THE COMMONALITY OF FREEMASONRY AND TODAY'S CHRISTIANITY by Ed Sommerville

Recently, I have come to believe in a strange and yet valid comparison between the secret society of the Worldwide Freemasons and contemporary Christianity. Before I get into this dissertation I would like to mention that I have known many Masons over the years and found them to be men of good character as well as patriotic Americans. One was my partner in a corporation and another was a friend that I know from the time we were thirteen. We also attended the same church for years.

There are various ways that men get into the Order. One way is to be asked by a friend and another way is that many of the masons are also members of local lodges and are able to spot one that they feel would make a good Mason.

The Freemasons have been around for a long time, and it is my opinion that it was started by a secret sect called the Pharisees. The Talmudic Pharisees have been around for over a century before Jesus the Christ, and were started in Babylon. They are still alive and well today and the very ones that Jesus and the Apostles warned us to beware of two thousand years ago.

Rather than to go into the many sordid beliefs and details of the Freemasons, I would urge you to go to your computer search and type in 'Freemasons.' There are many links you can choose from. The one I went to was titled FREEMASONS Roots & Links to the Occult. It was eight pages long and contained a wealth of information that covered many areas in the Order.

Their ultimate goal is to control men's minds to help carry out the plans and ambitions that are known only to the 33rd degree Masons. Many of the 33rd degree members include politicians from the President down to the small city mayors, police chiefs, judges, etc. We also have the captains of industries, university professors and a myriad of others. I have often wondered how these men that are a lot more intelligent than I, could be so completely deceived. Quoting from the article, "For the vast majority of Masons, Freemasonry is a lifelong succession of deceptions. Most Lodge leaders do not realize that they are deceiving their members" and "Masonry is a system that confuses, deceives and controls men, getting them to do things that they would not do if they understood them."

Another quote, "Masonry in its purity, derived as it is from the old Jewish Kabala as a part of the great universal religion of the remotest antiquity." This sentence is in gross error as there is nothing in what is now called the Old Testament that is esoteric, unless it would be that Jesus spoke in parables so the Talmudic Pharisees would not understand. It was the Pharisees that created the Kabala as it had nothing to do with the religion of the Hebrews.

Webster's definition of the Kabala is: "A kind of system of occult theosophy or mystical interpretation of the Scriptures among Jewish rabbis and certain medieval Christians. 2. Secret or esoteric doctrine or science, in general: occultism: mystic art: mystery." None of this can be found in the Law, the Prophets or the Psalms, the Bible of the Hebrews. Albert Pike, one of the biggest names in Freemasonry had this to say, "All truly dogmatic religions have issued from the Kabala and return to it: everything scientific and grand in the religious dreams of the Illuminati are borrowed from the Kabala: all Masonic associations owe to it their secrets and their symbols." Many of today's youth especially those of the Hollywood degenerates are now followers of the Kabala.

Freemasonry is a religion. Masons meet in temples, such as the Scottish Rite Temple. They have an altar and there is a "holy book" on it. They have prayers, deacons, and religious titles for their leaders, such as High Priest and Worshipful Master. They have songs, and (usually) organ accompaniment. They say that they bring men from spiritual darkness to spiritual light. In some Masonic degrees they even serve communion.

I'm sure by now, some of you are wondering what a deceitful, seditious, evil and exoteric organization of the Freemasons could possibly have in common with contemporary Christianity. It is necessary to go into some of the background of contemporary Christianity and how and why it came about. It all centers around the counterfeit Kingdom of the Pharisees plan to bring about the New World Order under their control. Jesus told the Pharisees that the Kingdom shall be taken from them and He also said that the violent would take it by force.

The word Zionism that surfaced in the 19th Century was not known by many until the 20th Century. The Talmudic Pharisees who would far rather be called Jews today, knew that they could not be accepted by the Christians without changing their Christian religion, and change it they did.

They wasted no time in changing the doctrines as taught by Jesus and the Apostles by bringing in the religions of the East and those of Greek mythology which brought about the idea that man was created immortal. This of course is what brought about the idea that man either had to go to a burning hell or to heaven when he died. This in turn was promoted by the Catholic Church as it was their way of keeping their people under complete control, and it still works well for them today, as well as for the majority of Protestant churches.

Here is what a few of our great reformers had to say about this heresy. John Wesley: Although it is assumed that at the moment of one's death his soul goes directly to heaven. This idea does not have the least foundation in the oracles of God. Wm. Tyndale; And ye, in putting them (the departed souls) in heaven, hell and purgatory, destroy the arguments where with (Jesus the Christ and Paul proved the resurrection. And from the greatest reformer, Martin Luther, said in part; That he (the Pope) is emperor of the world and king of heaven and earthly God: That the soul is immortal; and all these endless monstrosities belong in the Roman dunghill of decretals. This doctrine alone plays an immense part in helping the Jews to bring about "their kingdom." The most adamant statement I've read on this is by one of the early Church fathers, Justin Martyr (100-170 AD), If you meet men that tell you they are going to heaven when they die, beware you do not look on these as Christians.

After the invention of the printing press the Bible became available to the people. They were still expensive as they could only print two pages at a time. It wasn't until the high speed presses came along that they were available to the masses. In early America it has become very obvious that the Christians of that day did not buy the idea of the immortal soul as there are tens of thousands of tombstones in our original states that bear the letters R.I.P., Rest In Peace. This is mute evidence that they knew they were not up in heaven or anyplace else. I don't think you will see these three letters on many tombstones in the Midwest, as we have reverted back to Catholic doctrine.

We Christians have all been told that the "poor persecuted Jews" were expelled from scores of European countries without telling us why they were. It was always for the same reasons, their creation of money and then lending it out at usury, which put all in debt bondage. They were also responsible for always lowering the morals of the young people, the very same conditions we are under today. If you are still unaware of our moral situation or the staggering debt we are now under, you just haven't been paying attention. This deplorable condition we find ourselves in today did not come about by accident.

The Federal Reserve, that creates our trillions of dollars of debt with a push of some keys on a computer or the printing of currency with nothing to back it up, was the creation of the European Rothschilds and their American agents who have gathered most of the wealth of the world into the hands of very few men. Isaiah prophesied of this happening in 10:14 "And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathered eggs that are left, I have gathered all the earth; and there was none that moved the wing, or opened the mouth or peeped." This would include our leaders but more importantly, our deceived pastors.

Since the time of Jesus, the Pharisees have been the greatest enemy of Jesus, Christianity and Christians. In reading the New Testament you can see the animosity that Jesus had against them as well as His warnings to beware of their leaven which was already at work. This was maintained for over a thousand years. Then in 1492 the Jews had become such a problem in Spain with their usury and moral problems that Queen Isabella issued an edict, they could either be baptized and become Christians or be deported. Most of them chose to be deported, but many went through the motions of becoming Christians but still clung to their Judaism in private.

Many were deported to Sicily and before long they created the Sicilian Mafia, and have lived very well ever since. The Italian Mafia never made it to equal that of the Sicilian. The "converted" Jews that still held to Judaism were called Marranos. One of them who was most probably a Marrano, Ignatius Loyola, founded the Society of Jesus, known as the Jesuits. In the 20th Century there were still countries in Europe that the Jesuits were not allowed to enter.

In the 16th Century a Jesuit priest, Francisco Ribera wrote much of what has become popular in the church today. One thing he wrote about that has become very popular amongst the Evangelicals is the secret rapture. This is used to tell the people that they will be "left behind" when all the Christians are gone. Then later, another Jesuit, Manuel Lacunza, 1731-1801, wrote a book, The coming Messiah in Glory and Majesty, that he published under the name Rabbi ben Ezra as he felt the Christians would not buy his ideas, coming from a Jesuit. He stated among other things, a political ruler will rise, he would rebuild the temple, they would restore animal sacrifices, he would rule for three and one half years, he would make a covenant with the Jews and would emerge as the authority. Does any of this sound familiar?

Years later they were found by Samuel Maitland, the head librarian for the Archbishop of Canterbury and along with Lacunza's writings published a paper on them, which included other ideas along with them as dispensationalist futurism. Still later a preacher by the name of Jon Darby read it and ran with it as if it were his idea. Who gave these writers along with our modern "theologians" the right and authority to change the prophecy of Daniel to read, Sixty nine years plus two thousand years and still counting to conform to their convoluted eschatology? The seventy weeks that Daniel mentioned were fulfilled two thousand years ago. One of their very obvious mistakes is that the Bible says, He (Jesus) will CONFIRM the covenant, but we are now told that, he will MAKE a covenant. There is a big difference and the entire prophecy has been dramatically and intentionally flawed to conform to their futurist beliefs. I prefer to believe the words of the prophets as they were inspired by God. We are also told in the Bible that no scripture is to be used for private interpretation and no other proof or validation of these verses are found in the entire Bible.

Futurism has been a great deceiver of today's Christians as many of the prophecies by the prophets have been fulfilled and are being fulfilled today as well as much of Revelation, but if you mention any of these prophecies you are quickly told "well that's in the future." All of the many extremely important writings of the prophets that concern our very destiny are of no interest to them. I am going to mention just one of the many prophecies that are ignored, that can't be pushed into the future.

My brother, who has been a Baptist minister for over sixty years and has a DD has been in France for over fifty five years and has started many churches and two Bible schools, one in Paris. We have had virtually no communication with each other for over fifty years. He has now moved back and bought a home in SC.

For the last few months we have been in touch by phone going over the times when we were kids growing up. Although we differ greatly in our beliefs we still have a great rapport. Since much of his beliefs and interest lies in today's Jews, the old city of Jerusalem and the rapture, I asked him what he thought about the verse in II Samuel 7:10, Moreover I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and move no more; neither shall the children of wickedness afflict them any more. This is also repeated in 1 Chronicles 17:9. He said he was not familiar with these verses and after reading them to him, it did not phase him one bit as they did not conform to his hermeneutics.

When the prophet Nathan said these words to David, they were standing in Jerusalem. Wherever this place was to be would not be old Palestine. This has already happened as the old land would not be large enough to hold the millions of Israelites that Rebecca was promised in Genesis 24:60 to come from her. I feel as many of today's Christians do, that we are coming to the end of this age. By this I mean, not necessarily next week or next year or even this decade, as many preachers love to set dates.

Our pastors are now told that the people called Jews today represent all twelve tribes of Israel. The 1980 Jewish Almanac, composed by over 40 authors, including professors and four rabbis, state in the first chapter, under the heading IDENTITY CRISIS, It is incorrect to call an ancient Israelite a Jew, or to call a contemporary Jew an Israelite or a Hebrew. Jewish writers also state that over 90 percent of today's Jews do not contain any Hebrew blood in DNA. Regardless of all the evidence to the contrary, they feel that today's fifteen million Jews will multiply to over one billion by the end of this age which would be another 1000 years or so. I believe the prophets far more than the Pharisees that created the hermeneutics which dominates the minds of today's pastors and Christianity. If these hundreds of millions are not found in Judaism, they have to be found in another people or race. A race that fulfills the scores of prophecies that describe these people and their new land, the Zion of Bible prophecy.

Hermeneutics is the most important class they take in the seminaries as it determines how they interpret the Bible. It instills in them presuppositions that supersede the Bible itself. Not unlike the Jews that read the Old Testament. If they come across a verse or prophecy that they question, they go to their Talmud for answers and the Talmud is their final authority on any matter.

In the 1920s, Henry Ford, one of the greatest Christian Americans of the 20th Century spent over one million dollars of his own money on research for his four-volume book, The International Jew. (single volume book #309 @ sug don $28.95) At that time a million dollars was a large sum of money, as you could buy a new car for five hundred dollars and a home for three to five thousand dollars. He sent investigators nation wide as well as some in Europe. He found at that time that there was not a Christian seminary in our country that was not controlled by the Jews. The Jews convinced the seminaries as well as the Christians that their rabbis were more qualified to interpret the Old Testament than our clergy. You will still find them in our seminaries today. A good example of this, about twenty years ago I remember that a professor Goldberg was the head of prophecy at Moody Bible Institute, one of the largest Christian seminaries in the world.

It was in the early part of the 20th Century that the Christianity of early America began to change dramatically. It now bears little resemblance to the Christianity that built the only nation on earth that was founded on Jesus the Christ and His Word. Contrary to the teachings of today, God did know that there was a deserted place waiting for His people, a place prepared for them from the foundation of the world. The prophets abound with many verses and complete chapters with descriptions of this new land but our seminaries and in turn our pastors keep them concealed from today's Christians. In our nation's capitol, where millions of our people have passed through for over one hundred years, is a verse cut into the stone over its entrance from Isaiah 35:1, that reads: The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert [deserted place] shall rejoice, and blossom like the rose. It is not by accident that this land that was to have an Eastern and a Western sea, [which would eliminate almost every country on earth], was called the Wilderness with a capital W in our early school textbooks. It would take literally many pages of Bible verses that describe this land, its people and its founding. These are Bible truths that are never broached by today's pastors as they are contrary to their hermeneutics.

The Talmudic Pharisees soon realized how the new doctrines brought forth by Darby were both destructive to Christianity and beneficial to them. They then had to come up with an idea to sell it to the American Christians, their seminaries and their pastors. They needed a man that was not Jewish to bring this about. They found their man in Kansas, an amoral man with no conscience or scruples that would prevent him from doing the things they had planned for him. His main talent lay was in the forging of documents. He forged the documents that made him an attorney, and after stealing two thousand dollars from his mother in law, left his wife and two daughters to fend for themselves and later became a states attorney for the State of Kansas.

He was later arrested for forging some important documents involving a railroad and served time in prison. After getting out, he forged the necessary documents making him a minister with a DD without attending a seminary. It didn't take much time for him to become the pastor of a church in Dallas. During the time that all these things were happening he was being watched. It is my opinion that he was possibly a Mason and it was they that were doing the watching, as the Masons and the Jews work closely together when the Jews need their help.

It was then that this amoral criminal was approached by a lawyer from New York, Samuel Untermeyer one of the most powerful Jews in America at that time, to offer him a very clandestine opportunity he could not turn down. After accepting it, he and his new lady friend were taken to New York and lived in the very exclusive Lotus Club for the next ten years. His name was Cyrus I. Scofield [August 19, 1843 - July 24, 1921] and his job was to change Christianity to help bring in the New World Order under the control of the Pharisees.

During those ten years he made many trips over to the "City" located in the heart of London. The City is a small area (one square mile) that is a sovereign territory in England as the Vatican is in Rome (Italy) and is also known as the Crown. It contains the Rothschild's Bank of England along with many other banks and financial institutions and major Media. It has been the world center for the creation of money for almost all the world's banks. It was also the world's center for the godless religion of Judaism.

The part that Scofield played in this deception was to take credit for the Scofield Bible with the footnotes that were added. Due to the fact that he was no theologian and knew very little about the Bible these notes had to be written by rabbis and Jewish scholars, as they were the only ones that knew what they wanted to achieve. The Christians had to be conditioned to think that the word Jew and Israelite were synonyms, and that they were God's chosen people. In reading the New Testament, Jesus had nothing good to say about them, as He called them many derogatory names, while He had nothing bad to say of His sheep, Israel.

Although the Scofield Bible bears his name, the Jewish-owned Oxford Press own the copyright. They were so anxious to get them into the churches that they sent over a thousand Bibles free to our gullible pastors. It didn't take too long for it to be the best-selling book. Every time someone buys one he is helping the destroyers, destroy us. It's a win, win contract for them. I don't think there is one pastor in a thousand that has ever wondered why the Jews would spend so much money on Scofield so that we would understand the Bible better and become more enlightened Christians. The Jews since the time of Jesus have always deceived Christians through the leaven of the Pharisees that we were warned about.

His notes that have promoted Futurism, the rapture, and many other things has taken its toll on classic Christianity which has helped the enemies of Jesus, Christians and Christianity. The Christians of two and three hundred years ago would be appalled at what passes as Christianity today. They are now told to be sympathetic to His enemies, pray for His enemies and supply His enemies with money and arms. There is not one word in the Bible that says we are to love HIS enemies. David said the very opposite, "Do not I hate them that hate thee oh Lord, I hate them with a perfect hatred (Ps 139).

The many ministers who took the time to look into Scofield's past were not fooled by "his" work, but many of them went along with it, as they say, It gets people into the church and gets them saved (as one of them said to Sheldon Emry). It was the new wave of Christianity. As for Scofield, his wife died penniless and was buried in Kansas. I do not know the fate of his daughters, but I'm sure of one thing, they never received a penny of his ill-gotten gain.

You're probably wondering by now, what this has to do with the Freemasons? What could they have in common. They have a lot in common, as the top 33rd degree Mason and the godless top of the Zionist state in Palestine are two opposite sides of the same coin, as they are both working for the same goal. Masons are often referred to by Jews and non-Jews as substitute Jews as they often work together for a cause. One example of this is, from 1941 to 1971 the Jews wanted prayer and Bible reading prohibited in schools and wanted pornography redefined to allow things that had previously been indecent. They got what they wanted as the majority of the Supreme Court justices were Masons.

According to a tract produced by Concerned Southern Baptists in 1994, twenty-six percent of Southern Baptist men are Masons, and the percentage is even higher among the leadership. Masons are also common in other religions. An Assembly of God pastor had so many Masons in his congregation that he did extensive research and wrote The Masonic Report. "In 1950, one out of every twelve American men was a Mason, but membership has been decreasing since them."

The two greatest gifts that God gave to his people, eclipsed only by Jesus' death on the cross, were the Kingdom and His Law. It is impossible for an intelligent Christian to read the New Testament with an open mind and not realize that His main ministry was the Gospel of the Kingdom. We have all been conditioned to believe that when we hear the word 'gospel,' it only pertains to salvation. We're going to preach the gospel. As far as the Law goes, I'll just mention two verses instead of the scores of other ones that validate His Laws for today. Those that get My people to break my laws will be the least in the Kingdom (Matt. 5:19). I think the easiest way to get people to break His Laws is to lie and tell them they are all put away. It appears that there will be many of today's pastors that will be least in His Kingdom. The other verse, Do we then make void the law through faith, God forbid, yea we establish the Law (Rom. 3:31). These verses are very clear and not open to argument or spin. By trying to destroy their meanings, they are siding with the Agnostics that claim that the Bible contradicts itself.

In 1 John 3:4 it gives the definition of sin, For sin is the transgression of the law (His Law). We now find our pastors, Teaching for commandments, the doctrines of men. Today's definition of sin is dependant on which church you attend, as they differ from one church to another. As the Bible says, they are Teaching for commandments, (supposedly His Laws) the doctrines of men.

In Leviticus 26 and Deuteronomy 28 the Bible states very clearly of the blessings they will receive if they abide by His Laws and the curses that will come upon them if they don't. Unfortunately the Jews know the Bible better than our pastors. At His crucifixion it was they that read the prophets and posted guards at the tomb, while His own people doubted His resurrection. Oh fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken. Our deceived pastors do not realize that if His people reject His perfect law of liberty, God will bring us low as he did so many times in the past. That's why it was necessary for our enemies to convince us that His Law was put away and nailed to the cross and that we are more capable than God to make our own laws. In early America we went by the common law, and any laws that was contrary to His Laws were rejected.

It was in early America that all the blessings mentioned in those two chapters were poured out upon this people and this land and since the beginning of the 20th Century we have seen His curses come upon us. We are the only people and land that has and is fulfilling these prophecies to the letter (I think Australia and some other Western countries may be getting a taste of the same, CIM). Years ago the late Dr. Francis Schaeffer, a Christian philosopher that is well known among the Evangelicals said that "The absolutes of God have all but disappeared." Since there is no vacuum it was replaced by pietism, emotionalism and self-righteousness Humanism in place of substance, virtue and reason.

Here is an example of His Laws compared to what our "intelligent lawmakers" have come up with. God's Law on murder: Under two or more witnesses he shall be put to death [to put the evil out of the land] and not as punishment. Under man's law: He is provided with free legal council along with a long and costly trial, and if found guilty he is often set free after ten or twenty years to be able to do it again. During those ten, twenty, or thirty years it is the taxpayer's duty to provide for him at a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars that include any medical care.

This same law pertains to rapists, kidnappers, pedophiles, homosexuals and possibly more that are regarded as capital crimes and always for the same reason: to put the evil out of the land. A murderer would never be able to kill again and the rapists would never have a chance to do it again (as most do). No, I do not think this would put an end to homosexuality, but you would never see another Gay Pride parade, nor would you see them promoted in the movies or on TV. (Michael Douglas and Matt Damon in 'Liberace'). We would never see another one in the White House like the last twelve years. And they could never again openly walk the halls of our congress.

God's Law on theft: If my ten thousand dollar car is stolen and I get it back in one piece, the thief would then owe me ten thousand dollars more. If the car was destroyed, he would then owe me twenty thousand dollars; if the car was the means of my livelihood, and he destroyed it, he would owe me forty thousand dollars, even if it took him years to pay it off. If he did not follow the judge's ruling, he would be executed for disobeying God's judgment, and his blood would be upon him. Under man's law: If my car was destroyed he would serve time for grand theft auto, and I would probably not get a dime. It would then be on the taxpayer to pay for his stay in one of our prisons. After getting out, he would be free to do it all over again.

Whoever said that crime doesn't pay, did not know what he was talking about. Because of this unlawful and un-Biblical legal system we are under, there are billions of dollars being made by the millions of lawyers, judges, police, politicians and others that operate the system. There are corporations now that are erecting prisons that in turn house and feed the prisoners, which is then charged to the state and federal governments. We now have more behind bars than any country in the world and it's still growing (the majority of inmates are non-white) [but you could not introduce the death penalty using today's legal system. God's Law is a unified whole, and must be applied in its entirety, e.g. in a capital crime, also the death penalty for perjury].

The Bible states very clearly that there is only one Lawgiver, and there is one thing that we have failed to learn over the last four thousand years, that is that man is incapable of governing and making laws. We now have millions of laws that involve every aspect of our lives and things just keep getting worse. Unfortunately the Christians of today prefer man's laws to the perfect law of liberty, His Laws. Many of our people are going through very hard times now, but I have a hard time being very sympathetic for the Christians that have helped so much to bring this about by supporting the very ones that are responsible.

In the last half of the 20th Century a new word appeared called 'Judeo-Christianity,' an oxy-moron, giving the impression that Christianity sprang from Judaism. But Judaism [Talmudic Phariseism] has always been the nemesis and greatest enemy of Jesus and Christianity for the last two thousand years, as one rabbi correctly and honestly said, There is no such thing as Judeo-Christianity, as the two religions are different that one excludes the other. Another oxymoron that is popular today is Christian-Zionism. To believe one or both of these hyphenated terms is a perfect example of double-mindedness, as the Apostle Paul elaborates on this very thing. One Jewish writer expressed his views very honestly as it is manifested in the world today, We are the destroyers, we always have been the destroyers, and we always will be the destroyers

Since the Christianity of early America has been deliberately altered and changed into what could be called Judeo-Christianity, a mixing of Christianity and Humanism, today's "born-again" believers are no longer interested in His gospel of the Kingdom or His Laws. They prefer to believe the hymn writer that wrote, "This world is not my home, I'm just passing through." After all, they are told that they are going to heaven when they die. Regarding the Law, they are told by their pastors that His Laws have been put away and that man's laws are more compassionate, intelligent and Christian than God's Laws. For anyone that is for His Kingdom or His Laws today is treated as a heretic, that has not been enlightened as they are. I would rather feel as Paul did when he was in opposition to the religion of his day, when he said, Let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, that thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged. (Rom. 3:4)

ing if he was a member of the Masons at that time, as many of the Baptists in the South including preachers were. He was told to come to New York and meet with the most powerful Jew in America Bernard Baruch, as no Federal contract all through the war was let to any contractor without his approval. The meeting took place on a park bench, as that was Baruch's custom, without any eyewitnesses. What was discussed there will never be known, but we do know that Billy accepted his offer as to what he could preach about and what to stay away from. Above all, the Jews would have to be painted in a good light.

After Billy's compromise, Bernard called Henry Luce, who was at that time the publisher of both TIME and LIFE magazines and told him to go to North Carolina and spend three days with Billy. I'm sure that Henry loved the idea of spending time with a "hillbilly" preacher, but he did what he was told. After getting many details ironed out with Billy he returned to New York. Then a phone call went out to William Randolph Hearst, the owner of the largest newspaper chain in America with a two-word message, "Puff Graham." It was at that time that these three men created the icon known as Billy Graham, not unlike the rock stars that are created to destroy our culture and morals. Over the years he has proven himself to be as useful to the Pharisees as Scofield was in his day and soon became a multi-millionaire.

The website on the internet abounds with his pro-Zionist and left-wing history. He is now a thirty-third degree Mason, which is not mentioned on the website, so he is now a part of the Illuminati which are the men completely dedicated to bring in the New World Order. They control the CFR, the Trilateral Commission, as well as the Bilderberg Group. When one reaches the highest order of Freemasonry he is no longer an American patriot, as he then becomes a "citizen of the world."

When I was a young man in Appleton, WI, a man in this city, Senator Joe McCarthy was holding sensational hearings on Communists in our State Department. He was met with nothing but hatred by our liberal press and our deluded people. He received condemnation from Nathan Pusey, president of Lawrence College in Appleton. His reward for this was to be appointed president of Harvard. After all of Joe's struggles against the principalities and powers, he was unable to change the destructive course we were on and paid the price of an early death, as the one's closest to him said it was not a natural death.

One of the one's closest to him, was an attorney, Urban Van Susteren who late became a judge in Appleton. He and I became friends later, and he was still hated by the Jews and the far left until his death. When I would stop and sit in his courtroom he would call a recess and we would go into his chambers and have some interesting conversations. His daughter Greta is now on Fox News for an hour each night. McCarthy was under the impression that Billy Graham was a Christian American, and he appealed to him for help. Billy's reply comes from a quote in his book, JUST AS I AM; I think McCarthy tried to contact me once, but I never exchanged telegrams with him, and I never talked to him on the phone. Nor did I want to. He was not about to cross the men that put him in power.

The following quotes by Billy is the reason he was not about to help the Senator. In the May 28th, 1973 edition of the Mainichi Daily News of Tokyo, I think Communism's appeal to youth is its structure and promise of the future utopia. Mao Tse Tung's - (the one that murdered over 100 million of his own people) - Eight precepts are basically the same as the Ten Commandments. In fact if we cannot have the Ten Commandments to read in our schools, I'll settle for Mao's precepts. In the April 7th, 1970 edition of the Chicago Tribune, he had this to say, For years I had refused to discuss Communism, as I cannot go around the world and say who is right and who is not. For an evangelist running under the Christian flag, to make statements like that is deplorable. Where were our intrepid pastors at that time? (preparing for the next Billy Graham Crusade, perhaps?? CIM)

One of the concessions that Billy agreed to was to destroy the prohibition of miscegenation which had always been the law of our land. The only way that they got around it was for the (interracial couple) to get a marriage license. A license is a piece of paper that gives you permission to do something that is illegal, such as a driver's license, hunting license, gambling license, liquor license and now even (licensed) prostitution. In Graham's syndicated column (My Answer) a mother asked him, whether there was anything in the Bible that would forbid her daughters to marry a Negro. Graham answered emphatically "certainly not." This is one of the greatest sins of the Bible as there is no repentance that can change the outcome of a marriage like this. (Murder may kill one person, but miscegenation may 'kill' many for generations to come! CIM). He also worked closely with the sexual predator and Communist trained, Dr. Martin Luther King to bring about our racial problems (through total integration).

PLEASE DO NOT FALL FOR FREEMASON DAVID ICKE

by Adam de Witt

David Icke earns over $2,000,000 a year in book sales and pentecostal-cult-style talks. He is an ex sports commentator, i.e. raised in the media of the system. He claimed he was Jesus (no kidding) and he has been caught out making all his tales up.

Look folks, if he is into truth, why then does he not tell the most-in-your-face truth .... that Saksons are Israelites and that Jews are Ashkenaz-Edomite Identity thieves?

Why does he never say that the state of Israel is not true Israel, but a scam state? Why does he not say that every war is not fought over oil but to make the world a safer place for the Identity thieves? Why does he NEVER EVER teach that????!! I'll tell you why.... . the bloke is a clown, pure and simple!

Now start to think folks ....

... If Jesus is the Son of God (and not Icke) and Saksons are the body of Jesus . . . then which creatures within the whole of the universe can possibly be smarter than Saksons? Think about it folks! God is the most intelligent being of the universe right? Are you with me? Then His Son must be the next in line of the most intelligent of all beings/creatures ... are you still with me? Okay. Then Jesus died for His kin, He is a kinsman Redeemer .... are you all with me still?

That means that His kinsfolk are next in line for uppermost in intelligence in the whole universe .... right? We are His kin. That makes us as a species, us the Saksons, the Isaac-sons, the Israelites, the Adamites, third in line of the most intelligent of all species in the universe ... it's that simple. Even a child can work it out, it's not rocket science.

That leaves no room for any other species on earth or outside earth to be more intelligent than us. Now, keep thinking folks . . .

The next in line of intelligence are the Mongoloids, then the Negroids. The Mongoloids (Chinese, Japanese, and such like) have never invented a single thing . . . ever! ... and the Negroid even more never than never if that can be done.

The only thing the Chinese have any claim to is paper, the waterwheel, and movable type . . and even for these three things (which they have never been able to better) they have gained because our related kin, the Proto-kelts lived right up to where is now the Great Wall of China and taught the Mongoloids these things.

The Negroids ... well the only thing they ever invented were more interesting ways to kill their foes, especially how to kill Saksons.

That all-up means that the Mongoloids and Negroids are 4th and 5th in line for intelligent creative ability. They are just under us. The Mongoloid has a brain capacity in size proportional to body mass as we have, but not with the inventive ability.

The Negroid brain is far smaller in ratio and with less brain folds so less ability.

That means, that should there be any creature on another planet, it will always be less in wit than us, at the very best, on equal footing to a mongoloid. Seeing that none of us have ever been to any planet where they may be, then they have never been able to gain our skills. So they would never have made a flying (machine) thing of sorts, other than a spear.

So they have a fat chance of flying to earth and taking over our government and ruling us. The only aliens are the swarthies living in Sakson lands . . . still with me?

Icke is a nitwit but a savvy businessman and a Freemason, thus a whore to the earthling Identity thieves. And there are others of his ilk. False prophets, whose job it is to mislead sheep to accept wolves as friends, and so both wolves and sheep can work together to fight extra-terrestrials . . . how daft is that!? No folks. He is a wolf, and he is afraid his meal is waking up. When sheep wake up, they realize that being eaten by wolves is not such a good idea.

They begin to shun wolves. Wolves get locked out and begin to starve and die . . . not nice for wolves. Nice for sheep. Stop listening top the Wolf Howl (TV-media). Why do so many Saksons still resend "Icke and co's" drivel emails? Is the Bible too boring?

AMERICA'S DRASTIC TRANSFORMATION

by Rusty Lee Thomas, American Daily Herald.

Our nation has undergone a drastic transformation, from a land of prosperity and opportunity to one of despair and death. We can repair the damage, but only if we can see and understand the big picture behind our descent into depravity.

In Ezekiel chapter eight, the Lord takes the prophet on a guided tour to reveal Israel's idolatrous practices that provoked him to jealousy. Ezekiel describes how the Lord "took me by a lock of my hair; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in visions of God to Jerusalem." (Ezek. 8:3). From there, in three distinct stages, God's Word exposed what drove the Lord away from His sanctuary and provoked Him to anger.

Ezekiel 8:6 states, "Son of man, do you see what they are doing, the great abominations that the house of Israel commits here, to make Me go far away from My sanctuary? Now turn again, you will see greater abominations." Two other times in this chapter the Lord brings the prophet deeper into the depravity of Israel; and warns him repeatedly to prepare himself to observe "even greater abominations."

The guided tour ends with this assessment, "And He said to me, 'Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a trivial thing to the house of Judah to commit the abominations which they commit here? For they have filled the land with violence; then they have returned to provoke Me to anger.'" Clearly, God's house of holiness degenerated into a house of horrors.

Instead of a lock of our hair, it appears the Lord is taking America by the scruff of the neck. He is forcing us on another guided tour that exposes our idolatrous practices. As much as we try to sweep under the rug our national abominations, God keeps lifting the rug, revealing the violence and the perversion stalking the land. We can run, but we cannot hide. Our iniquities are finding us out (Numbers 32:23).

Case in point are two major stories with the same title, House of Horrors. They recently captured the headlines. One exposed the atrocities committed by abortionist, Kermit Gosnell (a mixing). Thankfully, he was finally found guilty of first degree murder; the other revealed the plight of three young ladies held captive in Cleveland, Ohio. For ten years a captor purportedly repeatedly raped the women and "chose" to abort their children by administering blunt force to the stomach. Was the choice of these headlines a coincidence or a lack of ingenuity on behalf of the reporters? I think not. There is a direct connection, if we have eyes to see and ears to hear.

It was Francis Schaefer, a Christian thinker, who observed that one of the problems with the modern day church is that we tend to see news and events as separate bits and pieces and not in a whole manner. He states:

"Christians, in the last 80 years or so, have only been

A BIBLE GLOSSARY

Every student, from time to time, will run across terms, phrases, and analogies which can befuddle the most learned scholar. The reason the Lord hid His purposes in parable and mixed metaphors was to confound the wise and prudent. Only the humble, which have had their carnal mind broken by the Spirit will submit like "babes," and come to an understanding of their Father's will. In all honesty, and in respect to God's revealed truth, no others will ever come to this knowledge, notwithstanding this glossary. The vast majority of so-called Christian churches and denominations today are so far astray of the will of God that when they hear it they yell: "Heresy."

seeing things as bits and pieces which have gradually begun to trouble them and others, instead of understanding that they are the natural outcome of a change from a Christian World View to a Humanistic one . . . We may be troubled with the individual thing, but in reality we are missing the whole thing if we do not see each of these things and many more as only symptoms of the deeper problem. And that is the change in our society, a change in our country, a change in the Western world from a Christian consensus to a Humanistic one.”

In other words, we are not “connecting the dots” to get a full-orbed view of what is transpiring under our watch. Wikipedia partially defines “connect the dots” in this manner:

“In adult discourse the phrase “connect the dots” can be used as a metaphor to illustrate an ability (or inability) to associate one idea with another, to find the “big picture,” or salient feature, in a mass of data.”

GOD’S CHARGE AGAINST AMERICA

When Israel went a-whoring after other gods, the Lord raised up prophets as prosecuting attorneys to bring charges against His people. One such prophet was Hosea.

The more God advantaged Israel with blessing, the more she rebelled against His loving rule. Isaiah concurred. He stated, “What more could have been done to my vineyard that I have not done it? Why then, when I expected it to bring forth good grapes, did it bring forth wild grapes” (Isaiah 5:4)? In other words, God favored Israel to become a fruitful plant, but they degenerated into a weed. This left the nation abandoned, burnt, broken down, trampled down, and laid waste (Isaiah 5:5,6).

Here is Hosea’s exact charge:

“Hear the word of the Lord, you children of Israel, For the Lord has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land. There is no truth or mercy or knowledge of God in the land. By swearing and lying, Killing and stealing and committing adultery, they break all restraint, with bloodshed upon bloodshed” (Hosea 4:1,2).

Notice God’s complaint was not centered in the fact that there was no truth, mercy, or knowledge among God’s people. No, there was no truth, mercy, or knowledge of God in the land, the public life of their nation. As a result, national sins broke out like a plague. All moral restraints were let loose and violence and perversion ruled the day (i.e. abortion, sodomites, same-sex ‘marriage,’ government stealing from private bank accounts, etc. etc.). What happened to a nation that succumbs to this kind of lawlessness?? The next verse grants us a clue. (4 vs 3) “Therefore the land will mourn; and everyone who dwells there will waste away” (Cancer, perhaps?)

Hosea continued to address what ailed Israel. He declared, “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge. Because you have rejected knowledge, I also will reject you from being priest for Me; because you have forgotten the Law of your God (they tell you “It’s been done away”), I also will forget your children” (Hosea 4:6). Some preachers present this passage as ignorance of God’s knowledge. That was not the case. It was wilful disobedience. They knew God’s knowledge, but rejected it.

The reason why we reject the Gospel of the Kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ, is because we rather remain a law and a god unto ourselves. How is that working for us in these decadent, dangerous times? Do we not yet realize that we make terrible gods (Obama anyone?) which lead to unjust laws. I know we think we are the kings of our own castles, but in reality, we are merely prisoners pining away in our own prisons. Only Jesus the Christ holds the keys that can unlock the prison doors of sin and set the captives free (Revelation 1:18; Luke 4:18).

According to Hosea, however, the more lawless a nation becomes, the more our children will suffer the consequences. Tragically, they will become a forgotten generation. Every national indicator points to this inescapable consequence. God commands, “Thou shalt not murder!” America, and all western nations respond with aborticide. Are we now amazed that our children are being captured and the unspeakable is being committed against them? We hear of abortionists twisting the heads off of babies made in the image of God with their bare hands. Then we marvel when monsters are let loose to capture our born children and abuse them? As these tragedies proliferate, are we just seeing bits and pieces or can we finally “connect the dots” that reveal “the big picture, or salient feature, in a mass of data?”

I will conclude this article with a prophetic example. A while back, my family was invited to minister in New Orleans. One of the venues was to bring the Gospel of the Kingdom to the gates of hell, a local abortion mill. Through the years, we have reached out with Jesus’ love and truth at many abortion mills, but nothing could have prepared our hearts for this death camp. We learned that this particular den of iniquity was a former church. It broke our hearts. Right before our very eyes, God’s house of holiness became a house of horrors. With tears streaming down our faces, we cried out to God to arise and redeem this place. We pleaded with Him to end the house of horrors and transform it to a house of holiness. I am here to report that God answered the first part of the prayer. The death camp is closed. We are waiting to see if God will answer the latter part.

In a way, this one clinic sums up what has happened in America. Our national house has degenerated into a house of horrors as depicted with each news story and headline. What can we do to turn our house of horrors back to a house of blessing? Hosea had some advice at the end of his unktion. Perhaps, it is time to listen and obey that God may hear from heaven, forgive our sins, and heal our broken, wounded land (2 Chron. 7:14). Hosea 14:1-4 grants some hope if we would humble ourselves to meet God’s righteous requirements:

“O Israel (Christian-Sakson), return unto the Lord thy God; for thou hast fallen because of your iniquity. Take with you words, and return to the Lord: say unto Him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we offer the sacrifice of our lips. Asshur (our government or the United Nations) shall not save us; we will not ride on horses (our military cannot save us); neither will we say any more to the work of our hands (our economy cannot save us), You are our gods; for in You the fatherless finds mercy. I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely:

GOOD HEALTH THE RECIPE FOR A HAPPY LIFE

by Howard B. Rand

“The doctor of the future will give no medicine but will interest his patients in the care of the human frame, in proper diet, and in the cause and prevention of disease.”
(Thomas A. Edison)

THE LAWS OF HEALTH

Health of body and mind is so essential to the fulfillment of every task. As our long ago ancestors departed from Egypt and made their way to Mt. Sinai where they were to be given the most remarkable mission any group or nation of people could possibly imagine. When they arrived at their destination God deemed it necessary that the people be instructed in the matter of health that they might be free from disease and sickness. The Lord had said, “If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the Lord thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.” (Ex. 15:26). Later on, Moses reminded our ancestors that “the Lord thy God, he is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love him and keep his commandments to a thousand generations; And repayeth them that hate him to their face, to destroy them: he will not be slack to him that hateth him, he will repay him to his face. Thou shalt therefore keep the commandments, and the statutes, and the judgments, which I command thee this day, to do them . . . And the Lord will take away from thee all sickness, and will put none of the evil diseases of Egypt, which thou knowest, upon thee; but will put them upon all them that hate thee.” (Deut 7:15). What a gift! Yet, too soon ignored!

REASON FOR SICKNESS

Wherever there is a disease and sickness among God's People it is because we are refusing to keep and administer His Laws. Multitudes continue to live in pain and suffering, while countless numbers have gone to untimely graves for failure to keep and administer the law and individually observe the requirements for continued and uninterrupted health. Also, and importantly, there are many who have not been able to avail themselves of immunity from sickness because of ignorance of the law and its requirements.

HEALING AVAILABLE NOW

Though the law of health was made a statute in the nation, assuring the removal of all sickness from the people when all His commandments and statutes are kept, yet the individual does not have to wait until the nation is righteous before the blessings of continued health are available. This is because healing and health were made an ordinance as well as a statute in the nation forever, and this statute and ordinance have never been abrogated. They are still operating for those who can claim their benefits through complying with the requirements.

We live in a strange world. Professing Christians seldom, if ever, search the Scriptures for guidance in their every day activities and particularly is this true in the requirements for health. (perhaps if people got into the habit of Bible reading aloud to the family every day would be a good step in the right direction). Certain fundamental laws are given in the Bible which, if kept, would give that health and vigor so characteristic of the life of Moses. Moses died at the age of one hundred and twenty years and the record states, “His eye was not dim, nor his natural force abated.” (Deut 34:7).

CLEAN AND UNCLEAN ANIMALS

Man was a vegetarian in the years prior to the Deluge (Gen. 1:29). When Noah began to load the ark he was instructed to bring in seven pair each of the clean and one pair each of the unclean animals. This presupposes knowledge of such classification long before similar instructions were given to our ancestors at Mount Sinai. After the Deluge, God added meat to the diet of man. “But flesh with the life thereof, which is the blood thereof, shall ye not eat.” (Gen. 9:3-4).

PROMISE OF HEALING

When our ancestors in Egypt forgot God they experienced the diseases of the Egyptians. At Marah they received instruction as to how they might secure immunity from all sickness. While keeping of the law will give immunity from disease, yet for those who have violated its provision sickness abounds. The Psalmist had this in mind when he said, “Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget not all His benefits; Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; Who healeth all thy diseases.” In both cases the conditions must be kept in order to secure both forgiveness and healing.

THOU SHALT NOT

That which men consume will mean for them either “health and life” or “sickness and death.” When finally the full story is written it will be found that the diseases which afflict mankind are the direct result of eating the forbidden things. The “Thou shalt not” of the Commandments and “Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing” are equally binding.

It was not necessary to instruct our ancestors in the type of herbs (vegetables) and fruit they could eat, for such instruction had already been given to man during the time he was a vegetarian. The rule was simple. Man could eat the vegetables bearing seed and the fruit of the trees yielding seed. God has provided a great variety of food without violating this rule. Fungi of all kinds such as mushrooms are forbidden (Gen. 1:29).

ABOMINABLE THINGS FORBIDDEN

When our ancestors received the law regarding meat, God said, “Thou shalt not eat any abominable thing.” (Deut 3). Simple rules are given for our instruction which are easy to remember. Of the four-footed animals only those that have the cloven hoof and also chew the cud are to be meat to eat. The pig is forbidden, for although it has a cloven hoof it does not chew the cud; horses are forbidden also. Of the fish that live in the water, all can be eaten which have both fins and scales (no catfish!) This excludes eating of shell fish of all kinds including prawns and lobsters. Of the birds and fowls, any can be eaten which are not birds of prey, such as the eagle, vulture and hawk, etc. The eating of blood is strictly forbidden at all times. Veal is forbidden until the calf has been weaned. Thus there is no danger of eating this meat when the calf is too young. The detail of these laws will be found in Deuteronomy fourteen and Leviticus eleven.

BROTH OF ABOMINABLE THINGS

The four-footed animals that are lawful to eat all have the double digestive system. Through Isaiah the Lord said of our generation, "A people that provoketh me to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick [established church practice]; which remain among the graves, and lodge in the monuments [with burial places of their dead marked by monuments in the Churches], which eat swine's flesh [we consume great quantities of such flesh - pork chops, ham, bacon, sausages, etc], and broth of abominable things is in their vessels." [clam chowders, oyster stews, etc]. (Isaiah 65:3-4).

DISEASES OF EGYPT

Examination of the mummies of Egypt has disclosed the fact that the Egyptians were subject to the diseases which afflict our nation today. God declared that the violation of His laws would bring upon us all the diseases of Egypt, also every other sickness and plague (Deut. 28:58-61). We have them all. The judgment as pronounced has come upon us. This is evidenced in the sickness and suffering for our failure to keep the law and obey the injunction, "THOU SHALT NOT eat any abominable thing."

WAY OF LIFE AND DEATH

On the whole, we are resentful when there is interference with our appetites. Christians who would not think of violating any of the Ten Commandments will deliberately violate the laws of continued health. Later in life, when the inevitable happens, and health is gone, they blame God, though Moses said, "See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and evil; in that I command thee this day to love the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his judgments that thou mayest live and multiply." (Deut. 30:15-16)

Can God be blamed when men choose the way of death? Because the penalties for such law violation are deferred, in some cases until life has nearly run its full course, men harden their hearts and try to justify the sins they commit, even misinterpretation of New Testament passages.

SEEKING THE PHYSICIANS

Nationally we refuse to keep and administer the law and pay a fearful price in crippled men and women with untold suffering, pain and death: while individually we seek the physicians instead of the Lord. An eloquent testimony of the results of such a course is given regarding Asa, king of Israel, "And Asa in the thirty and ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was exceeding great: yet in his disease he sought not to the Lord, but to the physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers." (2 Chron. 16:12-13).

Health being one of man's most valuable assets—as evidenced in the fortunes continually spent by those who, having lost it, seek to regain its blessings again—has led us to deal first with the statute and ordinance received by our ancestors before they arrived at the foot of Mount Sinai.

PLANET EARTH RULED IN THE FEAR (REVERENCE) OF GOD?

By Lucien De Bruin

IsraEL Identity is alive on planet earth, and it is multi-tribal, not 10 ("lost") 11 or 13, but 12 Tribes: James 1:1. They are a remnant, and they are the new covenant people, NOT the CON-stitution people, - and their identity has not been destroyed! The MASTER POTTER will not let this happen (Romans 7:21,22; Isaiah 29:16; 45:9-12; 64:8).

I always find it sad that there are so many "splinter" groups on earth, all claiming to be Bible Christians, but seemingly not the slightest bit interested in edifying each other. It's a sort of "dog eat dog spiritual contest" or an academic CONtest?"

Many years ago a US Baptist minister wanted me to join his congregation. He gave me a booklet to read; "British-Israelism" with the sub-title "Are Great Britain and America the ten lost tribes" of Israel?

Is an Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian and kindred remnant of the 12 Tribes of IsraEL only to be found in the U.K and the U.S.A.? A much more valid question, and the answer is an emphatic NO!!

Did you ever read "Strange Parallel" by Helene Koppejan? Subtitle: "Zebulun - The Netherlands - a tribe of IsraEL" Published in Dutch and English? (#352 @ $12.55)

The late E. Raymond Capt, (and NOT Captain E. Raymond, as I once read in a B.I. publication!) well-known USA Bible scholar and archeologist had a meeting with the author of 'Strange Parallel' who gave Mr. Capt permission to print an American edition of her book. He had studied "The Tribes" and felt strongly that Zebulun was The Netherlands (the TRUE Dutch), as have others. (Ray Capt gave exclusive Australian distribution rights for his videos to CIM). (DVD#CI-158 @ $25)

Being Dutch-born myself, and having lived in the Netherlands for 23 years; I also studied the subject in Australia, and have no doubt as to the identity of the true Dutch being the remnant of the tribe of Zebulun. And who would deny that Zebulunites (TRUE DUTCH) have been scattered far and wide around the world; and indeed, hundreds of thousands have settled in the USA, Great Britain, Canada, South Africa, Australia and New Zealand, etc.

Needless to say all 12 tribes should, could, and will be identified towards the end of the age to confirm the O.T prophecies, and open the eyes of IsraELites to their true identity, heritage, and destiny!

Of course it will be REAL (as in TRUE) IsraEL, and nothing whatsoever to do with FAKE/FALSE Israel as per 1948 invaded and occupied Palestine, annexed UNlawfully by Zionist/Ashkenazim Jews from around the world; making a gullible world believe that "God's chosen people" had found the "promised land" whilst nothing could be further from the truth.

The big T.V. cults seem to be "in bed" with 1948 'Israel' and so are the rest of religions in the world (except Islam?). After the infamous 6-day-war (1948) the Jews deceiving the world, called half of sovereign Palestine "Israel" whilst TRUE IsraEL's 12 tribal remnants were/are spread all over the face of the earth; the salt of the earth! (Matt. 5:13).

Present-day 'Israel' so-called in 1948 would have to be one of the biggest LIES in the history of the planet earth! Many church groups believe 'Israel' in the Middle East to be Biblical IsraEL, an UNbelievable deception. Some claimed that Ephraim and Manasseh were “the TEN LOST tribes” but were they ever ‘lost’ in the first place?

The Brit John Wilson (theologian from Cambridge and lecturer from 1837-1870), was amongst the first researchers to connect the Dutch with Zebulun. It took more than a hundred years before “the penny dropped” in Holland, and true Dutch who understood, started to call themselves ZEBULUNITES!

The study of the remnant of the true IsraELites from Scripture is truly fascinating, and no serious student of the Scriptures would deny that a remnant of the twelve tribes is spread around planet earth, and yes, that remnant only fits Anglo-Saxon-Germanic-Scandinavian-Celtic and kindred peoples.

To study the TRUE IDENTITY of Biblical IsraEL—the modern-day new covenant remnant IsraELites—will be one of the most important studies to undertake for those seeking THE TRUTH. Question: Is a remnant 144,000? Or 12,000 for each of the 12 Tribes? Have you ever asked a professional potter how pliable the clay he works with has to be before he can do anything with it? Before he can make something out of it?

How many Christians do you know who are trying hard to be pliable, malleable in the hands of the Master Potter? You, the “clay” who can be moulded, formed into something pleasing in the eyes of the Master Potter?!

Many preachers are not “exposing” (Eph. 5:8-11) and certainly not “crying aloud” (Isaiah 58:1). Many believe that they must not upset the “rulers”!! But where are the “just rulers who are ruling in the fear (reverence) of God” (2 Sam. 23:3)? Have they been called out yet?

Here’s hoping the Master Potter finds the “clay” He can work with to get the work done before He sets up HIS KINGDOM here on earth.

Why do we have mass immigration basically ONLY to Western Nations? Aliens pouring in (hear: Alien Invasion is a Judgment of God, by Sheldon Emry, in 4 parts on 4 CDs @ $16 posted), even in OVER-populated Netherlands; but not the assimilable kind!! Once we allow ourselves to be taken over and ruled by non-Christian, God-hating governments, and a criminal banking system, we become slaves of that system. And yes, it will happen because of our ‘democratic’ system of voting, when they outnumber us (and they already out-breed us), they will be elected and rule.

Should we have Ramadan in Western countries? Temples? Mosques? Isn’t it time to speak up? The remnant of 12-tribe Israel is getting restless, and even the “leaders” of the U.K. and Germany can see that multiculturalism has been a huge tragedy. So can some members of the Dutch Parliament.

There is now such a huge mess beyond solving by the G-20 club, or any other “leaders” CONclave, that only our Creator can unscramble it, AND HE WILL!! Western Nations such as the U.K. (remember “the sun never sets on this Empire”?); America, once a Christian giant known as the “Heavenly Kingdom” and other pre-dominantly Christian Nations; descendants of the remnant of New Covenant People, now find themselves slaves in an evil “New World Order.”

The curses for DISobedience are so blatantly obvious, are they not? Deuteronomy 28:44: “HE WILL BE THE HEAD, BUT YOU WILL BE THE TAIL” (emphasis LdB). Anyone who cannot see this happening to once prosperous Christian Nations, should earnestly seek the Master Potter on his/her knees!

Try and migrate as a New Covenant Caucasian IsraELite believer to countries like China, Indonesia, India, the Philippines, Malaysia or any Moslem country. Should you get there, try and buy land, start a Covenant People congregation, build your own school to teach Christianity, and top it all off by trying to get into their government! You’d have much less chance than the proverbial “snowball in hell”!!

Every Tom, Dick, and Harry has poured into Caucasian countries for many years, with the U.S.A. and the U.K. the biggest “melting pots” and other Western Nations not far behind including Australia. I am well aware that remnant new covenant people have to put up with various labels such as “racist” - “unchristian” - “Nazism,” - “Anti-semitic” etc., with disrespect and hatred thrown in for good measure, and nothing to do with 1948 fake/false Israel.

There is NO government on the face of the earth ruling in the fear of God, the Creator, the Master Potter.

----- In fact, ONLY the Kingdom under King Jesus can and will restore sanity on planet earth because “..... He that rules over men must be just, ruling in the fear (reverence) of God.” (2 Samuel 23:3).

ICELAND

No News From Iceland? Why?

Iceland’s on-going revolution is a stunning example of how little our media tells us about the rest of the world. We may remember that at the start of the 2008 financial crisis, Iceland literally went bankrupt. As one European country after another fails, imperilling the Euro, with repercussions for the entire world, the last thing the powers-that-be want is for Iceland to become an example. Contrary to what could be expected, the crisis resulted in Icelanders recovering their sovereign rights, through a process of direct participatory democracy that eventually led to a new Constitution.

During 2009 the protests and riots continued, eventually forcing the government to resign. Elections were brought forward, resulting in a left-wing coalition that demanded Iceland pay back three and a half million Euros or $130 per person for fifteen years. It was the straw that broke the reindeer’s back.

What happened next was extraordinary. The belief that citizens had to pay for the mistakes of a financial monopoly, and that an entire nation must be taxed to pay off private debts was shattered. The Head of State refused to ratify the law that would have made Iceland’s citizens responsible for its banker’s debts, and accepted calls for a referendum.

Of course the international community only increased the pressure on Iceland,. Great Britain and Holland threatened dire reprisals. As Icelanders went to vote, foreign bankers threatened to block any aid from the IMF. The British government threatened to freeze Icelandic savings and checking accounts. In the March 2010 referendum, 93% voted against repayment of the debt. The IMF immediately froze its loan. But the revolution (though not televised in the United States), would not be intimidated. With the support of a furious citizenry, the government launched civil and penal investigations into those responsible for the financial crisis. Interpol put out an international arrest warrant for the ex-president of Kaupthing, Sigurdur Einarsson, as the other bankers implicated in the crash fled the country.

But Icelanders didn’t stop there; they decided to draft a new constitution that would free the country from the exaggerated power of international finance and virtual money. To write the new constitution, the people of Iceland elected twenty-five citizens from among 522 adults not belonging to any political party but recommended by at least thirty citizens. This document was not the work of a handful of politicians, but was written on the internet. The constituents’ meetings are streamed on-line, and citizens can send their comments and suggestions, witnessing the document as it takes shape. The constitution that eventually emerges from this participatory democratic process will be sub-

THE STORY OF JOHN BUNYAN

'A man of the people' Puritan Writer and Preacher 1628 - 1688

by A.F.S. Barton; Longreach, Qld.

In the 1600's there lived in England a humble common man who wrote some sixty booklets in his lifetime, one of which was "The Pilgrims Progress" one of the most printed books in history, which he composed whilst in prison for the crime of preaching the Gospel without a license. It was to become a bestseller second only to the Bible in sales. It has since been translated into over 120 languages and dialects.

This great man, John Bunyan, was also a magnificent Preacher for Jesus the Christ. The Vice-Chancellor of Oxford University John Owen, was one who frequently went to listen to Bunyan preach, and wished wholeheartedly that he could preach the truth as well as Bunyan was able.

John Bunyan was born in 1628 in the small village of Harrowden (1 mile south-east of Bedford), in the Parish of Elstow, England. (Elstow in the 1931 census had a population of 520).

Bunyan's father Thomas, whose trade was a tinker, the making and mending of pots and pans, met and married Margaret Bentley on 23rd May 1627. (These records are still retained at Elstow Church today).

John was born the following year and baptized 30th November 1628, and when he was old enough, took up his father's trade as a tinker.

Bunyan's schooling taught him to read and write. Around the year 1644, two big events occurred for John. His mother died, and with the onset of the English Civil War, the struggle between Crown and Parliament, the young, sturdy, 16-year-old John was pressed into the Parliament Army as a foot-soldier or infantryman.

Some Civil War Muster Rolls still exist and tell us that young John served three years in the Parliament Army, from June 1644 to June 1647.

It would be interesting to know whether Bunyan fought in any of the famous battles of this time, but John speaks very little of these battles. He only speaks of another soldier who took his place and who was shot and killed, and of falling into a creek by the sea. Perhaps these clues suggest Bunyan was drafted for Irish service in 1645?

Money is always vital in a war and as historical records tell us, the Parliamentary Army received funds from Europe. Religion was not neglected; Puritan preachers would conduct sermons to the troops. Character building was instilled, the troops being issued with several religious books including a special Bible. Oliver Cromwell had a favourite quote for his soldiers; "Trust in God, but keep your powder dry;" he would tell them.

Free from military service Bunyan returned to Elstow, resuming his tinker trade, and married a well-brought-up girl from a Christian family. They started life together believe it or not without a dish or spoon, but his new wife came with two Christian books. Their first child was a girl who was born blind, she was called Mary. This may also have been John's wife's name? (people were more inclined to carry on names from within the family then, than what they are today).

John Bunyan initially may have been like many of us moderns; attending church, but living in the material world.

A CELESTIAL VOICE

Like Joan of Arc and other famous Biblical persons, Bunyan heard a Celestial voice. One Sunday Bunyan was playing a popular game of the time known as "CAT," this involved a stick, a hole and a ball on Elstow Green, when from nowhere a voice spoke to him; "Wilt thou leave thy Sins and go to Heaven, or have thy sins and go to Hell."

Bunyan was at heart a sensitive man, but it appears the battle in his soul had many ups and downs, and over time he turned more and more to the Bible Bunyan was a bell-ringer on the number four rope at Elstow Church, but he gave this up, and also his dancing in the Moot Hall on Elstow Green for what he considered to be more important matters, this being his spiritual growth, although this was more gradual than sudden.

Bunyan had a feeling for the poor people he met, and claimed these people assisted him in his spiritual growth. Some of these poor Bedford people led Bunyan to a man named John Gifford, who had started a Gospel or Baptist Church in Bedford. Gifford an ex-Major in the Royalist Army had once been captured and about to be hanged by Parliament forces, when his sister seeing the guards asleep, was able to free him from prison. In due course God thus recruited Gifford into His Service.

Bunyan was large-hearted and certainly no bigot, to him Baptism must be an act of conviction and obedience, and that a person could be a Christian without being baptized. However, Bunyan was baptized by Gifford by immersion in water [the Egyptian way, CIM] in 1653 and was received into the Baptist Church. The Minister John Gifford died in 1655 and about this time Bunyan moved with his family to Bedford. The larger town would advantage both his business and spiritual life. His family was growing; his two daughters Mary and Elizabeth were followed by two sons, John and Thomas. Like the man from Galilee, Bunyan had much affection for his children. Sadly, his wife's health began to fail and she died.

CHANGES IN RELIGION AND #### THE ENGLISH BIBLE

Bunyan's lengthy up and down soul experiences had equipped him to become a magnificent Christian and teacher. More so than any academic would have done. Often in torment Bunyan searched the Bible until God opened his eyes, and he began to clearly understand Jesus, our Creator's Son. He was touched by the fire of Pentecost and holy spirit.

Entreated to preach, Bunyan consented at first to preach in private, but then later openly began to preach at places away from Bedford and Elstow.

Over the years changes in religion had taken place. The early English Bibles were in Latin, making the truth unavailable to the people. William Tyndale 1490-1536 believed every Englishman should be able to read the Bible for himself, and in his own language, so he translated the New Testament, and the first Five Books of the Old Testament into English, and he accomplished this whilst hiding in Europe. This Bible was at first illegal for being in the English language, and was called the "Smugglers Bible," as it had to be smuggled into England. Tyndale was caught by the authorities and tried for smuggling, and like Joan of Arc, was executed at the stake in Belgium.

As the Reformation gathered pace, King Henry VIII (1491-1547), broke with the established Roman church, formed the National English Church and allowed Tyndale's Bible to be published in England. Therefore in Bunyan's day there was a new English National Church (C of E), which still encompassed much of the common (error) doctrine of the Roman International Church that it had broken away from. While Bunyan had been called, we believe by God, and was invited to preach in surrounding churches, the official Church's "23rd Article of Religion" forbade the people from preaching in churches and in other places, without the given permission of that established church.

In 1655, the itinerant Tinker-Preacher became a Deacon and began preaching with marked success from the very start. But he was now being watched by the law, and although the authorities were fairly tolerant of him for awhile; then came the first blow. Bunyan and the Baptist congregation of St John's, Bedford, were denied their church building for their use. Services now had to be held wherever possible people could gather together, such as private homes, barns, stables and cowsheds. By law they were now labelled as non-conformists.

THE ACT OF UNIFORMITY AND PREACHING WITHOUT A LICENSE

With Oliver Cromwell's death in 1658 and King Charles II restoration in 1660, there was a move to restore the Pre-Civil war Episcopal Church. "The Act of Uniformity" was enacted thus putting all church services under the control of Bishops and therefore denied any outside call from God. Hence Bunyan's enemies increased and he was followed everywhere.

Bunyan believed prayer should be guided by God and the Spirit, and not by other men. With no wife, four children to support and facing arrest, Bunyan met and married another saintly woman whose name was Elizabeth; this was in the year 1659. On the 12th November 1660 Bunyan preached at a farmhouse in the Hamlet of Lower Samsell about 13 miles south of Bedford. Here he was arrested and marched to the county jail in Silver Street, Bedford. He was told by the authorities that if he promised to give up preaching, he could remain a free man, but Bunyan's faith told him, that to a Christian all things work to glorify God, and therefore refused to give up his preaching, and was sentenced and confined for 12 years until January 1672.

Although missing his family a great deal, Bunyan refused to forsake his God and the right of "freedom of Religion." His wife Elizabeth bravely and stoutly went to the Magistrates in her husband's behalf, but without success. When the Royal Courts came to Bedford, Bunyan's name may have been left off the list of people to face trial.

Whilst in prison, Bunyan was allowed frequent visits from his family and friends. His most pressing problem was that he had to find some means of supporting his family, so he took up writing, this being always the Christian message. After six years in confinement Bunyan was released briefly from prison. While a free man, Bunyan hears about the "Great Fire of London," but on resuming his preaching he is again arrested and returned to jail. He then suffered an even worse blow with the death of his beloved blind daughter, Mary.

After another six years in confinement Bunyan was released in the year 1672, and gained his freedom with the King having signed "The Declaration of Religious Indulgence," suspending all action against non-conformists.

"THE PILGRIMS PROGRESS"

From a new church in Mill Lane, Bedford, the Tinker-Preacher leads his church as "Bishop" Bunyan, being granted a license to preach in May 1672 under the Congregational name. His newly born son Joseph was christened at St. Cuthbert's, Bedford on the 16th November 1672.

Now free, Bunyan devotes his life to preaching; many towns and hamlets in the area, can still today boast that Bunyan preached there. The records of Leicester Town about 40 miles in a direct line from Bedford, tell us that he preached there in October 1672.

The "Declaration of Indulgence" is cancelled, and in its place a new Test Act. With this new Act non-conformists are again outside the law. Bunyan is re-arrested in his home by two constables, and this time placed in the town jail on the Great Bridge over the River Ouse. It is while in this jail that Bunyan experienced a dream. It was after this dream that he began to write his greatest work "The Pilgrims's Progress."

Bunyan's fame and respect was growing. In the summer of 1676, Dr. John Owen, once a Chaplain to Cromwell and a Vice-Chancellor of Oxford, engineered Bishop Barlow of Lincoln to release Bunyan. After his release, Bunyan travelled to London to meet John Owen, who was very impressed with the new book "Pilgrim's Progress" and assists in its publication. The first edition sold for One Shilling and Sixpence (15c). It is an immediate success, selling out two editions in the first year 1678. The book tells of the trials and tribulations of its hero "Christian," as he journeys to find his haven in the Holy City. In the sequel to "Pilgrim's Progress," Bunyan tells of the adventures of Christian's wife Christiana and his family as they travel the road to join him.

Bunyan travelled on his horse to Reading to heal a family rift. Riding on to London he was soaked with heavy rain and contracted a fever, which laid him low and bed-ridden for a few days. Still ill and weak he sets out to walk from Holborn to Whitechapel to hold a service on Sunday 19th August 1688. It may have been a memorable service. He may have spoken on how God purges and conditions his created team. As in a Blacksmith's Forge the Iron is transformed by heat into a product of strength and usefulness.

Bunyan's strength was drained. Returning to London, the chill became a raging fever and ten days later he passed away at the house of a friend at Snow Hill on 31st August 1688. John Bunyan was buried in Finsbury Burying Ground, Bunhill Fields, City Road, London, where his grave still lies today.

After his death, friends saw that all his many books were published. He was always poor as regards to money. But, he was truly a free individual, perhaps one can see in his life of service a similar perception as described by Canon Arthur Fellows of our Saviour Jesus the Christ, "That as Christ stood before Pilate and the crowd in chains, he was still the only totally free individual there that day." ***

Note: John Bunyan's two other best known titles were: "Holy War," and "Grace Abounding," his autobiography. It is said that in the days of early westward expansion in the United States, early settlers often owned only two books, one being the Bible, and the other being John Bunyan's "Pilgrim's Progress."

DOUG CHRISTIE

We recently lost one of our Great Canadian Cobbers when the famous and notable Doug Christie passed on. Doug a Barrister and Solicitor, spent his career in defending the under-privileged, and those people suffering under oppression.

Christie was born in Winnipeg, 24th April 1946. Doug died of metastatic liver cancer in Victoria, Canada on 11th March 2013, and was interned in the Royal Oak Cemetery.

Doug who would have been Canada's leading defence lawyer, was involved in publishing a newsletter called "Friends of Freedom," with its annual "George Orwell, Free Speech Award" and dinner.

Doug Christie believed in defence lawyers, the only thing standing between citizens and State oppression saying; "Without Defence Lawyers, you wouldn't even need the courts - you would need only a police state."

Alan Barton, Longreach.

Doug Christie was responsible for helping a number of well-known people being persecuted by the State, among them teacher James Keegstra; teacher Malcolm Ross; and historian Ernst Zundel.

Isaiah 43:1-2      Psalm 66:12.

THE ANSWERING SERVICE

Q: What does the Bible say about tattoos and piercings?

A: First, the words tattoo and piercings do not appear in the King James Version. What we have to look at is what does God have to say about our bodies? Are we free to do whatever we want to our bodies? Obviously, since God is the Creator of our bodies, He has ultimate say over what we can and cannot do. Let's look first in Romans 12:1-2, "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

So we are told that our reasonable service is to present our bodies a living sacrifice, holy (separate) acceptable unto God. However, if we look at the sacrifices under the Old Covenant we see that all of the various sacrifices were to be unblemished. We are also told in Leviticus 19:28, "You shall not make any cuts in your body for the dead nor make any tattoo marks on yourselves: I am the LORD." (NAS). When we look at the context of this, we see that all of this relates to Israel not embracing the ways of the heathen. If we look at the origin of tattoos, we find this:

"The term 'tattoo' or from Samoa, 'Tatau' is first referred to by Joseph Banks, the naturalist aboard Cook's ship the Endeavour in 1769 where he mentions it in his journal. To paraphrase, he states, 'I shall now mention the way they mark themselves indelibly, each of them is so marked by their humor or disposition.' Tattooing has been practiced for centuries worldwide. The Ainu, the indigenous people of Japan, traditionally wore facial tattoos. Today one can find Berbers of Tamazgha (North Africa), Māori of New Zealand, Arabic people in East-Turkey and Tayal of Taiwan with facial tattoos. Tattooing was widespread among Polynesian peoples and among certain tribal groups in Taiwan, Philippines, Borneo, Mentawai Islands, Africa, North America, South America, Mesoamerica, Europe, Japan, Cambodia, New Zealand and Micronesia." <http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tattoo>

Obviously then, tattooing and most piercings are "the way of the heathen" and is a conforming to our current world and should NOT be practiced by Christians who are making their bodies a living sacrifice.

It is important to note that ear piercing is in the Bible and this was a sign that a person was a lifelong slave (servant) to another Israelite of their own free will and volition. "Then his master shall bring him unto the judges; he shall also bring him to the door, or unto the door post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an aul (awl); and he shall serve him forever." (Ex. 21:6).

It is important to note the other references given in the Bible regarding earrings. The very first reference is in Genesis 35. "And God said to Jacob, Rise up, go to Bethel live there. And make an altar to God there, who appeared to you when you fled before your brother Esau. And Jacob said to his house, and to all those with him, Put away the strange gods which are in your midst, and purify yourselves, and change your clothing. And let us rise up and go up to Bethel. And I will make an altar there to God, who answered me in the day of my distress. And He was with me in the way in which I went. And they gave all the strange gods in their hand to Jacob, and the earrings which were in their ears and Jacob hid them under the oak that was near Shechem (Green's Literal Translation).

Notice the strange gods and earrings are both pagan in this account. The other references to earrings show that Israelites did wear them as they gave them as offerings in Ex. 32:2-3; 35:22; Numbers 31:50; Judges 8:24-26. In Isaiah 3:20 the earrings and adornments are taken away as punishment. In Ezekiel 16:12 God tells Jerusalem how He is going to give back those adornments. The last mention is in Hosea 2:13 where God tells Hosea that Israel adorned herself and went after other lovers and forgot God.

From these accounts, we see that the earrings and adornments can be used for good or for evil. So the distinguishing factor is why are you wearing what you are wearing? Are you doing it to honor God or are you doing it to entice others to do evil? Is what you are wearing modest and uplifting, or worldly?

In conclusion, we can see that tattoos and cuttings (body piercings that embrace heathen ways and actual cutting of the body [as Muslims do with their heads]) are totally forbidden by God's Law. However earrings are not prohibited, but we must look at why they are worn. Also, the only time we know for certain that the ear was pierced was for a permanent earring that was used to mark a person as a slave (servant). So, just as we consider what clothes we wear, we must consider everything about our outward appearance and strive to always be a good Christian witness for Him. Remember your lifestyle may be the only Bible some people ever read. .... Pastor Dave Barley.

Again another month has flown by - where does the time go. We had several good comments on the last newsletter and I hope this one is equally well received. Numbers are again declining, as several people have passed away. Remember to leave your 'Identity' materials in safe hands when your time comes, and is not thrown out to the garbage, by unbelieving relatives! May the God of our forefathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob bless you for your faithfulness and keep you safe,
