

Christian Identity Ministries

A member of the Congregations of Israel

PO Box 146, CARDWELL QLD 4849, Australia

Ph: 07-4066 0146 (International 61-7 instead of 07) www.christianidentityministries.com - hr\_cim@bigpond.com

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian people are ISRAEL!

#278

Covenant Messenger

May AD2009

(a publication of N.Q. Fellowship of God's Covenant People)

"CHOOSING A WIFE"

by J.R. MILLER (1840-1912)

On no other subject do young people need wise, loving counsel more than in preparing for marriage. One reason is that it is possible to make a mistake. Not every marriage is happy. Of all mistakes this is one of the saddest, for it is irretrievable. If a man does not like his house, he can move out of it; if your companions are not congenial, you can drop them, but when you have taken the marriage vows there is not honorable release.

A WISE MARRIAGE

A wise marriage leads a man to the noblest, truest, fullest, and best life. Thousands of men owe all their success and prosperity to their choice of a wife. She has been the good angel of their destiny. There is a fable of a lump of common clay which was made fragrant by the rose which rested beside it. Countless men of common mould have been transformed into rare beauty, refinement, and grace of character, by the gentle woman whom they were so blessed as to find for a wife. A wise man wants a wife who will make something of him, whose influence will ever inspire him to do his best.

Of course a man must marry the woman he loves. It will not do to look merely for the qualities which make a good wife, and then, without affection, or any leading of the heart, "choose" her. At the same time there is room for the exercise of common sense in this as in all other decisions of life. too many men make the mistake of following only their heart's guidance, and learn too late what fools they were. God has given us a mind as well as a heart, and we are responsible for thought as well as for feeling. Without love, a marriage is a mockery; yet a man should be sure that the woman he loves is worthy.

QUALITIES OF A WORTHY WIFE

What are some of the qualities of a worthy wife? For one thing, a man does not want a mere toy wife, something too fine, too ethereal, for this work-a-day world. She should be a woman who can bear her share of the burdens, who can endure toil and sacrifice, and grow all the lovelier meanwhile. Wordsworth's picture is good:

A creature not too bright or good
For human nature's daily food.
The reason firm, the temperate will,
Endurance, foresight, strength, and skill;
A perfect woman, nobly planned,
To warn, to comfort, and command,
And yet a spirit still and bright
With something of an angel light.

A wife a man chooses should be a good housekeeper.

To some romantic young lovers this will seem a very prosaic feature to put into the picture. They are moving just now in a sort of third heaven atmosphere, in which such matters as housekeeping seem almost profane, but never mind; they will not be many weeks married before they will come down out of the clouds to walk on common earth, and then alas, if the poor woman does not prove a good housewife!

An ancient philosopher, roaming at night, and gazing at the sky while he walked, stumbled and fell. His companion said to him, "One should not have his head in the stars while his feet are on the earth." There are women who live in sentimental dreams, among the stars, neglecting meanwhile the duties which lie close to their hands. It may be set down as a positive rule, whether in palace or cottage, that the wife whose home will be happy and permanently beautiful must know how to work with her own hands at the commonplace, house-wifely tasks which the days bring to her. Good breakfasts, dinners, and suppers, good bread, good coffee, in a word, good housekeeping—far more than many young lovers dream does wedded happiness depend upon just such unromantic realities as these.

One of St. Paul's special counsels for young women is that they be "keepers at home." As our common version renders it and that is good too; but in the Revised Version it reads "workers at home." That is, the place for a young

IN THIS ISSUE:

Choosing a Wife, J.R. Miller, .....	1
Christian Schools versus Homeschooling, .....	2
A World Gone Mad, .....	5
The Decline of Christianity Parallels the Decline, ...	5
The Saddest Story Ever Told, .....	10
Divine Providence, .....	11
There Is No Political Solution, .....	12
Calling Evil Good and Good Evil, .....	14

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

wife's most sacred duty is in her own home. No doubt women have a wide field for Christlike usefulness in ministering to human need and sorrow outside; but in performing such ministries, however beautiful and noble, a wife should never neglect her divinest duties—those which lie within her own doors. A young man in choosing a wife would better seek one, a prominent feature of whose piety is to be a good housekeeper and homemaker.

Another suggestion is that in choosing a wife a man should look for a woman of sweet temper. It is said that a young man wrote to Mr. Wesley asking his advice concerning marriage. There were two girls. One was gentle, loving, patient, sweet spirited, but not a professing Christian. The other was a church member and active in Christian work, but fiery tempered. Which would Mr. Wesley advise him to marry? Promptly came the answer, "The woman of the loving disposition."

A GODLY WOMAN'S INFLUENCE

Nothing else can take the place of love in a home; nothing else can supply its lack. There are many women who have so much of the spirit of love and gentleness that they fill their home with the fragrance of Heaven and the calm of God. With husbands faulty, sometimes exacting, unreasonable, arbitrary, and petulant; with the many burdens and cares of the household filling brain, hand, and heart, and often times well-nigh crushing their frail shoulders—these noble wives move on day by day, month by month, unvexed in spirit, unfretting, gentle, patient, uncomplaining, wearing always a bright face, bright with the benediction of love, speaking always sweet and quieting words, and shedding ever over all their home life the sacred influences of a ministering affection.

Let the young man who is seeking a wife seek for a girl who has in her face and spirit the sweet, budding prophecy of such womanhood as this. Then he will make no mistake in marriage. His wife will do him good and not evil all the days of her life; and if she should be taken from his side, her epitaph may fitly be in Whittier's words:

The blessing of her quiet life
Fell on us like the dew;
And good thought, where her footsteps pressed,
Like fairy blossoms grew. -
Sweet promptings unto kindest deeds
Were in her very look;
We read her face as one who read
A true and holy book. -
The measure of a blessed hymn
To which our hearts could move;
The breathing of an inward Psalm,
A canticle of love. -

A young man should desire for his wife a woman who will be in perfect sympathy with his life. If he marries a woman who regards herself as above him, too good for his station, or shamed of his occupation or business, she will probably not make him happy. or if she has no interest in the things that are dear to him, no sympathy with him in the object to which his life is devoted, she will not be a helpful wife. It is important that in marrying there should be complete blending of lives and interests. A true wife must ever look up into her husband's face with confidence and pride. She must stand by him, not only when he is prosperous, but just as loyally and affectionately when burdens press and cares multiply, and when his heart is heavy with discouragement. If she fails him then, if she blames and chides him because things are not going well, it makes his struggle ten times harder; but of she meets trouble with strong faith, adverse circumstances with abounding hope, and loss of money with cheerful courage and ever gentler love, he is an ignoble man if he does not grow braver and strong in the midst of his difficulties.

In choosing a wife, therefore, a wise young man will seek for one who will enter with zest into all his life, who will stand close beside him in the day of struggle and adversity, and who will ever inspire him to noble and brave things.

Once more, it needs no argument to prove that a young man should choose none but a good woman for his wife. A worldly man may imagine that he does not want a pious wife; but if the truth were confessed, even such a man, deep down in his heart, would rather have for his wife a woman who reads her Bible, prays, and lives a Godly life, than one who is prayerless, Godless, and worldly. Religion adorns and beautifies a woman's character, clothing it with tender grace. Even a prayerless man feels safer in his home if he knows that his wife kneels morning and night before the God of Israel in prayer.

Abraham sent his servant to his kinfolk to find a wife for Isaac. Isaac sent Jacob away that he might not marry a Canaanite woman (Genesis 26:34) like Esau did. Any young man would better go to the ends of the earth, if necessary, in search of a wife, than marry a Canaanite or any but a truly good (Israelite) woman, one who loves God, and in whose heart God's love dwells. If he marries such a wife, they can kneel together on their marriage night at the feet of Christ, and seek his benediction upon their union. Then together they can walk through this world hand in hand, sustained by divine grace, comforted in sorrow and strengthened in weakness, their faces ever looking heavenward, and brightened by the hope of glory that streams down from the pearl gates. Then, even death will separate them but for a little while, and together they will ever be with the LORD.

(James Russell Miller (1840-1912) wrote over 80 books, booklets, and pamphlets from a Christian perspective).
Courtesy, Home School Digest, Box 374, Covert MI 49043

CHRISTIAN SCHOOLS VS HOMESCHOOLING by Israel Wayne

The focus of this article is to compare the Christian school classroom with a home-learning environment for the purpose of equipping parents to make a well-informed and, hopefully, Biblical decision regarding how to provide their children with a Christ-centered, God-honoring education.

As a student, I was entirely home-educated, except for

New LOAN ONLY Video: THE EYE OF THE PHOENIX Secrets of the Dollar Bill.

This is the third volume in the Secret Mysteries series unfolding the hidden layers of America's beginnings.

Explores more on the founding of America, with a focus on the history of the dollar bill. What is the meaning of its symbols? How was the Great Seal designed, and how did it end up on America's currency? Is the Great Seal truly a Masonic emblem?

Learn the mystery surrounding FDR and his VP, Henry Wallace. Both men were high level Freemasons who chose to put the Great Seal on the back of the dollar bill. What was their reason for doing so?

And how did the famed artist and Russian mystic, Nicholas Roerich influence them? What was FDR's "New Deal" dollar supposed to symbolize? And what role did Masonic philosopher Manly P. Hall play in the final design for the unfinished pyramid?

DVD#CI-641 @ sug LOAN don $5.00

you may want to take some of this with a pinch of salt! It discredits the Stone of Destiny!

second and sixth grades, which I spent in two different private Christian schools. Over the years, I have often been asked the question, "Do you plan to homeschool your own children?" Anyone who has read my book, Homeschooling From a Biblical Worldview, knows that I have a strong conviction that we must give our children a Christian education. My desire in writing this article is not to create division among sincere Christians, but rather I hope my personal insights might be useful for other parents who feel pulled between these two options.

THE PURPOSE OF AN EDUCATION

As Christians, we should not forget that the modern-day classrooms, with all its institutional, production-oriented trappings, was invented by Prussian and socialist educators who desired to get children out of their homes and into classrooms with peers their own age, for the purpose of disintegrating the influence of the family, segregating youth into peer groups and indoctrinating a generation of young minds.

These socialist educators knew that simply removing children from the sheltered and supervised home, where they received constant oversight from their parents, would begin the deterioration of the family as a cultural force. Children would automatically switch their allegiance from the parents to the peer group, and thus the entire "herd" could be controlled and directed (or at least so they hoped). Institutional classroom learning is, by nature, the best context for teaching the masses a particular doctrine. When parents teach their own children, it is more difficult to have uniformity and standardization in terms of ideas and worldviews. For this reason, the State and in many cases churches, choose this methodology. They want all of their children within their reach to believe and live the same way.

The goal of an education, from a Biblical worldview, is discipleship: "A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher" (Luk 6:40NIV). With this goal in mind, the interaction of teacher and child is very important. As a Christian parent, I believe I have been given the responsibility to train, instruct and disciple my own child. "Come, ye children, harken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD" (Psalm 34:11). How can my child become like me if he or she is rarely around me. In a Christian school, my child is becoming like his teacher (which is, in truth, most likely the other students in the class, rather than the adult who stands up front).

As much as we might like the idea (I hope we don't), of turning our children over to someone else for their education, the Biblical responsibility still rests with us. There is a fine line between legitimately delegating authority to someone else and abdicating our responsibility to parent our own children. (We will deal with this a bit more later).

THE SOCIALIZATION ISSUE

Some people send their children to school classrooms so they can have socialization opportunities with other children their age. Personally, the socialization I experienced in Christian schools was mostly negative. I found myself compromising moral standards to fit in with my peer group. A companion of fools will be destroyed (Proverbs 13:20), even if the fools come from Christian homes.

I found that most (not all of course) of the students in the Christian schools I attended did not have a genuine relationship with Jesus Christ. Many had simply learned the art of looking churchy and saying the right things in front of the teachers.

The school I attended in sixth grade only went to eighth grade. Even at that age the students were involved in drug and alcohol use, pornography, satanic heavy metal 'music,' lying, watching R-rated movies, and sexual activity.

Their parents, of course, would have defended them to the death, insisting that they were "good" kids. I don't mean to imply that this behavior never happens in a homeschool family, but I do believe that homeschooling parents are more likely to know what their children are doing and could at the least keep their children from directly having these kinds of hoodlums as companions and role models.

While it should never happen among so-called Christian youth, I have learned that the pressures to conform to the herd are just as powerful in a Christian school classroom as they are elsewhere. Particularly during middle school and junior high, the desire to fit in and be accepted is overwhelming. Personally, I don't think there is a more vicious pack of carnivorous beasts on the planet than a group of junior high students. There are many adults who still carry around the wounds and scars of their adolescence. Many young people during this transformational age are scared and uncertain about themselves and their place in the world. They feel vulnerable and don't want to show their fears, so they look for weakness in others and lunge at any opportunity to exploit it. They feel that if they can expose a flaw or shortcoming in someone else, that the pack, like a bunch of rabid sharks, will attack the wounded companion and leave them alone. While aggression may be motivated out of a wrong-headed self-preservation, but the comments, verbal jabs and snubs directed at others sometimes leave their mark for life.

The pressure to find a boyfriend or girlfriend, to always be obsessed with someone of the opposite sex, and the pull to dress to attract attention, is rampant in most Christian schools. These problems don't automatically go away by homeschooling, but they certainly can be diminished if the parents make a concerted effort.

THE FORM AND STRUCTURE OF EDUCATION

Even when the curriculum at the local Christian school is Christ-centered and the teachers are good role models, the overall atmosphere of the school environment may not be very Christ-like. In many cases, the teachers may not really have a Biblical worldview. Some teachers have received their teaching credentials from humanistic colleges and universities, and they may inadvertently undermine a Christian world and life view. Some teachers have a sincere, heart-felt belief in Christ, but their thinking is not solidly Biblical. Particularly the form and methodology employed in classroom teaching is often not based on Scripture, but rather on secular and unscriptural paradigms.

In terms of worldviews, Dan Smithwick of the Nehemiah Institute has shown a steady decline in the distinctly

Old Historic Videos:

THE BORDER IS OPEN - and SUBVERSION USA

the Late Col. Jack Mohr talks about developments in Mexico, and the US response

+

MEAT IN DUE SEASON - and THE KEYS OF THE KINGDOM

two messages by Larry Lundgren.

The meat is the strong part of the Word, which is not for everyone.

DVD#CI-080 @ sug don $15

COME OUT OF BABYLON

late Sheldon Emry (a classic)

JEWRY: A FALSE PEOPLE

Alan Campbell

EXPLODING THE 'CHOSEN PEOPLE' MYTH by Col Jack Mohr

ISRAEL'S IDENTITY - in 2 Parts

late Col Jack Mohr.- 5 timeless messages

DVD#CI-081 @ sug don $15

Christian belief systems of students in traditional Christian classrooms. Their worldview is becoming more humanistic and socialistic all the time.

I have reached the conclusion that the form and structure of classroom learning is more conducive to creating a "herd," or a "group-think" mentality than it is for preparing creative individuals who can reason independently of the peer influence. Even in a Christian classroom you are usually trying to teach to the "average" student. You have to "standardize" the education for the masses (or at least the little masses). This detracts from allowing for individual learning styles and discourages unique students who don't learn the same way or at the same pace as the rest of the class.

In a home learning setting, you can customize the curriculum to fit around the child. In a classroom, if your child learns a little differently than the school expects them to, they may find themselves falling through the cracks.

DISTRACTIONS AND LEARNING DISABILITIES

As a hyperactive, attention deficient student myself, I can attest that the learning environment of the classroom was not best for me. My older sister could tune out the distractions of the other students and focus on her studies. I could not. Not only was I distracted; I was a major distraction to many other students. One of our teachers actually made me my own special cardboard cubicle that stood about five foot high around my desk on the second row so that I and the other students could concentrate. If I had a question, I would wave a large Christian flag above the cubicle and the teacher would come over, peer over the edge of the box and see what I needed. He also grounded me for an entire year from going outside for recess because he thought it might help me to get more done if I worked when the other students were gone. It didn't really help. Homeschooling worked much better for me.

Before entering the sixth grade classroom I was testing at a grade ahead academically. When I left a year later, I was testing below that I had the previous year. It also became clear around this time that I had a reading problem commonly known as dyslexia. This made it embarrassing for me if I had to stand in front of the class to read. I needed special tutoring to help me learn to read, but the teachers simply didn't have time to give me any special academic attention. Again, homeschooling the next year was a lifesaver for me. Even if they had tried to enroll me in a "special class" for my reading struggles, I would have been too concerned about what the other students would think of me (they would have been sure to point out how dumb I was) to submit to their help. However, at home, with no one there but my mother and sisters, I could humble myself and get the help I needed. If not for homeschooling, I would probably still be functionally illiterate.

Academically, nearly everyone will concede that a lower student/teacher ratio means that the student will have the advantage of individual tutorship and attention. It is hard to have a better student/teacher ratio than in a home-school!

TIME AND MONEY

One reason that many parents choose Christian schools over homeschooling is the time involved in teaching their own children at home. If parents are both working outside the home, homeschooling may be impractical for them. At the very least, I am thankful that many parents sacrifice themselves financially to make sure their children are being given a chance to receive a Christian education. In the final analysis, however, what most children really want is time with their parents. They don't care how much money the family makes. They want to know that they are loved and are the primary responsibility in mom and dad's lives. It would be a shame if parents are ever too busy to home-school their own children.

There is a myth that children will always receive a better academic education in a classroom than they will if uncertified, and sometimes fairly uneducated, parents teach them.

For the 2000-2001 school year, it cost American taxpayers, an average of $8,311 per year, per child to give their child a government school education. (source: ACSI.org). The average cost for admission into a Christian classroom ranges from between $3,000-$4,000 per year, per student. In contrast, most homeschoolers spend less than $600 per year per student.

QUALIFICATIONS

Even though they spend so little per student on education, homeschoolers consistently outperform their traditional Christian school counterparts on academic and Christian worldview assessment tests (see NHERI.org and Nehemiah Institute.org).

This is true even when the homeschooling parents only have a high school diploma! "A parent's education background has no substantive effect on their children's home-school academic performance, according to this study, Home-educated students' test scores remain between the 80th and 90th percentiles, whether their mothers have a college degree or did not complete high school" (hslsda.org).

Parents often have a very low expectation of their ability to teach their own children. We have bought into the mythology that we must always be subservient to "experts." I would posit that no one knows your child better than you do! You are the chief expert when it comes to teaching your particular child.

CONCLUSION

My purpose in writing this article is not to bring condemnation on Christian parents who are making huge financial sacrifices trying their best to provide a quality Christian education through Christian schooling. My goal is to try to encourage parents that sending their children to a Christian school probably will not provide their children with better socialization, academics, spiritual instruction, or family relationships. Tests are showing that the average home-schooled student is doing better in terms of academic success, Biblical Worldview, and social skills, than the average Christian-schooled student. I don't believe this is reason for home-schoolers to become cocky and feel superior. Frankly, most of home-schoolers are not doing as well on these points as they could be.

I do believe, however, that if we abdicate our God-given role to instruct our children, and hand them over to someone else to be educated, we are missing out on many of the wonderful blessings that God has for us. Even if the schoolteachers are Christians, with better certification than we have as parents, we are missing the chance to allow God to work His own character into our lives. Home-schooling is about discipleship. It is about God changing the hearts of the parents and children to conform us all into the image of Christ. There aren't any shortcuts to reaching that end. We

Tapes of the Month:
ANOTHER GOSPEL - pts 10 through 18 (cont. from Apr.)
The messenger and the Gospel; Door days, Baptism & the Gospel; Slavery, Freedom & the Gospel; Battle for Freedom; The Law of Love; The Secret to Pleasing God; The Spirit of Fellowship; The Christian's Duty; The Other Side of the Cross.
pastor Lawrence Blanchard
#D-073 through D-081
second half of the set 9 tapes this month @ $30

should be willing to embrace the call to lay down our lives for our own children and model the life of Christ in front of them. (Israel Wayne is the Marketing Director for Home School Digest. He is the author of Homeschooling From A Biblical Worldview; an excellent study guide which is available from Wisdom's Gate. www.ChristianWorldview.net)

Courtesy Home School Digest, Box 374, Covert MI 49043

A WORLD GONE MAD by Robert McCurry

Anyone with an ounce of discernment can tell that our world is losing it. sin has its consequences; and it's clear to many now that we are beginning to reap what we have sown.

Oh sure, there have always been liars, thieves, conmen, murderers, drunkenness, debauchery, lasciviousness, perversion, profanity, blasphemy, violence and cruelty; but have you ever seen depravity so widely accepted in America? And, what a passion and pride we have for it now!

Brazen sin, as the Bible defines it, has become our cultural standard - the rule rather than the exception. That's what brought fire and brimstone raining down on Sodom and Gomorrah! And we act as if that tragic story from Genesis 19 was just a fable - that the Lord would never actually bring judgment to the fruited plain (For a visual of the destroyed cities, see CI-245 Surprising Discoveries 2 with Jonathan Gray.) But, God does not need America—America needs God: God does not need Australia—Australia needs God.

We're so proud of our depravity that we mass market now (Mardi Gras). It's what America is known for around the world. It's our trademark! And, selling our depravity as entertainment is no longer limited to the seedy side of society, but is now readily available in primetime and on main street in almost every format and venue imaginable, as news, commentary, business, music, sports, politics, religion, retail, drama, documentary, gossip, cartoon, commercial, sitcom, stand-up, talk show, game show, and reality RV.

It's on your big screen—it's on your lap top—it's on your radio—it's on your CDs, DVDs, MP3s and in 3D. It's on your cell phone and on your home phone—it's in your mailbox and in your inbox.

It's on billboards, banners and in bathrooms—it's in courtrooms, classrooms and chat rooms. It's in print ads and in want ads—in pop-ups and in previews—on T-shirts and tattoos and clothes you can see through.

It's in analog, digital, high def and blue ray—it's in musicals and plays both on and off Broadway. It's in videos, in bloopers, in trailers and in teasers to tempt everyone from grade-schoolers to geezers.

It's at the ballgame—it's at the theater—it's at the mall—it's at the park—it's on parade—it's in concert in broad daylight and at dark. It's in hotels and motels, in lodges and in bars—it's right out your window and staring from cars.

It's in clubhouses, bathhouses, crack houses and church houses—where cursing and lewdness are met with round-houses. It's in studios, spas, salons, and in parlors—at clinics and centers that take credit or dollars.

It's right on the shelves of your local library—it's in magazines and tabloids where customers tarry at the grocery, the bookstore, the drug store and quick mart—with shocking new photos and headlines of gossip.

It's at your kid's school and in back of the bus—and hidden in lockers behind all their stuff. It's studied at college in classes with teachers proclaiming their theories like humanist preachers.

It's just business—a living—a career move—an occupational hazard—a hobby—a pastime—a charity event—a good cause—a talent—a gift—a vice—an accident—an excuse—a diversion—a disease—a disorder—a journey—a ministry—a memoir—a book deal—a good deal—a way out of poverty and a means to an end—not to mention a basic human right.

Sin has come a long way since the Garden of Eden, but its wages are still the same even though many would have us believe it's all relevant in our evolutionary world—a sure sign of madness. - And where is the church in all this??

They're right in the middle of it looking for market share with a designer Jesus.

New LOAN ONLY Video:

FEARFULLY & WONDERFULLY MADE

Dr. David Menton explains from anatomical science and biology the truth of Psalm 139:13-16, which says that God weaves us together in the womb. This illustrated lecture also reveals the amazing and intricate design of the womb and the processes of fertilization, implantation, embryonic development and birth itself. Dr. Menton shows that each of these is a series of miracles (irreducible complexities) that cannot be explained by chance and random processes. Even more important, as Dr. Menton explains with grace and sensitivity in the wrap-up of the video, is the second "birth" process of salvation explained in John 3. Truly an awe-inspiring resource. (there were many things that we did not know).

DVD#CI-640 LOAN ONLY @ sug don $5

"For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever." - 1 John 2:16-17.

Courtesy Wake-Up Herald, by email. <herbap@aol.com> -----

THE DECLINE OF CHRISTIANITY PARALLELS THE DECLINE OF THE CAUCASIAN PEOPLE

by pastor Dave Barley

Please pay careful attention to what I am about to tell you. America's declining Christian population is no accident. True Biblical Christianity has declined among the end-time nations of White Christian Israel (America, Canada, Europe, England, Australia and New Zealand) to the degree that non-Caucasian alien people have immigrated into our lands. Not that long ago, America was clearly predominantly populated by Caucasian Christian people, but as eastern pagan idol worshipping aliens were allowed into this nation, Christianity has declined in ratio to the influx of foreign people who were not of our kind. This is not good for them, or us, and many aliens or strangers among us can see these sad results almost better than we can and they are also concerned.

Niall Ferguson, a writer for the magazine VANITY FAIR, in his article, "LESSONS UNLEARNED," stated: "A hundred years ago, as we have seen, the West could justly claim to rule the . After a century during which one Western empire after another has declined or failed, that can no longer credibly be claimed."

An article by Michael Cooper, assistant professor of Christian Ministries the School of Biblical and Religious Studies at Trinity International University, appeared in the Winter/Spring 2004 issue of Sacred Tribes the Journal of Christian Missions to New Religious Movements" and is titled CONTRIBUTING FACTORS IN THE RESURGENCE OF PAGANISM IN WESTERN SOCIETY. Cooper finds that Christianization of Europe led to many Pagan practices being “integrated into the church and were never completely extinguished. Cooper believes that in a sense it is incorrect to talk about a “resurgence” of Paganism since “for all practical purposes, paganism was hiding in the church.”

BBC Team interestingly enough did an article entitled, HISTORY OF MODERN PAGANISM (<http://www.bbc.co.uk/religion/>):

“The 1960s and 1970s were times of radical social change. Hinduism and Taoism helped shape contemporary Paganism as the hippy trail led people to become interested in Eastern religions and philosophies. Other traditions were also revived and incorporated into Pagan practices.

North Americans rediscovered Native American traditions and the Afro-American traditions of Santeria, Candomble and Vodoun. European traditions reconstructed local holy sites and resurrected traditional ceremonies.

Paganism found an ally in the ecological and feminist movements of the 1960s. Pagan philosophies appealed to many eco-activists, who also saw Nature as sacred and recognized the Great Goddess as Mother Nature. The image of the witch was taken up by feminists as a role-model of the independent powerful woman, and the single Great Goddess as the archetype of women’s inner strength and dignity.”

The article goes on to say, “Paganism has grown in popularity greatly during the last hundred years. The growth coincides with a decline in Christianity.”

In his book, The Death of the West: How Dying Populations and Immigrant Invasions Imperil Our Country and Civilization, Patrick J. Buchanan describes several factors contributing to what he terms “the death of the West.” One factor is a declining white Christian population in Western Europe, Russia, and America as women refuse to bear children in significant numbers. He discusses the impact of unchecked immigration on the West. The negative effects of high levels of immigration and the toleration of high levels of anti-Christian cultures is that it has weakened western civilization. Evidence is mounting that as immigration increases, Christianity decreases.

Yes, I am fully aware of the fact that there are millions of racially mixed people who had no decision in what their racial makeup is and as far as I am concerned, they have no reason to be ashamed or belittle themselves in the slightest, because they are created by God and as such should have basic rights. These ‘natural’ rights, if properly understood and supported are not wrong, as long as they stem from the Word of God. We must all turn to the Word of God for clarity and understanding with any condition, and this does not mean or imply that God’s Word will be easy or will even conform to our thinking. I must say this, whenever man corrupts something by doing that which seems right in his own eyes, sad results will occur and the Biblical solution to correct the wrongs will often seem unfair.

“Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.” Heb. 12:11.

The purpose of this article is not to answer all of your questions about race, that would take a rather large book to do so, rather my intent is to awaken or perhaps reawaken you with this warning presented with the election of Obama and the world’s rampant embrace of racial insignificance.

LESSONS FROM NEHEMIAH AND EZRA

Concerning racially mixed people, God’s Word is actually very clear. Let’s consider the following verses from Nehemiah 13:23-27:

“In those days also saw I Jews (Judeans) that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab: And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews’ (Hebrew) language, but according to the language of each people. And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves. Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin. Shall we them hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying strange wives?”

OK, let’s consider what we have just read. We just read from God’s Word that Nehemiah was extremely ticked off that the Hebrew people were taking wives from people who were not of their own kind. Can anyone actually believe that race and interracial marriage was not a factor in these verses? What right did Nehemiah have to so strongly oppose the children of Israel intermarrying with the other races if God’s Word did not forbid such unions?

Nehemiah was a tremendous leader and uniter of his people. This is why he put his faith into action in rebuilding the wall of Jerusalem. This is also why Nehemiah warned his Israelite brethren not to give their sons or daughters to the other races. If conversion was the only concern, then why didn’t Nehemiah just tell them to convert the stranger, then it’s okay to marry them? But he clearly did not even suggest this as a possibility, did he? Why, because they bring their pagan culture (even if only a small portion) and families with them (sooner or later).

Certainly, we should not miss the fact that the mixing of Israelites with these people outside of their ethnic group was so serious, that it is referred to as “sin,” even describing Solomon’s participant corruption in this regard as a sin as well!

Also, why would the Word of God bring up the speech differences between these mixed races? Think about it. If “faith or religion” is the only issue or restriction as some people claim concerning marrying outside of one’s race, then why would the speech of these mixed children even be an issue? Is speaking a different language, or hav-

New Tapes:

J-215 Prepared Hearts, pt 2, John Weaver

J-216 Turning Love into Hate, John Weaver

E-268 Fill the Valley with Ditches, Everett Ramsey

E-269 God’s Greatest Judgment on His People,

Everett Ramsey

E-270 Teaching Children About God, Everett Ramsey

E-271 The Queen of Judah, pt 3, Don Elmore

K-554 The Blessings, the Terms & the Oath, pt 1,

James Bruggeman

K-555 The Blessings, the Terms & the Oath, pt 2,

James Bruggeman

---

LOAN ONLY CD

CD#U-289 General Management Kills Needed to

Run a Business, Wade Meyers

CD#U-290 The Blessings of failure: How & Why God

Uses Entrepreneurial Disasters, Jim Leininger

CD#U-291 Closing Session: Vision for the Future, &

Awards, Doug Phillips & panel.

ing a different language accent a violation of God's Law? Certainly it isn't. But the Judeo-Christian world does teach that God's Word is not racially-oriented, in that it does not segregate the races or recognize their differences because God is color blind according to them. Therefore, certain Christians feeling secure with ample worldly support behind them maintain that all races of people can intermarry if they want to, as long as the man and woman are both 'Christian.' So again, I ask, then why in these verses would the speech of the offspring of these interracial mixed people even be an issue with Nehemiah? Language variation was not the problem or sin, although it was a noticeable difference. The real problem was that Israelites were taking to themselves "strange wives," as stated in vs 27. The language variation was just the evidence that this mixing had occurred. Why else would the "speech" difference be an issue?

We should understand that God Almighty is very protective and gives specific instructions concerning His Covenant people Israel. They are under an Abrahamic Covenant with the Creator. The other races are not under this covenant; however, they are under His authority because God almighty is their Creator as well. A separate Creator does not exist for them, and they should be highly encouraged to know the true Creator and understand their proper place in His creation.

The "stranger" could dwell in the land of Israel, and in doing so would be bound by the same laws (one law for all the land-Ex 12:49), which means that they would be "ADULTERY." They would be forbidden to adulterate their seed, or adulterate themselves with any of the false religions. God did not give two commandments that mean the same thing (seventh and tenth). The strangers did not have the same rights, freedoms, liberties, responsibilities, authority. They certainly had many freedoms and liberties, but could not own land or hold office within the nations of Israel. For example, Deut 17:15 says: "... thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother..." SORRY OBAMA - you don't qualify!

When I refer to the "nations of Israel," most of you understand of course that the world has a false understanding as to who the true Israel people are, in that their understanding on this subject stops at the term "Jew." They are blind to the unfolding of the Abrahamic Covenant that is upon the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian, Germanic and kindred people.

But let us get back to the subject of "adultery." To commit adultery includes a variety of different sins of the flesh which go beyond, but certainly also includes coveting another man's wife. The sin of "adultery" from the Theological Workbook of the Old Testament in reference to Strong's Concordance reference number 5005 (adultery) also means: "illicit heterosexual relations but not necessarily in violation of the marriage vow, and the noun, nokriya, a foreign woman."

Now before we go any further in our discussion of this important topic, please do not be offended by this study. Let the truth set you free by seeking to know God's Will for you. As an example, women are not men, and men are not women, except in a worldly perverse sense as is celebrated by the antichrist culture of today. Women and men not only look different, they have different roles and functions, but all are necessary and valued. We can get upset by these differences and strive to make both equal, but physically, there are just some things a man can do that a woman cannot do, and vice versa. Simple enough.

FAMILY CARE

We rightfully care about our immediate family, but we must also care about the perseverance of our racial family. Never be shamed for loving and wanting to help your racial kinsmen. Race-mixing dishonors your race and actually aids in its demise. Look about you fellow Israelites; look at what is happening to your kinsmen by the racial perversion encouraged by the perverted who only want to change you into what they have become. The book of Deuteronomy is one of the books containing God's Laws for Israel. God's Law was given unto the Covenant Hebrew people of Israel and God's Law forbids Israel from making marriage covenants with non-Israelites. Here is what we read in Deuteronomy 7:1-14,

"When the LORD thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier than thou; and when the LORD thy God shall deliver them before thee; thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, [DB, Marriage is a covenant] nor shew mercy unto them: Neither shalt thou make marriages with them; thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor his daughter shalt thou take unto thy son. For they will turn away thy son from following me, that they may serve other gods: so will the anger of the LORD be kindled against you, and destroy thee suddenly."

Please notice that God's Word strictly forbids Israelites from making marriage with people who were clearly non-Israelites. There are numerous Bible verses that command Israelites not to marry those of other races, such as: Gen. 28:6; Exod. 34:15-16; Numb. 25:6-11; Deut. 7:1-3; Josh. 23:12-13; Judges 3:5-8; 1 Kings 11:1-2; Ezra 9:1-2, 12; Ezra 10:2-3, 10-11; Neh. 10:30; Neh. 13:25-27. People who want to justify interracial marriage between Israelites and non-Israelites believe that they can justify such unions by simply joining together racially different people as long as they are both Christian, BUT GOD'S WORD DOES NOT EXTEND SUCH "LIBERTY" TO JUSTIFY OR RATIONALIZE AWAY WHAT HE SPECIFICALLY TELLS US NOT TO DO. He told Israel not to do it, period! He did not say that it's okay if you convert them. Exodus is another book of God's Law, and it says, 34:12-16:

"Take heed to thyself, lest thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land whither thou goest, lest it be for a snare in the midst of thee: (like 'land rights' and 'native title' and 'traditional owners' etc) But ye shall destroy their altars, break their images, and cut down their groves (not elevate them to 'sacred sites,' or 'sacred artifacts,' to be stored in museums, or preserve their 'rock art' in caves). For thou shalt worship no other god (acknowledging and helping preserve those things is worshipping another god):

DVD you may have missed

William Shakespeare's

THE MERCHANT OF VENICE

with

Lawrence Olivier and Joan Plowright
This classic was previously used in high school English classes, but many today have never heard of it. Get your copy of this classic now.

DVD#CI-455 @ sug don $2

LOAN ONLY:

BOWLING FOR COLUMBINE

Michael Moore's documentary from an anti-gun point of view, in which he harasses the late Charlton Heston, who was president of the NRA

DVD#CI-456 @ sug LOAN don $5.

for the LORD, whose name is jealous, is a jealous God: Lest thou make a covenant (or 'treaty') with the inhabitants of the land, and they go a whoring after their gods, and do sacrifice unto their gods, and one call thee, and thou eat of his sacrifice; And thou take of their daughters unto thy sons, and their daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring after their gods."

This is the Biblical definition of a "whore," or "bastard." Someone who has gone a whoring after strange flesh that is forbidden by God's Law. Even Jude 7 reminds us that the people of Sodom and Gomorrah were involved with "going after strange flesh" which was clearly more than homosexuality. Please note that this does not mean that there is anything wrong with anyone's skin color. Strange flesh refers to ANY sexual violation (incest, fornication, adultery, homosexuality, and so forth) that is forbidden by God's Word.

Thus God's Word warns against this and even places restrictions against a "bastard" (mamzer= mongrel or mixed-breed) from entering "the congregation of the LORD, even to their tenth generation" in Deut 23:2. First of all, a "bastard," or mamzer, denotes one whose birth has some blemish connected with it, not necessarily only someone who is born out of miscegenation. A mamzer could be someone born out of some incestual relationship (e.g. Lot's daughters' offspring, Moab and Ammon, which were then specifically mentioned as unsuitable for marriage) or any of the other Biblically illegitimate relations described in God's Law, especially in Leviticus 20. However, such a person born through any of these "illegitimate" ways could not be equal by birth with the Israelite citizens of the land.

Why would God's Word place such restrictions on the offspring of illegitimate unions? Because they (these unions) were a violation of God's Law and God did not want them to flaunt themselves among His people as an open display of rebellion against His Law Word.

In vs 3 of this same chapter, even "an Ammonite or Moabite" are placed under this same judgment and restricted for ten generations under the Old Covenant because they were illegitimate offspring between Lot and his two daughters (see Genesis 19:30-38). Yes, the sins of the fathers are visited upon the children sad to say. Like it or not, truth is truth just the same.

"STRANGERS" FOR A REASON

The Old Covenant "congregation of the LORD," (the 'church' that then was) was not fully open to all people. There were racial restrictions that were strictly adhered to and Israelites had a history of racial perversion. However, the (eligible) stranger that had bound himself to God's Law was allowed in the land on a limited conditional basis, had to be circumcised, and had to live as a 2nd class citizen (which simply means they did not have full citizenship rights). There was to be one law for all (Exod. 12:49), but there were not "equal rights" for all.

"And if a (eligible) stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him. [DB-note: This is the Hebrew definition for "sojourn," from the Strong's Concordance:

OT-1481 guwr (goor); a primitive root; properly to turn aside from the road (for a lodging or any other purpose) i.e. sojourn (as a guest); also to shrink, fear (as in a strange place); also to gather for hostility (as afraid):

In other words, the stranger within the land of Israel was not of a permanent nature, but a temporary stay in the land. While in Israel they were to have a fear and reverence for God's Laws, and in turn, Israelites were to treat them with respect as the following verse expresses:

"But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God." (vs 34).

The "stranger" was to be treated with respect and dignity. As I have already explained, the Word of God clearly teaches racial segregation. [Barley has not commented on "They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against Me; for if thou serve their gods, it will surely be a snare unto thee" Exod. 23:33, CIM] Each "stranger" had their own homeland and it was good for their sense of belonging and purpose for which they were created. All strangers in the land of Israel essentially were visitors, but they could not bring their pagan practices into the lands of Israel. The land belonged to the Israelites (Ex. 23:30-33; Judges 2:2; Deut 2:4-5, 19, 28-29) and every (50th) year of Jubilee, whatever land was lost through debt, was returned unto its original owner (or his family) (Lev. 25:10,13).

All the various races have an inward desire to be among their own kind. They do not feel safe or secure mingling with other kinds (or races) for a long extensive period. Even the Canadian geese will not hang around with ducks, except for short intermittent periods of time, and they never breed outside their own kind. Only for a short duration, can any animal or bird peacefully coexist. When man violates God's kind after kind creation rules, racial strife, and intolerance will only increase unless God's Law is enforced. Segregation is a major overlooked key to racial harmony and peace among men.

What we see displayed in the world today as multiculturalism and the glee over America becoming a racial melting pot is rationalistic feeling fed by those who want to destroy the Abrahamic Glory of Israel.

There is great hope for Israel, but that hope will not be found in the degenerate values of Babylon. The great hope will be found in humbling ourselves before King Jesus and abiding by His Biblical principles. His Law is not grievous, but is in reality liberating and if fully applied according to the principles of restoration and Godly Love, order will be restored among the nations.

Concerning those who are the offspring of racial miscegenation, God's Word does not deprive racially mixed people from marriage. Remember they are the product of sin, not the perpetrators of the sin. However, no one, not even Israelites are free to do their own thing sexually outside of proper Biblical protocol, and Godly morality.

HOW DOES IT ALL FIT?

Let us understand how everyone fits in this discussion and why. Here are the various categories of people and their racial and legal standing according to God's Word:

1. Israel was under an Abrahamic and Mosaic Covenant with God Almighty.

2. Israel was bound by the terms of these covenants and were blessed according to Deuteronomy 28 and Leviticus 26, IF they obeyed, but were cursed if they disobeyed.

3. The other nations or people who are outside of the Abrahamic Covenant and Mosaic Covenant, are not under God's Laws and were under no written racial restrictions. However, there is a natural understanding (as described in Romans 1:18-22) that their kind belongs to their kind. We see this in nature all the time. Deer mate with deer not elk even though they are the same species variety. Cardinals

Is history repeating itself?

An old pamphlet that may be appropriate at this time:

THE GREAT 1976 SWINE-FLU CAPER

put out by the late pastor Sheldon Emry in 1976. Get it and read it and make up your own mind! Never get a vaccine for anything! Great eye-opener! Share with friends.

#207 @ 10 copies for $3.75

mate with cardinals, blue jays with blue jays, not with doves or other birds, and doves in the natural do not mate with pigeons and so forth. The only time they cross these boundaries is if they are put in a cage together, or manipulated by man in some form to breed outside of what comes natural to them [pigeons will mate for life, and unless locked up with another, so that they are virtually forced to mate with another, will stay with the same mate until one dies - man could learn from them! CIM]. A friend of mine knew of a tiger and a lion that were caged together and it was ten years before the male lion mated with the tiger. Why would God Almighty recognize kind after kind in the animal world, and not also recognize it for the variety of races among men? Over and over in the Scriptures God told Israel to be a separate people unto Himself, when they mixed themselves with the other nations, they were violating God's Law.

4. [eligible] Strangers who voluntarily entered into covenant with Israel, thus bringing them under the Laws of God. This also binds them to not adulterate their kind or gender, and they would have to give up their heathen ways and be a Christian example to their own kindred.

5. Mulattos, people who were the offspring of different races. These racially mixed people were free to marry among themselves. They were NOT to enter into the Congregation of the LORD even to 10 generations. The optimal situation would be for them to marry someone who was also racially mixed and not violate the racial integrity of Israel.

Remember the optimal situation would have been if man would have never racially mixed to start with. The optimal situation would have been if Adam had never sinned. If miscegenation is Biblically authorized as the Judeo-Christian world teaches, then God Almighty is certainly sending the wrong message to us through His Word, especially in Ezra chapters 9 and 10. Everyone should make reading these chapters a priority because room does not permit me to fully quote them here. Even if you have read these chapters before, please read them again. Now, I will quote a few of these verses for you, because they are strong evidence of what is wrong with our understanding in the Christian world today:

"Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass. And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished." Ezra 9:1-3

I can identify with the way Ezra feels as I look at our nations today, can't you? The abominations of the people of those lands included sodomy, idol worship, other gods, numerous pagan rituals that you don't even want to know about, and blatant acceptance of miscegenation of the races, just like all the Babylonian sales pitches we are inundated with today. So what did the people of Israel do because of this national trespass? Well they separated these other people and returned them to their own lands as vs 1 tells us. But there's more:

"Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the Law." Ezra 10:3

And what was to happen to those Israelites who did not want to do what was commanded and separate themselves from "the wives, and such as are born of them," of the strangers?

"And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away." Ezra 10:8

The separated "stranger" wives and their crossbred children were carried away along with those Israelites who were in violation of God's Law concerning this. [any Israelite women who had married 'strange' husbands, would also be excluded and sent away, as they could not separate from the 'stranger' and start again like the Israelite men could] Let me also include this verse from Nehemiah 13:3

"Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude."

Obviously, this is not politically correct, but it is Biblically correct, and there are many supportive verses on this, so we cannot ignore this truth just because it may be an inconvenient truth to some. There is Biblical order, and there is Babylonian chaos/confusion as we have today. There is a choice, and let us serve the Kingdom of God. God's Word does not justify crossing racial lines, and let's face it, as Christians we are not free to cross those lines drawn by the WORD. If Christians do not wake up and draw the line, the perverters of Hollywood will steal away the hearts and minds of our young people with their incessant promotion of anything goes "alternative" life-styles.

This is not about hate, it's about love and loving our children and kinsmen enough to tell them the truth. God Almighty certainly did not intend for Israelites to mingle their seed with the other nationalities, and yet, because of man's fleshly appetite, there are many "mingled" seed, or offspring of such unbiblical unions. However, God Almighty does not deprive mixed offspring of companionship. They were simply to go with, and be part of the other nations. The truth is, most inherently prefer to do so anyway [just look at those who look totally white, yet claim to be of aboriginal descent! CIM]. It is also true that White people are much more comfortable among their own kind.

There is blatant pressure on young people today enticing them to embrace the "browning," or mixing of the races, just as the unnatural perverse sodomite life-style is being promoted as normal and even a good healthy relationship. How many times have we heard Judeo-christians tell us that the Bible is not against "race mixing," but is against "faith mixing"? Well, certainly the Bible is against "being unequally yoked with unbelievers", and if the people were zealous to just implement and obey this principle alone, there would be far less problems and even less miscegenation than we have today in our nation. [America then, obviously does not suffer from a shortage of Identity believers, so that young people can find spouses - which another old pamphlet:

THE AMERICAN CAPTIVITY
Have You Been Captured?

Written by Sheldon Emry in the summer of 1968, it addresses a number of issues, Politics, Alarm and scare tactics, Education, Religious anti-Communism, Petitions as indulged in by patriotic people, Physical Resistance, Religion as something for people to turn to, and lastly God's Word. Worthwhile comments on 8 points. Share with friends.

Listed @ $2.25ea

now: #201 @ 5 copies for $6.00

seems almost impossible in Australia! CIM] Funny how the world preaches intolerance against Bible standards of life and those who support and defend those righteous principles, but they will not tolerate any opposition towards their so-called "free-life-style."-----

Such a study is very necessary because whether we understand it or not, it is vitally important to our future and progression in the Kingdom of God. I know that a few of you hold little hope for the future, but to the contrary, as a true and sincere Christian follower of Jesus, you should. Man and his corrupt ways will vanish, but Jesus Christ has a foolproof plan of restoration. The bondage of corruption shall be lifted and right Kingdom order and understanding will one day be given a free rein. LIGHT IS COMING, LIGHT IS HEADED OUR WAY. Our hope must not be temporal misery displayed in the world today, but we must look beyond the camouflage of lies to the TRUTH that will overcome this present worldly insanity. With Jesus Christ, ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE. The Potter is not through with His clay - yet. Until then, may we all continue to grow in the LOVE and TRUTH of Jesus and His Word.

pastor Dave Barley - America's Promise, Box 157 Sandpoint ID 83864 -----

THE SADDEST STORY EVER TOLD

When a white girl marries a negro,
her sun of life goes down.
And glaring spots of sin appear,
on her white wedding gown.
And White and Black then stand aghast,
while viewing this strange role:
And mutter, "they will wreck themselves,
and damn each other's soul. -
We know a carnivorous bug
has crept into her brain.
And gnawed away her self-respect,
which left her half insane.
Now all her racial pride has flown
beyond redemption's fold.
And she, being life's saddest tale
that ever yet was told. -
Three days and nights she felt black lips press smug against her own.
And on the fourth, her troubled soul,
ley out a frightful groan.
And so the weeks and months flew by,
and then a baby came;
She looked at it with tear-filled eyes,
and hung her head with shame. -
And then she dreamed of other days, sweet girlhood days gone by,
And of her White friends left behind,
and so we hear her cry:
"O, could I turn life's pendulum backwards a few short years.
I would not bear this cross today,
nor shed these bitter tears." -
"My baby would be White as snow,
and sleep upon my breast.
Like a little fledgling robin
that slumbers in its nest.
While now, O God, my mongrel child,
just whimpers through the night.
Till in my sleepless dreams I scream,
not White, O God, not White!" -
And so I stagger through my days far from God's love and grace.

Clearing left-over DVDs

Keep & Bear Arms + Economic Hitman

#CI-588

They Killed 'Em - JFK & JFK, Jr

#CI-574

(6) Iraq War Documentaries

#CI-584

Zeitgeist - edited

#CI-573

each of the above @ $5ea

Till now, I know, no black man lives,
can take a White man's place.
My off-springs shall be mongrel-bred,
their hue-skin shall remain.
For even God with all His power,
cannot remove the stain. -
I sold my birthright for a mess,
I mixed my White-born blood
With black blood, so I languish here like one bogged down in mud.
Though God may grant a pardon,
I never can retrace
My footsteps down life's narrow road, back to the White man's race. -
So now I groan, "it might have been"
had racial pride been mine.
Today I'd hug a pure White child,
and call him half-divine.
I'd lift him up before the world,
and praise his father's name.
While now, my baby's mongrel face,
reminds me of my shame. -
All other crimes may be forgiven

when prayer its power fulfills;
The scheming crook may find new hope,
and even the man that kills,
But all my prayers can never clear
my baby's mongrel skin,
Nor make him White as driven
snow,
nor cleanse my soul of sin. -
I was my father's future hope,
my mother's joy and pride
But I got lost on life's dark road,

and there my spirit died.
I smeared my all-White heritage and left the White man's track.
Now my descendants for all time
shall be forever black. -
I try to hide from all the stars,
the moon and the setting sun;
For all mankind of my White race,
condemn what I have done;
I tremble and my teardrops flow,
I pray, but pray in vain:
For nevermore shall I be one with my White race again. -
And so dark clouds above me roll,
deep waters crash below,
I sing, and reap what I have sown,
and drink my cup of woe.
My mother sleeps deep in her grave,
my dad lies at her side,
For both were crushed when I became a negro's common bride. -
Now, should I decide to leave him,
where could I choose to go?
My misspent life will follow me
like footprints in the snow.
Before me lie dark jungles
where paramours seek prey;
Behind me death keeps whispering,
"I am the only way." -
This black and White, prenuptial; mess,
this racial suicide;
Must be forbidden by the law,
men must find racial pride!
Then never again, forever,

shall tales like mine unfold,
With all its shame, the saddest tale,
that ever yet was told.

-Hon. Oliver Allstorm

<http://www.naawpfch.org/index/saddest.html>

DIVINE PROVIDENCE

The providence of God is His care of and provision He makes for His creatures, with His supervision and superintendence of them. The providence of God in His government of the world is a subject of deep importance to the Christian, for by proper views thereof he will learn to see God's activities in the daily works of His hands.

The depravity of the human heart, especially as it is evidenced in "vain philosophy," makes a veil out of the physical laws by which God usually conducts His government, a veil which hides Him in His own workings. But the Scriptures represent all physical laws as having their efficacy from the immediate agency of Almighty power, and view God as working His providence as truly as He wrought in His works of creation. Yet, though Christians assent to this truth, nevertheless they are prone to overlook it in exercise, and thereby to be deprived in great measure of that poise of mind and comfort of heart which a deep and constant improvement of this doctrine is calculated to impart.

Nothing is more strengthening to faith, stabilizing to the mind, and tranquilizing to the heart of a Christian, than for him to be enabled to discern his Father's hand guiding, shaping, and controlling everything which enters his life; and not only so, but that He is also governing this world, and all people and events in it. Alas, we are living in an age of terrible skepticism, when most of what happens is attributed to natural causes, while God is more and more banished from the world, in the consideration of His creatures. Now it is not only fact that God governs the world in a general sense, but He also regulates all its affairs, controls all creatures in it, "working all things after the counsel of His own will" (Eph. 1:11). Fully is this truth brought before us in the Scriptures, not only in specific statements, but by innumerable exemplifications and demonstrations.

At such a time as this, when Truth is fallen in the streets, and error abounds on every hand, the believer is supported by the knowledge that it is the sovereign will of God, that heresies should enter (1 Cor 11:19). Without this view of Divine providence there is no real consolation for the Christian, as he considers the awful ravages which error has made and the sad state poor Christendom is now in. Philosophy combines with agnosticism, superstition with idolatry, to oppose the Lord's Anointed, while "religion" is now as corrupt as the general morals of the masses. The increasing worldliness of the "churches," the spiritual deadness which prevails even where the Truth is largely maintained, the absence of genuine conversions, combine to disturb and distress all true believers. But "The Lord God omnipotent reigns" (Rev. 19:6) supplies a sure resting place for the heart, for this means that even God's opposers are executing His secret counsels,

God is not shaken by the situation which now confronts our view, nor does the pride, arrogance, and blasphemy of

His enemies occasion Him any uneasiness. To the contrary "He who sits in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision" (Psalm 2:4). It is written "Surely the wrath of man shall praise You: the remainder of wrath shall You retrain" (Psalm 76:10), but only FAITH can receive this grand Truth and enjoy in the heart the precious fruits thereof. That Divine "restraint" of man's "wrath" is exercised in God's providence or government of this world, and this is what we wish the reader to be occupied with in what follows.

God is not troubled by anything that is now taking place in His world—either in its political, social, or religious sphere; nor should we be. The helm is still in His hand; and nothing can so much as touch a hair of our heads without His direct permission.

The advantages of a clear grasp of this foundational Truth of Divine providence are many.

First, it delivers the Christian from being carried away by the tide of public opinion. Few things have a greater tendency to lead Christians into error, than the apparent success of public opinion. People in general judge a cause by its seeming success, and often Christians are greatly influenced by this pernicious principle. Opinions spread by infection, rather than by a thorough investigation of the evidence. But an accurate acquaintance with the ways of Providence, as revealed in Scripture, is calculated to deliver from this prejudice. There we discover that God has often granted much "success" to His enemies, and by it they were hardened in their rebellion. Mere success is no proof of Truth, and lack of success is neither evidence of error nor of God's displeasure.

Second, a proper acquaintance with the grand truth of Divine Providence, should also be of real help in guarding us against having recourse to artifice and deceit, in the propagation of the Truth. The Apostle Paul, in spite of all his zeal for the Gospel, disdained all worldly wisdom in his efforts to advance its progress: he commended the Truth to every man's conscience in the sight of God. Then let us stick to the means of God's ordering, and rigorously shun all human inventions. Temptations to compromise, to lower the standard, to bring in fleshly devices so as to "draw the young people," are multiplying today.

Even though it appeared that Christianity was in real danger of being banished from the earth, that would not justify our attempting to assist it by worldly methods, carnal devices, or any means which God has not appointed. We are to fight the Lord's battles with the weapons which He has put into our hands—and leave the "success" to Him! All the ingenuity of man, can not and will not extend the Gospel one inch beyond the limits which our sovereign God has assigned. It is at this point faith is so often tested: faithful preaching being sparsely attended, "churches" with worldly attractions crowded.

Third, a proper acquaintance with this blessed doctrine of Divine Providence provides consolation amid so much which distresses the godly. The more a true believer ponders the character of the times in which his lot is cast—the more is his heart saddened. The affairs of this world appear to be completely under the dominion of princes of darkness—but in the grand truth of God's government there is

Two Life-Educating Videos:
UNLOCKING THE MYSTERY OF LIFE, The Scientific Case For Intelligent Design - presents compelling evidence to support the idea that could revolutionize scientific thought - ID
- 65 minutes - #CI-600

and also

INTELLIGENT DESIGN with Professor Tom Woodward, hosted by Saltshakers Melbourne, Aug 2007. 75 minutes.
Micro-evolution vs Macro-evolution, common?-ancestry; origin of first cell, origin of life.

CI-647

These are both very good for debunking evolution, which every one gets fed in the school system

CI-600 or CI-647 @ $12 each posted.

real comfort and solid support for the heart. From it we learn that even the very opposition which is made to the kingdom of Jesus the Christ, is part of the plan of Divine wisdom, and will be overruled for the glory of God and of His Son. It is true that "The whole world lies in wickedness" (1 John 5:19), yet not in the sense that God has relinquished its government. The wrath of adversaries shall be obliged to praise God, and any device of it which has not that tendency, He will "restrain" and not allow to be manifested. (Psalm 76:10).[--Arthur Pink, The Providence of God]

"And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing: and he [God] doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou?" Daniel 4:35.

Courtesy The Wake-Up Herald, 605 Moore Rd, Newnan GA 30263.

THERE IS NO POLITICAL SOLUTION

There are many apparently well-intentioned Christians today who are promoting certain forms of political activism, wishing to reform the government of this once-great republic, and turn it back to the interests of its natural-born citizens. For this reason we see and hear demonstrations, "tea parties," appeals to the original Constitution of the nation, and even state secessions, civil war and armed insurrection. Yet none of this is Scriptural, and indeed, the parasite-infested carcass that was once our body of government certainly cannot ever be reformed. While surely it is possible that the schemers on Wall Street may be able to breathe some new life into the beast, and keep its heart beating a while longer, the final outcome is nevertheless inevitable, and babylon shall fall.

Yes, Babylon. The root of the word means confusion, and while surely that is all that we get from our government today, the correlation is much deeper than that. Here are the telltale signs that our Western governments are indeed under the spell and control of the enigma which the Bible calls "Mystery Babylon:"

- The democratic form of government can be traced back beyond Athens to ancient Sumer, a district of which Babylon was the chief city. This is established in several ancient Mesopotamian inscriptions. Therefore it is not a new idea, and it has always failed, leading to war and eventual tyranny. The federation of these United States of America was not founded as a democracy.

- The commercial laws of the West, and of Britain and the United States in particular, have their origin in the Shetar, a book of the Jews found in the Babylonian Talmud. Scholarly sources have demonstrated this. Usury was a practice forbidden by Christians, and alien to our Saxon and Keltic ancestors, until the Jew was admitted into the lands of our fathers. The capitalist system as practiced in the west is truly Jewish in nature, and self-destructive to those who fall victim to it. America was originally a free-enterprise, and not a usury-based capitalist nation. There is a difference.

- The romish catholic (universal) church, its rituals, many of its beliefs, and its practice of universalism in spite of the specificity of the covenants of the God of Israel (none of whom are Jews) also may be traced to the ancient pagan cults of Babylonia and Mesopotamia. The romish church is in actuality a pagan church, Christian only to the extent of its own spurious claims. It has never been the "true church" of Christ, which is actually the Keltic and Saxon and related Christian people as a body, and not an organization. Neither have any of the protestant sects truly lived up to the Bible. They have rather merely replaced many romish church teachings with equally insidious dogmas, and systematically ignore, or even reject, sound Christian doctrine.

It is surely evident that Mystery babylon has political, religious and economic aspects. Yet all of this is driven by one thing: the desire for open-border free trade and the flow of monies by those international merchants and bankers who have no allegiance to any particular race or country, but rather have historically been parasites feeding off of all the other races—but especially the White race. Henry Ford called them "The International Jew." The 16th, 17th and 18th chapters of the book of Revelation relate Mystery babylon directly to international trade. The government of this nation, and of all of the other so-called 'democracies,' has fallen into the control of these merchants through the central banking system which they own and are in full control of. That is a part of the confusion which the term Babylon describes: the Bank of England is owned not by the English, but by certain Jewish families. The Federal Reserve is not federal, nor is it a reserve, but rather it is merely another instrument of those same Jewish families. Yes, it is owned by banks which are "public" companies, however those companies are closely controlled by an elite minority through the use of devices such as special share classes and "voting" shares.

Israel's God created nations and borders (i.e. Deut 32:8, Acts 17:26). It is the goal of antichrists to eradicate them, confusing the nations in a Babylonish hodge-podge of multi-culturalism and diversity. It is not a mistake that this program of confusion is only being carried out in White Christian nations: an assault by the enemies of God upon His people. Globalism, multiculturalism, and diversity are all programs of the international Jewish merchant: the dragon which gives its power to the beast. This dragon uses both international capitalism and socialist marxism to achieve its goals.

So, what is a Christian to do? The most sensible thing to do is simply to stop feeding the dragon! Scripture commands that a Christian be separated from the cares of the world. As the apostle James informs us, "Adulterers! Do you now know that the love of Society is hatred for the God of Israel? He therefore who would desire to be a friend of Society establishes himself as an enemy of God!" (James 4:4) This is also evident in the parable of the sower, found in Matt. 13, and mark 4, among other places in Scripture.

Rather than trying to somehow take back the corrupted system of government, Christians are explicitly told to separate themselves from the corrupt society. Here that is evident from both the writings of Paul, and the Revelation of Jesus Christ:

"And what agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God; just as God has said, 'I will dwell among them, and I will walk about; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.' On which account 'Come out from the midst of them and be sepa-

Serpent Slayers - WHO THE DEVIL IS SATAN? by Francis Christen

"Modern church doctrine teaches that there are two powers in the world—God and "Satan." If this is true, it must be easily substantiated in the Bible. Here in this booklet is a quiz list of conditions and attributes that are commonly believed to be authored by either God or "Satan." Explanations of some misunderstood passages; Is God Sovereign?; Dualism; Historical background; Zoroastrianism; Whom do you fear? Who is the 'God Of This World'?

- listed at $10.95 - this month only

#509 @ $9.00 posted

rated,' says the Prince, and 'do not be joined to the impure, and I will admit you'." (2 Cor 6:16-17)

"And I heard another voice from out of heaven, saying: "You come out from her, My people, that you should not partake in her errors, and that you would not receive from of her wounds, because her errors have built up as far as heaven and God has called to mind her injustices!" (Rev. 18:4-5).

Rather than attempting to take back Babylon, the Scripture instead commands first an obedience to the laws of God, and He will heal our nation, as we read in Deut 28:1-7: "And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of the LORD thy God, to observe and to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that the LORD thy God will set thee on high above all nations of the earth: and all these blessings shall come on thee, and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of the LORD thy God. Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field. Blessed shall be the fruit of thy body, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the increase of thy kine, and the flocks of thy sheep. Blessed shall be thy basket and thy store. Blessed shalt thou be when thou comest in, and blessed shalt thou be when thou goest out. The LORD shall cause thine enemies that rise up against thee to be smitten before thy face: they shall come out against thee one way, and flee before thee seven ways."

Only the children of Israel can be obedient. This is because only the children of Israel were given the law, circumcised hearts, redeemed, cleansed, and purchased by the blood of Jesus Christ. This applies only to the Keltic, saxon and related White Christian nations, all whom descended from the Israelites of the Old Testament. being obedient, we cannot have communion with the unclean—the alien races. It is those same internationalists who have caused the flood of aliens to come over the White nations in the first place. Peter told our predecessors—those White Christians of Anatolia who had also descended from Biblical Israelites—that we were "an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people" (1 Pet 2:9), a precept given to our fathers as far back as Exodus 19. The only way to stay elect, holy, and peculiar is to be separate.

Therefore it should be holy evident that the Christian should separate himself from the beast, from the unclean, and from the programs of international Jewry. While one must get by in society, work, pay taxes, in order to keep a home and raise a family, one doesn't have to keep feeding the dragon in order to manage, Those movies and television programs that the Jews make in Hollywood? Stop buying them, or at least stop paying to see them. The same for all that pop music produced by the Jewish-controlled record companies, most of which is laced with globalist or egalitarian propaganda. Organized sports is idol-worship and elevates the children of strange gods: the Christian should have no part in their promotion or support. The Jewish owned and operated mainstream press? It is wholly evil and should be absolutely avoided by Christians. Say good-bye to the New York Times, CNN, The Wall Street Journal. Time, Newsweek, USA Today, the major television networks and all other such trash, for it is all complete international Zionist propaganda. All of these outlets promote nothing but evil. The pulp-novel industry is also evil. Expose these as such in public and inform your brethren daily. Stop partaking in usury. Save up money to buy the things that you need. If you can, pay off all debts early and stop borrowing money! Interest payments are the oil of the internationalist Jew machinery.

Love thy brother. Charity begins at home. All of the internationalist charities magnify the non-Christian heathens at the expense of the White Christian, and at the same time they create comfortable and well-paid positions for the Zionists and their flunkies. We Christians have hungry and needy White children here in our own nation! Do you have money to spare? Find a worthy White family—especially one trying to raise children—and give it to them! And if not, then perhaps there are elderly White men and women who could use the help. Do not feed the Judeo-Christian churches with your finances. Often they have set all of the precepts of God aside, except their demand for money. A hundred years ago, when the local church was the primary provider for widows and orphans, it was much more worthy than it is today. Now, the organized religions have ceded their responsibility to the community to the Marxist government, which also fails White widows and orphans. Provide for your brethren.

Love thy brother. This command is economic as much as it is anything else. Hire White men. Do business with White men. Buy as much locally-produced food and goods as possible, even if it costs more. Buy Australian Made! White men are the only race who would cut off each others' subsistence to save a few dollars! Is that a display of love for one's brother? How does your brother feed his family, if you love the aliens? In my 2007 paper Translating Luke 16:8-9, I wrote the following: "If White men were truly concerned with their brethren, we could never be in the trouble we are in today! One cannot love his brother, yet hire a Mexican to do labor, saving a few dollars an hour while putting his brother out of work. One cannot love his brother, yet shop at a Korean-owned grocery store rather than a White-owned store, to save ten or twenty cents on grocery items. One cannot love his brother, and buy an appliance made in China, rather than one made in Minnesota, because it is a few dollars cheaper. One's desire to save a few dollars would put all of his brethren out of work! Our care for riches has, therefore, precluded our ability to serve God by loving our brethren (John 13:34-35; 1 John 2:7-11; 3:11-17). And this is precisely what has been happening in the White nations for the past hundred years! Our care for riches and the desire to save a few dollars—or to buy more material goods for the money we have—has enriched the Mexicans, the Japanese, the Chinese, the Arabs, the Turks, all of those who truly hate us, and especially the Jews! The Jews, of course, have orchestrated and have taken full advantage of this situation, and thus is our predicament. Notice that the global trade system is described as 'Mystery babylon' in the Revelation, fully evident as it is described at Rev. 18. This system is doomed to fail, as it is written. Shall White men recognize it, and those behind it, when it does fail? Pray that they shall! Shall the Jews seek and gain refuge with our enemies, as the unrighteous steward hoped to find a place to dwell with his master's debtors? They may try, but I

an awakening
WHO WAS THE TEMPTER OF THE HUMAN RACE?

by John R. Fiske Jr.

The reader will recognize that all of Mr. Fiske's arguments are not perfect, and we would guess that Mr Fiske may have just begun to see the error of the common teaching on the "devil," and in this attempt to show its error, he may have used some faulty reasoning. Therefore we do not agree with ALL of the premises or conclusions drawn by the author, but our purpose is to show you that some men of some time ago began to see the impossibility of the great and powerful "Devil" as taught by so many of the professing Christian denominations. Please study further on your own, other books available.

#100 @ sug don $2.95

think not (Rev 20:9-15)! 1 John 2:9 says: “He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.” To support the alien is equivalent to hating one’s brother!

There is an old saying that all politics is local. This is true. If one feels a need to get involved in the community, to do so at a local level is good, always being ready to rebuke evil and setting a good Christian example for one’s brethren. However all party politics at the State and national levels—and often at even lower levels—is corrupted by internationalist corporate dollars and will not serve the people regardless of the claims being made. The Christian must always be aware of this, and speak out against it, but to participate in reform of this system is futile.

All of these things are only a start, but the more a Christian does them, the closer he comes to departing from Babylon. For the international Jewish system of debt and slavery certainly is going to fall. And only our God knows the time.

William Finck-<http://Christigena.org/>

CALLING EVIL GOOD AND GOOD EVIL

Robert McCurry

“But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.” Heb. 5:14.

I continue to be amazed at how evil is supported in this nation. Now don’t get me wrong. That is exactly the type of behavior that one would expect from those who have not been regenerated by the spirit of God. What was it Jesus said “You are of your father the devil”? He wouldn’t get away with that today, at least not in modern evangelical circles .... way too judgmental. Jesus would make American-Christianity look bad.

How has America gotten so upside down? Everywhere you look these days you can’t look. I mean, “Don’t look at that” has become the speed-dial of most conscientious parents who are struggling to raise their precious offspring with some scintilla of morality. Our public airwaves are filled with as many moral-landmines as any highway on Iraq. It is almost impossible to protect our children against the collateral damage of today’s morally-confused culture.

Parenting and child-rearing has become a contact sport as parents try to bob and weave their children through the onslaught of punches thrown by the atheistic humanists. As I watch the carnage from this anything-goes sewage system called “entertainment” I wonder who is to blame for the destroyed lives strewn along the byway. Wrecked lives are the fruit of a salt-less culture.

My wife and I were guests at a wedding last week. The majority of those in attendance were the twenty-something friends of the bride and groom. As I looked around the room at a myriad of pretty young things with low-cut dresses ... I marvelled at the strength it would take for any young man to remain pure in a world full of such salacious seductresses. It was obvious to me that the seeds of the MTV culture had reached full bloom. Lust producing fruit was on display.

Because there was no pre-arranged seating, my wife and I found ourselves at a table with these hormone oozers. Now don’t get me wrong, they were polite and friendly and, for the most part, gainfully employed. Michele and I began to engage them in conversation as most of them were the same age as our own three physically-grown children. All of the couples at the table had one thing in common. They were all living together with their “partners.” It never entered their mind to be ashamed to say so. Evil is now good.

One young girl at another table caught my eye. I had remembered her as a classmate of one of our children and I was struck by how she had blossomed into a pretty young woman and was surprised that she had attended the wedding without an escort. Out of curiosity I asked one of my offspring the next day about the attractive young thing.

“Oh Dad, she’s a slut. From what I hear she sleeps with anything in pants. It’s too bad because she is so good looking.”

I sat quietly on the couch next to my wife as a sense of regret slid over me. “What do you expect?” I said to the mother of my own precious daughters. “Look around at the example we have allowed to be set for her. We have failed her Michele. We have allowed evil to be called good. Her lack of moral virtue is the fruit of our indifference.”

Sin has consequences. No one told her it was wrong. She is young and can still find her way to Truth. But her journey didn’t have to be filled with so many heartaches. I hate to be redundant, but it’s not her fault. Christianity has let her down. Our nation is laden with young people nursing self-inflicted wounds while immorality parades as liberty in the school-houses of this land. We would expect young sinners to enjoy sin. Cows moo, dogs bark, and sinners sin. It is their nature. Our schools have become the breeding ground of immorality. So what is it with us Christians? Do we hate our children? How is it possible that we can continue to support a system that undermines all that we believe? Are athletics that important? Is the desire to have a nicer car and prettier clothes worth sacrificing the souls of our children? Is your daughter’s four years in marching band really worth the poisoning of her soul? Several times a year I get the opportunity to share my faith in a public school. A suburban district in the Columbus area offers a class called “Radical Political Science” which is a senior-only elective designed to expose the students to different worldviews. From atheist to communists, lesbians to tree-huggers, a cornucopia of speakers are invited to share their philosophy with the students. I speak on the need to maintain our Christian culture and the Lie of Separation between the Church and the State. The instructors always tell me that I am the students’ favorite speaker because I can give good reasons why I believe what I believe. They tell me that most Christian speakers can’t.

But usually my greatest opposition comes from those students who self-identify as Christians. They are the most vociferous defenders of homosexuality, and an individual’s right to choose what he thinks is best “for him.” “I personally think it’s wrong but Christianity teaches that it is wrong to judge. We have no right to force our beliefs on another person.” It is a deadly concoction, this witches-brew of moral relativism seasoned with salt-less religion. This poisonous mix is more deadly than the Kool-aid served in Jonestown and has raised a nation of children who now believe wrong is right and right is wrong. The loose-living teenager is not the villain. No, my friend, the villain is anyone who is willing to call sin what it is. Judging is the unpardonable sin. Christianity is losing its influence in the culture because the government schools are poisoning our children. Cow’s moo, dogs bark, shouldn’t salt season? But the watered down Gospel has caused the salt to lose its savor. We have taught our children to be sugar instead of salt and our nation is succumbing to ‘spiritual diabetes.’

Recently I had a confrontation with a government school superintendent who had ordered his music teachers to remove all “religious” songs from the Christmas program. This type of bullying is rampant by administrators in our schools. This self-proclaimed “director of the bell choir” at his church informed me in an email that the use of “religious” songs in the program was “coercive” to young children. I was startled to read this statement in an email he shared with me.

“A school context gets closer scrutiny than in other contexts because the students are impressionable, are particularly subject to peer pressure, and because school is inherently a coercive environment. Also, the age of the student(s) is significant when determining what is appropriate and non-coercive (e.g. high school students may be able to appreciate the distinction between secular and religious aspects of Christmas, but it is less likely that younger children can do this).”

Out of his mouth ... “schools are inherently coercive.” Evil is ruling the day because the God-haters teach their kids to fight while we Christians teach ours to submit. The singing of Silent Night is “coercive” but tolerance, diversity, and global-warming is not. Christians pay for the schools while someone else makes the rules. In the above case a “Christian Bell-Choir director” declares his own faith to be coercive. I have met the enemy and it is us. Want to make a New Year’s resolution that really counts? Resolve to get your kids out of the government schools. Resolve to never vote for another coercive government school levy. Resolve to start a Christian school co-op at your church. Resolve to partner with other parents and churches to provide an alternative to the soul-killing “synagogue of Satan” currently masquerading as a “public school.”

Jesus warned us that soul pollution was far more dangerous than air-pollution. He went so far as to tell us to poke out our own eye if it caused us to sin. Sin is the smoke of a polluted soul. You kids trust your mom and dad. Pastor, the parents trust you. How would a child ever discern the evil that surrounds them? The teachers must be telling them the Truth because Mom and dad wouldn’t hire a bad baby-sitter. And the schools can’t be that bad. After all, Pastor’s wife is one of the teachers. In fact, she probably plays in the bell choir.

Want to do something great for your children this year? Rescue them from the public educational system which is neither public nor educational. You are paying to poison your child’s soul. Rescue them before it’s too late. -Wake-Up Herald.-

God’s blessing on all who help to keep us going. We will be gone God willing from 14 to 26 March - so the next issue will be late again, so we can visit family in Tasmania. Orders for material will probably be held up a bit as well. We hope to catch up again after we get back. Please bear with us - and bless you for your

