"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he swore to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." "FRIENDS OF THE WORLD"

ASSOCIATIONS

Be not deceived: bad associations corrupt good character. Sober up to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.
1 Cor. 15:33,34.

Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother that walks disorderly, and not according to the tradition which you received of us. 2 Thess. 3:6

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves; be you therefore wise as serpents, and pure (unadulterated) as doves. But beware of men: for they will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; Matt. 10:16-17.

Wherefore come out from among them and be separate, says the Lord, and cling not to the unclean; and I will receive you. 2 Cor. 6:17.

"UNCLEAN" - "UNGODLY"

Clearly Scripture teaches us to avoid personal associations with the unclean/ungodly. This is a stated prerequisite to being "received" into God's fold. If godliness (being received by God) puts us in tune with God's creation (reality), then one might say avoiding ungodly associations is necessary to spiritual health and a sound mind.

You adulteresses, know you not that friendship of the world is hostility towards God? whoever therefore chooses to be a friend of the world (man's system) is made an enemy of God. James 4:4.

Friends of the world are "enemies of God"? Surely this isn't talking about us or our friends, is it? Whoever these unfavorable wretches might be, they must stand out like sore thumbs, right? Something about them must be noticeably repugnant to us. We could never feel comfortable with these types, could we?

Well, seeing the black hats (God's enemies) is made more difficult if one's vision is impaired. In modern vernacular this is called being "desensitized" (i.e., losing ability to detect things due to over exposure to them). Scripture sometimes calls this having your heart "hardened through the deceitfulness of sin."

For example, it is a recognized fact that large numbers of psychopaths and sociopaths live among us without being detected. No Christian wants to associate with psychopaths and sociopaths. Yet, most people are probably personally acquainted with a number of psychopaths and sociopaths—and odds are they would have a hard time identifying them. Psychopaths tend to appear normal to most people.

Scripture tells us to "test the spirits" (the motives) of people (1 John 4:1) to see if they are "of God." Loss of this skill leads to inability to spot psychopaths. But, hey ... questioning the spirit (motives) of acquaintances today is not socially acceptable. If you practice or exercise what these scriptures instruct you, people will think you are unfriendly. Don't want that, do you?

Nonetheless, "friends of the world" who are "enemies of God" are out there. How will you deal with them? Can you in good conscience think of them as your friends knowing they are "enemies of God"?

This problem is big for us since we reside inside a Babylonish society with Babylonians all around us. These Babylonians are obviously "friends of the world" which makes them by definition, "enemies of God."

So you may be wondering, "Is Ben Williams trying to tell me that my friends are not really my friends? Is he saying they are my enemies? Well, here's a fact. What I say means little. What the Scriptures say means a lot. Therefore, let us stick to what Scripture says.

Here's some insight into James' statement. He was addressing Israelites (see James 1:1). Then in James 4:4 he calls them "adulteresses." Why does he do that? Do you think he was addressing wives who were cheating on their husbands? (The KJV added the word "adulterers." But the earlier and best Greek texts don't have it because it wasn't in the original. It is a scribal insertion).

James was addressing Israelites who were "adulteresses." The insinuation had a singular purpose. The folks he was addressing (both male and female) were, by virtue of the New Covenant, officially married to Jesus. They were part of the body of people designated "the bride of Christ." Now, if they were cozying up to philosophies of "friends of the world" it meant they were flirting with other husbands and being unfaithful to their real Husband (Jesus). Jesus, like His Father, is a jealous husband ... as any husband who loves his wife should be. [actually, Jesus is the Head of the body (of overcomers, the firstfruits) and the bride is Israel at large - so this marriage is a re-unification of all Israel, CIM]

For the land is full of committing adultery I have seen a horrible thing in the prophets of Jerusalem. They commit adultery and walk in lies; they also strengthen the hands of evildoers, so that no one turns back from his wickedness. All of them are like Sodom to Me, and her inhabitants like Gomorrah. Jer. 23:10 & 14.

This judgment from God, as expressed through Jeremiah, was against people claiming Yahweh as their Husband while learning the ways of other lords (i.e. other "husbands"). In Biblical terms, they were committing adultery.

This was precisely what James was accusing the Israelites of his day of doing. They were dishonoring Christ by becoming friendly with other systems/lords. James admonishes them to "Cleanse your hands, you sinners, and purify your hearts, you double-minded" (James 4:8). It is double-mindedness to think you can buddy-up to Christ's enemies but still remain loyal to Christ.

From the beginning, God expected those whom He called to Himself to remain "holy" (i.e. separate)... not join and lust after the philosophies of the heathen. God has used the term "marriage" to describe the covenantal relationship between Him and His people. No other husband than with Him. James pulls no punches. He says it straight out.

THE GREATEST DECEPTION

The serpentine deception that turned Adam against God is described in Gen. 3:1 as "most subtle" (i.e. clever, enticing, compelling). This underestimated doctrine is the most basic, most insidious doctrine of all anti-God philosophies. It deserves great consideration for the very reason that it is indeed "subtle" and therefore generally overlooked. It is precisely this: that man is equal to God (Gen. 3:1-7). It is the one idea, above all others, that appeals to man's sin nature to turn him to become a "friend of the world" and thus "an enemy of God."

This subtle doctrine is taught in hundreds of ways in the schools and propaganda sources all around us every day of our lives.

The "serpent" in Genesis was described as traveling on his belly. This symbolized the nature of man's natural tendency to follow his "belly" ... meaning to follow his own lusts of the flesh. Thus Adam was sold on the idea that his "belly" (i.e., his lusts and wants) were more viable than God's commands. Understand ... Adam's sin was the rejection of God ... not merely the choosing of a wrong fruit.

Thus, we now understand the accusation made by James. He was accusing certain Israelites of his day of following their own bellies and disrespecting Jesus.

"Friends of the world" are those who adopt this doctrine and become comfortable with it. By associating with "friends of the world" one is repeating Adam's sin. Learning to accept and become comfortable with the ways of the world amounts to treason against Jesus who tells us to be SEPARATE from the world. Jude warns of this too, pointing out that worldly thinking can slip in among us unnoticed:

For there are certain men crept in unawares, ... ungodly men, changing the grace of our God into insolence, denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus the Christ.

For these blaspheme things which they have not seen; moreover, they corrupt themselves in that which they know by nature, as conscienceless animals.

But, beloved, remember the words which were spoken before of the apostles and of our Lord Jesus the Christ; How that they told you there should be mockers in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts (i.e. their bellies). Jude :4, 10, 17-18.

These are the "friends of the world" who don't take God seriously. People like this abuse the liberty God grants them. Because God gives us freedom to choose to love Him or to love the world, foolish people perceive this as lack of concern on God's part. They tell themselves that God is not at odds with the Beast System. Since God doesn't send lightning bolts upon them, they assume He is distant or unconcerned. So they opt to "do their own thing." This is precisely the thing that got Adam into trouble and turned him into a friend of the world. Peter addresses this subtle doctrine comparing it with the infection of Sodom and Gomorrah:

And (God) delivered just Lot, who was vexed with the immoral conduct of the unrestrained: (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) The Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to keep the unjust into a day of judgment being punished: And especially them that walk after the flesh (bellies) in the lust of defilement and scorning lordship (Jesus as Lord). Presumptuous are they, self-willed; they are not afraid of blaspheming honorable ones. But these, as conscienceless natural animals... receiving punishment (like Adam) as the wage of injustice, taking pleasure in indulgence in the day time ... While they promise liberty (the serpent's lie), they themselves are slaves of corruption ... To them has happened the true proverb, A dog returning to his own vomit; and a sow washing then returning to her wallowing in mire. 2 Peter 2:7-22

The depravation of Sodom and Gomorrah began with the serpent's teaching that God is unconcerned. It then grows to greater deception and finally normalized depravity.

“Evil is a horrible thing seen too often face to face. First it is hated, then pitied, and then embraced.”

God insists we must not become friends of the world. He commands that false prophets be put to death. (know any clergy who say God loves homosexuals, and that sodomite ‘marriage’ is okay?)

And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; because he has spoken to turn you away from Yahweh your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, to draw you out from the way which Yahweh your God commanded you to walk in. So shall you put the evil away from the midst of you. Deut. 13:5.

But how do people today react to false prophets? They see them as entertainment. Fun to listen to. Possibly inspiring. They are not punished nor even reviled. They are held up as evidence of the nation's greatness. False prophets are welcomed. They flourish by merchandising the friends of the world out there.

This is a spiritual infection. It spreads like a virus from person to person. The growing refusal to abhor evil, and to not be offended when people belittle God, is an attitude that is devastating our culture. Our young are growing up bathed in lies and believing in nothing. They have no anchor; no moral compass. They have no way to know truth because their belief in God is gone.

They are tolerant of serpents ... because college professors have convinced them that serpents are harmless. This thinking has become conventional. I'm OK, you're OK is the title of a popular book published a few years ago. It teaches that it is wrong to judge or discriminate.

Standards are seen as flexible and should not be taken seriously—with one exception. Namely the standard of acquiring of wealth. Wealth equals righteousness. The rightness of acquiring wealth is the one unchangeable ethic that endures throughout time. Getting wealth is equated with “right.” Losing wealth is equated with “evil.” Aside from that, all standards are subject to change.

Scripture calls it “greed” and “avarice.” It means worshipping riches. It is the inability to be thankful. People with this character flaw do not value the gifts of God. They are dogs and swine whose god is their bellies. Jesus tells us these are the people who will stab us in the back:

Give not that which is holy to the dogs, neither cast your pearls before swine, lest they trample them under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Matt. 7:6.

.... they are the enemies of the cross of Christ. Whose resultant condition is ruination, whose God is their belly, and their glory is their shameful deeds, minding earthly things. Philippians 3:18-19

Dogs and swine have no appreciation for “pearls” (heavenly values). This mind set has no appreciation for God's gifts. These are the “ungodly” and “corrupt.”

THEY'RE EVERYWHERE

So—a huge problem exists here. It is a spiritual infection turning people into “dogs and swine” so that they are blind to spiritual values, and do not abhor evil. When people lose their respect (fear) of God, He cuts them loose. When people quit honoring their Husband (Jesus), He lets them go. That means they are on their own, which is a death sentence (spiritually speaking). Jesus explains:

I am the vine, you are the branches: He that abides in me, and I in him, the same brings forth much fruit: for without me you can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered..... John 15:5-6.

The transgression of the wicked says: Within my heart there is no fear of God's judgment. For he exalts himself in his own eyes, that he has discovered the wrong and rejects it. He devises mischief upon his bed; and he sets himself in a way that is not good; he abhors not evil. Psalm 36:1-4.

Here we see the description of the “wicked” whose god is their belly. They convince themselves that they need nothing from God. A former acquaintance of mine, of about 40 years ago, once arrogantly told me “God and I have an agreement. I leave him alone and he leaves me alone.” I can hardly imagine a more stupid statement. Wanting God to leave you alone is like saying you don't need air to breathe. Separation from God equals spiritual death.

These are they who “fear not God” and “abhor not evil.” One reason they don't abhor evil is because they've lost the ability to recognize evil. Nor can they see righteousness.

My impression is that most people today do not abhor evil. They live with it and become adjusted to it and desensitized to it. The lack of fear of God has sickened and blinded them so they become one of the crowd. Yet, they do not consider themselves ungodly. Self-deception is their defense mechanism.

Now I exhort you, brethren, make note of them who cause divisions and entrapments (enticements to draw you) contrary to the teaching which you have learned, and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly (lusts/urges); and by good words and flattery deceive the hearts of the innocent. I would have you wise to that which is good, and pure (unadulterated) concerning evil. Romans 18:17-19.

Blessed is the man that walks not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of the scornful. The ungodly are ... like the chaff which the wind drives away. Psalm 1:1 & 4.

Living in Babylon is one thing. Getting comfortable and friendly with Babylon is quite another thing.

ABRAHAM AND JESUS

By faith Abraham, being called to go our obeyed; and he went out, not knowing where he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as a foreign country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: For he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God (New Jerusalem). Heb. 11:8-10

And the scripture was fulfilled which says, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God. James 2:23.

Abraham was a “friend of God” and believed in God with all his heart. He understood the benefits of God's “pearls” even though he lived as a stranger dwelling in foreign lands ... lands controlled by enemies of God (friends of the world).

In this, we today are in a similar situation as was Abraham. Jesus, too, fully obeyed His Father as He dwelt in lands that were controlled by God's enemies, and among people who were friends of the world. Thus, using Abraham and Jesus as models, we can reason how we ought to think and how we ought to live among the friends of the world.

Like Abraham and Jesus we are strangers in enemy territories. Neither Abraham nor Jesus opted to participate in the affairs of the state or politics or religions. They didn't try to befriend or convert God's enemies. They kept aloof from them and tended to their own affairs. But if they were forced to deal with God's enemies — as when Jesus was brought before Jewish and Roman courts — they spoke very little and expected no justice from the system. Paul, on the other hand, attempted to make a defense for himself in Jewish and Roman courts, but found no justice in them.

Jesus communicated freely with His disciples. But He usually remained quiet in public, leaving them to think whatever they wanted. He did this, not because He wished them to remain ignorant, but because He knew they would reject His help. He said they had hardened their hearts and would not be converted and healed (Matt. 13:15). He sent out His apostles to call His sheep, not His enemies. They were sent to speak to those who were listening for God. He told His disciples that when people refused to hear, they should shake the dust of that city from their shoes and move on to find those who would listen (Matt 10:14). They were finding lost sheep (of the House of Israel). They weren't converting goats into sheep!

Befriending the world causes people to become blind to God. I can imagine an institutionalized Roman citizen walking past where Jesus was being murdered, and saying, "Too bad some people insist on being so difficult and radical that they end up this way. It isn't necessary. Why can't they just learn to get along with everyone?" I hear this kind of response from people today. They usually misquote Romans 13:1-2. They've picked their side. They are blind towards God, because they are friends of the world. Those who follow Abraham and Jesus are at enmity with the world but accepted by God.

A FINAL CLARIFICATION

We are a people separated from others whether or not we try to be. So, what is it that makes us separate? Why are we different from general society ... including churchgoers? Clearly it isn't performance. Everyone errs. It isn't intelligence, secret knowledge, or genetics (as some claim). So what is it? What opens our eyes to perceive the world around us differently than others see it?

The answer is simple, and I've been alluding to it throughout this article. We are different (separate) due to the fact that, like Abraham, we believe God rather than man. We have no faith in any system other than Christ's.

.....Ben Williams.

SIN:

THE TRANSGRESSION OF DIVINE LAW

by late Chuck Kuhler, BS, MTh.

Sin is a vital consideration in our imperfect relationship with our heavenly Father, but it is seldom studied and mentioned in the "traditional" churches. Before we can seriously understand "sin" we have to ascertain and understand just what it is. In 1 John 3:4 we are told, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the Law." This quote then requires us to understand just "what is the law." Most Christians consider the law to be the Ten Commandments, but this is only one portion of the law which in total consists of the commandments, the statutes, and the judgments. The only portion of the Old Testament which was 'done away with' were the "ordinances," mostly pertaining to sacrifices, which were eliminated once and for all, by the shed blood of our Saviour Jesus the Christ [circumcision was also a 'shedding of blood' which is no longer a requirement].

There are those who claim today that the entire law was 'done away with' and that we are under "grace." But this claim rejects and disregards the words of our Saviour, as found in Matthew 5:17-18 "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled."

We are all sinners, no matter how we may strive to be free of sin. For those fools who say that they don't sin, and that they lead a normal life within the parameters of human life, I would advise them to read 1 John 1:8-10. According to James 4:17, not doing what you know you should so IS SIN.

In order to determine what sin is, we have to fully understand what the "law" is. In a similar mode, if there was no speed limit on a particular road, it would not be unlawful to drive at 110 mph, as there would be no law to be violated. If however, the law specified that the speed limit was 55 mph, then doing 65 would be a violation of the law.

I am often asked, "does the divine law apply to every person." The precise answer is, "who was the law given to?" The law was given ONLY to Adam-man and his descendants, and through the Hebrew and Israelite patriarchs and people. It was NOT GIVEN TO ALL PEOPLES! There was no delegation from China, South America, Africa, etc. at Mount Sinai. If the law did not apply to other peoples, then they have been without sin. In Paul's epistle to the Romans (5:13), we read that if there was no law, there would be no sin. Paul further states in Romans 7:25, "... So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin." [you may continue reading chapter 8 also]. In Romans 3:20-31, we learn that by the law is the knowledge of sin understood.

Our heavenly Father is a God of mercy and forgiveness. In Proverbs 28:13, we are told by Solomon, "He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy." There is only one unforgiveable sin which can be found in Matthew 12:31-32,

And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against holy spirit, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.”

The word SIN is not just some nebulous term. It is a serious consideration in our interaction with the Father, and should be carefully studied. In Romans 6:23, we read: “For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.” May you continue to strive, with God’s help, to lead a sinless life.

A BIBLICAL LOOK AT THE LAW

by Ed Somerville

During the 20th Century there has developed a strange animosity toward the law that was given by God to Moses thousands of years ago. These laws were given to the Children of Israel only, as they were His special people. As He said in Amos 3:2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth. The Law was given to His children out of love for them, as a father sets laws or rules for his children that seem unfair to them at the time. As they grew up they found out later that their father was doing it for their own good.

The Law was given to them in two parts. The first part contained the laws, statutes and judgments which were the civil laws that the nation should abide by as well as we personally should keep. There is nothing religious about them. The second part of the law were what is referred to as the ceremonial laws, ordinances which could be considered religious, as they were used as a substitute for the forgiveness of sin till the Lamb of God became the sacrifice for sin.

It was the ceremonial laws with the animal sacrifices for sin as well as other things contained in them that were finished at the cross, and not the civil laws which we are told by many pastors who then add quite smugly with authority, “We are no longer under the law but under grace.”

There is no nation that can exist without laws as it would then become a nation of Anarchists, where everyone could make their own laws. God’s civil laws as well as man’s civil laws have nothing to do with salvation, although it is used by many preachers to attack the law if anyone dares to take a stand for it. To get an idea of what God thinks of His Law, I would suggest you read Psalm 119, as it’s covered rather well.

Some are quick to say that God’s Laws are so old and could not apply to a people as well educated and intelligent as we are today. Instead they feel that our “God-fearing politicians” are the ones we should put our faith in that pass the unrighteous decrees that pass as laws today.

God did not create man to spend years and sometimes his life behind bars like an animal. America now has more people in prisons than any nation on earth (per capita). Most people today including Christians find nothing wrong with that, as they are unaware, thanks to our pastors, that there is another (better) way. Under God’s Law, all perpetrators of capital crimes like murder, rape, or kidnapping are to be put to death (including perjured witnesses in these cases). The reason they were to be put to death was not as a punishment, but to put the evil out of the land. This was to be carried out in front of the people, in a public place, because it would have a lasting effect on anyone that ever thought of doing it themselves.

In order to be executed, the crime would need to have two or more witnesses and not just circumstantial evidence. Since rape is a very private crime, DNA which is better than an eye-witness would serve as a second witness (provided it is not something that could be planted; also if two people accuse the same person of rape, that should count as two witnesses, not two separate cases). DNA has also been used in murder cases. I think anyone that is trafficking in heroin or any drug comparable should receive the death penalty as they destroy more lives than a murderer. I think it would result in a drastic drop in the drug trade. The problem is, there are too many politicians and bankers involved in the drug trade that would be first to fight a law like this.

Jeremiah 17:9 says, The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately wicked: who shall know it. This is the very thing that is used to question the righteousness of God and His Law. There has been a great movement over the years to abolish the death penalty for capital crimes. The reason given, it is cruel and inhuman punishment and they “know in their hearts” its wrong. We are all too familiar with the stories of murderers and rapists being turned loose, only to do it again. Under His law this would never happen again.

Why should we as taxpayers have to support them, for sometimes thirty or forty years with accommodations better than some of our people living in rat-infested apartments with no air-conditioning, while some have become homeless with not enough to eat and some freeze to death. Crims are also provided better hospital care than our veterans. As you can plainly see, this is a civil law that cannot be carried out by an individual. Thou shalt not kill (murder) applies to the individual, but the trial and execution has to be carried out by the people or government they are under.

There is a term that has become popular under the Obama administration called, playing the race card. This is used as a feeble attempt to blame all the charges against Obama and his attorney general, Eric Holder for the unconstitutional and ungodly scandals that have now become too many to list. In the 20th Century Christianity has taken on a new term also. For a better word I will call it the “heart card” as it has been used to change the laws laid down by God to be altered to conform to their emotions in going along with what their heart tells them. As a result, many feel that the death penalty is not to be condoned by Christians. Do you feel that the heart takes precedent over God’s Law?

Our land is now polluted with murderers walking among us. Do you know that the murder of over sixty million babies, many of our own people, have been murdered in their mother's womb, while the killers walk free? These 'doctors' are given a free pass for them to continue as if the law did not apply to them, as aborticide is now legal but not lawful - as there is only one Lawgiver. There are also many other murderers walking free and able to murder again (some are even in government employ).

Miscegenation is one of the greatest sins that we as His people can partake in, as He said in 2 Corinthians 6:17 Come out from among them and be ye separate. This is New Testament theology (carried over from the Old Testament. Jacob's descendants were separated from the Egyptians in Goshen, and dwelt on their own. Today, our believing people are so dispersed over Babylon that they can hardly find another believer to fellowship with, and if there is one, they won't get together anyway. This is how our faith will gradually disappear). Our White European race has kept separate while living in various countries in Europe, North America, Australia, and South Africa until the last half of the 20th Century. It was at that time they started to produce Hollywood movies to promote race mixing. I can name at least five academy award movies whose primary theme was used to promote the mixing of the holy seed with the profane. The orchestrated results of these films were achieved by making every one that watched it feel like a bigot or racist if they did not accept it. The heart card was used to deceive the Christians along with everyone else.

God has always had a people and the Bible is about a certain people who were the descendants of Abraham and Sarah through Isaac and Jacob-Israel, known as the Children of Israel (children of Jacob). Does the Bible have any clues or marks we should look for to find them in the world today? To cover them all would take two or three pages so I'll just mention a few that are not open for rebuttal as they are indisputable. Abraham was told by God that his seed would be as the sand of the sea, that could never be measured or numbered. He was also told that he would be the father of many nations. This promise was also made to Rebecca as she was told she would be the mother of thousands of millions. Over 700 years before Jesus, the Assyrians took millions of Israelites captive in what's known as the Assyrian captivity, one that is seldom mentioned in the churches today. They all however are familiar with the Babylonian captivity which involved only a fraction of the remaining Israelites living in Jerusalem. In Hosea we find that those in the great dispersion were never to be called His chosen people any more, but sons of the living God, Christians.

After their captivity they migrated north into the Caucasus Mountains by the millions and from there they went further north and then ever westward and by the time of Jesus, twenty-five generations later they would have numbered well over 100 million. Covering the entire Roman empire, including the British Isles and retaining their name 'Caucasian' as that's where secular history starts to record this race that suddenly appeared. At the time of Jesus they were known as the lost sheep, the ones He said he was only sent unto.

Since Abraham was promised to be the father of many nations, not just one, where are these nations today? And where are the hundreds of millions of Israelites that would have to be in existence today? For any seminary or pastor to teach and preach the Zionist line that a handful of contemporary Christ-hating Jews, a mixture of Edomites and Ashkenazis (Khazars), constitutes the entire House of Israel, (who were never called Jews), and the House of Judah, is neither intelligent or honest and creates confusion as it makes His promises to Abraham and Rebecca null and void.

There is only one race of people in the world today that fulfills those promises. We the White Europeans, His lost sheep that have heard His voice and followed Him for the last two thousand years. He said His sheep would hear His voice and follow Him. He told the Jews that they could not hear His voice because they were NOT HIS SHEEP! Why is it that the simple things are so hard for today's Christians to understand? There are dozens of other marks of Israel that I could mention, but there is enough in these few promises to state the case against the ones that only use verses that they feel promote the political Zionist cause.

These few paragraphs on our history has only scratched the surface of a study like this, as it would take many pages to cover this as it is a separate study all of its own. It however is necessary for us to understand who the Law was written to at this point in time and how America has been an important part of God's plan for the ages. How it was once the most God-blessed nation on earth when we acknowledged His Laws, and what has become of us when we put away His Laws, preferring man's laws?

Getting back to the law; the Bible has a lot to say about usury, and none of it good. Usury is just another word for interest, called lending on increase. Since the time of Jesus, increase was forbidden by the church in the first 1500 years before it started to raise its ugly head [when substance was used for exchange rather than inflatable paper]. They came up with the idea that usury meant excessive interest. It's like saying she's a little pregnant. Interest on money is helping to destroy us. In Arab countries, they do not charge interest and that is one of the reasons why the Rothschilds want to destroy them. Rothschild once said, "compound interest is the eighth wonder of the world" and it has worked splendidly for him. Due to the Rothschild control of the world's central banks, we have all become slaves to them as the borrower is servant to the lender [but that's with or without usury]. They are also the greatest promoters of war for whatever reason they can come up with as that is the greatest way to put countries under debt-bondage; and why wars are called 'the Jews' harvest'. To give you an idea of how sinful, evil and serious it is, Ezekiel 18:13 says, "He hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? He shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him." One like myself, who has never attended a seminary, I would like to know why we should regard laws as perfect and intelligent as these, are to be looked down upon as worthless and only made for our ancestors.

This brings us to His Laws regarding warfare. Our wars were to be fought from a defensive standpoint and not to be Robert Balaicius.

A very deep study into the attitude and mind-set the Christian-Israelite should demonstrate toward both God and his Mainstream Christian brethren who are in blindness. More spiritual meat in one small booklet than most Christians have had in their lifetime. Penetrating insight into the difference between truly being in Christ and acceptable to God, or being deceived by the flesh into counterfeit good works that will one day be rejected by the Father. Greater insight and convincing logic concerning the fact that God never did away with His Law. Filled with unique analogies, poignant humor, and two-edged-sword logic. No Christian-Israelite should continue one more week of his life without knowing and applying the vital truth revealed in this booklet!

aggressive for political reasons or empire building as it has been in the 20th Century. Since our nation was never in any danger regarding WWI or WWII from Germany, these wars could have been averted. Roosevelt knew in advance that the Japanese armada was heading to Pearl Harbor but refused to warn our military as he wanted that as an excuse to enter the war in Europe. Hitler never wanted war with the US or England, as his main goal was to keep the Soviet Union from marching across Europe. Roosevelt's goal was to set up a second front against Germany to protect the Soviet Union. After Pearl Harbor, Japan was no real threat to us as their fate was sealed. The wars since then, Korea, Vietnam, Iraq, Afghanistan, etc., posed no threat to our freedoms or the safety of our people. They were always used as an excuse for the real reasons we were in them. One of the main reasons we are in Afghanistan is to protect the poppy fields, for without them there would be a severe shortage of heroin in America. We were also warned not to make any treaties with the stranger. President George Washington, who knew the Bible better than today's pastors, in his farewell address echoed the same warning by telling us not to get involved in Europe's wars and not to make treaties with any nation other than to carry on trade. The Bible says not to be yoked together with unbelievers. We are now yoked together with the most antichrist, brutal, and racist nation on earth. Why would any Christian feel that God approves of that?

These unlawful and Godless wars in Europe have taken a tremendous toll in all the Christian nations of the West, known as Christendom, with the killing of millions of our people on both sides of the war and paralyzing, blinding, missing limbs, and mental wounds that last a lifetime, of millions more. Not to mention those who came back addicted to various drugs. Many of the German people could not understand why we were over there firebombing most of their cities with the death toll in the millions. Think of all the potential families we would now have if it were not for those wars. One of the main reasons for the wars was to benefit the bankers, for without the wars we would not be in bondage to them in the trillions.

Since the start of the last two wars we have seen the greatest transfer of wealth from the middle class to a very small fraction of one percent of our population. (In Australia, seven people have a combined wealth greater than the bottom twenty percent of the entire population). We have been carefully programmed to accept the idea that whenever our troops are sent over to fight for whatever reason they come up with, we are to believe they are fighting for our freedom (that is the propaganda). Our pastors who should know better are right there beating the drums and waving the flag for our involvement (as good enemy agents!). Some of the really deceived pastors like the idea of war, as in their deluded mind, they think it will bring on "Armageddon" [which we are already in] and their much anticipated rapture. It is not popular to bring up the complete hypocrisy of war as it makes the ones that have lost fathers, sons, or brothers feel like they died in vain; for reasons they were not aware of. It is not possible to cover our endless wars and how to relate to His Laws in a couple of paragraphs, as I have just mentioned a cursory view....

Now let's see what His Law says about theft. Over in the Arab countries they have their own way of dealing with it. If you are caught stealing, you lose a hand. This is not God's way of dealing with it, but it is a lot more effective than the way we have accepted as the only right and Christian way of dealing with the problem. In the world today, theft involves a lot more than someone just stealing something. We now have armed robberies and muggings and home invasions that have taken many lives in the process. In the Arab countries the penalty is so great that they don't even entertain the thought. You are able to park your car on a street with your valuables on the seat, and the keys in the unlocked car, and when you return, the car with the valuables are still there. Young boys are used as bank messengers to deliver cash or negotiable bonds from one bank to another or a retail business to a bank. Bookkeepers or company treasurers do not even entertain the thought of embezzling as the risk is too great. If you think by going over there you will see a lot of men with only one hand, think again, chances are you will not see any. I think that the removal of a thief's hand is far better than the killing of many innocent people by thieves in the process of stealing.

However, this is not God's way of dealing with thieves.

His way is to rehabilitate them back into society. The minimum penalty for theft is to pay back double. As an example, if I had a ten thousand dollar car and the thief was found with it, and it was in the same condition as it was before he took it, I would get my car back and he would still owe me ten thousand dollars—and would be forced to go to work and pay for it. Failure to comply with the work/payment order would result in the death penalty.

What do you think would be his decision?

Man has come up with another way to deal with car thieves. When the thief is caught, he stands before the judge and gets a two or three year prison term (mainly suspended), while the victim gets nothing, even if his car was damaged (they tell him he should have been insured - then his premiums could rise), He does however get to help pay for the thief's time in prison. Department store thefts, and supermarket thefts as well as smaller ones, the penalty would probably be four times the value of the theft as most likely the stolen items would be gone. Tools or vehicles used by someone in their livelihood, would incur five-fold restitution when they were caught, as during the time of their absence, the owner would have been unable to earn income. Car thefts alone have cost us billions of dollars over the years and robberies including home-invasions have also run into the billions. As a result, we now have to spend billions more on security for businesses, institutional and now home security to cope with it., and car thefts in our larger cities are epidemic as well as other major thefts, shoplifting and burglaries, which are passed on to our insurance premiums.

When prisoners get out of prison they feel they have paid their 'debt to society,' but few realize they have not paid their debt to their victims. Regarding capital crimes, we do not have the right to forgive them. Our "justice" system consists of our courts, judges, lawyers, jails and prisons, with some prisons being privately owned. This has made millionaires out of the thousands involved in it. All of this of course is passed on to the taxpayers. Who says, Crime doesn't Pay? When our prisons can no longer hold them all, they just turn some loose to make room for more. This system is so inferior to God's, that it needs no comment. However our system of jurisprudence is now based on the Talmud and case law now dominates our courts along with plea-bargaining. God said he wants justice and righteousness in His land. We now have neither.

When I compare these two systems to nominal church goers, or ones that have left the church, they are completely amazed at how intelligent, reasonable and superior God's way is as compared to mortal man's. But if I mention this to one of today's pastors or one who has sat under the preaching of one of them, they will quickly turn on me and let me know in no uncertain terms that the law, His Law, is put away and they don't want to hear about it. I find it odd that if there was a group of God-fearing people who wanted to return to God's perfect Law of Liberty, it would be today's Judeo-Christians that would lead the fight against it. It is not the purpose of this study to turn this nation into a theocracy, but there is no reason why we as a people couldn't turn many of our laws, as our early Americans did, back to ones that actually worked. Man's laws today are destroying us. Proverbs 28:9 sums up our problems in one verse, He that turneth away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. This admonition did not disappear over the years, as we are still the same people. The people turning away their ears today are the people that fill the Fundamental, Pentecostal and Evangelical churches. One thing I have gleaned from the prophets over the years is that man is not capable of governing himself without God, it has never worked very long in the last 6,000 years with man in control.

His Laws, along with common sense and reason are a far better way to deal with other crims; as an example of the wife-beater; the punishment should fit the crime. I'll guarantee you that there would be no longer a need for restraining orders or safe houses. It's time these men are treated as they deserve to be.

I have heard many preachers over the years erroneously refer to God's Law as the Jewish law. The Law was never given to the Jews as there were no Jews alive at that time, although the Jews today claim to be descended from Abraham. Judaism is a religion, like Buddhism, Islam or any other religion, and a Jew by definition is one that follows Judaism. Judaism was founded in Babylon about two hundred years before Jesus the Christ. There were no Rabbis or Synagogues in the Old Testament and the Jewish law is found in their Talmud and not in our Bible.

The two greatest gifts that the God of Israel gave to us are first and foremost, His Son who came to redeem His people, to buy them back after He divorced them and punished them and then betrothed them [a contract to marry them] at a future time. His death on the cross replaced the ceremonial laws, and paid the price for our sins [i.e. He died in the place of Israel who deserved to die].

The second greatest gift was His Law that was only given to Israel. It was given for us to be the most God-blessed nation on earth if we were to abide with and follow them. We have been led to believe that we are only to be concerned about a future life after death, but our God wants us to live a peaceful, happy and healthy life in the here and now, on the earth that He created for us with all its beauty and resources. The heaven, even the heavens are the Lords: but the earth hath He given to the children of men (Awdawm, #120 to be ruddy, show blood in the face) Psalm 115:16. This gift is not to be taken lightly as we, the sons of God, shall reign on the earth forever in the age to come. And hast made us unto our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. Rev. 5:10. Who are we to reign over?

Our nation began its change just before the War Between the States in a college and the churches in Oberlin, Ohio. It was there that the morality as well as the Liberal and left-wing began to surface. They were the ones that started the women's movement for equal rights, and its ideas became part of the churches, and it was the first College in America to have a woman president. Oberlin has been called the birthplace of the Civil War. It was at that time, a political action group called Zionism, began its rise to what it has become today.

It wasn't till the 20th Century that things started to change rapidly. In order for them to accomplish their goals it was necessary to change the teaching and doctrines of the Christian church. There was no possible way for them to change the wording of our Bibles as they did not have the authority and the Christians at that time would never allow them to do it. They had to come up with a plan for the Christians to be able to read their Bibles and not understand the wisdom and warnings contained in it.

They needed a "Christian" man with no morals or scruples that would affix his name to footnotes they could insert into our KJV Bibles, as they knew they would never be accepted if they were written by a rabbi. They found their man in a Civil War veteran from Kansas, C.I. Scofield. His following brief resumé is found in the book, The Incredible Scofield, the man and his book, by Canfield. His main talent was in the art of forgery. He managed to forge the diploma that made him an attorney, and eventually became a states attorney for the state of Kansas. He was then involved with two other women and decided to divorce his wife with two young daughters to fend for themselves, as there was no welfare at that time. A short time later he served prison time for forgery on a deal involving a railroad.

After his time in prison he decided to become a minister and married one of his women and with his talent, he forged the documents that made him a DD and became a pastor of a church in Dallas, without attending a seminary. He could have been a Mason because he was being watched by some over the years as the one to be picked as their man for the job. He was then approached by the leading Zionist Jew in America, a lawyer from New York, Samuel Untermeyer, to be the man who would change Christianity and America forever.

Upon taking the job he and his new wife moved into the very exclusive and expensive Lotus Club in New York City for the next twenty years. During that time he led a very lavish lifestyle that included many trips to London on the finest ocean liners. He was living the high life, not unlike some of our TV evangelists today, without knowing what the Bible is all about. It was during that time that the new Scofield reference Bible was being put together with all the added footnotes that became a part of the Bible itself, in the minds of many. This Bible is printed and distributed by the Jewish-owned Oxford Press in London that also owns the copyright.

the problem of acceptance by the thousands of ministers in America. They were able to find a dozen or more ministers at that time who would back it, so as to give some credence to it. It would not be hard at this time to find ministers that would back almost anything from homosexuality, gay marriage, miscegenation to tolerance and diversity. There were also over one hundred ministers, some with a DD, who were very vocal against it, but they were shouted down. After all, we know that truth is always determined by a majority.

Despite the tremendous amount of money they invested in him, they still came out victorious as they made millions in the sale of Bibles alone; plus creating a whole new religion bringing in many new beliefs that have become doctrines. Everyone of the new doctrines, and there are many, have proved to be very detrimental to Christianity. While everyone of them has proved to be most beneficial to the enemies of Jesus and America.

It was in the early part of the 20th Century after the Scofield Bible came out, that our Christianity and nation started its well-planned downward slide. We have now come to the point that we call evil good, and good evil. Many of our Bible students are told that if a verse seems to conflict with your contemporary eschatology you should go by the Scofield or Zionist notes in your Bible. Many of our churches are no longer interested in the wisdom found in the Law and the Prophets. Some of them say they are New Testament Christians, which is a very ignorant thing for any Christian to say.

It seems like the one man most responsible for making the Scofield notes acceptable to our pastors was Dr. Harry Ironsides of the prestigious Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. During that time there were great preachers, including Dr. Charles E. Fuller, Dr. Vance Havner, Dr. Paul Rader and Dr. Mordecai Ham, along with over one hundred pastors that were very adamantly against it. Don't you think these great men of God would have taken the time to tell Dr. Ironsides of Scofield's criminal and immoral past and his complete lack of credentials that made him a theologian? I am at a loss to come up with a reason for Ironsides to take the stand that he did. Isn't it odd that more "Scofield notes" were added years after his death? Who compiled these notes? No doubt the ones who compiled the first ones.

Very few are the Christians who don't realize what this nation would be like if we followed our Father's Laws. Russia's Putin is trying to turn his country around by erecting over 1,500 churches that were destroyed by the Jewish Bolsheviks, and does not allow any of our TV programs in Russia, against wholesome family life, or with homosexuals. Our people, including Christians are now against him because of his stand on morality.

Everything good that happened to America started in the pulpits, and everything bad that has happened in America started in the pulpits. There was a time in America that our pastors took a stand against tyranny, injustice and unrighteousness in government. Over the last fifty years our pastors are no longer vigilant as they were in the past. A well-known Baptist minister, Chuck Baldwin came up with the reasons they're not. He said, "They are "success" oriented, which means church growth, larger congregations, bigger buildings, bigger offerings, applause from other ministers, not to mention the financial perks and benefits that come with pastoring a "successful church." He went on with still more.

We have now become as a large ocean liner in dangerous waters that has been taken over by men that feel they know more than the wisdom of the captain. They are convinced that they do not have to be able to read the charts to look for danger, and the possibility of anything happening to a ship this big does not cross their minds. Their minds are occupied with keeping the passengers happy by singing songs as well as providing professional speakers and entertainers. The churches are now passengers on that ship who no longer hear our captain's orders [His Word] nor follow the charts [His Laws]. Now, as with the Titanic, they were a happy bunch before hitting the iceberg.

GAY RIGHTS MUST TAKE PRECEDENCE OVER CULTURE

by Newsmax

Seeking to mobilize a global front against anti-gay violence and discrimination, Vice President Joe Biden declared Tuesday that protecting gay rights is a defining mark of a civilized nation and must trump national culture and social traditions.

Biden told a gathering of United States and international gay rights advocates that President Barack Obama has directed the United States diplomacy and foreign assistance promote the rights of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender men and women around the world.

"I don't care what your culture is," Biden told about 100 guests at the Naval Observatory's vice presidential mansion. "Inhumanity is inhumanity is inhumanity. Prejudice is prejudice is prejudice."

With anti-gay laws taking root in nearly 80 countries, Biden and other top White House officials met with religious, human rights and HIVF health care advocates in a forum dedicated to promoting gay rights internationally.

FALSE APOSTLES

by Pastor Don Elmore

"The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Which Jeremiah the prophet, spoke unto all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, From the thirteenth year of Josiah, the son of Amon, king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year; the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking, but ye have not hearkened.

And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants, the prophets, rising early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened, not inclined your ear to hear. They said, Turn again now everyone from his evil way and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers forever and ever. And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands, and I will do you no harm. Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD, that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own harm."

This portion of Scripture gives the reference of when it was spoken: the fourth year of Jehoiakim, king of Judah. For twenty-three years, God had sent Jeremiah and His prophets to them telling the Judahites to repent. Notice they all got up early. Did any of the Judahites listen?

You can tell from the chart that the kingdom of Judah went into the Babylonian Captivity eighteen years after this portion of Scripture was given. The House of Israel was already taken into the Assyrian Captivity as well as most of the House of Judah. It was given in the fourth year of the reign of Jehoiakim and in eighteen more years Judah no longer existed as a nation.

What was the reason they went into Captivity? What did they preach to the Judahites that they did not listen to? Was it because they were covetous? Because they had women preachers? Because they didn't keep the holy days? Because they stole items from the grocery store? Because they used cursed language? The reason was: They were not to go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them. Jer. 25:6a.

How do you go after other gods to serve them, and to worship them? How do you do this today? The Bible tells us that Israel was not to serve or worship the gods of the Canaanites. They were to destroy their altars, images and idols. They were not to follow any of their traditions on how they served their gods and do the same or similar traditions and try and serve their God. People erroneously today property to the spoil and in verse four they would also lose their heritage that God gave them. Every country has their own gods. Israel is the only people who have the covenant that God gave to their (fore)fathers. Israel was never in a universal covenant; the covenant was not for everyone—it was an exclusive covenant.

Verse two talks about the children of Judah remembering their altars and idols by the green tree? Could that resemble our modern holiday of Christmas; the Mass of Christ? It certainly has a great grasp on our people. It is a powerful anti-Christian holiday; which is universal in its appeal and application and has a whole host of wrong, sinful traditions.

Catholic means universal. The Protestants revolted against Roman Catholic rule. They noted the differences in their doctrine and they broke off from them. But the Protestants soon became universal too. (in the Apostles creed they profess to believe “a holy universal Christian church”). Most of them started their missionary programs to the other races in the late 1700s and early 1800s.

In the last 100 years, “Christian ministry” no longer means a part of the Christian Church. They are a universal ministry; on television and computers; selling books and DVDs and have a huge website. They meet in seminars in large auditoriums. Some are members of a church, many have no church affiliation at all.

Let's look at how the sins of Judah are very similar to the sins in this country. The sins are much more sophisticated than they were in Judah, but they produced the same effect. First, the criticism of Jeremiah that their sins will take their substances throughout all their borders (Jeremiah 17:3). And second, that celebrating the holidays of their enemies would cause Judah to lose the heri- tage that God gave to them.

These people fleeced the people who they are supposed to help. Many are part of the healing ministries, which don't heal everyone, for many are left in the back of the auditorium and are never seen on television.

Here is a brief summary of some of the false apostles listed above:

1) Jim and Tammy Faye Bakker—When their “PTL” (Praise the Lord) broadcasting empire crumbled, after Jim Bakker had an affair with a ministry secretary Jessica Hahn; it turned out that a Jewish orthodox billionaire in Canada secretly owned all the Praise the Lord assets and property. Why would a Jew own all of this supposedly “Christian” property; because it wasn't Christian. In prison, convict Jim Bakker, ordained by the Assembly of God denomination, reportedly went to a catholic priest to confess his sins. What lord were they praising?

2) Jerry Fallwell had taken money from the Reverend Moon that saved him from bankruptcy and also was given a “gift” of a multimillion-dollar executive jet aircraft by the Zionist government of Israeli. Fallwell was one of America's chief propagandists for Israeli and for Zionist imperial ambitions. He hated Arabs while promoting Jewish racial supremacy. Why would the Jewish government support a supposedly “Christian” ministry, because it wasn't a Christian ministry. A Christian who had his hand out to our enemies?

3) The late Catholic Bishop Fulton J. Sheen was a popular personality on TV in the 50s. A covert member of the Masonic Lodge, his lodge brother, Reverend Robert Schuller, honored Sheen by erecting a statue of him. The statue stood at Schuller's Crystal Cathedral church in California. The Crystal Cathedral was sold to the Catholic Diocese after the death of Robert Schuller. Bishop Sheen was invited to speak at this church on several occasions. After Robert Schuller's 1,000th broadcast of the “Hour of Power” leaders from many faiths stepped up to congratulate him. One of the congratulatory messages was from Mother Teresa.

4) Super-rich elitist William Randolph Hearst, Catholic Knights of Malta high-up, told his national newspaper chain to “puff” Billy Graham and make him a household name. Why would a Jew promote the main “Christian” pastor of the United States; because Billy Graham wasn't a Christian. He was picked to be the “Christian” leader who would end the church's segregation policies. This was a great sin as this ignored or perverted the covenant that God made with Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and his seed.

5) Masonic bigwig and Communist leader Mikhail Gorbachev, who endorsed a United Nations of Religions organization, was Time's “Man of the Year” Gorbachev was given tens of thousands of dollars to speak at Oral Roberts University, a school run by his esteemed brother (33rd degree) Oral Roberts. Why would a “Christian” church invite and support the president of the Jewish Communist government of Russia; because it isn't Christian.

6) Joyce Meyers, ordained by Oral Roberts University, is not a pastor of a church; but is in charge of a universal ministry. She was first married for five years, and then found a man who she said changed her life.

From her website, we read how “Joyce Meyer Ministries is called to share the Gospel and extend the love of Christ. Through media we teach people how to apply biblical truth to every aspect of their lives and encourage God's people to serve the world around them. Through our missions arm, Hand of Hope, we provide global humanitarian aid, feed the hungry, clothe the poor, minister to the elderly, widows and orphans, visit prisoners and reach out to people of all ages and in all walks of life. Joyce Meyer Ministries is built on a foundation of faith, integrity and dedicated supporters who share this call.”

Statue of Bishop Sheen which was placed inside the former Crystal Cathedral. It honored this heretic who spoke on several occasions at this “Christian” Church.

Joyce is now 71 years old and teaches doctrines which are false; but let's just examine her financial situation:

House #1) Joyce and Dave Meyer: 10,000 sq.ft; $795,000 + $1,100,000 for improvements.

House #2) Son, David Meyer and his wife: 4,000 sq.ft; $725,000 House #3) Daughter, Sandra and her husband: 5,000 sq.ft; $400,000 + $250,000 for improvements.

House #4) Daughter Laura and her husband: 2358 sq.ft; $350,000 + $3,000 for improvements.

House #5) Son Dan and his wife: 2000 sq.ft; $200,000 + $33,000 for improvements.

She has also bought two other mansions; one in Cape Cod; Her Ministry Headquarters Building which cost $20,000,000 and a private jet for $10,000,000. All of these properties were paid for by her ministry.

She recently lowered her annual salary from $900,000 down to $250,000; plus all of her expenses paid. This includes water, sewer, cable, gas & electric, garbage, property taxes, transportation, etc. This was when she changed from a non-profit to a profit organization so she could receive royalties on all of her books. The ministry also pays for her very expensive cars, a $105,000 boat, and two jet skis. The Joyce Meyer Ministries pays her husband $450,000 a year and all of her children a salary. She has a host of antiques.

Born in 1943 in south St. Louis, Missouri, Pauline Joyce Hutchinson has stated that her father sexually abused her after he returned from WWII. She graduated from O'Fallon Technical High School, marrying a part-time car salesman shortly after. That marriage lasted five years.

Following her divorce, she married Dave Meyer, an engineering draftsman, in 1967. She frequently credits Dave Meyer's support and encouragement with helping her turn her life around.

Christopher Coleman, Joyce's bodyguard, was found guilty of murdering his wife (strangled) and two children: boy 9 and boy 7. He also confessed that he was having an unlawful sexual affair. Son of a pastor, he called from a local gym for police to go to his house because calls there produced no answer. Her Ministry was sued because he sent messages to the woman he was having an affair with on the computer that the Ministry provided.

7) Benny Hinn whose net worth is $40,000,000 is the son of immigrants. Toufik Benedictus "Benny" Hinn was born in Jaffa, in 1952, in the newly established state of Israeli to Palestinian "Christian" parents. His mother was Armenian and his father a Greek. He was raised within the Eastern Catholic Orthodox tradition. When he became saved outside of the Catholic faith, Benny testified that his father did not speak to him for three years.

Soon after the 1967 Arab-Israeli War (Six-Day War), Benny Hinn's family immigrated to Toronto, Ontario, Canada, where he attended but later prematurely left the Georges Vanier Secondary School. He did not graduate. He was handicapped by a severe stutter. As a teenager in Toronto, Hinn converted from Greek Orthodoxy to Pentecostalism, eventually joined a singing troupe made up of young evangelicals.

became so intense that his family became concerned that he was turning into a religious fanatic. Hinn was taught the Bible and mentored by Dr. Winston I. Nunes of Broadview Faith Temple in Toronto.

He began working in a restaurant. It was a coffee shop with a small part of it selling ice cream. Benny worked in the ice cream portion of the store. Benny was given the leading role in the play at the Secondary School. He could sing and dance and loved to be on stage. At his baptism, Maxwell White baptized Hinn with the name of "Ben." Hinn wanted his name changed to "Tutu," but it was Benny which stuck.

He went to a Marvin Schmidt faith-healing meeting of about 400-500 people at Toronto. Later, Benny Hinn worked at a Floreshine Shoe Store and was approached by four men, one of whom was God's Ghost writer; they anointed him. He was anointed in a shoe store by who? The Ghost writer will be written about later.

Benny Hinn went to see Kathryn Kuhlman. He travelled in December of 1973 to Pittsburgh to attend a "miracle service" conducted by evangelist Kathryn Kuhlman. He often attended her "healing services" and has often cited her as an influence in his life. He was given an all-white suit by Monte Hall of Let's Make a Deal.

When Benny Hinn travelled to Orlando, Florida, he founded the Orlando Christian Center in 1983. Eventually, Benny Hinn began claiming that God was using him as a conduit for healing, and began holding healing services in his church. These new "Benny Hinn Miracle Crusades" were soon held at large stadiums and auditoriums across the United States and the world. Benny went to the Vatican to honor the death of Pope John. He attended the memorial service of the Pope.

In 1979 married Suzanne Harthern. The couple have four children together. Divorced in 2010; but got together after a messy affair by Benny. She also preaches with him at their church and seminars.

In 1999, he stepped down as pastor of the Orlando Christian Center, moving his ministry's administrative headquarters to Grapevine, Texas, a suburb of Fort Worth; while hosting This is Your Day from a television studio in Orange County, California, where he now lives with his family.

gelist, teacher, author, and television personality who has a net worth of $5 million. Pastor Paula White was born in Tupelo, Mississippi, and had a tough childhood. Her parents divorced when she was five, and her father subsequently committed suicide. The family became impoverished, and her mother turned to alcohol.

Paula White was left in the care of multiple strangers, many of which were sexually and physically abusive. Her mother remarried, and the family moved to Maryland. Paula became a "Christian" in the mid-80s, and went on to launch her own church with Randy White, called Without Walls International Church. The church, which was originally known as the South Tampa Christian Church, struggled during its early years, and the Whites lived off the kindness of the congregation and the government.

The church eventually grew to 20,000 members. She and Randy White divorced, and she is now the Senior Pastor for New Destiny Christian Center. She hosts the popular show, "Paula White Today" on the Trinity Broadcasting Network, and has published ten books.

While she was divorced from her husband, she met Benny Hinn in Italy and they had an affair. They also contributed money to the Vatican. After the affair became exposed by a national magazine, they eventually went back to their divorced original spouses.

Paula took over a church from Zachary Tims, a black preacher, who died in New York City of a possible drug overdose. Her divorced and now remarried husband, Randy White is now pastor of her old church. Her new church has over 8,000 members, and $10 a piece that would produce a $80,000 a week salary for her!

9) James Eugene Ewing is the most evil of all the television evangelists. Over a forty year period of time, he has helped keep a whole host of people from entering the eternal city.

In today's world there are a whole bunch of different writers for people who don't have the time or the ability to write books about themselves or subjects in which they are interested. How can a president write books, even when he is in office? He has either a ghost writer or a team of ghost writers; people who write the book(s) for him, and he has his name put on it as the author. James Eugene Ewing is a "ghost writer" for many of the activities of the televangelist.

Ewing was born in Texas in 1933, son of south Texas share-croppers. He served four years in the Air Force, claiming through his magazine that "many soldiers gave their lives to Christ with Bro. Ewing kneeling by their side in airplanes, in barracks or anyplace." After his stint in the military, he chartered Camp Meetings Revivals in the Dallas area. Ewing's tent-revival crusades were focused on healing and liberation. A full-page ad in the 1963 Tulsa World announced a "Deliverance revival: Gene Ewing coming under one of the world's largest tents."

Despite having little formal education, Ewing managed to build a massive direct-mail empire from his mansion in Los Angeles. All his ministry's mail is directed to a Tulsa post office box. Ewing's computerized mailing operation, Saint Matthew's Churches, mails more than 1 million scam letters per month, many to low-income, uneducated people, while Ewing lives in a $2.2 million, 6,400-square-foot home above Beverly Hills and drives a small fleet of luxury cars.

SEED FAITH

If you watch much Christian television programming, you may have heard a preacher talking about the "seed faith" principle. This modern movement can be traced back to a meeting that Ewing had with Oral Roberts. This practice has led to things such as Mike Murdoch's $58 miracle seed plan, $365 dollar miracle seed plan, and $1000 dollar seed plan. The friend and fund-raiser for Benny Hinn, sometimes boasts of his three jet planes, his mansion, his private zoo, ministry Corvettes, collection of Rolex watches, gold and diamond jewelry and the pet lion he owned.

In 1968, donations to Robert's ministry had plummeted after Roberts alienated many of his supporters by joining the United Methodist Church. To raise money, Roberts decided to sell the ministry's corporate airplane.

Ewing came to see Oral about buying the plane. When he arrived at the ministry headquarters, he had something to sell to Roberts. The first thing out of his mouth was, "Oral, you are in trouble, and I can help you." And did her ever!

According to Wayne Robinson, then the vice president of public affairs for the Oral Roberts Evangelistic Association, "Gene laid out one of the most sophisticated fundraising campaigns I had ever seen. He said, 'Oral, I want you to write your supporters and tell them you are going in the prayer tower, and you are going to read their prayer requests and pray over them.' He stayed there three days. I forget how many hundred thousands of letters we had, but it was huge."

The core of Ewing's advice to Roberts was the seed faith philosophy. "You give to the ministry, and God will reward you with a financial blessing." By the following year, income to Roberts' ministry had doubled, going from $6 million to $12 million. Roberts was so happy with Ewing's guidance that he gave him the plane.

GOD'S GHOSTWRITER

Just by helping with Oral Roberts ministry, Ewing could be regarded as the father of the modern-day 'seed-faith' concept. Many preachers joined the health-and-wealth gospel bandwagon by emulating old Oral.

Unfortunately, Ewing did not stop with Roberts. Once word got out about his magic touch, several other ministers sought his services. Ewing's flair for effective, dramatic direct-mail appeals won him jobs writing for evangelists including Benny Hinn, Robert Tilton, Rex Humbard, Mike Murdoch and "Rev. Ike." In many cases, the letters were identical but contained different signatures

Never mind the fact that many of the letters speak of revelations that God directed the sender [insert name] to give the recipient. The only name that matters to these hucksters is the one on the seed-faith check. James Eugene Ewing built a direct-mail empire from his mansion in Los Angeles that brings millions of dollars flowing in to a Tulsa post office box. This approach reaped Ewing and his organization more than $100 million since 1993, including $26 million in 1999, the last year Saint Matthew's Church made its tax records public. Saint Matthew's Church is in name only, it doesn't exist.

"Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, from his quarter." (Isaiah 56:11)

10) Robert Tilton was blasted in 1991 when Prime-Time Live aired an investigative report about his Word of Faith Outreach Center in Dallas, Texas. His wife was serv-
