

Christian Identity Ministries

A member of the Congregations of Israel

PO Box 146, CARDWELL, QLD, 4849, Australia

Ph: 07-4066 0146 (International 61-7 instead of 07) www.christianidentityministries.com - hr\_cim@bigpond.com

"Blessed be the LORD God of Israel; For He hath visited and redeemed His people, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David; as he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets, which have been since the world began; That we should be saved from our enemies and from the hand of all that hate us; to perform the mercy promised to our fathers and to remember his holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, in holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our lives." Luke 1:68-75; the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian people are ISRAEL!

#347

Covenant Messenger

April AD2015

(a publication of N.Q. Fellowship of God's Covenant People)

THE BIBLE: WHOSE BOOK IS IT REALLY?

by pastor Chuck Kuhler

INTRODUCTION

Have you ever had the occasion to ask a Christian the question, "Whose book is the Bible?" I have had some "informed" Christians tell me that the Bible was written to and for Christians. You would think that if this was true, the words "Christian" and "Christians" would be mentioned more than three times in the entire Bible (Acts 11:26; 26:28; 1 Peter 4:16). When I ask how the Old Testament could be written to Christians, they usually tell me that the Old Testament was written to the Jews. The words "Jew," and "Jews," appear a total of 289 times in the King James version. But far and away more numerous are the listings of the word, "Israel," appearing a total of 2,575 times.

Many today do not differentiate between the words Israel and Jew, and consider both terms to be referring to the same people. Israel is derived from the tribes of Israel (the twelve sons of Jacob whose name was changed to Israel). One of these sons was named Judah.

The name Jew, first mentioned in 2 Kings 16:6, is a slang term for Judahite, a descendant of Judah. Neither Abraham, Isaac or Jacob could be called Jews as they were the great-grandfather, grandfather, and father of Judah. They are accurately and correctly referred to as Hebrews.

Following the death of Solomon, the kingdom was split as foretold in Scripture with Israel in the northern part and Judah in the southern part. The Assyrians in the years 732-700 BC invaded and took the northern kingdom of Israel, and most of the southern kingdom of Judah captive and removed these Israelites to the land of the Medes. Only Jerusalem in the southern kingdom survived for a period of years until Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon invaded and captured that city in 512 BC. Based upon census data from the Bible, it is estimated that some 20+ million Israelites were removed or left in the Promised Land. Surely not a few "hill tribes." Those removed in the Assyrian captivities never returned and have been referred to as the "lost ten tribes," though including most of the twelve tribes. How could 20+ million people be "lost"? As the Father said in Jeremiah 31:35-36, they are still with us today.

Some Biblical researchers and historians in past centuries have investigated this disappearance and come to the only logical conclusion that the people spreading across the face of Europe in the early years were indeed the so-called "lost Israelites." These Anglo-Saxons, Celts, Scandinavian, Germans and related peoples most definitely fit the marks of lost Israel. (The Marks of Israel, Sheldon Emry #113 @ sug don $6.95). The promises of our God are still in effect for His elect.

The so-called Christian churches, based upon error in the early centuries and compounded since, like to claim that Israel is permanently lost and gone, and that the promises of God which were given to Israel now belong to the church. The church has no desire or intention of seeking to find the truth as that would destroy their materialistic traditions. And the ungodly Jews having laid claim to the promises given to Israel, surely don't wish to investigate too far.

WHOSE BOOK IS IT REALLY?

Most people are familiar with the Bible, but I doubt if many have studied and considered the background and history of this the world's best-selling book. I particularly like the King James translation (although the Septuagint is more accurate), most probably because it was the translation that I have used since childhood, although I do realize that there are some "translational" errors contained therein. But this article is not being written to critique the content or the translation of the KJV, or for that matter, any other translations. In our library, we have a total of 57 different versions, some of which differ widely in language translation and interpretive content.

The question to be asked should be, just what is the Bible and what is the story that it relates? Firstly, we could state that it is a brief history of the creation (or re-creation)

IN THIS ISSUE:

The Bible: Whose Book is it Really? .....	1
Truth or Consequences? .....	4
The Gates of Hell Shall Not Prevail, .....	6
The Antichrist Theory, .....	7
The Secret to Happiness, .....	10
Choose: Hard Work, or Comfy Gratification, .....	11
The First Sin was NOT Adultery, .....	12
A 20th Century Riddle, .....	14

The views and opinions expressed in the articles herein or herewith are those of the authors and not necessarily those of CIM. They are written by fallible men. You must ask Jesus to guide your studies!

CIM reserves the right to edit submitted or reprinted material in line with CIM editorial policy. CIM does the utmost to ensure that the spirit of articles remains intact at all times.

or the heavens and the earth as contained in the first two chapters of Genesis. Some may ask why there isn't more detail and information on what actually and specifically occurred during this vast time period of the creation. The answer of course, is that we really don't have the need to know such details. In Genesis 1:28, after God created "man" (male and female), he told them, "Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth..." The definition of the word replenish indicates "to bring back to a state of fullness or completeness," which may well allude to some catastrophic happening which affected the earth and most probably some previous creation(s). This catastrophic event would have had to be prior to 4,004 BC when Adam-man was formed. The Paleontologists are the renowned Smithsonian Museum located in Washington DC, have determined that "man" existed on and walked this earth some 400,000 years ago. But, what man? We know that there have been several more or less developed civilizations of "man" that existed in the past, i.e., Neanderthal man, Cro-magnon man, etc. We also know from the scientific fields that various "races" of man differ in longevity upon the earth. The erroneous fallacy that most churches promote is that all peoples come from Adam and Eve, dating back slightly more than six millenniums ago.

While this may be "politically correct" and offensive to none in our modern society, it is an untruth which can not be substantiated or in fact even be possible.

There is no mention in Scripture of any specific "named man" prior to the formation of Adam in Genesis 2:7. Adam was not told to be fruitful and multiply as was the male and female created in Genesis 1:26-28. Adam was formed to be placed in the Garden of Eden (Genesis 2:8).

Following Adam (and Eve) we notice that their descendants, for the most part, are assigned names.

There are some who claim that Genesis 2 is nothing more than a reiteration of the creation story in Genesis 1. But this is incorrect as the order of creation found in Genesis 2 is completely different from the order of creation found in Genesis 1, thereby creating confusion if we consider the reiteration theory. And the apostle Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 14:33, "For God is not the author of confusion..."

Most people would acknowledge that there were several creations of animal life. The creation of dinosaurs and other large creatures took place before the creation of the Genesis 1 "man," according to Scripture and further pre-date by many additional millennia the creation of Adam man in Genesis 2. In Genesis 2, God forms Adam in verse 7, and then forms the animals in verse 19, bringing them to Adam to name (a second creation of different creatures). In a similar vein, after Cain killed Abel, we read in Genesis 4:16-17, "And Cain went out from the presence of the Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod, on the east of Eden. And Cain knew his wife and she conceived, and bare Enoch: and he builded a city..." Where did Cain find a wife? You don't "build a city" for a few people. Where did all the people come from? More evidence for a prior creation theory.

From Adam in Genesis 2 to Abram (Abraham) in Genesis 11, encompassing a total of nine chapters, we can calculate a total of approximately 2,000 years. Though there is scant information on people and events during this lengthy period, we would have to conclude that the Bible following the short creation chapters was originally the history and story of a Divinely-selected lineage of Adamites, Hebrews, and especially the Israelites.

Who was the Bible written to, for, and by? Following the short history of Adam, the Bible is the story and history of the Hebrews and includes the story and history of Israel (the sons and descendants of Jacob whose name was changed to Israel) [see Genesis 32:28].

It is obvious from a study of the Scriptures that a specific lineage of Adam and the Hebrews was selected through Abraham, Isaac and Jacob-Israel. There were of course numerous others, who while related, are not figured into the divine scheme, for example, such as Cain, Lot and Ishmael, etc.

Is God a racist? Is God prejudiced? Why does God pick on a select and particular people as His Chosen people (and we are totally discounting the Talmudist rabble who by stealth and deceit have presently laid claim to this category)?

Who was God speaking to in Deuteronomy 7:6 when He said, "For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all people that are upon the face of the earth." He was referring to Israel.

Who was God speaking to in Deuteronomy 14:2, "For thou art an holy people unto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a special people unto himself, above all the nations that are upon the earth." He was referring to the ISRAEL people.

Who was David referring to in 1 Chronicles 16:14, "O ye seed of Israel his servant, ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones." He was speaking to the ISRAEL people.

In Psalm 105:6, we read, "O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen." And in Psalm 135:4 we read, "For the Lord hath chosen Jacob unto himself, and Israel for his peculiar treasure." In both of these instances reference is made to Israel.

In Isaiah 41:5 we read, "But thou, Israel, art my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend." Again reference is only being made to Israel. Note it does not say "spiritual seed of Abraham."

In Numbers 6:23-27 we read, "...On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel, saying unto them, The Lord bless thee and keep thee: The Lord make his face shine upon thee and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee and give thee peace. And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them." [Please note that verses 23-26 are commonly used as a blessing in many churches, but verse 27, referring to "what people" were blessed, is never used—WHY?]

If the Bible was written to, for, and by the Hebrews, and to a much greater extent, the Israelites, and them alone, then just how do we get all of the other "peoples" in the world involved?

Who was the law given to, both prior to, and at Mount Sinai? What people were under the law? The answer to both of these questions is ISRAEL.

Why is it acceptable to have a racial and national identity, so long as it does not pertain to the Israel people of the Bible - those chosen elect of the Almighty. It is perfectly alright to be a White Caucasian so long as you don't also refer to yourself as an Israelite. You can be descended from an English, French, Norwegian, German, Canadian, Australian, etc. national heritage, just so long as you don't mix the word "Israelite" into your extended heritage. Despite what Koestler (The Thirteenth Tribe, #396 @ sug don

New Video:

THE GRAY STATE - rough cut - directed by David Crowley. Reveals the Orwellian nightmare that we face because of the NWO and the One World Government that is emerging. The government is detrimental to liberty. The plan is to abolish all private property and make us slaves to the Tax Office. The socialist gray state will decide what the children think and controls all education and virtually becomes the parent because both parents have to work. The two party system is just a ploy and the players are just puppets.

DVD#CI-980 @ sug don $8

$18.95) and others have written about the Khazars adopting the religion of Judaism in 800 AD, the Evangelical and Fundamentalist churches continue to support the false claim that the Jews of today are God's "chosen" people - the people of the Bible (when they are NOT). They fail to distinguish between Israel, Judah and the Jews.

These same churches, and others, like to skew the meaning of words such as "world," using scriptures like Mark 16:15, "Go ye into all the world..." and John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life."

With regard to John 3:16, we can find nothing in the Bible that says that God so loved "all the world." Was this reference in John 3:16 directed to Israelites scattered in what was at that time the known world?

In 1 Peter 1:1-2 we read, "Peter, an apostle of Jesus the Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia. Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father..." The word "strangers" in this verse speaks not to aliens or foreigners, but to unknown fellow Israelites and racial brethren. James in his general epistle 1:1 starts, "James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus the Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting." It is evident that James was speaking to dispersed Israel when he mentions the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad. James obviously knew that the twelve tribes of Israel were not in Palestine at that time but were dispersed out in the world.

As previously noted, Israel, not the Jews, are referred to throughout Scripture as, God's elect and chosen. In Malachi 1:2-3 we learn that God loved Jacob, and hated Esau. In Romans 9:13 (a second witness) we read "As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated." Obviously, God did not "love" Esau and his Edomite descendants. Who is it today that we find "not believing" in and in fact condemning Jesus? The Edomite Talmudists! Judaism, also known as Talmudism, has claimed our heritage insisting that they are the "chosen" of God and yet the Bible does not substantiate this. (see The Marks of Israel, Sheldon Emry, #113 @ sug don $6.95) And the so-called Christian churches are totally and strangely silent on the subject. The only correct Biblical references to the Talmudists (the "false Jews"), can be found in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9, "I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are of the synagogue of Satan." and "Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews and are not, but do lie...." This substantiates the claims and statements made by Koestler in his book, The Thirteenth Tribe.

What is the "world" that they are talking about? Today, we know the extent and expanse of the world, but what about the knowledge of the "world" that existed when the Scriptures were originally written? In Luke 2:1 it reads, "And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed." Realistically, Caesar didn't tax "all the world." He could only tax that part of the world controlled by Rome. He didn't tax Australia, Canada or the USA.

There are numerous references throughout Old Testament Scripture which point to the first advent of our Savour. Isaiah 9:6-7 tells Israel, "For a child is born to us, and a son is given to us, whose government is upon his shoulder: and his name is called the Messenger of great counsel: for I will bring peace upon the princes, and health to him. His government shall be great, and of his peace there shall be no end:..." (LXX-Brenton) You might also read Proverbs 30:4, Isaiah 7:14 and other references. These Scriptures are ignored today just as they were at His first advent.

Who has given the so-called "Christian Church" the authority to transfer the Almighty's blessings from Israel to all the pagan, ungodly, non-Israelite peoples of the world? For centuries the apostate Roman Church, and more recently, many of the Protestant Churches, have travelled the world in an effort to bring their particular "brand" of what they deem to be Christianity to all manner of peoples. And yet because of their heretical teachings their efforts are being confounded.

In the Orient and Africa, considered fertile evangelical areas in these times, churches are today being closed for lack of attendance and interest. While at the same time, as-of-yet-blinded Israelites in "western nations" are being ignored and taken for granted as being nominal Gentile Christians.

As previously stated, the "church" largely ignores the Old Testament as something outdated which has been replaced by the New Testament. The "church" likes to consider Christianity as a NEW RELIGION, rather than as a New Covenant to the established Hebrew religion (COVENANTS: Edenic Covenant made with Adam in the Garden of Eden; Adamic Covenant, made with Adam after the fall; Noahic Covenant, made with Noah after the flood; Abrahamic Covenant, made with Abraham and later confirmed and enlarged with Isaac and Jacob-Israel; Mosaic Covenant, made with Moses and the Israel people at Mt Sinai; Palestinian Covenant, made with Israel when they were about to enter the Promised Land; Davidic Covenant, made with David, and his seed (progeny) for ever; New Covenant, made with twelve-tribed Israel through the blood of our Saviour Jesus the Christ). If the Bible is the history of God's relationship with the Hebrews and the Israelites over thousands of years, why would it cease with the bringing of The New Testament? It should be understood that, the New Testament is merely a continuation of the relationship of God with the nation of Israel and the Israelite people. Why should the New Testament forget the Israel of God and set off on a new tangent to establish some "new chosen people" for the Almighty. We find nothing in the Bible which directs the church in this direction. This concept is nothing more than the adoption of the traditions of men, all being claimed in the name of the Almighty, the God of Israel!

There shouldn't be any doubt about the role of Jesus the Anointed with the Israel people. In Matthew 2:6 we read the words, "And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a governor, that shall rule my people Israel."

And we should consider the words of Jesus Himself when sending His apostles forth, "...Go not into the way of the nations, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." (Matthew 10:5-6). Obviously, both Jesus and the apostles knew where the "lost sheep" were to be found. And to remove any further question about His mission, we can

New Video:

DR. JOEL WALLACH

Cereal Killers, Victory over Medical Mafia, Obesity and Weight Management, and We Need More Salt.

Interviews with Blake Graham and Alex Jones. We need to eat more salt because salt is essential to our digestion and our health. Cholesterol is important for our cells and brain.

Alzheimer's disease is physician caused, so get off statin drugs.

DVD#CI-987 @ sug don $8

refer to the reply of Jesus to the woman of Canaan as found in Matthew 15:24, "... I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

If the still-blinded Israelites were to learn of their heritage as the very elect of God, there would be a revival such as has never been experienced before in the history of the world. They would throw out the charlatan preachers, described in Ezekiel 34, who have scattered the sheep. Today the Israelites are referred to as "Gentiles" by the churches who falsely and ignorantly acknowledge the heathen Jews as the Israelites.

You as an Israelite are different. You have His Law written in your hearts. Our God has spoken to the prophet Jeremiah in 31:33, "But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel, after those days, saith the Lord. I will put my Law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people." (emphasis CK). This covenant is in the heart of every Israelite and only an Israelite. It cannot be found in others who are non-Israelites.

The most important understanding to be gained from this message is that the Bible is written to, for, and by Israelites. It is YOUR BOOK, your means of learning what your God expects and demands of you!

Israel, though scattered, exists as a people and a nation to this very day. In Jeremiah 31:35-36 we read: "Thus saith the Lord, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The Lord of hosts is his name. If these ordinances depart from before me, saith the Lord, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever." The physical seed of Israel will continue so long as the sun and moon and the stars continue to provide light, and to this time that is still happening.

Of the major religions in the world, Islam has the Koran and Judaism has their Talmud. Christianity claims the Bible as their sacred book—the Bible, which in reality, is the book of Israel. The Bible was not written for "all people in the world," it was written for "all Israelites in the world." The prophet Jeremiah summed it up in 31:1, "At the same time, saith the Lord, will I be the God of all the families of Israel, and THEY shall be my people."

It is my fervent hope that you will do some independent investigation and come to congruent conclusions that the Bible was not given to "all" of Christianity (a doctrine), but to the present-day nations and people of Israel wherever they may be found in this world, the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic-Germanic-Scandinavian and kindred people. May God bless you and your study. Amen.

Courtesy Congregations of Israel, Box 94, Round Hill VA 20142

TRUTH OR CONSEQUENCES

Ed Sommerville

The apostle Paul was faced with problems from his own people because he was in opposition with the popular religion of the day which was Judaism. After the time of Jesus, His disciples founded "The Way" which was not a religion but a way of life. All religions have a way of controlling their people from the top down, while letting their people think they would have come up with the same doctrines without any help from their leaders.

Paul berated some of his sheep for just being content to stay in the milk of the Word, because they were not ready for the heavier things they needed. In 1 Timothy 2:4 Paul says, Who will have all men to be saved and come to the knowledge of the truth. That is a coordinate conjunction, meaning the last part of the verse is as important as the first part. Since Jesus said The truth will make us free, it is our adversaries' main mission to conceal the truth from us. Even Paul, the most intelligent and well-loved preacher of his day said, Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?

In early America truth was proclaimed from the pulpits of the churches, that were ultimately responsible for the revolution and our freedoms we enjoyed for a season. Just before the turn of the 20th century a new and different religion started to emerge, and is now called Judeo-Christianity. It was the product of a new political action group, called Political Zionism. It was they who hired an immoral, and convicted criminal, C.I. Scofield who was a theological prostitute that agreed to affix his name to the notes written by them that became the popular Scofield Bible. Miraculously, Scofield added more notes to his Bible years after he died. The copyright was not owned by the "author," as is customary, but by the Jewish-owned Oxford Press that made millions from its sales, and turned out to be a two-edged sword for them. Every note therein was added to further the Zionist plot and conceal the truth from Christians.

Thanks to their tireless efforts our freedoms have been gradually taken away, while I still hear pastors praising all the freedoms we have. We are now under their debt bondage for over 18 trillion dollars (of funny money, which they got for nothing). There is hardly anything you can do now without a permit or license. Many of our streets are no longer safe to walk on. It is not safe for a pastor to take a stand against the gay lifestyle or their 'marriages.' Our personal lives are now under surveillance from various government and police agencies. As I'm writing this, the blacks are trying to bring about a race war, and the aliens have been eating up our substance like the Midianites did to our ancestors in Gideon's time. None of these are the attributes of a free people.

Since Jesus said, The truth shall make you free, we are obviously not getting the truth from our pastors. What are some of the truths that have been intentionally concealed by our Zionist deceived pastors? One of the most important deceptions is, where did this White, Saxon, European race suddenly appear from, known Biblically as the lost sheep of the House of Israel? We have been told that they are gentiles (bad word, makes it sound like another race. Would have been better translated 'heathen' as is done in other [than English] translations, as dispersed Israel had certainly become heathen, and only changed after Christianity was preached to them. CIM), and not Israelites, even though Paul, when preaching to them said in 1 Cor. 10:1, All our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea. He also confirmed who he was talking to in other verses, along with James' statement, To the twelve tribes scattered abroad. It does not take a lot of intelligence to realize he was talking to Israelites, and not to some non-Israelite people erroneously called 'gentiles.' These were our ancestors Paul was talking to, the only people in the world that have followed Him en-masse for the last two thousand years. Confirming to the letter what Jesus said, My sheep [Israel, are the only people ever called his sheep] know my voice and they follow me.

The Jewish Pharisees told Jesus in John 8:33, We are Abraham's seed and were never in bondage to any man. Of course they were never in bondage as they were the descendants of Esau that never set foot in Egypt, nor were they part of the Exodus, nor were they ever given the Law. Nor were they ever under the bondages recorded in Judges. These are the Esau-Edomites that Jesus referred to in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9, I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews [Judahites from the tribe of Judah or the house of Judah] and are not, but are the synagogue of the adversary. [Esau, who was the age-long enemy of Jacob]. It is disgustingly comical to hear pastors tell about the Jews coming out of Egypt. Wouldn't you think Moses would have mentioned them?

Another thing our Zionist-friendly seminaries did to help our enemies, is to convince our people that God's perfect Law of liberty was put away. It was Jesus, that took the place of the sacrifices and the ordinances, once for all. We were told in Leviticus 26 and in Deuteronomy 28, the blessings that would come to us if we kept his laws, and the curses if we did not. We are no longer being blessed as we were in the first few hundred years when our laws did not run contrary to His. Unfortunately our enemies know our Bible better than most pastors, and they know that if they can get His People to break His Laws, God Himself will bring us down. If we were still blessed, then His Words were just meaningless rhetoric.

It was during the 20th century that the Eastern doctrine of Universalism started to permeate our churches. We have been told that there are only two groups of people in the world. One: the Jews, and two: everyone else. By implication it implies that God views all the other races as one people and the only difference being the colour of their skin. Why then would He create these races that are now causing many of our problems in the world today? Why then are all the prophecies regarding Israel in this age being fulfilled in the White, Saxon, European race? the race that founded the nations that were founded on Christianity from their beginnings? To imply that God sees no difference between us and the people (cannibals) in darkest Africa is nonsense. That is the reason He told us, Be ye separate!

Until shortly before the 20th century we were a separated people (South Africa practised Apartheid - separation, longer than any nation). We were known as the melting pot in which many Europeans came to our shores to become one nation. Although they came from many different countries, they were all of the same race, and descendants of the same people, the lost tribes that Jesus was only sent to 2,000 years ago. In the last 150 years we have seen our people being joined together with the strangers, referred to in the Bible as adultery (to pollute with an admixture). This has now become epidemic as many of our churches condone the adulterating of our race. The seminaries have done their best to keep our people believing we are just another "gentile" race, and not the people he predestined to carry out His will or plan for the ages, which helps fan the fire for miscegenation. This alone was the downfall of the once powerful Portuguese Empire. Our contrived racial problems that are rapidly bringing about our demise is the result of people that, don't believe history, genetics or their eyes, as they are afraid of being called a racist. Our God is a racist, and He created them for a purpose. The physical appearance of the other races is easy to spot, but their minds are also "wired" different than ours and just as important.

Because the name of America did not appear in the Bible, many of our pastors say that God didn't know there would be an America, even though it is described in great detail in the prophets. Regardless of what our pastors say, even Benjamin Franklin was aware of God's plan for us when he said, If a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without His notice, is it probable that an empire can rise without His aid? It is interesting to note that the ivy league colleges, including Harvard and Yale were founded primarily as seminaries and remained so until our enemies within gradually changed them into what they are today. The University of Chicago was once the Baptist University of Chicago until the Rockefellers took it over.

There are two verses that are never mentioned in the Judeo-Christian churches, found in 1 Chron. 17:9 and 2 Sam. 7:10 where the prophet Nathan tells David, while standing in Jerusalem, that Israel, His people would be moved to a new land, as the old land would not be large enough to hold the hundreds of millions of them as prophesied to Abraham and also to Rebekah (there were about 15 million Israelites at the time of David). To make this known to their flocks would literally destroy the man-made Zionist hermeneutics and eschatology as preached today. It is their job to keep the minds of their flocks all centered around the old city of Jerusalem and the land Jews unlawfully and brutally stole from the Arabs.

We now have to contend with new terms, like Greater Israel and Spiritual Israel which have no foundation in the oracles of God. Meanwhile, when Jesus began His ministry His first recorded words in Matt. 4:17 were, From that time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. His kingdom was like an obsession with him and dominated his thoughts. He revealed so much about it in his kingdom parables of Matthew 13. I have heard pastors use them to preach salvation, but that was not the message contained in them. I find it very strange that the pastors that tell us how much they love Jesus and that we should try to be more like Him, spend little of their time preaching about the kingdom He has planned for us.

At the time of the apostles, the doctrines of Babylon and Greek mythology had started to work their way into the early church. They were later adopted as dogma into the Catholic church, and then, with the exception of Purgatory into the Protestant movement. But it was not accepted by

New & recently listened to CDs & DVDs

A-7003a The Seven Sins of Canaan

Sheldon Emry

B-512 James, pt 12, Dave Barley

B-513 James, pt 13, Dave Barley

C-005 Israel Has Destroyed Herself

Earl Jones

D-034 Divine Acts of Grace, (Water, Fire, & Sword, pt 4) Lawrence Blanchard

G-936 Judah, Israel & The World,

Romans, pt 29, Ted Weiland

G-937 Ezekiel 37's Sticks Identified,

Romans, pt 30, Ted Weiland

J-412 The Grace of Patience

John Weaver

J-413 It's Crying Time Again

John Weaver

S-107 Caution Religion Can be Dangerous To Your Health, Pete Peters

U-127 Seven Bible Truths Violated by Christian Dating, S.M. Davis

the great reformers of that day, which included Martin Luther, William Tyndale and others. This along with the new doctrines brought in with the help of the Scofield Bible, which was also rejected by some of the great preachers of the day, including Dr. Charles Fuller, Dr. Paul Rader, and Dr. Mordecai Ham, is the main reason that you hear no preaching on His Kingdom today, and it is not a popular subject to bring up in most churches.

The word conspiracy is mentioned in the Bible ten times plus the words conspirators and conspire, and have existed all down through the ages. Conspiracies are not a theory when they achieve their desired results. Ezekiel tells about them in 22:25-26, "There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken treasure and precious things; they have made many widows in the midst thereof. her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean." I have seen these very things taking place here over the last 100 years that gives credence to the fact that those who don't know-or-believe history are doomed to repeat it. As Paul said, "Everything written afore time was written for our knowledge and understanding."

It is my contention that history is repeating itself now, as when God said in Jer. 50:3, "My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray." Back in the thirties, Henry Ford wrote a four volume book, THE INTERNATIONAL JEW, (now in an abridged single volume #309 @ sug don $26.95) and said at that time there was not a Christian seminary in America that had not been penetrated by the Zionists. Since that time our pastors began to change and they were no longer the salt of the earth as our pastors of yesterday in Colonial days. The conspiracy accomplished every bit of what they set out to do. With the help of our pastors we no longer care about what our kids or grandkids have to go through as they only concentrate on the life hereafter. This world is not my home, I'm just a passing through, you know. This mindset that has existed for over 80 years has been responsible for the deplorable state we find ourselves in today. I'll not spend the time to list them all, because anyone that is not mentally challenged should be aware of them. In the last two decades over 90% of our wealth has been transferred to 0.001% of our population.

Our pastors and their sheep are not concerned about the truth that can make us free. All the things necessary for His people to live a peaceful, stress-free and abundant life in the here and now are contained in the Bible and are deceitfully kept from us as the main purpose of today's pastors is not to preach the truth, but to conceal it (just like the Pharmaceutical industry is not there to help you get well, but to kill you or make you sick, and take your money). Since we know the truth will make us free, we are not getting truth as we are no longer as free as we were even in the sixties. One verse seems to sum this up: Ever learning but never coming to the knowledge of the truth. For one to try to bring truth to the people today, one is met with animosity and disbelief. I know the feeling that Paul had when he said, "Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?"

The animosity for truth has been so well sown into the minds of today's Christians that I know what Jesus meant when He said in Matt 10:36, A man's enemies shall be those of his own family (the enemies you have to love!). None of the verses I have used were abstract, hard to understand or able to skew or spin, but with the help of our seminaries, our pastors and sheep are able to study the Bible without understanding it. They are unable to connect the dots and put the pieces together, which include our heritage and the very things that brought about our once-free and Christian nation. If we refuse to accept the truth, we will and are suffering the consequences.

---

THE GATES OF HELL SHALL NOT PREVAIL.....

by Ray Rooney, Jr.

The Embattled Lord's Church will Never be the Defeated Church

It is hard to overstate just how important it is to believe and embrace the old adage that the Church is not the building but the people. Organized religion seems to be anything but organized today. Pluralism and narcissism have flooded into almost every neighbourhood church. Religious leaders and academicians assure good Christian folks that they need not worry about the cataclysmic cultural shifts taking place today. "God is driving the change," they say. "We know the Bible seems to provide clarity about today's social issues but it really doesn't. There's an awful lot of gray area around abortion, and sexual immorality, and marriage. The Spirit is blowing the winds of change and God's Church must get on board!"

Consequently, battles are raging in almost all Christian denominations as the bourgeoisie try to bring the proletariat into conformity. Confidence that Christian denominations are leading their flocks in the right direction has been seriously eroded. And the enemies of the Cross are simply delighted. When Christians squabble over whether homosexuality is a sin or a virtue despite the crystal clear language of the Bible then there is no clear prophetic voice speaking to the world, "THUS SAITH THE LORD!" Without that voice it almost feels like "it's everyone for himself."

It reminds me of Elijah fleeing the wrath of Jezebel in 1 Kings 19. He had just experienced complete victory over the false prophets of Baal. Yet Jezebel's threats and influence so intimidated him he wanted to throw in the towel (actually asked God to kill him). It feels so lonesome when you think you are by yourself in holding up righteousness. And that is just how so many faithful followers of God feel as they try to stand against the growing tide of evil in the world. Our Church leaders have capitulated to the desire to be admired by culture and have convinced a lot of the flock they are being used of God to bring about change (as opposed to the true agent of change: holy spirit. The faithful are dwindling in both number and influence, as the

---

Old Historic Videos:

DAY 51

The True Story of Waco

When the FBI Texas Police staged a raid on a church complex, and killed almost all inside including women and children (to save the children?!) What an out-of-control government can and will do after a 51-day stand-off.

CI-226 @ sug don $17

---

Highlights of the ### TWELFTH INTERNATIONAL REVISIONIST CONFERENCE

September 1994

Irvine, California

Institute for Historical Review

CI-227 @ sug don $17

older ones pass on but are not replaced by the next generation jumping into the gap. Many of us are longing for the return of Jesus but for the wrong reason. Not so much so we can sit at His feet, but so we can be delivered from Jezebel.

The good news is God's Word to Elijah that must still hold true to His faithful today. "I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal...." (1 Kings 19:18). God was in effect saying to Elijah, "Child, you are not alone and those who are faithful to Me will not fade into obsolescence." Ultimately, Elijah was taken away in a fiery chariot (2 Kings 2:11). Jezebel on the other hand, was tossed out a window, stomped on by horses, and eaten by dogs (2 Kings 9:30-37).

The faithful followers of God have always had (and always will) the very thing their detractors promise they won't: staying power. When will the enemies of truth and righteousness ever get it through their heads that no matter how hard they try and no matter how stacked in their favour both the odds and the numbers are in gaining ultimate victory over the Church ... they are doomed to failure. The Church; not the buildings; not the denominations with their headquarters and hierarchies; the people of God who refuse to bow their knees to whatever Baal is calling himself today (government, tolerance, diversity, acceptance, et./al). The people who are not compromising or capitulating but are "contend[ing] for the faith that was once for all delivered to the saints." (i.e. the separated ones of Israel, Jude 3).

To those who think they are winning the culture war because more and more politicians, judges, and religious leaders are coming over to their side and making life increasingly difficult for those narrow-minded fundamentalist religious types who actually think the Bible is to be read (daily!) and believed, I have some bad news .... We aren't going away and we will not disappear. You have been saying for literally centuries that Christianity will fade into obscurity. You have done everything from kill us to legislating our faith practices out of existence. Yet here we still are. When are you going to learn that the words of Jesus the Anointed cannot be undone: "I will build my ecclesia, and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matthew 16:18).

To the thousands who have not the name of Elijah but share his zeal for righteousness I say "You don't need a building or an institutional religious structure in order to succeed for God. Stay the course. Fight the good fight of faith. Don't worry about the odds or the superior numbers stacked against you. They never mattered to God. Only one thing matters to God: Faithfulness!

Courtesy the Wake-Up Herald, 605 Moore Rd. Newnan GA 30263

THE ANTICHRIST THEORY

by C.O. Stadsklev

The last chapter in the Old Scripture is one of the most timely and revealing chapters in the Bible on what will come to pass in the present end time. Verse 1 of Malachi 4 states: "For behold, the day cometh that shall burn as an oven; and all the proud, yea and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble; and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch." (see Obadiah 1:18)

The fact that this end-time prophecy is given in the last chapter of the Old Scripture gives it special significance and emphasis. We considered chapter 4 of Malachi in our booklet, Cleansing the Earth by Fire, so we will not expound it here. In that booklet we set forth the various types of fire God apparently will use as He cleanses and prepares the earth for the reign of Jesus. In this article we want to show from Scripture that we must now expect the destruction of the wicked and the deliverance of the righteous. In Malachi 3:18, we read: "Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not."

This is the exact opposite of what is taught by the promoters of the Antichrist and their one great Antichrist, who has had his allotted time. Let us compare verse 2 of Malachi 4 with verse 1 of Malachi 4: "But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall."

Note the contrast. Those who are proud and arrogant toward Jesus and do wickedly (sounds like homosexuals) shall burn like stubble, leaving them neither root nor branch. But to those who love and reverence the Anointed, this divine fire will bring healing and health to spirit, mind and body. "As calves of the stall" is a symbol of material and earthly blessings.

Malachi continues his end-time prophecy in vs 3 where we read: "And he shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts." It is very important that we understand and realize, "I shall do this, saith the LORD of hosts." This treading down of the wicked, who ignore and defy God's Word, will be accomplished by the spirit of God moving upon the people.

There must be some significance and meaning in the complete change of position in regard to God in government taken by preachers and churches recently. Whether intended or not, it is a turning to the Gospel of the Kingdom. And if this is a genuine moving of holy spirit, it will continue and increase. Malachi said that this holy fire "shall leave neither root nor branch." Preachers and churches will be terribly confounded and embarrassed when they see the roots being burned (compare Obadiah 1:18).

Malachi also prophesied that this divine fire would make the wicked "ashes" under the feet of the righteous. This is the exact opposite of what the Antichrist promoters preach. They teach that everything that is Christian, good and right will become ashes under the feet of some Antichrist. "Calves of the stall" are protected and provided for, but they are not raptured to heaven. This is not sarcasm nor sacrilege. Paul did not teach that the Lord comes to meet us on our way to heaven. Paul taught that we arise to meet the Lord when the Lord comes to earth.

There has been so much senseless and baseless preaching on some coming great Antichrist that such chapters as Malachi 4 do not mean a thing, and are seldom read. The word "Antichrist" appears only five times in the Bible and

Study Help:

A BIBLE GLOSSARY

by "Gabriel"

"It is the glory of God to conceal a thing..."

Proverbs 25:2.

An explanation of words and phrases as used in Scripture, such as:

Stone; Sun, Moon and Stars; Heaven; Soul; Gate; Milk-meat; Dogs; Clay; East-wind; Wine; Vanity; Angels; Babes; Trees; Devil; Beasts; Water; Evil; Satan' Hell; etc.

A helpful addition to your library

#422 @ sug don $25.50

only in the epistles of John.

1 John chapter 2 verse 22 & 23 state: “Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Anointed? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father; (but) he that acknowledges the Son hath the Father also.” John wrote “Even now there are many antichrists.”

In Isaiah 13:9 we read: “Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.” God’s purpose in the day of the Lord, which we are now in, is “he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it.” — the land. This is the opposite of what the promoters teach. They teach it is God’s purpose to turn this land over to the sinners and some great antichrist, and cause everything scriptural and Christian to be destroyed. Let us compare the antichrist theory with what Isaiah was inspired to write in Isaiah 33 verses 13-17. This is a most timely and reassuring prophecy. Verse 13 states:

“Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and ye that are near, acknowledge my might.” This call to “Hear,” was addressed to a people and a land that was “far off” from Isaiah in both time and distance. Verse 14 tells of the land and people. A far off is Zion: “The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites. Who among us shall dwell with the devouring fire? Who among us shall dwell with everlasting burnings?”

In prophetic vision, Isaiah saw that sinners in the far off land are afraid, and the hypocrites and the subversive are fearful. The reason why sinners and subversives are fearful is because they have become conscious of a strange “devouring fire.” This evidently is the same fire and burning Malachi referred to in chapter 4, and the same fire of God’s presence which was manifest at Mount Sinai. Moses referred to this holy fire in chapter 5 of Deuteronomy:

“And ye said, Behold, the LORD our God hath shewed us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice out of the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God doth talk with man, and he liveth. Now therefore why should we die? for this great fire will consume us: if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any more, then we shall die.”

Is it not reasonable to expect that the divine fire that was manifest at the establishment of the kingdom will also be manifest when the kingdom is cleansed and prepared for the reign of Jesus? Verse 15 of Isaiah 33 is clearly a reference to kingdom principles, laws and statutes. Those who walk in them have nothing to fear. Verse 15 states: “He that walketh righteously, and speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil.”

The promise to those who “walketh righteously...” in vs 16 is similar to the promise and prophecy we read in Malachi 4:2-3. Verse 16 promises: “He shall dwell on high: his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks: bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.” Here again, this is the exact opposite to what the antichrist promoters teach. The righteous will not need bread and water if they are raptured to heaven.

The idea that the Anointed comes halfway to earth and then retreats and flees back to heaven is wishful thinking by the Rapturists, which many seem to believe. It is the time called “the day of the LORD” which comes as a thief in the night, and not the Lord. Do thieves come with a shout, the voice of an archangel and with the trump of God? Whose secret is the secret rapture theory?

Verse 17 of Isaiah 33 is most beautiful: “Thine eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold the land that is very far off.” Those who insist on their antichrist teach: “Thine eyes shall see the antichrist ruling over all the earth, destroying everything that is Christian, scriptural, good and beautiful.”

“The land that is very far off” is not heaven. It is Zion, as we have read in verses 13 and 14. Before we leave chapter 33 of Isaiah, we should read verse 22: “For the LORD is our judge, the LORD is our lawgiver, the LORD is our king; he will save us.” We shall also compare the antichrist theory with what Isaiah was inspired to write in verses 16 through 21 of chapter 59.

Verse 16 states: “And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him.” Note, it does not say, “He saw there was no man ... and no intercessor: therefore” he abandoned us and all the earth to a great, adversarial antichrist. It states: “Therefore his arm brought salvation unto him,” over his adversaries and his enemies. “Salvation” here, as we learned is the salvation of Zion from its enemies.

Verses 17 and 18 indicate that this salvation involves vengeance and zeal by the Lord as He repays “fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies.” “For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a cloak. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.”

Other prophetic scriptures go into great detail on how God will save His kingdom people, the Anglo-Saxons, in this end time from their enemies, especially chapters 38 and 39 of Ezekiel and the prophecies of Joel and Zephaniah.

Verse 19 of Isaiah 59 refers to the effect this intervention by God—saving the Anglo-Saxons from the antichrists, communism and heathendom—will have upon the West first, later on those “from the rising sun”—the East. Psalm 98:2 and 3 describe it as follows: “The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen. He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.”

For a double witness we quote also Isaiah 52:10, “The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth shall see the salvation of our God.”

Still some available:

GENEVA BIBLE

hardback edition

#537 @ sug don $67.00

GENEVA BIBLE

boxed Black Bonded Leather

#538 @ sug don $87.00

Kindom Interlinear of the Greek Scriptures

#530 @ sug don $15.95

Ferrar Fenton Bible

Hardcover Translation

#531 @ sug don $53.25

Ferrar Fenton Bible

Black Leather softcover

#539 @ sug don $69.55

Back to verse 19 of Isaiah 59 where we read: “So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.”

Here again, Isaiah prophesied the exact opposite of what is taught in the antichrist theory. The antichrist theory teaches that when “the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall” take flight and retreat into heaven. The marginal rendering reads: “The Spirit of the Lord shall come as a rushing stream which the breath of the Lord driveth.” This is the opposite to the teaching that holy spirit will leave the earth and turn the whole world over to an antichrist.

In verse 20 of Isaiah 59 we read: “And the redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.” The greatest turning “from transgression in Jacob” (the Anglo-Saxons and kindred people) in the last 2500 years was the establishment of the Republic of the United States—a government based in the civil laws of the Scriptures. We have drifted far of course during the last 70 years, especially since December 1913 when Congress legalized the so-called Federal Reserve Act. But the Redeemer will bring Zion back on course. It is strange that Christians can read verse 21 of Isaiah 59 and continue to believe the theory of a one great future antichrist.

In verse 21 the Lord Himself said: “As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, not out of the mouth of thy seed’s seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.” (and we have people trying to tell us that is a ‘spiritual seed’ and not a physical one? Seems like literal physical descendants to me! CIM).

Here again, we have the Lord covenanting to do the exact opposite of what the future antichrist theory teaches the Lord will do. The antichrist theory teaches that holy spirit, the Lord and all Christians will retreat into heaven and abandon the whole earth to some future antichrist who will stop the preaching of God’s Word (that’s already happening by governments! Try preaching against sodomy).

We shall now examine the future, one great antichrist theory in the light of the New Scriptures. In Matthew 13:30 we read: “Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.”

In verses 38 through 43 we read: “The field is the world: the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are the children of the wicked; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the messengers. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in the completion of this age. The Son of man shall send forth his messengers, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; and shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.”

What could be plainer? “The field is the world” not the church. “The harvest is the end of the age.” (present world order). The kingdom is in the world and is to be cleansed. Regardless of whom or what the tares and the wheat are made to represent, Jesus said, “Gather together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them.”

The antichrist theory teaches the church is the field; the Christians are raptured first and the whole earth is given over to some terrible Antichrist. This is the opposite of what Jesus taught. There is no verse by verse exposition of the Lord’s kingdom parables in our churches today. One reason is that the kingdom parables destroy theories which are unscriptural, such as: the world reign of a future antichrist; the church is the kingdom; and Esau-Edom-Jewry is Israel. As we should expect, the Lord’s parables on the cleansing of the kingdom nation, called Zion by the prophets, is in perfect harmony with the prophecies of the prophets Micah and Isaiah.

The fire and the burning which Micah, Isaiah, and the Anointed referred to is the fire of holy spirit. And already, “The sinners in Zion are afraid; fearfulness hath surprised the hypocrites.” As we read in chapter 4 of Malachi, the fire of holy spirit, which will cause the wicked to have a sense of being burned and consumed, will strengthen, energize and inspire the righteous.

The Anointed said the wicked would first be bound in bundles to be burned. And “then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun (rulers) in the kingdom of their Father.” That kingdom is on earth now. The “sun” symbolises rulership. See Genesis 37:9-10.

The teaching that God will abandon the world to the reign of some future antichrist cannot be harmonized with what Jesus prophesied in Luke 17:26-30. Vs 25 states: “And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.” When Jesus said “the days of the Son of man,” he was referring to a time period rather than an event. The prophets called that time period “the day of the Lord” or “the great and terrible day of the Lord”—the period we are now in.

In verse 27 we read: “They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.” “... the flood came and destroyed them all” but Noah and those who believed and obeyed God were protected and provided for here on earth, in their earthly and physical bodies. They were not raptured to heaven, and the earth was not turned over to some great Antichrist..

Jesus continues in verses 23 and 29 of Luke 17: “Like-wise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all.” “Fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all”—but Lot and those who were with him were protected and provided for right here on earth, in their earthly physical bodies. See Genesis 19. Lot was not raptured to heaven. And the whole earth was not given over to some great Antichrist. “Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed” (Luke 17:30).

Apparently much cleansing, restitution and destruction of the wicked in this kingdom nation will take place before “the Son of man is revealed.” This is indicated in the Lord’s Kingdom parables. The Lord said, “As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire; so shall it be in

LOAN Video you may have missed:

THE DEVOLUTION OF LAW

Doug Phillips

Evolution has affected the thinking of our culture at every level: theology, family life, art, business, law, and public policy. Even Christians have become afraid of the Bible in some of the most practical ways, and as a result, our families are falling apart. This is not a day for timidity and complacency.

CI-674 @ sug LOAN don $7

the end of this age. The Son of man shall send forth his messengers, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity" (Matthew 13:40-41). "... shall send forth his messengers" implies going or coming before. Jesus also said, "Gather ye together first the tares in bundles to burn them."

This is also indicated in Psalm 110:1-2, "The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool. The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies." "Sit thou at my right hand until I make thine enemies thy footstool" could only be spoken to Jesus who "is on the right hand of God" (1 Peter 3:22).

We shall continue and compare 1 Corinthians 15:51-53 with Revelation 11:15 where we read: "And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Anointed (people); and he shall reign for ever and ever."

Paul wrote "..... at the last trump; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed." There are seven trumpets in the book of Revelation, and the seventh trump is the last. John wrote that when the last trump or seventh trumpet sounded "the kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Anointed (people), and he shall reign for ever."

So at the same time that the dead are raised and the living believers are changed in body, the Lord begins this earthly reign. The secret rapture teaching that turns the earth over to an antichrist is not a scriptural teaching. It is absurd to use 1 Thessalonians 4:15-17 as a basis for the secret rapture and the future antichrist theories. How secret would the following be?

"For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in (Anointing) Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord."

In order to have the apostle Paul support the theory of a secret rapture, Christians will turn Paul's words completely around. Paul said that when the Lord descends from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God, Christians shall be caught up to meet the Lord as He descends to earth. [note that the distance of clouds above the earth is generally measured in feet or meters, not in miles or light-years!]

The secret rapture theory teaches that the Lord comes as a thief to meet the Christians as they ascend to heaven (space??) and turn the earth over to an antichrist. Is this the comfort Paul had in mind when he wrote, "Wherefore comfort one another with these words"?

Paul continues in chapter 5 of 1st Thessalonians to make clear what he wrote in chapter 4 verses 15 through 17. In verses 1 through 4 of chapter 5 we read: "But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief."

Twice in this passage Paul said it is "the day of the Lord" (a time period) that would come as a thief, and not the Lord. This has happened. Few are aware of the time we are living in. In verse 3 Paul states clearly that the times and seasons would be the sudden destruction of the wicked.

In verses 25 through 29 in chapter 12 of Hebrews, the inspired writer refers to the time when God shall "shake not the earth only, but also heaven." We know from prophecy that this shaking comes to pass in the last days, the present time. Jesus said, "the powers of heaven shall be shaken." The purpose for this shaking is given in verse 27 of Hebrews 12: "And this word, Yet once more signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain."

The things that cannot be shaken and will remain are the things, ways and orders that are based on God's Word.

The things that are shaken and removed are systems, ways and practices that violate God's kingdom laws and principles. The next verse gives the following exhortation:

"Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear."

The future antichrist theory teaches the direct opposite. It teaches that a satanic antichrist will receive the kingdom and the whole earth, and everything that is scriptural and Christian will be removed and destroyed while that which is evil and wicked will remain and flourish. Note verse 28 states: "whereby we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved." That kingdom is on earth! Chapter 12 of Hebrews closes with the following words:

"For our God is a consuming fire." This is the same fire which Malachi, Isaiah and Jesus referred to, and the same fire the apostle Peter referred to in 2 Peter 3:7, "But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men."

The antichrist theory has served the many antichrists well. The preaching which has focused and directed all attention to one future antichrist has enabled the many antichrists to carry on their nefarious activities against Christianity in every sphere in our national life. With all Christians looking for some future antichrist, the many antichrists carried on their anti-Christian activities unsuspected, unexposed, and unopposed (while masquerading as 'God's chosen people').

In fact, the Christian churches have been the best smoke-screen and cover many antichrists have had during the last 70 years. But, thank God, the consuming fire will one day consume that smokescreen and covering. (Obadiah 1:18).

America's Hope Broadcasts, Box 938 North Branch MN 55056

A SECRET TO HAPPINESS

by Stephen Flurry

Learn not just to cope with frustrations, but to actually appreciate them

Life can be frustrating. But God wants you to be happy.

Yes, He wants you to learn and grow, and sometimes that requires allowing you to struggle and to exercise patience. But God can give you contentment, even as you struggle.

The Apostle Paul set an admirable example in this regard. He had an agonizing ongoing physical ailment (2 Cor. 12:7). He desperately desired God to remove it (verse 8). God's answer to his earnest plea was, "My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness" (verse 9). Don't worry about your weakness, God said. Focus on MY strength!

How did Paul respond? "Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Anointing may rest upon me," he said. "Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions in distresses for the Anointed's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong" (verse 9-10).

To those who spend their lives trying to avoid every discomfort, this outlook seems impossible—or crazy. But it isn't. Paul accepted that he would have to live with this weakness. Once he acknowledged that, his whole attitude changed. He viewed the trial as an opportunity for God to work things out. He appreciated that it would keep him humble. When Paul saw God's power at work, he actually became grateful for his infirmity.

Can you view your weaknesses as opportunities, they way Paul did? Paul encouraged us to always think on the positive (Philippians 4:8). He set the example in doing so (verse 9). He explained, "I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content" (verse 11).

Contentment was something Paul learned. For a long time, he woke up day after day—maybe year after year—with the same affliction, and was frustrated and discouraged. But over time, he learned how to cope with it, even to the point of rejoicing in it!

"I know how to be abased, and I know how to abound; in any and all circumstances I have learned the secret of facing plenty and hunger, abundance and want" (verse 13, RSV). This is the secret! This is how to face your circumstance, whatever it is: Learn how to be content.

Note the element of time involved in this formula. It takes time to ripen this fruit of contentment. "Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for him" (Psalm 37:7). "Those that wait upon the Lord, they shall inherit the earth ... and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace" (verses 9, 11). That is where true contentment leads. Godliness with contentment is great gain (1 Tim. 6:6).

Whether abased or abounding, Paul learned to thank God. Our human nature is the opposite. Whether abased or abounding, it always wants to get. It frets and strives and agonizes to get more for self. If and when we get it, we want more. And we want it all right now.

We want the best job, the fancy car, the nice home, the passionate romance, the new furniture, the large flat screen TV. But unbridled desire only spirals into endless frustration and failure and failure. Discontent with your savings account, your location, your education, your health, your singlehood or anything else actually dishonours God and betrays a lack of faith. It also leads to impatience and frustration that cause you to make terrible life decisions.

Live by God's Word instead: "Delight thyself also in the Lord; and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart."

Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass" (Psalm 37:4-5).

Day after day, month after month, trust in God. Rest assured that continually putting yourself into God's hands will yield good results in the end. "For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not." (Galatians 6:8-9). Don't allow yourself to get over anxious for a quick return. Let patience work its perfect work (James 1:4).

"Let your conversation be without covetousness and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee" (Hebrews 13:5). Put God first, and then be content with what He provides.

We often think, If I could just change this one circumstance, if I could just get this one thing I really want right now, my life would be fine and I would be content. But if and when you get the new device, the promotion, the respect, or whatever it is that you crave, you find that the discontentment has followed you right into your new circumstance!

Learn to be content in your present state. Delight in God, commit your way to Him, trust Him—and He will give you the desires of your heart!

Courtesy The Philadelphia Trumpet,

CHOOSE: HARD WORK? OR COMFY GRATIFICATION?

By Joel Hilliker

Why the counterintuitive choice is the right one

America, 1880s. On his family's farm in upstate New York, 9-year-old Almanzo Wilder grows up—working. He embraces considerable responsibility, and he yearns for more. Then the boy receives an offer of apprenticeship from the owner of the wagon shop in town.

Almanzo's father explains to him the benefits of the shop job versus farming: an easier life, shelter from the weather, fewer worries, plenty to eat, money in the bank. "But there's the other side too, Almanzo," James Wilder says. "You'd have to depend on other folks, son, in town. Everything you got, you'd get from other folks. A farmer depends on himself, and the land, and the weather. If you're a farmer, you raise what you eat, you raise what you wear, and you keep warm with wood out of your own timber. You work hard, but you work as you please, and no man can tell you to go or come. You'll be free and independent, son, on a farm."

That comes from Laura Ingalls Wilder's biographical book Farmer Boy. I got somewhat emotional reading it to my children the other day. Partly because of the touching interchange between a manly father and his son. And partly because of how foreign, how remote from life today.

There was a time in "the land of the free" when this was freedom. Being free to work, to provide for your family, free from dependence on others. Today, "freedom" has come to mean nearly the opposite. People seek freedom from responsibility. Freedom from consequences for inaction and failure. Freedom from having to work, provide, contribute, give or serve. The country that ascended the mountain to greatness has been transformed from rugged, moral and hard-working into soft and decadent. A 9-year-

Israel-Library-Builder: THE STORY OF CELTO-SAXON ISRAEL

W.H. Bennett - (CIBA-Canada)

This is the story of a missing branch of God's chosen people, the Israelites. Taken into captivity by Assyrians in the 8th Century BC, and never heard from again. Where did they go? Historian and scholar W.H. Bennett, a long-time Fellow of the Royal Geographic Society, spent 50 years following their trail. He examined leads such as language, heraldry, culture and prophecy fulfillment, solving at last the mystery of their disappearance.

Over 175 maps, charts & illustrations.

#349 @ sug don $33.13

old is way ahead if he is responsible enough to make his own bed.

And the wagon shop apprentice is a self-sustaining stalwart compared to our extreme dependency. Folks in town who make things people need are the least dependent among us; they're generating wealth in the private sector. Beside them America has millions of people on federal, state and local government payrolls, comprising the biggest sector of the national economy. Additional millions are even more dependent, living on hand-outs from myriad government societal programs, welfare, continuous unemployment benefits, nationalized retirement funds and health-care entitlements. Even our once-free and independent farmers live off federal subsidies.

In Britain the millstone of socialist entitlements is even heavier. And evidence shows these programs create as many problems as they purport to solve. Misguided welfare policies reward single mothers more than intact families. And since they subsidize it, they get more of it: Britain's welfare system has patently created a surge in broken homes. Britain pays 2.6 million people for being sick and incapable; over half a million of them are thought to be able to work, but unwilling. A hundred thousand on sick benefit are between ages 16 and 24. Three fourths of these youngsters are suspected of faking their sicknesses. And 20 percent of them have been receiving this money for at least 5 years. Unsurprisingly, the nation is also suffering an exploding epidemic of 16-to-24-year-olds who aren't going to school and aren't working—and a simultaneous epidemic of youth antisocial and even criminal behaviour (I wonder what percentage of these are of non-Saxon descent?). If he could have paused from his labour and peered into this future, Almanzo Wilder would have been incredulous.

Government tends to create dependents in order to justify and amplify its own existence. It promises the kind of freedoms Anglo-Americans have come to crave—freedom from responsibility, from work, from consequences. But the more we depend on government, the more we surrender our actual freedom—and compromise our character, and shrink within the confines of childhood in the shadow of the nanny state. This is one reason we have legions of grown men less capable, trustworthy and productive than the 9-year-old farmer boys of yesteryear.

Behold this regrettable manifestation of a pack of lies we promote and believe today: that honest work is a curse and idleness a blessing; that happiness comes from materialism; that luxuries are a birthright; that redistributing the wealth is only fair; that it is more blessed to receive than to give. Now, one in five Americans say the most practical way to amass wealth and the best hope of financial security is to win the lottery. Among those who make less than $25,000 per year, it's two in five. Not to work hard or service to the free market—but to flush money down a whirlpool of impossibility and cross your fingers.

NONSENSE! Don't believe the propaganda that life gets better only when it gets easier. Return to the Bible-based wisdom that helped build our nations. Give honest labour for honest wages. Turn down unnecessary handouts; shun get-rich-quick schemes (Proverbs 28:19-20, 22). Curb materialistic covetousness; live within your means. Stay out of debt. Apply yourself, be diligent and industrious (Proverbs 10:4). Commit to principled business conduct: fair transactions that benefit both buyer and seller. Take responsibility for your own (1 Timothy 5:8). Make God your partner, obey His Laws, and give Him His tithe (Psalm 1:1-3; Malachi 3:10).

This is the most practical way to build wealth, the best hope of financial security. Follow this wisdom, and you'll enjoy a considerable measure of actual freedom. And God promises in Joshua 1:8, "then thou shalt make thy way prosperous, and then thou shalt have good success."

Courtesy Philadelphia Trumpet, Box 3700 Edmond OK73083

THE FIRST SIN WAS NOT ADULTERY IT WAS A LIE

by pastor Charles Jennings

Now the serpent was more subtil—it denotes his nature, the Bible immediately says the serpent was very conniving—than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. And he said unto the woman, Yea hath God said, ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? He's using some lawyer-type approach. And the woman said unto the serpent: We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: but of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said "Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die." And the serpent said unto the woman: Ye shall not surely die.

THE FIRST LIE that was told was over the WORDS of God Almighty. Are you going to OBEY? ... or Are you going to DISOBEY?

Actually the words of God denoted that if you disobeyed, there's death waiting as a result of your disobedience. It's God's command ... So in other words, it's actually resisting the words of the Almighty, and calling Him a liar! The liar nature is still with us. It was defiance. And what the serpent was saying to the woman is that "there are no consequences to sin. If you sin, you will not die. If you eat of that tree, you will not die."

"I can do anything I want to." "There are no consequences to my actions" ... That's the attitude, and that has come over and been transported to every child that's born. "There are no consequences to my rebellion." "Maybe the other guy got hooked on alcohol, but I can handle it." "I can handle drugs." That attitude has ranged everywhere from an individual child to nations. The consequences of nations such as the US Supreme Court handing down the decision of Roe vs Wade ... God keeps a record...

There's a lot of information in the Bible about liars. We've been lied to politically, economically, religiously. It all started out: "There are no consequences to my disobedience to the commands of the Almighty." It's actually the promotion of wrongdoing. "You can do it and get by." But Moses said, be sure your sin will find you out. It may be 5 years down the track ... it may be 10 years down the line ...

What is the Purpose of Lying?

1. To deceive: to create a deliberate false statement; 2. To Create a mirage or false impression; 3. To Prevaricate: meaning to quibble over something and confuse the issue ... it's lying; 4. To Evade: being elusive, not straight forward; 5. To Equivocate: deliberate use of ambiguity; 6. To Fabricate: the invention of a false story. We're fabricated to every time you turn on the news; 7. Fib, which is a lie. But it's usually telling a falsehood about an unimportant matter. All this overlaps and is simply called lying.

You can pretty well bank on it, if it's coming over the national news network: They make up a story ... partial truth ... mix in a little different angle ... create a mirage ... they prevaricate ... they equivocate ... they fabricate.

Exposé

AMERICA'S DESTINY: Christ or Antichrist?

by Jack Mohr. A frank discussion of the Jewish problem and the future of this country as the Zion of prophecy. A Jack Mohr classic that every Christian needs to have a copy of.

#667 @ sug don $23.90

The Bible tells us Jesus the Anointed said I am truth. Truth is the opposite of lying. He said within Himself there is no variability or shadow of turning ... there's no evading of the truth. Pilate asked the question: "What is truth?" He was looking at Truth. Jesus is Truth. Jesus said I am Truth. Doesn't the Bible also say that God never lies ... He's not a man that He should lie? Jesus never lies.

Turn to 1 John 2:3-4, He that sayeth I know Him and keepeth not His commandments [Wow!] is a liar, and the truth is not in him. If anybody claims to know God and deliberately disobeys His commandments ... well, it's not nice to say it, ... but you're a liar. That's what The Book says. That should convict every one of us in our daily relationship and everything else.

Let's turn to Proverbs 6:16-29, These six things doth the Lord hate, yea seven are an abomination to Him: A proud look, a lying tongue, ... an heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in running to mischief; a false witness that speaketh lies, and he that soweth discord among brethren.

All those are created by telling lies. This is the Good Book. It gets a little harsh. We should be honest. Go to Proverbs 17:4, A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue. That's the character of liars.

Proverbs 30:5-6, Every word of God is pure; He is a shield unto them that put their trust in Him. Add thou not unto His words, lest He reprove thee, and thou be found a liar.

So preacher, watch your words, don't take anything away, don't add anything thereto. That's in the Old Testament and it's in the New Testament in Revelation.

Have you ever lied? Who got that cookie out of the cookie jar? Is that forgivable? Absolutely. But that's our nature. Did you cheat on your time card this week? We're faced with this every day. There is the saying that 'Honesty is the best policy.' But it has been improved upon: "Honesty is the only policy."

Lying goes on everywhere. It started in the Garden of Eden ... It's in our court system .... Yes, it's in the church! We know God forgives. But there are certain lies that are mentioned in Scripture that there seems to be no forgiveness for.

In Romans 1:25, Who changed the Truth of God into a lie; and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. These are pretenders, truth changers.

We could actually put in that category the theory of evolution. They took the emphasis of worship from the Creator and put it on creation. We can put body worship on that ... We can put gymnastics into that ... gymnastics is a word that came out of the Greek language, and they built this building called a gymnasium. And gymnastics means to exercise naked ... the emphasis is not upon the worship of the Creator, but its glorification of the human body. Or 'Dancing with the Stars.' Well, how do they dance? They take off as many clothes as they can and still be allowed by the FCC to broadcast.

Well, what are the results of changing God's truth into a lie? verse 26: For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature; ... God gave them up to vile affections, immorality, promiscuity ... and likewise also the men ... And in every state in this country we live in is fighting in some degree same-sex 'marriage.'

I'm just touching the highlights, but we are witnessing a dying civilization. We are witnessing a great civilization being choked to death because we changed the truth of God and gave excuse for sin ... Legal excuse, whether it comes from Oklahoma City or Washington DC. Churches excuse sin (it looks like a major portion of members will leave the PCUSA over the homosexual 'marriage' issue).

WE are living in a dying civilization, and it's because of lies. There are three types of liars: Truth Changers .... False Apostles .... Blasphemers. There were gnostics that said 'it's superior knowledge whereby we know God' ...

There are all kinds of isms. There's heathenism, Judaism, gnosticism, aryanism, catholicism, deism, pantheism, unitarianism, universalism, relativism, demonism, atheism, rationalism, higher criticism; pick one! They're all against God. You know God by 'mental consent.'

Just one word in passing, if you're going to school and you're taking American literature, be careful! All the classical poets of America—basically all of them—were romanticists and they taught Transcendental Meditation. Take the textbook and put it in File 13. It's Longfellow, Whitier, Edgar Allen Poe, Nathaniel Hawthorn, Thoreau, all of them. We have been bombarded with Transcendental Meditation (TM). It's a sneaky way of lying. It's a devilish way of getting into the minds of our young people.

Why don't they have Jonas Clark, or Witherspoon's writings in school? Oh, no. That would be mixing religion, church and state. Lying is everywhere folks, BE AWARE! Read those textbooks, throw some of them out (File 13, the bin). Be aware that the people that put those textbooks together are unGodly people and most likely they are Jews. That's just a statement of fact.

Revelation 2:9, and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of the adversary. He called them blasphemers, pretenders, imposters, making false claims. What's the claim? "I'm of the tribe of Judah." These are the words of Jesus Himself. Jesus said I know the blasphemy of them that say they are of the House of Judah and are not.

Folks, we are in a death struggle to preserve our faith. They're liars. The degree of lying builds up. What is the definition of Blasphemy? According to the New Testament, Jesus was accused of blasphemy because He had a 'false claim.' So we can say false claiming is blaspheming because they are claiming to be something which they are not.

The church at Smyrna was actually commended and considered to be 'rich' because they identified the blasphemers.

Go to 2 Chronicles 19:2, Ahab is going to war and needs help from Jehoshaphat. Shouldst thou help the unGodly, and love them that hate the Lord? Therefore is wrath upon thee from before the Lord. Helping the unGodly was his sin. Because in 18:21 And he said I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets—the best way to get Ahab's attention was to be a lying prophet.

Lying Prophets Convince the Innocent to Help the Ungodly

Why are Christians helping the unGodly? Because there's a lying spirit in the land. It's the mouth of Politicians, Press, Professors, Preachers, and Prophets. All those

New Video:

How to Stay Healthy, pts 1 & 2. + Pregnancy & the Danger of Ultra-Sound

by Dr. Robert Mendelsohn

who explains how we can be healthy and what we need to do to protect ourselves from the medical profession. Most medications are dangerous with severe side effects.

Having children and breast feeding protect against breast cancer.

#CI-982 @ sug don $8

begin with a 'P.' And there's one more, the description for all of them: Pusillanimous. That means 'no back bone.'

Let's go to 1 John 2:18 Little children, it is the last time: and you have heard that antichrists shall come, even now there are many antichrists. They were already there 2,000 years ago. Go to verse 22, John is quite blunt: Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Anointed. God give us some more Johns in this generation that have old fashioned intestinal fortitude/guts. He is anti-christ, that denieth the Father and the Son. If you deny the Son, you deny the Father. Evangelical people are believing a lie.

Go to 1 John 4:1-2 Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus the Anointed is come in the flesh is of God. And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus the Anointed is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist ... and now already in the world. ... Greater is He that is in you than he that is in the world..

2 John:7 For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus the Anointed is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. In Matthew 4:6 wasn't it the Pharisees that said if thou be the Son of God ... for they were there by the riverbank and heard the voice from heaven, saying, This is My beloved Son...

You notice they did not come and say 'You are not the son of God.' It was the same bunch for 3-1/2 years that contested His Sonship. They're not coming to the church these days and saying 'Jesus is not the Son'—'The Bible is not true.' Jesus said for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light. (Luke 16:8).

The biggest lie is over who is Jesus the Anointed. What is the root of unbelief? It's a lie. The Bible tells us in Matthew 26:57, And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest. These were not Roman soldiers; they were under the authority of the high priest. vs 59-61, Now the chief priests and elders, and all the council, sought false witnesses (What? Liars!) against Jesus, to put him to death ... At the last came two false witnesses; and said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build it in three days.

What category would that come under? Twisting ... 'I am able to build it in 3 days.' It all goes back to Who is in charge—or Who is Jesus.

Matthew 28:11-15, Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things that were done. Why didn't they go to Pilate? (Because they were the High Priest's guard, NOT Roman soldiers) They gave large money unto the soldiers—"boys, I'm going to tell you what to say, to say the right thing"—Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole Him away while we slept ... So they took the money and did as they were taught. What do you call those people? They took the bribe ... and this saying is commonly reported among the Jews until this day ... Liars.

Let's go to Revelation. Jesus is the writer, John was the Scribe. 21:8, But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers (including those performing abortions), and whoremongers, and sorcerers (legal and illegal drug dealers), and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. It's referring back to the people He had already called liars. He's talking about those that deny Jesus the Anointed came in the flesh.

from a sermon by pastor Charles Jennings titled: Pretenders,

False Apostles, Blasphemers, Pseudes and other Liars. More can be found at www.truthinhistory.org.

Courtesy Hear Ye! Hear Ye! GPO Lead Hill, AR 72644

A 20TH CENTURY RIDDLE

by Michael A Hoffman II (1991)

When is hate propaganda not hateful? Answer: When it promotes hatred of Whites, Christians, Germans and Palestinians.

More than forty-five years after WWII, and old hatreds are still being dug up by the media. The "bury the hatchet" sentiment is nowhere in sight today. Nazism is too lucrative. Put a swastika on the cover of a book or video and it will sell.

Disaffected White youths with little factual knowledge of the actual historical record of the chivalry and civilization of Germany and the American South, get their behavioural cues from Hollywood's TV make-believe and proceed to imitate grotesquely sensationalized Tinseltown (Kosherdale) versions of how Germans and White Southerners supposedly acted in the past.

The multi-billion dollar "Holocaust Survivor" industry reanimates the cadavers of Hitler and Company on TV almost nightly and presents them in the most hyped and pornographic manner possible.

During the entire 12 years of Hitler's dictatorship, exactly three anti-Jewish movies were produced. In our time, three anti-German, anti-White, anti-Christian or anti-Arab films are sometimes produced every week. Journalist Patrick J. Buchanan: As we look at our crime capitals—Washington, Detroit, Phoenix, Miami, New York, LA—how many are victimized by Klan terror? Of 20,000 murders reported each year, how many are the work of Neo-Nazis? One, two, five? Recently, the National press reported that one in four Black males are locked up, or on probation or parole (1990).

The non-reproducing birthrates, catastrophic abortion rates, miscegenation and fratricide afflicting Whites are ominous signs of drastic decline, symptoms of a profound self-hate which is being artificially instilled in us through the perpetual dissemination of lies and negative stereotyping about us on television.

Bearing false witness against a single individual is regarded as a grievous crime under the Common Law. What magnitude of crime is it to bear false witness against an entire nation of people, perpetually, on television, in books, magazines, newspapers, and at the movies and theaters, as the System's media have done

www.revisionisthistory.org

Well the biblical New Year came and went, on March 21, the autumn/spring equinox (depending if you're in the northern or southern hemisphere). There is much (scaremongering) going on in the world, but do not be dismayed. God will soon bring it to a final conclusion, with the removal of the tares to be burnt in bundles - and it does seem like the tares are sticking up their proud arrogant heads, while the wheat are hanging their heads in sorrow. May the messengers start the harvest soon.

We sent a donation to the Loeries Children's Home in South Africa, and they confirmed receiving about 17,000 ZAR (South African Rands) by the time it was converted. The Loeries management send their thanks to all who helped. The next donation will God willing, be sent in September, if any want to contribute towards that.

Thank you again to those who continue to support us and help getting new people on the list. The older generation is passing away and the new generations need to fill the gap, and teach their children to do likewise. May our heavenly Father send His blessing on those who are called, and chosen, and faithful, Bless you,

Hendrik (Bank) Roelofs 14

#347 Ph 07 4066 0146 email: hr\_cim@bigpond.com

