"THEY STOLE YULE FROM US"

by Pastor Don Elmore

Witches, wizards, Jesuits, Freemasons, Baal worshippers, Zionists, New Agers, Hindus, Unitarians, and all the rest of the like multitudes are upset by "Christians" stealing their calendar and adulterating their holidays. Their yearly calendar "Yule" consisted of eight Sabbaths (see further on for a more detailed list of these days of human sacrifice):

1. Yule
2. Inblog
3. Ostrara
4. Belthaine
5. Lithia
6. Lughnasadh
7. Mabon
8. Samhain

These Sabbaths have been in existence for many centuries—even before the birth of our Saviour. With the establishment of the apostate church, it didn't take long until the counterfeit church had adulterated the holidays and even gave them new names and rituals.

For example, Samhain, the largest human sacrifice day of the year, its name was changed to Halloween. So frightening and brutal had this day been when the Druid priests would go to the castles and mansions in the countryside, all dressed up in different costumes and masks, and yell, "Trick or Treat."

If the head of the family, the husband, cooperated with the Druid priests, then he would give them either from his own or from his servants—to become one of the dozens of human sacrifices for that evening. If he failed to cooperate, then the trick was that the Priests would take a goat and cut it so that they could get its blood and then draw a hexagon (2 interlaced triangles - overlapped and pointing in opposite directions circumscribed in a circle) on the front door of their home. This would guarantee that there would be a death soon in that home.

THE CALENDAR

We definitely are not using the calendar that ancient Israel used in the Old Testament (for more on the Calendar, see ITS ABOUT TIME: THE SABBATHS, #161 @ $8.95). This has caused much confusion among the modern people of (Anglo-Saxon-Celtic) Israel. There have been debates and strong disagreements over what day is the weekly Sabbath. Those that use Sunday are said to be worshipping the "The day of the Sun." But, those worshipping on Saturdays are worshipping on "The day of the god Saturn."

In fact, all of the days of the week are named after a god. When the calendar was in its early days, there were ten months: September, October, November and December are prefixes which indicate 7th, 8th, 9th, and 10th month. Julius and later Augustus Caesar added each another month in honor of their rule: July and August.

During the exodus, another calendar change was made. God said unto His people Israel:

"This month shall be unto you the beginning of months: It shall be the first month of the year to you." (Exodus 12:2).

But the imposter Jews of today celebrate the new year in the fall of the year (Rosh Hashanah) and we celebrate it in the middle of winter (January 1st). Very few, almost no one, celebrates it in the spring—i.e. in the month Abib.

Our day begins in the middle of the night: a second after 12 O'clock midnight and ends at midnight. And, contrary to popular opinion which has biblical days starting at sunset, their days actually started at midnight as well. (See ITS ABOUT TIME). The days of the month were numbered: The first day of the month, the second day of the month, etc.

YULE

With the above couple of examples, it is easy to prove that we are using someone else's calendar—including their holidays. As the holiday of Yule is quickly coming upon us (well just passed - but here again soon anyway! CIM), we will concentrate on the celebration of this day. This was originally the birthday of the Sun. The sun died on the 21st of the month December (the shortest time of sunlight of the year), was buried for three days and three nights, and then was “rebirthed” (or ‘born again’) each year on December 25th.

Albert Pike wrote in his manual on Freemasonry: Morals and Dogma, page 580:

“MITHRAS was the Sun-God of the Persians; and was fabled to have been born in a grotto or cave, at the Winter Solstice. His feasts were celebrated at that period, at the moment when the Sun commenced to return Northward, and to increase the length of the days. This was the great Feast of the Magian Religion. The Roman Calendar, published in time of Constantine, at which period his worship began to gain ground in the Occident, fixed his feastday on the 25th December.

Albert Pike later writes that Mithras was known by many different names throughout the world:

Phrygia: Atys
Libya: Ammon
Phoenician: Byblos
Babylonia: Tammuz
Roman Catholic Church: Jesus

In fact it is safe to say that anyone who celebrates Christmas (the Mass of Christ) is celebrating a Roman Catholic holiday and is partaking in something that God says that he hates! It is even true that the early Christian settlers to our nation had Christmas forbidden in Boston from 1659-1681. Were the Puritans and Pilgrims wrong? Were the Roman Catholics right?

REASONS TO NOT CELEBRATE THE MASS OF CHRIST

1. December 25th is not the birthday of Jesus Christ.

The time, not the exact date, of Jesus birth is easily conferred in Scripture. The time and location of the tax levied by Caesar is verified by secular as well as religious books that all taxation was at harvest time. The Holy Scriptures tell of how Mary and Joseph were notified of Mary’s pregnancy even though she had not had any sexual relationships with any man. She was pregnant by means of holy spirit. The time of Jesus’ birth was in the fall (early September, CIM)

The Holy Scriptures tells us of the shepherds that were in their fields who saw a heavenly vision. And shortly after seeing the vision, were at the stable with the newly born Jesus and his mother and father. all records tell that shepherds cease keeping their sheep in their fields due to the colder weather—in the second week of October till early Spring. The time of Jesus’ birth was in the Fall.(Autumn).

In a Catholic Church in a nearby city, there are many pictures and statues. In the main picture behind the pulpit in the front of the church is a picture of the nativity of “Jesus.” Along with the baby Jesus, was his mother and father, the shepherds, and three wise men (one of which was black). But nowhere in the Holy Scripture does it tell of three wise men and nowhere in Scripture does it mention that the wise men were at the stable.

For one reason, they would have to have supercharged camels to get there at the time of his birth. But no such travel time was indicated in the Bible. Instead, it says that their visit troubled greatly the people of Jerusalem. There were no doubt about 200 wise men who arrived in Jerusalem and asked King Herod where the child was who was born a King.

He called for the men who would know the answer to this question and told the wise men that he was born in Bethlehem. And after getting the men to promise that they would stop by and tell him where he was after they found him—but the wise men didn’t. They were warned by an angel to not do so and to go home via another route. This made King Herod so mad, that he ordered the death of all children under two years old who were living in the Bethlehem area

So, when the wise men found Jesus the Bible says that he was a young child and not a babe. It says that they were in a house and not a stable. And the fact that Herod ordered the execution of all children two years old and under proves that Jesus was at least close to that age when the wise men came to visit. Anyway, the wise men were not at the birth of Jesus.

Another reason given by the Holy Scriptures is that Zacharias, the father of John the Baptist, was of the 8th course of Abijah (Luke 1:2; 1 Chron. 24:10). The priests had to be descended from the loins of Aaron. After much time passed there were enough of them that the time and job allocation had to be divided into 24 different rotating courses. In the year indicated, the 8th course of Abijah, served during Passover and Pentecost that year. The Bible tells us that John the Baptist was conceived immediately after his father was finished serving at Pentecost (end May/beginning June).

John the Baptist was conceived in June and born nine months later in March. Jesus was born six months later. He was conceived in December and born in September; probably at the feast day of Tabernacles.

2. Let us stand against the rulers of darkness.

There is a passage of Holy Scripture that tells the story of what happened to King Jehoiachin after he was taken captive by the Babylonians. It is the last four verses of the book of Jeremiah:

“And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach, king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin, king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison. And spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, and changed his garments; and he did continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. And for his diet, there was a continual diet given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.”

Why does the Bible tell us that Jehoiachin was suddenly made above all the other kings that were with him in captivity and that he received a new set of clothes and a new diet given him by the king of Babylon—ON THE 25TH DAY OF THE 12TH MONTH—was this Christmas? No! Jesus was not yet born. And when He was born, He was born in the Fall. And why were the people giving gifts one to another; because the wise men gave gifts? No! The wise men had gone to the house and they only gave gifts to their Saviour. It was the birth of the Sun!

It was the time of the year in which there is a spirit which causes many of the people to perform this holiday. It greatly appeals to the flesh. It violates God's commandment to His people (Jeremiah 10:2):

"Learn not the way of the heathen; for their customs are vain."

And this holiday has many customs of the heathen. There are lit candles, wreaths, evergreen trees, little drummer boy, stockings, Yule logs, holly berries, mistletoe, colourful lights, eggnog, parties, drinking beer and ale, red and green colours, shopping, eight reindeer, Satan Claus, elves, toys, wrapping paper, Christmas cards, caroling, cookies, plum pudding, decorations, giving the salutation, "Merry Christmas," football games, meals, and many more.

None of these customs can be found in the Bible, except where it tells His people to not keep them. And nowhere is this more evident than in the issue of Satan Claus. Can someone please explain how he fits into this story?

He is the great imposter! He lives in the North Pole—the place where the Scripture says that he was desirous to sit—"in the sides of the North." He is also given the divine qualities of being able to:

1. Know all
2. See all
3. Judge all

He is the one that parents take their children to and have them sit on his lap and tell him what they want for Christmas. He is the one who will travel all night delivering the many gifts to all who were good.

There is a time that the Scripture talks about when men will be so happy that they give presents to each other. In Revelation 11:10,

"And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another, because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth."

After the murder of the two prophets who tormented them? What? They made merry and gave gifts one to another. Celebration of the rejection of truth. And really this is what God says about anyone who celebrates this unholy day: Don't reject the truth that God commands us: Learn not the way of the heathen!

CONCLUSION

We are living in the last days of this age. The witches and wizards and all their like are now our rulers. Our God, as He has promised, is judging us for our many evil ways. We have totally neglected God's commandments, statutes and judgments.

We have made as idols the Constitution and its laws, Satan Claus, ball games (on Sunday!), etc. We have learned the customs of the witches, New Agers, Freemasons, Roman Catholics, etc. We have failed to wrestle the evil spirits who promote such a evil, wicked day.

Christ is not the reason for the season. Lucifer is the reason for the season. He is the great deceiver. The evil spirit has led many a Protestant to follow after the Roman Catholic Church—a Church which many of its children at one time left. After several hundred years, most of them have returned. (If Luther and Calvin could see it, they would roll over in their graves! CIM)

"Flee idolatry," God commanded. God told Isaiah that

"the sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the harlot" were "inflaming yourselves with idols under every green tree..." (Isaiah 57:3,5a). Many years before the birth of Jesus, the heathen have been worshipping their gods by celebrating the birth of the sun on December 25th; they became drunk, they had parties, they decorated trees, they decorated their homes, they gave gifts one to another, they practiced caroling, they kissed under the mistletoe, they used the colours of red and green for this season, etc. The colour of red, is the colour of harlotry in Scripture. The Roman Catholic Church is full of red—for it is the great harlot of Scripture.

The Roman Catholic Church begins its celebration of the Mass of Christ immediately after midnight on the night of the 24th December. The Mass is the fresh sacrifice of our Saviour—which is a direct violation of the commands of our God. The Bible instructs us that there was only one sacrifice of our God—only one was needed—as it was perfect. To demand and cause another sacrifice of Jesus, would be blasphemous and totally unnecessary. It would make His crucifixion and resurrection totally meaningless.

To have a Mass every time every Roman Catholic Church meets is equal to a Baal Mass.

Even worse, the priest claims a miracle occurs during every mass. For the wafer and wine is turned into the actual body and blood of our Saviour. They not only literally eat His body, but drink His blood. This is something that is rather hard to believe. How much blood did Jesus have anyway? Five quarts? There are now over a billion people who are Roman Catholic. So there must have been over ten billion people who were Romanist in the two thousand years—they drank His blood?

The Bible is very plain that this would be an abomination to our God:

"And whatsoever man there is of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn among you, who eateth any manner of blood, I will even set my face against that soul that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people (Leviticus 17:11) [anyone for 'black pudding'?]

In Rome, one can see the Montrose being carried in the processional during the Christmas Service. What is the Montrose? It is the image of the sun! As they walk carrying this big sign of the sun, they swing incense from the bottom of their robes.

What does this have to do with Christmas? Everything—for it is the celebration of the birth of the sun. But it has absolutely nothing to do with the birth of our Saviour—He was born in the Fall.

The witches and wizards celebrated the birth of the sun for over 4-1/2 millenniums. They gave gifts to one another; they had the tree all decorated; they kissed under the mistletoe; they got drunk; they did all the customs—and then seventeen hundred years ago the Roman Catholic Church came and adulterated it into their state church.

And now for the last hundred and twenty years, "Christians" are now calling it the birthday of their Saviour and have been keeping it, trees and all, on the twenty-fifth of December.

But someone in the crowd thought about it for a while and eventually said: This is one of the great ecumenical holidays for all the earth. What a great way to have a world-church. One in which witches, New Agers, Roman by Sandi Blanchard - - continuing....

CONFESSIONS OF A

We have never really understood our purpose as a race or God's Covenants with us and therefore have misapplied Scripture. If we, Adam's race, would repent (stop going in the wrong direction following the wrong laws, and go in the right direction following God's Laws), come under God's authority and start fully obeying Him and His Laws and take dominion as God would have us do, the rest of the world would fall into place. But so far, we are trying to change God's purpose and plan and give the responsibility, covenants and promises He gave us to others not understanding the Jesus HAD to die to redeem us and re-create us in God's image to restore us IN ORDER to fulfill His original purpose for us. That's what the New Covenant is about. There is no Plan B. I'm not saying that other races can't worship or love God. They should. He is their Creator. But they don't have the same purpose in God's creation. And we have to leave that in God's hands and take up our responsibility. God is a God of order. His creation has an order and it is our God-given purpose to maintain God's order.

TRUTH IS THE BOTTOM LINE

Our opinions and intentions have no bearing on the truth. The truth stands on its own. It does not rely on our stamp of approval. The truth is that all races are different - they didn't evolve (some say Noah's sons were different colours) - God made us very different because He wanted us to be different. He has a plan and we, through world missions, interracial marriage (and integration, through immigration), and now bringing into the world children of no race - and therefore, no purpose—are destroying that plan. But it can't be completely destroyed, because God won't let it fail. I don't resent my parents' whole life and how we were raised. They did it thinking that was God's plan. Though their hearts were in the right place, wanting to serve God, and they have received a lot of praise and recognition from men, that doesn't make world missions right. Nor does it make child sacrifice right.

What else isn't right is that we have never been able to talk openly and honestly about this. I never realized how the search for truth would divide our family (and many families). I thought we all loved the truth. But I think what we really love is our idea of what we want to be the truth. Truth is the bottom line - and either we accept or reject it. But we can't change it. What we think of it doesn't matter. God didn't ask our opinion. So there are a lot of broken hearts because of what we thought was the truth, turned out not to be the truth - and that is what we were sacrificed for. I guess the whole purpose of life is to test us to see if we love the truth or not - because Jesus is the truth. His way is the truth - and it is narrow and hard.

I cherish my godly upbringing and my family. What I was taught was to love the Lord my God with all my heart, soul, strength and mind. I was taught that the entire Bible was the Word of God. I was taught that I was a sinner saved by grace through faith through the redeeming work of Jesus Christ. I was taught that my life must be in accordance with Scripture. I was taught to seek the truth and follow it regardless of what man might say. I was taught to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness and entrust all my life and needs to His care.

So what went wrong? How could I, a missionary kid, former missionary and pastor's wife, have changed so much in my theology? All that I was taught as mentioned above is what I believe and practice today. But I have come to a different conclusion than what I was taught regarding who Adam was. For that answer of who Adam was is the basis for my other conclusions. If we don't rightly understand who Adam was, the rest of our biblical interpretation will be skewed.

You need to know a couple of things about how my husband and I came to this conclusion. I can say before God that I have studied the Bible more in the last twelve years than I did in my entire life up to that point. I simply presumed that all I had been taught was indeed the truth because it was taught to me in all sincerity. But some things came up and I had to study for myself. I have wrestled and grappled and struggled with my conclusions knowing full well the cost. It has cost me everything. I have lost almost every friend I had before 1996 because they think I am a heretic - including many of my MK friends. When we asked them to show us where we are wrong, they said they would get back to us. No one has spoken to us since. That was several years ago now. And that is only partially the price we have paid. But what we have lost is nothing compared to what we have gained in Christ Jesus.

Truth cannot be denied. If Jesus is the Way, the Truth and the Life—then the truth will not conflict with His revealed Word. I also believe that we must worship God in spirit and in truth. So I have loved the search for truth and devoured both the Scripture and many books in search of the truth as well as spent hours in prayer asking God to please keep my husband and me from deception.

After returning home from the mission field, we realized that America was not the Christian nation we thought it was. My husband and I started searching because we looked at our “Christian” nation filled with Judeo-Christian churches who: have discarded God’s Laws as no longer relevant, loved the Jews, supported and did everything possible to promote the Jewish (antichrist) “state of Israel(i),” sent missionaries all over the world, and welcomed into our land all the foreigners. If the Jews are who they claim to be, and if the biblical nations are all the races on the planet, and if God’s laws no longer apply as long as we love everyone—then we ought to be the most blessed nation on earth, abounding in the blessings of God. What we instead see is a nation that is living out and reaping the curses of Deuteronomy 28. We are overrun with every sort of evil. Something is really wrong with this picture.

No one wants to admit it, but THE EMPEROR HAS NO CLOTHES ON!! It took a child to say what was obvious but what the adults wouldn’t admit.

When this truth was presented to my husband and me, we were stunned. We knew that someone was right and someone was wrong and we had to find out for ourselves. One thing we have always believed is that truth fears no investigation. Every free minute practically was spent in study. The more we studied the more we realized several things:

1. The only part of God’s Law that was cancelled was the ordinances (the religious rituals that looked forward to Jesus, through the shedding of blood) that were nailed to the cross along with the death sentence. We cannot justify ourselves by observing the Law. We are only justified by grace through faith in the shed blood of Jesus Christ for His people. But every command of God reflects God’s holiness. Every command reveals what godliness is—what righteousness looks like in our everyday world. Am I ungodly for loving God’s Laws? I obey His Laws out of love and the deepest gratitude for what He has done for me. And I can find every main Law reiterated in the New Testament - except the sacrificial laws.

2. Then we studied all the biblical covenants. We discovered that you can’t have the New Covenant (Testament) without the Old Covenant (Testament) - it is based on the Old Covenant. They are inseparably connected. The Old Covenant is based on God’s promises to Abraham which He gave on oath and which are never to be repealed. The New Covenant in the blood of Jesus Christ is based on God’s promises to Abraham and brings His promise to fulfillment. It had to be studied. Covenants are sacred bonds between very specific parties. The parties had to be identified. The Bible clearly identifies the parties to the New Covenant in Jeremiah 31:31 and Hebrews 8:8-10 and 9:15. (Also, see Luke 1:31-33 & vs 67-78). But we also saw in 1 Corinthians 15 that “all” was traced to Adam’s line, for IN ADAM “all” died, and in Christ (“the last Adam”) “all” are made alive—”all” is very clearly in the context of Adam’s descendants. So it became very, very important to determine who Adam’s race was.

3. We then started at the very beginning—the very best place to start—and read with new eyes. The more honestly we read, examining many times almost every word—the more we realized that we had misidentified almost every party in the Bible. It’s like reading a book but ignoring the introduction that names all the players—thus misidentifying the main characters and coming to the wrong conclusion. We studied Adam with great zeal because Gen. 5:1 made it clear that the Bible is about Adam. Either all races came from Adam or only one race came from Adam. You can’t have it both ways. Using the Bible (and studying it in context), science, anthropology—not to mention using the eyes, the brain and common sense which God gave us—we had to admit that only one race could come from Adam (or Noah). Adam and Noah weren’t some sort of freaks that were all races rolled into one who miraculously produced children of distinct races for a short period of time and whose descendants then could only reproduce according to their race as we see today. That’s preposterous. God gave us eyes to see and common sense. He gave us centuries of history to show that these “mutations” could not have caused the existence of the distinct races we see today like some creation scientists (AIG, Creation Research) would like you to believe. God created each race by His sovereign choice.

God is the God of order and perfect design. God—the absolute Sovereign Creator of the great variety of all we see—created every race with varieties within each race for His own purposes and glory! Then, God made it very clear through repeated evidence that kind reproduces kind and their offspring will not deviate unless they intentionally are mixed. One of the great laws of science is that it must be observable and repeatable to be fact—otherwise one’s conclusions are simply theory

(like evolution). When we don’t mess with God’s ordained order, it is very clear. Each race reproduces its own kind. It is very repeatable and observable and does not deviate. It also is in perfect accord with God’s command to reproduce kind after kind. It maintains the perfect order and variety God created for His glory. We could not deny the glorious plan of God. Once that was clear—and it is so clear—we had to grapple with the question, (which everyone raises at some point), “What about the other races?”

4. This was very difficult. I know that my whole family’s purpose has been to win Filipinos (and all other races) to Christ. No—this was not easy to tackle.¹ I knew that the cost here could be very high. But I had to find out the truth. Are the other races parties to any of the covenants in the Bible? The answer is “NO.” God created all the other races as good and for His purposes. But they were NOT God’s special creation, Adamkind. They were not created with the same purpose. Adam was created to have a special relationship with God and to rule God’s creation—including the other races—according to God’s righteous laws. That is why God created Adam in His own image. God then chose Israel to be His treasured possession and wife. The whole story of the Bible is the story of God and His wife, national Israel—who was an adulterous, idolatrous wife—whom He finally divorced and sent away according to His own Law. Only a tiny portion of the house of Judah was spared in order for Jesus Christ to come in the flesh, made like His (Israel) brethren to redeem His own. In order to redeem her, according to His own Law, one of the parties had to die, to be free again—Jesus died in the place of Israel—who should have died. The glorious redemption was fulfilled in Jesus Christ, who came for His own, died for His own, redeemed His own, and rose again from the dead to reclaim His own bride. When Jesus dies as the second or last Adam, He bought the whole race of Adam (the world) in order to redeem His bride, Israel. It was Israel who He foreknew. God is the same, yesterday, today and forever. His amazing plan was never discarded. He knew the end from the beginning.

So what about the other races? Let me put it this way. Let me put it this way. When a man decides to get married, he chooses his one and only bride. There are many nice women out there, but they are NOT a party to this contract of marriage or marriage covenant. That is not hateful or cruel. That's how it is and that is the law of marriage. It is the same with God. He has made His choice. God will do with the others as He wills. But they are not in view regarding Scripture, which is about His people—His wife. The other races are in view only in that they are to be brought under God's Laws in dominion, which will greatly benefit them and they should be taught to worship and honour God as God (perhaps - but "they shall not dwell in your land" Ex. 23:33). As to what happens when they die, God knows. They are not under the same curse as Adam. We can entrust them to God.

5. So who are the descendants of Israel today? The Bible has already clearly proven the direct line from Adam to Israel. My husband and I did a very intense study into the migrations of the Israelites after they went into the Assyrian captivity. We have a great deal of evidence for clearly documenting that the "lost tribes" (which were not only the 10 northern tribes but also from the house of Judah) migrated north and west and eventually settled the European nations, Britain and Scandinavia. We, their descendants, are the Biblical descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The White nations comprise the many nations God promised Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. The promises that God made to Abraham and which were confirmed in the New Covenant in Jesus Christ are for us! We who had been divorced by God for our great spiritual adultery and idolatry and were considered aliens to the covenant and unable to return to Him through the curse of the Law were now redeemed! (A divorced woman was forbidden by God's Law to return to her first husband if she had been with another man/husband).

6. If the European nations are Israel—and they are—then who on earth are the "Jews"? So it became critical to find out who today's Jews are. We closely examined the Jews and their writings. What we found was shocking. The Jews are NOT descendants of Biblical Israel, but are imposters using this guise to carry out their incredibly evil schemes. They come from a mixture of Japheth, Turks, Edomites, Canaanites and Mongols. The vast majority of "Jews" today (around 96%) call themselves "Ashkenazim"

(descended from Japheth, not Shem). They readily admit who they are, but Christians won't believe them because that would mess up their eschatology and theology. Jews are the openly declared enemies of Jesus Christ and Christianity. They will never turn to Him because they hate Him with all their beings. Their goal is world dominion and the annihilation of everything Christian, including our race. They are behind the demise of our once godly nation. America is going down fast. We are not being blessed by God. How can He bless us when we love those who hate Him and who He hates? (Romans 9:13, Psalm 139:21-22). We support them, and have placed them in the majority of leadership positions in our government. They determine what is taught in our schools. They own almost every media network and newspaper, shaping the opinions and thoughts of our people. They own or control almost every banking institution, publishing house and the music industry. And now we as a country embrace every evil from homosexuality to abortion to usury to race-mixing to name a few. We have trampled God's holiness as outlined in His holy laws underfoot and welcomed all sorts of evil into the land and into our churches.

If it were not for the Judeo-Christian churches who have led the financial support of false "Israel" and welcomed the "Jews" as God's "chosen people" - even incorporating Judaism into our churches—our country would not be in the evil state we are in. The Christian churches have been used by God's enemies to do what the enemies of God could never have achieved. The Christian leaders and pastors have been responsible for keeping the truth that was once well known in this land out of the seminaries and churches in exchange for tax-exemption! (We spoke with an old gentleman who told us that these truths were well known, especially among the Lutheran clergy a mere 60 years ago!) The Christian leaders and pastors have registered their churches with agencies controlled by the enemy, accepting all the restrictions, reporting all their members and finance in exchange for insurance and liability protection from the enemy! We Christians have sold the truth of the Kingdom down the river in order to live in the good graces of the enemies of Jesus Christ!

Moreover, they have used missionaries and the universal gospel message more than any other tool to destroy this once godly nation. Why do you think pastors and missionaries get all these tax breaks and benefits? Because the enemies of God like Christianity? No—the church is the greatest proponent of "tolerance and diversity." We would not be overrun now with foreigners—who are now the majority in several states and rapidly gaining in the others—if the Christian churches had not declared them to be within the scope of biblical covenants. Yes, the other races have been blessed and benefitted by the work of missions, because we have taught them some of how to live under God's Laws. But we missionaries have promised them that which we had no right to promise them and placed them in equality with Adam's race—going outside the context of Scripture and God's ordained order. Once declared to be equal, it was a very small step to bless what was once declared to be a crime punished by death in this land—interracial marriage. With interracial marriage comes the destruction of our race—the end goal of Judaism. This is what we MKs have been sacrificed for. One hundred years ago our godly Christian pastors and forefathers would not have allowed what we now promote as “Christianity.”

I do not for one minute, blame the other races or the Jews. They are doing just what they would naturally do. The disaster of America is placed directly at the feet of the Christian seminaries and churches and their pastors and the missionaries who have been bought. What is so sad, is that they don't even know they have been deceived and bought and are being used as tools of the enemies of God. What is sadder yet, is that when this truth comes to their attention, it is rejected because the personal cost is so great! Yet they willingly sacrificed their children—us missionary kids—for a false theology that is also destroying our country and our posterity.

No—we are in for heavy punishment from God. He is not pleased with His people who call themselves by His Name (and upon whom His Name is called - Num. 6:23-27). It is time for judgment to begin with the household of God.

I am very broken-hearted for how we as a nation have sinned against our God. My husband and I are fighting for your children. The nation and world that your children and grandchildren are growing up in will very soon be hell on earth. The media hasn't told you what is happening in South Africa since the end of White rule just a little over a decade ago. What has happened there is coming here. A small example of what is coming happened in Kansas when two blacks raped beat and killed four white kids at gunpoint in a most gruesome manner. Of course, that is not “hate” or “racist” because it was done by blacks to whites. The media is not telling our people what is really going on in our land. If Obama becomes President, it will be only a matter of time before America is just like South Africa....

The vast majority of Christians expect to sip out of here in an easy answer rapture. But while Christians are burying their heads in novels and movies such as “Left Behind,” what is really going on is a nightmare that your children are going to have to live with. God commanded us as descendants of Adam to take dominion and rule this planet according to His Laws under the Kingship of Jesus Christ. Instead, we have abdicated, and turned over our responsibilities to His enemies and played “church,” breaking all His Laws except those that suit our fancy. Is this godly?

My husband and I are doing everything we know to hold out the light of truth to everyone who will listen. For God will not hold us accountable for what others decide, but we are accountable if we close our eyes to the truth or close our mouths (as some in my family suggested I do) so that our life would be easier and people would like us. I am speaking out now as a MK on behalf of today's MKs and am begging you, before God, to stop sacrificing your children for false doctrine.

I also want to say that I thank and praise God for giving me a husband who loves Him and truly is seeking first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness. God has given me a husband who was willing to lose everything this world offers for the surpassing greatness of seeking and finding the truth, and for the glorious privilege of holding out the truth to our kinsmen. I have walked with my husband as my head in Christ Jesus and together we have struggled for and sought the truth as a hidden treasure. We are truly one, not only as husband and wife, but also in faith and understanding. I don't deserve this, but I thank God daily for my husband and how he has faithfully led me as his wife and given his life to serve Jesus Christ.

What does Isaiah say? “To the law and to the testimony.” I speak out of a heart that is broken over the evils of our land and what we have done as a people in Christ's name. I speak out of a heart that is broken over the grief of broken, bruised, and scarred MKs. But I also speak out of great joy and hope. For God has promised that if we—His people—humble ourselves and repent and return to Him that He will hear our prayer, forgive our sins and heal our land

For the sake of the Kingdom of God.

THOUGHTS ON GODLY FEMININITY

Jan. 3, 2009 by Ingrid Schlueter

I know that I may sound redundant here, as I have addressed this issue before in my writing. Having been freshly reminded of it, however, I have to write a few thoughts today.

A column in the Times newspaper (UK) recently talked about the sexualization of children, little girls in particular, that is going on in our culture. They pointed out the sale of faux high heels (www.heelarious.com/index.php) for baby girls as a case in point. Leopard skin heels on a 6-month-old female. Does it get any sicker than that? It's all a big joke, right? Hilarious. Just hilarious. Americans and Westerners in general get their laughs out of perversion these days. There is something deeper going on with the whole idea of what femininity is. It's been underway for some time, but has really worsened dramatically in the last 10 years or so.

It is ironic that after decades of hardcore feminism, females are viewed more as sex objects than ever before. It isn't enough now to "bring home the bacon and fry it up in a pan," as the old jingle went. Now you have to look like a porn star while you do it. It isn't just grown women. It begins in babyhood and toddlerhood, where mothers, at stores like Sears, are buying infant and preschooler clothes emblazoned with the Cheetah Girls and other rock and roll sensations. There simply is no window of innocence allowed any longer. Girls at age 7 are expected to imitate the "hot" female stars, and if they don't, they're deemed babyish and out of style—social suicide for second graders.

Middle-aged women are expected to dress and look like 20-somethings. The elderly are not supposed to look elderly. Cosmetic surgery, Botox, and obsession with weight loss and fitness are now considered normal even for those in their 60s and 70s. You are what you look like, goes the thinking. You must be sexy no matter what age, stage of life, or health condition you are in. It makes me sick to my stomach.

Pregnant women are now expected to dress "sexy" as well. It is virtually impossible to locate anything resembling decent, modest jumpers and tops for mother-to-be. These were widely available ten years ago. Forget dignity, forget the beauty of motherhood, we all must be hot, hot, hot. Yummy mummies, they call them. In this age of constant braying about diversity, there really is none for women. There is one look, and one look alone that society accepts. Those who want to look like a mother and not a prostitute while pregnant are out of luck if they don't know how to sew.

I recently watched a program on EWTN. While I disagree on some programming, their teachings on family and God's plan for motherhood is beautiful and helpful, and is utterly absent in freak show evangelical television. The teacher talked about femininity according to God's standards, not those of the culture around us. The beauty of motherhood as exhibited by the mother of Jesus was described. Submission to God's will, a heart of servanthood, nurturing and graceful acceptance of our roles in our families and in church were all emphasized. The teacher explained how beautiful and full-prbed femininity is in God's plan, and how the world perverts and distorts it. I would add that evangelicalism often does the same, because the world's value system has pretty much taken

A woman is more than a sexual object. The world refuses to accept this, and that's why the sexualization of children, the degrading of women through popular media and porn, and the breakdown in families worsens each year in this country. The fruits of this are seen everywhere today, especially in our little girls who are taught, early on, that they must flaunt their bodies and whatever sexual charms they have in order to be of any worth. It is a tragic perversion of God's plan for girls and women.

If we are Christians, we need to run our lives counter to these values of the world. We need to dress and behave modestly in a way that adorns our Saviour. It is an honour and a privilege to be female and to live out our femininity according to God's plan. We should never ever settle for the world's rhinestones of flesh and sensuality when we can have the spiritual jewels of godly femininity.

DEUTERONOMY 6:7FF AND THE PUBLIC SCHOOL QUESTION

by Brian Schwertley

There are some important applications of Deut.6:7ff. that need to be considered. The first application regards the question of public or state schools. Do the commands of God in this portion of Scripture give parents the option of placing their children in a public school? There are a number of Biblical reasons why the answer to this question is an emphatic NO. One reason why this portion of Scripture rules out the Christian use of public schools is that it requires the true Christian faith to be integrated into every area of life. Every subject under the sun (e.g. math, geography, economics, art, literature, science, medicine, agriculture, political science, etc) must be taught from a distinctly Christian perspective. Deuteronomy 6:7 tells fathers that every part of every day and in every place there must be a discussion of Jehovah and His Word. If God requires theological discussion at home, outside in the garden or park, in the supermarket, in the car or even the ball-park, then certainly He requires a discussion of God and His ways during the many hours of education at school.

NO NEUTRALITY

Deuteronomy simply assumes that there are no areas of life that are neutral or purely secular. Yet public schools as a distinct policy leave God, Christ, and the Scriptures outside of the classroom. Schools that separate God and Christ from the classroom are schools that are founded upon anti-Christian, atheistic unbelief. Such schools are not designed to promote obedience to Christ and His Law-Word but are designed to produce allegiance to the state. The Apostle Paul agrees with the teaching of Deuteronomy when he tells fathers to bring their children "up in the training and admonition of the Lord" (Eph 6:4). The entire training process of a covenant child is to be "of the Lord." Every bit of training, discipline, education, and knowledge is to converge in total devotion and obedience to Jesus Christ as every beam of light leads to the sun.

According to Deuteronomy 6, the purpose and goal of education is love and obedience to God. Parents are not merely training children to make money but to be faithful to the covenant. The central command of Scripture is to love God with the whole heart (Deut. 6:5). That is the chief reason why theology is to permeate all other subjects. Any educational system that does not have a love of God through Jesus Christ as its chief goal is anti-Christian and implicitly Satanic. Jesus said, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" (Matt 23:37). How can public schools promote the greatest commandment when they purposely keep God away from children's minds?

IMPLICIT POLYTHEISM

Another reason why Christians should not send their children to public schools is that state schools violate the first commandment by adhering to the educational philosophy that no religion should be favoured above another religion. In a nation of many diverse religions, the educational establishment believed the best policy was to establish religiously neutral schools. However, because religious neutrality is an impossibility, public schools opted for agnosticism, secular humanism, and naturalism—all of which are religious beliefs that are antithetical to Christian theism.¹ Indeed, many within the educational establishment waved the flag of neutrality and fairness as a guise to de-Christianize the schools. Sadly, most Christians have succumbed to the neutrality ploy.

Public schools refuse to confess Christ before men (Matt 10:22). They are teaching by precept and example that God, Jesus, and the Bible have nothing to do with education. The Word of God, however, says that the fear of the Lord is the beginning of knowledge (Prov. 1:7), that human philosophies are not according to Christ (Col 2:8). God has given Christ "all authority in heaven and on earth" (Matt 28:18). There is no area of life that is outside of His control and domain. Public schools are in open rebellion against Jesus Christ for they reject His authority over the classroom. Gordon Clark writes:

*"How does God judge the school system which says to him 'O God, we neither deny nor assert thy existence; and O God, we neither obey nor disobey thy commands; we are strictly neutral.' Let no one fail to see the point: The school system that ignores God teaches its pupils to ignore God; and this is not neutrality. It is the worst form of antagonism, for it judges God to be unimportant and irrelevant in human affairs. This is atheism."*²

Jesus said, "[He] that is not with Me is against Me" (Mat 12:30). Are public schools with Christ? Are they faithfully serving Him? No. They are against Him. When Christian parents send their children to public schools, they are in essence handing their children over to the enemy (anti-Christ statist idolaters) to be indoctrinated in the modern state religion—secular humanism. That many such children reject the Faith of their fathers and embrace the world spirit and heartily give themselves over to the lust of the flesh (fornication, adultery, drunkenness, drugs, etc.) should come as no surprise. Would any one be surprised if a child who spent several hours each day for several years at a Hindu school eventually converted to Hinduism as a teenager? No. Or a child spending those same hours in a Catholic school, eventually converting to Catholicism? No. Of course not! Yet countless Christian fathers have bought into the myth that public schools are neutral and send their children to 'hell' in the process.

PROMOTE OBEDIENCE

A third reason why Christian parents should not send their children to public schools is that the purpose of educating Covenant children is to promote obedience to Jesus Christ and His Law. Christian parents have a responsibility to pass on to their children a distinctly Christian world and life view. A Covenant child's education must be permeated with Christian ethics or values. Every subject must be taught in accordance with the Christian worldview and must be "Christocentric." Paul writes: "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ..." (2 Cot. 10:4-5). In public schools, every subject and discussion is an anti-Christian stronghold that needs to be pulled down.

Public schools teach that man evolved from pond scum. The Bible teaches that God created all things in six days. Is it proper for a Christian father to expose his seven- or eight-year old child to a dogmatic, organized attack against the foundational doctrine of creation? Public schools teach that ethics are evolving, that society or the majority determines what is acceptable behaviour. The Bible says that the moral law is based on God's nature and is unchanging, absolute, and non-negotiable. Public schools teach that man is basically good and that many bad behaviours are the result of bad genetics, or environment, or disease (e.g. alcoholism, drug addiction). The Bible teaches that man is born with the guilt and pollution of sin and that every transgression of God's Law is evil. Public schools identify many evil activities as permissible and even virtuous (e.g. fornication, homosexuality, witchcraft, idolatry, rebellion against parents, etc.). They also strongly condemn many fundamental doctrines of Christianity such as Christ's exclusive claim to be the way to God, the Biblical view of the family, and so on. Public schools have no real foundational basis for teaching ethics. Only the Bible gives real, logical reasons why cheating, theft, rape, sexual immorality, and murder are wrong. Public schools espouse a secular humanistic, neutralistic, pluralistic, relativistic anti-Christian philosophy that contradicts Scripture at every fundamental point. Parents simply cannot be faithful to the Biblical commands to instill in their children a Christian world and life view if they send their children into the satanic lion's den of public education. Every thought is to be brought into captivity to the obedience of Christ, not to the obedience of the heathen state.

BAD COMPANY

A fourth reason why Christian parents should not send their children to public school is that "bad company corrupts good morals" (1 Cor 15:33), NASB). The word translated as communications (KJV) or company "means a bringing together, companionship. It is contact, association with evil, that is declared to be corrupting."³ It is totally irresponsible to send Covenant children into a society of evil teachers and evil doers. "Spiritual life is quenched in the atmosphere of carnal society, and a sort of intoxication quickly comes over him who frequents it."⁴ Children are often very gullible and susceptible to peer pressure and people in positions of authority (i.e. teachers). A Covenant child in a public school is assaulted from every side by demonic doctrine, profane disputations, coarse jesting, satanic music, an exaltation of fornication and rebellion, a hatred of lawful authority, and all sorts of deadly temptations. How many Covenant children have had their minds polluted and their morals corrupted at the public school? Sad to say—multitudes!

BIBLICAL DISCIPLINE

A fifth reason why a Covenant child should not attend public school is that a Christian child's education must always be accompanied by Biblical discipline. Biblical education is never purely an intellectual affair. It is always to be accompanied with verbal reproof, correction and admonition, and physical chastisement or spanking when necessary. The fact that children need admonition presupposes that children have violated some ethical standard and, therefore, need to be confronted verbally regarding "bad" behaviour or speech. It also presupposes that the goal of such admonition or correction is an acknowledgment of wrongdoing and a change of behaviour in a right direction. That is, there is to be repentance leading to a personality and behavioural change. This point raises a few questions regarding public schools. First, are public schools mixing discipline with a child's education? Second, if public schools are using discipline, what is their standard? It is common knowledge that discipline in public schools is very lax, if not virtually non-existent. This fact should come as no surprise, for four reasons. First, the spanking of children is now regarded as child abuse. Second, rebellious behaviour (especially in teenagers) is considered a normal and even a beneficial aspect of growing up. Third, state schools are not really interested in instilling "old-fashioned values," but are primarily interested in producing young adults who are in love with statism. One must keep in mind that state schools are an establishment of religion (secular humanism) and their main job is not education but the promotion of that religion. Fourth, many modern public school teachers do not regard misbehaviour as an ethical problem but as a problem of environment. Rambunctious children are medicated with Ritalin®, and when children and young adults commit murder we are often told that such persons were themselves victims of society.

SECULAR HUMANISM

However, the main reason why Covenant children should never attend a public school is that the discipline that occurs in a state school is not based on Scripture or Biblical ethics but on secular humanism. Therefore, covenant children who are in a public school will receive satanic admonition. For example, they will receive rebuke, correction, and chastisement for godly behaviour (e.g. starting prayer groups, speaking up for Christ in Class, witnessing to others, telling the truth regarding pre-marital sex and homosexuality, warning others of false religions, etc.) and they will receive praise for ungodly speech (e.g. speech that accepts and promotes human autonomy, relativism, cross-dressing and homosexuality, evolution, polytheism, racism [e.g. affirmative action], multiculturalism, feminism, statism, etc). The satanic admonition that children receive in public schools is designed to promote a personality and behavioural change in an explicitly anti-Christian direction. Furthermore, even if and when a public school teacher or administrator disciplines a child for something that is truly unethical (e.g. lying, stealing, name-calling, fighting, etc.) he (as a set policy) cannot give Biblical reasons for discipline but must rely on pragmatism, or some concept of loyalty to humanity or the state. To say to a child, "Do not lie because you need to be a good citizen: or :No not lie because it violates the brotherhood of man" tells a child something far different than, "Do not lie or steal because such behaviour is a violation of God's moral law and displeases Him," or "John, do you not know that the Bible says that liars will not enter the kingdom of heaven?" Public school discipline is given in terms of utility to the state rather than in Biblical terms of service and glorification to God.

STATE THEFT

A sixth reason why Covenant children should not attend public school is that God has not given the civil government the authority or Biblical right to establish a tax-financed public school system. The Bible gives the civil magistrate a limited authority under God. The civil government has been given the task of protecting society by bringing negative sanctions against public evil. The civil magistrate is a minister of God "to execute wrath on him who practices evil" (Rom 13:4). It, however does not have a Biblical warrant to intrude upon the God-ordained Covenantal institutions of the church or the family unless a crime (Biblically defined) has been committed. Few professing Christians would argue that the civil magistrate has the right to administer the sacraments or exercise church discipline. Most professing Christians, however, do not have a problem with the state collecting taxes by means of coercion in order to do something that Scripture explicitly says belongs to fathers (Duet 6:4-9; Eph 6:4). The state has no more Biblical right to collect taxes for public education than it does to set up Buddhist temples or Hindu shrines. The only people that God has given authority to set up schools for children are parents. "The Christian school, properly seen, is an extension of the Christian home. The school exists for no other purpose than to supplement and not replace a parent's instruction at home. The school and home work closely together in educating the child."⁵ When the civil government sets up public schools, it sets itself up as the father of all children. Such a civil government views all the children as property of the state. "This view is basic to the philosophies of statist education. It is especially pronounced in all forms of Marxism, national and international socialism alike. The child is a state resource, to be developed and used for the welfare of the state."⁶ When parents put their children in a state school they, in essence, are supporting the state's messianic claim of total jurisdiction over the family. Such parents are contributing to the Molech-state's power religion. They are also guilty of stealing from their neighbour, for taxation without divine authorization is theft. Their children are going to school at the taxpayer's expense. Many of these taxpayers are elderly people who do not have any children and are on fixed incomes. Benefitting from the civil government's unlawful collection of property taxes for state schools is sinful. If all professing Christians pulled their children out of the public schools, the public school system would collapse. Then the greatest institution of statist control and the spread of anti-religion, socialism, atheism, and nihilism would be put out of business. Why don't professing Christians take the leading role in shutting down the public school system? The answer probably is a love of mammon. How many professing Christians have sent their children straight to Hades to save money?

would be absurd to reduce preparation for life, truth and calling to an exclusively religious meaning in any parochial sense, but it is obvious that these and other aspects of education are inescapably religious. As Whitehead observed, 'The essence of education is that it be religious.' The public or state schools have thus been described as 'made up of elements provided by Rousseau, Jefferson, August Comte, and John Dewey. "Civil religion" is an apt designation for this faith.' As one educator observed, 'America's faith in education has been called by a European visitor the "national religion of America"' (R.J. BEING A MEMBER
 A Golden Opportunity
 Pastor Mark Downey

Some old friends of mine, whom I jokingly referred to as 'legal eagles,' who sometimes got overly semantic in their quest for the common law, had reservations about membership in any organization in general and membership in the church in particular. Their objections were straining at a gnat, by being a member of something having very legalistic implications. I think they missed the point of what it means to be a member. How one understands membership in the sense of the carnal world or Black's Law Dictionary, is entirely different in a biblical and spiritual sense..

When Jesus said, "I am not of this world" (John 8:23), He didn't mean that He was an ET. What He meant was, that He had another system for social order. Perhaps being a member of worldly organizations does fall short of the glory of God, but do we throw the baby out with the bathwater and not join anything? The old adage comes to mind, "if we don't stand for something, we'll fall for anything." In other words, if we don't join anything, we're at the mercy of our own devices.

The word 'member' doesn't have any deep complicated definition, according to Strong's Concordance; it simply means "a limb or part of the body." The Scriptural relationship between Christ and His believers is often referred to in terms of allegory or metaphor: the members are parts of the body and the head of the body is Christ. As Ephesians 5:23 puts it, "Christ is the head of the church, and He is the saviour of the body."

Our text for today's message is 1 Cor. 12:12-31.

"For even as the body is one and yet has many members, and all the members of the body, though they may be many, are one body, so is Christ. For by one spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Judeans or Greeks, whether slaves or free, and we were all made to drink of one spirit. For the body is not one member, but many. If the foot should say, "Because I am not a hand, I am not a part of the body," does it therefore not belong to the body? And if the ear should say, 'Because I am not an eye, I am not a part of the body,' does it therefore not belong to the body? If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be. If the whole body were an ear, where would the sense of smell be? But now God has placed the members, each one of them, in the body, just as He desired. And if they were all one member, where would the body be? But now there are many members, but one body. And the eye cannot say to the hand, 'I have no need of you;' or again the head to the feet, 'I have no need of you.' But, instead, the members of the body seeming to be weaker are necessary. And those members of the body, which we consider the least, on these we bestow more abundant honour, and our plainest organ has supreme beauty; but our beautiful features have no deficiency; for God has constructed the body, giving more abundant honour to that member which lacked. That there should be NO DIVISION in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another. And if one member suffers, all the members suffer with it; if one member is honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now you are a body for Christ, and participating members."

I think these verses allude to what became the national motto of our land and people. Perhaps Thomas Jefferson was inspired by these verses when he proposed 'E Pluribus Unum,' which translated means 'one out of many.' The connotation is certainly racial in nature, just as with Abraham "sprang there even of one..... so many as the stars of the sky in multitude." In Christian Identity, we believe that America is the (a) regathering place for the 12 tribes of Israel and her early history reflects a wonderful manifestation of the Christian church and thereby facilitating a Christian nation and government. We believe in a White Christian America, for White Christian Americans and run by White Christian Americans (America: Free, White and Christian, Charles Weisman, #060 @ $16.95 Colonial Americans understood the ecclesia or the church as the body politic of those called by God. Modern churches may have many members, but they have lost the keys of the Kingdom and therefore we have loose canons spouting off that God loves everybody, that America is Babylon, that the IsraelIES are Israelites, , that perverts have a right to stand behind the pulpits, that illegal aliens are welcomed to infest our economy and that we should support the president in his fight against terrorism. Is it any wonder why the average White person is hostile to becoming a member of a church, when that church advocates an ungodly war killing our sons and daughters? Is it any wonder that our own kith and kin are skeptical about a Whites Only political organization? We, have a golden opportunity to change that. But, we must have the vision and commitment to change the thinking of those who want to be members of war-mongering multicultural organizations.

When Jesus first mentioned building His church in Mat 16:18, He said, "The gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Do you believe it? I do too. Are the gates of hell prevailing against the interracial churches of war? Just look at all of the flag-draped coffins the government tries to hide (2000 and counting; not counting the 8,000 medivacs from Iraq to Germany who died). The Lord meant that there may be apostasy, but the true church will always be around. So, we shouldn't ever lose faith in finding the true body of

 by Brandon P. Hawkins

There is today much controversy within the Israel-Identity movement concerning this man "Saul" or "Paul." Conflicting reports are coming to us from scholarly sources expounding both pro and anti points of view. Were Paul's writings inspired or conspired? We must be impartial, gathering our conclusions from the inspired text of God, not from man-made translations.

"To suggest that if you 'belong to Jesus' you are a literal descendant (a seed) of Abraham—irrespective of your racial origin—is sheer biological nonsense."

believers or the body of true believers, even though there are many defiled and deformed hybrid bodies out there in the world that have ready-to-wear body bags for their members; one size fits all. Our own physical bodies have replaced the old temple, so that now, collectively, we are the habitation of God, Who dwells amongst His people, so that the members of Christ's body constitute the hallowed ground in which we commune with God and with each other. He is with us right now, because we're doing something right.

A church is a building in this metaphor: "Built upon the foundation of Jesus Christ Himself being the chief cornerstone. In whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto a holy temple in the Lord" (Eph 2:20-21). As members of the body, we are fellow citizens with the saints and of the household of God. Israel is a house. The White race is like the ancient fasces (from which we get the word fascist). It was a bundle of rods with an axe blade in the middle. Perhaps you've seen it on the back of an old dime. Symbolically, we are racially bound together through the strength of being Christ-centered. Pure fascism is positive Christianity in a folkish state of the union (or should I say, Confederacy?). Is it any wonder why the confederate members of a Christian fascist/klannish state are reviled by the antichrists?

The concept of oneness-unity emanates from Christ as the body politic of many members who speak the same things and are of one mind. There's no tolerance for compromise or religious diversity when compared to the ecumenical movement, like Promise-Keepers, who can only pretend to declare fictional members of the Body of Christ. On the other hand, the Lord knows it's bad enough with wolves in sheep's clothing subverting the pulpit, than to have all these anti-church 'lone-wolves' who wouldn't be a member of the body if their lives depended on it. And do you know what? Our lives do depend upon it!

Leaderless Resistance (God bless Louis Beam) may work for an underground paramilitary, but there's no such thing as a para-church or headless body politic. There is the church, there is the church pastor or leading elder, and there are church members ... period! The church is the body. The members are parts of the body and the pastor feeds and nourishes the body with the Word. The head or brain of the church body is Jesus Christ. The true church or ecclesia is the very same thing as a political party with the elect/candidates and the electorate/constituency. Our election proclaims 'No King, but Jesus.'

Mamzers or half-breeds have a very confused physiology and mixed up psychology because they were never intended by God to be born. The same is true for the body of Christ. Any element of mongrelization cannot be a part of the church. The shepherd of the flock will protect it from wolves. Likewise, in God's system for social order, the members of the fold should have the courtesy of supporting whom God has called. Today's messengers of God have the burden of raising a standard against stagnation and the spirit of malaise.

Life, being a form of energy, for White people, is what the Bible calls spirit. Spirit is something that moves and motivates us. The membership of Christ cannot survive without holy spirit [mentality of separation]. A body of Christ grows when the spirit of giving and helping circulates between the members. Paul gives us the principle of financial support in 1 Cor. 16:2 when he says "let every one of you ... each week ... set aside a specific sum of money in proportion to what you have earned" (i.e. 10%) and he tells us the reason in vs 9, "there's a wide open door (in other words, there are great opportunities for the work of a ministry), but there are many adversaries." Who do you suppose the opposition is? It is whoever is opposed to the members of the body of Christ. Why do you think they are so opposed to Christian Identity? Because we have the Spirit of God to get things going again. Just 80 years ago, the Klan was 5 million strong. And 70 years ago, Germany was purging its entire nation of antichrists. The adversary has been diligent in removing opportunities for our rebirth of a nation. By economically strapping potential members, the door is artificially closed. But that does not negate the energy for us to open the door as wide as we can.

The purpose of my calling is to bring forth the good news of our racial identity in relationship to Jesus Christ. And to expand the message, Lord willing, to as many White people who have ears to hear, that they may join our happy throng in compliance with the Word of God. Why?

Because it's the only real White Power we have available. Doing not only what Jesus did, but the Word says, "Greater works than these shall ye do." Do you think that makes the antichrist jew and alien hordes just a little bit nervous? As we become more givers than takers, God will give us our inheritance that He promised. But, to whom much is given, much is required.

As we progress into a biblical membership, we mature in our commitment to a vision. A vision is a plan with a purpose. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." (Prov 29:18). As we begin to resonate in unity, God will reciprocate in the gifts to each member's calling. Our Christian responsibility is service towards God and each other, which is a concept repugnant to pagans and secular humanists. The New World Order is the world of worthless selves, loyal to nothing except their own carnal appetites.

The discipline of a member is thus stated in Romans 12:3-5, "For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office (function); So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another." What's that mean? Each member, like a limb or a part of the body has a foreordained job to do. The Scottish Highland clans were comprised of a number of families which claimed a common ancestry. The composition of the clans were members of the family.

Each member of our church is responsible for developing the mind of Christ as well as a racial consciousness in themselves and in each other. As Adam said of Eve, "She is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh;" so too, we read in Ephesians 5:30, "We are members of His body (Christ), of His flesh and bones." We're the same genetic stock. That's why He is our Kinsman Redeemer. And in vs 31 it says, "For this cause shall a man ... be joined unto his wife and they two shall be one flesh." Does the Bible condone miscegenation? Certainly not! Verse 32 continues from the late Arnold Kennedy:

BRITISH-ISRAEL CREED CONTRADICTIONS

Any serious-minded person looking for answers through the various B-I "We Believe" statements would almost immediately identify contradictions within these statements. On the one hand we find a very precise limiting of the Bible's application to Israel only, but then we find the inclusion of "the world" which in their wrong view, means the "human race" as a whole. So double-mindedly the statements support EXCLUSIVE-NESS OF ISRAEL while at the same time also holding to Universalism.

with this thought, "This is a great mystery, but I speak concerning Christ and the church." Generally speaking, there is a misunderstanding between the conflicts of good and evil, especially since the reversal of good and evil is enigmatic within the delusional church itself. Interracial marriages are now commonplace and considered good. There will be those who call good evil and evil good.... a mystery indeed. May the gates of hell prevail against them!

The Marriage Supper of the Lamb is between Christ and the head of the Body (believers/overcomers) and the bride, Israel. The mystery is resolved when we understand that the many racially pure members of His body and His bride will be reunited as one. Our people are blind to their destiny because the world of Mystery Babylon (What Is Mystery Babylon, Sheldon Emry, #118 @ $9.60) has made war with the Lamb, but the good news is that the Lamb shall overcome them. The Light shineth in the darkness, and the darkness of race-mixing and multicultural churches comprehendeth it not. The pulpit pimps and pew prostitutes just don't get it, because they went a-whoring after strange gods. Praise God, we do get it! We can easily identify our adversaries as fierce murderers and liars, but we also recognize that the gates of hell shall not prevail against His chosen church, specifically, members of the body of Christ.

In conclusion, I wish to emphasize the blessings of a group of White Christians, be it a home church or a Bible study or political activists. When we enter a phase of growth, the emphasis is on the corporate nature or organic membership of Christian living, whereby we covenant with God and with each other. If you remember anything from this message, remember this: we become what we are committed to. The disciples were given more than the crowds Jesus spoke to. 1 Cor. 4:20 tells us, "For the Kingdom of God is not in word, but in power." Talk is cheap, but putting words into action is White Power - and White Power can only come through members of the body of Christ. To paraphrase Romans 6:13, "So stop offering your body and each and all of its members as weapons against righteousness. Instead offer your body and all its members as weapons of God. Come alive from the dead. Seek your commitment away from sin." The Holy War out there today is indeed split between the mystery of iniquity and the mystery of godliness. Choose ye this day whom ye will serve, and I guarantee that your members will become a merve of divine revelation.

Become a member of a church today, and work at it! If Pharaoh of old had scattered the Israelites across Egypt, as our people are scattered across the land today, he would not have had to worry about them becoming a problem. They would have been too busy with a job, promotion, growing their own veges, watching sport on television, furthering their Egyptian career and a thousand and one other things. But, because Israelites lived all together in the land of Goshen, separated from the Egyptians, they were with their own kind, and they had spouses, and they produced families - large families, which became the problem that Pharaoh feared.

TITHING A Holy Custom

by Earl Wolf

The practice of giving one-tenth of one's income to God is known as "tithing." The Lord has honoured this holy custom of His followers down through the centuries, and it is far more important than we often realize. The tithe is:

1. A Scriptural Principle. It is not a human device for meeting the financial demands upon the church. "The tenth shall be holy unto the Lord" (Lev. 27:32). Jesus approved this principle when He said to the Pharisees: "Ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cumin ... these ought ye to have done." (Matt. 23:23). The Apostle Paul approves the principle of tithing for New Testament believers.

2. A Biblical Minimum. It does not limit our giving, for it prescribes a basis and not a maximum. It places no ceiling upon gifts to the Master, but helps one to open the door to a genuine stewardship. Here is stewardship taking its "first steps."

3. A Christian Witness. Just as faithful attendance that the house of God is a witness before the community of belief in the church, so the consistent giving of the tithe is a testimonial of a constant and abiding faith in Jesus Christ. Giving is the fruit of faith.

4. An Acknowledgement of Ownership. Thereby do I acknowledge that I am not owner, but owner and trustee. God is inalienably Owner of all and I am undeniably the steward over my human estate. (Malachi 3:8). Tithing is an acknowledgement that God is Owner of all, just as paying rent is an indication of the ownership of another.

5. A Token of Consecration. It is our indication that we have surrendered all and made Him Lord of our lives. All our life's resources we have laid at His feet. (2 Chron. 31:6). The tithe is an evidence that one has ceased to be a patron and has become a partner.

6. A Symbol of Devotion. We tithe not legally but lovingly. Our tithing is not due to an external or legal pressure but because of an inner compulsion of love and devotion. (2 Chron. 31:5). Love always gives. Giving is as natural for the person who loves Christ supremely as it is for the sun to shine.

7. A Starting Point for Giving. It is the place of beginnings (Deut 12:6). and the wedge which opens the door to larger giving—the "And offerings" beyond the one-tenth. It prepares the way for the rich gifts of Mary's alabaster box of pure nard and the widow's mites.

8. An Expression of Gratitude. We cannot live successful Christian lives without gratitude. Tithing and generous living offer expression to this basic grace of the Christian life (Deut 14:28). The tithe is one of the many ways of expressing our thanks to God for all His goodness to us.

9. An Adventure in Blessing. It was Malachi who gave voice to that inspiring challenge: "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that they may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing that there shall not be room enough to receive it." (Malachi 3:10).

10. An Aid to World Evangelization. The tithe gives a consistency to one's support of the Christian conquest. It is faithfulness in stewardship and regularity in proportionate giving that will do the most in the support of the program of missions for earth's scattered Israelites. Tithing is vital to all the progress of Christianity (but beware that you cast not your pearls before swine, and do not give that which is holy to the dogs, Matthew 7:6).

HOW TO BE A SOCIALIST WITHOUT KNOWING IT by R.J. Rushdoony

At the Berkeley "Vietnam Day" Protest in 1965, one of the radical speakers told his listeners that a revolution with machine guns was "the least important" kind of revolution. The revolutions that are really important go on in people's minds and in the way they think and feel." The opposition has cause for rejoicing; this revolution has largely been won. People think and feel like socialists and communists

An important test of this is the question of guilt. From the Biblical perspective, a man is responsible for his thoughts and acts and is guilty of he transgresses the law. It is therefore a necessary act of maturity and of grace to confess our responsibility, to own up to our acts. A beautiful old prayer reads: "I confess to God Almighty, the Father, the Son and holy ghost, and before all the company of heaven, that I have sinned, in thought, word and deed, through my fault, my own fault, my own most grievous fault; wherefore I pray Almighty God to have mercy upon me, to forgive me all my sins, and to make clean my heart within me." Godly faith and character are the necessary ingredients for a good social order.

From the socialist perspective, man is not at fault. It is the environment. Lincoln Steffens said it was not Adam and Eve who were to blame for the fall of man: it was the apple! He meant this seriously; it is economic determinism. Man is seen as the creature, not of God, but of his environment. Man is therefore not a sinner; he is a victim. The criminal's problem is not bad character; rather, it is a bad environment, a poor home, and the like. As a result, we cannot blame the delinquent, or the criminal; we must blame their home, school, and employers. One lonely and protesting psychiatrist wrote recently that it is becoming dangerous nowadays to be related to anyone who is "mentally sick;" you, not the person, will be blamed for it! Parents are blamed for their children's sins, and no doubt soon children will be blamed if their parents go wrong!

When confronted by a man's crime, breakdown, or failure, do you blame circumstances, the family, other people, the economic system, or anything else other than the guilty individual? If so, congratulation! You have passed the first and basic test of socialism: Thou shalt not blame the man or call him a sinner, but thou shalt excuse him by blaming his environment. (just look at the judgments issued by the courts and see!)

All that socialism needs to succeed is for people to believe this. If you believe that the Bible is right, and that man is responsible, then you will try to change men, to bring them to Christ and to godly faith and character. If you believe it is not man but the environment which is to blame, then you will work to change man by changing the environment, by laws or revolution. Your hope for man will be in acts of Congress and in social revolution.

Remember: "The revolutions that are really important go on in people's minds." The basic revolution for Marx was to subvert men's trust in Christian faith and character as the force for true social change by substitution a belief that, not man but his environment, is to blame when man sins. Have you joined the revolution?

NOTES FROM THE BRIGHT SIDE

by David Loring

The title says it all. There will be nothing from the various "Ministries of Fear" that are extant in the world: cyber and "real." "Ministries of Fear" that are from Christian sources or otherwise.

To some reading this, I will be considered to be lacking as a "watchman on the wall." If you see fit to judge me in that fashion, that is perfectly fine with me. I have been screaming from the wall for the better part of two decades and I am getting hoarse and much worse than that, depressed. Those who have ears to hear (Matt 11:15) do not need me screaming at them. They can, and need, to listen to that still, small voice of holy spirit. Those that do not have ears to hear (Deut 29:4) cannot be affected by any amount of screaming. So for me, the screaming is over.

As to my second reason depression, this is something I can do something to combat: hence the start of these Notes From the Bright Side. Let me give a little background as to why I am doing this.

Years ago when I was learning the Christian Israel truth, I was also being bombarded by various "Ministries of Fear." One of these was the periodical called the Spotlight (a U.S. rough equivalent to the Strategy). I used to look forward to the weekly arrival of each issue. I would spend many hours pouring over the stories and verifying them on the internet. My wife, Kit, and I would discuss what we were learning and in the process get very worked up over what was "being done to us." In addition, there were ministries from whom I learned much, that I now see, were also "Ministries of Fear" as well. Way too much time was spent on what this group or that federal agency were doing, or were going to do to "us." Just an extension of the old "us" verses "them" gambit. Or perhaps more accurately, "them" against "us" as "they" had all the power.

It has been often said in different ways by many, ignorance is bliss. The "knowledge" that I was receiving from these various "Ministries of Fear" sure ruined my bliss! My wonderful bride pointed out to me in glowing terms just what a jerk I had become. She was right. I became a "fear junkie." Anybody who has ever been exposed to any kind of junkie knows exactly how bad this can be. "Fear junkies" are just like other types of junkies, they will attempt to "hook" others on the same junk. They spread the disease. In this case, they (me) spread fear. The real problem is that the wrong far is being spread aboutthe fear of Man. Only YHWH God is to be feared.

Later, when a person becomes a part of the Body of Christ, we are no longer to be in a position of fear as we are now "heirs to the adoption" (Rom 8:14-25) and a part of the family. As in most families we only have to fear "Dad" when we screw up. As in most families, if we repent we do not have to fear His Wrath. We will still be chastised though as He does not allow bad deeds to go unpunished. His punishment will cause us to grow in righteousness and not err again. This is known as the Gospel or Good News. The Bad News is when we fear the creature, Man, and his bad news more than we fear the Creator! This is where I found myself diseased. I have also seen this same disease in many of my brothers and sisters in Christ.

It's time to go "cold turkey" and get off of the junk. I am aware that there will be many "fear junkies" who are not ready to make this commitment. That's OK by me, I still love you and will be here, YHWH willing, when you are ready to join me. In the mean time if you do not want to receive mailings from me, just let me know. I will kick the old habit. I will rejoice in Yahshua Christ and I want to share my joy in Him. The memory of the joy was dimmed by the "fear junk." I want it back.

Many thanks to all who continue to support and pray for this work. We appreciate your letters, orders, and your ongoing support. Please continue trying to get your adult children interested in reading this material, as we need to replace some of the readers who have passed away. May our Heavenly Father bless and keep you, make His face shine on you and give you His peace and in His care,
