armenia and Persia, the death of that God was lamented, and his resurrection was celebrated with the most enthusiastic expressions of joy. A corpse, we learn from Julian Firmicus, was shown the Imitates, representing Mithras dead; and afterward his resurrection was announced; and they were then invited to rejoice that the dead God was restored to life and had by means of his sufferings secured their salvation. Three months before, his birth had been celebrated under the emblem of a infant, born on the 25th of December, or the eighth day before the Kalends of January."—page 406l; Morals and Dogma.

expresses, in an incomplete and veiled manner only, the religious science of the Hebrews. The doctrine of Moses and the Prophets, identical at bottom with that of the ancient Egyptians, also had its outward meaning and its veils. The Hebrew books were written only to recall to memory the traditions; and they were written in Symbols unintelligible to the Profane. The Pentateuch and the prophetic poems were merely elementary books of doctrine, morals, or liturgy; and the true secret and traditional philosophy was only written afterward, under veils still less transparent. Thus, was a second Bible born, unknown to or rather uncomprehended by, the Christians; a collection, they say, of monstrous absurdities; a monument, the adept says, wherein is everything that the genius of philosophy and that of religion have ever formed or imagined of the sublime; a treasure surrounded by thorns; a diamond concealed in a rough dark stone.”—pages 744l and 745u; Morals and Dogma.

“One if filled with admiration, on penetrating into the Sanctuary of the Kabalah, at seeing a doctrine so logical, so simple, and at the same time, so absote. The necessary union of ideas and signs, the consecration of the most fundamental realities by the primitive characters; the Trinity of Words, Letters, and Numbers; a philosophy simple as the alphabet, profound and infinite as the Word; theorems more complete and luminous than those of Pythagoras; a theology summed up by counting on one’s fingers; an Infinite which can be held in the hollow of an infant’s hand; ten ciphers, and twenty-two letters, a triangle, a square, and a circle. —these are all the elements of the Kabalah. These are the elementary principles of the written Word, reflection of that spoken Word that created the world!”—page 745m; Morals and Dogma.

“In every age, its device has been, “Liberty, Equality, Fraternity,” with constitutional government, law, order discipline and subordination to legitimate authority—government and not anarchy.”—page 220m, ibid.

Position of conventional medicine:

1. Water is bad for you.
2. Sunlight is bad for you.
3. Nutritional supplements are worthless.
4. Herbs are dangerous and might kill you.
5. Meditation and prayer has no health benefits.

What they recommend:

1. Poison your body with chemotherapy.
2. Slather your skin with sunscreen that blocks your body’s production of vitamin D.
3. Take medications that cause permanent liver damage.
4. Drink processed beverages and eat processed, cooked foods.
5. “Manage” your biochemistry with medication, not nutrition.
6. Have your breasts surgically removed to prevent breast cancer.

THE LARGEST CHURCH IN THE WORLD

The world has experienced a new church. It had on March 3, 2008, its first day of service, three-hundred-thousand members. Now they have 2,000,000 members. It fits because we are living in a new age society.

They believe:

1. Who you are requires no belief.
2. Heaven is not a location, but it refers to the inner realm of consciousness.
3. There was on the cross an archetypal image. He is in every man and every woman.

On the website of their leader they teach:

1. My mind is part of God. I am very holy (i.e. as in ‘pious’ not as in ‘separated.’)
2. My holiness is my salvation.
3. My salvation comes from me.
4. Let me remember there is no sin.
5. The only message of the crucifixion is that you can overcome the cross.
6. Do not seek the pathetic error of “clinging to the old rugged cross.”

This is the church and movement of Oprah Winfrey. This church of the new age is under her leadership. She recently totally denied that Jesus was the exclusive way to salvation. She stated that there were millions of ways to God. In fact, she said, “You don’t have to even call him God. You could call him other names, such as Light.”

She talks about when she was twenty-seven or twenty-eight years old and attending a Baptist Church. She said that the preacher was giving a sermon about God: He was omnipresent, omniscient, and how great God was. And then he said that God was jealous. And that is when Oprah began to think that something was wrong. Is God jealous of me?

This led her to searching and finally finding new age teaching as the answer. God is a feeling experience and not a believing experience. She uses the teachings of Marianne Williamson who claims that she (Marianne) is a magical witch.

When asked if Jesus was the only son of God, she replied, “Hogwash. First of all, I believe that we are all sons of God and that we will all be like Jesus.” She also started a Peace Alliance that she wants to be part of the American way of life.

Oprah provides for the members of her church to partake in a year-long study on Williamson’s beliefs. This study was translated by a Jewish woman atheist. This in itself should disqualify it. As it is easy to tell, the study is rather dangerous to those who are trying to find out about Christianity.

Another one of her new-age teachers is Eckhart Tolle. Who is he? At twenty-nine, at the point of suicide, he said that he heard a voice say: “Don’t resist anything.” His book, A New Earth, which is fast becoming the largest selling book in history, is supported and taught each Monday night by Oprah.

She now backs Barack Obama for President of the United States. She spoke at a meeting in Iowa and said that he would be the person to bring about the change that is needed. Obviously, she believes that he will bring about the changes that are consistent with new-age theology.

What a world we are now living in. We have three potential candidates for president:

1. Hilary Clinton: Disqualified because she is a woman.
2. Barack Obama: Disqualified because he is of another race.
3. John McCain: Disqualified because of his great alliance with the Canaanites.

GROWING IRRELEVANCE IN EDUCATION

by Peter Frogley

We have been saying for many years that education as promoted by the state is sadly lacking in structure and indeed relevance to the students it purports to be educating.

It has become an industry—a self-perpetuating industry—whose main function is to ensure its inadequate future. The training and equipping of students to become citizens of the nation has tended to become a secondary goal. The state should be training citizens of the kingdom of God, but its humanistic orientation results in it training citizens of political correctness; creatures of a godless state and nation. State education by its very nature is irrelevant in terms of the purpose and plan of God for our nation.

From time to time we read articles in the newspapers written by journalists who perceive there is something very wrong with our educational system. I read one such article recently in the Daily Telegraph titled Reading, Writing and All Things Irrelevant by Bruce McDougall:

“The social engineers are hard at it again in our schools. Now they have added gambling studies to the endless list of non-core subjects required to be addressed in a day that is something less than six hours long.”

POLITICAL CORRECTNESS

Why is it that our educators have embraced these peripheral issues? As Christians we need to understand what motivates or drives these people. It seems to me the fundamental premise by which these people work is to ask, ‘What can we do in our schools to prevent antisocial behaviour in our students?’

The problem is that there is no end to the programs that could be developed to protect children and assist them to make their way in life in a manner which is considered politically correct. A problem with political correctness is that it must change from time to time as there is no absolute value system on which it is based. (It would be a wonderful brainstorming exercise to dream up new options for our schools, to add to the list below).

The unfortunate presumption in all this is that children, and indeed their parents, are irresponsible and the state must ensure that they are fully protected from themselves. We must create a risk-free society.

One of the great scourges of this philosophy is the rise of litigation, which is based on the notion that people are not responsible for themselves and need to blame someone else for the dilemmas they face in life. Frankly, such self-centredness is very logical if God is taken out of the equation, but it ultimately creates an untenable and unworkable society that will eventually collapse in on itself.

McDougall goes on to present a list of programs teachers are meant to teach in addition to the courses one might reasonably expect should be taught in a school. It has become quite impossible for teachers to cope with the volume of programs they are expected to teach. In practice imperative programs lose their politically correct status and are replaced by new imperative programs to ensure that teachers are almost able to manage:

“Across the state, teachers’ cupboards are bulging with ‘resources’ on road safety, personal health, obesity, safe foods, civic pride, values, drugs and alcohol, multi-culturalism, child protection, life skills, bullying and anti-homophobia. There’s even a program now to teach rugby league in primary classrooms, promoting NRL players as role models for students. — Not long ago it was recommended students be taught how to prepare for bushfires.”

It has become so ridiculous that those of us who are approaching retirement age wonder how we have been able to survive thus far in life, when we had little or none of these protective programs to assist us in life. I am sure many have seen the comic lines describing the way of life in the past and posing the question of how we ever survived.

It does seem that it is impossible to protect people from themselves. You may remember how governments introduced crash helmets for motor cyclists, but they allowed many riders to do even more foolish things and be able to injure or even kill themselves in a more bizarre fashion (incidentally, some may recall complaining about riders having to wear helmets and some jesting that it would perhaps be a good idea if cyclists wore helmets, too!). Where does do-gooderism end? And the answer of course is that it doesn’t. Ask any government regulators and you will find they still have a plethora of new measures up their long sleeves to protect us from every imaginable risk—whether you want to be protected or not.

WHAT SCHOOLS DO

“It is generally accepted schools should spend at least 80 percent of their time on key subjects of the curriculum, while the remaining 20 percent is shared between an exhaustive list of other activities.”

There may be some debate about the proportion of 80 percent, but nevertheless it seems a reasonable guide. What is sometimes more difficult to assess is what constitutes a ‘key’ subject. Without going into that debate and revealing my inadequacy in educational jargon, I will assume for Christian education that Bible, English, Maths, Science, History and Geography are key subjects; whilst Art, Music, Craft, Physical Training and others fill the complement of subjects. If those subjects are going to be taught in any worthwhile manner there will be a full timetable!

It is true that many of the extra programs can be fitted into existing subjects without detracting from their main thrust. For example, health can be included in science or craft courses. In addition, many of the programs that are foisted upon schools cover areas of parental responsibility and should be left with parents. I do realize that perhaps a growing number of parents are delinquent in fulfilling their responsibilities, but this does not give schools the right to infringe on family responsibility.

NEGLECT OF BASICS

“As extra programs have intruded into school timetables and as teachers have moved to becoming learning clinicians, rather than instructing teachers we have noted a diminishing competency in basic skills.”

Governments love to trumpet the success stories of the education system but thousands of students are still struggling with basic work such as reading, comprehension and numeracy.

All the results indicate a diminishing of standards in basic subjects. It is not that children are dumber today; it is the way education has organised itself. There are three fundamental points including the one discussed in this newspaper article that contribute to the dumbing down of standards.

1. Introduced too many programs. — We live in the so-called ‘information age’ and schools have sought to provide more information for students without organising information in achievable packages. Along with this has gone the thinking that we must protect children from every conceivable danger posed by life. A noble idea, but one that is not practical nor achievable given the effect of sin in the world and a responsibility that is primarily that of the parents.

2. Rejected absolutes of God — Philosophically education has long ago rejected the idea of a sovereign God who rules the world through the absolute values He has set down in His Law. Having dispensed with Him we are left with ourselves and the religion of man—Humanism. So our educational program is built on the premise of what is good for me—assuming we can know what is good for us without God. Thus as we keep changing the meaning of ‘good,’ we keep changing the school program, to the point we could suggest the god of education is change. Change is good because it employs many people reorganising the chairs on the ill-fated boat—thus keeping afloat the enormous educational bureaucracy.

3. Removed effective discipline — Discipline is order—godly order—and thus has been eliminated from schools and homes to be replaced by threat and bribe. Discipline involves training according to an established order. If one does not believe in order than there is nothing to discipline. The Bible is a book of discipline—discipline of our lives according to the Word and Law of God through the power of the Holy Spirit. For there to be effective discipline there needs to be effective sanctions against those who refuse to conform to the order. The sanctions presented to us in the Bible are corporal discipline and the ultimate sanction—death. Our society has rejected these sanctions, so there is no sanction to prevent children doing whatever they want. We call it ‘doing your own thing’ and in God’s eyes that is rebellion. As this is the current value of society it is little wonder that we are lacking in discipline and thus godly order in our lives.

78FRUSTRATED PRINCIPALS

“For some time principals have feared their schools are becoming a dumping ground for programs that amount to little more than ‘social engineering.’ A few years back one school leader calculated that more than 60 extra education tasks were proposed in a 12-month period—most of them by politicians or community interest groups.”

These principals have understood what is going on. Social engineering—the changing of values, behaviours and hopefully attitudes of children to be conformed to that which is politically correct. Principal’s generally do not want to be social engineers—they want to teach children. All of this is a reflection on parents and families who have, often unwittingly, accepted by their inaction that the state has the right to provide social engineering as a key subject in schools. In the process their children have been engineered and parents are left wondering what has happened to their child(ren). Parents, you cannot afford to leave your children in a place of risk at the mercy of social engineers. In the short term you will not change the schools so it is important that you place your children in a safe environment. A state school is not a safe environment and you cannot assume that because a school has Christian in its title or ethos that its practice is Christian in any biblical sense. Choose a good Christian school, or HOME EDUCATE your children. Remember, they are your responsibility to be trained in godliness and do not allow them to become a victim of social engineering and political correctness!

THE STANDARD

With good intention governments have attempted to halt the slide in academic standards by introducing standard tests. Quite a good idea, but one which I predict will be largely unsuccessful. But let our journalist comment on this:

“Over the next three days a million students in years 3,5,7, and 9 will sit the first national assessments in literacy and numeracy. In a country as wealthy and healthy as Australia, good results will be expected. But our children and their teachers could be going into these tests ill-prepared. Maybe Prime Minister Kevin Rudd needs to call another 2020 summit to work out exactly how schools should be spending their precious time. Before all the programs piling up on their desk collapse under their own weight.”

NO ARTIFICIAL COLOURS OR FLAVOURS

by Peter Frogley

Previously we explored the ‘alphabet diseases’ and how these are being successfully treated by naturopaths, such as Dr. Michael Sichel.

At this time we look at an article by professor Andrew Kemp of Westmead Children’s Hospital in Sydney, which indicates that mainstream medicine is also recognising the part diet plays in so many of today’s health issues.

ADDITIVES

“Removing artificial colours and preservatives from the diets of children with ADHD should be considered a first-line treatment to reduce hyperactivity, a child specialist says. Professor Andrew Kemp from the Children’s Hospital at Westmead, in Sydney, says there is good scientific evidence that preservatives and colourings increased hyperactive behaviour.”

We would suggest that artificial colours and preservatives should be removed from all out diets, but this article is simply addressing ADHD. Food additives have been introduced to prolong shelf life; to provide flavour to processed, flavourless food and to make the food look better.

The list of chemical additives to food is endless and many are petroleum by-products. Some have been shown to be carcinogenic, but few are ever pulled from the market. Let’s look briefly at a couple of these additives:

Monosodium Glutamate (MSG) is a flavour enhancer which is an extract of wheat or corn glutens. Provides a meaty taste where little or no meat is present and has a preservative effect.

Synthetic vitamins and minerals which are added to attract health conscious consumers. These are toxic, useless to the body and made primarily from coal tar by-products.

Emulsifiers make products softer and fluffier. However, they reduce nutrient quality by up to 20% and contribute to several serious medical conditions.

Stabilisers are added to improve texture and keep quality. They are used in thickening agents in ice creams, baby foods, cakes, etc. Again these chemicals contribute to various conditions.

Many parents are not aware of these facts and continue to feed their children 'foods' which may cause significant harm and which are shown to be major contributors to behavioural problems.

DRUGS STILL FLAVOUR OF THE MONTH

"However, parents of kids with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD) were rarely encouraged to make dietary changes.

'Three main treatments are available for hyperactivity in children—drugs, behavioural therapy and dietary modification,' Prof Kemp wrote in the British Medical Journal.

'Interestingly, the use of drugs and dietary modification is supported by several trials, whereas behavioural therapy, which is presumably thought necessary for adequate treatment, has little or no scientifically based support.'"

Despite the evidence much medical practice has continued down the well-worn path of prescription drugs, whilst parents are increasingly turning to alternative options.

NATURAL APPROACH INCREASINGLY FAVOURED

"He said eliminating colourings and preservatives was wrongly regarded by some as an 'alternative treatment' rather than a standard treatment, like drugs, for ADHD.

By contrast, alternative medicines that were regarded with suspicion by many medical practitioners were used widely by up to half of ADHD families, Prof Kemp said.

Medical authorities are increasingly likely to turn to alternatives rather than the standard drug therapies as the inherent dangers of such drugs is becoming more and more obvious. This is good news, but parents should be aware that this good news takes some time to filter down to GPs and the like, so it is important to insist on help in taking a natural route to endeavour to assist children with behavioural difficulties.

"A recent trial in almost 300 British children without ADHD showed that eating a mixture of food additives, equivalent to that found in two 56 gram bags of sweets, significantly increased hyperactivity.

Prof Kemp said there was a strong case for trialling elimination in ADHD kids given the evidence, the harmless nature of such intervention and the large number of children taking drugs for hyperactivity."

For many the dangers in ingesting food additives has been known for many years, so it is very heartening for them that current research is increasingly supporting their warnings. The challenge for the rest of us is to be willing to make the necessary changes in diet. This should be easy, but in fact we have become addicted to many of these processed foods with their additives and it is often a painful experience to make the change. For the future health of our children, however, it is a sacrifice well worth making!

THE JUDGMENTS OF GOD by Everett Ramsey

[I am deeply concerned about events in our upcoming election and the path our nation is taking. Recently I spent some time alone with God and the current writing here is the result. I am not saying it is inspired as the Bible, but it is definitely burned into my soul by the holy spirit. God is faithfully calling our people back to Him and His Law. Our people are being led by pastors who are perverting the Word and the message. The churches are empty shells containing many of God's Elect who will suffer because of the failure of the shepherds. I recommend that you do something to get you away from the cities and metropolitan areas quickly if trouble starts. Shore up an alternative food supply. The sudden death of men like Tim Russet and the extreme weather and natural disasters are not accidental. God is angry and He will have the last say. Many of God's people are so deeply entangled in the economic, medical and political web of sin in this nation that when God finally judges it, they will perish. Pastor Ramsey.]

From the Courts of The Almighty against His Elect, regathered in their new lands.

To the Elect, the Seed of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob/Israel called Christians by some and Gentiles by others; regathered in their new lands as prophesied by My servant, Nathan, among the isles and in the wilderness across the great sea, in their many nations multiplied as the sand of the sea and the stars of the sky as promised by Covenant to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob/Israel.

I am the LORD God Almighty, the ever-living, anointed sovereign, King and Ruler over the Whole House of Jacob/Israel; and I have somewhat against you. - Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, you have moved me to jealousy with that which is not God; you have provoked me to anger with your vanities: and I will move you to jealousy with those which are not a people; I will provoke you to anger with a foolish nation. - O Arabian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their hand is mine indignation. I will send him against a hypocritical nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge.

Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, my anger has come up before my face because of your sins. I took you as my own from among all peoples of the world to bless you above all nations. As stated by my prophets and apostles of old, you are the apple of my eye.

I gave you a heart of flesh and not stone that I might write My law upon your heart. I gave you My perfect Law, commandments, statutes and judgments along with prophets, priests and pastors to teach you and lead you in green pastures of my blessings.

But you have rejected my pastors, prophets and priests because you have rejected my law, my word, my commandments, statutes and judgments. You have rejected me and you have come to love and worship other gods by the practice of their law. You have done all this sin in spite of the fact that I have told you not to learn the way of the heathen.

Because you are my sons, my people by My choice, not yours and because you are in covenant with Me by My will, my power and I have put My spirit in you, thus saith the Lord, you are obligated to keep my commandments, statutes and judgments. My Laws have not been done away with or nailed to the cross as taught by many who call themselves the Called of God, who aren't. I plainly taught you and recorded in My Word for you while walking on this earth, that not one jot or tittle shall be taken from My Laws as long as the sun and moon and stars shall shine.

I warned fathers, prophets, leaders and pastors not to omit the teaching of My Law to your children and grandchildren ... I stated that least in the kingdom will be he who refuses to teach men these laws and greatest in the kingdom will be those who teach men these laws. You are a chosen people a nation of priests and I have predestined you to be conformed to My image and you shall be.

Because you are bound by Me and these laws, I will hold you accountable and punish you for your sins against these laws as promised through My prophets. Those who are my sons obey My commandments, statutes and judgments, My apostles stated so many times and recorded these truths for my people for ever.

I am about to unleash my fury upon you and your nations even now after having sent you many prophets, whom you rejected, scoffed and called racist, haters, anti-Semites and bigots and even now plan their demise. You who call yourselves My sons have joined with your rulers and scribes to persecute and defame My servants in the minds of the saints.

I have sent you warnings by My hand with floods, earthquakes and natural calamities in your nations as well as heathen lands and even allowed your sister nations of my elect in the land of Africa to be completely destroyed and removed as a sign and warning to you, but you have refused to listen and hear, you refuse to repent and now your candle is near unto destruction. I come now this one last time to call you to repentance and obedience.

Thus saith the Lord, these are the commandments you have violated, and my grievance against you. I command you to acknowledge that you are My elect and that you have trespassed against Me and My commandments, statutes and judgments. I further command you to confess your sin of trespass against My laws, repent and return unto Me by the power of My spirit within you to obey Me.

Thou Shalt have NO other Gods before (or beside) Me.

How have we violated this law, you ask?

I am your God and you are MY people. There is NO other god. As I have stated many times in My Word that your worship of Me, your love for Me, your acceptance of Me as your God is not by words in prayers or outward exercise of rituals in singing, worship, teaching and play acting that you call worshipping Me. Rather, your evidence that I am your God and you are My people is by OBEDIENCE to my Laws, commands, statutes and judgments. If I be your God, then obey My commandments, statutes and judgments. Why call me Lord, Lord and do not the things I command you?

But you have chosen to praise and worship Me in song, by mouth, by words which are no worship at all without obedience; and have rejected My laws, commandments, statutes and judgments by obeying the laws, commandments and judgments of the governments of men and their judges!

You quote my Apostle Paul's statements to the Romans about submission to the higher powers as being to the governments of men, when you know full well that My servant Paul was jailed and persecuted for doing the opposite. How can My sons who are under covenant obligation to obey me and My laws, obey the laws of the land even if they cause you to reject Me and My laws? This makes you hypocrites, sinners and puts you in danger of the judgment that is about to come upon you and remove you from the book of the Living.

Once, when you were young as nations and loved my commandments, statutes and judgments you were prosperous, healthy and a picture of righteousness. The nations of the heathen flocked to you for advice, a taste of your goodness and your help.

Now you reject my commandments, statutes and judgments and the heathen make fun of Me your God; hate you and try to destroy you. Yet you cannot understand what is wrong. I send you preachers and prophets to expose your sins and you reject them as you reject Me. To shame Me before the heathen. All nations who reject Me and My commandments, statutes and judgments shall be cast into the grave of nations and their people shall be destroyed by sword, sickness, disease, natural disaster and brutal leaders. This is you, oh House of Israel, called Christian in all your nations in the isles and across the sea.

Is this not what is happening to you? Are you not now being destroyed? Are your people not dying of the illnesses and diseases of Egypt and the heathen? Are you not being killed in battles by the sword? Are you not being made poor by high taxation (and Greenhouse gas taxes, fuel taxes) that your labors are stolen and redistributed to the wicked (and non-Christian immigrants)? Are you not now being ruled by alien and ungodly rulers?

Are your wages not being destroyed through the inflation of evil paper (plastic) money instead of silver and gold? Are you not being ruled over by children and women? Are you not being killed, ruled and controlled by your own children who rebel against you because you rebel against Me?

Are you not being made to toil for the necessities of life by heathen leaders in your countries and out of your countries? Is it not true that your own leaders whom you have chosen against My will now build large killing camps for those of you who know Me and have My spirit within you, under the name of "Home Land Security" and "The Patriot Act". Don't you know that you are about to become their prey as described by My prophet Ezekiel?

Is it not true as Moses said, that when you forsake My commandments, statutes and judgments, the aliens among you shall prosper and rise above you and rule over you? That the work of your hands, the fruit of your wombs and the labour of your hands will be cursed, eaten away, and destroyed? This is now your lot, because you have rejected Me and My commandments, statutes and judgments of the New Covenant.

Repent, for the time is short, the hour is near that you will soon be removed from the land of the living. I am your only hope. Trust not in your kings, presidents, prime ministers, rulers and judges, for they have not the power to save you. Trust not in your armies and great ships at sea, and planes in the air for they have not the ability to save you.

I, even your God have prospered the wicked and raised them up and brought them against you; that they might be pricks in your sides and goads to your minds and hearts to cause you to hear My Word and return to My commandments, statutes and judgments. No other forms of worship will I accept.

Remove your songs and choruses of praise and worship. Remove your services of church which do not stand in My counsel and proclaim not My Word.

Remove your offerings of evil legal tender which cost you nothing and your rulers reimburse (501-C, 3 - tax-exemption). They are as stench in My nostrils, and make Me sick.

Bring Me the silver and gold of righteousness and obedience; bring Me the refined metal of your heart after it has burned in the fires of My Word and Spirit. Bring Me your soul contrite and broken by the tears of repentance and cleansed by My atoning blood sacrifice. If you want My blessing on your nations again, then stop rebelling against your Maker, your Saviour and your God by submitting to and obeying My commandments, statutes and judgments and start teaching them in your homes, your schools, your offices of administration, your churches, your houses of judgment, your business places in all your land.

Throw out the laws of men and once again make My Laws the laws of the land and your courts dispensers of Justice. Cease to send missionaries who go to people who are not Mine and cannot become Mine, to preach them a false gospel of false hope that these aliens who are not My people can become My Covenant people by some simple prayer or belief by their choosing.

I came to seek and to save My lost sheep, not goats. I do not promise to make sheep out of goats. But the sin is that light has come to My sheep, but they prefer darkness. When you were young and born again for Me and My law, I made you the head of nations. But lo, you now trust your power as a nation and no longer trust me, your God. (You venerate men who teach that you evolved from slime and monkeys).

Repent and return to Me and My Laws, trust in Me and I will do you good again.

Believing I am God does not make Me Your God. Stop telling people who are not My people that they can pray a (sinner's) prayer and obligate Me to give them the inheritance of My elect. My elections were made before the foundation of the world and are unchanging.

Without My Spirit drawing them and burning them with contrition of new birth they cannot be Mine. For you to tell them otherwise, you lie to them and do them a great sin. My commandment was to “go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel” and “teach them whatsoever Laws I have commanded you, not get them to pray a meaningless prayer.

My enemies have done a good job of convincing you that my called and anointed prophets and pastors should not deal with political, government and economic issues. It is My Laws, statutes and judgments that build a wall of protection around you from your enemies and also bring My blessings upon you, your families and your nation.

Getting these heathen to accept Me mentally and then call them New Covenant Christians is a lie, This does not enable Me to rule through them for I have no place in them for My Word and My spirit. I told My enemies that in Jerusalem when I walked there. This is how you have sinned against Me in this law.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

How have we violated this Law you ask? - You have violated this Law by allowing aliens and strangers to enter this land with their gods, building temples, idols, icons and symbols which are graven images for them. You have shamed Me by going into other lands where I have destroyed the icons and idols of their gods and have with the blessings I have given you, rebuilt those idols as the idol of Buddha after the tidal wave in Asia and the earthquake of China and other heathen lands. You also do the same in your own lands where I have destroyed the gods of the parades and the city of sin. Did you repent? No! You planned and worked with vigour to rebuild the parades and the sin city.

Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon your sister nations of South Africa, Rhodesia, the heathen nations over the sea and upon all the cities of regathered Jacob/Israel; and, behold, even this day their cities and countries are filled with violence, filled with crime, desolate with slums and no man walks there without fear; yet you refuse to repent and turn to Me. Because of your wickedness which you have committed to provoke Me to anger, in that you allow, encourage and endorse the practice of aliens and foreigners to enter your lands, serve other gods, allow aliens to rule over you, and you give your daughters and sons to them in marriage, whom I know not! Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.

But you reject My servants. You say My pastors and prophets do not fit your beliefs. You say My pastors and prophets do not give your churches a good reputation. This is another cause I have against you. These churches are supposed to be My churches, you claim that they are, you boast that they are My churches, yet you refuse My pastors and prophets to speak and teach in them. Again, you are a hypocrite. You are not My sons. You are not My people.

But you refuse to hear my words or incline your ear to turn from your wickedness, to practice diversity of gods, religions and peoples among you in your nations in your churches and in your families. Your pulpiteers who claim to be called of Me, who are not, even they urge My people in the churches to commit the sin of mixture and diversity and loving that which I hate. Wherefore My fury and Mine anger is being poured forth, and is being kindled in the cities of Jacob/Israel and in the streets of New Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, filled with violence at this day; even as in the day of Noe.

Know ye not that the flood came because the mixing was total except in Noe who was saved because his generations were pure. His day was a day of violence. This is all written in the First Books of Moses. Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of your nations, to leave you none to remain by forsaking My Laws, the Laws of the New Covenant. I still have a remnant who have not bowed to this evil of Baal and all its evil of fornication, adultery and killing of the babies in the womb and out.

You provoke Me unto wrath with the works of your hands, building temples and idols unto other gods in the land of the tidal waves and in all your own lands and nations, and have become a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Israel, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which you have committed in the land of regathered Israel, and in the streets of New Jerusalem; the evil of allowing the stranger alien foreigner not of your seed, to rule over you in the place of the Levites, the priests and the judges. Even now you are about to reject Me and My Law by choosing one not of your brethren to rule in your highest office (Obama)

Am I not justified to be angry with you and judge to and punish you and remove you from the land of the living? You are not humbled even unto this day, neither have you feared, nor walked in My law, nor in My statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. Therefore, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all who refuse to repent in the new lands of regathered Israel. Yet all you men which know all this and have been warned have responded to my prophets and pastors and answered saying: 'As for the word that has been spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken.'

You have chosen your path to love that which I hate, reject My Law which commands you to remove all temples, idols, icons and symbols of other gods from the land, therefore, I will reject you and remove you from the land. You have said we will certainly do whatsoever we desire, to worship the Masonic Queen of Heaven, Ishtar, by loving and approving of a diversity of ethnic and cultural people who worship a diversity of gods, as we have done; we, and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Jacob/Israel, and in the streets of New Jerusalem: for she gives us plenty of victuals, and wellness, and protects us from evil.

Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, the icon, idols and symbols of the Masonic Queen of Heaven, Ishtar, you built in the cities of the Jacob/Israel nations, and in the streets of New Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, have not I the LORD remembered them, and it not into My mind? So that I the LORD could no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land filled with violence and sickness and death and fear of living. And your land is about to become desolate, and astonishment, and a curse, inhabited by aliens, foreigners and a people whom neither I know nor they know Me; all because you have forsaken Me and My law, commandments, statutes and judgments.

Because ye have allowed these icons, idols and symbols of other gods in the land, and because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in His law, nor in His statutes, nor in His testimonies; therefore this evil is even now coming upon you at this day. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to approve and promote and worship the Masonic Queen of Heaven, Ishtar, and to build and use her symbols and icons: I say ye shall surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows and shall not be rescued from them.

Therefore hear ye the word of the LORD, all regathered Jacob/Israel that dwell in the land; Behold, I have sworn by My great Name, saith the LORD, that My Name shall no more be named in the mouth of any such man of Jacob/Israel in all the land, saying, The Lord GOD lives.

Behold, I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Jacob/Israel who refuse to repent and return to Me that are in the land shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. And all the symbols, icons, temples and peoples who serve other gods shall indeed be removed from the land along with those who refuse to repent and return unto my laws, commandments, statutes and judgments.

This is how you have sinned against this law of Mine.

HEADLINE NEWS FROM THE BIBLE

by pastor Dave Barley

2 Timothy 3:1-7 "This I know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth."

We really do not need news reporters from the alphabet networks to tell us what news is appropriate for us to read. The news creators do not just report the news; they create the news and mold public opinion around their news to pervert knowledge. The news bureaucracy is today's corrupt TREE OF THE KNOWLEDGE OF GOOD AND EVIL. To some people, I suppose that referring to the news creators as liars is too strong of a term, but for most of them it is a fact. The Word of God is not shy about referring to liars as liars or worse. Understand that when the Bible uses the various terms and adjectives to describe various ungodly people, such as "TRAITORS," it is not referring to traitors against the federal government of the United States of America, but traitors against the Kingdom of God. Verse 4 goes on to describe them as: HEADY, HIGH-MINDED, LOVERS OF PLEASURES MORE THAN LOVERS OF GOD," and so forth.

I'm sure that you are all aware that the sodomite-loving State Supreme Court of Cali-fornicator, recently ruled that same-sex perverters can now get 'married' in the state of California legally. The anti-Christ media (and let's face it, that's what they are) is gleeful and gay as they can be about this abomination. San Francisco (sicko) mayor, Gavin Newsom gayfully united sodomites in "marriage."

This is no laughing matter. This is getting about as serious as it can get, and Christians had better get their heads out of the sand, wake-up, and draw a line in the sand. This is a line which true Christians must not cross over. The enemy and the battle is staring us right in the face and I want to assure you, that we had better put on the whole armor of God. Not in part or in half, but the whole armor of God, and let us stand against the wiles of the "devil."

I was listening to a sermon by Pastor Emry the other day, and he said in an abbreviated worm, "The Bible says, Thou shalt have no other gods before me." Then he added, "this does not mean that because the heathen nations believe that there are other gods, that they literally exist. What it does mean, is that they are dangerous beliefs that we must guard against. We must not believe in them or fear them, because fear is a powerful component of faith which provides evidence of strong belief in something. These little 'g' gods are 'no gods,' and if we believe in these other gods (good or evil), then truth will become very distorted."

Remember, THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME, because in reality, there are NO OTHER GODS! What Pastor Emry is saying about "other gods," is that they embody and are a product of false worship. A person's values will become objects of their won twisted thoughts and deceived people will worship the corruption of our own vain imagination and that it is nonsense to believe other gods exist. The Bible warns us about other gods because man's carnal mind would rather believe gods of its own making that believe the only true God of the Bible. When we stand against the wiles of the devil by putting on the whole armor of God; we are not standing against a real devil god, but against false ideals, laws, policies, corrupt officials and their dogma that is at enmity with God Almighty and His Bible Word. There are no other gods except for those devils who parade themselves as gods who think they know better than the Word of God. These are "no gods" who want to control the masses by their appointed positions in the high places of man's arenas of Mystery Babylon.

As I have said before, I'm not worried about some invisible satanic spirit "no god" devil. The "spiritual wickedness in high places," is about the spiritual wickedness from the high-mindedness of man's carnal mind which is enmity with God. It's about "principalities and powers," in a bureaucratic sense (refers to corporate antichrist mentality) who conspire against Jesus Christ and His people. In a corporate form of wickedness, plotting and scheming against the Kingdom of God. I want to share the following verses which collaborate this truth of no-gods:

2 Kings 19:17-19. "Of a truth, Lord, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, save thou us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the Lord God, even thou only."

2 Chronicles 13:9. "Have ye not cast out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? So that whosoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods."

Jeremiah 2:11. "Hath a nation changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit."

Jeremiah 16:20. "Shall a man make gods unto himself, and they are no gods?"

It's not that difficult to understand. It's only the false traditions of man that makes truth confusing. Other gods do not exist except in the myths presented by men. Even when the Bible speaks of "the god of this world," its is wrongly assumed that it is speaking of the devil. But let's re-examine this passage:

2 Corinthians 4:4. "In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them."

Think about it. Traditional Judeo-Christianity teaches that "the god of this world" is the devil. However, when we rightly divide the Word of Truth, the Light reveals a truth that will set you free. Would the devil blind the minds of them which "believe not"? WHY? If they "believe not," then their eyes are already blind to the truth. However, if "the god of this world" is God Almighty, and not some devil, then our Sovereign Heavenly Father certainly can, and often will, blind the minds of those who reject Him as a form of judgment. Jesus does so, because in spiritual darkness, He will often prepare the heart of His people as a potter does with his clay. he breaks us down, and then He molds, shapes, and forms us into His image and Likeness.

Furthermore, the word "god" as used in this verse is the Greek word, "Theos," and it means "the supreme Divinity, exceeding God." All the verses of Scripture which use this word "God," or "god," is the word "Theos," which speaks of Jehovah, or Yahweh. Commentators will often refer to the "god of this world" as the devil, but they have no legal standing to do so. No matter which way they may manipulate the Greek word "Theos," it does not mean "devil." Just as Jesus hid Kingdom Truths from the crowds gathered to hear Him, but chose to reveal them only to His disciples away from the ears of the crowd, so does God Almighty conceal or hide truth from the minds of those who come to Him out of some worldly amusement.

Philippians 3:9 is very similar: "Whose end is destruction, whose god is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things."

In other words, they worship their own lusts, thoughts, and fleshly carnal desires as "god," meaning, as Yahweh, or God Almighty. They serve their own thoughts (their belly) as "God." They worship their own Kabala "creature" concepts, ideas, and values as their "god" of knowledge, or tree of knowledge of good and evil of their own making. They worship and serve the creature, more than the Creator.

Again, this word "God" is 'Theos' and not 'devil.' No devil is mentioned, but "their belly," "their shame," and "their mind," which is upon "earthly things." They are not worshipping the "devil," they are worshipping the "God" of "their belly." This is why the Bible warns us, that our carnal mind is enmity with God, not the devil.

Romans 8:7-8. "Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the Law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God."

Enmity literally means enemy. Man's carnal mind rebels against the Kingdom of God. This is what the sodomites are doing, and this is what carnally minded bureaucrats are doing as well.

Pastor Emry was not the only man to understand this powerful truth about "no gods," or no satan or devil as defined by the rapture-minded Judeo-Christianity. He was a caring man who thought more of truth and was willing to be persecuted for going against the majority concepts and traditionalism to help deliver people out of the dark ages of Vatican mythology. The larger studied evidence from God's Word clearly reveals that other gods do not exist, but their image and religious existence and corrupting purposes come from the enmity of man's mental sewage plant. Let me give you an example. Let's consider the recent "legal" decision passed by the State Supreme Court of "no god" judges in California. A University of Southern California law professor, David Cruz, stated:

"Coupled with the prospect of almost six months of same-sex couples getting married, continuing their daily lives throughout the state, letting people see that their lives haven't changed, the sky hasn't fallen and loving relationships have strengthened."

This little 'g' no god, would have everyone believing that nothing has changed, now that sodomites can get married in California. well, Mr. Law Professor, David Cruz is a liar, a man right after Obama's own heart. Things are not right in the neighbourhood of America. Fires keep destroying California. Gas prices keep rising, heavy rain and flooding, terrible tornadoes, and right when the perverse lovers were celebrating their special right to get married in California. The Mississippi River is flooding and causing great destruction, not to mention Iowa and Cedar Rapids. No professor, things are not well, and yes, the sky is falling, and no, sodomite love is not love, it's grotesque abuse and even worse is the fact that they will be transferring their abusive life-style on to the children now that the "state" will allow sodomites to raise foster children in their queer, perverse, psychotic world. What is happening is an abomination!

Columnist Brian Fitzpatrick exposed the media party-mode about "gay marriages," in his column for ONE-NEWSHOW:

"In a story headlined 'Marchers savor marriage ruling, celebrate gay pride,' the Sacramento Bee announced that 'scores of gay rights advocates rallied and marched Friday at the state Capitol - not to lament and protest, but to rejoice.' Why? Because Friday's 'second annual Sacramento Dyke March' was 'a time to savor history.'

"The Bee had nothing on The Washington Post, which shamelessly celebrated D.C.'s Capital Pride Festival. On Friday the Post put the festival on the cover of its Weekend section, with a feature story by staff writer Ellen McCarthy and a headline stating 'Pride ... brings 200,000 people to the District's gay and lesbian festival'."

When this passed, the Mississippi river crested and even flooded many towns and cities. Some parts of these floods are greater than any that have been recorded in America's history. I am absolutely certain that God Almighty is speaking to America, and that these destructive events are His judgments (not the devil's) against this nation for her perverse ways. Did you know that San Francisco Mayor, Gavin Newsom, helped launch the series of lawsuits that led the court to strike down California's one-man-one-woman marriage laws, and that he officiated the lesbian wedding of Del Martin, 87, and Phyllis Lyon, 84.

The question is, "Will the courts try to make this binding upon the churches?" Will ministers be sued for discrimination if they refuse to perform sodomite marriages? As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord and obey God rather than man. I will not sanction or ordain that which God's Word strictly forbids. I will not call that which is evil, good.

(yes, it will be binding on churches, and yes, ministers will be sued - for refusing - and now we have Hurricane Ike causing more devastation! What's next?!?! CIM)

FIGHT GLOBAL WARMING: GET A HORSE AND STERILIZE YOURSELF

by Gary DeMar

Do environmentalists have any idea what life was like when the mode of transportation was by horse-drawn carriage?

When people are pushed to live consistently with their worldview assumptions, all kinds of revelations come to light. Toni Vernelli was sterilized at age 27 to "reduce her carbon footprint" and "protect the planet."¹ If pressed, I wonder if Vernelli would decry antibiotics and peace talks to avert war. While I am saddened that she will never experience the joys of having a child, I am thankful that her "genetic footprint" stops with her. In fact, it might not be a bad thing to encourage more environmental extremists to go under the knife.

Some French towns are encouraged that the horse is making a comeback. The hope is that horse travel will lessen pollution.

"French towns worried about fuel prices, pollution and striking transport workers need look no further than the horse. Horses are a possible alternative for vehicles such as school buses and refuse trucks, say groups eager to pick up on global concerns about eco-friendly transport."²

Although the following was written in 1977, its conclusions are equally valid today. Are these people nuts? Do they have any idea what life was like when they mode of transportation was by horse-drawn carriage?

"In some respects, the car—often identified by the ecolobby as the chief villain of growth— has led to less pollution, since a 1972 United States study shows that the average-size car emits 6 grammes of pollutants per mile, while a horse emits 600 grammes of solid and 300 grammes of liquid pollutants per mile."³

Horses are constantly expelling pollutants, even when at rest. Most of us drive our cars to work where they sit for eight hours or more. Great pains are being taken to rid our air of exhaust pollutants. This is certainly a good thing. But compared to the donkey and horse, the animals Jesus and Paul rode (Matt. 21:7; Acts 9:4), the automobile is a non-polluter. Dixy Lee Ray recalls that as a child, the world in which most Americans lived "was a very smelly place. The prevailing odors were of horse manure, human sweat, and unwashed bodies. A daily shower was unknown; at most there was the Saturday night bath."⁴ Indoor plumbing was a luxury. Only a few main streets were paved, usually with cobblestone or brick. Automobiles were few and far between. Long-distance travel was by rail. Refrigeration was unheard of. If you wanted to get around, you had to have literal horse power and the pollution that went with it.

"Sanitary experts in the early part of the twentieth century agreed that the normal city horse produced between fifteen and thirty pounds of manure a day, with the average being something like twenty-two pounds (10 kilos). In a city like Milwaukee in 1907, for instance, with a human population of 350,000 and a horse population of 12,500, this meant 133 tons of manure a day, for a daily average of nearly three-quarters of a pound of manure per person per day. Or, as the health officials in Rochester calculated in 1900, the 15,000 horses in that city produced enough manure in a year to make a pile covering an acre of ground 175 feet high and breeding sixteen billion flies."⁵

The horse population of Chicago was 83,000, and this was after the automobile and electric streetcar had caused a decline in the number of urban horses. In 1880, the cities of New York and Brooklyn had a combined horse population somewhere between 150,000 and 175,000. As one can imagine, keeping the streets clean was a major problem. Some suggested that epidemics of cholera, smallpox, yellow fever, and typhoid were caused by 'a combination of certain atmospheric conditions and putrefying filth,' among which horse manure was a chief offender.⁶

The cost of keeping the streets clean was expensive. Some cities tried to recoup the cost by selling the manure for fertilizer. This caused another unforeseen problem since collecting manure was more profitable than collecting regular trash. Daily refuse often remained in the streets along with the leftover manure. What they wouldn't have given for a garbage truck and landfill back then.

Streets turned into cesspools during inclement weather. Women with long skirts suffered the worst of it. Dodging street cleaners was another hazard. There was no relief during the summer when people had to endure breathing pulverized horse manure. Modernized roads were of little help. "The paving of streets accelerated this problem, as wheels and hoofs ground the sun-dried manure against the hard surfaces and amplified the amount of dust."⁷ And there was the problem that the Atlantic Monthly described in 1886 to the theater-going public in New York City as "dead horses and vehicular entanglements."

The next time someone insists that we would do better by scrapping modern technology and buying horses or donkeys, you can paint a picture of what life was like in the streets before Henry Ford's "horseless carriage." The next wave of inventions will come and provide solutions to today's technological problems. Biodiesel, an 80-20 blend of diesel and vegetable oil, is being experimented with in school buses.⁸ Coal is being used to create a liquid fuel so clear "you'd swear it was water."⁹ It's technological challenges that spark inventive genius. If innovation is always going to be challenged because of the inevitability of downside issues, we might as well curl up in a ball and die.

REPENTANCE AND WHY IT IS NECESSARY

by the late Chuck Kuhler (VCI)

"Repentance" is a word and term which we don't hear much about in Christian worship today. Yet, it is a primary consideration for our ultimate salvation, and an action without which we will perish.

Repentance is a confession, on our part, that we are and continue to be sinners in disregard of the Laws of Yahweh. Surely, we fall short of perfection and ever since Adam suffered under the curse of sin, all mortals have suffered in a similar manner. Because of our "human nature," we are unable to refrain from sin. Ordinarily, this would condemn us to death, but for the mercy of our Heavenly Father who has promised forgiveness to all who truly repent of their sins

We can find the concept of repentance strongly emphasized in Ezekiel 18:23-32, where in essence we are told that without "repentance" we will perish. Our Saviour, Christ Jesus further revealed this condition to us in Luke's Gospel, 13:3.

It is not, as some believers think, strictly a matter of being of "Israel lineage." In a similar manner, many don't give much thought to a continual repentance, preferring to believe that "once saved - forever saved." Repentance is a matter which required a constant and continuing appeal to Yahweh for forgiveness and mercy. After all, when we have just finished our confessions, we continue to sin, and must therefore continue to repent of our erroneous and evil ways.

Peter, in his second epistle, 3:9-11 tells us "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought you to be in all holy conversation and godliness."

Let us remember to continue in true repentance and a confession of our wayward doings. "The God of our [Israel] fathers raised up Jesus, whom you slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour; for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins." [emphasis CK](Acts 5:30-31). Jesus came to redeem the House of Israel (Mat. 10:5-7; 15:22-24)

May I urge your diligence in "studying" the Word of God continuously. Don't just "read" the Scriptures (although you need to do that as well).. study them. Time is growing short, and there are storm clouds on the horizon which may soon engulf this weary world. Pray for family and friends, for this, and other ministries who labor in the vineyards and wheat fields of the Lord. get serious about your relationship with Yahweh our maker. When conditions deteriorate and this world recedes into chaos and confusion, who other than our heavenly Father will you be able to depend upon? I pray for your understanding and knowledge of what God requires of you. For all that you have and all that you are, you should thank the Almighty One of Israel. Let us continue to strive for Yahweh and for His Son, our Saviour, Jesus the Anointed, in the forthcoming months, and while time remains. - Courtesy VCI, Virginia.-----
